At first they just kissed and hugged, pressing their nude bodies up against the other as their faces merged and their tongues reached out. Eventually MJ laid on his back, putting his erection on full display. It actually pointed back up towards his head but didn't touch his stomach thanks to the stiffness of his erection. Without ever taking so much as a glance my way. Nancy moved between his legs and got down on her hands and knees with her face positioned over his crotch, stroking him with her right hand as she looked at him with the most perfect picture of a girl in love with her man.

"Suck it," I barely heard him say as he whispered his desires to her. Nancy smiled and nodded before dipping her head down to take his dick in her mouth. She didn't use her hands, just taking the tip of his dick in her mouth and then moving her head to cause it to move deeper in her mouth. She took him in slowly, like a she was swallowing a sword in a circus. She only got about half way down before she stopped and just held it there like she was sucking on a warm popsicle.

It was killing me watch them. After sucking Joe's cock earlier, all I had been thinking about since was how much I wanted him to fuck me and now here I was, playing the part of a voyeur, forced to masturbate I looked over at Joe and I wondered just HOW passed out he really was? After all, I've gotten more than a few guys good and hard even when they were sound asleep. Oh well, what did I have to lose?

Reaching over, I undid Joe's belt buckle and then unsnapped his jeans before pulling down the zipper all the way to the bottom. Pulling the flaps apart, I once again saw his underwear underneath. It was a bit of a struggle but I managed to pull his jeans and underwear down to his knees and then with a final tug, got them completely off. His shirt was still on but that wasn't stopping me from getting to where I was headed - his dick. It was limp and flaccid, nestled in his pubic hair like a baby in a crib.

Taking it in my hand, it felt warm and soft, so much smaller than it had been the last time I had held it. A last look over at MJ and Nancy, who was still sucking on his dick nice and slow, and I dived down to his crotch and took his limo dick in my mouth. It felt so soft, stretching out as I tugged on it with my mouth.

At first there was no reaction at all from Joe, not even a twitch of a muscle. After a few minutes I was about call it a failure when I felt it. It wasn't much just a little pulse, but his cock had definitely moved in my mouth. I redoubled my efforts, sucking on it more like a nipples than a dick, like I was trying to bring life back to it once again. My efforts were rewarded as I felt his dick start to grow, almost imperceptibly at first and then there was no doubt - he was growing an erection! There was no change in his expression or anything else to indicate he was concisely aware of what was happening to him, but his dick certainly knew.

As his dick continued to swell and lengthen in my mouth, my heart was beating faster and I wondered how far I would be able to take him. There's just something about the feeling you get when a guy's dick swells in your mouth that I never will grow tired of. It's like it's a validation of my sexuality, of my ability to cause a man to become sexually excited. His dick wasn't growing because he was turned on by some Playboy model. No, it was ME that was making this happen. It was MY mouth that was making his dick grow.

I looked over at Nancy and for the first time, I noticed her looking my way. Our eyes met and she grinned, at least as best she could with her fiance's dick in her mouth. I smiled back at her and gave her a thumbs up. Now THIS beat hanging around a smoky casino floor any day!

By now, Joe's dick was nice and hard once again. Admittedly, it would have been better had he been conscious and could tell me how I was doing but his dick was doing a pretty good job in its own way. Hey, a hard dick's a hard dick and when you're horny, you take what you can get!

Over on the other bed, Nancy had mounted MJ and was rocking back and forth with her hands on his chest to support her. I could just make out his dick as it slid in and out of her almost hairless pussy. Judging from the way she was moaning, it must have felt pretty good! I thought about it for a moment and then figured, why not? Although I had sucked more than a few guys while they were asleep, as a rule they woke up once things got going. It was definitely one wake-up call they never complained about! In his case, Joe wasn't showing any signs of waking up so it was time to take things into my own hands, or should I say pussy?

Letting go of Joe's dick for the moment, I got myself up and straddled his still body. Lowering myself down on him, I felt his hard cock up against my pussy and I swung my hips such that it rubbed up against me and moved back and forth over my pussy. God I wanted him in me so damn bad! Reaching back down again, I took his cock in my hand and positioned it just under me and rubbed the head of his dick against my pussy hole, just barely letting It penetrate me. Once again I looked over at Nancy and this time it was her that was watching me. She was sitting on top of MJ, his dick shoved deep inside of her, while the two of them had their heads turned to see what was happening in the next bed.

"You're going to fuck him?" she asked me, a tone of disbelief in her voice, "Like THAT?"

She may have been incredulous but MJ, like a typical guy, was grinning from ear to ear. Even with his girlfriend mounted on his dick like a stick in a caramel apple, his interest was focused on another girl. I bet he had never seen anything like this before, let alone live and just a few feet away.

"Well, you didn't offer to share MJ, so what choice do I have," I responded, a little tease on my voice but underlying it I was more than a little bit serious about what I said.

Before she could respond, I turned my attention back to the dick I was holding and held it still as I dropped my ass down onto it. I felt his head push against my pussy hole and then it penetrated me, forcing my pussy open as it drilled its way into me.

I gasped as I felt that incredible feeling you get when a cock first enters you. It doesn't matter if it's the first time or the 200th time, it still makes me shiver when I feel this warm object filling my pussy. God, I had wanted this SO damn much. Who cared if the guy it was attached to had no idea what was happening? All I wanted was his warm hard dick in me, not to listen to him.

Once the initial thrill of seeing me all but date-rape Joe (can girls really do that?), MJ and Nancy seemed to lose interest, or at least were more interested in each other than me. Couldn't blame them - why watch when you're involved in the real thing? As I fucked Joe's dick (I guess that's what you would call it), I watched the two of them move into various positions, going from the initial cowgirl to doggie and then spooning. From the way she whined every time his dick pulled out if her, even if it was intended to in order to change positions, you would have thought she had never been fucked before.

I let my weight settle down on Joe's lap and just wiggled my hips enough to feel him move inside of me. Amazingly, he had stayed hard as a rock - or maybe NOT so amazingly I guess when you consider most guy's inbred level of horniness. Using my fingers, I played with my pussy, rubbing my wet clit with my finger tips and then letting them touch his hard shaft just as it penetrated me. Feeling his dick, it seemed almost impossible that this was what I was feeling deep inside of me.

My orgasm arrived without much warring, like stepping out into a street unaware and suddenly being struck by an incoming truck. I felt my pussy tighten its grip on Joe's dick, squeezing down on it hard. Had he been awake, he probably would have been groaning from the sensation of my pussy tightening and my cum being released like a flood, soaking his crotch with my pussy cum. My head dropped back and I closed my eyes as my world shrunk to where the only thing that existed for me was my pussy where my fingers were rubbing my ultra- sensitive clit and his dick was deep inside of me. I swung my hips forward and back, driving his dick in and out of me just enough to keep my orgasm on a pinnacle of the most incredibly sensual feelings.

Exhausted (after all, I was doing all the work here!), I leaned forward and dropped down to his chest, letting my boobs press against his hair chest and hugging him with his dick still buried in me. My pussy throbbed and I wished that he would cum but so far, that hadn't happened. Actually, I wasn't sure if he could when he was passed out this way. How much of his orgasm was purely physically versus mental. My guess was that it was probably about 90% physical but even then, without the last 10% could he cum? So far, the answer was no. Oh well, at least I had!

Nancy and MJ were still fucking. They were back in the doggie position with Nancy facing away from me and MJ standing on the floor with her ass at the edge of the bed so he could stuff her pretty pussy with it. She seemed to be enjoying it if her moaning and cries of "Fuck me harder!" were any indication.

5. He's Only Engaged, Not Married

It didn't seem quite fair. Oh sure I had technically been fucked but it may as well have been a warm dildo for all the personal attention I had received. Yeah I had cum but then I would have had I kept masturbating. It was a bit of a thrill to do something I had never done before - screw a sleeping guy.

Once again, I figured I had nothing to lose. If I didn't try, then I would always be left wondering what would have happened if I had. I don't think a jury in the world would have convicted me for what I was about to do.

Getting out of bed, I moved over to their bed and took a position next to Nancy, except I wasn't on the bed but just leaning over it with my legs spread apart.

"Would you like to fuck me too MJ?" I asked seductively, wiggling my wet pussy like a teen teasing as she walked down the mall.

MJ had his hands on Nancy's hips as he thrust his dick in and out of her but he stopped once I made my offer. He looked confused and who could blame him. He was screwing his beautiful fiance and now another girl was offering herself unconditionally to him. It was probably every guy's wet dream but Nancy had yet to weigh in.

"What the hell?" she asked, twisting around to see what was going on. She saw me and instantly knew what I wanted.

"Kelly, we're engaged!" she protested, "He's going to be my husband!"

"Well, he's not yet so why not let him have some fun while he can?" I rationalized for her. Looking at MJ, a huge grin plastered over his face, it was obvious what his vote would have been had I asked. Only problem, his vote didn't count.

"No, it's not right," she protested.

"I don't think MJ agrees with you," I teased her, "I think he wants two pussies tonight, don't you MJ?"

"Oh Nancy, lighten up, let the poor boy enjoy himself." I countered. Turning back to MJ, I grabbed my ass with both hands and pulled my cheeks apart to expose my asshole and pussy to him. "C'mon MJ, fuck me, you know you want my pussy."

Looking back, I didn't think he would do it. Although Nancy wasn't being TOO vocal about it, , kept the pressure on MJ. To my surprise, he pulled his dick out of her and I saw him move his wet cock over and behind me and without any fanfare, pushed it in my pussy and started fucking me.

"Oh MJ, that feels so good," I moaned.

"I can't believe you're fucking her," Nancy huffed, "You know you're screwing my maid of honor, don't you?"

I grinned at her and said, "Well, I know that traditionally the best man is supposed to fuck the maid of honor but you haven't told me who he is yet so the groom will just have to do for now."

"You're impossible, you know that?" Nancy muttered as she dropped to her side to watch MJ fuck me.

Seeing her with her pussy glistening in the soft light, I would have loved to have her in front of me so I could eat her pussy while her fiance fucked me. THAT wasn't going to happen, just him fucking me was already more than I had ever expected.

MJ has grunting, his thrusts taking on a sense of urgency. God, was he about to cum?

"Cum in me," I begged him, taking the chance that he was on the verge.

Although I couldn't see him behind me, I knew he must have looked to Nancy as she just shrugged and looked a bit dejected.

"Why the hell not?" she huffed, "Hell, may as well do it all to her while you're at it 'cause you're not getting any of THAT pussy again."

"You heard her MJ, give it to me," I urged him, "Fuck me and cum in me."

"Oh shit," he suddenly groaned and he rammed himself deep inside of me. His cock started to surge and the first load of warm cum spurted for his dick into my waiting pussy.

"Mmmmmmm, more... give me all of it," I moaned, loving every drop of cum he was depositing in me.

"Go on MJ, do it, it's what you wanted, isn't it?" Nancy chimed in. Somehow she didn't sound too sincere but I don't think MJ was in any condition to notice such subtleties.

Finally he let go his last shot and I felt his thick hairy crotch press up against my smooth ass,. It felt good knowing his sperm was in me, especially under the circumstances where it should have been given to his fiance. Well, it wasn't like they were actually married, at least not yet.

"Happy now?" Nancy taunted me. I nodded and she pointed to the other bed, her intentions obvious. She wanted her man back!

Nancy sucked on MJ until he was ready to go again. Not bad in terms of recovery time! I slipped under the covers, leaving Joe on top with his pants removed. At some point I must have fallen asleep because he next thing I knew the room was lit with sunshine and I woke to the sound of MJ snoring. God, he was louder than my dad! Nancy and he were under the covers but I could tell from the lumps and positions that Nancy was draped over him as he lay on his back.

6. Joe Does the Future Bride

Joe hadn't moved an inch but when I moved up close to him he started to wake up.

"God, what happened?" he asked, still in a bit of a haze. "Where the hell are my pants?"

Joe looked at me accusingly and then it was like the light bulb went on and he knew what must have happened.

"So did we...?" he started out, obviously not remembering a thing.

I reached over and kissed him on the cheek, avoiding his mouth until he got up and brushed his teeth.

"You were great baby," I whispered huskily to him. I didn't bother telling him that he hadn't been awake for any of it then who cared? After all, I'd gotten what I wanted and since he wouldn't have remembered it anyway, did it matter if he was awake or not?

"I take it they must have a good night as well?" he asked, looking over at the still figures of MJ and Nancy. I just grinned, leaving him to wonder what THAT was all about.

Joe reached for me, his intentions obvious. This time he wanted to remember it!

"Ummmmm, shower first?" I said to him, trying not to be mean but he needed one badly!

Joe rolled his eyes and go off the bed, his shirt was pulled up and his ass looked not as he walked to the bathroom. Yeah, I could definitely have some more of that!

Joe hurriedly took his shower. I think he was horny and anxious to get back for a piece of me. While he was in the shower, I was looking over at MJ and Nancy and by the time he came back, I knew what I wanted.

"There, better now?" he announced, using a towel to dry his hair as he came back in view all clean and nude. He started to get in bed with me but I pushed him away.

"What now?" he asked.

I nodded my head over towards MJ and Nancy and said softly, "I want you to fuck her first."

"What?" Joe responded incredulously, "She'd kill me, not to mention what MJ would do."

"Look at them, they're out," I pushed him, "By the time she wakes up it'll be too late for her to say anything. What's the matter, never fucked a sleeping girl before?"

"As a matter of fact... NO," he answered firmly.

"But I bet you want to," I teased him.

"God you're such a tease."

"And you love it."

Joe just grinned even broader at that one and I noticed he was getting hard.

"Did he fuck you last night too?" Joe asked, assuming he had fucked me as well.

"What do you think?" I said, trying to look innocent.

"Yeah, you did," he teased, "I can see that look in your eyes.:

"So now it's your turn - go on, do her," I urged.

Joe had this giant smile on his face and held his hard dick in his hand as he approached their bed. He cautiously lowered the covers until the nude forms of the two of them were exposed.

"How do I...?" Joe asked quietly, looking back at me. She was on her side, almost over her stomach, with one leg draped over MJ.

Joe got up on the bed and reached down for her pussy between her legs. He gently pushed one finger up her pussy, drawing the wetness from her to lubricate himself and her pussy. I held my breath, afraid to even sigh as I watched Joe maneuver himself into position. Slowly and carefully, he started to push his dick up inside of her!

He was maybe half way in when she stirred, her hand reaching back to swat away whatever it was that was intruding on her sleep. Her hand met Joe's nude body and she instantly awoke.

"What the hell?"

Nancy struggled to move but Joe had her pinned down as he started to stroke himself in and out of her.

"You're fucking me!"

Well duh, glad to see she recognized what he was doing. I quickly moved over to her bed and leaned over her and stroked her hair.

"I just wanted to repay your hospitality last night."

"You're crazy girl," she protested, although I noticed she wasn't trying to wiggle free anymore.

"Joe's got a great cock, don't you think Nancy?"

"Oh shit... god he does," she sighed.

Not having cum the night before, even though he had been asleep when I played with him, Joe must have built up a huge load of cum in himself because he certainly wasn't lasting very long this morning.

"I think he's about to cum in you," I whispered in her ear, leaning over her.

Nancy wasn't talking at this point. Her eyes were shut tight and she was letting Joe do the work as she just pressed up against MJ while Joe fucked her.

"Cumming!" Joe announced as I saw his ass clench as he prepared to unleash himself in Nancy.

Joe rammed his dick in her for the first load and then he pulled out and started shooting cum all over her ass and pussy. God, he must have had a quart of it stashed away somewhere from all the mess he made all over her, not to mention the first, and probably biggest, one he'd let loose. I reached down and scooped some of his cum off her pretty ass with my finger, taking a taste of it and then offering it to Nancy who sucked it off my finger. What I would have REALLY loved would have been to put my face to her pussy and lick it out but she had already gone past her personal limits as it was

I took Joe by the hand and led him back to our bed where we laid together, leaving Nancy to savor her morning wake-up call. As we moved around, it must have been enough for MJ to finally awaken. Nancy kissed him and before you knew it, the horny girl with the freshly fucked pussy was wanting more, but this time from her man.

You ready for another round?" I teased Joe, reaching down to grab his wonderful dick. Thankfully he hadn't gone totally soft yet and I knew he just needed a little BJ to get back in the saddle again,

Eventually we fucked to the point we were hungry and ready for breakfast. Nancy went in to take a shower and didn't seem too surprised when I joined her. I wondered if she realized how much she turned me on and how I would have let the boys go down and gamble the rest of the day if she would have gone to bed with me. Oh well, maybe someday, who knows?

The rest of the day went relatively uneventful. I would say by the time we left we were about even when it came to our winnings and losses, not a bad deal for the time we spent there. On the way home we discussed their upcoming wedding but didn't talk about what happened in the hotel room. If there was one thing I wouldn't let Nancy forget though, and it was her offer for me to fuck the best man. Now all I had to do was find out who he was. Who knows, maybe the groom would be available as well - whether she knew it or not!

My first year in college was a challenge, just as it is for most every student. On top of all the cultural and social adjustments, I had the additional issue of having to go practically cold-turkey without sex. The Christian university I attended was quite adamant about the rules that forbade any such conduct. As luck would have it (or maybe an answer to prayer?) my roomie was bi and she quickly became my first true "lesbian" partner (I didn't really count what I did with my mom and aunt as being that type of relationship).

What I didn't know was that back home my dad was having similar "withdrawal" issues and so he turned to my younger cousin for relief, It wasn't until the following July Fourth after my freshman year was over that I learned the truth. I wasn't really all that surprised and besides, it also opened the door for Kristen and I to start fooling around more together. Our double dates became a LOT more interesting as you might imagine!

When it comes to sex, Kristen and I have quite different attitudes and preferences. Over the years, I've been fucked by my fair share of guys but I really prefer a one-to-one relationship over some impersonal gangbanging at a party. Kristen, on the other hand, LOVES parties where "the more the merrier" is her motto. She simply LOVES being the center of attention so the fewer girls there, the better so far as she is concerned. I've probably had twice as many guys on my own as she has but when you take into account the parties, she has me more than doubled in a total cock count. That is a conservative estimate as well since she doesn't keep a diary like me.

Another difference is our age preferences. While I enjoy a good fucking from a young stud as much as the next girl, I find it to be repetitive and emotionally unsatisfying in that all they seem to care about is getting in your pants and adding another notch to their belt. It's typically the old slam, bam, thank you ma'am style where once they cum, the party's over. My preference is older men, maybe in their thirties or forties although I've done older, who seem to be as anxious to please me as themselves.

Maybe it has to do with the fact most of them can only cum once before having to take a break so they try to stretch it out as long as possible. Personally, I think it is mostly just an indicator of maturity. For me, the ultimate pure "fuck" is a married guy with kids, preferably a teenage girl. The fact that a married man will break the most solemn vow he has ever made to his wife before God, just to spend a few hours with me is about as erotic and ego-building as anything I can think of. Pile onto that a father-daughter role play and you have the makings for a great evening!

As for Kristen, the easiest way to explain her preferences for men is to simply reverse everything you just heard about me. She never dates older men, excluding my dad of course who really doesn't count as a "date". The way her mind works, the younger the better (well, they have to be at least fourteen - I think). It COULD have been hard for her when she turned eighteen as her appetite for younger boys didn't change just because she reached a particular birthday. The reason I say "could" was that she simply ignored the issue and went right on as if nothing had changed.

Another other area where Kristen and I differ dramatically is our relationships with our mothers. Both of us enjoy close relationships but with my mom, most of the time I would describe her as my very best friend. I've always been able to confide anything with her and her advice and counsel to me over the years has been priceless. Although we do periodically have sex, it didn't start until after me and my dad started and even then, we don't do it very often. When we do, it's usually quite intense and extremely personal and emotional. To put it into perspective, with my dad it's all about pleasing him and satisfying his needs. With my mom it's about two women making love, sharing one another in every possible way.

As I mentioned earlier, since she didn't have a father and her mom didn't have a husband, the two of them started sleeping in the same bed right after the divorce. Of course, at that age nothing happened between the two of them, it was for emotional support and security instead. As Kristen grew older, she became more curious about her mom, especially when it came to masturbation, dildos, and the things she did with her dates that she brought home, especially in their bedroom. Even they can't say precisely when they started doing one another, it was instead the sort of thing that just gradually grew between them, as natural as her budding boobs or the awakening of her pussy.

Another significant difference involving our mothers is due largely to the fact that my mom is married and my Aunt Linda is single. Although my mom may have spied a few times when I brought a boy home for sex, she has never participated or even hinted at such a thing. My mom loves my father even more today than when they were married and the thought of committing adultery would NEVER even enter her mind. My Aunt Linda doesn't have that sort of bond or "restriction", if you want to refer to marriage in that way. She dates frequently and has a healthy sex life.

It's easy to see where Kristen gets her love of young boys from - her mother. While my aunt dates guys her age most of the tine, she doesn't mind dallying with a few younger guys now and then. Normally this means over eighteen but I personally know of at least a couple instances where Kristen shared a boy she had brought home. When you think about it, what sixteen or seventeen year-old boy would turn down the opportunity to be tag teamed by a sexy MILF and her daughter?

Finally, Kristen chose to attend a public university close to home but still lives in the coed dorms where she quickly gained a "reputation". This was in comparison to the virtual nunnery of a school I attended where (not only did we NOT have coed dorms, even as a senior having a guy in my on-campus apartment was grounds for expulsion. Personally, I was more interested in the school's education department reputation despite the rules whereas Kristen was more interested in the school's party reputation despite the education! Not that the school she attended was all that bad, but you get the picture.

So now I'm the college graduate and Kristen is getting ready for her junior year. We often get together; not just for sex but just because we had grown up so close together in "only child" families that we were virtually sisters.

2. Watching Tributes With Kristen

Sometimes when she comes over I show her my e-mails and tributes that people send me after reading my diary. Many times, these have included "tributes" to her and her mom. (For those who haven't heard, a "tribute" is where a guy takes a picture of a girl and pays "tribute" to her by masturbating as he looks at and then cumming all over it, taking a pic later of the results.)

"Damn, look at all that cum!" she remarked as I pulled up a particularly well-splattered photo of her in her bikini. She had just dropping in with her mom a little earlier and while the mothers had coffee, Kristen and I had retreated to my bedroom where I wanted to show her some of the latest tributes that had been sent to me for her.

"Yeah, and look where most of it went," I pointed out.

"Oh yeah, all over my pussy and tits," she laughed. "Well, I guess we know what he was thinking about when he came!"

"Here, watch this one," I said, double clicking on a movie file I'd recently received. "Oh my god, it's mom!" she giggled. The video showed a picture of my aunt on some guy's computer screen with him stroking his rather sizeable cock in front of it.

"Wow, he's pretty big," Kristen commented, as if she had to tell me!

"Can you imagine what he must have thinking when he was doing this?" I asked her, leading her on to see how horny I could get her.

"Oh for sure," she said, laughing out loud finally. "Let's see... my mom on the screen, hard dick in his hand, hand stroking hard dick... I think I can figure this one out for myself!"

I sized the windows so we could watch the video of the guy jerking off to the pic of her mother while at the same time we could see several examples of photos paying tribute to her in various outfits.

"God, I can't believe all these guys send these to you!" she gushed, her voice starting to sound a little husky as I could tell she was getting more and more turned on.

I reached over and put my hand between her legs. She was wearing denim shorts ripped high enough that there was only a sliver of material running through her crotch and even that was being pulled up between her pussy lips, not leaving a whole lot to the imagination.

"Mmmmmmm, I think somebody's horny," I chuckled.

"And your point?" she teased me back, pushing my hand out of the way so she could put her own in its place. "God Kelly, you show me all these pics and now a movie of a guy stroking himself while he looks at my mom. I mean like, what did you expect?"

"Watch close now," I broke in as the video got close to where I knew it was about to get exciting. I'd watched this particular one dozens of times, each time getting horny as hell even though I knew what was going to happen.

"Oh my God, look at that!" she exclaimed, leaning forward with her hand still between her legs. "Damn, he's cumming on the screen. Oh my, what a mess!"

Sure enough, the guy's cock was shooting one stream after another of sperm that landed on the computer monitor screen and dripped down to cover most of my aunt's photo that he had been jerking off to. The same thought went through my mind every time I saw this, how did he clean it up afterwards!

"Fuck, that's just so damn hot!" she moaned as the video automatically started again from the start. She stood up and quickly dropped her shorts to the floor where she stepped out of them and kicked them away with her bare foot. Sitting back down again in the chair next to me, she leaned back and let her bare ass move forward until her cute little pussy was at the edge of the chair seat.

"God, I could watch this a hundred times!" she remarked as she started playing with herself.

Not to be outdone, I dropped my shorts as well and sat on the edge of my own chair, duplicating her masturbation position. I don't know what was making me wetter, the tributes on the screen or watching my cousin play with herself as she watched them.

"Like the good old days, eh!" I teased her as the two of us sat side by side, masturbating together.

"Yeah," Kristen giggled, "except we didn't have pics of guys cumming on us back then."

We both broke up laughing and after that it was quiet except for the on and off again sounds of one of us moaning as we each worked on bringing ourselves to an orgasm.

Kristen may outnumber me in the sexual partner department, and she may be a better cock teaser and all around boy magnet, but when it came to masturbation I was the master. Maybe it was due to four years of college where most of the time my fingers were all the sex I got. Maybe it was just sheer determination and willpower. Maybe it was even psychological or something in my head compared to hers. Whatever it was, it was a rare day Kristen ever came faster than me when we masturbated and I wasn't about to let today be the start of any new trends.

"Ha, ha!" I crowed as I felt that familiar uprising between my legs, signaling the start of yet another orgasm, "Beat ya again cuz!"

Kristen made some smart aleck remark in reply but I wasn't hardly listening to her anymore. All that was on my mind was being generated between my legs and spreading rapidly throughout my body like some virus or plague at work. I leaned my head back and stared at the ceiling before shutting my eyes tight and yielding to my orgasm.

"OH MY GOD!" I cried out in a husky voice. "It feels SO good!"

I may have beaten Kristen to the mark but she wasn't letting that hold her back. As I came I could almost feel her as she stroked her pussy like crazy. Sure enough, within a few more seconds she was having an orgasm of her own. She didn't hold back, letting her body hump up and down as she touched herself, crying out so loudly that I was afraid the neighbors might hear, even if the windows WERE all closed.

I really have no idea how long we went on. It would be interesting someday to participate in a study of shared orgasms. I mean where two women cum together but alone in that they masturbate together but don't touch one another. Over the years I couldn't help but notice how often Kristen and I would orgasm almost at exactly the same time and then at almost the same time as well. Even when I was younger and a group of us would play with ourselves at a sleepover or party, it was the same. Even at that young age it was like we were somehow synchronized, the vast majority of us cumming together within a minute or two of each other. I had read in my psych books about how women kept together adjusted their periods over time to match up with one another. Maybe something similar to that was associated with orgasms?

Kristen was still staring at the computer screen as she came. I wondered what she was focusing on or maybe it was just everything in general. Was she more turned on by tributes to her or to her mom. From what I had seen so far, it looked like it was the video of her mom that had pushed her over the edge tonight. Who could blame her? After all, how many girls get to watch a video of their own mother being covered with cum by some stranger, even if it was just a photo of her?

3. Just Fooling Around the House

When we were done and had caught our breath, Kristen turned to me and grinned. The air was thick with the smell of our wet pussies and it was tempting to just tell her to shut up and get down to lick her pussy for the next hour or so!

"Hey, I've got an idea!" she exclaimed, as if she had just struck gold or something. If there was one thing I learned long ago, when Kristen prefaced something with "I've got an idea", you can bet something wild is about to be happen.

"One of the guys I dated last week has an older brother... interested?" she teased me. I knew what she was referring to. Undoubtedly she would take the younger brother and then I would get the older one. The only question - what were their ages? Older and younger were very relative terms in Kristen's dictionary.

"Well... Tony, the guy I've been dating on and off the past couple of years, just turned seventeen last month. I think his brother Terry is at last eighteen, maybe even nineteen."

No wonder she wanted me to have the older one. Anyone that could be pushing twenty was ancient in Kristen's mind and even eighteen tended to offend her sensibilities when it came to who she wanted to date.

"Sure he's not getting too old for ya?" I teased her.

"Oh Kelly, give me a break," she huffed, "Not everybody wants someone on Social Security to fuck her you know."

Knowing from bitter past experience that she was just hoping for an argument, I just ignored her comment,. Kristen really didn't like guys I sometimes dated. Oh well, her loss as far as I was concerned.

"And just when is your little tryst supposed to occur?"

"Right there computer girl," I said, pointing to the bottom corner of my computer screen for what have been the umpteenth time over the years when she would ask that question.

"Oh yeah," she said sheepishly. Then she thought about it for a minute (Kristen isn't exactly a Rhode's scholar, especially when it comes to math).

"How about three hours from now?" she said with a perfectly straight face. Hmmm, maybe she wasn't so dumb after all judging from the way she had just set me up.

"Well, it WAS going to be at my house but seeing how we're here already and you DO have that wonderful hot tub down there, so why not do it here?"

"But everyone's here," I reminded her. It WAS a Sunday afternoon so my parents were home and her mom was here as well.

"You know my mom won't care," she snickered, "and I doubt yours would either. Who knows, maybe they'll want in too! Then there's always your dad..."

"Kristen!" I admonished her, knowing what she was implying. "You know my mom can't do THAT. Besides all that, you know my dad' he would never do us in front of a couple of our boyfriends."

"I know, I know," she said, waving her hand at me like she was trying to drive off an annoying insect or something. "But still, it's fun to think about, don't you agree?"

She didn't wait for a response but rather went back to discussing the logistics of her plans for the evening.

"We can still do it here, the guys don't have to know our parents are around."

It HAD been quite a while since I had last brought a guy home for sex and let my dad spy on us. Who knows, maybe even my mom would want to see her daughter in action as well. If I remembered correctly, the last time the two of them watched me being fucked they disappeared in their bedroom and didn't come out for hours!

Finally I agreed and Kristen was grinning from ear to ear as she grabbed her cell phone out of her purse and called the boys to give them her change in plans. I only heard her side of the conversation but from the sound of it, there wasn't any objection from the other end. Now it was up to me to inform my parents. Maybe it would have been better to ask them FIRST but I didn't think they would object; at least, I knew my father certainly wouldn't!

I quickly grabbed my shorts and pulled them back on before heading downstairs. Our moms were seated at the kitchen table, talking about something or another. I started to explain to them what we were planning when I noticed my aunt looking behind me. I turned and there was Kristen coming in the kitchen except that unlike me, she hadn't bothered putting on her shorts!

"That a new style dear?" my aunt teased her daughter.

Kristen paused and the three of us looked at her as she looked confused at first. Then she realized where we were looking and I honestly think she had forgotten all about her shorts until then. It didn't surprise me. In my family nudity was something we didn't make an effort to necessarily hide but we didn't flaunt it either and running around nude without a good reason was considered inappropriate. However, Kristen and her mom were often nude around their house although normally when they were over at our house they tried to conform to our more conservative dress code.

"Oops!" she snickered, hunching her shoulders and looking embarrassed. It wasn't the fact her pussy was on display that embarrassed her, (THAT was one thing I knew for sure), but rather the fact she had forgotten her shorts and she knew how my mom felt about running around the house nude.

Kristen ran back up the stairs to recover her shorts while I finished describing our plans to our moms.

"And how old again did you say these boys were?" my mom asked. I repeated myself and she looked at her sister with a frown.

"So Linda, when are you going to teach your daughter about the pitfalls of fucking underage boys?" she said softly. I wasn't entirely sure if she was just teasing or actually being serious.

"Oh Mary, lighten up," my Aunt Linda responded, "Just be glad she didn't invite the Gaylord twins!"

The boys she was referring to were twin fourteen year-olds who lived down the street from us. A bit young for me (I use to baby-sit for them when I was in high school but they were too young to even fantasize about back then), I wondered if she was joking or was she hinting that Kristen was doing them as well?

My mom started to object when her sister held up her hand to stop her saying, "Just kidding, gee whiz, lighten up girl!"

Even so, I had a suspicion she was just placating my mom. Hmmmmmm, I was going to have to ask Kristen about this later!

"Alright, but you have to promise to behave yourself," my mom said to my aunt. "You know how it is with John's work, we can't have anything like that going on here."

Now THAT comment I took seriously as it was one of the few times I had heard my mother express concern over any legal issues regarding sex and how that might affect my dad. Give my dad's position as a senior partner in a large corporate law firm, it wouldn't go over well if he was charged with endangering a minor by allowing a party where underage boys were being "entertained" by his sister-on- law!

We all knew this anyway so for her to repeat it showed a genuine concern by her which I knew needed to be taken seriously. Even Linda knew better than to even joke about it so she just accepted the comment and moved on. "Alright, I promise," she said, almost like a kid promising to be good at a birthday party or something. Then she gave me a sly smile and said, "You girls sure you don't want to do it at our house?"

"Linda!" my mom chided her. My aunt just grinned wickedly at her and laughed.

"God you're easy today sis," she laughed. "Let the girls have their fun. Us old women have to stick together. Besides, there's always John."

My mom just rolled her eyes at her sister. Sometimes Aunt Linda just didn't seem to know when to quit. No wonder Kristen had exactly the same characteristic!

"Alright, go tell your dad," my mom said as Kristen finally appeared behind me once again, this time with her shorts back on although if she leaned over it really didn't matter all that much.

"Let me tell him!" Kristen giggled as the two of us went down the stairs to the basement where our family room was.

We had a formal living room upstairs but we rarely used it. There wasn't even a TV in it. As a result we spent most of our time in the downstairs family room where my parents had matching Lay-z-Boy recliners, a couple of couches for me and whomever, all positioned around a big screen HDTV with a Bose surround sound system my father was enamored with.

My dad looked up from some papers from work he was reading as the two of approached. He lifted his reading glasses (a recent concession to his age which he was quite sensitive about) and grinned when he saw who it was.

"Well, how's my two favorite girls doing today!" he greeted us. He was wearing an old pair of sweat shorts and a ragged t-shirt in deference to yet another hot weekend day this summer. He had papers lined up on a tables to one side of him, most of them in small print which I wouldn't have understood even if I could read them.

Kristen took the lead and quickly explained the situation. My dad seemed relatively unfazed by the entire thing. He knew Kristen (in more ways than one) and so it probably wasn't all that much of a surprise to him.

"What about your mothers?" he asked us after Kristen had finished. I took over at this point and explained to him that they would probably watch from my bedroom window. They hadn't actually SAID that to us of course, but I knew my Aunt Linda and there was no way Kristen and I were going to be getting laid by two young boys without her watching if she had the opportunity.

"Oh really?" my dad teased her back, "And when was the last time your mom got laid?"

"Uncle John!" Kristen exclaimed, "None of your business!"

"Well, I think I might just have an idea of when the next time will be," my dad replied, teasing my cousin even more.

Kristen wasn't about to be one-upped by my dad, not by anyone for that matter. She leaned over my dad's arm rest and put her hand under the papers on his lap, rubbing his dick through his shorts.

"And is this the nice cock that wants to fuck my mom?" she taunted him.

Kristen came back up and closed the basement door behind her. Once again, she appeared to have forgotten her shorts.

"Umm, Kristen, shorts again?" her mom hinted.

"I didn't want to put them on until I'd showered," she explained.

She looked down and we followed her eyes to her pussy where I could see why she decided to leave her shorts off for the moment. God, my dad must have been REALLY horny from the way his cum was still draining out of her! My mom was the first to respond, and not what I would have expected to hear her say.

"Like I was saying, the bastard had better have saved some for later," she said, trying to sound stern but then breaking into a grin.

"Anyway, you'd better get up there and get cleaned up," Aunt Linda told her daughter, "Your boy toys are due to arrive before too much longer."

Kristen and I both giggled at that one and we headed upstairs to get ready. She jumped in the shower while I debated what to wear. It wasn't like it was all THAT important as I knew whatever it was it wouldn't be on for long. But there is that little matter of first impressions and I wanted to make a great first impression on Terry and Tony.

Kristen wasn't long in the shower and her shorter hair dried quickly using my megawatt blower and she rejoined me in the bedroom with just a towel around her.

I'm not exactly a huge girl but Kristen was still a couple of sizes smaller than me so anything I might have would definitely be too big for her.

"Wait, I've got an idea!" I exclaimed and pointed at her to take a seat on my bed while I dashed out and into my parent's bedroom.

Opening my door to dad's closet, I picked out two of his newer dress shirts. Both were long sleeved with one being off-white and the other pale blue. My dad liked to pretend he was irked when I used his shirts for night shirts but I also knew it turned him on seeing me in them so I didn't feel guilty about it. I quickly returned to my bedroom where I displayed my prizes to her.

"Which one do you want?" I asked.

Kristen started to point to the blue one but then changed her mind and reached out for the white one. I wasn't surprised. The white one was more transparent and if it got wet it may as well not even be on. Kristen is a little shorter than I am and the shirt fell almost to her knees while mine came down a few inches above.

We rolled up the sleeves and took a look in the mirror. It was obvious from the way our nipples poked through that we weren't wearing anything on top underneath. Kristen's especially showed through, undoubted still stimulated from her little session with my dad. As low and loose as they hung on us, the guys would just have to guess as to whether or not we were wearing anything down below. Of course, if they knew anything at all about Kristen and me it shouldn't be much of a surprise.

We headed back to the kitchen where our moms were still seated. Both of them looked at us as we arrived and my aunt smiled while my mom just shook her head again.

"Oh Kelly, do you always have to use his new ones?" she complained rhetorically. I just smiled and ignored her. She knew better than to ask.

We sat around for another half hour or so until we heard a car pull in. My mom looked out the kitchen window and announced, "OK girls, your toys have arrived."

"Mom!" I whined, getting a little fed up with the constant references to them as "toys". It was cute at first but like anything else, repetition took the cuteness factor out of it after a while.

My mom just laughed at me as she and Aunt Linda went upstairs before the guys could find out they were home. Now doubt they would be headed to my bedroom which overlooked the deck out back. The deck was actually on the roof of our garage which, like most Pittsburgh homes built on the hills, was level with the basement. You went out the kitchen door to get to the deck so in my room that put you one floor higher.

As I thought about them watching us later from the window, it seemed almost ironic in a way. It was through that same window that about six years ago I'd watched my parents making love in the hot tub. It was actually the first time I'd ever seen them making love and it arousing feelings in me I'd never felt before, feelings which ultimately led me to "seducing" my father in order to have sex with me so I could share a similar love with him that I saw he had with my mom. Of course, I had no idea at the time he'd been waiting for me to do just that for years! Now it would be my parents watching me instead! Again, quite ironic.

4. Fun With the Brothers

The guys came to the front door (I had made sure the garage door was shut so they wouldn't be tempted to come in through the basement) where Kristen opened the door and greeted them before they could even ring the doorbell. I stayed back out of sight in the kitchen and listened as she welcomed them inside. She led them through the hallway to the kitchen area where we saw each other for the first time.

Twins they were not, that was for sure. In fact, if I hadn't known I wouldn't have even suspected they were brothers. Terry, the older one, had long blonde hair, reaching almost to his shoulders, a thin but strong physique (almost to the point of being skinny), with a few freckles on his face and hesitant smile. Tony, on the other hand, was dark, almost swarthy, was tight curly black hair, more of a body builder type with the almost cliche upper arm band barb w-ire tattoo. Although at seventeen he was a year younger than his brother, Tony seemed more the leader and much more self-confident. It remained to be seen which of them was packing the most but so long as there was nothing too out of the ordinary, to me that was a minor detail so long as it was functional!

One thing they both had in common, neither seemed afraid to stare at me. In fact, it was almost comical the way the two of them ran their eyes over me, like a judge at the county fair looking over a prize cow or something. Kristen apparently noticed as well.

Typical Kristen, always wanting to be the center of attention. We all had a good laugh and I led them out to the deck.

It WAS one of the features I liked about our deck. I guess technically if someone had a telescope they could see us from some of the homes on the other side of the valley but anyone to either side of us would have had to put in quite an effort to see anything. Once you were in the hot tub, then it was almost impossible except for someone flying overhead to see what was going on.

We initially sat down on the deck furniture, taking our places around the glass-topped table with an umbrella mounted in the center. The sun was heading down so the umbrella was pretty useless other than as a decoration. Kristen started things off and when she mentioned I had just graduated from college, the boys looked at me with surprise.

"Yeah, I turned twenty-two last March," I confessed, "You boys don't mind being with an older woman, do you?"

They looked unsure at first if I was joking or being serious but when Kristen giggled they realized I was just fooling with them and laughed nervously. Somehow I was getting the impression that this was the first time they had done something like this before. Well, it never hurt to find out.

"So tell me Terry, ever double date with your brother before?" I asked innocently.

"Ummmmm, not really," he stammered.

"Oh? SO I guess you've never seen a girl sucking Tony's cock before then, have you?"

It was sort of mean of me to be so forward so early but I couldn't resist. Kristen looked at me with daggers in her eyes. She was probably concerned that one of them, especially Terry, would chicken out if we rushed things but I felt just the opposite - the longer it stretched out the more time he had to consider it and chicken out.

"Well no!" he replied, as if he had never been asked that before. Well, odds were he hadn't!

"Have you ever wondered what it would be like to have him watch YOU get your cock sucked?" I continued, keeping the pressure on.

"Ummmmm, no," poor Terry replied, started to squirm a little in his seat. I turned my attention to Tony who seemed to be getting a kick out of his brother's discomfort.

"Well, how about you Tony, would you like to see me suck Tony's cock?"

Tony grinned and sat up in his seat, probably more to allow room for his growing cock than anything from what I could see under his shorts.

"Hell yeah," he answered in a strong voice. No hesitation there! It was easy to see why Kristen had been going out with this brother and not the other.

I grinned at him and looked at Kristen with a victorious expression. Ha! I was going to get a mouthful before she did. Well, it seemed fitting after her fucking my dad earlier that I should get it first.

"Take your shorts off," I told Terry in a demanding tone. He looked surprised at my bluntness but something told me that this was exactly what he needed now - a girl to control him. He looked at Tony who just grinned at him and then back at me as if he didn't know for sure what to do.

"I tell you what, I'll strip first if that would help," I offered.

He nodded and I just pulled the shirt up over my head without bothering to unbutton it. Standing there naked in front of him, I felt a sense of power and lust as he stared at me as if I was the first naked girl he had ever seen. Kristen had assured me he wasn't a virgin but odds were the only nude girls he had seen before (other than a porn movie) were in a dark bedroom or back seat of a car. It was obvious from his reaction a girl had never stood directly in front of him in the sunlight without a stitch of clothing on before, especially one hell bent on sucking his cock and who knows what else before it was over!.

"There, this better," I asked, leading him on. Terry just kept staring at me, as if he had been hypnotized or something.

"Dang it, do I have to do everything?" I huffed rhetorically. I reached down and undid his belt and pulled his shorts down. At first he just sat there but he eventually got the hint and lifted himself enough to let me slip them off, leaving him with his bathing suit on.

"Oh, I guess Kristen didn't tell you guys but bathing suits aren't allowed in our hot tub," I said with a grin as I went for those next. This time he was quicker to lift up and I had them off in a few seconds, leaving him sitting there bottomless on the seat cushion.

"OK, now the shirt," I sighed, lifting his t-shirt up over his head until finally he was naked. His body wasn't anything to write home about but better skinny than fat I guess. What mattered most was the wonderful dick I saw standing up straight from his crotch. It looked like a tree growing up from a thick thatch of brush as his erect dick stood up from the midst of dark curly pubis hair. No shaving by this boy, that was for sure!

"Mmmmmmm, now THAT'S better," I said with a seductive smile, reaching down to grab his cock. "What a lovely dick, don't you think Kristen?" Kristen was sitting there watching us and she had a strange smile on her face but I figured she was wishing it was her hand on this cock instead of mine. I wondered how long she would be able to hold herself back and just watch. No matter, I had my own issues to worry about, namely how to suck this wonderful cock!

"You like having your dick sucked Terry?" I asked him, stroking his cock slowly in my hand.

"He's never even HAD a blowjob!" Tony broke in, pointing his finger at his nude brother. "Shit, he's only fucked one girl, and that was a pity fuck by Kristen."

Now THAT was something I hadn't expected to hear. I looked over at Kristen and she just shrugged with a "Oops, forgot to tell you something" look. I didn't buy it for a moment! I guess I should have seen it coming. The entire evening was a big setup by her although for the life of me I was sure what the point was, at least from her perspective. Oh well, what could it hurt. After all, it's not that often these days I get to suck a guy's cock for his first time! Kneeling in front of Terry, I ignored his brother and focused on him.

"Well, in that case I'm going to give you one you won't forget for a while," I told him, licking my lips in anticipation.

I put the tip of Terry's dick up to my mouth and began to run my tongue around the head of his cock, kissing it now and then with my lips but not yet actually taking it into my mouth. My tongue ran in circles over his nice hard head, feeling the soft silkiness of his skin while I drew in the scent of his crotch. My hand was still holding his shaft at the base, slowly turning and stroking him as I gently licked his dick.

"You like this?" I asked him softly, turning my eyes up to him.

He was watching me in total silence, his eyes fixed on what I was doing to his cock. It thrilled me that I was doing something to him that no other girl had ever done. My mouth was the first one to ever touch his cock, my tongue the first one to ever taste him.

"Feels good," was all he could say but I could tell from the way he was breathing heavy and tenseness of his body that he was enjoying it.

"Do you want me to suck your dick Terry?" I asked. It was, of course, a totally superfluous question but I like to hear a guy tell me what he wants, even if I already know it. Face it, what guy does NOT want his dick sucked? If there is one out there, I haven't met him yet!

"C'mon, if you want a blowjob you have to ask for it," I teased him just a bit.

"Go on wimp, tell the slut you want her to suck your cock!" Tony "encouraged" his brother.

From the tone of his voice it was more derision than encouragement. Kristen, I noticed, was remaining remarkably silent for once. It made me wonder if there want something else she was still hiding from me.

Terry seemed completely overwhelmed now and I realized that maybe I had pushed a little too hard. Obviously this was NOT the situation I had expected and he appeared to be a lot more inexperienced than I had thought even a few minutes ago.

"Ah shit, let me show you how it's done," Tony said, sounding totally exasperated with his brother's lack of assertiveness. He stood up, undid his belt and pants, then lowered his zipper until he cock was free.

Sheesh, what a jerk! It was a good thing he was directing his comments to Kristen because otherwise I might have bit his cock off. It never ceases to amaze me that guys haven't figured out that no matter how much they try to dominate a girl, once she has his dick in her mouth, SHE is the boss. All to takes is one little bite and it's curtains for him!

Kristen didn't seem to mind his blustery tone. If anything, she seemed turned on by it. Well maybe she was more into S&M than I thought! Leaving her shirt on, she got out of the chair and then took the seat cushion off and set it on the deck in front of Tony. Kristen dropped to her knees on the cushion and immediately took Tony's cock in her hand and started sucking him. There was no tongue licking or anything else subtle for that matter. She went straight to taking him all in! She looked at me out the corner of her eye and grinned as best she could with a mouthful of Tony's dick. It was then I realized what she'd done - she got a mouthful before I did. Damn, the little bitch!

"Now THIS is what I'm talking about," Tony bragged to his brother, pointing his finger down at Kristen's head as she stroked his cock in and out of her mouth.

He took her head in both hands and started to push and pull her in and out of his crotch, ramming his dick in her mouth on the in stroke and then brining it almost all the way out on the out stroke.

Suddenly I felt sorry for Terry. With an idiot like Tony for a brother, it was no wonder he as so timid. I looked him in the eye and smiled, no longer teasing or taunting any more.

I licked the head of his dick again for a little while and then slowly began to work his cock into my mouth. I was trying to use my tongue on him as much as possible which gave a better show if you asked me, not to mention most guys told me it felt better anyway. Each time I went down on his dick I let a little bit more enter my mouth until I was getting about half of him in. Of course, this wasn't nearly all I wanted to take in so I continued sucking and licking him until finally I had him all the way in my mouth. My face was literally buried in the thick pubic hair surrounding his cock. His crotch odor was strong but more musky from lust than from being unclean. I loved the feeling of his coarse pubic hair against my cheeks and chin.

As much as I was taking my time with Terry, Kristen was going to town on Tony and I could see the horny boy was about to cum. It wasn't necessary for me to look as Tony was telling the world how he felt anyway.

"Oh yeah, not THIS is what I call a blowjob!" he crowed in victory, "Watch this Terry, you've just GOT to see what I do to her.

Tony pulled his dick out from Kristen's mouth and started to stroke himself. Kristen sat back on her heels, licking her mouth and then opening it wide to receive his sperm. Tony, though, had other plans for his cum.

"Oh god yes, I'm gonna cum all over you Kristen!"

Well, at least Tony was a man of his word. His first shot hit Kristen squarely between her eyes, leaving a trail from her forehead to the tip of her nose. The next sort of crisscrossed her face, hitting her in the eye and then moving down over her mouth to her chin. The next couple he directed to her chest, and then after that he stuffed his still pulsing dick into her mouth where she sucked out the remaining sperm.

When he started cumming I had released Terry's dick so I could turn more easily to watch Tony and Kristen but I was still stroking him almost absentmindedly with my hand. I guess after you've handled enough cocks it sort of just becomes second nature when your hand is holding it. Terry was watching as well with his eyes opened wide and a look of astonishment on his face.

Kristen looked pleased with herself as she spit out some cum back onto Tony's still hard dick and then sucked it off again, repeating the move several times before swallowing it down for good. She looked at me with a grin of triumph, as if she wanted me to see just what a cum slut she was - as if I didn't already know! God she was a mess! Kristen got up and sat in Tony's lap, he bare ass covering his still rigid dick. She put her arm around his neck and sat there, watching me while acting as if she was totally oblivious to the cum dripping down her face and chest. The only concession she made was to wipe the cum from around her eye where it was probably stinging a little bit.

Well, I guess that made it my turn now. I turned my attention back to Terry and smiled up at him.

"Your turn to cum now Terry," I encouraged him.

I put my mouth back on his cock again, this time using my tongue and lips to stimulate his dick as best as I knew how. He wasn't going to last long if I had anything to do with it!

"C'mon, cum all over her," Tony said, adding his two cents to the discussion.

Well, I had my own ideas about THAT. Kristen may get off covering her body with sperm but it's not exactly my idea of a good time. I allow men to cum on me if they really want to, but just to satisfy their fantasies, not for my benefit. What I wanted from Terry was a mouthful of sperm. I wanted to swish it around in my mouth like mouthwash and let it bubble between my lips. Finally, I wanted to swallow every drop, to take all his sperm in my belly and then show him my empty mouth so he knew where it had gone.

As Terry approached the point of no return, I went to work on his cock like a whore being paid by the blowjob. I had my hands on top of his thighs and my head over his crotch as I bobbed on his dick without using my hands on it. Each time I took him completely in my mouth, dropping down on him until my lips hit the base of his shaft and my nose was buried in the thick hair that surrounded it. Terry started to raise his ass off the cushion, his body reacting instinctively as his orgasm approached. Just as he started to swell in preparation for his first shot, I dropped him from my mouth and held his shaft in the middle with my hand.

It only took a few more strokes before the first shot of cum emerged from the tip of his dick, flying out straight into my waiting mouth where my tongue was hanging out like a dog on a hot summer day. I had his dick just far enough away from my mouth that I could see the cum spurting out but close enough to direct it where I wanted it - in my mouth.

By the time he was finished, my mission had been accomplished. All of his cum was now in my mouth although it was hard not to choke as some of it started to drain down my throat. I stuck out my tongue to show him his sperm pooled on it and then closed my mouth and blew through the cum to form a frothy mix of cum bubbles. Sucking it back in, I leaned my head back and with a big gulp, took down most of it. The rest took me a couple of more swallows to completely get out of my mouth although I knew the aftertaste would be lingering for some time.

"Mmmmmmm, your cum tastes SO good," I said to Terry but loud enough to be sure my cousin and her own boy toy could hear.

Terry seemed almost embarrassed at the attention and didn't answer. Even so, I noticed his cock was still standing at full attention as if nothing had just happened. Mmmmmmm, as much as I love being fucked by an older guy, there WAS something to be said for the staying power of a teenage boy!

While everyone was remarking over Terry's inaugural BJ, I decided to take advantage of their chatter to get one up on my cousin. Standing up, I leaned over to Terry and whispered in his ear so only he could hear me.

"I want you to fuck me Terry... NOW!"

Terry's eyes got like saucers. He HAD to know coming over what was waiting for him and that the odds of getting laid were all but a lock but I suspected he hadn't expected it to be THIS easy and quick! Well, he didn't know me and my cousin!

I sat on the edge of the round table and spread my legs apart so Terry could see my waiting pussy, all eager for his cock to violate it. The table wobbled a bit but I knew from previous times with my dad that it would handle my weight.

"C'mon Terry, get over here and fuck me!" I called to him.

Terry quickly got to his feet and moved between my legs. I lifted my legs up so my feet were on the table, my knees spread out wide to help him get to my hungry pussy. I looked over and saw Kristen glaring at me, obviously caught off guard as I was sure she had intended to get fucked first. Well, for once I was going to get it before she did!

"Here, let me help," I said to Terry, reaching out to grab his beautiful hard dick in my hand and drawing him in to my pussy.

I rubbed the head of him against my clit, feeling my body shudder in response. I would've loved to have played with it longer, to rub his dick up and down my swollen pussy lips, spreading the wetness of my pussy hole all over me. There wasn't any time to spare, though, as Kristen was already whispering to Tony and I saw she was getting up and leaning forward as though she wanted Tony to fuck her doggy style.

"Push!" I told Terry, holding his dick with one hand at the entrance to my pussy hole while I spread myself apart with my other hand. "Push harder!"

As stiff as his dick was, it still bent slightly as he pushed it hard against my resisting pussy. With as many dicks that had made their way through it, you would think by now I would be loose as a mother of five but that wasn't the case. Most guys commented on how tight I was and it was a source of pride for me when my dad one day mentioned my pussy was as tight now as it was back when I was sixteen. Terry was a trooper though, keeping the pressure on and then he suddenly entered me as if there was no resistance at all, his head disappearing completely in me.

I moaned loudly as my pussy practically exploded. God his cock felt so good in me! Somehow it made it even better when I saw that Kristen was still waiting for Tony to get his cock into hers. I held Terry's dick in my hand, keeping him from entering me any further, savoring the feeling of his large cock head as it stimulated the inside of my pussy, just barely in me.

When guys worry about cock size all it tells me is that they don't have a clue how to please a girl if they think just a fat cock is going to do it. Of course a larger dick feels better when it's all the way in simply because I can feel it filling me more. But to really please me, all a guy needs to do is get the head in me far enough to rub against the multitude of nerve endings that are just inside of me. Think of it like eating. The taste and enjoyment comes from the taste buds in your mouth but the overall long-term satisfaction comes from the fullness of your stomach. Of course, if you eat too much your stomach hurts!

That's how it is with my pussy. It's at the entrance to my pussy where all the action takes place so far as stimulation goes. It feels good when a guy strokes me as his cock acts like a violin bow playing over the "strings" just inside of me. When his cock pushes further in me, it's like he is filling me up, giving me that feeling of satisfaction I crave as well. Any cock size can accomplish the first part. Maybe if I wasn't so tight a larger dick would be better but if anything, TOO big a cock can hurt as it stretches me out to force its way get inside of me. When it comes to filling my pussy, the bigger the better to a point after which, like an overfilled stomach, too much of a good thing can be bad as well.

For the moment, I was happy having the largest part of his dick just in me, moving slightly as Terry fidgeted. He was anxious to push himself in further and I knew it had to be hard for him to get this far in me without going all the way. It's funny how some guys seem to fumble and hesitate when they first try fucking me but once they get in me, it's like a rubber band that is released and next thing you know they are shoving themselves in as fast and as deep as they can.

"Oh that feels so good Terry, I love your cock in me this way," I moaned. The moan was involuntary but the words were for his benefit so he would maybe understand why I was holding him back. Finally, at least I'm sure that's how Terry viewed it, I released his cock and leaned back on both hands, turning my pussy upward in the process to better receive his stiff dick.

"OK Terry, you can push it all the way in now," I told him.

Terry groaned as he didn't waste a second, ramming his cock in me so fast and hard that he practically pushing me across the table.

"Oh yeah Terry, all the way in me," I moaned again as the base of his dick met up to my pussy. The stiff hair of his crotch tickled my pussy like someone was rubbing a brush over me. "Fuck me Terry... fuck me harder."

As Terry began to stroke his dick in me, I heard my cousin getting anxious as she tried to get Tony to listen to her.

"C'mon you idiot, you would think you've never fucked me before," she huffed as she leaned over with her hands on her knees as Tony tried to get his cock into her pussy.

"Not THERE!" she complained. Evidently he was either trying to fuck her ass or just too excited or incompetent to differentiate between her asshole and her pussy. Sheesh, he really was an idiot!

Terry wasn't paying any attention to his brother by now. He had his hands on the backs of my thighs, pushing my legs up and back even further, lifting me feet off the table until my knees were almost back to my head. My butt was curved up and I could feel him penetrating me further now as he had a more straight-on shot at my pussy.

"That's it Terry, hard and deep," I encouraged him.

For the first time, my eyes looked up to my bedroom window and I suddenly remembered that my parents and aunt were most likely watching through the curtains. With the lighting as it was, I couldn't see inside the window and I wondered for a moment if they were watching and if so, what they were saying to each other about their slutty daughters. Were they just watching or had we inspired them yet to have a little fun on their own? Not being able to see anything, I put them out of my mind and returned to what was more important at the moment - Terry's dick in me.

Terry was obviously not all that experienced in fucking; maybe it was true that the only time he'd gotten laid was with my cousin. Lord only knows what THAT was like! It reminded me of back when I fucked my first boyfriend's brother. He was a couple of years younger and a virgin. I only did him to turn on my boyfriend. The poor kid probably thought he would be getting it all the time but I never did him again, figuring it was the ultimate tease to fuck him silly one day and then never even let him touch me later even though I saw him often when I went to Steve's house. Had Kristen done the same with Terry, fucking him once just to get a notch on her belt to turn on Tony?

Regardless of his past experience, Terry was no different than any other guy. Once their cock was in my pussy then a millennia of instinct took over and if nothing else, they pumped away like an oil rig until they came. There are lots of things a guy can do to make it more pleasant for the girl but in cases like Terry, they didn't have a clue to it was just in and out, in and out, until finally they couldn't hold back anymore and they came.

"Mmmmmmm, I love it when you fuck me Terry," I moaned softly, not having to fake it at all. Terry was panting by now from his exertions and from the speed of his strokes, I figured he was getting close.

"Cum inside of me," I begged him, "I want you to cum inside my pussy."

Terry was too far gone by now to even react to what I was saying. Frankly, I'm not even sure he heard me nor if he did, that it would have made any difference. Most inexperienced guys cum in me automatically unless I say something. I guess the thought of pulling out doesn't even enter their minds given how overwhelming the situation is for them at first. It's easy to see why so many teen pregnancies occur, guys just think with their cocks and it's not until they get older that some semblance of responsibility begins to emerge.

Meanwhile, Tony was finally fucking Kristen from behind. She had pulled another chair in front of he and was leaning on the arm rests with both hands while Tony fucked her hard and fast. Tony was more experienced than his brother, that was obvious. Whereas I had Terry just fucking me in one position until he came, Kristen and Tony would stay in one place only for a minute or two before moving to something different. It must have been quite a show for her mom to watch from upstairs!

"I think I'm gonna cum," Terry panted, dragging my attention back to him again, as if that was so difficult with his cock still stroking in and out of me.

"Put it deep inside of me," I instructed him, I want your cock to cum as deep in my pussy as you can shove it."

Terry had no problem complying with my request, which was probably unnecessary to start with. He gave one last thrust, ramming his hard cock in me as far as it would reach until he was pushing hard against my pussy.

"I'm cumming!" he announced, as if he needed to tell me.

Although he had just cum from the BJ I had given him not all that long ago, he must have had quite a reserve left over judging from the intensity of the heat bloom inside of me. It was still fading away as the next one was released in me followed by more.

My fingers were rubbing my clit as he held his cock in me, the warmth of his cum adding to the sensational pleasures being generated by my sensitive clit.

"Stay in me," I begged him, "Stay inside of me Terry!"

What I wanted was to bring myself to my own orgasm while his cock and cum were in me. It wasn't going to take much and I could have tried showing him how to finger me but time was of the essence.

"Oh my god!" was all I could utter as my orgasm suddenly swept over me like a tsunami hitting the beach.

My pussy gripped his dick tightly, squeezing down on it like a vise making Terry groan from the mixture of pain and pleasure I was causing him. A mixture of his sperm and my pussy cum gushed from me, surging along my dick until it was dripping down my ass to the table top.

Maybe it as my orgasm that set her off or maybe it was just Tony fucking her, but whatever the reason Kristen was not far behind. I tend to be a moaner when I cum but Kristen gets loud, sometimes to the point of being embarrassing.

"Fuck me harder dammit," she ordered Tony, "Give it to me!"

I was in that zone where the world seems to be moving on around you but you just seem to be in your own place outside of it somehow. Terry was dutifully keeping his dick in me, periodically it would pulse or twitch, sending little shock waves through me no matter how small the movement. My entire body just seemed to glow and I just leaned back and watched my cousin being fucked, almost like I was just a spectator watching a movie, detached from the action but still interested in what happened.

By this time the two of them had tossed a cushion to the deck and Kristen was in her usual position – on her back getting fucked. It was almost like watching two dogs fucking with each of them panting and speaking to each other like they were filing some porn flick.

"C'mon, you can fuck me harder than this!" she whined, thrusting her petite hips up against him each time he slammed down into her.

"You asked for it you fucking slut," he responding, making her grunt as if the air was being pushed out of her each time he rammed his dick hard into her pussy. The banter went back and forth like that, one of them accusing the other of underperforming and then the other responding back by upping the momentum a little.

"Cum in me!" she insisted as she got closer.

"Fuck you," he replied, "I'll cum where the hell I want."

"Don't you even THINK about pulling out now you bastard!"

"Oh yeah? Just watch me!"

Terry and I just watched, his dick still me - and amazingly still hard! Tony pulled himself from her grasp and stood up over her, jerking away on his cock. Kristen was obviously pissed off but not so much she was willing to turn away from getting sprayed once again by Tony. A few more strokes and Tony started ejaculating all over Kristen, spreading his cum out all over her from head to toe, like he was holding a hose and watering a flower bed. By the time he was done, she cum in her hair, on her boobs and belly, and even some on her legs. About the only place that did NOT get at least a splattering was her pussy - the very spot she wanted it in the first place.

"Bastard!" she said to him, "Hope you enjoyed that."

"Oh yeah, I most certainly did!" Tony replied, a big grin on his face as he whipped his cock, splattering a few last drops on Kristen.

"So what do you think of my girlfriend and her slutty cousin?" Tony said, walking over to terry and me. "Shit, you STILL got your dick in her? Guess you found it a home!"

Terry looked a little sheepish and stepped back, causing his cock to flop out of me. It was still hard, though, and resumed it's "takeoff" look as it curved upward from his crotch to point to the sky.

"Damn Terry, I didn't know you had it in you!" Tony laughed upon seeing his brother's stiff dick. As for Tony, his cock wasn't exactly flaccid but it was in definite need of some recharging before it was ready for action again.

"Hey, if you're so fucking horny, why not go get a piece of her?" Tony offered Terry, pointing over to where Kristen was now sitting up on the cushion.

Well, it wasn't like he'd be getting sloppy seconds or anything as Kristen's pussy didn't have a drop of cum anywhere near it, let alone inside. Knowing my cousin, she was always ready for another dick, no matter how many times she had been fucked. I can't think of a single time when she EVER turned down the chance to be fucked - not once.

Terry looked at me with some hesitation, as if now that he had fucked me he needed my permission or something to fuck another girl, especially one just a few feet away.

"Don't look at me," I laughed, "I'm sure she won't mind, would you Kristen?"

"Hell no," Kristen responded. In many ways, she was SO predictable! "C'mon Terry, do me in the hot tub."

Not a bad idea really considering what a mess she was. We all took off the covers and Kristen was the first to lower herself slowly into the hot water. My parents prefer to keep the temperature at the upper end of the scale so most people had to take a little time to get used to it at first. Once she was in, she used her hands to rub off as much of Tony's cum as she could although it was going to take a shower and soap most likely to get all of it.

"Let's go Terry," she teased him, "You gonna fuck me or not?"

The three of us soon joined Kristen in the tub and she came after Terry like a shark to her prey. She put her hands down into the water to find Terry's crotch and she grinned as she seemed to discover something.

"Crap, you're still hard as a pipe!" she said, as much to all of us as to Terry. She went to the edge of the hot tub and put one knee up on the edge while she stood on her other foot.

"Fuck me from behind Terry," she said, sounding like a seductive spider luring her prey into her web of lust.

Terry was losing his shyness and he started to move over and behind her. Well, he SHOULD be more confident by now after getting blown and fucked already. Tony and I took a position in an opposite corner with Tony putting his arm around me and using his other hand to grope my boobs.

"Well, I have to say one thing, you DO have bigger boobs than your cousin," he complimented me, trying to keep his voice down over the din of the tub.

"I heard that!" Kristen called back over her shoulder, waving her finger at Tony as if he was being naughty.

Terry was working his cock into Kristen as Tony and I watched. I noticed that his hand was moving south pretty fast until he had my pussy cupped. As Terry probed my cousin with his dick, his brother shoved his finger up unto me making me gasp .

"You like that, don't you?" he smirked. "Guess it runs in the family. Your mother like it as much as hers?"

I looked at him with my eyes narrowed somewhat. Now just what the hell did he mean by THAT?

Tony laughed, as if he had pulled one over me. "Hey, I was just wondering if your mom does her daughter's boyfriends too. Last time I saw her at the store she was looking pretty hot!"

Ohhhhhh, NOW I understood. Evidently Tony was the lucky recipient of one of my Aunt Linda's adventures where she shared one of Kristen's boyfriends. Actually it surprise me as I didn't think Tony would be the type that turned her on all that much give how crude he was. She usually went for the more intellectual ones. Then again, maybe the temptation of a seventeen year-old with a nice cock was just too much to ignore.

"Sorry, my mother doesn't do my boyfriends." I said rather coolly.

"Hey, whatever!" Tony quickly replied, trying to defuse the situation, "I just meant that IF she did... well you know."

Oh yeah, I knew all right!

"Fuck me faster Terry!" Kristen cried out, bringing my attention back to my slut of a cousin as she got drilled by Terry's nice dick.

He was splashing water all over the place as his hips thrust back and forth against her cute little ass. Growing up I had always loved my own ass more than my boobs but I had to admit, Kristen has the ultimate little ass! It wasn't the sexy Latin style big ass ala Jennifer Lopez; but more firm and round with just the right amount of curve in all the right places. She was so petite that even with my small hands I could grab a nice feel of it and for men with larger hands, like my dad, they could practically grasp the whole thing in their hands.

Terry was holding Kristen by the waist as he pushed and pulled in rhythm with his strokes. Unlike with me, he wasn't satisfied with staying in one position. My how fast we grow up! He pulled out and whirled her around with his hands and then picked her up and dropped her on the edge in the corner. She put her arms around his neck for balance as he set one foot on each ledge leading away from the corner.

Kristen was practically doing the splits now, her cute little pussy open and waiting for him to revisit it.

"You like watching your brother fuck her?" I asked Tony. His finger was still in me but it was still as both of our attentions were on the action in the corner opposite us.

"It's OK I guess," he mumbled, "I'd rather be fucking YOU about now."

I just ignored his last comment. I'd been fucked already and unlike Kristen, I didn't have to fuck every cock in the room to be satisfied. I was more interested in the moment to see how my protege was doing with my cousin.

"Guess you don't take a hint as well as your cousin," Tony grumbled as he got up from the seat and turned to face me.

I looked up at him and wondered just what his intentions were now. His cock seemed to have recovered, standing out nicely from his crotch. Unlike his brother's cock, which pointed straight up when hard, Tony's stuck out straight from his crotch parallel to the floor, like a spear ready to impale me. It was then I realized that he intended to do just that - impale me with his spear!

"Well, you gonna help out or what?" he asked impatiently.

Oh well, what the hell. It never hurt to get fucked by a guy you hadn't had before. I slid my butt forward with my arms out to my side along the ledge of the tub, letting my body stretch out across the top of the water. To his credit, Tony quickly figured out what my intentions were.

"That's better," he approved, "I knew you couldn't turn it down."

Well, THAT was a little egotistical. I wasn't so much doing it for HIS dick as I was for A dick, quite a difference in my book.

Tony moved between my legs and reached under my thighs to lift my hips up to the top of the water, exposing my shaved pussy like some desert island rising up out of the water. I didn't say a word as he wiggled his hips to get his cock in the right place and then push it into me. Think that as "wet" was I was from the hot tub water, not to mention having recently been fucked by his brother, that it would be a piece of cake for him to penetrate me. Well, water isn't the same as my pussy juices when it comes down to lubricating qualities. He actually had to shove pretty hard to get his dick in me but he was a lot more experienced than his brother and it didn't take long for him to overcome the obstacle.

"I heard that!" Kristen chimed in once again, reminding me of her and Terry who was still going at it, fucking her pussy like there was no tomorrow.

Actually, I WAS tighter than my cousin, every guy who had us both, even my dad, had told me so. Well first of all she had probably fucked twice as many guys as me. There's also the fact she LOVES her dildos, using those to masturbate when I generally just use my fingers. Whatever it was, it never ceased to make me feel good when someone would compare us and at least in this one area I beat her out.

Terry was getting a workout with Kristen! She had him sit in the corner while she straddled him, her feet to the outside of the tub. She had her arms around him to keep from falling backwards while he fucked her sitting on his lap. She was actually doing most of the work, wiggling her ass around in circles and then back and forth, making his cock move all around inside her pussy.

Tony was fucking me while he watched his brother fuck my cousin. Despite having cum twice already, he was ready to cum again - a lot faster than I had expected. I didn't say anything, deicing it would be best just to let him do his thing and not make a fuss over it. After all, even if he DID cum all over me, I was in the tub and could wash off afterwards. To my surprise though, he stayed in me.

"Fuck, here it cums," he groaned as his hips instinctively thrust forward to drive his dick that last little bit into me.

As warm as I was from the hot tub water, I could still make out the war glow as he released his sperm into me. Surprisingly, he didn't say a word the entire time but rather just grunted each time he thrust himself forward to release yet another load into me.

"You're kidding!" she retorted, "That bastard!"

Then she looked at Terry and gave him a warning look saying, "Now don't get any a ideas lover boy about pulling out or anything."

Tony pulled out of me and let me sink into the water as our attentions both turned to the couple across the hot tub.

"That's it, keep cumming," Kristen was crying out.

Evidently Terry was at it again, shooting his load in another pussy this time. For a moment I felt a slight twinge of jealousy, wishing he was cumming in me yet again but then it wasn't like he was my boyfriend or something like that. He was just a boy toy, someone to fuck and forget about..

We stayed in the hot tub for about another ten minutes but that was all we would take of the heat. I was going to have to talk to my dad again about the temperature setting. He liked to creep it up, thinking nobody would notice but this time it was just too damn hot!

Finally it came time for them to go. I put my dad's shirt back on while Kristen preferred to stay nude. Terry gave me a hug and then for the first time he kissed me. It almost made me laugh as I realized we started out with a triple from the beginning, totally disregarding first and second base. Most dates started out with a kiss and if he was lucky, he got to fuck the girl. Tonight Terry got to fuck me first and THEN we kissed!

"Can I see you again?" he asked.

I just shrugged my shoulders. If I had answered I would have said no so better just to say nothing and leave him with his dreams - or least his wet dreams. I mean, it's always interesting to be fucked by someone new but that didn't mean I had to do them again.

Tony walked by me and then turned to grab my ass one last time. He smirked and leaned over to whisper in my ear, saying, "Don't forget I'm available if your mom needs a young cock?"

I wanted to smack him silly but instead I just rolled my eyes and huffed dramatically. Kristen looked over at me as if to ask what the problem was but I didn't say anything, figuring I would speak to her later about it. I could just imagine what my mom would say when I told her later!

With the boys gone, Kristen and I went upstairs where I found my parents had retired to their bedroom, evidently along with my Aunt Linda. The door was closed, something they only did when they wanted me to know they were "busy". Well, that's one difference between fucking your daughter and making love to your wife. My dad would NEVER have closed the door to my mom when he was fucking me but they almost always did when the two of them were together. I guess to today mom wanted her sister to join them as well. I just hoped that Kristen and my little "adventure" earlier was part of their inspiration!

"Well, looks like it's you and my cuz," I said, looking at Kristen who was standing nude next to me outside their door.

"Hmm, I think we can make do," she giggled, going into my bedroom and jumping on my bed. I dropped the shirt and went to join her. It was looking like this evening wasn't over yet!

(Jul 08) Chapter 144: Truth or Dare

Me (22)
Beth - BFF (23)
Samantha - girlfriend (22)
Nancy - girlfriend (23)

When people think of Truth or Dare, usually it's with a wink and a smile. How it's played depends a lot on who is playing and the circumstances. When four girls who have been friends since grade school get together, the game takes on a different twist.

1. Best Friends

Friends tend to come and go but there are a few girls that will always be my friends, a sort of "inner circle". Beth, of course, is my very best friend and we have shared everything together for as long as I can remember - even our dads although under totally different circumstances. Samantha and I will always share a rather unique bond in that she was the one to introduce me to sex with her dog. It was a onetime thing for me (definitely NOT for her though), an experience I'll never forget, that's for sure. Finally, there's Nancy who has always been the most conservative of my friends while ironically, also the one with the hottest body. God, I would die for her boobs and legs!

Throughout high school the four of us were virtually inseparable. After graduation we all went to college yet somehow we each managed to choose a different one. During our college years we weren't able to see each other as often as we would've liked, but we still stayed in touch by phone or e-mail. During those rare times when we were all back in town together, we would catch up on our lives and relationships.

Through the years we shared a lot of good times, as well as a few bad ones. As close as we were, we didn't have sex together although I can remember many a night when we would masturbate together as we reminisced about some hot guy or another. Granted, none of us were exactly shy about sex (well, maybe Nancy) and while touching our own pussies was easy to do among ourselves, I think we all knew somehow that it would alter our unique relationships if we started actually touching each another. Besides, back in our high school days Beth was the only one interested in girls that way.

There IS one other thing probably worthy to note about my best friend. Beth and I had something we shared that not even Nancy or Sam knew about. Imagine what they would have said if they knew that Beth and I had each fucked the other's father? With Beth and my dad, he finally was able to do what he had been wanting for years – to fuck Beth. As for me and Beth's dad, I had to tease and seduce her father into it and we both knew that he would never do me again. It was something that bonded us together. After all, how many girls can say this about their friendship?

This particular summer was extra special for all of us. We'd all graduated from college this past spring and now we were looking forward to our own futures and careers. Personally, I was committed to staying in the 'Burgh, as was Beth; but both Sam and Nancy had aspirations for supposedly bigger and better options. Our differences were probably most influenced by our respective family situations. Beth and I had most of our family in the area whereas both Sam and Nancy's had relatives that resided in other states. Although none of us openly mentioned it, we all knew that days like this were likely to be limited in the future. Perhaps that was what made the day so special in the end.

Everyone was gathered at my house to enjoy the hot tub and deck for a sunny July afternoon. Of all the things in our house, I think I love the hot tub the most. Over the years I've spent uncountable hours in it, both during the day and at night as well. The jets felt wonderful, better than any shower massager, and God only knows how many times I'd cum with my legs spread apart in front of one, imagining who might be there.

My favorite spot was along one side where the tub was molded to allow me lay on my back with a jet right in front of me. Try to imagine me laying there with one leg draped over the side of the tub and the other hanging to the bottom of the tub as I enjoyed the wonderful sensations created when the warm water washing over my horny pussy and clit. Probably the only thing better was when I actually got fucked in the tub. Of course, my dad was usually the one but many a boyfriend had done me in it as well and I'm sure stories of me and my hot tub made the rounds in the boy's locker room in high school.

Beth was the first to arrive but she had barely had time to say hello when Nancy and Sam arrived together. With the weather as hot as it was, all three of them were wearing practically the same thing - bikini tops and denim cutoffs with their bikini bottoms on underneath. No sooner were we all on the deck, though, than the cutoffs disappeared and we all sat around the glass-topped patio table drinking pink lemonade. Beth, being practically a member of my family, disappeared into the house and quickly emerged with a bottle of wine she'd helped herself to from the basement wine rack.

"Lighten up Kelly, you can't expect us all to drink Diet Coke and lemonade like you," Beth teased as she poured a glass for her and Samantha.

Nancy stuck with the lemonade, though, as I knew she felt the same way I did about alcohol. It wasn't that I'm some sort of prude or anything, For one, I don't care for anything that affects my mind and makes me lose control of myself - like alcohol or drugs. OK, maybe a glass of wine with dinner is fine but that's to enhance the dinner, but not to get drunk. Seeing how fast the contents of the first glasses disappeared, I had no doubt both Beth and Sam were well on their way. Beth, as usual, was the most forward of the group and she quickly led the conversation to her favorite topic - sexual gossip.

"OK, let's see," she said, shifting her stare between the three of us, "Can I guess who got laid most recently..."

The three of us just grinned. Yep, that was my best friend for you! Beth started her inquisition with poor Sam.

"Hmmmmmm, I'd like to say you got it this morning girl but I'm talking about being fucked by a man - so I guess that leaves you out, eh Sam?."

Sam slouched down a little in her chair and pretended to pout while the rest of us laughed. Even Nancy knew what Beth was referring to. I guess Golden Retriever cock didn't qualify today in Beth's game.

We all giggled as each of us knew that while Nancy might APPEAR to be that way to most people, when she DID when she got alone with a guy had earned her a reputation with the boys for being a quite the hellcat.

"Yep, I bet you got it last from that hunk Nathan, but not in the last week."

Nancy folded her arms defiantly with her best Cheshire Cat grin, refusing to give away whether Beth was on track or not. Well, she might try to pretend to be neutral but Sam and I knew Beth must be right or else Nancy would've said something in rebuttal. Beth then turned her large brown eyes to me.

"That leaves Kelly... my dear best friend Kelly, our own little resident daddy-fucker."

Nancy and Sam smiled mischievously at her naughty, but accurate, description of me. Actually, I was the only one of the group that had been fucked by her own dad. The others had always marveled that I did it but none of them were the least bit interested in doing it themselves with their own dads. These girls were the only people in the entire world outside my family that knew my little secret. Even so, I never worried even for a moment that any of them would ever breath a word of it to anyone else. Besides, they had a few skeletons in their own closets as well.

"I'm betting dear old dad fucked you before leaving for work this morning - don't pretend to be shocked, I know ALL about your little tradition," Beth taunted me, obviously having a good time at my expense. "Sorry though, if I can't count Sam's hairy friend then I can't count your dad either so that means it's probably been a week or so for you, hasn't it?"

Like the previous two "victims", I just tried to smile noncommittally and left her to guess the answer. I wasn't about to give her the self-satisfaction of verifying that she had hit it right on the money. Exactly seven days earlier I'd been fucked by a couple of my cousin Kristen's teen boy toys and brothers at that!

"Oh come on, are all of you just gonna sit there and grin or what?" Beth whined.

To no one's surprise, it was me that came up with the answer to her dilemma.

"Hey, why don't we play Truth or Dare?" I offered, "Then everyone HAS to speak up."

Sam rolled her eyes and sighed, "Shit Kelly, grow up, will ya?"

"What do you mean?" I asked her, "Lots of people our age still play it."

"Sure, in porn movies maybe," Sam snickered.

"Oh really Sam?" Beth cut in, "So tell us, just how do YOU know THAT?"

"Hey, some of us DO like to watch it, you know," Sam replied in a tone that sounded a little less light-hearted than perhaps she meant.

"Well, I think it's a GREAT idea Kelly," Nancy finally chimed in. I looked at her and smiled; she was always so supportive and positive.

"Alright, alright, let's do it then," Beth huffed as she sat back down in her seat again. "Who's gonna start?"

2. The Game Begins

Since it was my idea, I raised my hand and the others turned to me, waiting to hear who I pick to be the first to answer. Well, I had a million questions I would've loved to ask each of them so which one would I start with? Alright, there really was no choice when you come down to it. In situations like this you HAVE to pick your best friend.

"OK Beth, Truth or Dare?"

"Truth," Beth responded quickly, taking what she probably thought was the safe route, especially with me doing the asking.

"Hmmmmmm... let's go with your line of questioning first. When was the last time you got laid?"

"Last night," she answered simply.

"Oh really? With who?" I quickly responded, my curiosity up..

Beth grinned at me, a twinkle in her eye, "Noooooo, that's TWO questions. You just asked WHEN, not WHO."

There was nothing I could do but huff and frown at her. Since when was she one to play by the rules anyway?

Beth wiggled her hot butt in her seat as she looked around at each of us and got ready for her selection.

"Nancy - Truth or Dare?"

Knowing Nancy, her response of "Truth" didn't surprise me a bit, especially with Beth asking the question. You couldn't be too careful with her.

"Chicken," Beth teased her and then asked, "Of all the guys in high school, who do you wish you'd been laid by? It has to be someone you didn't do - BJ's disqualify him too."

Nancy sighed and appeared to be in deep thought. I knew she was faking and so did the others. After all, there are some things every girl keeps in her heart and one of them is the guy who got away. If Beth had asked me, I could have answered in a heartbeat. For me, it would have been Todd, the nerdy little guy in my advanced chemistry class. Honestly, I'd been fucked by or blown most of the hunks in school, at least the ones I wanted, but I never did Todd.

What turned me on the most about Todd was I knew he didn't even have a girlfriend during high school and I doubt he'd even kissed a girl, let alone come close to fucking one. I would imagine what it would've been like to take him up to my bedroom and give him what he'd only dreamed about all his life until then. I bet he would've jerked off the rest of his life remembering what I did to him. For some reason or another, it never worked out as he was much too shy to even be near me but still, it would've been fun and I still think about him now and then. So you can imagine my shock when Nancy gave her answer.

"I guess it would have to be Todd, the dork that always hung around the chemistry lab."

Nancy could've confessed to lusting for a little green Martian and I wouldn't have been more surprised. Evidently the look on my face betrayed me because Sam started giggling and pointing at me.

"Oh crap, look at Kelly," she giggled.

Even Nancy was staring at me now, wondering what I was so embarrassed about all of a sudden. Under the heat of their stares I crossed my arms in front of me and defiantly refused to ask anything, using the game as my excuse not to talk. Hopefully by the time it was my turn, it would be all forgotten about.

Now it was Nancy's turn and it was only logical that she pick Sam, since she hadn't had a turn yet.

"Truth," Sam quickly replied, completing round one with a 4-0 record for Truth. Well, that record wouldn't hold up for much longer if I knew these girls at all. The second glasses of wine had disappeared so it wouldn't much longer before they kicked in.

"Hmmmmmm," Nancy hesitated, then her face brightened and then she got the cutest little naughty expression on her face.

"OK Sam, you asked for it... given a choice, would you rather have a man's dick in you or a dog's?"

Beth and I sat up for that one as neither of us had expected anything like that from Nancy, at least not this early in the game. Meanwhile, Samantha just sat there with this amused expression.

"Well, men are ALWAYS nice to have but there's something special about Sandy..." she drifted off with this faraway look in her eyes, pretending to be mesmerized by the memories of her Golden Retriever.

We all giggled like a bunch of little girls. Actually, Sam's preference for the K9 species was well known among us but we rarely made a point of talking about it. It was just like they all knew that Sam had talked me into trying Sandy myself one time

- with emphasis on the ONE time. Nobody ever brought it up because they knew how I felt about it afterwards. Hey, try letting yourself be mated by a dog and see how YOU feel afterwards about it when your mind is clear.

Thankfully nobody tried adding anything witty so Sam took it as her cue. She could've easily gone to me as it was her option now to pick anyone and I'd been "free" the longest from any inquisition. Instead, she went right back at Nancy in an almost vengeful act.

Nancy again chose truth, causing a collective sigh to go up as we were getting ready for something a little more on the daring side but it was Nancy so what could you expect?

"OK, here goes then," Sam said, winding up as if she were some kind of verbal pitcher. "Did you swallow when Sandy came in your mouth."

Nancy's eyes widened like saucers and I could see her face immediately redden. Beth and I were both shocked and Nancy hadn't even answered yet. Heck, it really didn't matter what her answer was, it was the question itself that was outrageous for what it implied. Had Nancy sucked off Sam's dog? No way!

"Sam, you promised...," Nancy whispered almost inaudibly, her face now red as a beet. Sam, on the other hand, was looking positively joyful at her "outing" of Nancy. I had to admit, I would NEVER have guessed that Nancy had ever so much as touched a dog's dick, let alone sucked one.

"The witness will answer the question," Sam rebuked her, as if Nancy was on trial for some sordid crime. To Nancy, that may have been how she felt.

"Yes," came back the answer although if I hadn't been so close to her I would've never heard it was so low.

"DAMN Nancy, that's soooooo fuckin' hot," Beth whispered, her voice a little hoarse from being immediately turned on by Nancy's little revelation.

Nancy made a point of ignoring Beth and just stared at Sam. Clearly she wasn't thrilled at being made to describe anything about that time - whatever it may have been. I couldn't help but wonder if Nancy had just sucked Sandy's dick or if she had let the dog fuck her as well. Sam had Sandy trained well so I knew what the dog's instincts would have been.

"Your turn again sister," she said, her voice tight but controlled.

"OK, I'm ready for it... dare," Sam replied, taunting Nancy somewhat.

"You'd better be ready. OK, Show us what you were doing while you watched me."

Sam just smiled and stood up long enough to drop her thong bottoms and sat back on the chair cushion with her cute little bare ass touching the material, not there was much difference in coverage now that she'd removed the string thong. It was really nothing more than a small triangular piece of cloth held in place by several colored strings that made a mockery of any attempt at decency. Sam put both feet up on the edge of the chair and allowed her knees to spread naturally open to reveal her pretty bare pussy. An image of a dog's nasty looking long dick violating such a cute thing suddenly filled my mind. Then, without saying a word, she started to play with herself using just her right hand.

Now seeing Sam masturbate wasn't exactly something new for any of us but having her do it as a show for us certainly was. Like us, she might start playing with herself in the middle of a hot TV show or porn video, or even if we were just talking about some hot subject that turned her on, but at least then there was a good reason for it. What she was doing now was more like what I would do to turn on a boyfriend. There is something about a girl playing with herself that just seems to grab the attention of every guy I've ever don't it for,

Sam was rubbing her clit using two fingers that circled over the sensitive spot. I find it interesting while some girls like to stick their fingers up inside their pussy when they masturbate, there is a large percentage that don't. Not that I've ever done a survey, but in my experience the "don'ts" definitely outweigh the "dos" which has always mystified me. Sam was one of the "don't'" crowd, preferring to just rub herself on the outside and keeping her fingers out from inside of her. Come to think of it, the only thing I'd ever seen up her pussy was a dog's dick. Personally, I LOVE the feel of my fingers in me as it helps me to imagine a man's dick moving inside of me.

Another thing I noticed about Sam when she masturbated was that she didn't touch her boobs once during the entire time. I've known a few other girls who were that way, not really caring to play with their own boobs. As for me, I LOVE touching my boobs and rubbing my nipples between my fingers. As a young teenager, it also helped to make them feel better when they would hurt during a growth spurt (not that mine ever grew all that fast). Oh well, to each her own.

Sam apparently was enjoying her audience as she wasted no time in getting down to it and bringing herself to a climax as quickly as possible. Less than five minutes had passed when she started her pre-orgasm moans and hip thrusts and then I knew she was cumming. God, she must have been really horny if her sound effects were any indication! She kept herself going for a solid minute or more before letting her wet fingers rest on her wet pussy mound, her body literally quivering from her orgasm.

"Your turn Beth," Sam whispered hoarsely, apparently feeling too spent to continue with the game for the moment. There wasn't much doubt in my mind who Beth would be asking the next question of and I'd already made up my mind what my answer was going to be.

"Dare" I said before Beth could even get out the question to me.

I just nodded, turning my eyes back to Sam who was still holding her pussy tightly with her eyes shut, a soft moan emerging now and then as she would flinch every now and then as if someone had pinched her.

"OK, let's see just how much she turned you sister," Beth said with a naughty smile on her voice, "I want you to lick Sam's pussy and clean her off."

Well, THAT was more like a dream come true than a dare but I wasn't about to file a complaint. I'd licked Sam once a long time ago while at her house so it wasn't like it was a virgin pussy for me. Since Nancy had obviously been at Sam's before, as I now knew, I was sure she'd done the same so seeing me take to Sam's pussy certainly wasn't going to shock her, as I was sure it wasn't to Beth either but she obviously wanted to watch me do it again. Well, who was I to disappoint them?

Sam had overheard Beth's demands and opened her eyes to watch me approach. As I drew near she pulled her hand back from her pussy to let me see it. God, she soaked and swollen so horny I could smell her sex even while still a couple of feet away. She was still breathing hard and I paused to admire her firm smooth thighs and her flat tanned stomach. God she was beautiful and incredibly hot!

I rested my hands on her knees as I slowly lowered myself to the deck in front of her. Ever so slowly I moved my hands up her long legs, caressing her silky skin and letting my fingertips gently touch the sensitive insides of her thighs. I looked up and our eyes met as we both smiled in anticipation of what I was about to do. Memories of our last time together flooded my mind, except this time there was no Sandy laying in the bed to watch us this time. Instead, I had our two best friends as my audience.

"Don't just goggle-eye each other," Beth said impatiently, "C'mon, lick that cunt."

I didn't give her the satisfaction of responding but instead did just as she demanded. As my moved in closer to her pussy, the scent of her sex all but overwhelmed me. Hungrily, my tongue reached out and I felt the tip of it barely graze her clit, just enough to make her jump in the seat like I had nailed her with an electric cattle prod.

My tongue licked Sam's pussy, the taste of her pussy cum covering my tongue like a rich dessert after dinner. God I loved the taste of her pussy! Up and down I went, lapping her like her dog would have had she brought him along, a technique that did not go unnoticed by the others.

"Hey Nancy, does that remind you of anything?" Beth teased poor Nancy. Sam was concentrating too much on what I was doing to put in her two cents and the last thing I was going to do was pull my mouth from her pussy.

"OK, OK," Beth interrupted, "It was a dare, not an invitation to an orgy, enough already you two!"

Reluctantly I gave Sam's pussy another kiss and got back up and took my seat once again. My face felt wet from Sam's pussy and I wished I could have spent longer between her thighs - a LOT longer.

Surprisingly, at least for this group of girls, so far Sam was the only one who had stripped down and even that was just to remove her bottoms, which really didn't cover anything anyway to start with Well, THAT needed to change and it didn't take long. It was my turn again and who better to pick than Beth? She deserved something hot so I waited for her response when I pointed to her, even though I knew what it would be.

"Oh it HAS to be a dare with Kelly at the wheel," she said with a grin at the others.

"Alright then, I want you to finger yourself," I said in a calm voice, trying not to betray what I had in mind.

"Huh? Is that it?" Beth reacted incredulously, "Sheesh, I was expecting something more than THAT from you."

I grinned mischievously and added, "Oh but I'm not finished... I want you to finger yourself in your asshole."

Even Sam's mouth dropped open at that one and I could have sworn Nancy actually gasped. First of all, they all were well aware of my position on anal sex (no pun intended) and while I never tried to impose my personal beliefs on them, being my friends it was just not something they typically discussed around me. Second, while we might play with ourselves a bit around each other, fingering our assholes had never been a part of our "activities". Personally I had always been glad they didn't as for me, there was just something about it that went beyond friends having fun with each other. Thus for ME to be the one to ask Beth to do anal must have come as a total surprise to them.

"Oh yeah, that was a good one Kelly," Beth said admiringly, "I never saw THAT one coming... at least not from you. Hmmmmmm, do you mind if I do it in the hot tub?

I didn't have any objections so Beth got up and took the opportunity to strip off her clothes. She knew the rules at our house - no swim suits in the hot tub. Stepping in gingerly, she slowly lowered herself into the hot water. The jets were running except for the little pump that always kept the water circulating so we could see below the surface.

Beth was a pretty girl and for a moment I had a flashback to that first time in the tub when my dad fucked her. Technically my dad shouldn't have done it as one of the strictest rules my mom and dad had was their "no adultery" rule. Even if it was "OK" with your spouse, they knew that sex outside of marriage was wrong before God. What helped was their belief that marriage was the union not just of two people but their families as well. That meant sex within the family was OK but nothing else was legal.

As for Beth and my dad, the only reason my mom had rationalized it was the long history she had with our family. I was an only child so in many ways Beth was like the sister I never had. Thus when my dad fucked her, it was like he was fucking my sister which evidently made it OK for my mom.

Once she was in the water, the first thing Beth did was turn on the jets. The hot tub roared into action and soon the surface was covered in the froth created by the jets. Beth then backed up against one of the corner jets and let the surging water strike her ass and pussy as she bent over. We all stood around and watched in fascination. Sam still bottomless while the rest of us remained in our bikinis, at least for the moment.

Of course, Beth knew we watching which, if I knew my best friend, was turning her on more at this moment than the jet that was shooting against her pussy. Slowly her hand appeared from under the bubbles and then reappeared between her legs as she started to play with her pussy and asshole. Being all wet, she was able to easily slide her finger inside her asshole and I watched in fascination as she started to stroke it slowly in and out of her. It was one of the more erotic sights I'd seen in out hot tub and at my house, that's saying quite a lot.

"I don't believe this," I heard Nancy commenting to Sam, "God, look what she's doing!"

"Fuck, what's the big deal anyway?" Sam retorted, "Don't tell me you don't do the same thing in the tub or shower at home yourself."

"Sam!" Nancy replied, playfully hitting her on the shoulder. I noticed she didn't say anything about NOT doing it. Heck, even me, the anti-anal girl, had experimented a little that way but never anything even remotely like what Beth was doing to herself in the hot tub at this moment. Like they say, this wasn't her first rodeo!

Beth looked over at us to make sure we were still watching and grinned with her finger pushed up as far as she could into her ass. Again, I got the distinct impression she was more turned on by us watching her than anything else.

"Well, is this what you wanted to see?" she called over to me.

To be honest, it really wasn't As hot as Beth was and as much as I knew that she easy enjoying it, there was just something it that made me uncomfortable. People tell me all the time how I should get over my issues over anal sex and give it a shot but try as I might, the only thing I could think of was the same place where her finger was exploring was where her poop came from - not exactly a sexy image, at least not for me.

"Hey, why don't we all get in?" I offered as an attempt to diplomatically bring an end to the foolishness I'd started.

Sam and Nancy agreed with me and we all stripped before joining Beth in the tub. We each took a corner of the tub and I loved the feeling of the jets as they pulsed against my back and bottom. Beth evidently realized we weren't all that interested in her fingering her ass anymore so she took a seat as well in her own corner.

3. The Games Gets Naughty

"You know, I seem to remember that game use to be a lot more fun," I sighed dramatically. Beth, of course, had her opinion which she wasn't afraid to share with us.

"Well, that's no mystery. Back when we were teenagers we actually had to debate whether to say or do something. These days I don't think any of us is afraid to admit to anything... or do anything."

The rest of us nodded in agreement and I had to admit she was on to something. Back in high school, Nancy would have NEVER admitted to doing anything with Sam's dog, even if she had. As wild as Beth was, she might have at least hesitated before masturbating her asshole. As for me, I'd never had sex with a girl other than my mom and aunt until I went to college so being asked to lick Sam's pussy clean would have been a LOT more shocking than it was this afternoon. Nowadays I WANTED to do it so what was the bid deal in being dared?

"So what's this mean then," Nancy asked philosophically, "Have we all become so jaded that we can't shock each other anymore?"

"Well, there ARE a few topics I think we still avoid," Beth mentioned mischievously. Although we all had a pretty good idea what she was talking about, something in us made us curious enough to want to listen further. Beth could see she had our undivided attention and looked at each of us.

"Let's see, we all joke about it but we don't REALLY talk about Sam and her dog. Then there's Nancy who I KNOW is holding out on us, not to mention her own adventures with the canine species, and finally there's Kelly, whom we all know is the incest girl among us but yet we all seem to tip-toe around the subject."

"So what about YOU?" Nancy countered, "What's Beth holding back from us?"

Beth look thoughtful for a moment, as if she was mulling over her response but I think she knew from the start what it would be.

"To be honest, I think I'm the only one in our group who ISN'T hiding something, or at least something we don't discuss."

"OK, so now that you've pointed out the obvious, so what?" Sam retorted back to Beth.

"I don't know," Beth shrugged her bare shoulders which were barely out of the swirling water, "Don't you think it's time we stopped playing games like Truth or Dare and just opened up with each other. Dammit anyway, we may not be together like this again for who knows how long!"

In my heart I agreed with her. It was a little odd that four girls could be such close friends, sharing so much over the years and yet in some ways we hid certain things, even though we all knew about them.

"Well, what do you say I start my own version of the game then," Beth announced defiantly. "Let's start with Kelly."

I looked at her sharply. What the hell was she up to now?

"As I'm sure you all know, even though we haven't talked about it, Kelly's dad fucked me for the first time right here in this very hot tub. At the time, I didn't know he was doing Kelly; hell, NONE of us knew about THAT back then. So tell me Kelly, heck tell all of us, how did it make you feel to see your dad fucking me and you couldn't say anything?"

Despite my misgivings, the memories of that day came flooding in as if it were yesterday. Actually, as much as it had turned me on at the time, I was shocked that my father, who had NEVER cheated on my mom, was fucking her. All my life they had preached to me how adultery was breaking one of the Ten Commandments. Although I understood the "sister" rationalization, it still seemed a bit contrived. At the same time, I couldn't believe how much it turned me on to see him fucking Beth – my best friend who had been part of our family for so many years. There was so much I could have said in response to her questions yet all that came out was a lame answer.

"Well, I guess I was turned on and I wanted badly to join in."

"As long as we're on the subject, I've always wondered why did you keep what you do with your dad a secret from us for so long?" Nancy asked, joining in on the questioning, "Didn't you trust us?"

I felt a little uncomfortable in answering as the truth wasn't flattering to your best friends.

"My parents and I agreed that we wouldn't tell anyone – not even my closest friends. Think about it; what would you guys have said back when we were just freshmen and you found out what my dad was doing with me?"

Nancy looked uncomfortable herself but she still found the courage to speak her mind saying, "Well, you know Kelly, and PLEASE don't take this wrong because you know I love you. Personally, I STILL don't quite understand how you can fuck your own father. Sorry, it just seems... so wrong somehow, you understand?"

I wasn't going to debate it and so in order to keep this from getting into something we would regret later, I turned the questioning to her because there was something I knew about her that I was positively certain she didn't know I knew, and that none of the others knew either.

"Isn't that sort of the kettle calling the pot black, Nancy?" I asked, letting the others to wonder what I was talking about but it was obvious from Nancy's expression I'd hit the bulls eye.

"Hey, what the fuck are we doing?" Sam cut in, "This was supposed to be our great last get together before we all split up and went on with our lives. Why are we being so heavy?"

Nancy looked relieved and from the way her eyes bored into me, I could tell she wasn't happy with my near-revelation. Indeed, what would Beth and Sam had they said if they knew what Nancy, the shy and conservative one of our group, was actually a pedophile? I had only learned it by accident through the comments of several people that by themselves, meant nothing, but when pieced together described a very troublesome side to my friend. I may have been guilty of fantasizing about some of my young charges when I babysat, but I never actually did anything and can't imagine how I ever could have. Nancy, on the other hand...

Sam continued, breaking my concentration as she said, "Well, not only did we not discuss things as teens, how the hell did we all fool around so much and never do each other? Now THAT'S a question worth exploring, don't you think?"

4. Enough of the Games

For a moment we all were silent with nothing but the noise of the hot tub to break the silence. Then we all started to talk at once and again in unison, went quiet to let the others talk. We then broke out in laughter at ourselves.

"Well, why don't we go inside then?" I offered, leaving my hopes unvoiced but I think they all knew where I was trying to lead them.

Without further ado we stepped out of the tub and dried ourselves off before heading back into the house and then down to the family room in the basement. The basement felt almost cold in comparison to the hot outdoors, especially after sitting in the hot tub, and I could feel my nipples tingle and noticed the others having a similar reaction. The four of us stood in a circle (was it technically a square?), each waiting for the other to make the next move.

"Oh fuck it, what are we waiting for?" Beth huffed, "We all want the same thing so why are we acting like shy teenagers?"

Sam was the first to react and she turned to Nancy and put her arms around her, pulling Nancy's gorgeous tanned nude body tightly into her own before kissing her softly. Nancy responded eagerly, putting her arms around Sam's neck and drawing her into her like two teen lovers on a hot date. Beth turned to me and smiled.

"So tell me again why didn't we just do this from the start?" she said with a naughty grin. We both hugged and then we kissed. Beth's full lips felt so soft against mine and I could feel her large boobs pressing up against mine, making my nipples tingle even more.

"I love you Kelly," she whispered softly to me.

I knew exactly what she meant. It wasn't the type of love you have between two lovers or a husband and wife but the kind of love that only the closest of friends can share. I replied the same to her and we kissed more passionately as we slowly dropped to our knees on the soft carpeting in the middle of the floor. Sam and Nancy had already done the same.

Maybe it was because we were such good friends, or maybe it was just that we were all horny as hell, but somehow we worked ourselves into a circle without anyone saying a word of direction. Each of us was licking a pussy while someone else was licking our own. I had Nancy's pussy in my face while she had Sam's and Sam was doing Beth's who was doing mine. In all the years we had sat in a circle, masturbating and touching ourselves, we'd never done anything like this and yet suddenly it just felt like the most perfect thing to do.

After that it was just a couple of hours of non-stop "lesbian" love making. I only use that phrase as there were no men involved. Although I don't think any of us would have protested had a few dicks been available, at the same time that would have changed the dynamics entirely. Even though there were four of us, I hesitate to call it an "orgy" because that phrase seems to degrade the experience into something only sexual in nature. Instead, what we shared was unique. Only four girls who had grown up together and shared so much could understand what I mean.

This wasn't like at a party where a bunch of girls started playing with each other to turn on the guys. This had nothing in common with the sex parties Beth loved so much. It wasn't at all like anything I had experienced as an escort at a bachelor party. And it definitely wasn't anything like being with a group of guys. This was four of the closest friends simply enjoying one another in the most intimate and basic way possible.

I'm sure someone will want to ask me how many times we each came. Well, I don't know about the others as we didn't keep a scoreboard or anything, but for me I lost count. It seemed at times like it was just one after the other as licked and rubbed up against one another. I even somehow managed to break away to run to my bedroom where I pulled out my trusty old double dildo which we used in various combinations.

My favorite was when Nancy and I both got on our hands and knees, our bare butts close together as Beth and same helped push the dildo into our pussies. We rocked back and forth, sometimes smacking our butts against one another, driving the dildo deep inside both of us at the same time. It was almost like being fucked doggie style by a guy and we both came so hard we each collapsed, pulling the dildo out of her and leaving it still in me until Beth stole it for her to use with Sam next.

We might have gone on all night if the basement door leading to the garage hadn't suddenly opened and in walked my parents! At the time Sam and Beth were engaged in a 69 while I was lying next to Nancy on the floor, making out like two teenagers at a party.

"What do you say Mary? Looks like the girls have been having a good time while we were out," my dad observed to my mom. Sheesh, talk about being the master of the understatement!

My mom just pushed my dad along to the stairs, clucking at him to behave himself and leave us alone. Of course, my dad would not have actually done anything, even if she hadn't, but why subject the poor guy to such temptation? It was like waving fresh meat in front of a starving lion, could you blame him for wanting to eat it?

As much as they tried not to spoil it for us, the appearance of my parents seem to break the spell we all had been under. We each pushed for one more orgasm but after that we ended up just lying on the floor in each other's arms. In retrospect it was probably a good thing as I was so flushed it felt like I was burning up!

Eventually we all calmed down and headed back up to the deck where we'd left our clothes. My parents had evidently decided to take advantage of the hot tub themselves while we were "occupied". At least with my friends they didn't have to worry about wearing anything and as always, it warmed my heart to see them together with my dad's strong arms wrapped around my mom's beautiful naked body. I could imagine how hard he must have gotten seeing the four of us going at it in the basement. After all, he might be my father but he was still a man and what man wouldn't react to such a scene? I silently bet to myself that my dad hadn't wasted any time fucking my mom once they were in the tub. For that matter, had he even waited that long?

The rest of the evening was relatively uneventful as we each discussed our plans for the future while my dad grilled dinner for all of us. It was if we all didn't want the evening to end. Something magical always seemed to happen when the four of us got together and I think each of us somehow knew that the magic would not reappear for a long time after tonight. Nancy was due to leave the next day and Sam would be off herself in a week or so. Thank goodness Beth would still be around!

Unfortunately, everything must eventually come to an end and so it was without last evening together. We were all in tears as we said our goodbyes but I knew while we might be physically separated, there was always our cell phones, email, and web cams to keep us in touch. Thank god for technology!

(Jul 13) Chapter 145: High School Regrets

Story codes: MF FF oral
Nancy - girlfriend (23)
Todd - Nancy's boyfriend (22)

If you're like me, it's probably more the things you DIDN'T do in high school that you regret more than anything you did. Even then, it's not really WHAT I didn't do so much as WHO I didn't do. Although we can't go back in time and do things over, sometimes you get another chance at it later in life. The question was, what would I do when such an opportunity arose?

1. High School Class Slut

While I was in high school I would imagine that if you asked most people who the smartest kid was, who the richest kid was, who was the class clown, etc. that you would have gotten pretty consistent answers. We all knew who those kids were when we were in school. Many of us had label that may not have been listed in the yearbook but were well-known by everyone. For instance, there was nothing listed next to my picture but I'm pretty confident that most people still remember me as the class slut. Every class has one and I worked hard for my position (no pun intended).

Actually, being THE class slut isn't as easy as you might think. First, there's a lot of competition from other slutty girls, all of whom would scratch your eyes out given half the chance. Then there's the pressure from people always having such high expectations of you, especially the guys. It seemed like every day some new guy would hit on me, expecting me to at the very least suck his dick on demand if not more.

Contrary to popular belief, being a class slut takes a of work. It's more than just spreading your legs for every guy that asks, any girl could do that. In fact, when I look back at it I really didn't fuck all that many guys while I was in high school compared to some girls I knew - only about a dozen by the time I graduated. When you consider I'd been having sex throughout all four years, that's not exactly a lot of guys. OK, more than most girls but nothing for the record books. Just because a girl had fucked more than me didn't confer on her the same "status" I enjoyed in high school.

It's all in the intangibles - your attitude, clothes, makeup, hair, and especially the way you act when you're around people. My class had its share of girls that fucked just about every guy in school they could lure into bed with but that just earned them the reputation for being whores, not sluts. It's a fine line!

Based on what people have told me and asked me, apparently most people thought that as the class slut I could get laid by just about anybody I wanted, any time I wanted it. Unfortunately, that's wasn't exactly true. Of course there was always some horny boy wanting to get in my panties (that's only a figure of speech).

Then there were those boys who were so ridiculously shy that I could've literally hog-tied and dragged into my bedroom, stripped right in front of them and they STILL wouldn't have done anything because they were so unsure of themselves. There were also a few diehards that genuinely believed that sex before marriage was wrong and I respected their beliefs. Some guys had girlfriends they wouldn't cheat on. I know, that sounds ridiculous that they would not take advantage of what was available to them but those kind of guys are actually out there.

Two boys stand out in my mind from my high school years that I never was able to add to my "sexual history". First and foremost on my list was Todd who worked in the chemistry lab. Many a day Robin, my lab partner, and I would tease him mercilessly as he spied on us from behind the curtains in door to the supply room at the back of the classroom. We knew he was jerking off back there even though we never could catch him in that act. Maybe it was the way he would look at us and try to hide his erection that endeared me to him but try as I might, I was never able to get him to even talk to me because he was so shy. Something about the fact that I knew he masturbated about me in class (and probably at home as well), together with his insane shyness, made me want to be his first.

The second boy was totally different from Todd. Whereas Todd was ridiculously shy, Rich was the class hunk. My only problem was that he was "in love" with one of the hottest cheerleaders and refused to date any other girls. Personally, I don't think he was just being true to her so much as scare she would dump him if he cheated on her. I'd done everything I could to let him know I was "available" but he wouldn't even give me the time of day, especially if the bitch was around. The more he turned me down, the more determined I was that I was going to get him one way or another. Well, it never happened, one of the few times in my life that I really wanted a guy and he turned me down.

2. Nancy Puts Her Plan Into Action

After high school I went to college about of state and other than during summer and various holiday breaks, I didn't see much of the hometown and I had no idea what happened to either guy. With time, memories fade and I hadn't really even thought about either of them in ages until I played Truth or Dare with my friends and Nancy mentioned that one of her secrets in high school had been the desire to fuck Todd. You can imagine the shocked look on my face we I learned that we both had wanted the same nerd to fuck us.

After our "Truth or Dare" get-together, the next time I had lunch with Nancy we discussed her answer about Todd. Of course, neither us had wanted him as a boyfriend and would have dropped him like a hot rock after the first time, but each of us felt the same way - that he was the "fish" we both had let get away. Guys aren't the only ones that occasionally look to add a notch in their belt.

A couple a days later, Nancy called me and asked if I wanted to go out the following Friday night with her to see a movie. There were several we hadn't seen yet and since I had nothing planned I figured why not and accepted. Nancy was the quietest in our infamous little foursome that dated back to when we were all in preschool. As one of her closest friends, I knew that "innocent and naive" Nancy could get just as horny and naughty as the rest of us, she just didn't express it publicly to the degree the rest of us did. She was always more the follower than the leader, willing to go along with about anything but hardly ever initiating anything herself.

Friday night came along before I knew it and I got myself ready to go. I figured we would go to the movie and then probably grab something to eat afterwards, maybe at a local Eat 'N Park restaurant or TGI Friday. It was just going to be the two of us and while we may have gotten a bit carried away the previous week at my house, I had no expectations whatsoever that anything would happen like that again between just the two of us. We were good friends and I enjoyed being with her, trading stories and gossip. When I went out with my cousin Kristen or best friend Beth, I never knew what was going to happen; but with Nancy, it was a pretty safe bet we would have a pleasant, rather uneventful evening out.

With that in mind, I decided to stick with a simple pair of tight, low cut jeans and my favorite pink tank top. Even if I was with Nancy, I was STILL out in public so why not look good? You never know, maybe some hot guy would walk by while we were having dessert! The tank top was a bit too small for me but I liked the way it clung to me as if it was painted on. Without a bra, my nipples poked through as if nothing was there and you could even make out the full outline of the entire areola.

Nancy had volunteered to drive so I waited on the couch in the living room, watching out the picture window. It wasn't long before I heard a car approaching, the noisy brick street in front of our house amplifying the sound of the tires. Soon her little red Saturn appeared and pulled up to the curb. Nancy didn't bother get out of the car but instead just beeped her horn quickly a couple of times to let me know she was there.

Since my parents were out for the night, I turned off the lights, grabbed my purse, and locked the front door behind me. I jumped in the front seat and Nancy immediately took off almost before I had the door closed, not even bothering to say hello. She seemed to be nervous but at the same time she had this mischievous smile on her face that she always got whenever she was trying to hide something, a habit which just made her attempted deception all the more obvious.

"Well, hello to you too girl!" I huffed, trying to put on my seatbelt as she took the turn onto the main road sharp that I was thrown against the door, "Ummmmm, is there something I should know about?"

"You could say that," she replied with an air of mystery. It wasn't like Nancy to be so mysterious so what was she up to anyway?

"And are you gonna tell me or what?"

"Well, if you'd paid the least bit of attention when you got in the car, you would've noticed."

Now what the heck was she talking about? The hair seemed to stand up on the back of my neck suddenly and I looked over my shoulder to the back seat. It was then that I noticed for the first time that we weren't alone. Holy crap, there was a guy in the back seat! I turned to Nancy with my mouth wide open. What the heck? My expression couldn't have been hard for her to read.

"What's the matter Kelly, don't tell me that you don't know who that is!"

I looked back again where he was sitting with his hands on the seat next to him, a grin on his face but so far not saying a word. He looked to be tall and while not skinny, he wasn't overweight by any means. He had thick blonde hair that he'd let grow over his ears, which seemed to stick out from his head a little more than necessary. One thing that immediately caught my eye was that he had the most piercing blue eyes. It was like they could shine in the dark they were so bright and when he looked at me, it was like he was seeing into my soul. He was dressed casually, jeans and a polo shirt. Overall, he was your typical decent looking guy you might find anywhere and walk by without noticing. Why she thought I would know him was beyond me.

"Oh come on Kelly, I can't believe you don't recognize him," Nancy teased me, "Maybe I should've had him wear his lab coat with his hard cock poking out of it."

The poor guy grimaced at that one, as if her last comment had caused him physical pain but he was a good sport and kept silent. Lab coat? Erection? What the heck was she talking about?

"God Almighty Kelly, you're supposed to be the smart one but you can be so blind sometimes. Really girl, don't you remember who we talked about the other day... the guy we both wished we'd done back in high school?"

No, it couldn't be! Todd? Geeky and skinny little dork Todd? Where was the acne, the horrible black rimmed glasses, the ever-present pocket protector? No crew cut? How did he grow up so much since high school that I didn't even recognize him?

"You've GOT to be kidding... Todd?" I said to him, staring at him like he was the latest exhibit at the zoo.

"Yeah, it's me and...," he started to say, the grin broadening on his face but Nancy cut him off before he could finish.

"Well, after we talked the other day it hit me... why not see if Todd was still around? So I called up some people who called some other people and it didn't take long to find him. Did you know that he still lives around here, just on the North Side now?"

I looked back at Nancy, still unsure exactly what was going on. Had aliens abducted my friend and replaced her with this replica? The Nancy I'd known all these years would never have done such a thing.

"OK, like so I called him told him about what we talked about and then asked if he wanted to join us tonight."

"You told him about THAT?" I asked, feeling a little funny inside now. This was getting to be WAY too weird for me.

"Hey Todd, why don't you be a good boy and tell Kelly what I asked you about," Nancy called back to Todd as she drove on. It was then I noticed we weren't heading to the theater but instead were going almost exactly OPPOSITE the way I would have expected.

Todd's face reddened a bit as he seemed to be working up the courage to speak. Well, at least he still had some of the old shyness about him.

"Nancy told me about your game last week and asked if I had wanted to do either of you back then."

"And then what did you tell me?" Nancy pressed on.

"Well heck, EVERY guy in school wanted to," he said, swallowing hard, "It wasn't just me."

"And do you still want to?" Nancy pushed him more.

"I guess," he stammered, "Are you really serious about this?"

Nancy slapped her hand onto my leg sharply and asked, "What do you say Kelly, are we serious?"

Sheesh, what COULD I say at that moment. Talk about your night's plans taking a sudden detour. First off, I still couldn't believe Nancy had done such a thing. Second, how had she convinced him to do this in the first place? Finally, I was still trying to get my head around the fact that this guy in the back seat was really the same dork I knew back in high school!

"OK, what's going on Nancy?" I finally managed to get out. "Why is he here, for real I mean?"

"Well, after we talked about him the other day I couldn't get him out of my head so that's why I tried to find him," she explained, "I just figured we could go back to my place and get to know each other a little better, if you know what I mean. Sure beats a movie, don't you think?"

Well, that all made sense based on the direction we were heading. At the speed she was driving, we would be at her house in a few minutes provided we didn't get pulled over in the meantime. That didn't leave a lot of time to say yea or nay to the whole idea. Of course my first instinct was to say yes. After all, it wasn't like he was still that stupid dork at school so why not take advantage of an opportunity to get laid? Besides, it had been a while since I'd been fucked so this was like a dream cum true! On the other hand, the whole thing seemed rather manipulative. What was REALLY happening? What was I missing here?

Before I could say anything more, Nancy pulled into a parking space in front of her apartment building. I'd been to her place several times, but it was always just to visit, never anything like what I thought she had in mind now. For that matter, Nancy and I had NEVER done anything together like what I starting to suspect she was plotting. Boy, you think you know someone like the back of your hand and then she pulls something like this on you!

We got out and quickly went up the wooden stairs to her apartment. Todd fell in behind and didn't say a word but I had a feeling I knew where his eyes were focused as Nancy and I made our way up the stairs right in front of him - at least I knew where his eyes had BETTER be. Nancy unlocked the door and we both followed her inside. The first thing I noticed was the place was empty, even though I knew she shared it with another girl. What exactly Nancy's relationship was with her was a subject of controversy among the rest of her friends as she steadfastly refuse to even discuss it. Whether she was doing that to tease us or hide something I hadn't quite figured out yet Nancy must have noticed me looking around for her.

Was that supposed to be a hint that Julie wasn't a lesbian or did it mean she was bi? Nancy didn't bother to elaborate as she headed for the refrigerator and called back to us, "Beer anyone?"

I breathed a sigh of relief when Todd refused as I hate the taste of beer and even more so, what it does to the flavor of a guy's cum. As much as I normally LOVE to eat as much cum as I can get, there is an unpleasant aftertaste when the guy has been drinking too much beer that I've never cared for. Nancy knew better than to expect me to drink any so she wound up bringing out a few Diet Cokes.

"So tell me Todd, what do you think?" Nancy asked, a naughty grin on her face.

Todd looked bewildered, sort of like a little lost puppy. Apparently Nancy really hadn't told him a lot and I was getting the impression her call to him had put him in an awkward position where he couldn't refuse her request to meet us without seeming rude. I had a sneaky suspicion that until the past few minutes he really hadn't believed that anything was going to actually happen and probably was prepared for it to turn out to be some kind of practical joke.

"Ummmmm... what do you mean?" he said, his voice sounding a little strained as his eyes moved between the two of us girls.

"Oh Todd," Nancy said seductively, shaking her head slowly, "You know what I mean. Kelly and me... do you still want us?"

This was an interested side of Nancy, one I hadn't seen before. To openly taunt and tease a guy wasn't her usually M.O. and I wondered if she was doing it more for my benefit than his.

"Yeah right, like you're REALLY serious," he said, sounding a little annoyed now if anything, "I should have never gone along with this."

He started looking around as if he was waiting for the cameras to emerge and someone to yell "surprise!" Well, there was one way to demonstrate our intent (well, at least what was already Nancy's intent which was now becoming mine as well). If for me it was like some kind of dream and the reality of the situation hadn't quite sunk in yet, I could only imagine what was going through poor Todd's head! At times like this a person just responds automatically and with my past experiences, I was undoubtedly much better equipped to handle the situation than he was. But first I had a couple of issues to clear up that had been bugging me for years while I had the opportunity.

"So tell me Todd, did you masturbate when you peeked through the lab door window blinds at Robin and me in Chemistry class?" I asked. Of course we both had been convinced at the time that he did but there had never been an "official" confirmation.

"Ummmmm," Todd looked decidedly embarrassed but managed to answer, "I guess so."

"Ha, I KNEW it!" Nancy cried out, hearing the answer, "I TOLD you he was doing it."

"Hey, don't blame me... it was your fault," he tried to explain, "I mean, wearing those short skirt outfits and showing off your legs and ass all the time. Damn, what did you EXPECT a guy to do?"

"Well... we expected you to do exactly what you did," I replied with a smile. "So if you did THAT, then why did you avoid me all the time whenever I tried to get close to you?"

"I don't know," he stammered, "I mean, look at the reputation you had. I figured you were just teasing me and having fun at my expense like the other girls did. I knew you never would have gone out with someone like me."

I was starting to realize that while Todd had matured into a good looking guy, he was still a little on the insecure side. Well, I knew I could fix that!

"Do you know what I would have done if you had asked me out, Todd?" I asked in a low, seductive voice, deliberately licking my lips just enough for him to notice.

"Ahhhhhh, I'm not sure," he said, hesitating before he answered.

"You said I had a reputation. So what do you think I would have done?"

Todd's face was flushed now and I knew I was getting awfully close to crossing the line in terms of teasing him versus embarrassing him. I'm sure there were enough guys telling their friends about me that there was no doubt he knew exactly what I liked to do on a first date. Judging from the growing bulge in his pants, he was probably thinking about that reputation right now.

"Well then, since I didn't get to show you back then, would you like me to show you now?" I asked with a wink towards Nancy who was grinning from ear to ear, obviously pleased with herself for setting up this little encounter.

Without waiting for Todd to respond, I stood up and quickly stepped up in front of him where he was seated on the center cushion of the couch. Reaching to my waist with my arms crossed, I grabbed my tank top with both hands and with one swift motion, lifted it up and over my head, dropping it to the couch beside him. For a few moments I just stood there in front of him, wearing just my jeans and shoes with my now bare breasts on display for him.

"So what do you think, Todd, worth the wait?" I asked him as I cupped my boobs and bounced them a little in my hands..

The way his jaw dropped and his eyes zeroed in on my boobs like a laser told me more than anything he might have said if he had found his voice. I loved the way it made me feel when guys like Todd stared at my body. It made me feel sexy and good about myself.

Moving up closer to him, I leaned over him and put my hands on his shoulders so that my boobs hung down in front of his face. At barely a 34C, it wasn't like they swung like pendulums or anything but he was getting a pretty good eyeful of what I had.

"You know, you CAN touch them if you want to," I whispered softly to him, "I don't mind."

Todd hesitated and then reached out and put one hand on each of my boobs. At first he just planted his hands against them with his palms flat. Then his fingers slowly curled, just slightly at first and then more as he started to squeeze my boobs.

"Well, do they feel good?" I asked.

Todd just nodded and then squeezed them some more, letting my hard nipples poke out between his fingers as he did. I looked over at Nancy, who was watching our every move, and motioned with my head for her to join in. After all, it had been her idea to do all this in the first place so why should she be relegated to spectator status? Nancy took a deep breath and moved in besides me, dropping her blouse and bra along the way.

"Here Todd, why don't you try Nancy's now," I said as she moved up tight against me. She felt so warm and soft and for a moment I recalled being with her not so long ago at my house with our friends, Her boobs were more like a 36D - or bigger and they hung down a lot more than mine but at the same time, it gave him a lot more to grab onto.

For a moment I almost bent over to grab her boobs between my lips but then I realized she was talking to Todd. He dropped his head and took one of her nipples in his mouth and began to gently suck on it. As Todd seemed to be happy sucking on her larger boobs, I decided to stop messing around and get down to business.

I dropped to my knees on the carpeting in front of him where I pushed his legs apart and then reached in to unzip his jeans. His belt was a pain to undo but I figured it out and unbuttoned his jeans. Pulling the jeans apart in the middle, I reached in under the elastic band of his Jockey underwear (it would have been a lot easier if he'd worn boxers, or better yet, none at all) and finally found the head of his dick. Not surprisingly, he was already erect and I released his cock from the containment of his underwear and it popped out, evidently happy to have been freed from its cotton prison.

"You know Todd, I bet this is what you wanted me to do when you spied on us in Chemistry class," I said as I grabbed his dick in my hand.

Todd took a couple of seconds away from sucking on Nancy's incredible boobs to answer saying, "Oh my god, you have no idea how much."

"So have you had a girl suck your dick yet, Todd?" I asked him, stroking his dick with my hand slowly. Based on my experience, I placed him at about six inches but he was nice and thick, more so than average for his size.

"I've had a couple of girls in college who did it," he admitted before Nancy pulled his head back to her chest which shut him up.

I couldn't help but feel a little disappointed. It would've been hot to give him his first BJ but then again, he WAS 23 and it was a bit much to expect any boy that age not to have had his dick sucked at least once. But still, you can't blame me for wishing he hadn't.

Keeping his mouth on Nancy's nipple, Todd helped me pull his pants down and off his ass until they were gathered at his ankles. That was good enough for me, at least for the moment. I took a long look at his dick and wondered how many times had he masturbated and then squirted cum out of it dreaming of me doing what I was about to do now.

Lowering my head to his crotch, I took just the top of his dick in my mouth and then let my tongue tease him, poking it into the tip of his dick and then running it around the smooth skin of his engorged cock head. As I breathed in deeply, I noticed that he smelled especially good, a little musky and sweaty but then it WAS hot outside and who could blame him for having a little body odor to him?

Taking my mouth off of him, I let my tongue run down the length of his smooth dick and then back up again until I was circling the swollen head once again. Mmmmmmm, he tasted pretty damn good too! Finally I went down on him, taking his entire dick in my mouth until it pushed down my throat slightly and my kips met the hairy base of his cock. Holding it there for a few seconds, I slowly lifted myself off of him, twisting my head back and forth as I did as my tongue worked around it to stimulate him even more.

"Mmmmmmm, you have a great cock Todd," I murmured to him, looking up at him where he still had Nancy's large nipple deep in his mouth.

"Nancy, you have GOT to try this bad boy out for yourself," I invited her.

Nancy pulled back away from Todd who then laid back against the couch, looking down at me as I stroked his stiff dick and waited impatiently for Nancy to join in. She kneeled to the side of him, leaning over and taking his wet dick in her mouth as I held it by the base of the shaft to steady it. Her incredible boobs rested on his thigh as she bobbed a few times on his dick before letting it loose and grinning at me.

"Shit, he DOES have a nice dick," she said as she paused to get her breath back, talking to me as if he wasn't there to hear her.

I took the opportunity to take him back in my mouth once again and for a while we just swapped back and worth, once of us sucking his dick while the other leaned back and watched. Meanwhile, Todd was watching everything with his hands to his side, letting us do all the work. He didn't say a word, probably because he couldn't believe what was happening! This was the sort of situation he had probably dreamed about many times when he masturbated. I could imagine how it must seem almost unreal to him that one of his jerk-off fantasies was coming true.

"So Todd, ever have TWO girls sucking your dick at the same time?" I asked. He didn't answer but shook his head vigorously to indicate he hadn't. Well, something told me that he would remember this time for the rest of his life.

Nancy was clearly enjoying his cock so I took the opportunity to strip off my jeans and shoes while Todd watched. Standing up, I worked the tight jeans over my hips and finally got them off. This particular pair of jeans was more accurate at measuring my weight than any scale. It didn't even take an excess pound to make them virtually unwearable so they kept me honest when it came to watching my weight! Of course, there was no way I would be caught dead wearing panties under my jeans, no matter where I was or who I was going out with so with my jeans off that left me nude for Scott to take in an eyeful of before I sat down at the end of the couch and turned to face him. Spreading my legs wide apart, I let him see my pussy like I was some cheap whore exposing herself on stage.

"Since you masturbate thinking about me, I guess it's only fair I return the favor" I said in a teasing tone.

Of course, to be honest I had never actually SEEN him masturbate but then did it make any difference? As Nancy continued to suck his dick, I started playing with myself, at first just running my fingers over my horny pussy and then slowly working them in tighter inside my pussy lips, spreading them apart until he could finally see my wet pussy hole. When it came to masturbation, there was only one thing I liked more than touching myself and that was to have someone WATCH me touching myself. Sometimes I think I get more turned on being watched than the actual physical stimulation! The mind and imagination can be more powerful than the finger when it comes to making yourself feel good.

It also didn't hurt I was able to watch Nancy as she give Todd one incredible BJ. She was stroking his dick with her hand as she sucked on the upper portions of it, bobbing an twisting on his shaft with her beautiful full lips. I gasped involuntarily as I pushed my middle finger up inside my pussy. The more I watched them the more I debated what I wanted more, Todd's dick in me or Nancy licking my pussy. Actually, in the end it was a no-brainer. How could I EVER choose NOT to take a guy's dick? Sure I loved it when a girl ate me out, but NOTHING beats being fucked by a real cock. For the moment, though, Nancy was in control of his dick so the best I could do was plunge my finger deep inside of me and wish it was Todd's cock instead.

Personally, I would have preferred to have been the first to get his dick in my pussy but then it WAS Nancy who had set this all up so she deserved it - I guess. For the moment it was just me and my finger as I watched my friend in action.

"You ready to fuck me now?" Nancy taunted Todd. The poor guy was totally in shock but there are some things a guy can do in his sleep and fucking was one of them.

"Come here," he said in a soft but surprisingly strong voice.

Todd reached out and took Nancy by the waist with both hands and helped her to climb up on his lap, his hard dick poking straight up like a missile ready for launch. Nancy straddled him and squatted over his steel-rod dick. As her pussy wet his dick, she paused and leaned over to kiss him briefly.

"God I can't wait to get your dick in me," I heard her whisper to him.

As hot as I was for Todd, seeing my supposedly shy friend morphing into an outright slut right in front of my eyes was REALLY hot for me. Nancy wasn't paying any attention to her audience, namely me. The only thing that she seemed to care about at the moment was the fleshy pole that was bending just a little as she dropped down onto it until it suddenly slipped inside of her and the head disappeared from sight. Her head dropped back as she moaned softly and closed her eyes tightly as his dick disappeared into her cunt like a snake into its hole.

"That's it Todd, fuck her deeper," I encouraged him, as if any encouragement was necessary.

Nancy was clearly enjoying herself but then what girl in her right mind wouldn't love riding a dick like Todd's? She gripped the back of the couch behind him as she rode his dick like the finals of a championship bull-riding contest. Todd's eyes were also closed as he concentrated totally on Nancy's hot pussy as it slide up and down around his dick, rubbing him and stimulating him in was that his hand could never do. Her hips would sometimes swing around with his dick barely in her, like she was trying to keep a hula hoop going and then at other times she would drop down until her weight was completely on him and then grind her shaved pussy into his hairy crotch, burying him as deep inside of her as possible. Todd started to groan louder and his head fell back against the couch. From the quickening efforts of Nancy, I knew she was as aware as I was of what was about to erupt!

"Cum in her, Todd," I whispered hoarsely, not really caring if he heard me or not but more like a wish for myself as I watched him fuck my friend.

"Oh fuck!" he finally gasped, his eyes widening as he approached his climax. Nancy dropped down on him again and started to swivel her hips around, literally stirring his cock around inside of her pussy.

"Oh yeah, do it!" Nancy whispered as I saw Todd's ass clench and then his body shook and jerked as he started to cum inside of her. God, he was so deep in her that his cum had to be way up inside of her!

I tried to imagine the sensations Nancy must be feeling now as his hot sperm shot from the end of his throbbing cock to be deposited inside her pussy. It was enough to make my own orgasm finally take off. My pussy felt like it was on fire when my hips rose up automatically, as if I was trying to get Todd to bury himself deeper in to me instead. My orgasm struck me like a Mack truck, taking away my breath as I squeezed my eyes shut and it was like stars were exploding in front of me. Low moans escaped from my lips as waves of pure pleasure hit me like I was standing in the water at a beach after a storm. When I finally opened my eyes, I saw the two of them were watching me, both smiling as Nancy remained perched on his dick like she had been mounted there like an insect on a pin.

"I think somebody's ready to be fucked, Todd," Nancy said as she turned back to him.

She lifted herself off of him and my eyes remained fixed on his wet dick as it slipped out of her dripping pussy. It was covered with his cum mixed with her pussy juices, looking like the most delicious thing I'd seen in a long time! I wanted to suck and taste it but even more than that, my pussy was practically screaming for it to be in me.

I could barely breath with anticipation as Scott made his way over the couch and kneeled between my legs. I hadn't moved from the position I was in when I was masturbating before and my soaking wet pussy was wide open, waiting for him. I tried to look him in the eyes but he was staring at my pussy like a hungry kid looking through the window at a candy store. Damn, the guy had just fucked Nancy but he was still as horny as ever! Todd lowered himself down over me until his dick was poised at the entrance to my pussy.

"Put it in me, dammit," I growled at him, impatient now and wanting him to fuck me and stop fooling around. There comes a time when you just want to be fucked, when you NEED to be fucked and I was way past that time already.

Scott just grinned, any hints of shyness seemed to have disappeared now that he had two girls begging to be fucked by him. Amazing how that works. Then without any warning, he suddenly rammed his still stiff dick forward, driving it into me all the way to the hilt in one swift motion. I thought I would scream it felt so incredible! One second my pussy was empty, pleading for him to fill it, and then the next it was like I'd been stuffed by some huge object, making me feel all swollen and full. The dramatic change in such a brief moment, coupled with the remaining vestiges of my earlier masturbation, set me off again and I came instantly, before he even had a chance to start stroking himself in and out of me.

"Oh fuck that feels so damn good," I cried out as my legs reached up and tried to wrap around him so as to pull him deeper into me if that were even possible.

"Shit, she's already cumming Todd!" I heard Nancy exclaim. I couldn't see her with Todd hovering over me but I knew she had to be watching. We'd masturbated together enough times over the years that she could recognize the signs, even if I hadn't said anything.

My pussy had clamped down on Todd's dick, gripping him to keep him from escaping to the point it was almost like having a cramp. Todd moaned and I didn't know if it was from the pleasure of my orgasm or maybe even the pain of my pussy squeezing his dick so hard. In any case, he didn't try to move for those first few seconds when my orgasm first hit. Then, as my grip loosened just slightly, his instincts took over and he started to stroke in and out of my pussy like a steam engine piston. It had the effect of making my orgasm peak yet again and I cried out loudly as again my pussy gripped him tight enough to keep him from moving.

"Turn her over," I heard Nancy say, acting as the director for our little show.

Todd acted as though he didn't even hear her, slamming his dick into me as hard as he could, driving me back onto the couch with a grunt as I felt the base of his dick strike my pussy hard.

Todd must have decided he'd better listen to her because just as abruptly as he had shoved his hard cock into me, he pulled it out in one fast move, leaving my pussy with this suddenly weird empty feeling, like something was missing. Well duh, something WAS missing - Todd's dick! Todd grabbed me by the waist, pulling me up and flipping me over so I was facing Nancy now. He lifted up on my waist and tucked a large pillow under my stomach to keep my ass up in the air, making it easier for him to get to my dripping wet pussy.

As Todd maneuvered himself in behind me, Nancy was ready for me as well. She was on her back with one leg draped over the back of the couch and the other hanging over the side with her pussy just inches from my face.

"After last week I've been wanting to do this with you again so bad," she said to me, her voice filled with unexpected emotion.

I wasn't about to turn down the chance to eat her delicious pussy again and as I started to lick her I felt Todd spread my butt cheeks apart and then the relentless head of his dick started to push against my asshole. I quickly lifted my head off of Nancy enough for him to hear me warn him.

"No Todd, not there!"

Thankfully, he didn't try to press the issue and instead dropped his dick down to where I really wanted it – my pussy once again. Once he had it in position, he put his hands on my hips and pulled me against him as he pushed himself into me. Once again, there was no hesitation or slow motion. His dick split me open again and he drove it home in one quick motion. I gasped as I tried to suck on Nancy's clit but it was hard to keep my mouth in place with the force of Todd's dick ramming into me over and over again.

Eventually I just let him do the work, placing my tongue on Nancy's pussy and letting the motion created by Todd's fucking of me to run my tongue up and down her pussy. She was holding her boobs, massaging them and pulling on her nipples as she enjoyed her pussy being licked.

Nancy's freshly fucked pussy tasted wonderful! I could even make out the remains of Todd's sperm which was now mixed thoroughly with her pussy juices. Damn, her pussy smelled so strong! My thoughts went back and forth between what Todd was doing behind me to the way Nancy was squirming under my face. .Finally she stiffened and then she pressed her pussy up against me as I held onto her clit with my lips.

Once again I was a little surprised at her reaction. When we use to masturbate together back in high school, Nancy was the one that never made a sound when she came. The rest of us would be moaning and squirming like we possessed but cute little Nancy would just stiffen up and smile. Well, not today, that was for sure! No, today Nancy was practically screaming as her orgasm consumed her and overwhelmed her. Damn, the neighbors would be calling the police if she didn't calm down a little! If I didn't know better, I would never have known it was Nancy with all the fuss she was making.

Apparently it was turning on Todd even more than me to witness Nancy's reaction as I felt his grip on me tighten and he pushed himself into me as far as he could before finally cumming in me. The first shot was the biggest, creating a quick bloom of warmth deep inside of me. Then he started to pull out of me and for a brief moment I feared he was going to spray the rest of it on my ass and back instead of leaving it inside of me. Fortunately that wasn't his plan but the rest of his sperm he shot off with his head barely inside of me. I knew what he was doing and I wasn't going to complain. Somebody must have been watching a few too many porn movies and wanted to see a "cream pie".

"God... that is SO hot," he gasped as he pulled himself out of me and I immediately felt his warm cum start to drain out of me. He was behind me, evidently watching his own sperm as it emerged from inside of me.

I would have thought that Nancy was too exhausted from her own efforts to do anything but as soon as she realized what Todd was doing she somehow got up and off the couch and made her way behind me.

"Mmmmmmm, now THAT looks delicious," she said in a sultry voice, "Want some Todd?"

I twisted my head around in time to see Todd grimace. What is it with guys that they won't eat their own cum anyway? It was really no matter as Nancy was just being polite. She was the one who really wanted my cum and now she didn't want to wait any longer for it. I felt her hands on my bare ass as she got her balance and dipped her face into my ass so her tongue could go for the sperm as it drained out of me.

"Wait, I have a better idea," I offered, trying to get up.

The two of them looked at me, wondering what I was doing, and I grinned as I explained to Nancy what my idea was. She laid on her back on the couch as I straddled her face and lowered my pussy until it was just an inch or so from her open mouth. Squeezing down like I was trying to take a pee, my pussy pushed more of his cum out and it dripped down and into her open mouth. The cum drained out of me in long strands of goo as she took it with her tongue and tried to suck it down into her mouth. Todd was watching intently, his hand subconsciously stroking his dick which was still as hard as ever.

Finally, the main part of his load seemed to have dripped out of me and Nancy sat up. It was my turn to lay down now and she put her face over mine, letting the cum drip from her mouth into my own. It was such a turn-on to have her give me my own pussy cum and his sperm fresh from my pussy! Finally we both sat up and while Todd watched, we kissed and exchanged his cum back and forth between us before finally we both swallowed down what was left in our mouths.

"So you like watching us swap your cum?" Nancy teased Todd. He just rolled his eyes and nodded as I doubt he even knew what to say at this point. Nancy reached over to where his hand was rubbing his dick and took it in her own hand.

"You know, we can do it again if you can give us some more," she offered.

Twice in a short time wasn't bad, although I knew guys who could cum a lot more often than that and still stay hard. Todd's dick was definitely softer, despite his efforts to stroke himself hard again. He look exhausted so I thought maybe Nancy and I needed to give him a break. I had never seen Nancy this way before and I didn't want to miss out on a golden opportunity. While Todd sat back and slowly stroked his soft dick, Nancy and started making out on the couch, kissing and touching each other.

Before the night was over, Todd managed to fuck each of us again. Well, actually us both together by which I mean we each got up on the couch next to each other on our hands and knees with our butts facing him and pussies available. Todd would stick his dick in one of us and after a few stroked, switch over to the other. It was like a slot machine, which one of us would he cum in? To my chagrin it turned out to be Nancy but this time at least I was the first go the cum from her mouth as we did another exchange for Todd's benefit.

Eventually we were all exhausted and got dressed to take Todd and me home. It felt a little weird as Nancy drove to his house with him sitting alone in the back seat. It was physically the same arrangement as when we were on our way to Nancy's place but it sure didn't FEEL the same. Maybe I should have rode in back with him and sucked him off!

After we dropped Todd off and had driven out of sight, both Nancy and I suddenly started laughing and giggling.

"Oh my God, can you believe that!" Nancy squealed, "He's gonna be jerking off nonstop for the next week now."

The rest of the way to my house we talked about what had happened. Both of us skirted around whether or not we would ever do Todd again and the subject of the two of us together was carefully avoided as well. I think we each knew this was one of those "once in a lifetime" opportunities that we had taken advantage of, but never expected to happen again. Would we? I guess only time will tell.

One of the best things, though, when I look back at this day was that I finally got to fuck Todd after all these years. How often do you get to go back and correct a mistake in your past? Well, now there was one less regret in my little closet of secrets!

(Jul 18) Chapter 146: Dad's Office

John - my dad (42)

It had been quite a while since I visited my dad's office but it was midsummer and I was bored so why not? Most of the guys there have known me since I was little but there were a few new faces. One of them wasn't exactly "new" at 56 years old, but I'd never had a grandfather do me before so why not take advantage of the opportunity?

1. Keeping Up With Our Morning Ritual

When I was a teenager in high school, one of my favorite things to do was to visit my dad's legal office in downtown Pittsburgh. Sometimes he would bring me with him in the morning but usually I would just ride the "T" and then walk a few blocks to get to the office building. Supposedly I was there to help with some minor office work - filing, mail, that sort of thing. In reality I preferred to flirt with the guys in the office more than anything. As such I'd wear short skirts, revealing tops, and do just about anything to tease them mercilessly.

Needless to say I also made it a point to take advantage of my dad's spacious office for some fun with him. My dad just loved to fuck me while I looked out the windows over the city, watching the people so far below us while wondering what they would think if they could see up into his office. The thought of them possibly seeing us made it hot for me just as I knew it had to for him.

My dad wasn't the only one I played with at his office, something I assumed was known although of course nobody had any idea what I was doing with him when his office door was closed ? and locked. In fact, my very first married father was one of the older partners back when I was just sixteen. OK, so he did me at his house while I was babysitting and not in the office but that's just a technicality.

Over the years several more of the guys earned a spot on to my "sexual history" list. The ironic part was so far as they knew my dad didn't know anything about it so I think they got a thrill from fucking the boss's daughter. Naturally I always told my dad everything soon after and there was even one special time when he actually encouraged me to do a few of them as a "reward" for some extraordinary work they'd recently completed. Yeah, my dad's a great boss in addition to being the best father in the whole world!

This summer was my first as a newly minted college graduate. For once I wasn't simply on Summer Break, waiting for the fall school year to start. I'd been home almost two months now and still hadn't visited my dad's office. It seemed that as I got older, I visited his office less and less for a number of reasons. For one, the guys started to act differently around me as I grew older and went off to college. I guess it was easier to "innocently" flirt with a sixteen or seventeen year-old high school girl than with a twenty or twenty one year-old college student. When I was a younger teenager, the age difference made it less "real" when I flirted with them, more like teasing than anything serious.

Also, as I got older I think it became a little more awkward for the guys. You have to keep in mind that none of them had the slightest clue that he didn't mind that any of them did me much less that my dad was also fucking me practically right under their noses! Had they known I'm sure things would've been a lot more interesting! Besides the age factor there were now secretaries and clerks younger than me so "helping" with the office work wasn't "cute" anymore but instead I think some of them thought I was threatening their jobs! Finally, now that I'm twenty two, it wasn't like it was "take your daughter to work day" anymore so there was little excuse for me to visit the office for more than a few minutes.

My "office hours" may not be the same but one thing hasn't changed as I grow older - my dad's sexual lust for me. From the first time he fucked me almost six years ago my dad has always looked for any opportunity to have me. One of our most cherished "traditions" was my morning "wakeup call". Even if I woke up earlier on my own, I would wait in my bed for my dad to get up and come into my bedroom. Sometimes he was the first to wake and these were usually my favorite mornings as he would let me sleep while he jerked off over me or tried to play with me such that I didn't wake up. I really love it when I wake up feeling his dick pressed against me, even more when he manages to actually get it inside of me without waking me right away although that was rarely achievable despite his best efforts.

Some mornings when I am really tired I will wake up and find his cum on me from him having jerked off without me waking up at all. Normally I don't really enjoy having him (or any man) spraying his sperm all over me but this was an exception. I think it is more the thought that he had jerked off watching me sleeping naked in my bed and then cumming on me than the actual cum that had dried on my face or boobs.

This morning was one of those morning when I woke up totally disoriented. You know what I mean, that feeling of not knowing what day it is or where you are. It's like you're lost in some sort of fog, trying to clear the cobwebs from your mind as you rub the sleep from your eyes. There was one more thing, quite a significant one – my pussy felt incredible! It was only then that my mind cleared enough such that I realized why – I was being fucked! It wasn't anything wild and crazy, just this feeling of a nice warm dick in me, not even moving at the moment but rather just resting inside of me, filling my pussy and making me feel incredibly horny.

"Morning baby," someone whispered in my ear. Of course it could only be one person – my loving father.

At the moment I was on my side with my dad nestled in behind me. He'd apparently lifted my bare leg just enough to get his erect dick inside of me and so I repositioned myself to be easier for him to fuck me. My reward was the feeling of him thrusting himself even deeper into his daughter's pussy and I could feel the warmth of his naked body pressed again mine.

"You must have been tired this morning," he chuckled softly, "I thought just maybe for once you weren't going to wake up before I'd finished."

I didn't say anything in response, instead moving my hand down between my legs where I placed it over his hard dick, my fingers on each side of his hard shaft at the base of his dick where he was pressing it into my wet pussy. He resumed his slow strokes in and out of me and I could feel his incestuous cock sliding between my fingers as well.

"Oh yes... that's it... fuck me slow daddy," I moaned ever so softly, my body wakening a little more each second as despite my plea he couldn't help himself and started to pump in and out more a little more quickly.

"You know it baby... Damn I love fucking your sweet pussy first thing in the morning."

"Mmmmmmm, me too. You feel SO good in me daddy. I love you so much!"

As he slowly fucked me his hand cupped my bare breast, supporting it and gently massaging it. My hardened nipple was between his fingers and he would squeeze and pull on it as he played with my boobs. God it felt SO damn good! As his incestuous dick slowly moved in and out of his daughter's welcoming pussy, I reached down to touch my throbbing clit, rubbing it ever so slowly with just the tip of my finger, making little circles around it.

"Harder now daddy," I moaned as my finger on my clit made me jerk and my pussy gripped his dick even tighter, "Fuck me harder... harder please."

"Oh yeah, I think somebody's finally waking up," he said with a little bit of a laughter mixed in, "Well, at least her pussy is, THAT'S for sure."

He was right - my pussy WAS wide awake now as well as feeling like it was on fire as my finger tip continue to toy with my aroused clit. His thick hard shaft rubbed against the sensitive interior of my wet pussy as he stroked himself in and out of me over and over again. Suddenly I stiffened as it felt like my entire body had been shocked or struck by lightning. I gasped as my orgasm struck me and my pussy trembled, gripping his dick and then releasing it and gripping it again.

"Oh yeah baby, that's it... cum for daddy," he encouraged me, kissing the back of my neck and upper back as he fucked me hard and fast, making my orgasm peak even higher.

"Cum in me daddy... oh god cum in me NOW!" I begged him, wanting to feel his sperm inside of me before my orgasm subsided.

Lord only knows what he'd been doing to me before I woke up and it excited me to think about what he might have done. Had he masturbated looking at me? Had he rubbed his dick against my sleeping face and lips? How long had his dick been inside of me before I realized what was going on? Was he ready to cum yet or did he need to work on it some more? I really had no idea what the answers were to any of these questions. Thankfully, whatever had happened earlier must have made him horny enough to cum quickly now. His grip on my boob tightened and he pulled me against his nude body as he thrust his wonderful dick in me even further. He grunted and then his hips thrust hard against my bare tight ass and then he groaned loudly as he began to shoot his cum deep inside my pussy. Mmmmmmm... oh yeah, my father was cumming in me!

"That's it daddy, cum in me," I begged him as he filled me with warm cum, "Oh yeah, I want it all, I want it ALL in me daddy."

My dad just kept grunting as he shot one load after another of his love into me. I marveled at the thought of his horny dick deep inside me, the fleshy tip of it as far up inside of me as he could push it. I tried to imagine how it would look to see the warm sperm erupting from the tip, shooting into my pussy, trying futilely to mate with me. Of course, any other man cumming in me also a great feeling, don't get me wrong. There's just something special when I know the dick buried in my pussy belongs to my dad and that the sperm he is giving me comes from the same place the sperm that he gave my mom to create me. To have my own father lust for me this deeply is more erotic than anything I can truly describe. After all, this wasn't just ANY horny man... this was my DAD!

"God I love you Kelly," he gasped as he deposited the last of his cum inside of me, "I needed you so bad this morning."

I sighed and put my hand over his, pushing it against my breast saying, "I love you too daddy... I love it best when you cum inside of me."

He started to pull back but I reached behind me with my hand and tried to push him back into me.

"Stay inside of me for a while daddy... please stay in me," I whispered as I held my legs tightly together, squeezing my pussy down on his dwindling cock, savoring this moment when I truly belonged to my father in such a special way.

"Anything you want baby," he said gently back to me, "Anything you want."

I closed my eyes and just let the emotions inside of me swell and wash over me. To be in my father's strong arms, his spent cock still inside of me, knowing his sperm was now in me... what more could a girl ask for first thing in the morning? For that matter, any time of day?

Finally he kissed my neck a few times and pulled his hand from my breast.

"Sorry baby, I really do have to get to work," he said softly as he slipped his dick out of me. Suddenly I felt so lonely, so empty, like something had been taken from me. It was at that moment I knew what I would be doing later that day - even if he didn't.

My dad left me in my bed with my pussy still throbbing from my orgasm and the memory of his cock in it. I felt like I had a fever as my entire body was flushed. Indeed, I was so light-headed that it felt like I was about to pass out. Oh God I wanted him to fuck me again! I wanted to feel my father's dick slip back into me, spreading my pussy so wide apart as the mushroom head on his cock forced its way into his daughter's waiting hungry pussy. I wanted to feel him sliding into me, his cock stimulating my pussy the way a bow stimulates the strings of a violin as it is drawn across them. I wanted to feel it pumping in and out of me, to listen to him tell me how good my pussy felt around his dick, to hear him tell me what a great fuck I was. Of course, what I REALLY wanted more than anything else was for him to cum in me over and over again, to flood me with his sperm and groan and moan as he told me how much he loved me.

My dad stopped back in my bedroom just before he left. Instead of his naked body I loved to touch and feel against me, he was in his typical suit and tie. He kissed me and told me he would miss me. Well, he wouldn't be missing me as much as he thought if I had anything to say about it!

2. Masturbation With a View

After my dad left I fell back asleep until I woke about an hour later when mother nature made her demands known. After peeing I showered and washed my hair, paying special attention to my pussy and ass to make sure I was as clean as I could be for my dad later. To be sure I had no intention that he would actually DO anything with my asshole but I still liked to keep it spotless in case he wanted to lick me anyways. Throwing on a long nightshirt I made my way to the kitchen where my mom was on the phone with her sister, my Aunt Linda. Knowing from past experience THAT conversation could go on all morning I fixed myself some cereal and sat at the kitchen table, watching the morning news on the little TV we kept in the dining area of the kitchen.

By the time I'd finished my cereal my mom was STILL on the phone. They seemed to be talking about one of my aunt's recent home sales from what I could gather hearing only half the conversation. My Aunt Linda was a realtor who managed to remain a top seller even in the housing market turndown we were in at the time. Of course she had a special offering to go with her home sales pitch that most other realtors didn't - she was willing to fuck her clients to close the deal! My mother, ever the voyeur, was listening intently, dropping in a few questions here and there to clarify things as well as giving me a partial understanding of what was happening.

Oh well... As I said earlier, this conversation could, and often did, go on for hours so I went back upstairs to get dressed. It was always an issue for me when deciding what to wear to my dad's office. When I was younger it was pretty simple - a skirt as short as I dared wear in public and a blouse at least one or two sizes too small. The goal back then was to show off my legs and boobs (at least what boobs I had) as much as possible without actually revealing the goods. As I got older, I went away from the teenie-bopper, ditzy high school girl thing to more the college girl-next-door look.

Hmmmmmm.. now that I'd graduated, what WAS appropriate office wear? Well, I guess I should say what was appropriately inappropriate? It was a professional office so it wasn't like I could just waltz in looking like a street walker. On the other hand, most of the lawyers and staff had known me since I was a little girl so coming in dressed like a nun would probably raise more eyebrows. In the end after much debate I decided to go relatively casual - designer jeans and a large belt with a tight yellow cami that showed off a little belly and hugged my 34B boobs like a sixteen year-old boy copping his first feel.

When I finally returned to the kitchen my mom was STILL on the phone. Oh good grief, how long could my aunt talk about getting laid by one of her clients? In all fairness if my mom was grilling her for details the same way she did back when I came home from a hot date then it wasn't all that hard to believe. My mom always had to know everything, and I mean everything.

Rolling my eyes, I gestured for her to take a break and my mom told my aunt to hold on for just a second. Quickly I explained to my mom that I was heading downtown and she instantly knew where I was off to. She just winked at me and kissed me on the lips quickly and then was back on the phone with her younger sister again. God, they were worse than two fourteen year-old girls gossiping on the phone!

Although I could've driven myself downtown, I dreaded the traffic through tunnel and bridges, not to mention the expensive downtown parking garages which were generally creepy anyways. Instead, I headed down to the "T" station behind the main part of town, parked the car and hopped on the next one that came by. The "T" is actually a light rail train that shuttles around the south side of Pittsburgh and then into the city. Once I made it to the end of the first line I got on another that took me downtown, actually travelling under the streets until I got out and climbed the stairs up to the main street level. It was only about two blocks or so to my dad's office building which was good because the heat was starting to rise already and I knew it was going to be another typical Pittsburgh July day - hot and muggy. Well, if things went the way I planned it was going to be hot and sweaty inside as well.

After getting out of the elevator I made my way to the office and waved as I walked past the receptionist. She smiled at me to be courteous as it was her job but other than that she didn't seem inclined to give me the time of day. Oh well, she was new and I didn't know her so I didn't take it personally. At the same time I wondered what people had told her about the boss's daughter to make her so sullen about me without really getting to know me first? Oh well, who cared what she thought of me anyway? As I entered the main waiting area I saw that there were several clients waiting but I just went straight through the door to where the legal offices were all located. In a way the place reminded me of Boston Legal on TV with the glass walls and all. The comparison ended there as there weren't a bunch over over-sexed women and men chasing around after each other - too bad.

As I walked down the hall, the office decor noticeably changed when I entered the area reserved for the partners. Unlike the other conference rooms and offices, these were not glass-walled and open for anyone walking by to see inside. Rank hath its privileges and the partners had the rank so their offices had solid walls and doors that locked, two things that has come in quite handy over the years, that's for sure.

I really wasn't paying as much attention to where I was walking as I should have so when an older gentleman stepped out of his large office reading a file I didn't see him until he was right on top of me and we bumped together slightly. His file dropped to the floor and after he'd leaned over to pick it up, he looked up at me to see who the imbecile was that had gotten in his way. Fortunately, just as it seemed he was ready to bark and take off my head, he recognized me. The scowl disappeared and he grinned at me, more of a leer actually but I took it as a grin.

"Oh excuse me Kelly, I wasn't watching where I was going," he said apologetically. Then he took another look at me, or more so my boobs, and smiled. "My, you've certainly grown up since I last saw you!"

Actually for all practical purposes I hadn't grown an inch for the last few years but my bust WAS a cup size bigger and I like to think a few other areas had smoothed and rounded out as well. I grinned at him as well, acting like I was shy and embarrassed by his remarks.

"Oh Mr. Connelly, I AM 22 now you know."

"Kelly, you can call me Martin now, you're not a kid anymore," he corrected me. Then he added under breath in a voice so low I wasn't sure if I was supposed to hear him or not, "THAT'S for damn sure."

Mr. Connelly, or Martin, was one of the older lawyers in the firm, mid to late fifties I think, and one of the founding partners. He'd actually hired my dad many years ago and even though my dad was now a senior partner, some partners are more equal than others and none were more equal than Martin Connelly.

"Have you seen my dad Mr. Connelly, I mean Martin?" I corrected myself as he opened his mouth to say something.

"I believe he's in the middle of a deposition at the moment. It should be over in about an hour at the most. Do you want me to tell him you're here?"

I shook my head vigorously. All sorts of ideas were shaping up in my mind as to what to do during the next sixty minutes or so and none of them included my dad knowing about them – at least not yet.

"Well, you can wait in his office until then, or you can stay in mine if you want," Martin offered, I have a meeting I'm already late for."

I politely declined the offer for his office and said I would just hang out in my dad's until he was available. Even though I hadn't been there in quite a while, it was like I'd just been in yesterday with everything in the same place. I headed for my dad's office, wiggling my butt as I knew he was watching me. Once inside I closed the door behind me. Nobody would normally come in unannounced with the door closed but just for good measure I locked the door securely as well.

My dad's office was huge, bigger than our living room back home. Besides his monstrous desk and leather chair it had a huge leather couch with matching arm chairs around a beautiful antique coffee table. There was even a small wet bar area. The mandatory library of legal books were there (does anyone ever actually READ them or are they just for show?) What I loved most about his office wasn't the furnishings. What I really loved was the view! His office opened to the west which gave me a postcard view of downtown and the Point where the three rivers joined. Actually, two rivers joined to form the third but that's enough geography.

Being up about twenty floors, the view today was spectacular. It was bright and sunny outside without a hint of clouds and the air was clearer than usual for a hot summer day. The new football and baseball stadiums were visible across the Allegheny River. Looking down, people were just little dots below me as they scurried about like ants. There were some other buildings nearby but I didn't think anyone in any of them was paying attention to what was going on across the street. Besides, the windows were tinted so ever if they were I doubted they could see me.

Anyone who knows me knows that I have a bit if an exhibitionist streak that gets me in trouble now and then. Usually just the thrill of knowing someone COULD see me is enough without actually being seen. For instance, driving down the road without anything on below the waist is thrilling because the people who drive by me don't know that I'm half naked right next to them; but I know I am and that's what's important. Grabbing my boyfriend's dick at the top of the Ferris Wheel is fun because all those people below us don't have a clue what I'm doing right above their heads. Sure it would be wild if they DID know, but the thrill of being naughty is what makes it fun for me.

I say all this because the first thing that came to my mind standing at the window with the city before me was to strip down and stand naked up against the window, pressing my bare boobs against the cool glass. Although the odds were negligible that someone WAS seeing me, the fact that someone COULD if they had just the right angle at just the right moment turned me on tremendously.

Feeling naughty with my clothes off, I stood there stark naked as I stared out the window. My hand naturally made its way between my legs and I started masturbating at the thought of some hot guy watching me from the office building across the street. God that would be so erotic to see him standing at his own office window, maybe even with his hard dick in his hand, sticking out from his suit pants. I imagined him jerking off as he watched me masturbating. Wouldn't it be hot if both of us could cum together? When we were done we would wave goodbye and close the blinds. Would I bump into him on the street later? Would he recognize me with my clothes on?

My hand was getting me pretty horny so I turned away from the window and laid on the cool leather couch with my back to the door so I could continue to look out the windows. I raised my right leg up onto the back of the couch and let my left one hang over the side which left my pussy wide open and easy to reach. Using just one fingertip I circled around my wet clit, then rubbed it up and down and then back into the tight circles again. My sensitive clit was tingling like an elbow does when you hit your funny bone, making me jump at times as an especially sharp feeling of pleasure would emit from my pussy and run through me like an electric shock. With my other hand, I started to rub my boobs, squeezing them and then pinching the nipples, pulling on them and then letting them spring back as my nipple would slowly slip through my fingers.

3. My Dad Takes Over - Or So I Thought

As deep as I was into my private masturbation session, my ears still managed to pick up at the sound of the office door lock being opened. Other than the cleaning staff there was only one person who had the key to his office meaning it had to be my dad so I pretended not to notice. If anything it made me feel even sexier to know my dad was about to "catch" me playing with myself although he'd seen me masturbating since I was in middle school. The door made a slight click as he must have tried to close it without making too much noise and then I heard the soft rustle of his pants as he moved slowly through the office until he was right behind me.

"Oh daddy, that feels so good." I moaned as I pretended to fantasize about my dad fucking me, "Fuck me daddy... oh fuck me more daddy... make me cum."

I could only imagine how it must've turned him on to hear me masturbating to the thought of him fucking me! Hopefully his dick was getting as stiff as a steel rod and I wondered if he was rubbing it yet. Still, as much as I wanted to turn around and grab his dick I continued to play with myself, pretending not to notice he was right behind me.

After a particularly sharp moan and humping of my hips up against my hand my dad reached in from behind me, one arm on each side of me. He started by putting his hands on my bare shoulders, massaging them gently, running his hands up and down my smooth upper arms. Then he pulled my hair to one side and I could feel his hot breath on my neck. I shivered as I felt the touch of his wet tongue on the side of my neck, just below my ear. He gently licked my neck and ear, then worked his way around and did the same to the other side. All the while he was licking me, his strong hands continued to massage my shoulders with his thumbs pressing into my shoulder blades. Well, as horny as I was I couldn't pretend to ignore him anymore at this point!

"Mmmmmmm, that feels so good daddy!" I said softly, continuing to masturbate without a pause.

My dad didn't say a word as his strong hands started to work their way down my bare chest, slowly approaching my bosom. I pulled my hand away from my boobs as he grabbed them both, first cupping them in his hands like he was measuring the weight of a melon in the grocery store (OK, I can WISH my boobs are the size of melons, can't I?) Then he put his hands over them and started to knead them like he was making bread. At first it was just a slight squeezing motion but as he got going he grabbed them more firmly and pinched my hard nipples. As always I loved it when someone played with my breasts. My dad is what you would call a "pussy man" so usually he would go straight for my crotch and ignore my boobs so it was nice to have him spend this much time on my boobs for once.

"You know I love it when you touch me like this daddy," I moaned as I felt my orgasm starting to build within me. With my extra hand I pushed a finger inside my pussy while I continued to rub my clit with the other, only now using two fingers instead of just one.

"I'm cumming daddy!" I announced as my body stiffened and my hips rose up off the couch. "Oh God!" I cried out as my entire body was racked with the most incredible sensations. Indeed, having an orgasm feels like nothing else in the world!

My dad was breathing heavier as he kissed me on the neck again. I collapsed on the couch, my hands cupped against my crotch, one over the other, as I pressed my hand up against me. The pressure alone against my clit was enough to keep my heart pounding. There was just one thing I wanted at this moment, only one thing that would satisfy my needs and desires.

"Fuck me daddy... please fuck me now," I begged him softly, sounding more like a young girl begging for her daddy to hug her but I wanted a lot more than a hug - a LOT more!

"Sure, I'd love to if that's what you want," a deep voice whispered in my ear. It was exactly the words I wanted to hear but there was just one teeny little problem - it wasn't the VOICE I wanted to hear.

Horrified, I flipped myself over and found myself face to face with the last person in the world I would've expected to see, at least under these circumstances. It wasn't my dad that had been playing with me, it was Martin! What the hell? I completely froze in place, not knowing whether to cover myself, scream, or what.

"I'm pretty sure that I'm not who you thought it was, eh?" he said with a grin on his face.

"Mr. Connelly!" I gasped, "What are you doing in here? Why are you touching me?"

"I think the real question is, what are YOU doing in here?" he chuckled, "And how many times do I have to tell you that it's Martin. So tell me Kelly, is this what you do every time you visit your dad?"

I was on my stomach with my arms up on the side of the couch so I was relatively covered, if you don't take into account my bare ass. Besides, it wasn't like he hadn't seen the whole package anyway so what was there to hide? Even so, I felt distinctly... well naked. Maybe "exposed" would be a better term.

"How DARE you? How could you do this to me?" I exclaimed, still trying to get my wits back about me.

As hard as I was trying to be outraged at his behavior, my pussy apparently hadn't received the memo. Instead the darn thing was still pulsing and feeling hot which was in distinct contradiction to how the rest of me was feeling. OK.... so it wasn't ALL my pussy's fault. Once it got going it didn't calm down for a while no matter what might happen, not even an embarrassing situation like this. I say embarrassing because I could feel my face grow hot, even more flushed than it had been after my orgasm.

Martin smiled again and said, "Oh come now, nothing to be embarrassed about. You think I didn't know what you were doing in here? Damn girl, you're really hot! If I were your dad I'd be doing you too."

If possible, my face felt even redder. I'm not normally one who cares if someone watches me masturbate. In fact I've teased many a boy on a date making him watch me play with myself but not letting him touch me. In almost any situation I would tell you I get off having someone watch me do it. THIS was different though. To make it worse, he heard me asking my dad to fuck me! What did he think about that? Would he just attribute it to my fantasy or would he realize that I was speaking from the heart? From his words he seemed to think it was real.

"Soooooo, tell me little girl... you still need to be fucked by daddy?"

My eyes widened as the question at me from out of the blue. My god, it was the senior partner and technically he was old enough to be my grandfather! Not to mention we were in the middle of my father's office with an entire law firm on the other side of the door. What if my dad were to walk in and find us? Sensing my hesitation, he raised the ante.

"Tell you what, let me fuck you and I'll forget all that stuff you said about wanting to fuck your daddy."

There it was. I had a feeling he was going to bring THAT up sooner or later.

"You really want to fuck me Mr. Connelly?"

"Hell yes!" he responded in a flash, "Shit Kelly, every guy in this firm wants a piece of your cute little ass – and you damn well know it. From what I hear more than a few had done it as well." He paused to look around the office and continued, "Not to mention one of our senior partners!"

He paused for it to sink in and then added, "And PLEASE, stop with the 'Mr. Connelly' crap, you make me feel like I'm robbing the cradle."

I was still trying to figure out his comment about forgetting about me wanting to fuck my daddy. Did that mean he took it as a fantasy and wasn't going to tell people about it? Maybe it mean he assumed I WAS fucking my daddy and if I let him do me then he would forget about THAT? Mr. Connelly was a pretty sharp lawyer and he rarely said anything that wasn't EXACTLY what he meant to say. I had a feeling he was being deliberately ambiguous, just to make me all the more confused. Well, if I was going to go for it, I may as well go all the way. Besides, what choice did I have?

"But you're married Martin... what if your wife found out?"

"OK Martin, then go ahead and fuck me... let's see what you've got," I said seductively, licking my lips slowly and looking him straight in the eyes.

Well Martin certainly didn't waste any time! He quickly stripped off all his clothes, even the black tube socks (thank God). I sat up on the couch with my legs spread apart obscenely like some porn shoot, playing with my pussy almost absentmindedly as I watched him drape his clothes over the back of one of the chairs.

Seeing Martin standing there naked I thought how it was lucky that I was as hot and horny as I was because he wasn't exactly what you would call a male magazine model. At his age things shift and rearrange themselves. He had a bit of a pot belly and a rather flabby ass. His chest was like a bear rug with a thick covering of black and silver hair. Not only that, his back and shoulders were also covered with long dark hair. God, he was some sort of ape man! His legs were too thin to be proportionate to the rest of him and they were wrinkled as well. Honestly, there wasn't a sexy thing about him. Well, almost nothing...

There WAS one good thing about Martin. Fortunately, under the circumstances it was probably the most important characteristic. His dick was absolutely incredible! Martin was probably the last guy in the world I would've suspected of packing such a monster. Although still flaccid and hanging down limply, it still looked to be a good 6-8 inches long and thick to boot! Like the rest of him his crotch was ridiculously hairy, so hairy in fact it was like a bush had sprouted between his legs.

"Oh wow!" I gasped as I stared at his dick. Yes, I was impressed as it was all I could look at.

Martin grinned and took his cock in his hand, bouncing it like he was holding a cucumber and trying to guess its weight.

"Surprised you, didn't I?" he bragged, "Bet you never would've guessed that I'm the best hung guy in the firm, did you? Bigger than your dad's I bet."

Now wasn't exactly the right time to ask just HOW he knew that for sure but I was willing to take his word on it. God Almighty! It had been quite a long time since I'd had a dick the size of his.

"Well, are you just gonna sit there and stare at it or what?" he teased me.

He didn't have to say it twice. Damn, I couldn't wait to get my hands - and mouth, on that bad boy! As I picked it up with my thumb underneath it and my fingers wrapped around the top, it had some genuine heft to it. He was still fairly limp but even so it was bigger than most dicks I'd had the pleasure of holding when they were fully erect! I stretched it out with my hand, tugging on it gently as I picked up his balls with my other hand and gently rolled them around with my fingers.

"Suck it," he whispered in a deep voice to me, "Put it in your mouth." He then put his hand on my head and pressed me firmly in towards his crotch.

Again, I didn't need a second offer OR his hand pushing me as I wanted it for myself regardless. Holding it up out from his crotch I took just the thick head in my mouth and suckled it like a nipple - a damn BIG nipple at that. As soft as he still was it easily fit in my mouth as it moved under the pressure of my gums and tongue. Mmmmmmm, he tasted great and his crotch had that distinctive male musk odor a man gets when he's been working for a few hours and then gets horny. I worked his dick with my hand and sucked on it, sometimes taking it all in my mouth and at other times just licking it and kissing it up and down the shaft while I stroked him. For me sucking dick is always fun and I loved the feel of his soft dick in my mouth. There was just one problem - he wasn't growing! Growing more determined, I sucked on him harder and faster, trying to get some reaction from his lifeless dick.

"Fucking blood pressure pills and diabetes," I heard him grumble.

I don't know if he meant for me to hear him but I had a bad feeling about what I thought it meant - good 'ol ED - erectile dysfunction. God, hadn't he heard of Viagra? Even if he took it now I knew from other guys with this issue it could take an hour or more before things started "working" properly again. Even then, as limp as he was I had to wonder if even Viagra would help. Well, I've been fucked by a LOT of guys and sucked probably two or three times more than that. Never once have I failed to eventually get the desired response from a willing partner and Martin was definitely more than willing. The problem was, the more time that went by without getting any response the more frustrated he became which was probably making it harder for him to have an erection even if he didn't have ED in the first place! Once this vicious circle started, it was like a death spiral and I knew that all that was ahead of us was a crash landing unless I did something quick.

Martin opened his eyes after having shut them to concentrate on whatever it was he did to try to arouse himself (I was afraid to ask what). He grinned and nodded so I sat back on the couch again and put my feet up on the edge, letting my knees spread apart and exposing my shaven pussy to him.

"Eat me Martin."

It wasn't quite the same as "fuck me" but it served the same purpose. Martin got down on his knees and put his face on my pussy without a moment's hesitation and started to lick my pussy. He actually wasn't bad at it - better than the vast majority of men for that matter.

Hey, you don't fuck over a hundred guys and not pick up a few tricks here and there for your sexual arsenal. One guy in the past who had problems getting it up with me confessed that he got more pleasure from eating a girl than fucking her. Well, I should say he got turned on more at the beginning by the thought of giving ME the pleasure. It was amazing how once he started to lick my pussy and I made sure he knew I loved it - regardless of how it really felt, his dick responded and then we moved on to what I wanted - to be fucked. Hopefully it would work in Martin's case. No doubt it would take a little while so I sat back and enjoyed the oral sex.

As I mentioned, Martin was quite good at what he was doing, even rivaling a lot of girls I knew as well and that's saying something. Maybe it was that he was so much older and hence more experienced? It seemed an extension to my observation that the older a guy got the better his oral skills became. My personal theory is that is has to do with more than just experience. Older men are so much more mature and emotional stable and seem to be able to give a girl pleasure without seeking so much for themselves. At the other end of the spectrum, teenage boys just want to get themselves off. To them it seems that oral sex is naughty and more a badge of honor than something to please the girl he was with.

Through it all I kept up a constant string of sex talk, praising his oral skills and telling him how good he was making me feel. The longer he went the dirtier and nastier I got until it became a stream of positively filthy dialogue. He was stroking his dick faster and faster as we went on and I was hoping like heck that SOMETHING was happening.

"Oh shit, kiss my smelly cunt you fucking bastard!" I exclaimed as my second orgasm of the day began. He started to lift his head to respond but I pressed down on it with both hands and pushed it back to my crotch.

"Don't take your damn mouth off my cunt, eat me dammit... make me cum you dirty old man!"

There was no need to fake an orgasm for his benefit, this was the real McCoy! I felt my pussy gushing as I covered his face and tongue with my cum. He lapped it up with his tongue, ticking me and driving my orgasm even higher as his tongue touched my hypersensitive clit.

"Oh god I want you to fuck me Martin... Oh PLEASE, fuck me now!"

It was a risk but at some point I had to take it. If he wasn't turned on and hard enough to fuck me by now then it probably wasn't going to happen. Fortunately for both of us my little ploy appeared to have worked as I saw when he stood up holding his dick in his hand. He wasn't exactly a steel rod but he definitely had some stiffness to him. Plus, as thick and big as he been to start it wasn't going to take much to get him to where he could at least entire my pussy. I also knew we needed to hurry as the effect probably wouldn't last long.

"Put in it me now Martin... Oh god, put that monster dick deep in my wet cunt and fuck me hard!"

He held his big dick against my waiting pussy which was indeed soaking wet and as ready for him as it would ever be. When he first tried to push his cock into me it turned out that it wasn't THAT stiff and so it bent instead of entering me. Actually, had he been a little smaller it would've been easier as getting his bulbous head in me was going to be the hardest part. Anxious to have in in me, I reached down and spread my pussy apart for him, using my fingertips to press against the head of his cock to push it inside of my hungry pussy. Finally his head just popped into me and from there it was easy street as the rest of his shaft followed while I held it to keep it from bending again as it entered me. He may not have been the stiffest cock in the world but as thick as he was, he sure felt good inside of me!

"Oh god, I can't believe I'm actually in you!" he gasped as he pushed his hairy crotch into my shaved pussy.

Was it that he couldn't believe he was fucking ME or that he couldn't believe that he was able to get his dick IN me? Most likely a little bit of both. I wondered when the last time he'd been able to get his dick into a pussy? Looking at all I had to do tonight, I was guessing it had been a while unless his wife knew my tricks.

"That's it Martin, I knew you could do it!" I praised him, "Now fuck me... I want you to fuck me and then cum inside of me.

Without another word he started to pump his huge dick in and out of me. He didn't pull out very far, probably because he was afraid he might not get it back in me again. I wasn't sure at first if he was getting bigger or smaller or staying the same.

"God it feel so good to fuck your young cunt!" he gasped, pressing himself deep into me and just holding himself there, savoring the feeling of my hot pussy as it surrounded him in its warm, wet embrace.

Suddenly I could feel him distinctly growing inside of me. It was like his dick had finally decided to become fully erect after all this time. Something told me it was a harbinger of what was about to happen and as usual my sexual instincts were right on the money. I was a little surprised he was cumming so fast but then I suppose it had been quite a while since he had fucked a pussy as young as mine ? without paying for it at least.

"Oh god, I'm cumming!" he groaned as he held himself tightly against me. I felt his hips thrusting into me as he came. There couldn't have been much sperm because I couldn't even feel him cumming in me other than the movement of his dick but if he said he was I was happy to believe him.

"Oh my god... Oh my god," he groaned again as he pulled out of me, his dick glistening in the light with the mixture of our cum wetting it.

Amazingly, his dick started to immediately shrink like a balloon with a big hole in it. As fast as it has risen just before cumming in me it was now shrinking back to its normal state even faster. It was really weird, something I was definitely going to have to ask one of my boyfriends about later. It was as if every bit of sexual tension in him had been let out through his dick when he came and now suddenly he was all business and back to being Mr. Connelly again.

Without looking at me he quickly went for his clothes and started to dress without saying another word. It wasn't until he was fixing his tie that he turned to me where I was still in the same position he had left me after cumming in me. His cum was now draining from my pussy and a small trickle was running down my ass - good thing it was a leather couch and easy to clean! His eyes went to my pussy where his handiwork was there for him to appreciate.

"Damn you are really something else," he said, shaking his head.

"Now remember, you promised you wouldn't say anything to my father," I reminded him.

He grinned at me and winked. Again, I wasn't sure what he meant. Did he mean he wasn't going to tell my father? Or did he mean he didn't NEED to tell my father? Did it matter in the end? I wonder what her would say if he knew that I'd be telling my dad all about it soon?

Martin checked the hallway to be sure nobody was watching and then quickly slipped out of the office, letting the door lock once again behind him. Back to the couch I resumed my masturbation session that I had been into before Martin had "interrupted" me. With any luck, my dad would walk in behind me again - and this time it would be my DAD!

(Jul 31) Chapter 147: Tutoring Mom

Julie (37)

Usually when I tutor, it's the students or their father I have to keep an eye out for. Well, that wasn't the case in this situation!

1. Summer Tutoring

Now that I've graduated and finally have my degree, I can charge more than ever to tutor. Surprisingly, people seem to be more than willing pay me to help their darling little angels get ahead. Actually, in my opinion most of the kids I tutor don't "need" tutoring to make it through school. The parents hire me so theoretically they will have an advantage over the other kids in their class, sort of like hiring a private coach for their son to help him become the star quarterback.

With all the pressure of getting into the "right" colleges these days, I also find that many of the "kids" I tutor aren't in elementary school anymore but in high school. At 22, that doesn't make me whole lot older than some of them which can be a bit awkward at times, especially with the boys. Despite all the witty stories on the Internet about babysitters and tutors having sex with their charges, in reality this hasn't been my experience. Indeed, the LAST thing I need is when applying for a job with the local school district is a record (or even just a reputation) for having sex with any of my students. Talk about a career buster!

More than a few of the dads, however, HAVE paid "special" attention to me but then they are guys so what else would I expect? As such I don't really get too concerned or worked up over it. After all, most guys look at me that way and after a while you tend to become a bit numb to it unless there is something special about him. My usual attire when tutoring in the summer is jeans and a tank top or cami, nothing TOO revealing but comfortable. Even when dressed conservatively I still catch a few dads, and some of my students, looking at my ass and boobs. I can't say it bothers me as after all, what girl doesn't like to be looked at? The only girls I hear complain about being "objectified" are the ones who really aren't.

One of my better paying clients was a family that lived in one of the fancier sections of town, and in my town that's saying something. Nathan was getting ready to start his senior year and his parents wanted him to take several accelerated courses so he would have some of them out of the way when he started college. He needed to pass an entrance exam first to be accepted into the courses so it was my job to prepare him.

Nathan was a sweet boy, a bit on the nerdy side, but smart and I think he could have passed without my help but his parents weren't taking any chances. I enjoyed tutoring him because he caught onto everything right away. It didn't hurt that I think he had a crush on me and seemed to want to please me as much as anything. I plead guilty to teasing him a bit but it was pretty innocent stuff. Probably the "worst" was the time when I wore my short cutoffs and low- cut tank top (without a bra, of course). Scholastically, it was a horrible lesson as he couldn't seem to concentrate on anything but starting at me whenever he thought I wasn't looking. It was the only time I pulled such a stunt but I think that it was worth it for both of us.

Since I always tutored Nathan in the afternoon, I never saw his father. Julie, Nathan's mom was usually be there but typically the only time I actually saw her was when I was getting ready to leave and she would come around pay me. I never really gave her a second thought until the day I wore my cutoff outfit. I could have sworn she was looking through what little I was wearing, just as most guys would. She never said anything, though, or did anything overtly so I just filed it away as one of those "interesting" moments and let it go at that. Nathan mentioned she was 38 one day in conversation which made her about the same age as my Aunt Linda. Indeed, Julie bore a remarkable resemblance to my aunt, especially her smile and the way she wore her hair, not to mention an incredible figure for her age.

One time when I was tutoring we took a break and I learned how Julie kept herself in such great shape. As it turned out, they had an entire workout room loaded with about every piece of equipment imaginable. It had a large glass wall that overlooked this amazing pool in back of their house. It was dark and empty at the time, but judging from Julie's physique, it was used regularly.

2. Skinny-dipping With Nathan's Mom

It was the end of July and the weather was hot and muggy. It didn't really matter as their house was well air-conditioned and indeed, they kept it on the cool side if anything. I'm sure Nathan didn't mind the way my nipples reacted when I was there as it was like being in a refrigerator and they would pole through my thin tops like they were made of saran wrap. Had I been a more suspicious person, I might have accused Nathan of deliberately turning the thermostat down before I arrived!

After our lesson, we went to the kitchen to get a glass of water when his mother popped in. She must have been working out as she was flushed and sweaty with her hair pulled back. She was wearing a sports bra, some tight bicycle shorts, and sneakers with low-cut athletic socks. Julie was also carrying a towel which she was using to wipe the seat off of her face and arms. God, she looked incredible for a woman her age!

"Um Nathan, did you forget about something?" she said, pointing to the clock on the wall.

Indeed, Nathan must have because his mouth dropped open and he mumbled something like "crap" under his breath.

"Well, just don't stand there with your mouth open like some fish out of water," she admonished him, "Get going before they fire you on your first day!"

"He's supposed to be starting his new job today," Julie explained, obviously seeing the curiosity in my face, "just a bag boy at Giant Eagle but he needs SOME responsibilities."

"That's good of you to push him like that," I said, trying to act mature, "Too many kids think everything should just be handed to them on a silver platter."

Julie dropped the towel to the floor as she reached for her purse on the counter. She opened up her wallet and took out the cash for my lesson.

"Here you go, I can't tell you how pleased Nathan's dad and I have been with the progress he's made."

"Really, he's a smart kid, no problem at all," I assured her, taking the money and stuffing it in my jean pocket.

"Sorry I'm such a wreck," Julie apologized, shaking her head as she looked down at herself, "Seems to take more and more to keep myself in shape these days, not that YOU would know anything about that."

I couldn't help but blush a little and she laughed at my being discomfort.

"Hey, don't be embarrassed, I would give anything to be your age again and have a body like that without even thinking twice about it."

Now I DID feel embarrassed. She reached down to grab her towel and I couldn't help but notice what an incredible ass she had. The bicycle shorts hugged her like they were painted on and there didn't look to be an ounce of cellulite anywhere. The way she took her time it was almost like she WANTED me to look at it.

"Hey, I'm going to jump in the pool to cool off, want to join me?" she offered.

"Maybe next time," I replied, "I didn't bring a suit with me."

Julie just shrugged her shoulders. "Hey, it's just us girls, who needs a suit?"

She said it in such an off-hand manner that it seemed like a natural response and not some sort of sexual overture. In any case, she was right, why worry about one if it was just the two of us? It's not like my bikini hid all that much to start with even when I DID wear it. I shrugged and smiled, silently accepting her offer.

I followed Julie out to the pool and she pointed out the guest shower room. As I walked in I looked back and saw she apparently didn't worry about where she undressed as she just dropped her clothes quickly in a pile by the edge of the pool and jumped in. In fact, she undressed so fast I barely had time to take in her large breasts and naked figure. I didn't even get to see her pussy and I wondered briefly if she was shaved or what. I DID, however, not that there was no sign of any bikini lines, at least not that I could see from my vantage point. Something told me that Julie didn't worry much about wearing suit any other time as well.

Feeling a bit overly-conservative in comparison to her openness, I went in the guest room where I undressed, folding my clothes and leaving them on the bench seat. There were some large beach towels folded in a pile and so I grabbed the top one and wrapped it around me before leaving for the pool. Julie was still in the water but now at the pool edge, her arms folded in front of her on the concrete while her naked body floated out behind her.

"Ahhhhhh, somehow I didn't think you would be the shy type," she laughed softly at me as I held the towel tightly around me.

Normally being nude in front of someone was no big deal for me but I couldn't help but feel a little intimidated for some reason. Maybe it was Julie's natural sensuality, or perhaps the way she held herself all confident and composed. This was clearly a woman comfortable with herself and clearly accustomed to being in charge.

"Ah come on, drop the towel and jump in, the water's great!" she encouraged me.

Feeling sort of silly now for acting so immature, I dropped the towel and stood there naked in front of her. Her eyes quickly passed over me from head to toe and I wondered what she thought of me. She didn't waste any time telling me.

"Damn girl, that is one serious body you've got there," she said softly, smiling as she locked her eyes on mine. "I can't believe you don't work out."

"Well, I don't," I answered lamely as I started to make my way to the pool edge.

"Well, enjoy it while it lasts, sister. I use to feel the same way when I was your age. Well trust me, your day will come!" she said with a smile that took the edge off what she said. It was more like she was teasing me than admonishing me.

I dove in the pool and she was right, the water DID feel great. Not cold but at the same time, not overly heated either. This time of year my cousin's pool felt more like hot bathwater whereas this seemed to be at just the right temperature. I swam over and held myself up on the edge next to her.

"Yeah, it actually has a temperature control that keeps it right at the temperature you set," Julie explained. "My husband loves his toys."

We both laughed and then just remained that way for a few minutes, enjoying the water surrounding us and talking about life in general. I'd never really spoken with her a whole lot other than to discuss Nathan's tutoring needs so it was interesting to learn more about her. She asked a lot of questions about me as well, including whether I had any boyfriends, but nothing TOO personal.

3. Comparing Pussies

Eventually Julie invited me to get out and we walked over to a couple of lounge chairs where some dry towels were spread out. She dropped on her back and just laid herself out naked, not attempting to cover herself whatsoever and not seeming to care whether I looked at her or not. This obviously wasn't anything unusual for her. As I took a similar position on the chair next to her, I noticed for the first time that she wasn't shaved but instead was trimmed quite close so while her pussy hair was wet, it didn't form the thick packed-down pile like my mother's did when she got out of the pool or hot tub. Apparently Julie had taken a look at my own situation as well.

"What's with all you young girls these days? Everyone seems to be shaving their pussies. God, it's bad enough we have to shave our legs and armpits, why add to the hassle?"

I just shrugged and answered, "Well, I don't worry as much about what I wear this way."

Julie grinned at me with a twinkle in her eye. "Yeah, I can see that given the stuff you girl wear these days. Is that the ONLY reason?"

She was fishing for something and from the way she kept glancing at my crotch I had a good idea what it was. It seemed time to take a bit of a chance.

"Well, it DOES makes it easier during oral sex," I said with a little giggle. For some reason, confiding in Julie, a mother and wife, seemed a little naughtier than with just another girlfriend. She was almost the same age as my mom and I had no trouble discussing such things with her but then Julie wasn't my mom.

Meanwhile, Julie had turned on her side and her breasts hung down but still managed to look firm and full, not saggy. Her nipples were hardened and something told me it wasn't the pool water that was the only thing causing her reaction. Too bad she wasn't a guy. It would have been easy to gauge her thoughts simply by looking down and seeing what was growing!

"Yeah, my husband had been pestering me to shave mine. Can you imagine that? Here I am, 38 years old, not some teenager anymore. I told him that I needed to act my age."

"My mom feels the same way," I found myself confessing to her, "She doesn't even trim herself close the way you do."

"So tell me Kelly, what do you think? Should I shave it all off?" she asked, running her fingers over the short hair. It was more like stubble and wasn't even long enough to poke out through her fingers as she started rubbing herself.

"Why not?" I answered, "I mean, it IS a pain in the neck at first but once you get used to it then it feels pretty good."

Julie continued to run her fingers through her pubic hair. She briefly shut her eyes, as if focusing on what she was doing and then she opened them again and sighed.

"I don't know, I can't hardly remember being bald down there. I can't even imagine what it would be like."

She closed her eyes again and continued to rub herself. It wasn't anything flagrant, like shoving a finger up inside of herself, but it was obvious from the way she would twitch now and then that her fingertips were hitting all the right spots. It was just enough that she was touching herself but not so much that anyone could accuse her of masturbating in front of me. I just laid there at first, and then turned on my side to face her. I didn't touch myself but my pussy was certainly telling me that it wanted some attention. Suddenly Julie jerked and she pulled her hand away and bit her lip as she looked at me.

"Oh god, you must think I'm terrible touching myself that way in front of you," she said softly. Somehow the tone of her voice didn't match the words she was saying. She certainly didn't SOUND like she was sorry at all.

"Hey, you know what they say. If it feels good...," I replied, trying to let her know I didn't mind it without actually coming right out and saying it. I wasn't quite sure what was going on yet although I was getting a pretty good idea by now.

Julie laughed a little at that, putting her hand back to her crotch again but just letting it rest there without hardly moving it this time.

"I was just trying to imagine myself without any hair," she offered up as an excuse. "It's been a long time since I touched a bare pussy. I must have been about eleven or twelve when I started growing in."

She was looking at my pussy now so I reached down and ran my fingers over my crotch for her.

"Well, what can I say, feels pretty good," I giggled like some teenage girl playing with herself in front of her friends for the first time.

4. Playing With Julie

There was an awkward silence as both of us laid there. Our hands started to go to work on ourselves but yet not really quite masturbating as we each seemed to wait for the other to take it to the next level. I had a REAL good idea now what she wanted but at the same time, she didn't seem to have quite the courage to go for it, leaving it up to me to make the first move.

"Would you like to touch mine to see how it feels?" I offered, trying to sound like it was the most natural thing in the world to offer although the edge in my voice surely betrayed me.

"Oh I couldn't do that," she hurriedly replied. She may have SAID that but she was looking at my hand on my pussy the whole time and I knew what she really meant to say.

"Why Julie, haven't you ever touched another girl's pussy?"

Julie's face flushed a bit and I suddenly realized I may have been wrong in my initial assessment. I had assumed Julie was bi and was looking to hook up with me. From her reaction, something told me she wasn't as "experienced" as I may have thought for being as forward as she had been so far.

"Well?" I pushed her.

"Back in high school I once kissed a girl's nipple on a dare," she finally confided, "But that's as far as I've ever gone with a girl."

If that was true, then I didn't understand why she had been so forward with me so far. You would think a woman her age that had never had sex with a girl wouldn't have been so "outgoing" with someone like me, a girl sixteen years younger and not someone she knew very well either. She must have been reading my mind.

"Well, I've heard rumors about you," she said slowly and softly, "You've got quite the reputation you know."

Although it didn't surprise me all that much that I would indeed have a "reputation" in town, given my past, but it DID surprise me that someone like Julie would have heard about it.

"Oh, I overheard Nathan talking to his friends about you back when you first started," she explained. She chuckled and continued, "I must say, they were all quite jealous of him!"

"So why today?" I asked.

Julie shrugged and almost grimaced.

"I don't really know, it just seemed like a good idea when I saw you today. I think I started thinking about it after you wore those cutoffs a couple of weeks ago. God, I would never had had the courage to wear anything like that back when I was your age. Damn, half your ass was hanging out girl!"

"So then, do you want to touch me?" I asked softly, ignoring what she had said about my outfit but trying not to spook her.

Julie looked around suddenly, as if afraid someone might be watching. We were surrounded by luxury homes but Julie's had a tall security fence that shielded the pool area from any voyeurs although there were a few homes had second story windows that overlooked the pool.

"I really don't care one way or the other if anyone sees me out here naked," she said in a low voice, "But some things are probably best done inside."

Suddenly those windows took on a whole new meaning. God, did people really look about at them and watch her sunbathing nude... and she didn't mind? I bet she was quite popular in the neighborhood! As for me, I didn't care who was watching me since they wouldn't know who I was, but I could understand Julie's concerns. I went to the guest room and returned with my clothes after which I followed her nude body back into the house. Once inside, she took my clothes from me and put them on the kitchen table and took me by the hand.

Julie led me up the stairs and down a long hallway. The sight of her nude tanned body ahead of me was mouthwatering! About half way down the hall we reached a door with a massive sign with letters in dark red, almost blood in color.

"KEEP OUT - NO PARENT ZONE"

So far as I knew, they only had the one boy so I knew this had to be Nathan's room. She reached down and opened the door and I followed her in, wondering why we were here and not in her own bedroom. Once inside she left the door open and turned to me.

"I can't do this in my bed, sorry," she said apologetically, "Besides, I thought it might be hot to do it on Nathan's bed. What do you think? Am I being too weird?"

I could have said any one of a number of things but this didn't seem to be the time or place to discuss her relationship with Nathan - or least her fantasies about him. Then she reached under the mattress and to my surprise she pulled out a pair of panties and a bra.

"Nathan thinks I don't know about his little fetish," she giggled, handing them to me.

I immediately could tell what her son had been doing with his mom's bra as the distinctive odor of dried sperm was as overpowering as it was unmistakable. Both bra cups were heavily stained with sperm and judging from the size and amount, he must have been using it for a while. The panties didn't appear to have anything on them though, something Julie must have seen that I noticed.

"I've never actually SEEN him jerking off with them but my guess is he must be smelling my panties while he uses the bra to jerk off with," she said, almost with a hint of pride in her tone of voice. "Boys will be boys."

Actually, although I tried to look surprised, it was by no means the first time I'd heard of this sort of fetish. A number of guys who get in touch with me through my web site have sent me pics of them using various bras, panties, and even dresses to capture their sperm when they came. Quite a few guys have cammed for me and shown me their wife or daughter's panties, bras, even a bikini top once which they then used to rub their dicks and cum on. This, however, was the first time I'd actually witnessed the results first hand.

"Does he have any idea you know what's going on?"

"Heck no, I think he'd be embarrassed out of his mind, don't you?" she said with a sly grin, "Oh well, I just thought you might get a kick of that."

With that Julie tucked her well-used undergarments back under the mattress and turned to look at me, standing there in front of me without moving other than to twist her head as needed to look me over from head to toe.

"You are so beautiful," she whispered, almost more to herself and I just overheard her.

I was quite conscious of the fact that we were both standing there nude in the middle of her son's bedroom. What if he or someone else should come home and discover us? Sure, the odds were heavily against it but why risk it?

"I want to kiss you," she said in the same soft tone, breaking into my thoughts. Our eyes met and I felt a tingle up and down my body as I realized she was dead serious about this.

Words are unnecessary at this point and so I stepped forward and allowed her to put her arms around me and pull me close. Our faces were up close to each other's and our nude bodies touched. I could feel her large firm breasts press against my smaller boobs and then our lips met. Immediately I felt her mouth open and I did the same, allowing our tongues to explore and touch. God, her body felt so incredibly warm and soft against mine! We continued to kiss as she steered me toward Nathan's bed where we sat down next to each other, never letting our mouths part the entire time. We laid back down on the bed, our legs dangling off the edge, until I pulled myself up and on top of her, allowing my entire weight to press down on her beautiful nude body.

"Fuck me Kelly," she said gently but firmly, our lips separated for the first time, "I've never been fucked by a girl before."

She had her eyes closed, as if she couldn't bear to watch what she seemed so desperately to want. I kissed her lips, then her cheeks and moved to her neck, licking her all over and tugging gently on her ear lobes with my lips. As slowly as I could force myself to go, I worked down her chest and down into her cleavage, letting my wet tongue run up and down between her full breasts.

"Suck my nipples," she whispered, barely loud enough for me hear. So far she hadn't moved a muscle, just lying there letting me do whatever I pleased.

I moved my head over and took her right nipple in my mouth. It was already hardened and she gasped softly as I first tugged on it a bit and then used my mouth to suck on her like a baby on a mother's milk-filled breasts. After a while I moved over to the opposite breast and went to work on that one while I tugged and twisted the other's nipple between my fingers.

I moved to the side of her on the bed and while I continued to work on her boobs with my mouth, I let my fingers start to work their way down lightly over her stomach. As I approached her crotch I met her short pubic and felt it between my fingers. As short as it was, it felt stiffer than when I touch my mother's pussy. As my fingers went further down, I let them just glance off her clit, just enough to let her know I was there and then moved down inside her smooth thighs as far down as I could reach. Up and down I went, rising up to her crotch and just gently touching it or only a brief moment and then back down the other leg.

"Stop teasing me and touch it," she finally begged as she started squirming under my hand.

As I brought my hand back up, I let my fingers touch her lower in the crotch, almost down to her asshole, and then dragged my middle finger up towards her clit.

She was already so wet my finger easily slid between her pussy lips and I quickly located her hardening clit. I pressed my finger down on it and rubbed it in tight circles.

"Oh my god Kelly, that feels so good," Julie said as she started to wiggle almost uncontrollably underneath of me, "Don't stop!"

I ran my finger up and down between her clit and her pussy entrance, sticking my finger inside of her just enough to get it wet and then using it to moisten the exterior of her pussy. When it was good and wet I concentrated on her clit, moving several fingers gently over it to rub and stimulate her. The entire time I had her nipple in my mouth my head turned so I could see myself touching her. It was getting harder and harder to think about sucking her nipple as she grew more and more turned on from what I was doing between her legs. Turning my head back towards her face, I smiled even though her eyes remained closed and she didn't see me. I sucked hard on her nipple and let it snap back into place as I released it from my lips.

"So, are you ready for me to lick your pussy?" I asked, my heart pounding as I waited for her answer.

She opened her eyes and looked down at me and smiled broadly. "God, I was beginning to wonder if you ever were going to do that!"

Close enough to a "yes" for me.

Her legs were still dangling off the edge of her son's bed so I quickly got off the bed and kneeled between her legs, pushing them further apart so I could fit between them. I placed on hand on the inside of each of her firm thighs and looked up at her. She had pulled one of his pillows down and put it under head so she could watch what was going on between her legs. I smiled at her, determined to give her the show she must have been hoping for.

Licking my lips for effect, I leaned over and put my face a few inches above her wet pussy. The heavy odor of her horny pussy filled my nostrils and I took in a deep breath through my noise to savor her scent. God, if I didn't know better I would say it was my mom's pussy under me as she smelled almost exactly like my mom.

Sticking out my tongue, I slowly moved closer until just the tip was touching her clit, letting it slowly run a small circle around it. Julie jumped almost the instant I touched it and then let herself settle back down again. Dropping my head a little lower, I took her clit in my mouth much the same way I had taken each of her nipples just a little while before. Her hips lifted instinctively as she reacted to my mouth on her. I gently sucked on her clit, not taking it too far into my mouth but rather just sucking on it with my lips as gently and slowly as I could restrain myself to do.

"Oh my god, that feels so damn good!" she moaned, reaching for my head with her hands as my hair draped over her crotch, "Suck it harder!"

I have often made the argument that women are much better at licking pussy than men and this was one of those times when I could prove my theory. Granted, I LOVE my pussy to be licked but most men just don't have a clue how to do it right. What they really need to do is ask me sometime when we are NOT having sex as that's when I can tell them what they really need to do.

The absolute WRONG time for a woman to tell a man what she wants is when he's already licking her as then it's all about needs and emotions rather than what she REALLY needs. For example, when Julie begged me to suck her clit harder, that was her lust and emotions expressing themselves. Most men would have listened and dutifully done exactly what she said - exactly the WRONG thing to do. Sure, Julie would have enjoyed me sucking her clit faster and harder, but I knew she would enjoy it even MORE later on. What would drive her crazy at this moment was NOT what she asked for, but to keep doing what I was doing - gentle teasing and lightly sucking it. Patience is the key to licking pussy!

So ignoring her pleas and tugs on my hair, for that matter ignoring my own impulses as well, I took her sensitive clit gently between my lips, just far enough that my tongue could run over the tip of it when it was in my mouth. Instead of licking her hard and fast as she asked, I slowly inserted a single finger into her pussy, rotating it in small circles as I worked it inside of her until it was in as far as I could.

While I'm on a rant about properly licking a pussy, let me say a word to guys about putting a finger in a pussy as well. Sure it feels good going in, but that's because it's like a small dick and it rubs against the inner walls of my pussy when it's inserted. However, once inside it's NOT a dick so unless you're filming a porn movie, shoving it in and holding it there or moving it around is a waste of time.

Where I am the most sensitive is just inside my pussy hole for the first inch or so. THAT is where you need to concentrate on and that is exactly what I did with Julie. Once my finger was in her and all wet and warm, I pulled it back out until just the first knuckle was left in and twisted and turned slowly in her pussy, like a chick rotating on a grill. Meanwhile, I took just a little more of her clit in my mouth, this time enough for my tongue to run around it as well as over the tip. The results, if predictable, were wonderful.

"OH MY GOD!" Julie exclaimed, "What the hell are you doing to me?"

It was more a rhetorical question so I didn't take my mouth off of her to answer. She was writhing under me like she was in pain but I knew what she was feeling was anything BUT pain. My own pussy was tingling as I knew what she must be feeling about them and I would have loved to have had someone doing it to me as well.

Julie grabbed my head and pulled it hard into her crotch. I stopped teasing her and put as much of her clit and pussy in my mouth as I could, sucking on it hard and using my tongue to drive her crazy with desire. It was actually getting difficult to keep my mouth positioned on her clit as her hips were bouncing up and down so hard it threatened to throw me right off of her and down to the floor.

"Oh fuck, don't stop... don't fucking stop!" she moaned, louder than ever now. It wasn't long before she announced what I'd been waiting for.

"I'm gonna cum... oh shit I'm almost there," she groaned, letting out a loud, long moan.

Suddenly it was like she froze stiff, her entire body went rigid and her legs wrapped around me like she was trying to hold onto me for dear life. A soft cry, almost a whimper, escaped from her lips and it just kept on going and going, getting louder and more guttural as her orgasm overtook her. I kept my lips locked onto her and pushed my finger deep inside of her again, holding everything still as her back arched and then dropped to the bed hard and then arched up again. I could feel her pussy clamping down on my finger, as if it was a little dick inside of her. Her moan stopped just long enough for her to suck in a huge gulp of air and then started up again right where it left off.

I felt her body start to relax so I started back to work on her clit again, this time driving a second finger into her pussy alongside the first. My efforts were rewarded with a renewal of her orgasm as she cried out this time, not so much words as just a soft scream like she was being tortured, except I knew what she was experiencing was anything BUT torture.

Each time she started to relax, I would go back to work on her pussy, not overdoing but just enough to drive her back to the top again and then I would wait for her orgasm to start to sag and drive it back up again. I must have done it five or six times until finally her body just went limp and she didn't make a sound except for her gasping for air. The sudden change was so extreme I lifted my head to look up at her to make sure she was all right. She opened her eyes and met with mine and wide grin appeared on her face as she pushed my hair out of my face so she could see me better.

"Oh... my... God!" she gasped between breaths, "What the hell did you do to me?"

I smiled at he and thought to myself, "welcome to the world of girl-girl sex!".

No dildo or finger in the world can replace a man's dick in me, so let me just get that off the discussion table from the start. Given a choice between the last man on earth or the last woman, the guy wins every time hands down. I LOVE to be fucked more than anything else, at least sexually, so don't confuse anything else I might say as meaning anything different from that. When it comes to oral sex though, I'll take a girl every time, even if she has never done it before.

A woman simply knows instinctively what another woman wants. Face it, by the time a girl is faced with licking another girl's pussy, she has undoubtedly masturbated untold number of times so she KNOWS what makes her feel good down there. No guy can ever truly understand how it feels to have your pussy licked and touched, no matter how often he does it or how many times a girl tries to explain to him what to do. It's like the difference between riding a bike and just reading about it. You can read about it all day but unless you're in the saddle, you'll never really know how to ride one.

I moved back up on the bed alongside of Julie and we kissed. I was conscious of the fact that my face was covered with her pussy juices and wondered if she had ever kissed her husband after he licked her pussy. From her initial hesitation, something told me that she hadn't, which based on discussions I've had with a lot of women, didn't exactly surprise me. I'm amazed at how many woman think tasting their own pussy is somehow dirty or perverted! I remember doing it back when I just a little girl, curious about myself as I would explore my body at night in bed. I guess it's like swallowing cum, you either like the flavor and odor or you don't. Me, I LOVE it, especially my own.

Whatever her past experiences, once our lips touched she went at it without any further hesitation. We both got up completely on the bed and laid in each other's arms, our legs intertwined such that out pussies rubbed up against each other's leg. It was almost like she was still under the influence of her orgasm, acting more out of instinct than reasoned thought.

Meanwhile, my own pussy was literally screaming for attention. Feeling her smooth leg pressed up against me, I started humping her leg like I was trying to fuck it. It was my turn now, time for her to taste her first pussy.

Just as I was gathering the courage to tell her what I wanted, I heard a sound like a chime coming from downstairs. Julie stiffened and her head lifted up as if to try and make sure she had heard what she thought she had.

"OH SHIT!" she exclaimed, "What's he doing back home already?"

As for me, I had no idea whatsoever what she was talking about. Julie quickly got out of bed and motioned for me to follow.

"That's the garage door opening," she breathlessly explained as she took my hand and literally pulled me from Nathan's bedroom, "My husband set up an alarm as part of the security system so we would know if anyone tried to enter through the garage. It has to be Nathan. God, what's he doing home?"

She led me to her bedroom where the thought seemed to hit both of us at the same time. My clothes were downstairs on the counter!

"Stay here, I'll be right back!" she said hurriedly as she grabbed a robe from the bed and hustled out of the room.

I was still nude and didn't see another robe but I wanted to know what was going on so I slipped out of the room and followed her out. By that time she was already heading down the stairs and didn't see me coming down the hallway. I stopped at the head of the stairs, not daring to go further in my condition. Not that having Nathan see me nude would have necessarily been so bad, but this just wasn't exactly the right time or place for it.

I heard the kitchen door to the garage open and Nathan must have walked in as I heard him say hello to his mom. It was hard to hear everything he said but it was something to do with an orientation on his first day so he didn't have to work the entire shift. The rest of their conversation was too low to understand so I returned to the bedroom as quietly as I could. Julie was back a few minutes later, carrying my clothes and shoes. She explained to me why he was home and I didn't let on that I had overheard them already.

"So what did you say about my clothes?" I asked, curious what tall tale she had fabricated. Certainly she hadn't told him the truth!

"I just told him we decided to go swimming and that you were upstairs getting dressed and forgot your clothes."

Well, I guess she HAD told him the truth, although not all of it. Fortunately for her, the flushness of her face and the heavy scent of sex probably hadn't registered with her son. After all, she was his mom so why would he even suspect such a thing might happen between her and me? Sure he might use her bra as a cum catcher but I had no doubt that was just a teenage boy "thing" and had nothing whatsoever to do with any real desire to have sex with his mom. She was simply the closest female for him to fantasize about.

I quickly dressed and we kissed again briefly before I left the room. As I walked out of the bedroom I met Nathan coming down the hall from the stairway. He meekly said hello to me, a little shy still which was understandable. He disappeared into his bedroom and I wondered if he had any idea what his mom and I had been doing in there literally just minutes ago? His bed had been a wreck before we did anything so it's not like he would have noticed something was different.

I let myself out of the house, just as I had planned to back when Nathan's lesson had concluded. As I sat in my car, I slipped my hand between my legs and cupped my horny pussy. God, I needed something so bad! It just wasn't fair that I hadn't had a chance to get it licked. For a moment, I actually felt resentment toward Nathan for having interrupted us just as Julie was about to lick my hungry pussy.

Just as I was about to put the car in gear, I took a deep breath and knew there was absolutely no way I was going to make it home in this condition. Looking around to make sure nobody was walking by on the sidewalk, I quickly slipped off my shorts and sat bare-ass in my car. It wouldn't be the first time I'd driven one-handed! It wasn't a long drive home so I was able to keep kept one hand on my pussy the entire way. Pulling into our driveway, I drove down to the garage and turned off the engine. Laying the seat back, I spread my legs further apart and masturbated furiously. God it felt so good!

When I finally came, it was like all the emotions and tensions that had been building up in me while with Julie suddenly released themselves all at once. My seat was soaked under my ass as I came and came hard. All the while all I could think about was how much better it would have been if Julie's mouth had been on me instead of my fingers.

It would be another week before I saw Nathan again for his next lesson. I wondered if his mom would make a point of being there, or make a point of NOT being there. I knew which option I was rooting for. Now I just had to wait to find out.

A night out at a bar or club isn't usually top on my priority list but there are those times when it can be fun. Besides, you never know who you are going to run across from your past!

1. Dressing For the Party

While I'm not a "party girl" in the sense many of my friends are, I still enjoy spending a night out with my girlfriends now and then that includes a little more "fun" than your standard evening at the bar and grill gossiping and trading stories. At the far end of the spectrum are what I call the pure "sex parties" that my best friend Beth is really into. She has somehow convinced me to attend a number of them in the past and while I have to admit I've always had a good time, I don't see how I could handle a steady diet of them. More typical are the nights we go to a sports bar or club where people get a little carried away now and then but some semblance of public order remains.

Tonight was supposed to be one of those nights where we would show up as a group, flirt and maybe fool around a little as the evening progressed, but when it was over nothing "serious" was going to happen. In the area I live in there are lots of small bars and grill which don't appear to be much from the street but often have a small restaurant in the back in addition to the bar. Many have patios where they hold various events designed to bring in people to eat and drink. The one my friends and I were planning to attend was just such a place. You had to walk through the bar and then past the eating area to get to the fenced-in patio out back. I'd been there before and they usually had someone playing music with tables and chairs set up with a small stage for karaoke and games.

Getting ready for the evening didn't require a lot of imagination. The standard "uniform" for most girls at these events was anything that showed a lot of leg and ass, not to mention as much cleavage as you could legally expose. For me, that usually meant either a really short skirt or a pair of "Daisy Duke" cutoffs matched with a tube top, halter or cami. Thongs have become almost a requirement these days, replacing sexy sheer lace panties. Bras are always an option. On the one hand I love the way my boobs look loose and free but then there is the teasing aspect of a bra that can be even more fun under the right circumstances. My philosophy is that if I intend to let the guy fondle my boobs then the bra stayed home but if my goal was primarily to tease and flirt then I would pick out one of my sexier versions.

After changing my mind at least a half-dozen times, my bed was covered with different outfits. I finally sat down on the chair by my desk and stared at them all. If guys only knew how much effort a poor girl has to go through to tease him! As I sat there contemplating my dilemma, my mom passed by my room and then turned around and came in. "Looks like someone is having a hard time deciding on what to wear," she observed astutely, waving her hand at all the clothes I had out.

"Yeahhhhhhh, what do you think Mom?" I asked, "Skirt of shorts?"

She put her hand to her cheek as if lost in deep thought and then walked over to my bed and picked up a cute denim skirt, one of my favorites.

"Oh! So this is supposed to be a skirt?" she teased me, holding it out in front of her and shaking her head as if she couldn't figure it out, "And here I thought it was some sort of belt."

"Mommmmmm," I whined, "You bought that for me, don't you remember?

My mom sighed heavily as if the weight of the world was on her shoulders from trying to be a good mother. She put it back on the bed and picked up a pair of cutoffs, the ones with more holes in them than anything. She started to say something to me again but then shut her mouth and shook her head some more.

"What happened to that sexy little pink dress your dad bought you?"

I knew exactly which one she was referring to. It was a halter style dress with a thin spaghetti strap running around my neck. It was cut really low and showed off my boobs incredibly well. It wasn't the shortest dress in my closet by any means, I think my dad was drawn to it because of how good my boobs looked in it. I hadn't worn it in quite a while and so I found it interesting that she should remember it.

"It's back in the my closet somewhere," I replied.

"Why don't we see how it looks on you now,?" my mom suggested.

I shrugged and opened up my closet where I rummaged through everything and finally found it hanging towards the back. As I took it off the hangar, I marveled at how light it was. It was like I was barely holding anything in my hand! My mom stood back and watched as I stripped and held the dress up against my naked body.

"As cute as you are standing there naked like that, why not try the thing on?" my mom said as I waited for her assessment.

Not rising to the bait, I just smiled and pulled it over my head and let the silky fabric fall down and settle over me. I cupped my boobs and adjusted them into the top and straightened out the bottom hem.

"Wow, that really looks cute on you!" my mom praised me, "It's easy to see why your dad loved it so much."

We each glanced at my all but totally exposed cleavage and then we laughed together. Yeah, it was REAL easy to see what my dad liked it on me. Although it was more formal than I had planned to wear, the thin material felt so loose and soft against my skin I knew immediately it was going to be perfect for me. Fortunately, I had a naughty pink thong that I'd picked up only a couple of weeks before that would go perfect with it. It certainly didn't hide a whole lot but it would keep me legal when my dress flew up or I sat down too quickly. Note I said "when" and not "if"!

"Too bad your dad went in to the office today, he would have loved seeing you in that again," my mom mused, checking me out from all sides.

Even though it was a Saturday, it seemed life never took a break at my dad's office and I figured from her statement that it was unlikely he would be getting home before I was due to leave. Too bad as I would have loved to have shown it off for him - without the thong of course. Memories of the last time I modeled it for me made my pussy tingle. Needless to say, it hadn't stayed on me for very long!

"So what are you doing tonight mom?" I asked.

"Ahhhhhh, I was sort of hoping your dad would get home early for once," she sighed, "I guess it is starting to look more and more like just me and Mr. Weasel though."

We both laughed but I could tell that she didn't think it was quite as funny as I did. My parents have been married for a long time yet they still enjoy sex with each other as much now as they ever have. So many husbands chat with me and write me about how their sex lives have deteriorated. While in many cases, I have to wonder if it is really the wife's fault, the fact remains that so many marriages seem to lose that "spark" after a while. Not so with my parents! I've heard a lot of people joke about how gross it is to hear your parents making love.

Personally, I've never understood why anyone would think two people making love making is gross, especially if it's your parents. If anything, you should certainly hope they enjoy it! With just an thin wall between our bedrooms, I've been listening to my parents since I was a little girl and I think if anything, my mom cums louder now than she did ten years ago.

The reference to "Mr. Weasel" was to one of her favorite dildos. My mom kept a veritable museum of dildos, vibrators and other toys in the drawer by her bed. Duracell should send her Christmas cards thanking her! Since I started masturbating, she has always made it clear they were mine to use as well but for whatever reason, I never found myself as attracted to them as she is. For me, my fingers have always been available and they still do the job just fine, thank you very much. In addition, I have always had this fear that if I used large dildos that they would stretch out my pussy. It makes me proud when men still marvel over how tight I am when they fuck me. Personally I think part of that is due to me not using big dildos.

"Well, be sure to think of me!" I teased her, "Wish I could watch."

We both giggled like little schoolgirls at our teasing but there WAS an element of truth in it all. While my mom had never flaunted it in front of me, she was instrumental in teaching me as I was growing up that masturbation was natural and nothing to be ashamed of. When I was younger I would even go in her room sometimes when I heard her vibrator running and watch. I guess I found it fascinating to see her doing herself and I even learned a few things to try on myself as well.

As I got older, I no longer deliberately watched her but there were still times when I would go by her bedroom, see her going at it, and pause for a moment to take in the view. Funny thing though, she never did the same with me. Although she wouldn't leave the room or avert her eyes if I started masturbating, she never went out of her way to actually watch me as if I was putting on some sort of show for her.

It was getting close to the time my cousin would be picking me up so I grabbed my thong and slipped it on while my mom helped me put away the myriad of clothes I had covering my bed. I gave her a quick kiss to thank her for her support and rushed into the bathroom to finish up some makeup and hair. I had just shaved yesterday and I rubbed my pussy to see how it felt. Not perfectly smooth but good enough for tonight. It wasn't like I had any intention of getting laid. At most maybe a blowjob but even that would be icing on the cake for me.

I started to reach for a small pocket purse that matched my dress but changed my mind at the last minute. Leaving it behind, along with my money and driver's license, I rushed down the steps to the front entrance. One nice thing about being a girl at these events, you never had to worry about money!

"Now don't do anything I wouldn't do!" my mom pretended to admonish me.

"Yeah right!" I joked. Like there was ANYTHING that she wouldn't do. From what my dad told me, my mom was the ultimate party girl when she was my age with quite the reputation for putting out as well.

2. Flirting at the Party

Out in the car my cousin Kristen was waiting rather impatiently. I didn't even have my seat belt fastened and she was already pulling away from the curb. I gave her a quick glance and smiled. Good thing I hadn't chosen my favorite denim skirt or someone might have thought we were twins. In the car sitting down it barely covered her ass and I could easily see the black thong she was wearing underneath. Her smooth tanned legs were bare as was most of the rest of her with just a black bikini type top on that made the most of her B cup boobs. God she looked hot!

"Haven't seen you in that dress in a long time Kelly," she remarked, 'Looks good on you though. What's underneath?"

"Oh yeah, I remember you buying that one... remember that poor boy who was watching us at the store?"

We both giggled as the memory of some teenage kid who had been spying on us as we went through the lingerie, trying to appear as if he was wasn't looking but it was SO obvious. He probably spent the night jerking off thinking of us wearing them, which I would have taken as a compliment.

Kristen put her hand to her mouth and gasped saying, "Oh wait... now I remember! Isn't that the dress your dad bought you for your birthday?"

Since she was looking at me instead of the road, I nodded and pointed to the road ahead of us, trying to hint at her to pay more attention before she killed us both.

"Did you know he told me all about it one time?" she said with a devilish grin, "Sounds like you had a lot of fun modeling it for him... and even more after he took it off you!"

Well, he hadn't told ME that he had told her but then it didn't surprise me as he liked to tell me about his exploits with her sometimes too. It was fun to remember but I didn't see the point discussing it now so I changed the subject to the upcoming party for the rest of the short drive. When we got there the lot was almost full and I could hear the music coming from the speakers in the back.

"Ready for some fun?" Kristen asked as she got ready to get out of the car. She didn't expect, nor did I give her a response as we both got out and headed for the entrance.

When we got to the front entrance I was surprised to see a guy was there checking IDs. Technically this wasn't a problem for me as I was 22 but Kristen was only twenty, and didn't LOOK a day over seventeen or eighteen at most. Oh well, that had never stopped her before. She lifted her chin a bit and strolled in like she owned the place.

"Do I LOOK like I'm carrying ID on me anywhere?" Kristen responded, rolling her eyes as if it was the dumbest question she'd ever heard. Indeed, she wasn't carrying a purse and in that outfit, it would have been hard to hide a postage stamp let alone a driver's license.

"Sorry, just doing my job," he replied sheepishly, his face turning a little red. He look to be maybe barely 21 himself and must have been pretty low on the seniority list to have pulled ID duty with the party going on out back.

"Soooooo, are you going to let us in or not?" I interrupted him, acting as impatient as I could.

"Sorry, got to have those IDs, you know how it goes," he sighed, as if he'd been through this several time tonight already.

"Yeah, we KNOW how it goes," Kristen came back. She stood in front of him and lifted her bikini top up to reveal the cutest perky boobs the guy had probably ever seen. "Here's my ID, want to check it out?"

The guy couldn't help himself, he WAS a guy after all. His eyes went straight to her chest and if they opened any wider, they would have popped out. Kristen giggled and dropped her top back and adjusted it, taking more effort than required so he could see her playing with them.

"Uhhhhh, I guess that's OK then," he stammered.

Guys were so easy! Kristen motioned for me to follow and she strutted by the poor kid, winking at him and smiling broadly. Yep, that's my cousin for you!

We made our way to the back where it was already pretty crowded. Fortunately, Beth and Nancy had gotten there ahead of us and had saved us a couple of seats at one of the tables near the back. There must have been a hundred people packed in already with more coming in behind us. The music was loud and the poor waitresses were trying to keep the drinks coming. Our table had a couple of pitchers of beer on it but I had no idea who had bought them as there were people coming and going constantly. It didn't matter to me anyway since I never touched the stuff but Kristen quickly found a glass and poured one for herself.

"Hey, glad you two finally made it. We thought you might have changed your minds or something," Beth said to me as I sat next to her.

Beth was dressed in the same type of skirt that Kristen was wearing but with her bigger boobs, she had on a sheer white blouse that was buttoned below her bosom which allowed the black bra underneath to be almost completely visible. Actually, her bra hid a lot more than Kristen's bikini top so it wasn't like it was all that revealing.

Next to Beth was Nancy, another of my long-time friends. She also had on a skirt (now I was starting to feel a little out of place wearing a dress) with a tight cami that made her incredible boobs look even better, if THAT was possible. Nancy had the best figure of all my friends by a long shot but she was also the most conservative about showing it. Go figure.

As was typical in such events, it looked like the guys outnumbered the girls by about three or four to one. Not that I was complaining. Beth liked to refer to this type of situation as a "target rich environment", probably picked up from her dad's military experience. Whatever you called it, it was open season on us, that was for sure. Just walking through the crowd I felt at least a half dozen hands on my butt! Sitting at the table, the four of us may as well have been rock stars from all the attention we were getting. Everyone seemed to want to buy us a drink, most likely in hopes we would get drunk rather than being polite. "See that guy in the black shirt over there?" Beth said in my ear, pointing towards a rather good looking guy standing over by the bar. "Remember him?"

I looked again but although he was certainly eye candy, there was nothing about him that set him apart from several others like him. I shrugged and looked at her to tell me what it was she was referring to.

"Oh come on Kelly, you have to remember him," Beth laughed at me, "Don't you remember the first party I took you to?" Still wasn't ringing a bell so she huffed and rolled her eyes as if I was totally out of it.

"Damn girl, he was the host for your initiation... remember him now?" she continued, "Maybe if you could see his dick again, THEN you might remember!"

OMG, now I knew who he was. It had been years ago and lord only knows how many guys since that fateful day but she was right, I SHOULD have remembered. It was the first sex party Beth had brought me to and one of the "minor" details she had "forgotten" to tell me was that the host had the right to fuck me first since it was my first night. Not only did he get to fuck me first, but he had to do it in front of the entire group at the start of the party before anyone else could do anything. Memories flooded back into my head and I felt a twinge between my legs as I remembered how it felt to be fucked in front of a roomful of people for the first time. So that was him? Hmmmmmm, he looked better than ever!

Beth had her hand on my bare leg under the table and felt me squirming. She giggled at me and squeezed my thigh saying, "Yeah, I figured once you remembered that you would get all horny. Damn! Calm down girl!"

We both sat back and watched the goings on in front of us. Nancy was sipping a beer as yet another guy tried hitting on her. Kristen was never one to sit for long and she was already out on the dance floor. She started by herself but it didn't take long for the sharks to smell blood and began circling. Soon she was surrounded by guys, all of them trying to outdo the other to gain her attention. Beth nudged me in the side and pointed to her.

"C'mon, let's go join her and drive the guys nuts, what do you say?"

For the moment I was still getting acclimated to the noise and crowd so I just shook my head and smiled at her. Beth shrugged her shoulders and headed out to the middle of the dance floor to join Kristen. The guys began to hoot and holler as the two of them started to bump and grind. The girls had the guys eating out of their hands - and they knew it. The night was still young so I figured things wouldn't be getting TOO carried away yet and I was right. Although they put their hands on each other's hips and shoulders, they stayed away from anything more naughty, letting the guys' imaginations of the work instead - and I had a feeling they could imagine a LOT!

After a couple of songs they both returned, laughing and giggling. A couple of guys tried to tag along but they gently pushed them away. It wasn't long before other girls took their place and the wolf packs were back in business.

"The guy in the cowboy hat was cute!" she gushed, her eyes seeking him out again.

"Gonna do him?" Beth asked quickly.

"Beth!" Kristen exclaimed, pretending to be offended that Beth could say such a thing. Then she smiled her naughty smile and winked at her, "Sooner or later..."

Again, that was my cousin. If we made it home before she did half the guys out there it would be a surprise to me. Well, maybe that was a bit of an exaggeration but she wouldn't be going home empty-handed, that was one thing I knew for sure (or should I say - empty pussy).

As for me, I still had my eye on the guy from my past, the stranger at that first party who had done me so willingly in front of so many people. I wondered if he recognized me? He certainly must have noticed Beth was here. Would he remember me as being her best friend? There was just something about the fact that he had fucked me so long ago and now here our paths had crossed again. Was it just a coincidence or was fate involved? Beth quickly picked up on my interest.

"His name is Steven and he's 28," she said, answering the question with me asking, "And it's STEVEN, not Steve. He hates being called that."

"Do you think he remembers me?"

Beth frowned and looked me in the eyes. "Well girl, as much as you may think no guy could ever forget fucking you, it WAS a long time ago and it was only that one time. Give the guy a break. After all, YOU didn't remember him and it was YOUR initiation! He's probably initiated a dozen or more girls since you."

She had a point. It WAS a bit egotistical for me to think a guy who must have fucked a ton of girls since then would remember a one-time quickie with me. Still, it didn't hurt to hope.

The noise of the crowd and music was overwhelming now and it was hard to even hold a conversation. I saw Nancy looking out at the dance floor, her eyes focusing on several guys. Considering she could have had any one of the eating out of her hand with just a smile, I wondered for maybe the millionth time why she was always so shy about taking advantage of her "assets". Once she got going she could be as crazy as anyone but it seemed it took quite a lot to get her to loosen up to start with.

I got up and went around the table to where she as sitting and reached out my hand for her, motioning for her to join me on the dance floor. She shook her head and her eyes went to the table but I reached over and grabbed her hand and started to pull on her. As I expected, she didn't resist, she was just waiting for someone else to provide the spark to get her going. She looked up and smiled and I knew she was ready to go so I turned and led her into the crowd.

With everyone out dancing there was hardly any room for us but we worked our way in and slowly danced with each other. She looked phenomenal! I would have killed for her boobs and her legs seemed so much longer than mine even though we were about the same height. Sometimes we would get pushed together and I could feel her boobs pressing against mine. She didn't make any effort to pull back and if anything, seemed to overreact when someone pushed on her just so we DID press against each other. Finally I just said the heck with it and put my arms around her, my hand firmly on her cute butt and we moved together on the floor. Nancy responded by planting her hands on my ass as well and it wasn't long before the guys noticed.

"Yeah, go girls!" someone yelled out, followed by a number of other cheers and then numerous "suggestions" as to where our hands should go next.

Nancy's skirt was so short that it easily slipped up and I soon had one hand on each of her bare ass cheeks. God her ass felt so tight! Her thong was just a thin sliver of material between her butt cheeks so it was if she wasn't wearing anything at all so far as the view from behind her went.

Nancy didn't make any effort at all to counter me lifting her skirt. I felt her rubbing my ass through my dress but as long as it was, lifting it up enough to reveal my butt would have been impossible to mask as being "accidental". The party wasn't that wild yet for that type of stuff and judging by the location and clientele, probably never would be. It was OK with me. Nancy's hands felt good on my ass and I loved thinking about how the guys around us were almost certainly wishing it was their hands instead of hers. Of course, I am sure the same could be said about my hands on her butt.

Two guys were being especially loud. They were each holding a beer, obviously not even close to being their first, and whooping it up pretty good. When neither of us responded to them directly, one moved in behind each of us and they both started grinding their crotches into our butts. One thing I had to say about the one behind me, he must have been packing something pretty good as I could definitely make out the bulge pressed against my ass.

Nancy and I kept dancing together as nothing was happening behind us. She looked at me and grinned and I knew she was as much aware of her "partner" as I was of mine. Then I felt his hands around my waist and they quickly moved up until they were just below my boobs. I would have allowed him to stay like that except I could feel his fingers starting to move up and touch the underside of my boobs and I knew I had to get things under control.

Taking one hand off Nancy's butt, I put it over his wandering hand and pressed it back down away from my breasts. He tried to push up again and this time I pushed him down AND turned around and shook my head at him. The jerk didn't seem to get the message so I was left with no alternative but to swing my hips and push him away.

"Whoa, she's not putting up with you Joe!" somebody yelled out, taunting the guy who had been behind me. Obviously his name was Joe and fortunately Joe wasn't so drunk yet that he tried to make another move. If he had I probably would have turned and kneed him between the legs. THAT always gets a guy's attention!

The music changed and I'd had enough so I told Nancy I was heading back to the table. Nancy was wound up now and stayed behind. Something told me Joe had a better chance with her now than he had with me.

3. Steven Fingers Me in Public

On my way back to the table I almost bumped straight into a guy and when I looked up my eyes widened as I realized who it was - Steven.

"Can I help you get back to your seat?" he offered.

I had a feeling the offer implied he was planning to take a seat with me when we got there but that was OK with me. Steven worked through the crowd, muscling people aside and spreading them apart like Moses at the Red Sea. When we got back, Kristen was still gone but Beth was waiting with a couple of guys fawning over her.

"Steven!" she cried out and stood up to give him a hug as we approached. Steven and Beth hugged like old friends and I couldn't help but wonder how many times he'd fucked her at the parties they attended together.

"I see you met Kelly," she said with a sly grin, "You DO remember her, don't you Steven?"

Steven laughed and reached over to give me a hug. "How could I ever forget the hottest initiation ever?"

Well, he was undoubtedly exaggerating but it still made me feel good. I remembered when I first found out that he was going to fuck me - and fuck me in the middle of the living room surrounded by all those strangers. I am sure at first he must have thought I was some shy prude but once we got started, I think I gave him about all he could handle. I'd of been really disappointed if he had forgotten it.

Steven took a seat next to me and pushed the chair close to mine so he was tight against me. He put one arm around my shoulders and placed his other hand square on top of my upper leg, pushing my dress aside without so much as an "excuse me".

"You know, you look different with your clothes on," he said with a grin, "Your boobs are bigger now too."

Well, he was nothing else if not forward, that was for sure. I just smiled at him, wondering exactly how I should respond but he didn't wait for me.

"You mind?" he asked, taking his hand off my leg and reaching for my boobs. I wasn't sure what he meant by that and he must have taken my hesitation for approval as next thing I knew, he had my right breast cupped in his hand!

"Nice... very nice," he said approvingly, as if he was at some county fair judging melons.

"What are you doing?" I finally managed to say as I pulled his hand away from me, "There's a million people watching!"

"Never knew you to be the shy one," he chuckled, putting his hand back on my leg although a couple of inches higher this time, "You didn't seem to mind being watched last time I met you, that's for sure."

Did I really have to spell that out for him? There was a little bit of a difference between being in a private home with people where sex was expected versus in a public place where the suggestion of sex was undoubtedly anticipated but not the actual practice. I knew full well before coming here that I would be fondled and groped; , heck, that was half the fun. I just hadn't anticipated it would start right out in the middle of things!

Beth, on the other hand, didn't seem to be having any such qualms. She had a guy on each side of her and both were practically mugging her. Although they stayed on the outside of her clothes, their hands were all over with her with one guy focused on her boobs and the other with his hand planted squarely over her crotch. It wasn't going be long before some bouncer came by and told them to get a room!

Steven wasn't paying them any attention and seemed totally focused on me. His hand was slowly but relentlessly moving up under my dress until he was just an inch or so from my crotch. Then, like a runner making his final lunge for the finish line, he quickly slipped his hand up top my pussy and I felt his fingers pulling my thong aside. Before I knew it, he had a finger up inside of me, aided by the fact I was wet as could be already.

"Ummmmm, getting a little friendly down there, aren't you?" I asked, a hint of teas in my voice to take the edge off.

"I prefer to think of it as renewing an acquaintance," he laughed, "Still shaved I see."

Nobody could really SEE what he was doing but it wouldn't take much imagination to figure it out from his hand disappearing under my skirt and the look of contentment on my face. As much as I knew I should stop him, he knew how to touch me such that I instantly began to feel a buzz inside of me and I knew I would cum pretty easy if he kept it up.

"You like that, don't you slut," he said in a low deep voice.

Well for goodness sake, what girl wouldn't? As he finger fucked me his thumb moved over my clit and rubbed my wetness over it and massaged it. God it felt so good and even more so with the pressing crowd of people all around us.

"God don't stop," I gasped as my pussy craved more and more of his finger. It was all I could do to keep my hands off my boobs or joining his hand between my legs. Instead, I tried to appear outwardly as if nothing was happening when my pussy was literally screaming at me to beg him for more.

"Just... don't... stop," I hissed at him, trying to keep my face from expressing the incredible urges that were filling me now from head to cum. Damn, I was about to have an orgasm right here in the middle of a huge crowd and none of them knew it! Well, most of them anyway. Beth was looking at me with that all- knowing face she gets when she knows exactly what I'm thinking or feeling. She knew what was happening and from the way she was watching me and licking her lips, she was loving it.

"Oh god," I gasped, my face feeling like it was suddenly totally flushed as my orgasm hit and my pussy contracted on his fingers. It was so surreal, these feelings that were consuming me as I looked out over the crowd, wondering how many had even a clue as to what was happening at my table, or at least beneath my table.

4. Paying Steven Back

Finally it died down and I started to pant slightly, trying to catch my breath that I had been holding as I came so as not to scream out loud. I turned to Steven and smiled, saying, "Wow, I can't believe you just did that to me."

"Well, then how about a little payback?" he asked. I knew exactly where he was going.

"Well, just so you know, I'm NOT going to suck your dick out here in front of everybody," I said with a bit of a laugh to soften the message.

"Damn, and just when I was getting my hopes up," he said jokingly. Judging from what I could see, his hopes weren't the only thing that was up.

"Follow me," I instructed him, pulling my dress down and getting up from the table. I looked back at Beth and winked. She grinned and gave me a thumbs up.

The only place I could think of going at the moment was the restroom inside in the restaurant. It wasn't much but it would have to do. The door was locked when I tried it but almost immediately a woman opened it and stepped out. She saw me and Steven standing there and it didn't take a rocket scientist to see what our intent was.

She just rolled her eyes and headed to the restaurant. Evidently she wasn't involved with the party out back and I could just imagine her telling her husband how some party slut was waiting to use the restroom after her so she could bring her boyfriend in with her.

"In here?" Steven questioned, his face looking a little disgusted with the location.

Hey, beggars can't be choosers so I pulled him in behind me. Once inside, we each knew what we wanted so there was no need to play any silly games. He wanted his dick sucked and I wanted to be fucked. Pretty simple.

"You know, I always wondered if I'd get another shot at fucking you," he said as he quickly stripped my clothes off of me and then took his own off as well. "You were one hot little bitch that day, you know?"

What could I say? Maybe he wasn't exactly the most romantic of the species but he certainly wasn't afraid to speak his mind. Actually, I'd rather a guy be like him and tell it like it is than pussyfoot around issues all day.

"Remember me better now?" he teased me, waving his dick in front of me as I bent my knees and dropped down in front of him.

My response was to grab his dick and then push it in my waiting mouth. He was about half erect already and it felt warm and thick in my mouth.

"Damn, that feels so fucking good," he groaned, holding onto the sink to steady himself as my mouth and tongue went to work on him.

Whether or not he really remembered me or if it was just Beth's suggestion when I hadn't been looking, one me thing I was going to make certain of and that was he would never forget THIS time with me. I could feel him growing in my mouth as my tongue licked him and my mouth slid up and down his lengthening shaft. Mmmmmmm, I loved the feeling of a warm dick growing in my mouth!

As he got harder and my mouth had to take more and more of him in, he put his hands on my head and grabbed my hair, using it like a handle to pull my face in tighter to his crotch. Like most any guy. Steven wanted his dick in my mouth as far as he could get it and I pushed my face down onto him until my cheeks and nose were pressed against his thick pubic hair. He had the wonderful deep odor of a male in heat, that raunchy muskiness mixed with sweat that made a male crotch so distinctive and attractive.

Soon his cock was like a steel rod, inflexible and stiff as he pushed it into my mouth and then he started fucking my mouth. His hands held my head still while his hips thrust his horny dick in and out of my mouth, driving himself into my mouth like he was fucking my pussy - something I was starting to wish he would do! After a few minutes of this he pulled his dick out and lifted me up by my shoulders to my feet.

"Here... sit up on the sink," he said hoarsely as his voice was thick with the lust that had been building in him.

He was looking at me now with the eyes of a man who had one thing on his mind - fucking me. It never failed to thrill me to see man in this state, almost animal-like in his intensity and focus. I knew without a doubt he was going to fuck me and part of the excitement for me was that deep down, I knew I couldn't stop him now even if for some silly reason I wanted to.

Sometimes I wonder if that is the look a woman sees when a rapist is about to take her. I wonder if all the experts who claim that a woman should never stop fighting have ever been on the receiving end of the eyes of a man who was totally under the control of his most basic sexual drive, so consumed by lust that he no longer views her as a person but as merely an object to satisfy his needs and desires.

Steven was breathing heavy, his mouth half open as his eyes stared at me, telling me without a word spoken that he intended to mate me like some animal in heat. Under these circumstances it was thrilling but to a woman being raped I could see where it would render her hopeless to where she would simply give in to him.

My butt felt cold on the sink as he put his hands on my inner thighs and spread my legs apart. He lowered his head and for a moment I thought he was going to lick my pussy but instead he was just checking out the goods to verify I was ready. Just to make sure he spit on my pussy, wetting it even more on the outside as if I wasn't wet enough already! He let my right leg drop and hang off the edge as he held my left one in the air and used his free hand to grab his hard dick and direct it to my waiting pussy.

"You want it, don't you?" he taunted me as his dick teased my pussy, rubbing up along the slit and the his head would touch my clit and then move back down to where he would press it against my pussy hole just enough to feel him but not enough to penetrate me. "Fucking little whores like you always want it... I bet your fucking cunt can't get enough hard cock, can it? Well then, beg for it if you want it in you."

He wanted it as bad as I did, I was sure of that. Technically, all I really had to do was sit there and sooner or later he would ram it in me no matter what I said - or didn't. At this point there was no denying his own lust any more than he could stop breathing. What the heck though, why not play his little game and build his ego a bit?

"God I want your dick in me... fuck me with it... oh god fuck my cunt with your hard dick!"

OK, so it wasn't Shakespeare but it got the intended results. He placed his dick right at the entrance to my pussy and then with one hard thrust of his hips, rammed it up inside of me until his shaft was about half way in. He pulled it mostly out and then pushed again, repeating the process as each time he would push it in me a little further until finally his dick was completely buried in my pussy. God it felt incredible to have his cock filling me up!

"That's it Steven, fuck me... fuck me with your big cock," I moaned as he moved his hips in a circular motion, keeping himself in me as much as he could but stirring his dick around inside of me. His thick pubic hair rubbed up against my bare crotch, stimulating and tickling me at the same time.

"You like my dick in you, don't you slut?" he said, almost as much to himself as it was to me, "Oh yeah, your nasty cunt needs a dick to make it happy. You can't get enough of it."

"Yes... oh my god yes... I need it in my cunt... give it to me... fuck me harder." I ranted on in an almost continues litany of dirty talk as he pumped his cock in and out of me, driving in me as deep as he could until his crotch bumped into mine and then pulling out until his head barely stayed in me.

"OHHHHHH, put it back in me!" I begged him as he accidentally withdrew too far and slipped out from my wet pussy.

I reached down frantically for his dick, grabbing the slippery shaft and all but pulling him into my pussy again. It wasn't an act any more for his benefit, I truly wanted him back in me, NEEDED him back in me. He may have put it crudely but he was right - my pussy really did crave his dick, I really did want nothing more than to have his hard cock in me at this moment.

"That's it bitch, keep begging for it, tell me how much you want my dick," he grunted as his thrusts seemed to increase in urgency. All the signs were that he was getting close to cumming and it wasn't going to take much now to drive him over the edge.

"Cum in me Steven... give me your cum!" I urged him, "I want to feel your dick cumming inside of me."

"Fuck that," he grunted as he gave me a few more deep strokes and then pulled himself out of me. He stroked his dick a few times and then started to ejaculate, spewing cum all over me. The first shot hit me in the middle of my chest and a bit struck me on my right breast while the rest landed on my stomach and then finally the last part of it on my pussy. God he had a lot of cum in him! It was all over me, running down my stomach and then from my pussy down to my ass.

"Damn, you look like such a fucking cumslut," he said with a grin as he stroked his dick and admired his handiwork.

"Why didn't you cum inside of me?" I whined a little. In the meantime I was scooping up some of his cum with my fingers and bringing it to my mouth to taste. I slowly licked it off my fingers as he watched and grinned.

"Looks like you're happy as it is," he chuckled, "Yep, I had you pegged as a cumslut from the start. Here, suck the rest from my dick bitch."

What could I say? He was right, I DID love cum but if he was going to have me eat it then he should have shot it in my mouth instead of making me a mess in the process. His cock looked so inviting, all wet and slick with my pussy juices over it along with the last of his sperm dripping from the tip. I slid off the sink and bent my knees so I could reach his dick with my mouth again. Mmmmmmm, it tasted fantastic! I have always loved the taste of my pussy to begin with and to savor the flavor on his dick together with the sharpness of his sperm was the perfect mixture.

His dick started to soften as I sucked the last of his cum from him. After it had dwindled down almost to it normal size, I stood up and licked my lips seductively for him.

"Mmmmmmm, now THAT tasted good," I said in a deep low voice.

"Too bad we didn't have an audience this time," he said with a grin, "I think you like it when people watch you, don't you?"

I just grinned at him. He had me pretty well nailed, in more ways than one. About the only thing that would have made this hotter would have been to do it out on the stage but somehow I didn't think the management would have been as thrilled about the idea as I was.

I pulled out some paper towels from the dispenser and tried to clean myself off. God I was such a mess! What I really needed was a shower but that wasn't going to happen until I got home. Steven was dressing and saw me going through one towel after another as I wiped his slimy cum off of me.

"Guess I made a bit of a mess, didn't I" he said with a grin. He wasn't apologizing but more like bragging about his workmanship.

"You bastard, you COULD have just cum in my mouth or pussy you know," I said in a teasing tone.

Really, what could I say? So many men seem to get off spraying their cum on a girl. Personally, I blame the porn industry since that seems to be the standard practice in most porn flicks. In real life, though, I guess I don't understand why a guy wouldn't prefer to feel my mouth or pussy surrounding his cock as he came.

"Yeah but then I wouldn't get to see you looking so fucking slutty," he said with a big smile.

Steven was dressed now and like most men, now that he had gotten his rocks off he was ready to hit the road. I was still naked, trying to wash off the last vestiges of cum from between my legs, checking myself out in the mirror as best I could to make sure I wasn't leaving any on me.

"Well, thanks for the great fuck," he said and then he left, closing the door behind him.

5. Taking Care of My Own Needs

When I finally had myself cleaned up, I reached for my dress but then I put it back down again. God I was still so fucking horny! Steven may have gotten off but not me and my pussy was telling me it wasn't happy about it. I suppose I could have gone out and dragged the first guy I met back into the restroom but that always had the risk that he would get off before me like Steven had. No, sometimes when you need something done, the best way is to do the job yourself!

I sat down on the toilet and slid forward a bit so I could lean back against the tank behind me. Spreading my legs wide apart, my hand quickly moved between my legs and cupped my crotch. Mmmmmmm, I was still soaking wet and hot! Memories of Steven's dick as he pumped it in me flooded back and my finger pushed its way in and I started to fuck my pussy with two fingers as I remembered how good his dick had felt in me.

Just then someone knocked on the door urgently but I just called out and said it was occupied before returning my attention to my pussy. Whoever it was, they were just going to have to wait until I was finished. I needed to cum and cum badly and I didn't care who wanted in, I was going to cum first.

As I finger fucked myself I used the fingers on my other hand to play with my clit and outer pussy. Damn was I wet! Perhaps it was fortunate that Steven HAD not cum in me as with the huge load he had dumped on me I was sure that his sperm would have been leaking out of my pussy for the rest of the night.

After having just been fucked, it wasn't going to take much to drive me to an orgasm and before long I could feel those unique sensations throughout my body that I only feel during one event - an orgasm. My entire body was tingling like I had just stepped out of my hot tub and into the cold winter air. Goose bumps rose up all over me and I could feel my face and chest flushing as my legs stretched out in front of me and my fingers thrust themselves deep in my pussy.

"Oh god, fuck me!" I moaned to myself as I dreamed of Steven cumming in my pussy, flooding me with that huge load of sperm.

"I'm cumming... Oh god I'm cumming... keep fucking me!" I went on, talking to myself like I was being fucked still by Steve. Damn I wished he was with me again, his hard dick thrust deep up inside of me, making me feel complete and whole as I only can when my pussy is filled with dick.

My pussy was cumming hard, flooding my fingers with my cum. I brought my hand to my mouth licking my cum from my fingers and thinking about how good they tasted. God I loved the taste of my pussy. Well, I love the taste of just about every pussy but mine is special to me. I traced my wet fingers lightly around my nipples which were now so sensitive I could barely stand to touch them. They were poking out all hard, begging for more attention but then making me gasp when they got it.

By the time it was over I was left exhausted on the toilet seat, panting for breath with my head back against the wall behind me. Damn I needed that! As much as I loved being fucked, there was something about masturbating that just made it all the better. The knocking at the door resumed and I knew I had better get going before someone came with a key to see what was happening in here for so long. I rinsed my hands quickly and threw my dress back on. It was tempting to leave my thong off as I knew it was going to be drenched as soaked as my pussy was now but I put it on anyway as I had nowhere else to put it and I wasn't about to throw it away.

When I looked into the mirror I could only shake my head. My hair was as best as I could do with just my hands and fingers to straighten it out. Why did I leave my purse home? My face was still deeply flushed and I realized I should have made him hang up my dress when he stripped it off of me instead of throwing it to the floor.

Oh well, it was the best I could do under the circumstances. When I walked out there were several girls waiting for me and they all looked at me suspiciously. Odds were they could smell the sex on me as I worked my way past them in the narrow hallway. If there was one thing a girl can smell from a mile away and that's another girl's sex. My mother always knew from the instant I walked in from a date whether or not I'd been laid!

When I finally got back to the table, Beth and Nancy were there, surrounded by guys as usual. Kristen was still nowhere to be seen and I wondered where the little slut had gone off to. It wasn't long before I found out. Some guy was up on the stage announcing the start of a wet t-shirt contest. Beth and Nancy were tempted and the guys around them encouraged them to go on up but they held their ground. Nancy I could understand but Beth was usually up for such things. Being I was in a dress, it pretty much took me out of consideration. I guess I could have taken off the dress and worn the t-shirts they had with my thing but frankly, I was worn out! My pussy was still throbbing like crazy and if anything I was tempted to make a return trip to the restroom and go for seconds.

Suddenly Beth squealed and pointed to the stage. One of the girls in the lineup was none other than my slutty little cousin! Kristen had evidently shed her black bikini top in favor of the thin t-shirt they provided as it would have been clearly visible through the thin cotton. Instead, you could practically see her nipples instead. Standing up on the stage, it was a good thing she was wearing her thong with that ridiculously short skirt.

There was no doubt in my mind that anyone up towards the front of the crowd was getting a pretty clear shot of her crotch. Some of the girls were just wearing their panties or thongs while a couple were actually in jeans so it made for quite a diverse group. I may be a bit biased, but I thought my cousin was the hottest one up there! A couple of the girls were not exactly svelte to start with. One girl had such huge boobs they looked almost comical as they hung down to her belly. Then there was another who was almost flat chested so Kristen stood out from all them like some sex goddess.

Situations like this are not exactly suspenseful. Everyone knew what was going to happen and there weren't any real surprises. The one thing I noticed was Kristen glancing about and seeing the other girls in just their underwear. It only took a second for her to realize who the favorites would be so she dropped her skirt right on stage and stood there in just her thong. It didn't hide much, that was for sure, and she quickly became the crowd favorite as she wiggled it around and teased the guys in the front. The announcer made a point of stressing that the t-shirts had to stay on so that took out a bit of whatever suspense there may have been. In any case, once the pitchers of water hit the thin cotton, they basically became transparent anyway so it didn't make all that much difference. I had to say I was proud of my sexy cousin as she looked damn near naked on the stage in the tiny thong and skin-hugging wet t-shirt. I was even prouder when it was announced that she had won!

The rest of the evening was rather uneventful. Kristen eventually returned to our table and was inundated with new admirers. She actually didn't "win" anything in the contest but she was thrilled to have been proclaimed the best looking girl up there.

It was getting late and time to leave so the four of us gathered our things and headed for the door. No doubt we could have had a dozen guys each accompany us if we had wanted them but I was exhausted and been fucked pretty good anyway. As I was about to leave I felt a hand grab me by the upper arm. It was Steven!

"Hey, leaving already?" he asked.

I nodded and started to pull away to catch up with the others when he pulled me back again.

"I know a few guys who wouldn't mind watching you," he said in my ear, "Sure you don't want second helpings?"

He we grinning at me and I actually think he was expecting me to go along with the idea. I just shook my head and pulled away from his grip. Well, maybe someday at another time and place but not tonight! I couldn't wait to get home as it was so I could tell my mom all about it.

There was a brief pause from the other end but then she answered, "Oh? Well I guess she must have told you about Matt. Ummmmm, just WHAT did she tell you anyway?"

"Really? Is that what she told you?" Tammy exclaimed. It wasn't like she was upset, more surprised than anything. I really don't know why she would have been as she knew Kristen and I were more like sisters than cousins. We shared everything - including a few boyfriends now and then, not to mention our own parents.

"Yeah, she didn't give a lot of detail but she was definitely impressed by him - or at least one part of him, you know Kristen. Anyways, sounds like you've got a hot one there."

"Yeahhhhhhh," she said in a dreamy tone as if she was imagining him more than talking to me, "I like Matt... A LOT!"

"Soooooo, when are you going to see him again?" I pressed, hoping she would get the hint but it didn't seem to work.

"Oh he's coming over this morning," she said, sounding quite excited.

"What about your mom, won't she be home?"

"She's getting ready to go shopping and get her hair done as usual."

"And Kate?"

I was actually more concerned about her older sister Kate than her mom. If Kate ever got any idea of what her younger sister was doing, I was positive that she would go straight to her mom and tell her everything. Kate was actually quite hot but she dressed and acted extremely conservative, much like her dowdy mom. My dad had often remarked how great it would be to do the two sisters together but that was one fantasy I knew that would NEVER come true.

"She spent the night at a friend's house. I don't expect her home until this afternoon."

Well, it sounded like the little slut had everything figured out! That left just one wild card, her older brother Rick. As much as I hate to say it, Tammy isn't exactly the smartest girl in the family, even compared to my blonde cousin Kristen, but for once she seemed to anticipate my question.

"Just in case you're wondering," she offered, "Rick promised to stay away this morning. We made a deal."

Fortunately we weren't using video phones as it would have been impossible to hide my reaction to that last statement. I could just imagine the "deal" she'd made with Rick. Knowing him, there was only one thing she could offer him to make him go along with something like this. The only question I had, but didn't ask, was how many times she had agreed to let him do her!

"Yeah," she replied, "Matt's a LOT better than the last guy I was seeing."

Damn, she definitely was NOT taking any hints so I figured it was now up to me if I was going to get laid this morning.

"Well, he sounds really hot. Do you really like to share him as Kristen told me?"

This time the pause was longer on the phone. I held my breath, not wanting to say another word until I got her reaction.

"I guess it depends," she finally said, "I don't think I would like it if one of my friends wanted it."

"But it was OK to do it with Kristen?"

"Oh sure! That was different. Kristen's been teaching me a lot of things so it wasn't like I felt she was competing with me."

"Well, haven't I taught you a lot as well?"

Tammy giggled and then said, "Well duh."

"Soooooo, would it be OK to share him with me then, too?"

There, I'd come out and just said it. Since the indirect approach hadn't worked, it was time for the direct method.

"You mean this morning Kelly?" she asked, sounding a little curious.

"Well, would that be OK?"

Another pause but then she said, "Well I guess so. He's going to be here in an hour though."

That wasn't an issue for me and so before she could change her mind I told her I would be right over. After I hung up, my pussy was wet with anticipation. If I'd had more time, I would have masturbated again but I wanted to get over to her house before he got there and so I resisted the temptation. On my way out, I passed by my mom in the kitchen. I'd forgotten that she had the day off by switching to a different shift me either. In fact, it was quite the opposite as she seemed to be flaunting herself for me more than anything. We stayed in the living room for the moment as she wanted to keep an eye out for Matt.

"Hey girl, you heading out somewhere?"

When I told her that I was heading over to see Tammy, my mom looked me over and frowned.

"Soooooo, how do you want to do this?" she asked once we'd sat down.

Actually, I hadn't given a whole lot of thought to any agenda. All I'd been really concerned about was getting fucked and to be honest, it didn't matter a whole lot to me HOW it happened. That said, obviously we needed SOME sort of plan so the gears in my head started spinning.

"Does he know I am going to be here?"

"What if I hid until you guys got going and then surprised him?"

Tammy thought about that for a moment but shook her head. "No, I did that with Kristen the first time and it just didn't seem right."

The phrase "first time" didn't go unnoticed and I wondered just how many times my sluttier cousin has joined the two of them. The sneaky little thing hadn't told me she'd done him more than once.

"So you just want me to be here when he comes in?"

Tammy shrugged and then nodded. "I think that will surprise him enough, don't you? Besides, it's not like he's going to leave or anything when he sees you, at least not in THAT outfit!"

"Just how 'experienced' is Matt?" I asked, trying not to imply he slept around a lot but at the same time curious about what he HAD done.

Tammy laughed at that and for a moment I wondered what I had said that was so funny.

"Didn't Kristen tell you?" she giggled. When I just stared at her she answered herself saying, "Noooooo, he isn't all that 'experienced". Not at all... I was his first and Kristen was his second. That's all that I know about anyway."

Wow, now THAT was a surprise. While I hadn't expected him to have fucked a dozen girls, or anything like that, I certainly hadn't figured that Tammy had been his first, not to mention my cousin being second. Wait until I talked to Kristen next time; the girl has been holding out on me again!

"So then I take it that I would be his third?"

"Well, you'd BETTER be," she said sharply. The tone in her voice reminded me of when I had first asked her if she liked to share him. Obviously not, at least not with someone outside her family. Before she could say anything else, I saw her face brighten and she stood up to look out the front window.

"Oh god he's here," she said, as if some movie star has pulled in instead.

4. Matt Fucks Tammy

Tammy flew to the door, motioning me to stay where I was. A moment later she opened the door and in walked Matt. My first impression was "WOW!". No wonder my cousins both adored him. What was really hot for me was that even though they both CLAIMED he was sixteen, he certainly didn't look it. Had I passed him on the street I would have guessed him to be more like thirteen or fourteen. Tammy wasn't exactly the tallest girl by any means but he was maybe even a little bit shorter considering she was barefoot and he had his shoes on.

Matt's eyes were locked on Tammy and he never bothered to even look around so he didn't see me on the couch in the living room. The kid didn't waste any time, that's for sure. He put his arms around her and quickly slipped it under her T-shirt, grabbing her tiny little ass and pulling her closer to him. They kissed in the entranceway as he squeezed her ass with both hands, one grabbing each butt cheek.

Tammy was beaming of course. Then she looked over in my direction and Matt followed her eyes. I knew when he saw me as his eyes widened and his mouth hung open just a bit. The funny part was that he didn't loosen his grip on her ass one bit. I doubt much of anything would have torn his hands away from fondling her.

"Oh Matt, this is Kelly. She's a cousin of mine, like Kristen."

Matt didn't say anything, whether it was him waiting for Tammy to finish her explanation or he just didn't know what to say, who knows? I would have put money on the latter, though..

"Earth to Matt!" Tammy giggled, "I told her what we did with Kristen and she wanted to do the same. Is that OK with you?"

I took that as my cue to stand up and show him what I looked like.

"Hi Matt!" I greeted him, "I've heard so much about you - ALL of you for that matter."

Matt suddenly seemed to be a little shy. Was it that I was so much older (and taller) than him or maybe he wondered exactly what it was that I had heard about him. I tried to reassure him by saying, "Oh don't worry, Kristen gave you quite a glowing recommendation!"

Matt was still staring at me. Not only was I seven years older than Tammy and two years older than Kristen, but both of them looked younger than most girls their age so I must have seemed relatively ancient to him. It wasn't just age either, if where he was staring was any indication - my chest. Whereas Tammy was barely an A cup and Kristen was a solid B, my C size boobs must have looked pretty good to him. I also knew that as cute as Tammy's ass was, it was tiny and not nearly as round and hot as mine. I almost felt a bit guilty as he kept staring at me and all but ignored Tammy - almost.

Tammy must have noticed where his interest had shifted as she took a little action of her own to regain his attention. Her hand moved down to his crotch and she started to rub him through his jeans.

"So Matt, are you ready to fuck me?" she said casually, as if it was just a natural thing for a girl like her to ask him.

"That's better, now let's go down to my bedroom," she appeared to offer, although I don't think she was really open to any alternatives.

The two of them headed down the stairs to her bedroom and I followed right behind. Her bedroom was small and even though she and Kate had a set of bunk beds, it didn't leave a lot of room for three people. Oh well, I was sure we would work something out.

"Well, you gonna take off your clothes or what?" Tammy teased him as she quickly pulled her t-shirt up and over her head, leaving her standing nude in front of him. As always, I admired her cute little teenage figure. It had a lot of filling in to do yet but there was no mistaking she had everything in place to be quite the hot little babe before long, not that she wasn't incredibly cute already.

Matt didn't need to be told twice and he stripped took off his clothes, leaving them to drop on the floor in a pile. I smiled as I saw he was already erect. It certainly wasn't a large cock, not by any stretch of the imagination, but I was pretty sure that I wouldn't be seeing it soft for quite a while which made my mouth water all the more for it.

Neither of them seemed to paying any attention to me so I just undressed and once I was nude, took a seat on the chair by her computer desk and watched the two of them as they immediately went straight to work on one another. One thing about

5. My Turn With Matt

Matt dutifully slid over to the far side of the bed, somehow finding room for himself without falling off. It was a good thing they were both so little as they easily fit next to each other on the twin size bed. I grinned at them both and put my hands on Tammy's thin inner thighs and lowered my head down to her pretty little pussy. The residual smell of their sex grew stronger and stronger the closer my nose came to her pussy. Finally my mouth was on her and I could taste the sweetness of her young little cunt. As I started licking her, I knew that Matt was watching. God, he had to SO be turned on seeing me licking his girlfriend's smelly pussy right after he had fucked it. Indeed, as I licked her his cum began to ooze out of her pussy and I lapped it up eagerly, like a kitten at a bowl of milk. I looked over at him and our eyes met as he watched me licking his cum from Tammy's pussy.

"Mmmmmmm, I love the taste of your cum after it was in her," I said softly, smiling at him as I licked my lips.

It wasn't something I said just for his benefit as I DID love the taste of it. OK, granted I LOVE a guy's cum to start with, but to taste if after it's been deep inside my cousin's sweet pussy just made it all the better.

With my face covered with her pussy wetness and a mouthful of his cum, I moved up to kiss Tammy and as we did, I let some of his slimy sperm drip into her mouth, keeping my lips above hers just enough so Matt would see his cum as it dripped from my tongue to hers.

"I bet that you like to watch us do this, don't you Matt?" I teased him gently. Matt nodded, as if he was afraid that if he tried to speak that his words would fail to come out. "So tell me Matt, are you ready for me to suck your dick now?"

It was a silly question in terms that I KNEW without a doubt what his answer would be. I can't remember a single time when a guy ever said no to me when I offered to give him a blowjob! I motioned for Matt to move over and sit on the edge of the bed. Then I kneeled on the floor in front of him and gently pushed his legs apart to better expose his crotch. Even in the dim light I could see his cock clearly and my mouth watered as I anticipated how it would feel in my mouth shortly. It was maybe four or five inches long and not that thick but he had a nice growth of dark brown pubic hair surrounding it. Oh my god, it looked as hard as a steel rod!

"Mmmmmmm, you have a great dick Matt," I complimented him, not yet touching it but looking at it like I was studying it for some art class and then back to

"Oh Matt, I love your ass," I moaned softly, enjoying the aftertaste of his dick in his mouth and ready to go for more.

"I like it when you put it all in your mouth," he finally spoke out in a barely audible whisper.

I took the not-so-subtle hint and dropped back down on him again and kept my face buried in his crotch this time. Actually, one advantage of him being so small was I was able to keep my head all the way down on him and still breathe whereas with most guys I could only hold it like that for a short while and then had to lift up to catch my breath.

It was like having a warm steel rod in my mouth only it tasted and smelled so much better. I wanted so bad to feel him inside of me but before that I was determined to make him cum in my mouth. Tammy wasn't always that keen about taking a load in her mouth, much to my dad's chagrin sometimes, but knowing my super slut of a cousin Kristen, I was sure it wouldn't be Matt's first time. I started bobbing my head up and down on his dick, keeping my hands on his tight butt. His dick was too small to try and stroke at the same time I sucked him hands-free, letting my mouth and tongue do all the "work". By rotating my head as I moved up and down, and letting my tongue slide over his shaft as it went in and out, I knew he wouldn't be able to hold out for much longer and as usual, I was right (at least when it came to predicting when a man would cum).

"Don't stop... keep going... please don't stop now," he groaned.

Matt had been leaning back with his hands on the bed but now he leaned more forward and put his hands on my head, pushing my face down onto his smelly crotch. I recognized it was instinctive on his part so I didn't bother telling him that is was also totally necessary. There was no way his dick was leaving my mouth until he had cum! Even if Tammy's mom walked in about now, I think that would have kept on sucking him.

My hands could feel his ass clench and then his hips thrust forward as the first shot of sperm shot from his dick into my mouth like water from a Super-Soaker gun. It hadn't been all that long since he had cum in Tammy's pussy but it was still a sizeable load and I was pleased with the way it felt as it filled my mouth. I opened my mouth and let some of it drip out and over his cock and then I went down on him and sucked it all off again before repeating the process.

"Oh wow, that was incredible," he groaned, leaning back on his hands once again.

"Well, we're not done yet - you ready to fuck me Matt?" I said, standing up such that my wet and hot pussy was right in front of him. I put my hand over my pussy and let one finger press its way inside of me as I purred to him saying, "My pussy wants your dick soooooo bad right now, do you know that?"

Yes indeed it did! I wanted his dick in me BADLY, so badly that when Tammy started to say something I just hissed at her to lay back and watch. Letting Matt stay where he was, I turned around and wiggled my ass for him before lowering myself down to his STILL hard dick. God, the kid was insatiable!

"That's it Matt, I want you to watch your dick go in my pussy. I want you to watch yourself as you fuck me. You DO want to fuck me, don't you Matt?"

It was so much fun to taste him and see the look of eager desire on his face. It was especially hot knowing that I was only the third girl he would have fucked - which was probably three more than most of his friends had done. This had to be like a fantasy come true for him, one of those experiences that even if he told his buddies about it, they probably wouldn't believe him. I could imagine the jeers from his friends at school when he tried to convince them that a hot twenty-two year old cousin of his girlfriend had wanted to fuck him while his girlfriend watched, and that after an incredible, one-of-a kind blowjob!

"Well Matt, do you want to fuck me or not?" I asked him again as he sat there silently, his eyes fixated on his crotch where my wet and ready pussy was just inches away from the tip of his dick, ready to drop down when he gave the word.

"Tell her Matt," Tammy suddenly chimed in, "I want to hear you tell my cousin that you want to fuck her."

Actually, I wasn't sure if that was some voyeuristic desire on Tammy's part as much as maybe a little bit of a threat because she really didn't want him to fuck me and so was making it harder for him to do it. Well, harder emotionally, that is, as his dick hadn't wavered one bit. Frankly, I didn't care what she said so long as he got his dick in me sooner than later. At this point the last concern on my mind was how Tammy felt about her boyfriend fucking me.

"I want...," he started and then hesitated as if not sure what to say. Then he got this determined expression and said, "OK, I want to fuck you. I REALLY want to fuck you"

Well, that was good enough for me. I reached between my legs and grabbed his stiff dick and quickly lowered myself down onto . I felt the head press against my pussy hole and the it slid rather easily inside of me thanks to a combination of my being soaking wet and his small dick. Once the head was in me I let go of his cock and dropped down onto his lap, sitting on his lap and feeling him under my bare ass. It didn't fill me anywhere near the way most cocks did and for a moment I recalled being fucked Tammy's older brother in this very same room. Damn, talk about a contrast! Rick had a big cock. It wasn't porn star huge but still bigger than his dad's (or my dad's). At the moment, though, I had Matt's dick in me and face it, ANY dick inside of me is a lot better than ANY dick that's just in my memory.

"Oh Matt, your dick feels so good in my pussy," I sighed, trying to make him feel like a stud.

Actually, it DID feel good in me. It wasn't so big it hurt the way big cocks did at first. The only problem was as I started to lift myself up and down on his dick, I had to be alert not to pull up too much as it slipped easily out of my pussy if I wasn't careful. At least between being as hard as he was and the way it tended to point upwards on its own, it easily found its way back in. Even so, I hate it when a cock slips out of me when I'm riding a guy!

"Oh Tammy, now I know why you and Kristen like to be fucked by Matt so much," I sighed yet again as I started to rock forward and back on his cock rather than trying to lift myself up and then back down again. This method actually worked just as effectively in terms of stroking his dick in and out of me and accomplished it with a LOT less work.

"Can you see your dick moving in and out of my pussy Matt?" I asked him gently, "Tell me Matt, do you like to watch yourself fucking me? Does it feel good?"

Matt didn't respond but I knew he was watching every second. I could only imagine how he felt, being as inexperienced as he was, seeing his rigid dick as it slid almost effortlessly in and out of my super-wet pussy.

To his surprise, I suddenly lifted myself off his cock and moved over to the desk where Tammy's computer was. There was plenty of room for me to sit there so I lifted myself onto the desk and spread my legs wide open like a porn slut.

"C'mon, fuck me some more Matt," I encouraged him, using my finger to indicate he should come over to where I was.

Mat quickly lifted himself off the bed and as he quickly made his way over to the desk, I admired the way his cute cock stuck straight out from his body like he was in some perverted form of a jousting. As he approached I reached out for his dick and once I had it in my hand, I literally pulled him in between my legs and then lined up his luscious dick up to my open pussy hole once again.

'Oh GOD yes! I'm CUMMING!" I practically shouted as my orgasm continued to build relentlessly, threatening to drive me crazy as always but always feeling good none the less.

I felt my pussy squeeze down on poor Matt's dick. Even as short and thin as his cock was, I was still able to grip it tightly such that for all practical purposes I had it locked inside of me. Matt simply stood still, not even trying to stroke himself in and out of me while I was at this stage.

"Cum in me Matt," I begged as my orgasm continued, "Oh god, cum in me dammit!"

As tight as my pussy had become, Matt was determined enough that he was able to resume fucking me. God it felt so good! I knew he had to be close after what all we'd already done and so long as he came sometime soon, I was confident my orgasm would still be going strong.

"Do it Matt, cum inside of her," Tammy encouraged him, taking her mouth off of me enough to watch her latest boyfriend cum in my pussy.

"Oh yeah, that's it Matt... I can feel you in me... cum in me... that's what I want," I cried out as I felt him jerk up against me.

His swelling cock jumped inside of me just before he started squirting his warm sperm into me. Damn, the kid was practically a one-man sperm bank! I could feel the slight increase in warmth inside of me that signaled his potent sperm was being deposited in my pussy. For whatever reason, I just loved the fact that I was being "mated" by this young kid, sort of like I was "robbing the cradle".

6. All Three of Us

When Matt finished he quickly pulled his spent dick out of my pussy. As I sat there with my pussy wide open, I could feel his cum as it start to drain out of me almost immediately and work its way down my ass.

"Come here and lick my pussy Tammy," I demanded.

Again, it wasn't like I was asking her to do something she hadn't done before, I mean so far as licking cum from my pussy. The only difference here was that in the past it had been either my dad's or her brother's cum, not a boyfriend's. As she hesitated I could sympathize that the situation put things in a different light. It was one thing to lick their cum from me before when it was her duty as a daughter, or as a gift from a sister. With her boyfriend, though, I am sure it was a little more personal for her in that he was supposedly HERS, at least for the time being. It had probably been hard enough for her to see him get off fucking me, but then to lick his cum from my pussy afterwards might have been harder than I originally thought about when I asked her to do it. Oh well, it turned me on so that was good enough for me. Besides, the odds heavily in favor that she would grow tired of him and trade him for a new one soon anyway, so what was the real harm?

Tammy bit her lower lip as if she was some innocent virgin but then she literally shoved Matt aside so she could get in between my legs. Even though I was getting a little tired from holding them up, I knew I could go a little longer if it meant getting my pussy licked by Tammy. Tammy glanced over at Matt and then a grin came to her face as her lust simply took control, wiping out any other thoughts she may have had. She literally plunged her head into my crotch, clamping her mouth like a suction cup against my wet and messy pussy, pushing her tongue into me as far as she could as if she was trying to suck his cum out of me. I squeezed down on my pussy and was rewarded with the feel of more of Matt's cum as it continued to drain from my pussy. Tammy's little tongue was working vigorously as she tried to lick it all up before any more of it could drip down past my asshole and onto the desk top.

"That's it Tammy, show Matt how much you like licking his yummy cum out of my pussy." I said to Tammy. Then I turned my attention to Matt who, by the way, was STILL hard as ever even after having cum three times. Young teenage boys, you gotta love them! "What do you think seeing her lick your cum out of me, eh Matt?"

it was, I was right on the money as she lifted her head away from my pussy a couple of inches and started to pant and gasp for air.

"Oh god, I can feel it... I can feel her cumming," Matt exclaimed as he held himself as deep as he could inside of Tammy. Tammy herself still wasn't saying anything but from the look on her face, the way her eyes were shut tightly, and then the way she started to shudder and almost buckle to the floor, it was obvious what was taking place inside of her. Yep, my little cousin was experiencing a full-blown orgasm! Finally Tammy moaned loudly and then started whimpering again as her orgasm struck her even harder.

"Oh... my... god!" she cried, tears of pleasure starting to run from her eyes, "Feels so good!"

Matt was humping her again and I could see from his fierce look of determination that he was about to cum - AGAIN!. Well, he'd already cum in Tammy's pussy once so I figured why not go for another spot this time? "Suck Matt's dick, Tammy" I suddenly blurted out, hoping I was fast enough to get her turned around before he lost control.

Tammy wasn't exactly in the mood to be ordered about as she cupped her pussy and continued to cry tears of lust and pleasure. Matt helped out, though, by pulling out of her and moving to the side of her, positioning his cock by the side of her flushed face. He poked her cheek with it and I grinned as she instinctively turned and took it in her mouth - yep, that was my little slut of a cousin all right!.

As it turned out, Matt let loose his fourth orgasm of the day. The first shot went straight into Tammy's open mouth but he couldn't keep himself under control and the remaining load streamed out over her hair and face, covering her with more cum than I would have thought possible at this stage. It was enough that he could get off four times this quickly but to deliver such consistently big loads of cm was quite an accomp9ishment.

I rubbed my own clit as I watched him shake the last few drops onto her outstretched tongue and then Tammy took his sensitive dick in her mouth, as if she wanted very last drop to make it into her mouth if possible.

For a few minutes it was as if we all just went brain dead, trying to sit there and absorb everything that had just happened between us. As for me, I was ready to either suck some more dick or lick pussy. Why not take advantage of a situation when you can?

Suddenly I felt this vibration against my bare ass and I turned to see a cell phone was on the desk top and I must have pushed back into it when I got on the desk. It was a pink Razor and I reached behind me to pick it up.

"Shoot, that's mine," Tammy said, reaching to take it from me. She quickly answered it, trying not to sound as winded and tired as she was. She listened and her eyes opened wide and then her mouth dropped before she answered whomever was on the phone.

"OK Mom, I'll be ready," she said into the phone and I knew exactly who it had to be - her mom, my Aunt Shari!

"That was my mom," Tammy announced as she turned off the phone, as if neither of us had figured it out listening to her. "She's gonna be home in about thirty minutes and wants me to go with her to get some groceries."

We all looked at each other but I think it was Matt that appeared to be the most shaken by the news. He hurriedly started to dress, not even bothering to wash up.

"God, if you're mom catches me I'm history," he mumbled.

"C'mon girl, we need to get you cleaned up. Wouldn't do to have your mom find Matt's cum I your hair!"

Amazingly, Mat was already dressed and he reached down to kiss Tammy.

"Wow, thanks for inviting your cousin over," he said to Tammy with a smile. Then he got this shy look on his face as he found the courage to ask a question.

"Say Tammy, do you think Kristen would like to join in too again sometime. That would be SO cool to have all three of you at the same time!"

"Don't EVEN go there," Tammy responded in a firm voice, "Be happy you got what you did."

Matt took the hint and didn't say another word except to say goodbye to the two of us. I noticed he took one more long look at me, standing there nude besides Tammy. If looks could kill, Tammy would have been up on charges! He quickly scooted out the door, leaving the two of us alone in her bedroom.

"God, what a mess!" Tammy exclaimed, looking at the messy bed and computer desk top.

"Well, that's nothing compared to what your face looks like about now," I reminded her, "Wow, does he always have that much cum for the fourth time?"

Tammy giggled and looked at me as she stood up straight. "Well, to be honest, that was the first time I've seen him cum that many times in a row."

Knowing Kristen had joined in at LEAST once with them before, that was little hard to believe but it was possible I guess. I smiled to myself as for once, it seemed I had finally managed to one-up my sluttiest cousin.

By the time we had Tammy all cleaned up and her room straightened out, there was barely enough time for me to get dressed before her mom made her entrance. She started to say something to Tammy but then realized I was there as well. At first she was quiet about whatever it was she had started to say to Tammy and instead looked at me and her face quickly turned beet red.

"Oh Kelly! I just can't believe your mother lets you go out in public Dressed... well dressed like THAT," she exclaimed.

Whether it was my too-short shorts or thin narrow tube top - or both, what difference did it make? She was going to condemn me and my mom no matter what so there was no sense in worrying about it.

Instead of arguing with her, I simply said goodbye to Tammy and walked out, ignoring my aunt's angry stares.

"I'm going to have another talk with your mother about this," she declared as I walked out the door. Yeah right, like my mom would care one whit what she said. I would have loved to tell my aunt that my mom was probably going to be masturbating before I got half-way through the telling of what happened today! Actually, I couldn't wait to get home and do just that!

(Aug 19) Chapter 150: Private Bachelor Party

Me (22)
John - my dad (42)
Brad (24)

I've done a couple of bachelor parties, both involving rather large groups of men. I was about to learn that not all bachelor parties require a dozen horny guys dying to fuck me. Indeed, when you come down to it, all that's really needed is the groom!

1. Dad Gets Horny and Needs Me

Bachelor parties can be a lot of fun, especially when you're the only girl there. How can I possible describe the naughty feeling I get as I look around and see a dozen or so guys with their hard dicks in their hands, each of them wishing more than anything else in the world that they will be the next in line to fuck me?

If you think THAT'S hard to explain, it's even more difficult to express the thrill I get when a man, literally hours away from taking a vow to devote his life to one woman, has so much lust for me that he forgets about his fiance for the moment and fucks me. Really, to think that people actually wonder why I enjoy doing these things!

Until now I'd only done two such parties. Both parties were while I was away at college and none of them involved anyone from anywhere even close to my home in the Pittsburgh area. Now that I'd graduated and lived at home, I figured the odds of getting involved in anything like that again were slim to none. They were fond memories, though, something to look back upon as a part of growing up

As was typically the case, it was my dad that presented me with a new opportunity. For whatever reason, it seemed to turn my dad on to have people think his daughter was some sort of prostitute or whore, especially if he got to fuck me in front of them. Of course, they knew that that he was my father but the important thing was that HE knew. Once he had asked me and my younger cousin Kristen to help out with some business clients who had no idea who we really were and how we were related. We all had a great time so I guess I shouldn't have been surprised when he came to me one night with a new, but somewhat related proposal.

"Hey baby, you busy?" he asked, sticking his head in my bedroom through the open door.

One look should have told him all I was doing was chatting on my computer but as always, he was trying to be polite, something I appreciated about my dad.

It was fairly late and so I was dressed in one of my typical night-time outfits. In this case that meant one of his white t-shirts although more often I would steal a dress shirt from his closet to wear around the house. The T-shirt was pretty baggy on me but with me sitting on the chair with my legs folded up under me, I suppose it didn't leave a lot to the imagination, at least in the downstairs areas of my body. Actually, I caught him taking in a good look at my ass and I just smile as I knew he loved to look at it - and usually a lot more as well.

"No daddy, it's OK," I replied, a grin on my face., "C'mon in, I was just chatting with some horny guys."

I was smiling because I assumed that he was horny and looking for a blowjob or maybe even to fuck me. My dad is more of a morning sex type of man so it was unusual, although certainly not unheard of, for him to be seeking me out later in the evening for sex. Still, there were those nights when I knew he got himself worked up watching porn or something on TV and needed some "relief" before he went to bed. My mom was working the evening shift so it was just the two of us. Had she been home I had no doubt he would have sought out her talents first but for now it was a choice between me or his hand. Some choice!

My dad came in my room and stood behind me, his large hands working my shoulders gently as he looked to see what I was doing on the computer.

"Damn girl, you're one hell of a tease, you know that, don't you?"

He was right. I had four separate chat windows up and trying to keep up conversations with each of them. Needless to say, all four were expressing in their own way how much they wanted to fuck me and I was replying by telling them how much I desired them as well. It was all a game but still, I enjoyed it. I'd never meet any of them so what difference did it make what I said to them? We both got to fantasize and feel good so no harm, no foul. As he watched me chat for a while, an invitation to watch a guy's web cam popped up.

to be in my father's arms with his cock buried inside of me, to be actually physically coupled together as he kissed me and licked me.

"Mmmmmmm, you're such a hot fuck," he whispered in my ear as his dick bored into me.

"And you have a wonderful dick daddy," I replied, "It feels SO good when you fuck me this way. I love it."

"God, I'm so close... almost there," he groaned as his thrusts became more extreme and he started to stroked faster and faster in me.

"Cum in me daddy," I pleaded softly, "I want you to cum inside of me."

It wasn't like I really had to ask him but I knew he liked to hear me say it. When he was fucking me like this there was no turning back, no pulling out, no stopping him. He loved to cum inside of me more than anything and I knew it. There were times he would cum in my mouth but usually that was when all I was giving him was a blowjob. No, my father's preference was clearly to cum in my pussy. Just as I had wondered earlier how many times I had sucked his cock so far, I also was curious how much cum he had pumped into me over that time. It had to be in the gallons by now!

"Oh god Kelly, I'm cumming baby!" he groaned as his body stiffened and I felt him push himself into me as deep as he could, depositing his sperm inside of me as far as he reach.

"Mmmmmmm, I love you daddy," I whispered to him as his orgasm finished and laid behind me with himself still in me. I dropped my leg and let his cock nestle between my thighs as it barely stayed in me when it shriveled back down in size.

"You know you'll always be my baby girl," he whispered in my ear as he kissed the side of my neck, "You'll always be mine."

"Oh yes daddy, I'll always be yours," I answered him back softly.

Indeed, I would always be his little girl, his only daughter, the only girl in the world he could fuck like this. No other woman in the world could claim to be his daughter, to feel his incestuous cum spill into her the way I get to when he fucks me.

2. My Dad Asks a Favor

As we laid there backing the afterglow of our sex, I remembered that all this has started with my dad wanting to say something to me.

"Daddy, was there something you were going to ask me?" I finally said, breaking the silence in the room.

"Oh yeah, there WAS something I had meant to do when I came in your room,: he said, and then added, "Besides fuck the most perfect daughter in the world that is."

"Oh daddy, stop that!" I said playfully back to him.

He then explained to me a situation at work that he needed some help with. As soon as I heard it involved his office my ears perked up since anytime in the past the subject was raised it ended up in some really wild situation. This time one of the partners had a son who was getting married. His dad was looking to upstage the regular bachelor party by bringing in a hooker to spend the night with his son - sort of a private bachelor party.

Since my dad had arranged prostitutes for clients in the past (of course, the guy didn't know he was using me instead of some street walker), he thought maybe my dad might have some advice on finding one suitable for his son. The biggest concern he seemed to have was that he didn't want to be directly involved. He just wanted someone to help take care of his son. "Plausible deniability" is the term I believe guys like to use in such circumstances.

Immediately I had a ton of questions. Who was it? How old was his son? What if his fiance ever found out? How was I supposed to meet him if it wasn't a party? Was I just stripping for him or was sex expected as well - and to what extent?

In the end I knew I would said yes regardless of the answers. Really, what's a girl to say when her dad's dick was still in her after a good fucking and he asks her to do a simple favor for him? Besides, it sounded like fun! As we got out of bed and cleaned up, he explained the plan he had worked out and how we would pull it off. It all sounded perfect to me and I couldn't wait until the day arrived.

As it turned out, the only night that worked out close to the wedding day was Sunday. Apparently the night before he was being taken out by his best man for a more traditional bachelor party. The wedding was the following weekend and this wasn't the sort of thing you typically did during the week with work and all that day. I didn't think there was any blasphemous with doing it on a Sunday so that aspect didn't bother me at all.

My dad already had it all worked out for me - the schedule, the timing, even what to wear. He had even gone out and bought me a new black lace bra with a matching thong and hose. Of course he made me model it for him to make sure it was OK for the evening's events! It didn't hurt to practice stripping it off in front of someone either. Rather than change when I got there, my dad set out a long winter fur coat that came below my knees. I immediately recognized it as one of my mom's but he swore that she had given permission for me to wear it. Oh well, it's not like I would be wearing it all that much anyway.

In preparation for the evening, I took a long hot shower and shaved my legs and pussy until they were as silky smooth as a baby's behind. I touched my clit with my fingers and instantly felt that sensation I so much enjoyed. I quickly removed my hand as a few more seconds and it would've been impossible to pry it from my pussy until I had finished masturbating. Well, there was going to be plenty of opportunity to get myself off later without doing it now!

When I was finally ready I presented myself for "inspection" to my parents. My mom, who knew everything that was being plotted by me and my dad, just smiled when she saw me in my outfit. She knew my dad had bought it for me and how much it must have excited him to see it on me that first time. She was still grilling my dad on his plans, though. One thing about my mom, she always was on the look-out for my well-being. It's not that my dad didn't mean to but she knew that sometimes his lust clouded his judgment and he tried to do things that he would have later regretted had she not stepped in.

It was about a half hour drive to get to the house and on the way my dad didn't say a whole lot. I wondered if now that we were getting close to actually doing it that he wasn't having second thoughts. It wasn't the fact that I was expecting to be fucked by some guy I didn't know, THAT certainly wasn't anything new for him to digest. I had a feeling that he was more concerned about leaving me alone in the house with some strange guy.

"OK, now you know what to do if anything goes wrong, right?" he asked me for what must have been the third or fourth time.

"Dad!" I finally whined at him, "It's not like I'm still a kid you know. I HAVE had a bit of experience in this sort of thing before, or have you forgotten?"

"Trust me, I will NEVER forget. Sorry but I just want everything to go perfect for you."

I smiled at him and sat silently for the rest of the drive. Indeed, I knew he loved me dearly and would never do anything or allow anything to hurt me. He had to be turned on thinking about what was going to be happening to his daughter in the next hour or so. Like, what father wouldn't be turned on to be dropping his daughter off at a strange guy's house to be fucked like some cheap hooker?

We finally arrived at the house and I was impressed. I didn't know at the time if it was his, his father's or whose it might be. It was a huge two story colonial with a giant attached three car garage. The landscaping was impeccable and the entire place had this air of wealth and expensive taste about it. My dad pulled into the circular drive and turned in his seat towards me.

"Well baby, are you ready?"

I just nodded at him vigorously, unsure of my voice as I prepared to get out.

"You know what to do if something goes wrong, right?" he asked yet again. This time I just waved at him and ignored him.

3. Stripping

Walking up the entranceway, I arrived at the large double doors and rang the doorbell. A young guy answered the door and looked at me with a curious expression. I guess it's not every day a girl on al long fur coat and heels shows up at your door.

"Ummmmm, can I help you?" he asked politely but not opening the door for me to enter.

"Hi Brad, I'm Kathy and your dad sent me along with this."

I handed him his dad's business card which had a note scrawled on the back of it. It simply said I was a gift from the "old man" and his for the night to do with whatever he wanted.

"So let me get this straight," he asked me with a look of bewilderment on his face, "Are you some kind of hooker or what?"

I tried to look a little crestfallen and then looked back up at him and smiled.

"Well, I like to think of me more as your entertainment for the evening," I said as seductively as possible, "Do you mind if I come in Brad?"

He seemed hesitant and if anything, a little distracted. Then I heard something that chilled me.

"Honey, who is it?"

Oh crap, his fiance was there! This was one situation my dad hadn't prepared me for, that was for sure. Just as I was about to bail out and run back to the SUV, a girl appeared behind Brad.

"Brad... who is she? What does she want?"

Poor Brad looked a little stressed to say the least. He didn't seem to know what to say so he handed her the business card. She looked at it and then flipped it over and read the back of handed the business card to her. As she read it, she looked at me and then back at the card and then back at me again. Her eyes widened a bit but surprisingly she didn't seem to be nearly as shocked as her fiance was.

"You know, this sounds like something your asshole father would do," she said accusingly to him, "I guess last night wasn't enough?"

"Honey, let's not start into that again," Brad said, trying to somehow extricate himself out of the mess his dad had put him in, "Don't worry honey, I'll just tell her to leave."

"The hell you will," she protested, much to my surprise - and Brad's. I was frozen in place, standing there feeling very much like I wanted to crawl under the nearest rock. This wasn't exactly how I had envisioned this at all. Just as I was about to turn around and just leave without another word, she called out to me.

"Well get your ass in here girl and do your thing. We wouldn't want to disappoint his rich daddy now, would we?" she said in a tone that was definitely not a reflection of her words. "We wouldn't want to piss off your precious daddy and have him cut you out of the will, would we?"

"For crying out loud, what are you doing Claire?" he grimaced, looking at me and then back in her as if he was now totally confused. I didn't blame him. I was confused as hell myself!

"Your daddy's already paid the whore so let her in and make her earn the money."

"What?" he whined, "Are you serious Claire?"

His fiance pushed past him and opened the door for me, motioning me to come in. There wasn't much politeness in her eyes, though, the way she was glaring at me. Brad was starting to look like he might be happy with the way things were going. You could almost see the letter he was writing in his head. "Dear Penthouse, you would never believe what my fiance let me do the week before our wedding..." Well, he was pretty naive if he thought it was going to be THAT easy.

"Oh no Brad, don't think you're getting off the hook THAT easy," she continued as I stepped inside and she closed the door behind me, "You get to watch her do her thing, BUT I get to watch too."

It was like a balloon deflating as Brad's shoulders dipped and his face was almost comical in the way he was looking so distressed.

"Well, you don't think I'm going to trust you with her alone, do you? Especially after what happened last night, do you think I'm stupid or what?"

Whatever had happened at his bachelor party the night before, it must have been pretty good as he grimaced again, as if she had sucker punched him squarely in the stomach. Something told me that he had been a bad boy at his bachelor party and someone had squealed on him to Claire.

Claire herded us into what looked to be the family room or at least some sort of entertainment center. There was a huge flat-screen TV, what looked to be an incredible sound system, chairs and couches along with games tables and pinball machines plus an assortment of other games and flashing lights. She pushed Brad back into a large brown leather couch in the middle of the room which looked to be the primary seating location for watching TV. She took a seat at the end of the room on a bar stool. That left me standing in the middle of the room with my mom's fur coat still wrapped tightly around me.

"Well?" she huffed, staring at me like I was a lab rat in some bizarre experiment. "I've always wondered what a stripper does for these type of private performances... let's see it."

Oh well, it could have gone worse so I pulled out a CD from my coat pocket and handed it to Brad. He put it in the player and started the music. As he took his seat again as the music started. The first song was one of my all-time favorites when it came to teasing men. Simply stated, "Doncha" by the Pussycat Dolls has got to be one of the most played songs in every strip club in the world! My heart started to beat faster as the music started.

As surreal as the situation had become, at the same time I couldn't help but feel a little horny having the two of them watching me. Obviously he WANTED to enjoy watching me but with his fiance seated right behind him I figured he would be a little muted in his reactions.

Claire, on the other hand, was a lot harder to read. She just sat there like a statue with one foot on the floor and the other propped up on one of the crossbars of the stool. She sat up straight with her arms folded tightly in front of her, almost defiant. Her face didn't give a thing away as to what she was thinking. Was she doing this to make her fiance suffer by forcing him to watch a hot stripper and not be able to openly enjoy it? I really didn't know what was going to happen as my mind raced to try and figure it out.

Now that the music had started, I started to sway back and forth with my coat still on and then slowly allowed it to fall open, revealing my lingerie underneath. Poor Brad! He kept looking at me and then back his shoulder at Claire. It was if each time he was hoping she wouldn't be there so he could enjoy his dad's gift, only now it was turning out to be a nightmare for him as he was torn by his lust for me and his guilt.

I dropped the coat and tossed it aside to one of the chairs and stood there in front of him in my lingerie and heels. I then gave him my best imitation of a strip club dancer, moving about slowly and seductively, teasing him that I might take more off and then backing away from it just as it was about to come off. The music blared out and I loved listening to the words. "Doncha wish your girlfriend was hot like me..." I wondered how many girlfriends absolutely HATE that song when they look in the mirror and then think about the bitch singing the song. They knew the song was as true as it was seductive. Claire was pretty but a little overweight. She had to know what was going through Brad's mind at that moment. There was no way he could be thinking anything BUT he wished Claire was hot like me!

After teasing him a bit I started to head towards Claire, curious to see if she wanted a show for herself as well. She quickly realized what I was doing and pointed me back to the center of the room, shaking her head as if to answer my unspoken question to her.

Instead of dancing for her, I decided to start out with a lap dance for Brad. I was still wearing as much clothing as I would at the public pool, perhaps even more depending on which bikini I had on. Of course, my bikini wasn't made of sheer black lace! I may have been covered, but I certainly wasn't hidden. As I stepped up onto the couch I thought for a moment about removing my heels so they wouldn't poke through the leather but then decided the heck with it. They didn't have THAT pointy of a heel and I knew guys loved it when girls kept their heels on so I decided to risk it. Heck, it wasn't MY couch anyway so who cared?

As I straddled him and started to dance in front of him, my boobs moved in close to his face and I had to put my hands on his shoulders to keep my balance. His hands were laying on the couch to his side with the palms down flat and his arms stiff.

"You know Brad, you ARE allowed to touch me," I said to him seductively, openly inviting him to fondle and grope me, "Go for it."

Brad looked back again at Claire who just tilted her head to one side and raised an eyebrow. Brad HAD to be getting pretty horny by now and it was if he just assumed that her silence implied permission. His hand reach up and he grabbed my lower calf on each leg. I just grinned at him and kept moving, wondering if he had the courage to do more or if I needed to provide more "encouragement". Once again he looked back over at his shoulder towards Clair. This was getting old fast.

"You know, why don't you have her sit next to you so you don't have to keep straining your neck?" I suggested to him. Claire must have overheard me as she stood up and grabbed the stool. She walked over to the other side of the room so she was close to the TV but still about ten feet away from us. Brad now had a great view of her and it was my turn to have to look over my shoulder to see her. Obviously she wasn't interested in getting THAT close to him while I was dancing. So much for my hopes in getting her to join in! Oh well, that meant I just had to make

Brad forget about her, a task that would now be harder given her new position in the room.

Even thought my thong wasn't covering much of my ass to start with, it still managed to barely hide my pussy. Whereas most girls seem to prefer to strip by taking their tops off first, and in some cases not going any further, when you grow up with tiny boobs you learn to show off other parts of you. In my case, it was my ass and I found early in my teens that I loved to run around bottomless and flirt using my butt. To this day I never wear anything on my bottom around my apartment at night. Sure, over the years my boobs finally developed but habits and prejudices are hard to break so I still find that I enjoy taking off my bottoms before my top.

I quickly dropped my thong and stepped out of it, hanging it over his head such that the smelly crotch was positioned over his nose. He didn't seem to mind the scent of my pussy so I left it there as I stood up and pulled his face into my crotch. I don't think he was expecting me to do that and so it was easy to get his face into my pussy but he quickly pulled back. He pulled off the thong from his face and set it down besides us. I could see his eyes were looking past me towards Claire. Damn, she really WAS ruining this for him - and me as well. Then again, I think that was her intention in the first place.

4. Getting Claire's Attention

Determined to get Brad's undivided attention, I started to play with my pussy as my hips moved suggestively to the music. My pussy was now only a couple of inches in front of his face as I ran my finger over it and then pushed it up inside of me. After I finger fucked myself for a bit. I pulled out my wet finger and placed it on his lips. At first he resisted but then his instincts took over and he parted his lips to let my finger push its way in. I felt his tongue run over my finger, tasting my pussy. Now that he had a taste of it, it was time to try again so I grabbed the back of his head and pulled it forward into my crotch. This time he didn't resist and I rubbed my pussy against his face, feeling his nose press against my sensitive clit.

"Lick me Brad," I said, leaning down so he could hear me better. "It's OK, you can do it."

He undoubtedly wanted to see what Claire's reaction was to my words but I held his face tightly into my crotch, refusing to allow him pull it away this time. His reaction was as quick as it was predictable. What male in his early twenties would

NOT lick a girl's pussy when she was shoving his face into it and asking him to lick it? Well, unless he was dead or gay, none I had ever run across!

At first his tongue just barely touched me, landing lightly on my pussy and hardly even getting in between my pussy lips. The more he licked me though, the fewer inhibitions he seemed to have and he became more aggressive. His hands went up from my calves to my bare ass, squeezing my firm smooth butt cheeks and pulling me tightly into his face. His right hand dropped down and reached around further, pressing between my legs as he searched for my pussy. His fingers pushed up into me as his tongue played over me, making me moan from the feelings he was creating deep inside of me.

Although he may not have realized what I was doing, I turned my head to look back at Claire and grinned at her, making it obvious that I was enjoying her fiance's tongue. For a girl who was planning to marry this guy in less than a week, she being incredibly calm about it all so far. Claire's face was expressionless as she watched Brad eating what she must have thought of as a prostitute's pussy. If only she had known who I really was! For that matter, imagine if Brad ever found out that he had licked the pussy of one the senior partner's daughters! For me, the thought of that just made me all the more horny if that was possible.

As Brad kept licking me (once that boy gets started, he doesn't quit!), I unhooked my bra and took it off, tossing it on top of the thong. I bent my knees until my boobs were smack in the middle of his face, burying him between my cleavage. His hands moved up to my boobs, squeezing them like he did earlier with my ass, sucking on each nipple a bit before moving to the other. He was being a little rougher with them than I would have preferred who could blame him? After dealing with Claire's sagging boobs, he must have been thrilled to feel and lick breasts that didn't hang to a girl's belly when she took off her bra. I grinned to myself as I thought that it would have been a great line in the song, "Doncha wish your girlfriend had boobs like mine?"

All I was wearing now were my heels, hose and a smile. There was no reason to remove the hose as it just made my legs look all the better. Brad seemed content to continue fondling my boobs but I wanted more. So far this was all most likely what both of them had expected to one degree or another. Claire probably hadn't figured I would be so aggressive in getting him to lick my pussy while he was probably thrilled that I had. For both of them, a naked lap dance was probably about the extent of what they were assuming would be the paid entertainment for the evening. Well, I had news for them if that was the case. This girl had plans to do more - a LOT more.

I pulled away from Brad and to his apparent surprise, got off the couch and stood in front of him, dancing slowly and seductively to the music. He watched, seeming to be curious as to what I was going to do as I played with myself, fondling my boobs and then running my hands slowly down my body until I was barely touching my hungry pussy.

Pushing a finger up in me, I then removed it and sucked my pussy juices off of it right in front of him like it was a pacifier. As always, I loved the taste and smell of my pussy and it knew it would get even more tasty as the evening went on. Brad's dick was pushing up against his pants, looking as if it was about to burst the seams. Yep, the boy was turned on and barely paying any attention to Claire any more as I danced nude in front of him. He was getting ready so I figured it was time to up the ante a bit.

"Hmmmmmm, shall we see what's trying to get out of there Brad?" I teased him, pointing down to his crotch with the obvious bulge.

THAT made him look again at Claire and so I turned to see her response as well. While she seemed to avoid looking directly at me, she maintained her impassive look and just shrugged as if to say she didn't care. God she was a cold-hearted bitch. Either she should be storming out of the room, demanding I leave, or joining in with us. For her to just sit there solemnly and allow her fiance to have his way with me without expressing any emotion at all was just weird.

"Do you need me to help?" I offered, starting to move forward towards him.

Brad shook his head and quickly unzipped his pants and pulled them, along with his boxer underwear, down to his ankles and then off his feet, leaving them in a pile in front of him. Sure enough, his dick WAS hard as a steel rod, standing straight up and pointing to the sky like some Titan missile ready for takeoff. Almost immediately he grabbed it and instinctively started to stroke his dick in front of me. Mmmmmmm, it looked SO delicious.

As tempting as it was to just jump on his dick and feel him fuck me, instead I let him watch me dance for him as he stroked his dick almost absentmindedly. He was hot to watch and I LOVE to watch men masturbate for me, seeing them getting all hard and excited just because of me. When they make themselves cum, I like to think that they're dreaming of fucking me, their hand taking the place of my pussy. For a moment I wondered if he had ever masturbated in front of Claire before? Did she enjoy seeing her fiance jerking off now, knowing his mind focused on me instead of her? She simply had to realize that he was dreaming of what it would be like to fuck ME, not her. How could anyone just sit there like nothing was happening?

Slowly I advanced and then kneeled down between his legs, grabbing his dick from his hands. It felt so warm and stiff but yet smooth and enticing. God I wanted it so badly and I wasn't going to bother asking him if he was ready for a blowjob. I mean, like he was going to say no? I can't say I've ever been in this position (literally) where a man turned down a blowjob, regardless of the situation. Brad wasn't going to be an exception, of that I was certain.

I put my elbows out so they rested on his legs and leaned forward to take the tip of his dick in my mouth. I could feel his dick quivering with excitement as I took a little bit more of it inside of my mouth each time. Finally my head was buried deep in his smelly crotch, his coarse pubic hair spread out against my face. He was only about five or six inched long when erect so he fit easily in my mouth without me having to do anything theatrical.

"God DAMN that feel so good," he groaned, finally starting to talk more to me. Hopefully that meant he was starting to forget that Claire was there.

From his reaction I had to wonder if Claire ever gave him head. If so, did she suck his cock very well or was she one of those girls that did it because she had to and not because she enjoyed it? Had other girls sucked Brad's dick before? Wow, maybe this the first time he was experiencing just how good a girl's mouth can feel on his dick!

Claire was now behind me so I couldn't see her reaction to Brad's response. What I would have given for a mirror at that moment. What was she thinking as she watched me on my knees between Brad's legs, my bare ass in plain view as my head was planted in his lap, bobbing up and down it as I sucked on her fiance's cock?
"Christ Almighty, I'm gonna cum!" he gasped as I tasted the first drops of his precum that emerged from his dick. I wasn't ready for him to cum yet, I had more plans for him. I took my mouth off his dick and squeezed the base of his cock, hard enough to be just a little painful to him and stop the countdown to his eruption. It was just in time as I was sure a few more seconds and he would have been past the point of no return.

"Not yet Brad, you can't cum until you fuck me," I said to him, making sure I was loud enough for Clair to hear.

I stood up and turned to face Clair. My ass was right in front of Brad and he must have been dying to get his cock in my wet pussy but I was curious to see how far I could push things.

5. How Far Will They Go?

"You want to help put his cock in my pussy Claire?" I said, almost taunting her in the process, daring her to help her fiance get fucked by the whore her soon- to-be father-in-law had hired.

Actually, I honestly thought she would say yes. I mean, if it had been me watching my fiance getting blown by a naked prostitute, I know I would have been horny as hell by now and ready to get involved in the action. Instead, Claire was just sitting there with her hands in lap, not even close to touching herself or otherwise looking turned on. It was almost like it was clinical to her, like when you discuss sex as fornication at church or at school with all the lust and desire stripped away. Claire didn't even respond to my query but just sat there looking almost bored. It was like she was thinking she just wanted to let Brad get this out of his system and the sooner the better.

Despite her lack of response, I decided to sit back on Brad's dick so I could face Claire and hopefully catch some form of excitement or even lust on her part. Reaching between my legs, I grabbed his dick and positioned myself over him.

"Ready to fuck me Brad?" I asked, turning my head back over my shoulder to look at him. He just nodded so I asked him again.

"You can do better than that Brad. Do you want to fuck me or not?"

Oh he wanted to, that was for sure. You could see it in his eyes, feel it in the throbbing of his dick, hear it in his rapid breathing. Oh yeah, Brad wanted to fuck me and fuck me badly. Yet despite everything so far, I still saw him look around me so he could check for Claire's response. I turned my head back to look at her too and grinned at her, smiling to let her know I had her fiance right where I wanted him - well, almost; a few inches more and he would be there.

"Yes," he groaned as softly I felt his dick swell even more in my hands.

"Yes WHAT Brad?" I pushed him, "Speak louder so Claire can hear you."

"Hell yes, I want to fuck you, alright?" he finally blurted out, starting to sound frustrated now as I knew he wanted in me a lot more than he wanted to say in front of Claire.

"That's more like it Brad," I purred, "You know, I want you to fuck me too. I want you to fuck me in front of Claire. Show her how good you can fuck me."

Alright, maybe it was a little over the line but I wanted to get SOME reaction from the ice queen. She didn't waver, just staring at us so I carefully lowered myself down, feeling his cock head pressing up against my wet pussy hole. For a brief moment the pressure built up and I could feel his cock straining in my hand but I kept it straight and pressed down harder. Then I gasped as his head stretched my pussy hole open and he slipped into me, his entire head popping into me.

"Mmmmmmm, you dick feels so good in me Brad," I moaned softly, holding myself there for just a moment to savor the incredible rush of emotions that I felt whenever a man entered me for the first time. The fact the girl he would be marrying shortly was watching was just icing on the cake!

At that moment it didn't matter that Brad was someone I'd never even met before and never would again after today. Right now he was simply a man, a man who lusted for me and desired me more than anything else. His erect dick was now inside of me, penetrating me and moving ever deeper into me as I put more weight on it. I could feel his stiff shaft sliding into me, inch by inch it rubbed against the sensitive inside of my pussy as it entered me, stimulating the millions of nerve endings that created such an incredible sensation between my legs. It wasn't limited to my crotch. Imagine throwing a rock in a still pond and seeing the ripples spread out across the lake. The feelings in my pussy emanated outward in the same way, washing over me like waves crashing onto a beach, incredible surges of pleasure rushed through me as Brad started to fuck me.

"God you're so fucking tight," he groaned as his dick pushed hard each time to get deeper into me.

I smiled at that, wondering if Brad was comparing my pussy to Claire's. Even though I would have bet the lottery that I'd been fucked by at least a hundred more guys than Claire, my pussy was still damn tight, probably even tighter than hers.

Leaning forward, I let his cock withdraw from my pussy until if flopped out, all nice and wet from me riding him. Turning around, I straddled him with my knees on the couch and once again, lowered my pussy to meet up with his waiting dick. This time I put my hands on his shoulders and wiggled my hips around to get his erect dick in me without touching it. My pussy hole was more open now after his initial fucking and so it was easier to do that now. Once I felt the tip of his dick entering me

I leaned back and quickly let him push up and into me all the way until I was sitting on his dick. I looked into his eyes and grinned at him mischievously.

"I bet you never dreamed you'd be doing this today, did you Brad," I teased him as slowly I rotated my hips in a circle around his dick.

Then I turned my head back and looked at Claire and grinned even more saying, "So what do you think Claire, is your guy fucking me good enough for you?"

Claire just frowned (hey, at least she reacted) and then leaned back into the chair more. She wasn't going to give me the satisfaction of a response but I could deal with that. After all, who was the girl with Brad's dick planted in her pussy at the moment? I was definitely getting the better deal.

My point made, I turned back to Brad and started to hump his cock. Damn it felt good in me. Brad may not have had the biggest dick but he was hard as a steel pole and I loved the way it would stay in me regardless of how close it came to flopping out of me, just by virtue of how stiff he was.

"Get off, I'm gonna cum soon," he gasped, his hands tightening on my hips where he had been holding me like a bucking bronco on his cock.

I knew what he was worried about. For whatever reason, some guys seem to think that by cumming in a girl that somehow that is cheating more than just fucking her. Well, give me a break. Either way his dick is violating me so the only thing he is doing by pulling out of me is depriving me of the wonderful sensation of his dick spewing his cum inside of me. Yet in some ways, it was more an emotional high for me to have a guy cum in me as it WAS more like cheating. Brad was about to take one step beyond fucking me, he was about to MATE me. E even though I was on the pill and the actual act of impregnation would never occur, it was the symbolism of the act that mattered to me.

There WAS one factor that I hadn't taken into consideration, Brad was a guy and a lot stronger than me and in the end, he had the power of veto in this house. He put his hands on my waist and then literally lifted my up and off his dick! Then he stood up (the guy was pretty strong) and all but threw me back to the couch on my back. His dick was dripping precum and I knew he wanted to finish himself off badly. With my left leg hanging over the side, he lifted my right leg up in the air and twisted me onto my side. The he put his left foot on the couch while standing with his right on the floor. With my legs split apart, he had an easy shot at my pussy and I was thrilled when he pushed his dick back into instead of jerking himself off and spraying me with cum as I had thought he was going to do.

As Brad began to pump his dick in and out of my wet horny pussy, I could literally feel the urgency in him to cum. He had both hands on my right ankle, holding my leg up in the air as his cock thrust in and out of me like a car piston at Daytona. Then he slammed himself into me, arched his back, and groaned so loud I thought for a moment he was hurt!

"Fuck! I'm cumming now!" he cried out as his ass clenched and he spewed his first load of cum into my pussy.

As I felt his dick thrust into me as deep as he could force it in, a gentle feeling of warmth erupted inside of me and I knew what it had to be - his sperm was filling my pussy. Each time he pumped himself into me, I felt it again and I tried to imagine how his dick was shooting it out and forcing it into my pussy like a syringe in a vein.

Laying on my side as I was, I could see Clair watching intently. For the first time her hard veneer cracked. She knew what Brad was doing. She could see her fiance consumed with lust for another woman, completing his wanton act of sexual desire as he filled her with his cum. She could see how much he loved it, how much he was enjoying fucking this girl he had never seen before, this intruder in their lives, and a prostitute at that. As nasty as it may have been of me, I couldn't help myself from smiling at her.

"I can feel his cum in me Claire," I said in a low voice, sighing as I did. "God Claire, it feels so good when Brad cums in me."

It was the straw that broke the camel's back. The veneer wasn't just cracked, now it was shattered. Claire began to cry, the tears streaming down her face as she tried to cover her face with her hands to hide them. The act she had been putting on, the air of indifference, the "I don't give a damn" attitude, it all melted away instantly as the tears flooded her eyes and she began to sob uncontrollable, her body shaking.

Well, call me what you may for feeling this way, but for me it was the hottest thing to watch in the world at that moment. Between the final thrusts of Brad's dick in me, the feeling of his cum in me, and now Claire's tears of remorse as she clearly regretted letting any of this happen, I was struck with the most amazing orgasm. My pussy cramped and gripped his now empty dick, squeezing down on him like I was trying to milk the last bit of cum from him. My back arched up high and then I flopped down and lifted my hips to meet his crotch, loving the feel of his dick in me. Even my hair felt like it was tingling at the roots! I looked back over at Claire who, as much as she probably wanted, couldn't seem to tear her eyes away from us.

"I'm cumming Claire," I moaned, trying not to scream from the incredible pleasure filling my entire body at that moment, "Oh god, watch me cum Claire!"

My hips thrust up again up against Brad's dick, keeping him in me even as he began to dwindle. My hands gripped the coach, squeezing the cushions as I felt like I had been hit by a truck, but in a good way. It was like my entire body was being tickled and lit on fire at the same time. Between Brad's lustful fucking and now Claire's tears at seeing the pleasure he had derived from fucking me, I was so horny only an orgasm like this one had a chance of addressing the needs that had been building up inside of me, making me ready to explode.

Finally, Claire couldn't watch anymore and she turned her head away, twisting in the chair in a fetal position so she didn't have to watch the decadent scene that was playing out in front of her. Obviously she never really expected THIS to happen. Perhaps she had thought that should could control it, make it a test of Brad's fidelity. Had she really expected him to turn me away at the last minute and proclaim his undying love for her with my naked body available for him to do anything he wanted? Well, if that had been her game plan, had played her cards about as badly as she could be and it was backfiring big time on her.

My orgasm eventually dwindled and I laid back, totally spent. Brad pulled his cock from my pussy, making a wet slurping sound as he withdrew. God I was soaking wet down there! The couch must have been a mess underneath me. He let my right leg down which was good as all the blood had drained from it and it started to tingle fiercely as the blood flow resumed. I looked up at him and grinned mischievously.

"Happy Wedding Day Brad," I said, "From you father... and me."

6. Claire Finally Reacts

Being a man, it shouldn't have surprised me that once his dick was spent, it was like Brad's lust had been behind in my pussy with his sperm. He looked over at Claire and suddenly his expression changed from satisfied pleasure to one of unease and worry. He walked over to Claire but his dick was still semi-hard and glistened with the moistness of my pussy and cum. He reached for her but she pushed him away in disgust.

"Don't touch me! Wipe off your dick and put your clothes on you asshole," she practically spat at him.

I was already gathering my things, realizing I had better leave before the real fireworks started. I didn't bother trying to dress but instead just put on my coat and was about to leave when I looked back at the two of them. Brad was trying to pull up his jeans and I could hear him trying to rationalize what he had just done, assuring Claire that I meant nothing to him and he only did it because his dad had sent me over and Claire made him do it. Yeah right, like THAT was going to get him off her shit list! I had seen the look on his face and the gleam in his eyes when he was cumming in me. Don't try and tell me that he didn't want to fuck me just as bad as I wanted him to. Nobody had to talk him into it, THAT was for sure.

"You goddamn fucking bastard. You whore-mongering piece of shit. I SAW you. You enjoyed it, didn't you," she accused him, "You didn't do it for your precious daddy, you WANTED to fuck the bitch. I saw it in your face - you loved every minute of it, didn't you. God you're such an asshole!" Yep, time for me to leave without further ado! Without another word I quickly left them in room, her voice getting even louder and her language filthier. Just as I was about to close the front door, I heard another loud smack. Damn, he was going to be bruised in the wedding photos - IF there was still a wedding.

Thankfully my dad had never left so I didn't have to hang around waiting for him. I quickly walked to the SUV and slipped into the passenger seat.

"Better get moving daddy!" I said with a naughty tone to my voice, "Things are about to explode in there!"

"What do you mean?" my dad asked me, the curiosity clear in his voice, "I take it he fucked you? Why would things explode now when it's over?"

I giggled and then told him the entire story as we drove out of the neighborhood. When I told him that Brad's fiance had been there and that she watched the entire thing, he looked at me incredulously.

"Oh come on Kelly, give me a break, stop embellishing things," he chastised me, clearly not buying my story.

"Daddy, I'm telling you she was there!" I whined, a little perturbed at his disbelief. After everything else I'd done in my life, he wasn't going to believe me NOW?

(Aug 22) Chapter 151: Wednesday Night Church Dad

Story codes: MF oral adultery
Stewart (34)

Stewart was a loving husband and the proud father of a teenage boy. If people only knew what this icon of the community did with girls like me behind closed doors while his family was occupied at church!

1. The Perfect Bait

People are always asking me where I meet guys, especially the married ones. Well, believe it or not, in my experience the best place to find married men looking to cheat is also one of my favorite ones - church. Bars and clubs are just filled with people trying to impress and show off. Church brings out the best - and the worst, in people. While everyone tries their best to act pious and godly, it also demonstrates just how hypocritical so many people really are. Still, rather than fret over it why not take advantage of the situation?

Even as a young girl I noticed men looking at me "that way" when I was at church. Every girl knows what I mean when I say "that way"; it's that look that tells you he interested in you in ways he shouldn't be - or least ways society says she shouldn't. It didn't help them that my mom loved to dress me in little skirts and frilly dresses that showed off my skinny legs and often my cotton panties.

As I got older, the skirts and dresses became more sophisticated, but the results were the same. Even a pair of tight jeans during a youth activity was more than enough to catch the eye of many of the dads. Of course I enjoyed the attention of the boys more my age but there was always something special about having their fathers look at me hungrily that turned me on even more.

One of the dads I'd had my eye on for the last several years was Stewart. I think he was in his early thirties, married with three kids. The oldest was Duane who was is 14 and in the youth group I helped out on Wednesday nights. The other kids, both daughters, were several years younger so I didn't see them nearly as much as Duane. He was a cute kid and I often thought might be a good match for my cousin Tammy, even if he was younger and considerably less mature. To be sure I had a few harmless fantasies about him now and then but I would never consider doing anything for real with such a young boy. After all, it's not like I'm sixteen anymore you know.

It wasn't Duane that I was really interested in - it was Stewart. Pardon my cynicism but he was the perfect example of the typical church elder. While at church he would walk around and greet people using all the standard Christian jargon and buzz words. From what I heard from my parents, he ran his local landscaping business completely different. He had a reputation for being indifferent to the customs and needs of his mostly ethnic employees and he seems to always be trying to squeeze another dime from his customers.

Stewart was not only a hypocrite when it came to business ethics, he also had an eye for the young girls. Many times during youth group I catch see him staring at the teenage girls and it wasn't just to monitor what they were doing. Trust me, when you're a girl you learn quickly the difference between a man looking at you and a man looking AT you. There was a cold hunger in such a man's eyes, a thirsty lust that he couldn't totally hide. Stewart had those eyes - in spades.

What made me interested in him wasn't his voyeurism regarding the teenage girls. Even when his wife was with him, who was beautiful by the way, he would look at my boobs first when he greeted me. My cousin Kristen use to joke with me that he doubted if Stewart knew what her hair color was. Even my mom claimed to have been the recipient of his mental undressing.

Whether Stewart's wife knew about it was unclear to me. She certainly didn't appear to notice and if she did, she certainly didn't do anything to reign him in or otherwise keep him under control. To be fair, so far as I knew all he did was look so maybe she was one of those wives who felt that her husband could window shop so long as he didn't buy the merchandise. It wasn't like she was shy to show herself off to all the guys at church, that's for sure! My mother use to shake her head and grumble something about she thought Stewart's wife still thought she was a cheerleader in high school.

Over the past few years I'd flirted with Stewart a few times. Then again, I flirted with just about all the dads at one time or another. Most just ignored me but I never had one tell me to stop. It was nothing special or forced, just the typical stuff like "accidentally" rubbing against him, "forgetting" to button my blouse as high as most people would say I should, that sort of innocent playing around. Stewart never rejected me but while he took advantage of whatever I had to show him, he never asked for anything more either. In the end, I filed him under the category of "peeping tom" and assumed he would never be available for anything more than a bit of voyeurism.

2. Setting the Hook

It was a beautiful Wednesday night and we had the youth outside to play some games behind the church. Maybe it was the pleasant weather but whatever the reason there were quite a few parents there that night, including Stewart and his wife. Since it had been planned ahead of time for tonight's events to be outside, I was wearing a pair of faded denim shorts and a light yellow tank top. Because it WAS a church activity there were dress codes which had to be adhered to, including prohibitions against anything TOO short or TOO revealing. The rules were written with the teenage girls in mind but the helpers were expected to set an example.

Under the rules, my favorite cutoffs were strictly verboten - I would've been sent home in a heartbeat and probably told not to help with the youth again if I dared to wear them. Likewise, I was even wearing a bra under my tank top as hard nipples poking through your top were another major no- no. As if all that wasn't conservative enough, for once I was wearing a tank top itself that was actually my size, one of the few I owned that was a little loose on me.

Stewart and his wife were on the sidelines, watching Duane playing soccer. Stewart was in khaki safari shorts - the type with all the pockets, and a Steelers t-shirt while his wife was actually dressed very similar to me. She may have been around ten years older than me but she looked great! I also noticed that the "no nipples" rule apparently didn't apply to parents. I would have bet a lot of money that her boobs were fake but even so, they looked magnificent even if they were as rigid as concrete.

The one thing I DID notice was that the two of them were standing several feet apart and not talking to each other which was odd as usually he had his arm around her or least stood right next to her. Hmmmmmm, were there problems in paradise? The two of them were always trying to act like they had the perfect marriage, even sponsoring weekend marriage retreats and counseling young couples about marriage. As much as I hate to say it, it wouldn't have bothered me to see a few cracks in that crystal podium they'd set themselves on. Really, don't you just hate the "perfect" families, especially when they flaunt it?

About half-way through the first game, I noticed Stewart and his wife arguing over something and then suddenly he just shook his head, threw up his arms and walked back into the church leaving her stewing. Hmmmmmm, now THIS could be interesting...

There wasn't much for me to be doing at the time and I doubted anyone would miss me so I left without saying anything to see where Stewart was off to. When I got in the church, it was deserted and he was nowhere to be seen. Just as I was about to turn around and head back out to games, I heard a toilet flushing and a little bit later Stewart appeared from the men's restroom. My heart sank as I realized he'd come back just to go to the bathroom! So much for there being a genuine riff between him and his Barbie-doll wife.

"Hi Kelly, didn't know anyone else was in here," he said to me the door closed behind him and he approached me.

My heart fluttered back up again as I looked at him. God he was hot! OK, so he was ten years older than me but I prefer older men anyway so that wasn't an issue. He obviously worked out from the way his muscles stood out in his chest and abs, his arms muscular and his legs strong and lithe. A summer tan didn't hurt either and only made his short blonde hair look even more heavenly.

"Cat got your tongue?" he teased me, bringing me back from my daydreams. God I was so embarrassed. It's supposed to be the guy staring at the girl, not the other way around!

"Oh, sorry Stewart," I stammered, trying to regain my composure. Most of the parents I addressed as Mr. or Mrs. but long ago Stewart had insisted I call him by his first name, saying his father was called "Mr."

"No problem... was there something I could help you with?" he asked, now just a few feet away from me.

Have you ever just reacted to someone by saying the first thing that pops in your head? Then, after you say it you ask yourself how in the world could you EVER had said such a thing? Well, that was me as I responded without completing clearing the fog in my brain.

"Ohhhhhh... there's a LOT of things you could help me with," I purred with what was clearly seductive intent. Stewart was no dummy, he picked up on it right away.

"Oh really," he said with a grin, "And just what might some of those things be?"

My eyes widened. It wasn't so much what he said as my delayed reaction to what I had said. Did those words actually come from MY mouth? Stewart moved up right next to me. Although he didn't touch me he couldn't have moved another inch forward without smothering me.

"You know, there's a LOT of things you could help ME with as well," I said ever so softly.

OK... so it was to be cat and mouse, thrust and parry, point - counterpoint. The game was afoot and we both knew it. If either of us had simply come out and said, "Let's fuck!" I am sure we both would have raced to the nearest private location, or at least I think he would have. Instead, we each had our roles and we played our obligatory parts. It was sort of like a failsafe device where even though I knew at that instant he wanted to fuck me (don't ask how I knew, it's something a girl just knows), by adhering to our little ritual there was always the possibility that one of us would reduce the DEFCON level and bring the adventure to a halt. Better to play the game a bit than make a stupid mistake.

I slowly put my hand on his arm and even though I felt him stiffen just a little, he fought what must have been the temptation to pull away.

"I can be VERY helpful, you know that, don't you Stewart?" I said in a sultry tone.

Stewart just smiled as he gazed at my boobs and then into my eyes and said softly, "So I've heard. You've DO have a bit of a reputation for being 'helpful' you know."

"A GOOD one I hope," I said wrinkling my nose like I was some little girl.

"Well, it's actually very BAD but then I guess that's good," he chuckled.

"Cool! So tell me Stewart, do you like bad girls?" I taunted him, looking down at his crotch deliberately.

Stewart laughed a bit and gently took my hand from his arm. "OK, that's quite enough Kelly," he chuckled as if I'd just told him a good joke, "WE ARE in church you know."

"All the better, don't you think?" I countered, "Who would ever suspect anything?"

By now I was going further than I probably should have and if things didn't work out as I hoped, I was setting myself up to be quite embarrassed. My gut (or was it my pussy?) told me that all I needed to do was sweeten the deal a little more and he would be mine. Rarely, if ever, am I wrong in these situations, and there was no reason to suspect I might be this time around. After coming this far, there was no turning back so far as I was concerned so I took his hand and pulled it up to my bosom. Although he didn't do anything but leave it there, he didn't resist me either.

"Don't you want me Stewart?" I said in my best little girl voice, "You DO like me, don't you?"

Stewart looked nervously towards the door and then I felt his hand tighten on my boob. YES! Victory was mine! He'd taken the bait so now all I had to do was set the hook and reel him in. My hand reached out for his crotch and I grabbed him firmly so there could be no mistaking my intent. His response was to squeeze my breasts even tighter and my heart sped up even faster as I knew without a doubt what was going to happen next. It was all I could do to keep from giggling like a goofy cheerleader. I mean, men can be SO easy sometimes! All you had to do was wait for the right moment of weakness and then get the little head to take control.

"Let's go upstairs before someone see us," he said breathlessly, as if he had been holding his breath for the past few minutes. Perhaps he had.

3. Reeling Him In

In any case, he took me by the hand and we quickly went up to the second floor where he led me in to the Elder's Room, sort of a conference room where they all met each week. The room was dim with the fading light but there was plenty to see by. Besides, turning on a light would have drawn the attention of people outside wondering why someone was in this room. Once inside, he turned to me and put his hands on my upper arms, staring at me intently.

"OK, how do I know you're not just teasing me to get me in more trouble with Rebecca?"

Soooooo, there WAS something going on between him and the perfect trophy wife. I was dying to ask him what it was all about but I didn't want to break the mood. From the way he worded it I had a suspicion it had something to do with some infidelity, either real or suspected. Was Stewart an adulterer? Well, if he wasn't, he was going to be soon if I had anything to say about it.

"Alright then, let me prove it to you," I said, responding to his challenge. I crossed my arms, took hold of the bottom of the tank top on each side of me, and then lifted it up and over my head in one quick motion, leaving me in my black lace VS bra.

"Well?" I taunted him, "Satisfied?"

He smiled but didn't move and then said, "You're beautiful Kelly BUT hey, I've saw less on you at the pool last week, a LOT less, so is that it?"

Well, if THAT was how he was going to be, I would show him! I reached forward and grabbed his shorts by the waist and yanked them down to his knees. Then I grabbed his boxer shorts and they quickly followed. His T-shirt hung lower than his waist, covering his crotch so I lifted it up to see what he was packing. My first reaction was thinking that now I knew why he had such a babe for a wife. Damn, Stewart wasn't just a hell of a hunk. He also had one nice looking cock!

When I say he had a nice looking cock, what I mean is that it LOOKED nice. A lot of men have big cocks, thick cocks, etc. but some of them can be really ugly. Stewart's dick was like something right out of the pages of a Playgirl magazine. It was decent sized, my guess was it would be five or six inches long when erect although THAT was always a crapshoot. The head was smooth and without a blemish on it, a nice mushroom cap on a gorgeous shaft. His dick was light in color with a dark circle around it just under the head. A thick bluish vein ran up the shaft. At the base was a heavy covering of coarse, curly pubic hair. He wasn't shaved but evidently trimmed it just enough to keep the growth from getting out of hand. His balls hung loose, large and also covered with thick pubic hair.

What can I say? I LOVED his dick! Without waiting for him to say anything, I grabbed his cock in my hand and moved up close to him until my breasts pressed against his chest. I gently stroked it as I looked up into his face.

"So is this any better?"

Stewart reached around me and expertly unhooked the two clasps of my bra strap and took off my bra. I let loose of his dick just long enough for him to run the straps past my hand and he tossed the bra to the table top next to my tank top. My bare breasts were now fully exposed to him and he started to fondle them. My boobs may not have been the double D's his wife as so proud of but they were 100% natural C's. Rebecca probably had to be careful near hot surfaces or hers would melt!

"God your tits feel nice," he whispered to me, rubbing one with each hand.

As much as I would have enjoyed feeling his caress them longer, we WERE on the clock as the kids wouldn't be outside forever. Dropping to my knees, I immediately took his dick in my mouth and started to suck his pretty cock.

"Damn, you ARE serious about this, aren't you?" he gasped as my tongue played with his head and then ran down the underside of his shaft and back up again to the shaft.

For crying out loud, what did he THINK after I pulled off my top and let him take off my bra? Did he believe I was NOT serious? We weren't exactly teenagers copping a feel in the pews. If I was going to go this far then by God I was going to get fucked!

His dick responded nicely, swelling and growing longer in my mouth the longer I sucked it. It was only a few minutes before he was fully erect. By the time he was finished he'd grown to where I couldn't take him all in my mouth which meant he must now be a couple of inches longer than I had guessed he would be. You never know with a guy's dick the first time, do you?

Well, it proved to be an excellent opportunity to show off my cocksucking skills. I took just the tip of his dick in my mouth and the slowly worked it in. My tongue would reach out and move down his shaft just a little and then my lips would work their way down to follow it. It was like an inchworm working its way down his shaft. Little by little I took more and more of him in my mouth until finally I felt his dick pushing against the back of my throat.

There was still an inch or more to go so I took a deep breath and continued down. As always, my instinct was to gag when it started to press into my throat and the urge to puke was almost irresistible. It had been a long time, though, since that impulse had won and I knew from plenty of practice how to control it. The trick was to not stop and fight it but to get past that point in my throat as quickly as possible.

It seems once an object in your throat makes it past the gag point, the impulse disappears and you are home free. Most girls who claim they can't deep-throat are simply too scared to push on past that point, thinking they will throw up. What happens is they stop and try to control the impulse which gets only worse the longer you have his dick in that far. Then sure enough, they gag and puke and everyone is unhappy. Fortunately I had an excellent instructor with the perfect teaching tool - my mom using my dad's dick!

His cock now completely in my mouth and pushing down my throat. I imagined his head could feel the tightness of my throat around it, almost like he was in a tight pussy instead of my mouth.

The requirement to breath finally forced me to pull my head off his cock and I looked up at him as I caught my breath and stroked his wet shaft with my hand.

"So you like that?" I said with a naughty grin on my face.

"Hell yes," he said, catching his own breath as once again it seemed he had quit breathing himself. "Nobody's ever done that to me like that before!"

"What's the matter Stewart, can't Rebecca take you all the way like I can?"

OK, so sue me, I was fishing for compliments but hey, can you blame me? I'm damn proud of my cocksucking talents and like anyone who has worked hard on a skill, I liked to be told I'm good at it, ESPECIALLY If it means I'm better than his beautiful wife.

"Are you kidding, she won't even give head," he muttered; obviously I'd struck a nerve.

"Bitch," I muttered and then went back down on him to do it again. I left it to him to interpret what I meant by it - it was a bitch that she didn't do it or was I calling her a bitch? Actually, I meant both so I was safe either way.

Once again I took him in, repeating the same technique I had just demonstrated, only working him a little faster this time so I could stay down on him a little longer before having to get a breath of air. When I lifted my head up and looked at him again, he groaned and his cheeks puffed out as he let out a big breath.

"Oh god, that felt SO fuckin' incredible!" he groaned.

I was more than willing to do it a few more times and under different circumstances, most likely would have. The imagine of a crowd of kids running back into the church accompanied by their parents was enough to expedite things. I stood up and quickly slipped my shorts off. I was wearing a black thong (remember the dress code?) which I just as quickly disposed of as well, leaving me now nude except for my sneakers and white ankle socks. Turning towards the conference table, I put my hands on the edge and then backed up a step, leaning forward and spreading my legs so as to expose myself shamelessly to him.

"Fuck me Stewart," I said softly but firmly. He seemed to hesitate for a moment so I said it again, "I mean it... I really DO want you to fuck me Stewart."

It NEVER failed. How many times had I seen a man unsure of committing the ultimate act of treason with his wife only to falter and give in to his most base impulses upon hearing those two simple words, "fuck me"? Maybe in the back of Stewart's mind, despite the blowjob, despite the nudity, he was still not convinced that he could actually have sex with me. Perhaps there was some shred of decency left in him, some vestige of the wedding vows he'd made to his bride, that was tugging at his conscience. When I saw a man in that state, all I had to do was speak those two syllables and it was if the lust that was building in him burst free and took control, wiping away any last remaining morals.

"Shit... I can't believe I'm doing this," he muttered under breath.

He probably hadn't intended for me to even hear him but it didn't matter to me. The only thing I cared about at the moment was what he was going to DO, not how guilty he might be feeling about it. Besides, as easy as he had been to talk into this, I couldn't help but wonder if it wasn't actually intended for me to hear it, as if somehow it made him less culpable for his actions and more my fault. Well, if that's what it took to get his dick in me, lay the guilt on me!

I watched over my shoulder as he moved in behind me. He had stepped out of his shorts and boxers, leaving them on the floor a few feet back. As he approached me he pulled off his t-shirt and dropped it on top of the pile behind him. God he was a hunk! Even in the ever dimming light I could see the muscles in his chest and arms as he held his stiff dick in his hand. The tan lines from his bathing suit were evident and it popped into my head that he must sunbathe in a lot skimpier bathing suit than he wore at the city pool! Made me wonder what Rebecca wore at home with him!

My thoughts were quickly brought back to the present when I felt his hand on my lower back. The head of his dick touched my butt at the top of my ass crack and he slowly worked it down between my firm bare cheeks and past my tightly closed asshole until he was up against my bare pussy. I fidgeted as he moved it around my pussy hole, trying to line it up for entry.

"Put it in me Stewart," I whispered to him urgently. It wasn't so much now I was worried about the kids coming back. No, I WANTED him in me and I wanted him in me NOW.

He started to pull back and I heard him groan as if he was in pain. With a cock as stiff as his was, maybe he was.

"Oh god, I can't do this, not here... not like this."

If he thought for one minute that I was going to get me this horny and this close to being fucked by a brand new married dick, well he had another thing coming, I'll tell you that. No way, I was NOT going to be denied my prize, my reward.

"You know you want me Stewart, please fuck me," I pleaded, not really having to fake the "please" part of it. Fine, if I had to beg then I'd beg. Anything at this point just to ge5t him to fuck me. By now my pussy was screaming for a dick and if he didn't put it in me soon I might scream myself out of frustration.

"C'mon Stewart, I've seen how you look at me, you know you want to fuck me so do it.. do me now."

He didn't say a word and for just a second, I thought the impossible was about to happen. He was going to chicken out! God, how could he dare to DO that to me? How could he refuse me? I was almost certain when suddenly, without warning, his dick slammed into me and I felt my pussy resist for just a moment and then spread apart for him to enter. His head thrust inside of me and he held himself there, with just the head of his wonderful dick inside of my pussy.

Mmmmmmm... YES! He was fucking me!

"Alright then, take it you little bitch," he groaned as his hands gripped my hips and then I felt him thrust himself deeper inside of me. Each time he went into me further until finally I felt the hair of his crotch tickle ass and the pressure of his crotch pressing me forward.

"Shit, I didn't think you'd be so fucking tight!" he complained as he just held himself at that position, his dick now firmly implanted inside of me.

For a brief moment I was a little pissed off. What the hell did he mean by THAT? Did he think just because I had a reputation of being the neighborhood slut that my pussy was going to be loose like some ancient whore? Then again, maybe it was he was so use to his wife's pussy, loosened irrevocably through the process of bearing three children, that feeling a tight young pussy around his dick as ancient history for him. At that thought I felt better and gave him the benefit of the doubt.

He started to pump his dick in me, slowly at first but rapidly building up speed until he was almost driving me into the table with force of each impact when he slammed into my ass. The sound of him hitting me was almost like I was being spanked. Between that and the loud grunt he would let out each time he pumped it into me, it was a good thing nobody was walking by or I don't know how they could have not heard us. At this time of night, nobody ever came up to this floor so we were pretty safe. Still, the thought of someone peeking in to see what was going on was incredibly erotic for me.

"Turn around," he demanded when suddenly he pulled out of me and spun me around by the waist.

Once I was facing him he grabbed me and set me up so I was sitting on the edge of the table, my bare sweaty ass sliding on the polished wood. Reaching down to grab my ankles, he lifted my legs up as I leaned back on my elbows. With my legs straight up in the air in a large "V", he leaned forward and his dick easily slipped into my well lubricated pussy once again. God he felt so good to be back inside of me again.

Neither of us said a word as each of us looked down to where our bodies were joined together. I loved to see this, to watch a man's hard dick sliding in and out of my pussy. What made it so incredible to watch was not just the way he would disappear inside of me but that at the same time I could FEEL him filling me up inside. It was almost hard to reconcile that the same fullness and pleasure I was feeling inside of me was being caused by that thick smooth shaft I was watching as it disappeared from sight between my legs.

"You like fucking me Stewart?"

"Fuck yeah, damn your cunt feels so good!"

"Mmmmmmm, so you like my tight cunt, eh Stewart?"

"If you squeeze any harder on me, you're going to smash me flat!" he groaned as I pressed down on his dick, almost like when you have to push hard to get out dump except I was feeling intense pleasure at this moment, not the pain of constipation.

"Tell me Stewart, I want to know if you like fucking me better than her?"

"Her?"

"Your wife... tell me you love fucking me better than Rebecca."

OK, so sue me again as once again I was fishing for compliments. Only this time, it would mean a lot more than just a love for my blowjobs. I wanted him to tell me he loved sex with me more than his own wife. It was bad enough that he was betraying his wedding vows by his actions; I wanted his heart and feelings to betray her as well. Maybe not so much betray her as to put me ahead of her. I wanted him to tell me I was hotter and sexier that his wife.

"Yes, I do," he said between pants as he fucked me faster and harder.

"Yes you do what?"

"Love fucking you... I love fucking you more than her."

"That's it Stewart, tell me what you want, tell me how you feel."

"I love your tight pussy, your perky boobs, the way you get so god damn wet!"

"Don't stop Stewart... make me cum!"

Indeed, as much as I loved him fucking me, hearing him say those words while his adulterous dick was inside of me was enough to set me off. My pussy clamped down even harder on him and he grunted as my cum gushed over his dick, making me even wetter than he had felt before. I dropped to my back and spread my arms out like I was being crucified but instead of being nailed to a cross, Stewart was nailing me with his dick to the table. God it felt to good! I never wanted it to stop!

"Tell me more Stewart," I managed to cry out as my pussy felt like it was about to explode. My entire body felt hot and tingled like running out into the winter cold after getting out of the hot tub.

"I've been wanting to fuck you for so long... since you were in high school and teased all the boys in those ridiculous short skirts you wore."

"Fuck me now then... cum inside of me... give it to me Stewart!" I begged as I literally was in tears from the pleasure that had consumed my entire body.

"Oh god!" he groaned as he suddenly pounded himself into me, lifting me up off the table slightly to get his dick in me even deeper.

Then I felt it, that vague warm sensation when a man releases his hot sperm into my pussy. He must have really had a load for me as I could feel it deep in me, like a warm bloom of heat, a fireworks exploding in me and then fading away until the next one went off.

"That's it Stewart, cum in me, mate me," I sighed as I just laid their totally limp, accepting his gift and allowing him to finish himself off in me. "Mmmmmmm, did you know I can feel your sperm when it comes out of you?"

Stewart lowered my legs down and left them dangling over the edge of the table. I felt him pull his dick from my pussy, leaving me with this horrible feeling of emptiness I always get when my pussy no longer has a dick inside of it. It's like my pussy isn't complete without a cock inside, like something is missing and it's never happy again until it has a dick back in it again.

"We HAVE to get going, I think I hear people downstairs," he said hurriedly as he grabbed his stuff and started to dress. As of me, I couldn't move.

My body was still overwhelmed with the physical and emotional extremes it had just been subjected to and I wanted nothing more than to just lay there and savor the aftershocks of my orgasm as my pussy pulsed and my boobs tingled.

He grabbed my hand and pulled me up until I was sitting. As I sat up his cum drained from my pussy and pooled on the table top below me. I smiled and tried to scoop it up and taste it.

"For God's sake Kelly, what are you DOING?" he said, a definite tone of panic this time.

He lifted me up and set me on my feet. I almost fell over as my knees seemed too weak to support me but he steadied me and handed me my bra and thong. He was full dressed now and I could only imagine the thoughts that must have been going through his head about being caught in her with a naked girl and a pool of cum on the table behind her. Personally, I thought it would be pretty hot. Of course, that was my pussy doing the thinking at the moment and my head knew better so I quickly dressed myself.

"Ummmmm, about THAT?" I said with a giggle, pointing to the mess on the table. Not only that, but the polished top clearly showed the imprint of my damp ass.

"Shit," Stewart mumbled as he quickly ran out and then returned with some paper towels from the restroom next door. He cleaned off the table and tossed the used towels in the wastebasket.

"Ahhhhhh, maybe not such a good idea?" I questioned. Surely the towels would reek of sex and anyone emptying the basket or perhaps even coming into the room until it was would notice.

"Shit!" he hissed yet again as he gathered them up and disappeared again, the sound of a toilet flushing clearly audible this time when he returned.

By now I'd dressed and rearranged myself but I could only imagine how I must look. Whenever I orgasmed hard I knew my face and upper chest usually flushed a bright red and it could take a while for it to go away. The room was almost dark by now so he probably didn't notice but I imagined that once we returned to the well-lit classrooms downstairs people would notice - at least the women would. I had no doubt that if Rebecca saw the two of us returning together with me looking as I did - and him probably not much better, that she would go into orbit. As it was, I would be surprised if she didn't smell the distinct odor of sex on him later when they were close together, say in the car. Oh well, that was his problem to deal with. Hopefully he was smart enough to wash up in the restroom beforehand.

To be honest, it was NOT my intent to cause a rift between Stewart and Rebecca. I was satisfied with what he had done to me, my game had been bagged and tagged and I was ready to leave the woods. In this case that meant it was time for me to head home. Stewart could explain I had been ill and that was why the two of us had been away for so long. Rebecca probably wouldn't buy it but without the evidence (me) there to prove anything, she would just have to be suspicious.

I managed to get back to my car without running into anyone. When I got him my mom was there (dad was working late as usual). I told her everything that had happened and she was hysterical with laughter. Like me, she knew Stewart was nothing but a phony and also like me, she thought Rebecca was way too full of herself so she thought it was great that I had burst the bubble a bit. I was thrilled to, not to mention he hadn't been a bad fuck as well! I wondered how we how look at me the next time we met at church. Would he want to fuck me again? Well, even if he did, he wouldn't get to. I only fuck married men once and Stewart was no reason to break that rule. Still, I wouldn't mind staring at the BEAUTIFUL cock all day.

I am NOT my father's girlfriend or lover, not even as a fantasy. I am his daughter - period.

Enough about all that. I graduated from college this past spring so this summer was my first summer since I entered grade school that it was not "summer break". Actually, that feels a bit strange, especially now that summer is almost over. It's hard to shake the feeling that I have to return to school in a few weeks.

This past summer I tutored mostly, expecting to get a job as a substitute teacher in the fall. When it became clear that the best I was going to get was a part-time substitute position, I decided to put off teaching and get my Master's degree. Sooner or later I would be required to get it so I figured if I got it now then maybe it would help me move up the waiting list a little faster.

During the summer my dad made sure to take advantage of the fact I was back home again. True, when I was gone he still had my cousin Kristen to help quench his appetite for younger pussy, but I knew nothing satisfied him as much as getting a piece of his own daughter. For most of the summer he returned to our "tradition" where he would come into my bedroom before leaving for work and either masturbate over me if I was sleeping or fuck me if I was awake (and sometimes when I wasn't!) Now that I'm home permanently, the sense of urgency to get in as much sex as possible while I'm home seems to have dissipated. Over time it had gone from every morning to every other morning to know where I get a visit maybe once or twice a week at most.

Other than that, it was really a somewhat "calm" summer so far as me and dad were concerned. No office parties, no "escorting" for clients, etc. I kept busy with my tutoring and friends and he always seemed to be occupied with work so things just seemed to naturally work their way out between us. As such, you can imagine why he caught me a bit off guard one day when he approached me with a new fantasy idea. Actually, it wasn't that he came up with the idea and then asked me, it was more like something that just happened.

2. An Idea is Formed

We were having lunch after church one day when my mom mentioned one of the neighbors who had gotten divorced a few months back.

"Have you seen the girl he's been dating lately?" my mom said in a low voice so as not to be overheard by the folks in the booth next to us. "Good grief, I doubt she can even vote yet! I bet she doesn't know he has a thirty year-old daughter and two grandkids!"

My dad and I both laughed together. Actually I'd seen the girl in question myself earlier in the week and my mom was right; I could have sworn she was a babysitter except I knew he didn't need one anymore. Naturally my dad, being a guy, had a different take on the situation than the women in his family.

"So what's the big deal? Hey, if the guy can screw a teenage girl at his age, I'm certainly not going to blame him for going for it!"

My mom just snorted and rolled her eyes. "Yeah, figures you would say that. Men are such pigs and you all stick together!"

My dad leaned forward across the table and grinned at my mom. I could barely hear him whisper, "Just in case you've forgotten Mary, your 42 year-old husband likes to bang his 22 year-old daughter."

"And his twenty year-old niece, not to mention his fifteen year-old niece as well," I added, earning a sharp glance from my mother, apparently for not keeping my voice low enough.

My mom wasn't THAT easy to win an argument with, though. She countered with, "True, but at least you're not dating them out in public and making a spectacle of yourself."

That effectively ended the discussion so we went on to other things as we finished our lunch. On the way home, my dad was quiet, as if something was on his mind, but he wouldn't say what it was. It wasn't until later that night during supper that he eventually spilled the beans on his new idea.

"You know, I bet that guy loves it when women like you get all worked up over him dating a girl half his age," he started out with my mom.

"Who cares? I STILL think it looks ridiculous," my mom fired back. "He should be dating someone more his own age. She's just like Anna Nicole Smith."

My dad turned to me with a grin. "OK then, how would you feel Kelly, dating an older guy. Would you like people to stare at you and make gossip if you went out with some older guy?"

Immediately I had a premonition on where this was leading to but I played along.

"Why not, I think it would be fun!"

"See Mary," my dad countered smugly, "Your own daughter thinks it would be fun."

My mom shook her head and sighed. "So John, don't tell me that now you want to go out on some sort of date with Kelly, do you?"

"Why not?" he answered, acting as if it was the most innocent thing in the world for us to do.

"Well, what is someone sees you that knows you?"

"We could make it a road trip. You've been wanting to visit your girlfriend in Cleveland, why not make a night of it? We could stay in a hotel, have dinner on the town and visit a few clubs and places."

My mom was clearly not convinced. She tended to be the more conservative one in the family when it came to our sexual escapades, like a referee ready to blow the whistle when the action got out of hand.

"I'll think about it," was all she would say as she got up to clear the table.

My dad winked at me. We both knew when she said that it meant she just needed some time to digest it further. The odds were heavily in favor of a positive outcome, we just had to be patient. Pushing her now would only result in her taking a position contrary to whatever we wanted.

My mom was working the day shift so by the time she got home the next evening I had dinner ready but as usual, my dad was running late. My mom had learned long ago not to wait for him to get started or else we might starve some nights! As we sat down across from each other, we talked about her day at work as I patiently waited for her to say something about my dad's idea. From bitter experience, I knew it was always best to let HER bring up the topic.

"So, you still think your dad's idea is something you want to do?" she finally asked me.

"Sure, why not?"

"I don't know. Sometimes your father just gets these bizarre ideas. At least this time you won't be his hooker!"

We both laughed at that one. I knew back then she hadn't been 100% behind THAT idea but when it all worked out she was the first to ask for all the gory details.

She sighed and took a drink before continuing. "Well, I suppose if nothing else he'll owe me a night out too."

There it was, in her own round-about way she was going along with it. My mom didn't always come right out and say she agreed with some of the things my dad and I did. It was more like she didn't DISAGREE. It was all I could do to not jump up and give a big "YES!" so I immediately started to think about what I should wear and such. I didn't know where he planned to go exactly so it was hard to make a firm choice but I knew I had something for just about anywhere. If nothing else, it might prove out to be a great excuse to pry some money from him to buy me some new outfits.

The week seemed to crawl by. For the rest of the week, my dad didn't fuck me once. I even offered a BJ one night but he turned it down! It was like he was storing up sperm or something for the weekend. Well, if nothing else, he was going to be horny as hell! As for me, well I must have masturbated a couple of dozen times as I fantasized about how our "date" might go.

Of course, my imagination can get out of hand as I dreamed of him doing me on a restaurant table and then on a bar stool at a nearby club. Nothing was so outrageous that I couldn't get off thinking about it. Of course, it didn't help he wasn't fucking me which only added fuel to my masturbation needs. I suppose I could have called in a couple of guys I knew who were more than happy to meet my needs when they arose, but that seemed wrong somehow knowing my dad was going to be wanting me so badly at the end of the week.

Finally, Friday arrived and somehow or another my dad managed to take off work early. My mom had traded her hospital shift for another and so she was home already when my dad arrived. She had everything packed so as soon as he got home, we loaded the SUV and were on the road.

The trip to Cleveland was rather uneventful, especially when you consider how many of our road trips went. It was like we were all on our best behavior in anticipation of my dad and my "date". I didn't even masturbate on the way so that alone should tell you how serious I was about reserving the atmosphere!

We checked into a downtown Hilton hotel where my dad had reserved a suite. It was a bit of an extravagance but it made me feel special somehow. My mom had originally planned on visiting one of her friends that lived in the area but she had changed her mind at the last minute, deciding that she would rather watch the two of us having fun. It was a bit voyeuristic but then my mom often watched the two of us having sex at home. It was EXTREMELY rare for her to join in. She seemed to prefer watching her husband and daughter enjoying themselves and then be with each of us privately some other time. It was fine with me as having sex with my mom as compared to sex with my dad was like trying to compare night and day.

AS they unpacked I quickly ducked into one of the bathrooms where I carefully took a shower so as not to mess up my hair that I had paid over $100 to get done earlier in the day (well, dad's credit card actually paid for it). Normally my hair is so straight and lifeless but tonight I wanted it to look more bouncy and yet sophisticated at the same time.

Fortunately, my wardrobe already had the perfect "little black dress" so I hadn't had to go out and buy a new dress although it was tempting to do it anyway. A girl can NEVER have too many dresses! The dress was classic and simple, yet looked elegant because of its simplicity. It was solid black and hugged my body like it was custom form-fitted just for me. It was strapless and barely covered my boobs, showing as much cleavage as my c-sized boobs could produce. It stayed just as tight all the way down to my ass, clinging to me like fresh Saran Wrap. The bottom hem was no more than a couple of inches below my butt, threatening to reveal a thin black thong if I did much of anything more than just stand up straight.

My legs were firm and tan after the hours I had spent on our deck this summer so I wasn't wearing any hose. On my feet were some killer heels with five inch stilettos. I say "killer" partially because they made my legs and ass look great but also because they absolutely killed my feet when I wore them. Oh well, the sacrifices a girl has to make to look good for her date!

My mom came in as I was making some last minute adjustments to my outfit. I saw her behind me in the mirror, giving me a good look-over.

"Well, I guess you look slutty enough, even for your perverted father," she mumbled under her breath. I knew she was just joking, well, at least about my dad being perverted. As for me looking slutty, I certainly HOPED I did after all this work! What was the whole point of the outfit if not to be my dad's slutty date for the evening?

When I stepped out of the bathroom, my dad was waiting for me in the living room area of the suite. I entered the room and he let out a long, loud wolf whistle.

"Wow Kelly, you look REALLY hot tonight!"

I walked slowly over to him, my hips moving and legs crossing as I tried to be as sexy as I could.

"Think the other guys will be jealous?" I asked him seductively.

"Shit, I would say so," he replied. "Damn, I'm tempted just to stay here tonight!"

"Now John...," my mom intervened, wagging her finger at him

"OK Mary, I know. Don't forget, it WAS my idea to do this tonight after all."

It was getting past eight so we decided we had better get going. First stop was some steak place that my dad loved. They had a branch in Pittsburgh he loved to go to so it was a no-brainer for him when he made the reservations for tonight.

On the way through the hotel lobby, I walked with my dad while my mom trailed a discreet distance behind as if she wasn't associated with us. My dad put his arm around me and just before we went out the front glass doors, he turned to me and leaned down to kiss me. It wasn't very long but enough for everyone to get the idea we weren't just business associates. The valet even winked at my dad as he handed him the keys to our SUV which was now waiting for us. He must have been pretty surprised when my mom hopped in the back seat. Oh well, I guess we would be providing the gossip for the valet staff tonight!

At the restaurant, my dad parked and my mom stayed in the back seat while the two of us made our way to the entrance. The concierge found our reservation and as he gathered the menus to lead us to the table, I noticed he gave me the once-over. I smiled at him and he discreetly looked away but I could only imagine what he was thinking about me being with this older guy for the evening. Did he think I was his girlfriend, an escort or maybe even a prostitute? Of course, he would never know the truth about us. No doubt the option that I might be this guy's daughter never even crossed his mind from the slutty way I was dressed not to mention he couldn't have missed how my dad kept fondling my ass as he led us to our table!

My mom entered the restaurant alone a few minutes after we were seated. I could barely see her but we were close enough for me to see that the concierge seemed surprised when she asked for a table for one. Small wonder as how often does a good-looking forty-year-old woman go to a fancy, expensive restaurant all by herself?

Earlier in our hotel room, I found it interesting that my mom chose to leave her wedding ring at home while my dad had kept his on. At the time I wondered if my mom had plans to do a bit of teasing herself. Of course I knew she would never actually DO anything with another guy, but that didn't mean she couldn't have a little fun leading some poor guy on to think that she might. For my dad, I think it gave me a bit of a thrill for people to see his wedding ring since I wasn't wearing a ring, obviously, so anyone with even a passing interest would have to think that he was cheating on his wife. Even though I knew he would never even consider such a despicable act, it still didn't mean he couldn't enjoy the notoriety. After all, fantasies are NEVER bad!

My mom was led to a small table at the side of the restaurant almost opposite from us, making it all but impossible for me to see her clearly and I had to assume she was having the same problem. Oh well, it was still good enough to know we were there and since the rest rooms were on our side of the building, she had a ready-made excuse to pass by now and then for a closer view.

One nice thing was that since I'm now over 21, my dad can order wine AND I can drink it - legally. Although normally I'm not a big fan of anything alcoholic, a good glass of wine that compliments dinner is OK now and then. Actually, my parents have allowed me drink a little wine during dinner since I was just a little girl but it was never enough to get me drunk or even a little tipsy. At parties, I'm strictly a Diet Coke girl as I hate beer!

The wine guy (or whatever their fancy title is) brought a bottle and a stand to our table where I sat back and dutifully watched the little ritual. I had my legs crossed with the leg closest to him crossed over the other such that my skirt exposed my bare thigh as well as the majority of my ass to him. He pretended to be looking down at the bottle but his line of sight was clearly on another vintage. I wasn't sure what was going to pop first - the cork or his pants!

My dad ordered dinner for the two of us and later as we talked, I tried to see who was around us and what they were doing. Most of the people seemed to be business associates, guys for the most part on expense accounts. There was an older couple celebrating a wedding anniversary, probably their fiftieth from the looks of them. A couple of teenagers rounded out the crowd, the boy evidently trying to impress his girlfriend but instead just looking out of place and silly in the process. Well, for his sake I hoped she made the exorbitant bill worthwhile after dinner. I remember my mom's advice when I was dating - it's not polite to let a boy take you to a nice restaurant unless you're willing to blow him afterwards as a thank-you.

"God, you look incredibly sexy tonight Kelly," my dad said in a low voice over the candle glowing in the middle of our table.

Believe it or not, I actually blushed! He was making me feel like a princess, all dressed up and feeling so sexy here with a man that everyone thought was cheating one his wife. Actually, most people seemed to be ignoring us except for one table where four guys who looked to be in their late twenties and thirties were obviously well past their first round.

"I think those guys like you," my dad whispered to me, trying not to be overheard or appearing to look at them.

I grinned at him and glanced over at their table. They didn't even bother pretending to look away as two of them actually smiled back at me while the other two just leaned their heads back and rolled their eyes. God, talk about a bunch of drunk letches! My dad must have caught me looking over at them as he leaned over the table with that grin on his face he gets whenever he's about to ask me something naughty.

"So what do you think?" he asked me in a teasing voice, "How many of them?"

I had to cover my mouth to keep from breaking out laughing. Leave it to my dad to turn this into something naughty.

"Dad! Is that all you ever think about?" I replied, practically choking on my words as I struggled to get them out without bursting with laughter.

"Well, you of all people know the answer to that."

"Hey, I thought YOU were supposed to be dating ME tonight. What's this about me doing these guys anyway?"

He reached out and I let him take my hand in his. In doing so, I had to lean over, exposing my cleavage for him to see - as well as anyone who wanted to take a closer look.

"Awwwwww, don't worry, I'm the only one who's going to fuck you tonight, don't worry." he reassured me. THAT took me a bit by surprise, in a good way as I was starting to wonder whether or not he might have other things on his agenda. What was the story then?

"So what are you talking about then? You want me to just blow them?"

"Well, why not? Tell you what... I'll bet you can't get all four of them to cum before our entrees arrives."

My dad squeezed my hand and looked into my eyes. God, he was serious!

"Just look at them dad... they're drunk. You SURE you want to bet on that?"

My dad just looked at me, his mind going to work as he seemed to be deciding what direction to take at this crossroads. It had been intended to be just a night out between the two of us so this didn't exactly fall into the scheduled itinerary. I waited silently for his decision.

"Well, it would have to be all four of them but I'm sure you can handle that. It's the 'before the entree" part that I think would be a challenge - even for you baby."

Damn! My dad was essentially daring me to suck them so how could I turn away from such a thing? Oh yes, my dad knew his daughter all too well. Had he just bet me, I might have turned him down and gone on with dinner. But now he was DARING me, for all practical purposes questioning my ability to turn those guys on quickly. Under the circumstances, how could I do anything but accept the dare if I wanted to defend my honor and reputation?

"Well, what about just three of them? What of one of them is married or has ED."

My dad chuckled at that. As a skilled lawyer he recognized a weasel answer when he heard one and he wasn't about to let me get away with it. Oh well, I had to at least TRY.

"What's the matter? The stakes too high for ya? Don't think you can handle them?"

My mouth turned up in a naughty grin and I answered with a determined face, "That's not fair and you know it daddy."

My dad just shook his head, silently calling my bluff. Then he whispered to me saying, "OK, here's my final offer. All four before the entrees gets here and I buy you a new dress. If you fail, you clean house for your mom for a week."

Now THAT was an incentive for me. I can ALWAYS use a new dress and if he was buying it for me, then shopping for it would be half the fun. As for the possible consequences, I HATE housework so there was no way I was going to lose this one.

With our agreement in place, there was no time to lose as it was already pushing things pretty tight for time. Even though I knew it would be at least another twenty or thirty minutes at a restaurant like this before we got our meal, that was pretty damn fast to suck off four guys, even if they were prepared and waiting already.

"Hey, don't talk like that to your father!" he called out to me as I got up and walked away from the table.

Although my skirt had ridden up a bit while I was seated, I didn't bother to pull it down or straighten it out but instead walked directly over to the table with the foursome. I figured I had only twenty minutes at most so there was no time to tease or fool around.

"You boys like what you've been watching?" I said demurely when I reached their table, resting on my hands and leaning over to give them a solid view of my boobs. Fortunately, they were drunk enough to answer honestly.

In the few seconds it had taken me to move from our table to theirs, I had debated how to approach this. With the time limit I faced, there was really only one option I could think of - direct and to the point.

"Not at all. Matter of fact, he's my daddy and he bet me I couldn't suck each of you off before our meal arrives."

God, what I would've given for my digital camera at that moment. Each of the simply froze in place, their mouths hanging open like fish out of water. Of course, not one of them believed the "daddy" line which, of course, was exactly what I had counted on. The good point about that was I didn't have to make up a story, yet to them I had handed out a whopper. Really, what father would be going out to dinner with his daughter dressed like I was? Without calling me a liar, all they could do was wonder what the REAL story was.

"Seriously?" one of them finally asked. The rest just kept staring at me - or at least at my boobs.

"Well, meet me in the men's room in one minute and find out," I taunted them.

Well, I had done it; thrown down the gauntlet in the most direct and straightforward way possible yet still managed to leave them speechless and disbelieving. It wasn't until I headed for the restrooms that they probably started to think I might really BE serious. As much as I wanted to do it, I never even looked back until I was finally in the hallway where the two restrooms were located.

Now if a guy were to walk into the women's restroom, there would be shrieks and orders to get out immediately. Not surprisingly, the reception I got in the men's room wasn't quite the same. There were two guys in there when I pushed the door open (no door knob or lock I noticed right away) and stepped in like I owned the place.

"Ah sister, I think you got the wrong door," some guy said who was washing his hands at one of the sinks.

A quick glance and I saw there were two urinals and two stalls with two sinks on the opposite wall. It wasn't really that bad a place with various men's toiletries on the sink and real hand towels instead of paper ones. The second guy was up against one of the urinals in the classic pose a guy takes when he's peeing.

"That's OK, I'm meeting some friends for a blowjob," I said offhandedly, as if it was the most perfectly normal thing in the world for me to be doing.

It's amazing how the truth can work to your advantage as once again, I was met with a look of total disbelief. The guys peeing must have heard me as well as he quickly turned his head over his shoulder to take a look at me.

"I don't EVEN want to know!" the first guy said as he dried his hands quickly and practically ran out of the room.

The second guy seemed to be in the same state of either disbelief or denial. I could only imagine what he would be saying to whoever he was having dinner with when he returned! He didn't even wash his hands in his rush to escape what seemed to be an uncomfortable situation. I smiled sardonically at the whole series of events. Personally, I would have thought I had just presented them with their wildest fantasy yet both of them panicked when faced with the real story. Typical men.

I'd been in there almost thirty seconds by now and was starting to wonder if my entourage was going to arrive. Just as I was being to doubt them and started to head for the door before some other guy barged in, the door swung open and in walked my targets.

"Shit, she's really here!" The guy who spoke was the one who spoke first earlier at the table. He must have been the leader of the bunch, if not in job title than at least in personal stature.

"Of course I am," I replied a bit briskly, as if I was fed up with their tardiness. "Now who's first? C'mon, be good boys and drop your pants so we can get going."

They all looked at each other and I wasn't the least bit surprised at who my first victim was. Well, so far he was the only one to even say a word to me so I guess it made sense I should suck his dick first. I squatted down and sat on my heels as I motioned for him to approach me.

"Hurry up, I've got a deadline!" I said, as if I was telling a kid at some fast food joint to rush my order.

As he stepped forward, unzipping his pants, I looked at the other three and waved my hand as if dismissing them.

"You guys too... let's GP... get 'em out and start jerking off so you're ready when your turn comes - and I DO mean CUMS!"

The entire situation was surreal. In fact, it was so weird that I found that I wasn't even all that sexually excited. Sure, my pussy felt familiar twinge I get whenever I see any guy's dick, but I wasn't feeling that all-over electricity I normally get when I'm really horny for a dick. This was too mechanical, to unemotional, and most of all, too EASY. God, less than five minutes earlier I'd been talking with my dad and now here I was in the men's restroom getting ready to suck the first of four dicks! Yep, WAY too easy!

It's strange how some things work out. There have times in my life when the most simple act has be incredibly erotic, like the touch of an anonymous hand brushing against my leg when I'm seated on a crowded bus. Then there are times when you would think it would be the most sexually exciting time ever and it falls flat on its face.

Unfortunately, that's what happened here. Maybe it was my worry over meeting the deadline. Maybe it was the fact that this had just happened WAY too easy, without any real effort on my part or need to seduce or tease. Then again, maybe it was because they were all just drunk perverts and I've never cared much for guys when they drink too much (although the pervert part wasn't much of a problem with me).

Whatever the reason, the next fifteen minutes were probably the LEAST memorable blowjobs I've ever given. I guess I owe a little bit of a description but I'm not going to waste my time with anything more than a summary.

Guy #1 (I hadn't asked their names nor did I really want to know them) had a decent cock but nothing to write home about. Despite all the alcoholic drinks he was pretty hard which meant he was either not as drunk as he was letting on, or he had extraordinary erection powers compared to most guys I knew. As it turned out, he lasted the longest, going for at least five minutes before he blew his wad all over my face.

Without waiting for me to clean up, in his place stepped Guy #2. I don't think up to now I mentioned one of them was black and that turned out to be the second guy. Although I hate to admit it, I was a bit disappointed when his cock didn't transform into some monster dick but other than being darker than the others, it was about average sized and his cum squirted out into my mouth no different than the other three.

Guy #3 was the least impressive of the bunch. He had a decent enough dick but an attitude that would have turned off any girl I knew - even the sluttiest ones. He was a bit rough, grabbing my head and holding me still while he fucked my mouth, obviously trying to impress his buddies with his "expertise". Well, for all his bravado, he lasted the least of any of them, probably less than two minutes, tops. He also dribbled instead of squirting, barely missing my dress which would have pissed me off had he messed it up.

Guy #4 looked like he was about to chicken out. I didn't see a wedding ring on his hand although he may taken it off before coming in here with us. I just stayed squatting while his buddies all teased him and finally cajoled him into letting me blow him. Like most every guy I've ever met, once his dick was in my mouth he changed his tune and stopped protesting.

Remarkably, I finished them all off in just over fifteen minutes. Some mention was made about fucking me but I rebuffed them and they left the restroom mumbling unhappily about it, leaving me behind as I pulled myself up using the sink for balance. One look in the mirror was enough to make me reach for the towel dispenser. Thankfully, I looked a LOT worse than I felt!

I was wiping my face off when the door opened and in walked some nice looking guy. Needless to say he was a bit surprised to see me, to the point he even backed out momentarily to check the sign outside the door.

"Ummmmm, excuse me miss but aren't you in the wrong restroom?" he called to me from just inside the door.

When I turned to him he got a view of my face, still half-covered with cum and he quickly sized up the situation.

"Sorry... I'll come back later," he hurriedly said as he moved out of the restroom. He actually looked embarrassed! Too bad he hadn't stepped in about five minutes earlier - then he would have had something to be embarrassed about!

I couldn't help but smile at myself in the mirror. God, what had he been thinking when he saw all this mess on my face and in my hair? I quickly wiped the rest of it off and ran a comb through my hair in an attempt to get out the few drops that had missed my face entirely and landed on my head. Somehow or another I had managed to keep them from ruining my dress which made me happy.

"Well, no entree yet I see," I said with a grin. I glanced over at the table where the guys had been and saw there were all watching me and I waved at them discretely.

"Get all four?"

"Daddy!" I whined, "I can't believe you even asked that!"

"Well, I figured as much from the looks on their faces when they came back from the restroom," "So, are you proud of me Daddy?"

My dad just shook his head back and forth ruefully and then he looked me straight in the eyes and smiled at me, like a loving father should look at his little girl.

"I would be proud of you no matter what you did in there, baby." I wasn't going to let him get by with THAT lame response.

"Ahhhhhh, you know what I meant daddy!"

"Alright, if you insist, I WAS proud of you. Not many girls would have the guts – or the skill, to do what you just did."

I looked around to see if my mom had been watching. Did she know what I had just done? From the way she was looking at me, I would say that she did!

4. Dad Does me In the Parking Garage

Our dinner arrived and I put the guys out of my mind as we ate the most incredible steaks and then topped it off with dessert to die for. God, it was a good thing my dress stretched as I must have gained a COUPLE of pounds just eating it all! It was nice just to spend some time with my dad like this, intimate yet public. I hated always having to hide our relationship from people and it was refreshing to have him treat me the way I knew he wanted to back home. With dessert over and the credit card in the waiter's hands. We debated what to do next. Well, there was only one option so far as I was concerned.

"I want you to fuck me daddy," I said, cutting off whatever he had been saying at the time. Something about his work but I was too horny to listen anymore.

My dad smiled at me, a mixture of fatherly love and male lust on his face. Yes, he wanted me! It made my heart practically burst from my chest to see the fire in his eyes as he stared at me. I could only imagine what he was thinking as he stared at me like I was his own personal toy and he was just debating how he wanted to play with me.

"Ready to go back to the hotel then, I take it?" he asked with the grin still on his face.

"I never said THAT!" I teased him.

"OK then... so where?"

I bit my lower lip as I thought about all the possibilities. Although I was sure sooner or later that he WOULD fuck me in the hotel room, for now that was about the LAST place on earth I wanted it.

"What's wrong with the parking garage?"

My dad's smiled broadened and I thought I caught what might have been a look of relief. Lord only knows where he thought I might want him to do me!

"Sort of public, don't you think?" he countered.

"Your point?" I responded.

My dad laughed at that one. "Yeah, I suppose I should have caught onto that right away."

The check came back and my dad signed the bill and put away his credit card. He stood up and offered me my hand to help me up. As I joined him, I looked over at the table where my friends had been. They were no place to be seen and the table easy cleared so I guess they must have finished earlier and I hadn't noticed. I saw my mom was paying her bill as well and we left before she was finished but she knew where to find us!

The parking garage was your standard downtown concrete monolith. It was pretty full yet there was little traffic. Evidently everyone had already arrived for the evening and they must be staying where they were for the time being. As we made our way to the SUV, my dad grabbed my ass and gave me a playful squeeze.

"Daddy!" I protested.

"OK, tell me how you do it," he demanded.

"Do what?"

"Well, walk in that outfit. If the dress was any tighter you would pop like a tube of toothpaste and those heels are like stilts. Speaking of the dress, how the hell does it stay UP and DOWN at the same time? I mean, what keeps it from falling off your tits and riding up your ass?"

I just grinned at him as pushed him good-naturedly. "Well, some things a girl has to keep a secret."

By now we had reached the SUV and he beeped the doors open. He opened the passenger door for me and rather than get inside, I just leaned forward over the seat, letting my ass stick out towards him. Of all the parts of my body, I love my ass the best when it comes to showing off and I wanted him to get a good view of it. I was rewarded for my efforts as my dad reached between my legs and ran his hand upward.

"God you have such a sweet butt," he groaned as his hand reached my crotch.

The force of his forearm against my dress made it ride up, exposing my entire butt and letting him see the thong that was trying valiantly in its futile attempt to try to cover a least a little of my ass. "Well, this has GOT to go!" he huffed as he grabbed my back of my thong and pulled it down to my ankles where I stepped out of it.

"Please fuck me daddy... I've been wanting you to do me all night!"

"You heard her John, what are you waiting for anyway?"

We both turned and saw my mom standing a few feet away. With her heels I don't know how we had missed her approach but I guess when all you can think about it your dad's dick, things tend to get overlooked.

"Well dear, what are you looking at me for?" she said, shaking her head in exasperation at my dad's attention to her, "Don't look at me, SHE'S the one's that's been horny all night."

He smacked my bare bottom with the palm of his hand, making a sharp sound that echoed through the empty garage that sounded a lot worse than it felt.

"You ready baby?"

"Dad!" I whined, hopefully sounding as frustrated as I was feeling. Damn, I wished he would just fuck me and get it over with instead of goofing around like this!

"OK, OK, I get the message!" he laughed, undoing his pants to free his cock.

Needless to say, he was fully erect already so he wasted no time in pushing it up against me as I spread my legs to make it easier for him to enter me from behind.

"That's it John, quit stalling and give it to her," my mom encouraged him as I felt him moving his dick around between my legs, searching for my pussy hole.

Reaching between my legs, I spread my pussy apart with my fingers to help him out. He quickly found the mark and I could feel the smooth head of his wonderful dick pressing harder and harder.

"Oh yes... fuck me daddy," I moaned softly, pushing my ass back against him to drive him into me, "Show me how much you love me."

He grabbed my hips with both hands and I was thrown forward with the sudden force of him penetrating me. Usually he would enter me slowly and deliberately, letting me feel him entering my pussy, swallowing his hard cock like some hungry snack taking its prey down its throat. Not this time. Tonight my dad must have been too horny to be deliberate about anything. His crotch met up against my ass and I felt the thick pubic hair surrounding his dick against my sensitive bare ass.

"Oh yeah, that's what I wanted," I moaned softly, concentrating on the way his dick filled my pussy.

What more can I say? It was wonderful! I could feel the thickness of my father's cock pushing its way into me, forcing me to open and accept him, demanding that submit to him. His cock felt warm inside of me as it slid in and out, rubbing against the sensitive walls of my pussy, sending the most sensational feelings shooting throughout my entire body. Yes, this WAS exactly what I wanted, to feel my own father in me as he satisfied his deepest desires for me, listening to him groan with lust as he coupled his body with mine, feeling the urgency of his touch on me as he mated me with his dick.

I buried my head between my arms as I leaned down on the seat and just let him fuck me. My dad was now stroking his hard incestuous cock in and out of me like a piston, going in deep until his crotch smacked up against my bare ass and then pulling out until he was just barely in me before drilling it in me again. A few times he pulled out too far but my pussy was stretched open now and he easily slid it back in without missing a beat.

After spending an entire evening waiting for this, it must have been almost like a sense of relief for him to finally feel himself in me. What thoughts were going through his mind at a time like this? How did it feel to take me in a way only HE could? What was it like for a father to know his only daughter was giving herself to him completely and without reservation just to please him and satisfy his most intense desires?

"Suck it baby," he demanded in a voice husky and thick with his lust for me. No sooner than he pulled out than I twisted around and squatted down on my heels in front of him. I only had a moment to admire his cock before he had it in my face, pushing it against my mouth which I quickly opened to accept him.

As I took his dick in my mouth, I could taste my pussy on him and smell my scent in his crotch. Mmmmmmm, it smelled so good! It was almost like when he was fucking me from behind except now he easy fucking my mouth, driving his hard cock in and out with the same purpose and intensity that he had just done with my pussy. I reached between my legs and played with my clit as he pumped his wonderful dick in and out of my mouth while my tongue slid along it.

"Car!" my mom warned as she stepped in closer to shield us from view.

There weren't any parking spots open around us and for a moment the person slowed, maybe hoping we were getting ready to leave. My mom must have gestured or something because I heard the engine speed back up and the car went on into the garage further. Meanwhile, my dad hadn't even hesitated as he continued to fuck my mouth, which was perfectly fine with me!

As I sucked his dick I couldn't help but compare what I was doing now with what I'd done earlier with those idiots in the men's room. For me, sex is more emotional than physical which was why sucking my dad like this was SO much better. Those other guys didn't give a damn about me; they just wanted their dicks sucked and didn't give a damn who did it.

In stark contrast, I knew without a doubt that my dad was more turned on that it was ME, his little girl, that was taking his dick in her mouth even more than the actual blowjob I was giving him. He loved me and I was sure that he understood that I was sucking his dick out of my love and respect for him, not to just enjoy yet another cock after literally hundreds of prior ones. My emotions almost overwhelmed me as I looked up at him and saw the pleasure I was giving my father with my mouth!

"Here, sit up on the seat," he said, trying to catch his breath as he grabbed me by the shoulders and lifted me up.

Reluctantly I relinquished his dick - I could have sucked it all night! The cool leather of the seats felt good against my ass as I backed into the SUV. I had to sit on the edge so he could reach but as it turned out, it was about the right height as he plunged his cock back into my warm wet pussy that had missed him.

"Oh daddy," I moaned, "I love you to fuck me!"

"Car!" my mom warned yet again.

This time, though, it didn't slow and my dad just ignored it. I guess maybe someone MIGHT have gotten a brief glimpse of us but who cared? Certainly not me or my dad! At that moment I WANTED the whole world to see us. I wished everyone could see my dad with his dick inside of me, to show them just how far I was ready to go to please my father. I wanted people to see the way he looks when he drives his cock into me, to see how much he loves fucking his daughter, to see him cum in me and mate me in this ultimate act of union between a man and woman - father and daughter to be more specific on our case.

My dad was pumping faster now and I could tell from the grimace on his face and the tense grip he had on the door that he was trying to hold himself back, trying to savor the moment as long as possible. It must have been hard for him to battle the instinctive desire to release his sperm in me, mating me like some bitch in heat, against the fatherly love and respect for his daughter that drove him to fuck me longer and harder.

"Cum in me daddy," I urged him. It had been so long since I had felt him cum in me - almost a week now, and I wanted it badly. "I want you to cum inside of me!"

"Oh god!" he groaned as he leaned hard into me.

I felt him convulse as his warm cock erupted in me and flooded my pussy with his fatherly cum, his incestuous sperm. It felt so damn good! As always, I felt inundated when he came in me, overcome with the joy and happiness that comes from this totally intimate outward sign of his love and respect for me.

He finally pulled out of me and opened my pussy with his fingers. I knew what he was looking for and I squeezed my pussy to force out some of the cum he had just deposited in me. The majority was deep inside of me and would drain out later, but there was always some that I could push out of me for him to see.

"Oh yeah, look at that Mary," he said to my mom, obviously proud of his handwork.

My mom looked but seemed rather indifferent. Maybe in another time or place she might have even licked it off of me, but out here in public she was clearly uncomfortable with the situation.

"Well, somebody better clean off that seat before I get in!" she teased him.

My dad pulled his handkerchief from his pocket and handed it to me. I wiped up the pussy that had dribbled from my pussy first, and then reached down to get what I could from the seat before I slid forward and wiped it up with my ass instead. Not that I minded cum on my butt, it's just it made a mess and I needed to pull my dress down sooner or later!

"Well, the two of you horny toads had enough fooling around for one night?" she asked.

My dad looked at me and then we both looked back at my mom, grins plastered all over our faces. Personally, I was ready for another round!

"Well, we can head back to the hotel but I'm not so sure your daughter's ready to quit for the night," he chuckled.

Indeed I wasn't! Heck, I hadn't even cum yet after sucking off four guys and now being fucked by my horny dad so one way or another I had things to do tonight. I hopped in the back seat while my parents got in the front.

5. Mom and I Put on a Show For My Dad

This time on the way to hotel I masturbated as there was no way I could keep my hand off my hot pussy after having just been fucked by my dad, not to mention knowing there was more dick where that came from waiting for me in our room. Who knows, maybe mom might join in as well?

When we arrived at the hotel I was so engrossed with what I was doing in the back seat that I didn't even realize where we were until the valet came to get the keys from my dad. I quickly pulled down my dress but he probably got a brief glimpse of what I had been doing. Not that it really mattered. Actually he was a pretty hot college guy and for all I cared, he could have joined me in the back seat!

As the three of us walked through the lobby, I could feel the stares of the men and I wondered what they would say if they knew how hot my pussy was at the moment. I was so damn horny I could have taken them all on but I knew better things waited for me up in our room. Once in the elevator, my dad started teasing me, reaching under my dress to rub my pussy with his fingers.

"John, they DO have cameras in these things nowadays you know," my mother hissed at him.

It was a moot point as we quickly arrived at our floor and soon were back in our room. No sooner than the door was closed than my mom hugged my dad and I stood by as I watched them kiss. If there is one thing I feel fortunate about, it's the love my parents have for one another. Hopefully when I get married, twenty five years later I'll still be loved by my husband as much as my dad loves my mom, and the same for my mom's love for him.

People are always asking me if they swing or if they ever would have sex with me and someone else? All I can say is anyone who asks such a silly questions doesn't have a clue about my parent's marriage. Neither one of them would ever cheat on the other. It has nothing to do with getting "consent", as neither of them would deny the other something they truly wanted. No, they simply wouldn't do it out of respect for each other. I can't ever picture my dad fucking another woman; it's not even something I fantasize about!

"Would you want to watch tonight?" I heard my mom whisper softly to my dad.

My heart seemed to skip a beat when I heard her say that. Normally whenever my dad fucked me, my mom would not get involved, at least not directly. If anything, she might watch and masturbate but as for making it a three-some, that just wasn't the norm. She had explained it to me once that so far as she was concerned, my dad fucking me was something she allowed because she knew how much he wanted it. Since I was their daughter, it wasn't like he was cheating by fucking another woman. Instead, she saw it similar to when he masturbated watching some porn movie. Sure the movie turned him on and helped him get off, but it wasn't like it changed anything between them. So it was with him fucking me. I satisfied his needs and made him happy, but he never substituted me for my mom. Thus for her to join in would be like interrupting him when he was masturbating.

Despite all that, my mom recognized that my father WAS a male and he DID have certain fantasies and needs that she could satisfy without compromising her marriage vows. What guy doesn't jerk off thinking of two women getting it on. Other than twin sisters, most guys tell me a mother-daughter relationship is the hottest thing for them to watch. Why should my dad be any different?

My dad grinned at her suggestion and she steered him over to the sofa where he took a front row seat for the show she intended to put on for him. Then she turned back to me and smiled. I could feel goose bumps rising all over me in anticipation. God, it had been like forever since we had done anything like this!

"What do you say Kelly, shall we give him a show?"

Well duh! I didn't need to answer as she knew perfectly well how I felt about it. I couldn't say which aspect turned me on more, having my dad watch us or just being together with my mom. We hadn't done anything sexual together in over a month, which wasn't all that unusual and actually it typically was longer than that between times. In contrast, my dad enjoyed doing me every chance he could! The difference was my dad did it to get off and what could turn him on more than fucking his daughter (putting my mom aside for the moment)? My mom and I were more like close friends, maybe even lovers, when we met in bed. Sure it felt good to be with her, but emotionally being with her was the most intense and intimate experiences of my life.

We met in the middle of the room and she kissed me as we wrapped our arms around each other. Her lips felt so soft and full! God she smelled wonderful and I tingled as she ran her hands through my hair while her tongue explored my mouth. My father may dominate me in that I submit myself to him out of respect as his daughter. My mom also dominates me sexually but it is her maturity and experience that drives our roles rather than me feeling I am required to submit myself to her.

"I love you mom," I whispered softly as our lips parted ever so slighty.

"Yes Kelly, I love you too," she sighed as I grabbed her ass in my hands through her dress and pulled her in tight to me.

As if an unspoken command had been uttered, we parted and quickly dropped our dresses to the floor. Neither of us was wearing anything underneath them which meant the only thing left was to kick off our heels and leave the jewelry on the nightstand. The two of us stood apart and I gazed at my beautiful mother's nude body. Oh sure she wasn't twenty two like me, but for a woman her age she was still remarkably fit and sexy.

My mom took me by the hand and led me to the bed where I climbed on and laid flat on my back with my head supported by a couple of pillows. My mom laid to the side of me, draping her upper leg over me and pushing up against me until her crotch was pressed against my high. She ground her pussy into me, rubbing herself against my leg as she put her arm over me and held my breast in her hand.

"God you feel so soft and warm," she murmured as she buried her face in my hair, tickling my ear lobe with her tongue.

Her large breasts pressed against me as she let her hand wander all over me, fondling me gently as she let her fingertips do most of the touching. When her hand reached my crotch, she rubbed her middle finger down along my pussy slit and then to my pussy hole where she pushed it up inside of me. Once she wetted her finger in me, she pulled it out and used it to wet the rest of my pussy and clit before bringing her finger to her mouth to taste me.

"Mmmmmmm, I think you still have some of your dad's cum in you," she giggled. "He must have really left a load in you!"

Indeed he had but at the moment, all I could think about was the feel of my mother's nude body against mine. It was one thing to lay next to her in bed nude watching TV or just falling asleep. There wasn't anything really sexual or erotic about that. This was different. She wasn't laying against me just because we happened to be next to each other. No, she desired me and loved me and wanted to share herself with me. What more could a daughter ask of her mother?

"I think I need to get a closer look," she giggled as she sucked on her finger again.

I watched as she moved down to the end of the bed. Spreading my legs apart for her, she kneeled between them and reached out to run her hand over my pussy and inner thighs.

"You know, you've really become a beautiful woman," she said, our eyes meeting as her finger found my clit. My body tensed and my hips lifted upward as her fingertip rubbed me in just the perfect way to set me off. God my mom knew EXACTLY how to touch me!

She reached over to grab a pillow and as I lifted my hips she stuffed it under my ass to raise my pussy in the air. Smiling at me the entire time, she dropped her head into my crotch and blew softly on my sensitive pussy and clit. The arm breath felt incredible against me, sending shivers throughout me from head to toe.

"My oh my, a horny little girl, aren't you?" she teased me after seeing my overreaction to her touch. Talk about the understatement of the year!

Her tongue reached out and I almost came on the spot as it twirled around my clit in tight little circles, periodically crossing over it and sending chills through me each time. She kept two fingers in my pussy, stroking them slowly in and out of me as she lapped my clit like a kitten at a bowl of milk.

"Oh mom, that feels soooooo good!" I moaned. I had both hands on m boobs, one over each breast. With the pillow behind my head I could watch her between my legs, see her tongue as it played over my clit like a bow over a fine violin.

My orgasm came quickly and surged as she kept up her relentless assault on my clit. Even as I cried out from the overwhelming surge of emotions coursing through me as my pussy literally screamed with pleasure, she never let her tongue rest for even a second. It was like she was watching some seismograph, judging my orgasm's intensity and adjusting her touch accordingly to keep me right at the peak. I almost felt like I was pissing on her as my pussy overflowed and my cum poured out over her fingers.

"I can't take any more!... Oh god stop, stop mom!" I cried out. No, I didn't REALLY want her to stop but yet something in me was making me say those words. Hell, I didn't want this to EVER stop but at the same time I felt totally out of control, completely helpless as it was like her mouth and tongue had total control over me.

Everything around me faded into black as the only thing I could possibly think about was what was happening between my legs. It was like I was blind and deaf as all I could see was her face buried in my pussy, all I could hear was the lapping sounds of her tongue on my pussy. My entire world was condensed into its bare essence, nothing left but my pure sexuality.

How long it went on I couldn't say but it felt like forever on one hand but only a moment on the other. My mom slipped back up alongside of me and kissed me.

groaning but my mom loved to talk - LOUDLY and moan, again, LOUDLY. I would have bet that most people who thought she was this gentle and quiet mother, never swearing or causing a fuss, would have been shocked to hear the stream of obscenities flowing from her when my dad fucked her! With me she tended to not go quite so overboard but she could still moan up a storm!

I plunged my finger into her wet pussy as I tugged on her clit with my teeth, gently pulling it out and letting it go to snap back. Gripping it with my lips, I pulled on it and sucked it until she was crying again for me to make her cum. Well damn, I was doing the best I could!

Sensing she was close, I lifted my leg and straddled her, letting my pussy hover over her face. As I dropped my pussy down closer, she wrapped her arms around my hips and put her hands on my ass, pulling me tighter into the waiting face. She was too absorbed in my mouth on her clit to do much with mine but I could feel her hot breath against my pussy and then her face moving under it as I dipped it down closer now and then.

She was cumming. Her hips thrust up and almost pushed me off her as her back armed and she tightened her grip on my ass. I could feel her cum as it erupted from her pussy, smell the thick odor of her female scent as she orgasmed even harder with my mouth all over her pussy.

My mouth was getting tired and my tongue actually hurting from extending it so far but I wasn't going to let up on my mom that easily. She had driven me so far into the stratosphere with my orgasm that I had wondered how I was ever going to land again so I had to do the same for her. She was bucking under me, humping my face like my dad was fucking her instead of my tongue. Finally she suddenly just collapsed, breathing heavily as she fought to regain her breath.

My first instinct was to do the same but I might have smothered her if I had so I twisted around until I was lying next to her almost just the reverse from how we had been before. This time it was me with my leg over her and my crotch was the one pressing up against her leg. We both smelled strongly of sex and I could feel her heart racing as I laid my head on her breast.

Gradually we caught our breath and I moved up higher on her until our lips met once again and we kissed. For the longest time that was all we did, kissing each other long and soft, savoring each other as our bodies pressed together as if we were trying to merge them as one.

6. Dad Can't Hold Back

My mom and I might have gone on all night had it not been for the dick that suddenly appeared in front of us!

Looking up, we saw my dad had stripped and from the looks of things, his dick had made a full recovery and was ready for action once again!

"I think someone needs to be fucked," he said softly as he stroked my mom's hair. At first I thought he meant me since normally that was what he did when it was the three of us. Not tonight it appeared!

I rolled over on my back, leaving my mom laying exposed to my dad. She smiled at him as she realized what his intentions were and raised her arms out to him. He climbed on top of her in typical missionary style and his cock quickly homed in on her busy without wither of the touching it.

"Mmmmmmm, looks like our daughter has you all ready for me," he said with a grin and a wink to me.

"I love you John," was all my mom had to say.

Suddenly something dawned on me that I had never realized before. Never in my life had I ever heard my mom ask my dad to fuck her. In contrast, I was asking him to fuck me all the time but then, I did it because I knew he liked to hear me say it. It was yet another sign of the true love that they shared. She didn't say it because she didn't have to, he knew she wanted him. At the same time, he didn't need to hear her say it to get off, he KNEW she wanted it as badly as he did. Aren't my parents just incredible?

I watched closely as his hips thrust down and forward and his cock slipped easily into her wet pussy. Of course, a forty something mom with a kid isn't going to have the tight pussy of a teenager, but he didn't seem to mind one way or the other. He wasn't fucking her anyway, he was making love to her which was an experience I had never enjoyed yet in my life.

I didn't have to make love myself to recognize how special it was between them. Watching two people totally in love with one another making love is like nothing else in the world. It was special to them as well. Growing up my parents didn't care if I saw them masturbate yet they NEVER let me see them make love. It wasn't until I was sixteen and came home early to see them in the hot tub that I first saw them making love. It was then I sensed the incredible relationship they had and what led to my wanting to share part of that relationship myself as much as possible. Of course, I am talking about when I first gave myself to my dad.

I didn't even masturbate as I watched my dad and mom together. It would have seemed almost sacrilegious to get myself off in the midst of their love making. This wasn't something to get off from, it was something to admire.

When my father finally came in my mom, it wasn't like when he came in me. With me it was like he was fulfilling some fantasy, like he was realizing some goal he had set for himself or satisfying this lust that had grown in him and needed to be released. As he released himself in her, it was like watching a man giving a precious diamond to his lover, like he was giving my mom something more than doing it for his own pleasure. It was so beautiful I practically cried!

My parents fell asleep in each other's arms soon afterwards, leaving me next to them on the bed. As I load there I contemplated the evenings events and overall, I had to say it was quite the successful evening. As I turned over to fall asleep, I resolve to be the first to wake up. There was no need to put out a room service request, I knew there was going to be a nice sausage for me to enjoy come morning. Yes indeed, my dad was going to enjoy his wakeup call if I had anything to say about it!

time we did that and as it turned out, it was also the last. time, at least until now. To understand why I have to explain a little more about our families.

Almost a year before all this I let my Uncle Jim fuck me in front of my dad for the first time. I'd teased my uncle mercilessly over the years, sitting in his lap and flashing him but had never really seriously considered getting fucked by him. After the first time I would let him fuck me now and then but as he is a genuine jerk in my opinion, I really did it more as a favor to my dad than something I really wanted to do.

A couple of days after I did my uncle, I started fucking his son, my cousin Rick. Rick is not exactly the greatest guy in the world but he has a great dick that never seemed to go soft, no matter how many times he came, so it's been fun. The idea of fucking a father and his son was pretty hot to fantasize about but it never happened with my uncle and cousin. The biggest reason for our "discretion" wasn't anything to do with the two of them but rather was my Aunt Shari, the most autocratic and shrewish woman on earth, particularly when it came to sex. My aunt was always making nasty comments to me my mom about the way I dressed and flirted. It would have bad enough had she found out that her husband and son were fucking me and I could only imagine what her reaction would be if we made it into e three-some!

2. Getting Started at the Lake

So much for background stuff. With summer officially closing as of Labor Day weekend, my parents decided to take advantage of the weather and head down to Cheat Lake in West Virginia. Located in a state park, the lake was clean and large and was one of our favorite destinations being relatively close to home. Unfortunately my dad's schedule didn't allow for an overnight trip this year but by skipping church and leaving in the morning, we still had most of the day available. My dad invited my aunt and uncle before checking with my mom, something that didn't exactly thrill her, or me, all that much. It was too late to change since they had already been asked and accepted the invitation so we would just have to make the best of it. My mom and aunt didn't get along all that much and I knew my dad was more interested in seeing Tammy in her bikini than anything else!

Since our boat was still docked at the marina, all we had to do was pile in the SUV and drive for a little over an hour. As it turned out, my cousin Kate already had something arranged with some friends for the entire weekend so she couldn't come which was just as well for me as she was just a nasty clone of her screwed-up mother. Rick had once joked that Kate would still be a virgin a year AFTER she got married. Needless to say, Kate had no idea what her bother and younger sister were doing when she wasn't around!

Without Kate that left just six of us so we didn't have to take two vehicles. Being we were the smallest, Tammy and me were assigned to the more cramped back seat while my aunt and uncle squeezed in the middle seat with my cousin Rick. While Tammy and I were quite comfortable in the close quarters of the rear seat, I noticed Rick was distinctly unhappy with having to sit with his parents, even though his mom took the middle seat. Having turned nineteen just a couple of months earlier, it wasn't like he was some little boy anymore. My Aunt Shari isn't exactly svelte, to say the least, and my Uncle Jim was losing his own battle of the bulge, so Rick didn't have a lot of room for himself. Something told me that rubbing up against his fat mom wasn't exactly a turn-on for him! No doubt he wished my mom would trade places with his - THEN he would have been happier the tighter she pushed up against him, I'm sure.

Tammy and I wear dressed almost the same - loose denim shorts and t-shirts over our bikinis so we wouldn't have to change when we got there. If there was one thing I did NOT like about the place, it was the restrooms. Between the bugs and the things nasty people left behind, they grossed me out and I hated changing in them. At twenty-two, I was seven years older than Tammy but I noticed that her boobs were developing nicely, especially in the past year or so giving her quite an incredible figure for her age, a fact not missed by many of the boys in school from what I heard.

Tammy's mom was also well aware of her daughter's emerging "assets". She was always trying to make her youngest daughter wear more conservative one-piece bathing suits but unlike her subservient older sister Kate, Tammy was a bit rebellious, to say the least. Somehow or another she always managed to wear the skimpiest bikini she could get her hands on. As much as I knew it drove her mom crazy to wear them, I also knew it was nothing to what her reaction would have been had she known the full effect it had on the three men in the car - including her own husband and Tammy's father!

My Aunt Shari was wearing conservative blue shorts and a light blue blouse. Odds were that she didn't have a bathing suit underneath as she never went in the water. She was grossly overweight and I overheard my dad joke once that if she went near the water someone would call 911 thinking there was a beached whale that needed to be rescued. Seeing how she had let herself go, who could blame my uncle for wanting to fuck Tammy and me? The thing that really amazed me was that he wasn't out cheating on her with other women!

One thing to make clear from the start, while they may be brothers, my father and Uncle Jim are like night and day otherwise. The primary reason I submit myself to my father is simply because it's the right thing to do (not to mention one of the ten commandments as in "honor they father and mother"), but at the same time I enjoy doing it. My father also respects my wishes and limits and genuinely seems to try and please me, or at least most of the time he does. I think it helps that I accept the fact that he's a man as well as my father, and that sometimes leads to some questionable situations.

In comparison with my father, I don't fuck my uncle out of any sense of responsibility or even true sexual desire. The reason I allow my uncle to fuck me is simply because my dad wants me to. At first I didn't understand why he pushed me so hard to let my uncle fuck me but I soon figured out. Quite simply, if he lets my uncle fuck me then hopefully he can fuck Tammy more often.

"Soooooo, have you two sluts been behaving yourselves back there?"

"What do you think?" I taunted him in returned, flashing my boobs to him quickly so the people around wouldn't notice. "Bet you wish you were sitting between us instead of next to your mom."

"Yeah, what's the matter big brother, you been horny or something sitting by her?" his sister continued. She glanced around to see if anyone was nearby and flashed her own boobs at him and giggled.

Rick looked around and I knew what was going through his head. He was crazy if he thought we would do anything with our parents due back any second. Besides, the rest area was full of people, many of them walking by the SUV without any warning.

"Well, just so you two know, I'm going to fuck the both of you when we get there."

"In your dreams," I teased him back.

"In your WET dreams," Tammy corrected me.

Just then the door opened - my Aunt Shari was back already. I hadn't even seen her approach so it was a good thing I hadn't given into my cravings and found myself sucking Rick's cock with his mom staring at us. I could see the newspaper headlines already; "Mother goes berserk at public rest area, kills incestuous cousins!"

"Ugh, those restrooms were disgusting!" she huffed, scooting over next to Rick who had turned to face the front again but not before he winked at the two of us.

She carried on about how all state workers were lazy scoundrels and how uncaring government was in general until finally my parents and my uncle returned to "rescue" us from her non-stop tirade. The rest of the trip went on uneventful and we finally arrived at the marina. Parking the SUV, we all climbed out and the guys grabbed the picnic supplies from the rear end. Tammy and I wasted no time in stripping off our outwear and tossing the shorts and t-shirts back into to the SUV for safe keeping.

"You put that T-shirt back on young lady! I can't believe you wore that," her mom reacted almost instantly, "Good gracious Tammy, where did you get that... that THING anyway?"

"Oh Shari... it's OK, let the poor girl be," my mom tried to gently interject.

She put her hand on Aunt Shari's shoulder to try and calm her down. My aunt's face looked as red as a beet, either from embarrassment at her daughter exposing herself in such a slutty manner or from anger that Tammy had defied her mother's express orders.

"Yeah, easy for you to say Mary. I mean, look what YOUR daughter's wearing," my aunt rebutted, "Really Mary, how can you let her go out in public like that anyway? My goodness, she may as well be wearing nothing!"

I couldn't help but grin at that one. Obviously she couldn't grasp that was the whole point of wearing a thong bikini - so it looked like you were wearing nothing, especially from behind.

"Now Shari, let's not get carried away today, OK?" my mom replied softly, trying to play peacemaker.

Indeed, they'd had some heated discussions in the past over how I dressed but if anything, it only resulted in my mother encouraging me to be even naughtier the next time. There wasn't a lot of love lost between them, that's for sure.

Aunt Shari huffed dramatically and resumed walking to the marina but at least she stopped insisting that Tammy put more clothes on. Tammy DID look hot in her teeny red bikini which exposed every curve and bump on her. As we walked together I swear every guy we passed took a good long look at us, and as much as I hate to admit it, she got the most looks.

While the guys uncovered the boat and got it fueled, the four of us women sat back and watched patiently. Well, maybe not TOO patiently as I couldn't wait to get out on the lake and water ski. I can't sing or act or do much of anything athletically but I CAN ski - at least on the water. Snow skiing is so hard and besides, I prefer a bikini to a parka any day. Nothing beats slaloming on the lake and showing off in front of all the guys.

Eventually, after what seemed like hours but was probably less than twenty minutes, my dad announced we were ready to get going. For the next couple of hours we were all over the lake, sometimes just cruising and other times waterskiing or tubing. It was a lot of fun, especially when Tammy lost her balance and was dragged behind the boat before she remembered to finally let go of the rope. The force of the water pulled her bottoms down to her knees and it was a miracle she didn't lose them entirely. We all pretended not to notice but from the stares of the guys and the furious look on my aunt's face, it was obvious we'd all seen her cute little white ass as it was being dragged behind the boat!

3. The Dads Do Their Own Daughter First

It was well past noon by now and we were all starving so my dad headed back to the marina to refuel the boat and grab some lunch. As we headed in, I noticed my dad and uncle talking to each other but with the loud din of the motor I couldn't hear a thing they were saying. From the grins on their faces and the occasional leering look back at Tammy and me, I had a pretty good idea what they were discussing - and it wasn't anything my aunt would want to know about.

Back on shore, my mom and aunt went off to find a picnic table to set up. My uncle pointed at Rick and ordered him to carry the picnic baskets. With the wives setting up and Rick with them, that left the fathers and daughters on the boat, a not so subtle point that even Rick didn't miss and I could tell that he was pretty upset with his dad. Although I couldn't hear what they were saying at the end of the pier, it was obvious from the heated gestures and stiff body language that Rick was royally pissed off at his dad. I remembered his "promise" back at the rest area to fuck the two of us and so I assumed he thought he might be missing out on some 'action". I couldn't blame him because if my expectations came true, he was right!

While Rick was arguing with his dad, I saw my dad talking to my mom who wasn't looking all too pleased herself. She kept glancing towards Tammy and me, shaking her head at my dad. From the way her shoulders eventually slumped, I think my mom finally resigned herself to the inevitable. After all, it wasn't like this would be our first time. My dad and uncle returned as a clearly miffed Rick ran to catch up with his mother.

"Well, it's a go!" My dad said to his younger brother, flashing a double thumbs up sign.

"Fantastic! Guess I owe Mary one later, eh?" my uncle replied, the grin on his face even larger than ever. Something told me that was one debt he was looking forward to paying off.

There was no mention of Rick as Tammy and I took our seats in the stern. It was funny how both of us just seemed to understand what we needed to do without anyone actually coming right out and telling us. Well, it's not like it wasn't obvious after all. It was just over a year ago that a similar scenario had played out and I was positive that Tammy remembered the circumstances just as vividly as I did. The key differences were back then Tammy was still dealing with the recent loss of her virginity and had no idea at the time what her own dad had planned for her. Well, it was a distinctly different Tammy with me today, THAT was for sure. It still astounded me how quickly and seemingly effortlessly she'd transformed from being just another little tease at school to achieving "class slut" status. Of course, she DID have a couple of cousins to mentor her.

Given the time constraints we faced, I knew that this year there weren't going to be any games, no pretending that we were heading out to ski or anything like that. We all knew that there was only ONE reason why my uncle and dad would head out to an open lake with the two of us while leaving the rest on the shore. I looked at Tammy and smiled as I saw her anticipation clearly being expressed in the way she was squirming and licking her lips without even realizing it. God she was quite the little sex pot these days, even more so than I was when I was fifteen and that's saying quite a bit if I do say so myself.

Tammy looked over at me and our eyes met and it was like we were somehow linked telepathically. We both knew what we were expected to do next. After all, it didn't take a doctorate in rocket science to know what our father's both wanted - and it wasn't to watch us water ski.

"Ready?" I said with a grin as she leaned closer so she could hear me over the noise of the engine below us.

Tammy nodded and as if following the instructions of an unseen director, we both slipped off our bikini bottoms and dropped them to the deck at our feet, leaving us bare-bottomed on the sun-warm bench seat. There was enough of a seat back that anyone going by wouldn't have been able to see that we were both lacking our bikini bottoms as we kept our tops on, but the naughty thrill remained anyway. Up front, my uncle looked back and seeing what we'd done, gave us a thumbs up while tapping on my dad's shoulder to get his attention.

Looking back at us, my dad also grinned broadly and then turned his attention back to the busy lake, trying to find somewhere we could anchor where we wouldn't be interrupted. Fortunately, the lake was surrounded by numerous tree-lined coves and inlets and eventually he picked one that looked promising. Pulling in slowly until we were out of direct sight of the lake, he killed the engine and dropped the anchor.

"Well, well, looks like we have two horny little sluts with us, eh Jim?" my dad gloated with a grin.

"Yeah, looks that way John," my Uncle Jim replied, "What do you think we should do with them?"

duty over my head. Uncle Jim, on the other hand, had made it known to Tammy early on that it was her duty to satisfy him, even more so since her sister didn't do her part so Tammy had to fill in for Kate as well.

It wasn't like we had all afternoon and I was getting a bit anxious at the delay. My mom would only be able to stall my aunt for so long so if we were going do anything, there was no point in playing these games or pretending we all didn't want the same thing. A sense of relief filled me when both men stepped forward and we each grabbed our assigned cock, stroking them a little and then leaning forward, as if synchronized together, to take their stiffening dicks in our hungry mouths. God it felt wonderful to suck my dad's dick again!

What is it about sucking a dick that girls love so much? I've tried to describe that so many times and each time I realize afterwards that I didn't even come close to properly explaining myself. Feeling a guy's dick in my mouth, my lips surrounding his thickening shaft and the tip of his cock head laying against my tongue produces one of the most amazing sensations in the world. Then when you make that my DAD'S dick, it takes it to even another level above that.

Finally, add in the thrill of being watched by my uncle and sexy little cousin and well, that is just an unexplainable phenomenon. Taking a man's dick in my pussy is more natural, an act of procreation, if you want to look at it that way, shared by many creatures in the animal kingdom. On the other hand, no other species in the world has the female taking the male's dick in her mouth for the sole purpose of pleasuring him. It's an feat unique to human beings and thus to many people that makes it an "unnatural" act. In my opinion, as well as those of people once in high government office, it's not "sex" as there is no act of mating involved, no penetration of a vagina. It's simply an act of submission and obedience by a woman to her man.

It's important that men realize that last statement. If the act of sucking on a stiff fleshy stick was pleasurable for a woman, then we could simply use a dildo like many women do to simulate being fucked. Other than a few porno films where a whore masturbates while sucking a dildo, I've never known a girl that gets off from it except when it's done to tease a guy. No, it has to be the REAL thing to make me feel good. Even then, it's not the dick itself that does it for me but rather it's ALL about the act of my submission, all about HIS pleasure, that makes it hot for me. Knowing what I can do for a man with just my mouth, knowing what he will do just to have me suck him, creates one of the most erotic sensations possible.

anxious I was at the time. It was one thing to tell my boyfriend to fuck me, but adding that simple "daddy" to the end of it added another dimension entirely. Just as I loved to say it to him, I knew he loved to hear it. Perhaps it helped him to deal with the complexities of fucking his own daughter to hear her say she WANTED him to fuck her. It wasn't that it was just OK to fuck me, I was telling him I WANTED it which was so much more powerful.

"I want to fuck you too baby," he whispered, barely audible over the panting and moaning of my horny little cousin. "God I love fucking you."

From the sound of it, on the other side of the boat they'd gotten right down to it as my uncle was already thrusting himself in and out of his youngest daughter like some sort of wild man. She looked like such a tiny and innocent thing compared to him as he hovered over her small body. Well, she may LOOK all innocent and sweet but with my eyes closed she sounded like a bitch in heat twice her age as she moaned and cried out for her daddy to fuck her harder and deeper. How much of it was real and how much was an act intended to please her demanding father was impossible to tell but I was sure that he didn't care one way or the other.

Rather than just slamming his rigid cock into me and fucking me like a whore as his brother was doing with Tammy, my dad pushed his dick firmly against my pussy but didn't force himself in right off the bat. Indeed, it was more my pushing back against him that eventually drove his cock into me, forcing my pussy to spread open to accept the fleshy intruder. The harder I pushed back, the deeper he penetrated me until finally I felt my bare ass pressed up against his hairy crotch.

"God your pussy feels so good," I heard him moan as I started to rock back and forth while he stood there rigid as a statue - and not just his dick.

It was like it was more me fucking him at the moment as his dick stood still and I moved back and forth on it. For god knows what reason, the words of an old science teacher about relative motion popped into my head which I quickly pushed aside. Did it matter to my pussy if I was moving relative to his dick or if his dick was thrusting in and out of me like a piston? What counted was the feeling his cock created in me as I felt the shaft glide in and out of me, rubbing against the inside of my pussy and stimulating the millions of nerve endings that awaited it (at least it FELT like millions).

"I love your dick in me daddy! I love it when you fuck me!"

I knew he liked me to talk when he fucked me and so I tried to keep up a running commentary on the way he felt inside of me, like a sportscaster calling the plays. I moaned and told him how good his dick felt as it spread my pussy apart. Between groans he heard how much I loved it when he pressed it deep inside of me. Between sentences it was like the patter of an auctioneer or old- time preacher, repeating myself over and over as I begged him to keep fucking me and do it harder and how good it felt.

4. Swapping Daughters

"OK Jim, that's enough, don't you think?"

My dad's words to my uncle hit me like a rock over my head. Damn, here I was doing everything I could for him and apparently all he was thinking about was when it was going to be his turn to fuck my cousin. Was how my mom must feel at times when my dad fucks me in front of her? My mom had never mentioned anything about it in that way to me but still, did she? I mean, was I just some sort of warm-up for him to get him hard so he could fuck Tammy. I made me feel like I was on the set of some porn flick and I was just one of the whores on the set whose job it was to keep the star hard while waiting for his next scene.

"Give me a break John, why not just fuck your own daughter?" Uncle Jim protested.

"Dammit Jim, you never complained about fucking Kelly before. Besides, you STILL might not be fucking Tammy if it wasn't for me."

The absolute surreal thing about their banter was my dad never stopped drilling my pussy with his dick the entire time but it was if he wasn't even realizing what he was doing. All he seemed to worry about was when he would be able to fuck his younger niece. Sure, it had been a while since he'd last done her, but it still seemed a little insensitive towards me. It took all my willpower not to tell him that if it wasn't for ME, neither of them would be fucking Tammy in the first place.

No sooner did he say it than my dad pulled his dick out of me and headed for his prize. My pussy suddenly felt so cold and lonely, like it had been abandoned. In fact, I felt that way all over. Suddenly the thrill of the afternoon was gone and I just wanted to go back to shore and leave the three of them to whatever it was they wanted, which obviously wasn't me.

"Hey, wake up and turn around!"

I realized I must have drifted off again as my uncle grabbed me by the waist and flipped me over, then pushed me to my knees again. His dick had softened and apparently he was expecting me to rejuvenate it by sucking on it.

"Well, what are you waiting for bitch? Suck my dick," he demanded, grabbing a fistful of hair at the side of my head and pulling me roughly into his crotch.

The scent of Tammy's wet pussy was all over his dick and overwhelmed my senses. Normally that would have excited me except this time as I drew in the distinctive odor I could head my dad fucking her and telling her how much he enjoyed fucking HER. While he never said he loved fucking her more than me, or even mentioned me for that matter, I knew what he must have been thinking. Taking his dick in my mouth, I could taste Tammy's unique pussy flavor on his dick. I started to stroke his shaft as I sucked the head but he would have none of that.

"C'mon, you know better than that dammit! No hands, just your mouth," he hissed at me.

How could I have forgotten? He only yelled at me every time I did it in the past. I reached for my pussy with one of my free hands as I sucked his dick but he wasn't going to let me even have THAT.

"Hey, what are you doing bitch?" he complained, "Pay more attention to my dick."

Sure... Like having three quarters of his cock in my mouth wasn't paying attention to it?

He quickly hardened once again and as soon as he felt ready he pulled his shaft from my mouth and lifted me roughly by the shoulders.

I started to say something, trying to be sexy for him but he grabbed my mouth and chin and stopped me.

"Hey, no talking, just assume the position."

Feeling more humiliated at being treated like a piece of meat than anything else, I sat down and leaned back, lifting my legs up and grabbing my knees to pull them up to my chest, leaving my pussy fully exposed for him.

"Ahhhhhh, now THAT'S better," he growled as he bent his knees to line his shaft up with my pussy.

Amazingly, I was still as wet as ever, a perfect illustration of how my pussy sometimes seemed to have a mind of its own. My uncle's dick easily slid in since my pussy had just been fucked by my dad. He didn't seem to take that into consideration though.

"Shit, you're not so tight these days, eh Kelly?" he complained.

He didn't actually say it but I knew what he was thinking, "You're pussy's not as tight as Tammy's." Personally, considering how many time's I'd been fucked the past eight years I thought I was still pretty tight but after having just been fucked by my dad, what did he expect? Comparing me now to Tammy getting her first dick of the day was totally unfair!

Uncle Jim grabbed my legs and straightened them out, lifting them up and over his shoulders which lifted my ass up and off the seat. He grabbed me under my ass and pulled me up into him even deeper. As much as he revolted me, I couldn't ignore the fact it felt good to be fucked like this - damn good to be honest!

"Fuck me Uncle Jim," someone said and then I realized it was me talking!

"Ahhhhhh, that's better. THAT'S the little whore I love," he chuckled as he drilled me deeper with his dick, "You know you're such a fucking slut... Never could resist a dick, could you?"

Even though I knew I would hate myself for it later, I actually WANTED him to fuck me now. Yes, I wanted his hard dick inside of me and yes, I wanted him to push it in as deep as he could. Believe it or not I even wanted him to cum in me and leave his sperm inside my pussy. The hell with my dad and Tammy, all I was thinking about at the moment was MY pussy and the dick that was filling it NOW. At time like this did it really matter who it belonged to? What was most important was that it was IN me.

"Cum in me Uncle Jim... shoot it in me," I moaned as I felt his dick swelling and his thrusts getting more erratic.

"Shit, I'm almost there!" he groaned.

Just when it seemed everything was alright once again, my uncle ruined everything for me. Rather than cum in me as he had promised, he ruthlessly pulled his dick from me without any regard for my feelings whatsoever and started stroking it with one hand until he started to cum. A stream of warm sperm shot from his dick and some of it struck me in the face while the rest splattered over my boobs and stomach. Load after load emerged without one drop in my mouth or pussy but instead landing all over my hair and body.

Finally they separated and Tammy stood up. Almost instantly his cum started to drain from her pussy and so she reached down to take it up with her fingers and taste it. God what I would have given to have that cum draining from my pussy now instead of feeling it drying on my skin in the hot sun.

Tammy was acting like a little girl at Christmas, practically hopping with glee as her pretty boobs bounced up and down. She bent over to kiss my dad and I heard her thank him for fucking her so good. Needless to say, my uncle hadn't gotten a kiss or compliment from me! Tammy used a towel to clean up the cum and then looked at me with a smile on her face.

"That was so much fun! Did you like it too Kelly?"

Well, what could I say. Really, what could I say at such a moment? Certainly not what I WANTED to say so instead, I said what everyone was expecting me to say.

"Oh yeah, that was incredible. Look what your dad did to me!" I said, pointing at his cum splattered all over me, pretending to be proud of it.

"Oh daddy," Tammy pretended to scold Uncle Jim, "Look what a mess you made out of Kelly! You were a bad boy!"

She was just teasing but she was right, he WAS a bad boy and not in a good way. There was no way I could go back this way so I jumped into the water to wash off the cum from my hair and body. The warm lake water felt good after having to endure the sweaty body of my uncle overhanging me. Tammy jumped in next to me and we quickly washed off and returned to the boat.

"We'd better get back or Shari's going to have my ass," Uncle Jim said to my dad.

Tammy and I put our bikini's back on and I could see the glow in her face. The little slut had cum, I just knew it. On the way back my dad had me stand next to him with his arm around me. Now and then he would grab my ass playfully and fondle me. He seemed to be trying to make up for abandoning me for Tammy but it wasn't enough so far as I was concerned. It would be a long time before I forgot how he was fucking me so nice and then suddenly seemed to only think about fucking Tammy instead.

I thought about Rick back on the beach, probably horny as hell and wishing he had been with us. Rick may not be the most refined boy in the world but he DID have a great cock - the best in the family in my opinion. Hmmmmmm, maybe there was hope for a good day after all! This time I was going to be sure Tammy wasn't anywhere close by!

(Dec 08) Chapter 154: A Night Out With My Cousin

Kristen - cousin (20)

People keep asking me what I'm doing these days and such. So much has changed in my life in the past few months it's hard to even know where to begin but hopefully this will help out. It was time for a change, that was for sure, and what better way than to spend an evening out with my cousin Kristen?

1. How I Came to Live With My Cousin

When I graduated from college last May with my degree in Elementary Education, I expected to return home and to hit the ground running. It was exhilarating when I left the campus, knowing I was returning to Pittsburgh to stay. I assumed that once I passed the state exams for my teaching credentials that I would at least be able to get a substitute teaching position.

So much for assumptions. There were very few positions available at my old school district where I wanted to teach and needless to say, I was at the bottom foe waiting list. Undaunted, I considered taking some grad courses but eventually decided against it when I found how much it would cost. Since most schools pay for these courses once you get a teaching position, I figured why fork out for these costs myself?

Another goal of mine was to move out of my parent's home into my own place. It wasn't that I didn't love my parents. We all get along great. It was more that I felt that I needed to be on my own for the first time. After all, it wasn't like I was a teenager anymore. At 22, it was time to start living my own life under my own rules. Unfortunately, you have to pay rent to live in your own apartment which meant I had to get some sort of job. With my teaching career on hold, the last thing I wanted to was work as a waitress or clerk in a store at minimum wage. I'd never had a job like that in my life and I wasn't about to now.

With my sparse resume, there weren't many senior management positions open to me so I ended up reverting back to an earlier "job" I once had for a brief time while in school - escorting. However, back then I did it primarily to get laid whereas this time around my goal was to earn money for my own apartment. It was more than fun versus money though. The last thing I needed was to become some sort of whore, regardless of the rationalizations. Should that ever surface, it would make getting a teaching job impossible in the future. Thus I chose an agency that specializes in girls for hire but NOT for sex. The pay is a lot less than it would be if I put out, but at least I didn't have to worry about what was going to happen back in some hotel room later.

With my first paycheck in hand, I moved into my own place and life was good. All my life I have lived with either my parents or roomies. I quickly found that there is something about living on your own that makes you feel differently - and see things differently as well. Without going into it too much, I found myself questioning my lifestyle as well as wondering if my parents had "used" me growing up as a teenager.

In my confusion, I quit my escorting job and took on what turned out to be the most boring marketing job in the world. For weeks I fought with my mom, accusing her of the most horrible things and in retrospect, generally behaved liked a spoiled brat. Thanks to some good friends and a lot in introspection, I came through it OK and now things are great for me once again.

My cousin Kristen is a couple of years younger than me. She had recently dropped out of college after two years, recognizing that a college degree wasn't in the cards for her. I love my cousin to death but at the same time, I have to admit she's not exactly the sharpest knife in the drawer if you know what I mean.

What Kristen DOES have going for her is her hot little body and generally uninhibited, and insatiable, sexual appetite. She also chose to go into escorting but in a totally different direction from me. She hates it when I say this, but my cousin is a whore. With a few exceptions (very few), she will do about anything if she gets paid enough. I had some issues with this at first and am still concerned for her, but now I have accepted her decision and just pray for her every day that she will someday recognize what she is doing and find her way out of it. The problem is, she LOVES sex and she makes a LOT of money - probably anywhere from five to ten times more than me! She also has the full support of her mom, so who am I to say anything?

2. Kristen Sets Me Up

Over the last couple of months, Kristen has often approached me and asked me if I would be interested in joining in with her on one of her "assignments" but I always refused. It wasn't until I was totally fed up with my marketing job that I started to think twice about her offers. Would it really hurt to go out with her? It wouldn't be for the money, although unlike when I helped her out with her "fund raising" in college I intended to get my share this time. I started to think about doing it more for the thrill of it. It was sort of like the sex parties my best friend Beth was always trying to get me to go to with her. Not the sort of thing I wanted to do often, but now and then they were "interesting".

"OK, so what's this all about anyway?" I asked her over the phone one night.

"It's nothing TOO wild, trust me," she promised. Yeah right. Coming from Kristen, that left the door wide open to about anything so far as I was concerned.

"Well, how about at least a hint."

Alarm bells immediately went off as I knew Kristen was a master of the understatement. If she said "convention", that was her way of saying it would be a group thing, not something more personal in someone's hotel room who was looking for a hot night with a couple of hookers. "Some girls" undoubtedly meant that Kristen and I wouldn't be the only girls there, making it a group thing. "Hospitality suite" my eye - Kristen only went out on assignments that involved sex and so I could only guess what kind of hospitality we would be expected to provide.

"How long will we be there?"

"Only a few hours."

Thank goodness she was not on a video phone with me or she would have seen my eyes rolling at that one. This whole thing smelled of an all-nighter and I wasn't interested in something like that at all, no matter how horny I was at the moment. She must have heard me sigh.

"Seriously, Kelly," she insisted, "I promise it won't go past 1 or 2 in the morning and probably even earlier than that."

In situations like this, Kristen's word and a dollar bought a cup of coffee but I went along with it anyway.

"So what am I suppose to wear?"

There was a pause and I wondered why it was such a difficult question. Her answer didn't seem too strange so there had to be something she was holding back.

I thought for a few seconds about that. Uniforms? Had anyone else said that I would have imagines of us all in French maid outfits serving drinks and flirting with drunk men all night. Anyone but Kristen, that is. There wouldn't be enough money in such an evening for Kristen so there had to be more than what she was telling me. What was she hiding?

"So are we set? I'll pick you up at 8:00 Saturday night, OK?"

Last chance for me to back out but I just shrugged my shoulders to myself and agreed. As I hung up the phone, I couldn't help but wonder just what in the world I had gotten myself involved in.

The rest of the week I continued at my boring 8-5 job, sitting in my little cubicle doing research for other people and trying not to fall asleep. It was like 5 o'clock would never come and when it did, I was the first out the door and heading for home. During those two nights before my evening with Kristen I must have masturbated more than I had the previous two weeks!

Normally I would have called my mom and told her what I had planned, but it had been months since I had done anything like this and for some reason I wanted to do it on my own for once and not involve her beforehand. In any case, I knew I would be telling her all about it afterwards so what was the harm in waiting a few more days?

3. Horny Before the Party

Saturday morning finally rolled around and I slept in until past 9:00 in the morning! When I woke up, I had my hand between my legs and my pussy was soaking wet. I guess you could call it the girl's version of a wet dream! The first thought that hot my mind was that in less than twelve hours I would be doing something wild and sexy. Although I still wasn't totally sure exactly what that something was, I knew if it involved Kristen and she was inviting me that it had to be pretty crazy.

Laying on my back with my legs spread part, my fingers ran up and down my wet pussy lips, sliding over my clit and making me tremble each time it was touched.

God, it had been almost a week since I'd last been fucked and if it hadn't been for my dad, the last month or so would have been pretty empty - or at least my pussy would've been pretty empty. It wasn't that I wasn't willing to have sex - heaven knows I was. It was just that with my job and all, by the time I got home I would be totally wiped and feeling as non-sexy as ever. It had been a long time since I had been involved in any form of group sex, let alone some kind of gang-bang that I was becoming increasing convinced this would be over the last two days.

My middle finger pushed up into my pussy as I imagined the first guy to fuck me tonight. I say "first" because I was sure he would be only the first of many. The only real question was, how many?

As I fondled my pussy with one hand, I used the other to massage my boobs and run fingers up and down my torso from the top of my pussy to the middle of my cleavage. I shivered as it made me tingle up and down my spine. Bringing my pussy finger to my mouth, I tasted myself and licked my pussy juices off. Mmmmmmm, my pussy tasted so damn good! Would there be just guys there tonight or would I be licking some pussy in addition to lord only knows how many dicks? Would Kristen and I get it on for someone to watch?

Thoughts of Kristen sitting on my face, spreading her pussy lips apart to make it easier to bury my face against her wet and smelly pussy, filled my mind as I put my finger back inside of me again, only this time joined by a second. Mmmmmmm, how many guys would be touching my pussy tonight? How many would want to fuck me or would some prefer just a BJ? Where would they cum the most - in my mouth or pussy or on me lord only knows where? Would they do me one at or time or what? The possibilities were endless and the closer I came to my orgasm, the wilder and more perverted they became in my head.

I was stroking my fingers in and out of me with my one hand while my other took over the duties of stimulating my now hyper-sensitive clit. God, I was SOOOOO close! In the stillness of my empty apartment, my moans must have been heard outside in the hallway as each time my finger touched my clit it was like being nailed with an electric stun gun. Only in this case, instead of being knocked out, I just got one step closer to the inevitable - my orgasm.

"Oh FUCK!" I cried out as it finally came. My back arched high off the bed and then I crashed down onto it as my pussy exploded. The wet spot I was creating on my sheets was the last thing on my list of concerns at the moment.

OK, how do you describe an orgasm? Just as I have no idea how it feels to have an erection, no matter how a guy might try to describe it, how can a man really understand how a woman feels when she cums? Based on my own personal observations, I think the problem men have understanding a woman is that they think of an orgasm as something that occurs between their legs, like the relief you get from scratching an itch - something local, intense and pleasurable in one area of their body.

Based on how they feel when they cum, I think most men have a tendency to think that a woman's orgasm is concentrated on her pussy. Well certainly there is some element of truth in that! At this moment my pussy was tingling like my arm does when I keep it under me too long - only about a thousand times more. Indeed, if that was all an orgasm was, just the sensational pleasure being generated inside my pussy, that alone would qualify as an incredible experience. My pussy always feels great when I cum - and even when I don't. It's what goes on OUTSIDE of my pussy, though, that makes my orgasms truly incredible. That's what differentiates between a good orgasm and a great orgasm (there are NO bad orgasms!).

On a 1-10 scale for orgasms, with 1 being good and ten being cosmic, (remember, even a one is good!), I would rate my orgasm this morning as a three or four. Actually, that's not bad as without a dick in me, the highest I would ever rate an orgasm would be maybe a five or six. Masturbating can make me cum and I love it, but I doubt I ever get more than a five by myself.

Sex with women is enjoyable, but nothing makes me cum like a man with a hard dick in my pussy. The key is that good sex is not just about the physical pleasure. If that was the case, give me a dildo and I'd be able to take myself to a ten orgasm every day. No, it is the emotions and interaction with your partner that takes me up to the top end of the scale. Things like who he is, why he is fucking me, where he is fucking me, etc. all combine to make the difference between an 6 and a 10.

People ask me why I like to fuck married guys. Well, it's not because they have better technique or their dicks were unusually large. If THAT were the case they probably wouldn't be cheating with me in the first place. No, it's the fact they are married, the fact their wives don't know what they are doing with me, the fact that he is risking everything to have me, and so on that drives me up the orgasm "scale". Similarly, my dad doesn't have the most awesome cock and while he's not bad in bed, I have to admit I've had better in terms of technique and staying power. It's that fact that he is my FATHER, that his own daughter is turning him on sexually, that he loves me enough to cum inside of me, that drives me to such an incredible orgasm with him.

Well, that's a long-winded way of saying that my orgasm this morning wasn't bad for getting there myself, but it wasn't as good as it could have been had I had someone with me. When I was done and laid back trying to catch my breath, I wondered if I would be cumming tonight and if so, how many times?

The rest of the day crawled by as every time I looked at the clock it was like I was in some sort of Twilight Zone time warp and evening was never going to come. Around six o'clock I went upstairs to shower and get ready. If the evening went at all as I suspected it would, putting on a lot of makeup and worrying about my hair would be a massive waste of time so I did just enough to look presentable but not like I would for a normal date. I carefully shaved myself, making sure my pussy was smooth and unblemished.

For a moment I considered putting my hair back in a ponytail just to keep it out of the way but then decided that would be going a little TOO casual. I ended up with some nice jeans that hugged me pretty tight along with a pink sheer cami which barely reached the jeans and exposed my belly with every step I took. Looking in the mirror and seeing my nipples popping through, nobody would have to wonder if I was wearing a bra. Actually, something told me it didn't matter what I wore so I wasn't going to make a fuss over it.

All this took me less than the two hours I had available to me so I ended up sitting in the living room, watching out the window for my cousin to drive up. As I waited, my dad came in the room and took a seat next to me. I reached over to him and we hugged and then started to kiss.

"Daddy, Kristen will be here any minute now," I warned him as his hands started to wander over my boobs.

"Well, can't blame me for trying to get what I can until then," he chuckled, his hands reaching under the tight cami and lifting it up to expose my boobs.

"Daddy! You're impossible!" I laughed, trying to pull my cami back down but in truth, it was more a show of effort than a real attempt to counter him.

"So I hear the two of you are doing a whole convention tonight?" he asked as his tongue started to play on my nipples, teasing them and making them stiffen more than the cool air in the living room had already accomplished.

"Oh daddy, you know better than that!"

"Well, that's how your mother described it after talking to Linda."

"It's just a hostess gig, no big deal. Actually, I'm surprised Kristen even signed up for it," I explained.

My dad lifted his head off my nipple and looked me in the eye with a broad grin on his face.

"Now baby, we both know that Kristen NEVER signs up for anything unless it involves a lot of sex and fun."

He put his mouth back on my nipple again and I couldn't help but sigh as my breast reacted to his touch. Wouldn't you know it, here I was with my horny dad on the couch and I was playing like a little school girl turning away her groping boyfriend. Kristen was running late and if she didn't get here soon I must just have to have my own little private party here at home! My dad was certainly thinking along those lines as his hand moved in between my legs and his fingers pressed against my pussy. God, all I needed was to show up tonight with a big wet spot on the crotch of my jeans! Fortunately (or not?), I heard a car horn beep and I looked up to see Kristen waving at me from the curb.

"Sorry daddy, my taxi's here," I apologized, pulling my cami back down over my boobs again. God, my nipples were so big and sensitive now that the touch of the tight material against them made me tingle all over.

"Well, you COULD invite her in and forget the convention thing," he suggested, the disappointment registering clearly on his face. His eyes kept looking down at my boobs and crotch and I knew my mom had better be ready to be assaulted after I had left. God he was so horny that it looked like his dick was about to burst from the jeans he was wearing like some alien out of a victim's chest.

"Oh daddy, stop teasing me. I love you!" I said with a kiss to his lips and a pat on his crotch. Yep, he was hard alright! Well, there would be plenty of opportunities later, of that I was sure.

I quickly left before I was tempted any further and joined Kristen in her car. She was dressed in jeans as well but with her winter coat on that was about all I could see. She greeted me and then headed for downtown.

"I saw your dad through the window," she commented, "Bet he's horny as hell tonight with you heading out with me."

"Well, you should know. I think you've been fucking me more than me lately."

"Hey it's not my fault," she protested, pretending to be defensive, "Someone has to take care of his needs and if you aren't, don't blame me for taking advantage of it!"

4. Getting Ready at the Hotel

We kept teasing each other for most of the ride in. If anything, all our banter about fucking my dad was getting me even hornier and the closer we got to our destination, the more my thoughts turned towards the upcoming events. Kristen was saying anything about it though, so I just kept any more questions to myself. When we got to the hotel, Kristen pulled up to the valet parking section and smiled at the cute guy who opened the door for her.

"Hey Kristen, great to see you again!" he greeted her. Sheesh, was she THAT much of a regular here that the valets knew her by name?

"Hi Mike, get any lately?"

God, she was always such a tease! The girl never took a break from it but I knew she loved the attention and the way guys like Mike looked at her, even dressed in jeans and a heavy winter coat.

"Who's the babe?" Mike said, nodding towards me as Kristen got out of the car.

"My cousin, wanna do her?"

I just shook my head and headed for the door before it went any further. Kristen ran up to join me and grabbed my arm after we went through the revolving entrance door.

"Shit, loosen up Kelly," she teased me.

I looked at her and rolled my eyes as we headed for the elevators. Apparently she knew where to go as I hadn't a clue. As we passed a monitor I noticed it had a schedule up for some convention which I assumed was the one we were heading for. Funny, it didn't mention anything about a hospitality suite!

Kristen pushed the button for the 4th floor. We were the only ones in there and had anyone seen us, we would have looked like any other two girls our age, nothing special or sexy, just two girls dressed casually for winter. When the door opened we were on one of the regular floors and I wondered where we were headed as I had been expecting to go to a floor with conference rooms or suites. Kristen headed down the hallway without hesitation so I just followed along. We got to a room where she knocked and a woman opened the door. She looked to be in there thirties or maybe even forties and smiled as she welcomed us in.

"Good to have you tonight Kristen," she said, giving her a peck on the cheek, "And this must be your sexy cousin I've heard so much about."

I glanced at Kristen, wondering what exactly she had been telling people about me and who was this woman anyway?

"Oh, sorry, where are my manners. I'm Trish," she said, turning to me and offering her hand. I felt a little awkward shaking it, like I was being introduced at some business meeting.

"Come on in, the other girls are already here."

Sure enough, there were two other girls already in the room. Apparently Trish was the organizer or maybe even Kristen's boss (later I learned she worked for Kristen's agency to organize events like this). The other girls looked to be about our age as well. I noticed they must have worn similar outfits as well however their jeans and coats were tossed on one of the beds while the two of them were snuggled together on the other bed. I suppose I should mention they were both nude as well! One was a blonde and the other a redhead although with their pussies shaved, I couldn't confirm if that was their natural hair colors. The redhead was VERY red so I doubted it was natural and the blonde was definitely bleached.

"Kristen, I'm sure you remember Barbie and Alicia from last week," Trish said and then she turned to me and added, "I have to apologize for them being rude and not waiting for you girls, they got here early and were bored - you know how it is."

Yeah right, like I knew how it was! Maybe this was standard procedure for Kristen, but I wasn't use to this group working relationship thing. I wasn't complaining, they were both gorgeous and if anything, I felt a little self- conscious. I would never think of myself as ugly, but most guys tell me they like me for my "girl-next-door" looks, not that I am some model or centerfold. The two girls on the bed look like they were fresh out of a men's magazine shoot! I long ago reconciled myself that when Kristen and I were together, most men looked at her first but now I felt a little out of my element.

"Well, let's see what you've got," Trish said to me.

Kristen was already stripping off her clothes so I figured it was expected of me. Where was the convention we were suppose to be going to? The last thing I had expected was to get it on with two other girls and Kristen in a standard hotel room while some women my mom's age watched!

It was like I was being inspected or something. She wasn't trying to play with me or turn me on, more like she was judging a piece of produce in a supermarket.

"Yeah, the guys are going to love you," she said as she let go of my boob and moved around to take a closer look at my now bare ass. Her hand grabbed my butt cheek as if to determine the firmness and she let go quickly.

"Oh yeah, you'll do great," she summarized, her arms folded as she looked me up and down. You're on the pill I assume?"

"You don't mind going bareback tonight, do you?"

That caught me bit by surprise. Normally, I HATE condoms. Personally, wearing a condom is the most selfish thing a man can do during sex. HE gets all the pleasure and cums, regardless of whether he wears one or not. But what about me? One of the things I love about being fucked is the feeling of a man shooting his warm load of sperm into me. Depending on the guy, the amount varies and sometimes I can't even really feel it but the key things is KNOWING that he is cumming in me, KNOWING I am fulfilling his biggest desire. Wearing a condom robs me of that feeling and so I hate them. Of course, in this day and age a little caution is needed so I had already resigned myself that tonight intimacy most likely wasn't on the menu. Trish must have read the expression on my face as she pursed her lips, looked over at Kristen and then back at me again.

"Hmmmmmm, now Kelly, Kristen assured me that you knew what you were getting into and that you wouldn't have any problems with any of this," she said in a tight voice, looking at Kristen again as she continued, "We're NOT going to have any problems tonight, ARE we?"

"I'm asking Kelly so shut up Kristen...," she said curtly and then turned back to me, "So what's the story girl, you ready to put out tonight or not?"

Obviously MY definition of "putting out" wasn't as broad as hers. As much as I wanted to do this, I also knew I had to draw the line somewhere.

"I really don't care about the bareback thing, but I DON'T do anal, period," I insisted, my face feeling flushed as everyone in the room was now listening and watching the two of us.

"Oh for God's sake," she huffed, "You've GOT to be kidding me. Amateurs!"

I just stood there with a determined look on my face and finally she just sighed and shook her head as if she didn't know what else to do with me.

"Crap, it's too late to get another girl so I guess we'll have to make do with you," she said, obviously unhappy with me. She turned to Kristen and pointed her finger at her accusingly.

"And as for you - this is gonna cost you tonight, you hear? "Fifty percent off your cut and your uptight cousin gets nothing."

Damn, what a bitch! I wasn't about to tell her I hadn't been expecting to make much of anything tonight in the first place, it was mostly just for fun as far as I was concerned. I felt bad for Kristen though, feeling I had let her down a little. At the same time, I'm not a fan of anal and I just wasn't about to start in with it with a group of horny guys who didn't give a damn about me. Having made her point, Trish suddenly reverted back to her mother-hen style as if nothing had just happened.

"So... There's a little time left. You two want to warm up a bit before we go up?"

I looked at Kristen and she grinned at me, nodding towards the other two girls who were going at it on the bed. It didn't take a rocket scientist to figure out what Trish meant by "warming up". What the hell, why not?

My immediate expectation was that Kristen and I would get on the second bed while Barbie and Alicia continued on theirs. Well, if there was one thing I was finding out quickly tonight, everything I assumed was wrong. They must have heard Trish's offer as they split apart and laid on their backs with their knees up, looking at the Kristen and me with obvious lust.

Kristen was ahead of me and she picked Barbie, the blonde leaving Alicia for me. God she was hot! Her boobs looked to be about a full D cup and natural ones at that. She had an hourglass figure I would have killed for and legs that just seemed to go on forever. Her hair, though, was what really caught my eye. It went down the length of her back as was a deep auburn red that shown in the dim light of the room. I felt a bit self-conscious as I crawled onto the bed and straddled her thin waist. She was SO beautiful!

I got the distinct impression that this wasn't the first rodeo for Kristen and Barbie as the two of them were locked into a 69 before I was even in bed with Alicia. It didn't surprise me as I knew Kristen loved girls as much, if not more, than guys and I had no doubt she took advantage of her co-workers whenever possible. Alicia certainly didn't seem to be shy as she lifted herself up and grabbed me by the upper arms and pulled me back down onto the bed on top of her. Without a word we started kissing and I felt her hands roaming all over me, with special interest to my ass.

I had a good idea what she wanted so I lifted myself back up again and straddled her face, holding onto the headboard mounted on the wall behind her for balance. She bunched up the pillow under her head so her face was planted firmly in my crotch. No sooner was I in place than each of her hands cupped one of my buttocks and she pulled me in even tighter to her face. Her tongue started to explore my freshly shaven pussy and it quickly found its mark - my clit. I had to say one thing for Alicia, this girl knew how to eat pussy! God it felt incredible as her mouth went to work on me. Her one hand reached under and I felt her finger push its way into my now wet pussy as her tongue continued to do its magic on my clit.

"God that feel so good," I gasped, my hands gripping the headboard so tight my knuckles were white.

I rocked reflexively onto her face, grinding my pussy into it and feeling her nose rubbing against me as her tongue flickered over my sensitive clit. I knew from the moans and groans beside me that Kristen and Barbie were enjoying each other as well but at this moment my full attention was on the incredible job Alicia was doing on my pussy. Yeah, she was a professional, there was no doubt about that!

I heard some clicks and I realized that Trish must be taking some photos of the action on the bed. I imagine it would sell pretty good, four twenty-something girls getting it on pressed tight together on a double bed. The flash was a little annoying but Alicia suddenly sped up her tongue attack on me and any further concerns about Trish disappeared as the pleasure rolled over me like a flood thanks to Alicia's fantastic tongue on me.

"Oh god, I'm cumming," I cried out.

I guess being horny all day, teasing my dad, teasing the valet, and now being eaten by this beautiful girl all conspired to bring me to my orgasm even faster than usual. Whatever the full reason, it didn't matter as I felt my pussy flood her face with my cum as she eagerly lapped it up like a cat at a bowl of milk. Finally I collapsed on her face.

Looking back, I have no idea how she was able to breathe! My entire body felt like the thermostat in the room had been raised to 100 degrees yet I was shivering with goose bumps all over me like it was the middle of winter instead. It was now my turn to return the favor and I had to admit, I was looking forward to it when Trish broke in, mother hen once again.

A collective sigh went up from all four of us but Trish would have none of it.

"Don't give me any shit," she teased us, "You gals have work to do so enough of playtime."

Reluctantly I got off the bed and as I passed by Trish, she playfully smacked me on my bare ass and said, "Well, maybe you'll work out after all." Then she gave me a wink and let me by.

Kristen had mentioned something about us being given "uniforms" or some sort of costumes to wear for the night, but I didn't see anything around other than out own clothes.

"There are extra robes in the bathroom," Trish explained to me. The other girls were already heading that way so apparently this was routine but I was a first- timer to all this and had no clue how to act or behave. Kristen emerged with two of them and handed one to me.

"No uniforms?" I asked her quietly.

"C'mon Kelly, what were you expecting, French Maid costumes?" she said with a sly grin. "Welcome to the big leagues."

5. Showing Off the Merchandise

I put on the robe which was standard hotel issue meaning it hung down well past my knees and wrapped around me to effectively hide me completely. When we were all ready, Trish gave us all one last look-over and led us out of the door and to the elevators. She inserted her a room key card and pushed the button for the concierge level. Now THAT was more like what I had been expecting earlier when Kristen and I had first arrived. Everyone was quiet as church mice during the ride up, the four of us girls barefoot and naked under our robes while Trish wore her formal business jacket over her pant suit outfit. No doubt who was in charge!

The doors opened to a wide area with chairs and formal tables set about for people to meet and discuss whatever they had to discuss. There were several couples sharing drinks as well as a number of businessmen dressed in suits. ALL of them took notice of our arrival and from the way they whispered to each other and glanced our way, I knew they had us pegged for what were- four hookers reporting for duty. Oh well, who cared? Certainly not us!

Trish us quickly down to the end of the hall were a set of double doors awaited us. I could only imagine what size this suite must be to have such doors. I wasn't disappointed - it was like a small apartment. Indeed, I think the place was bigger than my own tiny apartment. There was a living room area with what looked to be a full wet bar, a kitchenette, another smaller room with a TV and some furniture, and then what must have been the bedroom although that door was closed at the moment. Large windows gave a beautiful view of the city and soft music filled the room. There was no sign of any corporate paraphernalia or anything else to directly connect the room to whatever company was sponsoring the event. No doubt Trish's agency had taken care of booking the room for security and privacy purposes. At the moment we were the only ones in the room at the moment although I had a feeling that would be changing soon.

"Well, what do you girls think, something you can work with?" Trish asked although I think it was more rhetorical than an actual question for us to answer.

"C'mon Kelly, let's check out the bedroom," Alicia proposed, taking me by the hand and starting towards the closed door.

"You know better Alicia, you're on the clock now so play time is later," Trish admonished her. "Take a seat in the living room and let me see when this show is getting on the road."

Trish pulled out her cell phone and she turned her backs to us as all four of us sat in a row on the couch while she retreated to the kitchenette to talk to someone She returned in a few minutes with a smile.

"They're just finishing the evening's program so get ready," she warned us.

If I'd been perfectly honest, I would've spoken up at this point and asked what the hell we were suppose to be doing. Of course it had to do with sex, why else bring four prostitutes (well, three plus one pretender) to a fancy hotel suite? What I was curious about was exactly WHAT was going to happen. Were we suppose to tease or what? I resigned myself to playing it by ear and seeing what happened.

Sure enough, it wasn't five minutes before Trish was welcoming several guys into the room. They were all dressed in matching slacks and corporate polo shirts with logos for today's convention on them. As they entered the room, they made a beeline for the bar which was obviously free for them, their eyes looking our way as they did. Trish helped them with their drinks as they started to talk about us.

"Damn Trish, looks like you done good this year!" one of them complimented her. He seemed to be in charge from the general posture of the other three when they listened.

"Well John, you know we always aim to please," Trish replied, obviously sucking up to him but he was too full of himself apparently to notice. Typical guy!

"I'm sure you remember Barbie and Alicia from last year," Trish said, walking over to introduce us, "And we also have Kristen and Kelly for you this time."

"Mind if I get a look?" John asked Trish. Trish nodded her head toward us which was apparently her signal for us to rise and drop our robes as the other three did exactly that and I tried to follow along and keep up. "Damn, you never disappoint Trish," John complimented her, licking his lips subconsciously as if we were all sheep and he was the wolf being welcomed in by a traitorous shepherd.

"So how many did you end up with for tonight?" Trish asked John. I noticed the other guys all stayed in the background but their eyes didn't leave our nude bodies for a second.

"Well, needless to say after last year word got around which is why I asked for more girls this time," John started out, "I handed out over fifty coupons this year."

Trish smiled and I was starting to get a better feel for what was going on. Apparently this was a rather exclusive thing for which guys signed up ahead of time, getting some sort of coupon which served as their entry ticket. But FIFTY of them? I didn't need a calculator to figure out what that meant. Holy crap! How many of them would fuck more than one girl? I had a feeling I was going to be setting a new personal record for most dicks in one night before it was over. The other girls didn't appear to be surprised at all by the numbers, or at least they hid their feelings it better than I did as Trish shot me a glance that got the message across loud and clear - get my act together.

"Well, I think I'll sample the goods for a while if you don't mind," John said to Trish as he gave her a kiss on the cheek. 'You wouldn't happen to be available yourself, would you?"

Trish just smiled at him and stepped back replying, "You know better than that John, you couldn't afford me anyway."

As Trish stepped back, the four of them approached us, trying to look sexy and inviting. It really didn't matter. To them we were four pussies on legs, waiting to be fucked.

They smiled and I got the feeling he was talking to us as much as he as to them. As they got closer they were undoing their belts and slacks and the four of us dropped obediently to our knees, all in a row, shoulder to bare shoulder. John took Barbie as she was at the one end of the line while the other three each took a position in front of one of us. It wasn't long before the dicks were out of their pants and we were off! All that was needed was the bugle sounding the race to begin as the four of us started sucking our assigned cocks in unison.

This was the first time I had ever done anything like this. Like, I've sucked hundreds of dicks so it wasn't like giving BJ was anything special, but this was different. I've even been fucked by a "train" of guys, one after the other but there I was the only girl being fucked and the center of attention. To be in a row of naked girls like this, just another whore giving out a BJ, was certainly a "different" experience to say the least.

Things actually went easier once I got his dick in my mouth and could concentrate on the feel of him between my lips. He was huge pretty well, one of those dicks that grows but never seems to get that "steel rod" hardness most guys get. His was more like a fresh sausage - firm but pliable. Actually, it made it easier to suck as I was able to slide him in and out of my mouth more easily as his dick bent to conform to the angle of my head to his crotch. I tried to stroke his shaft at the same time but he pushed my hand away and seemed to like his balls massaged lightly better.

One thing I noticed right off that while I was doing my best to suck his dick, at the same time he was talking to his friends and comparing notes about how we looked and our cocksucking skills. The guy Barbie was blowing kept lifting her hair up and they all admired how long it was. Bent on her knees as she was, it almost touched the floor.

Kristen was between Barbie and Alicia, leaving me at one end so it was hard for me to see how Kristen was doing with her guy. I suppose it really didn't matter which guy we sucked, from our point of view they all looked about the same! None of them seemed to have an overly large, or small, dick so all in all, it was just your basic BJ for each of us. One thing that surprised me was that they were apparently satisfied to get their dicks sucked as none of them pushed to fuck any of us. I could tell my guy was getting close from the way he was grabbing my head and pulling me into his crotch while his hips shoved his dick deep into my mouth.

"Shit, don't stop, keep sucking my dick," he said, addressing me directly for the first time. "Fuck, I'm almost there," he said. I looked up but he was talking to the guy next to him, not me.

"Hell yeah, they're pretty good, aren't they?" his friend responded, a big grin on his face as he held Barbie's head still and fucked her mouth. “Then I guess they better be for what they charge!"

"Oh fuck!" my guy interrupted him.

He shoved his dick deep into my mouth and I felt the first shot of warm sperm shoot from the end of his cock and hit me against the back of my throat. I almost gagged as it dripped down into my throat and I couldn't hardly swallow with his dick filling my mouth. Suddenly he pulled out and started stroking himself, sending the next couple of shots such that they hit me on my nose and cheeks and then back into my open mouth again.

"Shit Carl, you've been storing that up for a while or what?" his buddy chuckled as my guy just kept cumming, covering my tongue with more cum as I felt his other shots drip down my nose and face.

"Hey, not my fault the old lady's frigid," he retorted, hitting the guy on the shoulder with his fist. "That's it, suck it all out," he said back to me again.

I obediently did as he ordered and took his quickly softening dick between my lips again, sucking my cheeks in as I licked the tip of his dick and took every last drop of cum from him that I could. Soon the other guys were cumming, one of them in Alicia's mouth but the center two were spraying it all over their girl's face and boobs. Kristen seemed to be enjoying it as she smiled and took it all like a trooper.

As they caught their breath and we took our last few tugs on their dicks, Trish suddenly appeared again to check up on our performance.

"Well, what do you guys think of my girls?"

They all chimed in and it was a chorus of "Great!", "Fucking good," and other compliments. Apparently they were satisfied that the "merchandise" was ready for prime time as they pulled up their pants and headed out the door, only to be replaced by a crowd of guys all trying to get in ahead of the other. Trish took control like a master sergeant.

"OK, Barbie and Kelly - to the bedroom…. Alicia - TV room and Kristen, you stay here on the couch. Let's go girls…show time! Make me proud."

I wouldn't have been surprised if he had huddled and stacked hands followed by a "go girls" shout or whatever but it didn't get as corny as that, thank god. Barbie and I hustled off to the bedroom while Trish tried to maintain some semblance of order with the incoming crowd of horny men.

"Well, you ready girl?" Barbie asked me as we pulled off the comforter and laid next to each other on the bed.

"I guess," I answered softly.

"So you're an amateur, eh? I take it then that you haven't done this before, have you?" Barbie asked me gently, "You sure you're ready for this?"

"Well, I'm still not entirely sure what 'this' is!" I exclaimed, looking out the door expecting men to start appearing any moment.

"Oh my God, didn't Kristen explain it to you?" she gasped, "That dirty little whore, how could she?"

I must have looked puzzled and the noise level outside was rising so she looked at me in the eyes and said, "OK, we don't have much time so just listen to me. For the next few hours just forget who you are. Forget your boyfriend, your parents, your friends, anyone who you think might care what you do here. These guys only want one thing - to fuck your brains out any way they can. Don't fight them, don't resist, and for god's sake, NEVER say no to anything. If you want to get out of this in one piece, just go with it and try to enjoy it. God, I can't believe Kristen brought you into one of the toughest gigs in town and didn't warn you!"

After her little speech I was about to chicken out and bolt for the door. Crap, what the hell had I gotten myself in to? I knew Kristen was a lot wilder than me and did a lot of things I never would have done, but I hadn't expected it to be THAT crazy tonight. I'd been gangbanged before at bachelor parties and sex parties so I didn't expect this to be any different. Well, as experienced as I consider myself, I was about to learn just how naļve I can still be!

As I said, I was one step from heading for the exit but any consideration of that was brought to a screeching halt when several guys burst into the room, all of them completely naked. Evidently the time delay from when they entered the suite to making their way in here with us was due to them undressing and leaving their clothes behind somewhere. They were followed by several more and the room was starting to fill up quickly. Barbie looked at me and winked, and mouthed a quick, "good luck" to me.

That was the last time for the next three hours I was able to look at Barbie without someone doing something to me. God, how do I even describe what was done to me? I've always talked about my definitions of whore versus slut, feeling smug about my status and looking down at girls like Kristen who sold their bodies to anyone with enough money. I once had this aura of superiority that I chose my partners and controlled my own destiny. Well, talk about a "road to Damascus" conversion! I have a completely newfound respect for the prostitutes of this world! After what I went through tonight, I have no idea how these girls do this day after day, week after week. God, one night was more than I could handle!

In trying to decide how to write about what happened for the rest of the night, decided there was no way I could do a typical "play-by-play". I don't even remember what all happened and much of what did is hazy like trying to watch a movie through a fog bank. What I decided was to pick a few of the more memorable "scenes". These did not necessarily happen in the order presented but then, what difference did it make since what I did one minute typically had no connection to what I was doing a few minutes later.

6. Gangbanged

This was probably the part I remembered the most and the best as I wasn't worn out and fucked out to the point everything started to blend together. The room was filling with naked men of all sorts and shapes and sizes. The best I could compare it to would be a day at the family beach where men of all ages, backgrounds, and physiques appeared showing way too much of what I didn't need to see. Of course here were more than a few guys who would have caught my eye under different circumstances, but the beer guts and hairy backs far outnumbered them. There was one thing most of them DID have in common though, erections or dicks being stroked to try and evoke one.

After Barbie's quick little warning she fell back against the pillows stacked on her side of the bed and "assumed the position" if you want to say it that way - on her back, head up on the pillows, feet flat on the bed such that her knees were up and bent, legs spread apart showing off her pretty bare pussy, and your basic "fuck me" come-hither look on her face. Figuring she knew what she was doing, I mimicked her and the two of us laid there silently, like sailors on the bridge waiting for the monster wave to hit.

"Well, I don't know about the rest of you but I'm getting my share right now!" someone said out loud over the general din of guys whispering back and forth saying god knows what about Barbie and me.

I wondered how many of these guys looking at us like pieces of meat for sale had sisters, daughters or nieces back home our age and if they could possibly realize that someone saw us that same way they viewed them. From the looks in their eyes and the hard dicks in their hands, I doubted it.

Someone broke out from the pack and headed straight for me. He grabbed me by the ankles and pulled and twisted me roughly to the edge of the bed such that my ass was at the edge and my legs were up in the air over his shoulders. He wasn't wasting any time with cuddling or foreplay, no sir! He had one goal in mind – fucking me.

At the same time another guy was approaching Barbi, except he was looking for her to suck his dick so she rolled over on their side and took him in her mouth. After that I wasn't watching her anymore as suddenly I felt my guy pressing his dick up against my pussy, trying to push it into me. Fortunately I was still pretty wet from fooling around earlier and he entered me rather easily, although as my first dick of the night, I was still pretty tight.

"Shit, she's tight!" he crowed as the rest of them cheered him on.

I pulled my kegs back so I could wrap my arms around them and hold them back against me as he stroked himself unceremoniously in and out of my pussy. He may as well have been fucking a plastic blowup doll for all the attention he was giving me. He was more concerned about showing off his sexual prowess to his friends than the woman whose pussy he actually he had his dick inside.

Not to be left in the cold, a couple of his buddies got on the bed, one on each side of me, and dangled their dicks onto my mouth, their intentions obvious. Not really caring which I did first, I turned my head to the one who seemed the most anxious and opened my mouth, letting him push his dick inside. Meanwhile, I was being literally pushed and pulled on the bed as the guy fucking me was going at it like there was no tomorrow.

Trying to suck two dicks at once is more challenging than you may think. Fortunately, both guys weren't afraid to "help" me out, stroking themselves whenever I would do the other to keep things moving along. I say that because some guys seem to have this phobia about touching themselves in front of me. I figure that's probably because they were told that masturbation was bad when they were growing up and so had been conditioned to never let someone see them stroking themselves. Too bad for the, it just took longer to get them off!

From the way things progressed, the guy fucking me was not the first just because he was a show-off, he must have been horny as hell too as he didn't last very long fucking me. It seemed like he had just started when I heard him groan and then thrust himself deep into me and start to cum.

"Shit, he's cumming inside of her," I heard someone exclaim.

Well, the first shot WAS deep in me but then his porn movie "training" took over. Well, I can't say that for certain but it seems to me a lot of guys learn their "technique" from watching too much porn, equating hot porn with good sex - something that wasn't necessarily always the same for me. He pulled his dick out until just the head was inside of me, releasing the rest of his cum barely inside of me. Yeah, just like he learned watching "Creampie Honeys" or some other porno film (BTW - I have no idea if a movie by that title exists but it wouldn't surprise me). When he was almost done, he pulled himself out such that the last smaller shots covered my wet pussy on the outside. A regular porn film star here!

"Let's see it!" someone yelled.

From the feel of it, his cum was dripping out of my pussy and down to my ass. By cumming so close to the outside of my pussy, most of it was being pushed back out again, hence the "creampie" action they all seemed to love watching.

"Alright, I can handle sloppy seconds," someone said gruffly, "Get out of the way and let someone else have a turn for crying out loud."

It was hard to see what was going on with two dicks vying for my mouth's attention but I soon felt what was going on. Another dick was pressing its way into me. With my pussy all lubed up with the first guy's sperm, he slipped easily inside of me and promptly started to stroke himself in and out of me slowly and deliberately.

"Yeah, she IS tight," he confirmed in case anyone was really interested. If that bothered him, the faster pace of his strokes masked it well because he obviously was enjoying his dick in me.

Meanwhile, one of the guys I was sucking started stroking his cock in earnest, letting me pay full attention to the other. As it worked out, they both came together, the one covering my face and the other coating my bobs and upper chest with his sperm. As it turned out, it was but the first of many loads that those areas would receive before this crazy night was over.

I was expecting another dick to show up quickly in my face but I soon found out why they were hesitating. Instead, someone dropped his dick in from behind me and started cumming on m y face from the top of my head where his balls hit me on the back of his head he sitting down so far on me. He must have been jerking off watching the other guys get sucked and now it was his turn to spray his cum over me. Most of it landed on my face but I could tell a substantial also made its way to my hair. Oh well, I knew I would be need one heck of a bath tonight so what did it matter?

The second guy to fuck me apparently wanted to watch the results more and so as he was about to cum he pulled out of me and stroked his dick vigorously until he started to spray cum all over my belly and pussy. Damn, I had barely started and already I had more cum on me than I had had in a long time.

After about an hour, things started to fit into a pattern and it was almost like a rhythm was established. The crowd changed continuously as guys came in, got off or decided to go for another girl. I don't think my pussy went empty more than thirty seconds at any one time during that first hour. After the first guy decided to go for the creampie, almost all of them pulled out and watched their cum squirt out and land on me - somewhere or another.

There simply weren't enough pussies and mouths for everyone at once, so a lot of the guys jerked off and ended up cumming before they could stop themselves. Not wanting to "waste" it, most of them tried to get it to land on me - somewhere. After only the first hour I had been hit by cum on my legs, torso, boobs, face, hair, arms, and even my feet.

As for sucking dick, it didn't take long to realize that technique was secondary when it came to assembly line BJs. After the first few guys my jaws started to tire and I knew I would never make it trying to us my usual BJ style. What I found worked the best was simply to hold my mouth open for the next guy and once he was in, just relax and keep my teeth off of him while he did the work. Hey, it worked! The guys were just happy to have their dick in a girl's mouth.

My only issue was that I LOVE cum and only a few of them came in my mouth. The vast majority pulled out and jerked themselves off so they could spray it over my face and body. I think most of it was peer pressure - everyone would cheer when they started shooting their cum on me, like guys cheering on a chugging contest at a party. Cumming in my mouth may have been more satisfying to me, but it wouldn't have given them as much to brag about later.

So it went, basically the same season repeated over and over just with different actors in the leading roles. I had absolutely no idea who was fucking me most if the time or if a guy came back for "seconds. A couple of dicks seemed familiar when I sucked them but that may have been my imagination at work just as easily. The problem was, I started getting confident, a sort of "been there done that" attitude that this was no big deal and I could take on guys like this all night. Once again, I was making an assumption at was wrong.

7. Losing Control

Back in the hotel room I'd told Trish there was one thing that was off limits - anything anal. She was upset at this, probably figuring she would be getting complaints from the "customers" over it but in the end she agreed to respect my wishes. About half-way through the night, I learned there was one flaw in my plan - Trish wasn't in the room.

Until now, a couple of guys had tried slipping their dick in the general direction of my ass but I had been able to redirect their efforts successfully without making a scene of it. Simply by changing position, letting them fuck me doggie style or riding cowgirl I could get their mind off my ass and then they came so quick there want time to worry about my asshole. Yep I had it all under control. Kelly was in charge.

Boy was I wrong.

I was on my knees, getting fucked doggie style by a guy when he came all over my ass and asshole. No sooner was he finished then the next guy in line stepped up and slipped his dick in my now well-used cunt (it wasn't fair to call the poor thing a pussy anymore the way it was being treated).. After a few strokes and his cock was covered with my pussy and lord only knows how many men's cum, he pulled out and I felt the head of his dick against my asshole, the pressure mounting as he pushed harder.

"Fuck my pussy, that's what it's there for," I tried teasing him. Until now, that line had worked as the guys had been too anxious to fuck me to argue.

"Fuck that, I paid for it and I want it," he growled, pushing away my hand and grabbing me on each side of my hips to hold me in place as he pushed harder into me.

Technically my asshole wasn't a virgin, going back to my escorting days years ago when someone did something without my permission. Back then it led in part to my decision to quit escorting. So far as anyone is concerned, I tell people I have never done anal as I don't like to even remember that time, let alone count it as a "first time". Since then, I have refused anal sex with everyone, even my dad. Oh sure, I have fingered my asshole a couple of times in the shower but that was just natural curiosity and never by anyone other than my own finger. So when it came to taking a dick in the ass - NO WAY. My favorite phrase has been that my ass is a one way street with an exit only sign out front.

Evidently nobody had given this guy the memo that said my asshole was off limits and he was enough of a prick to force the issue. I recalled Alicia's warning about never saying no and I knew if I raised a fuss that things could get out of hand quickly. The thought of being fucked in the ass petrified me but it was nothing compared to my fear of a gang bang turning into a gang rape.

Well, what could I do? What choice did I have? I bit my tongue and held myself there, waiting for him to do it, waiting for what I was sure would be the worst thing to happen to me in my life.

OK, now that is over I can say it wasn't the WORST thing that has ever happened to me, but it ranks up there with other things I never want to do again. Once he realized I was giving in and he could fuck me in the ass, the jerk didn't waste a moment. He took his hard dick in one hand while he spread apart my buttocks with the other. Using his hand to help keep his cock from bending, I felt the pressure against my asshole growing by the second. For a moment I felt a sense of relief as I figured he wasn't going to be able to get it in me but no, he was a determined one.

When the head of his dick split my asshole open, it made my first time being fucked feel like pure pleasure in comparison. Oh my god! It hurt like HELL! Tears were streaming from my eyes but nobody noticed as everyone's attention was fixed on my asshole where he literally forced himself into more and more.

"God DAMN she's tight!" he exclaimed.

Well, this was one time I knew a guy wasn't just being complimentary. I WAS damn tight and from the way my ass was feeling, not stretching out very willingly either.

Who the hell ever thought of doing this in the first place? How could anyone enjoy this? It might have helped had it been under better circumstances, with someone he cared at least a little about me as a person. Not this guy though. he just kept shoving it in further and further, totally oblivious to the pain he was causing me.

"Ah yeah, this is great," I heard him brag to his friends. Then he grabbed my hair and pulled my head back so he knew I was listening to him.

"Let's hear it bitch," he snarled at me as his cock inched in a little deeper, "I want you to beg for it, tell me you want it."

What I REALLY wanted was to twist my hips and break his cock off at the root. What I DID was exactly what he asked for.

"Oh yeah, I love it when you fuck me in the ass," I said, trying to sound like I meant it, even if my voice was about to crack and I broke into sobs.

Once he was all the way in me, he pulled out and it created the weirdest sensations. On the one hand it felt good, or should I say it felt less bad, as his cock came out of me and no longer violated my asshole. At the same time, I felt totally embarrassed as I could have SWORN I was taking a dump and crapping all over us. In my head I knew that wasn't the case but even so, the feeling was weird.

Although he stuck his dick back in my pussy again, any dreams that he might be satisfied with a single penetration died quickly as I realize he was just lubricated his cock for another run at my asshole. A few strokes in my pussy and he was back at the entrance to my asshole except the "exit only" sign had been tossed to the side of the road. Thankfully the second time didn't hurt anywhere nearly as bad as the first but it was still a far cry from being enjoyable. The most enjoyable part of the entire exercise was when he pulled it out of me!

As if just to prove how wrong I was about my earlier assumption that I wouldn't be fucked in the ass, he lasted longer than the usual guy as well and it must have taken him ten minutes to get off. When he did cum, he didn't even cum in my asshole, where you think a first-timer SHOULD cum. No, I felt him squirting his sperm on my ass and legs instead. Go figure!

It was bad enough that he fucked me in the ass. What made it even worse, though, was he set a precedent. At least a half dozen other guys fucked my asshole before the night was over. It didn't hurt nearly as bad with the last guy but I still couldn't say I enjoyed it.

Final note: PLEASE do not come back to me and ask me about anal sex. OK, once again I was dragged into it without my permission but shy should that have to be counted as an anal sex experience. Like taking your sins to Jesus, now that I have confessed to it I expect it to be remembered in the same manner as my other time in college – NOT. If anyone should ask, my answer is still the same – I have not had anal sex and I don't intend to have it.

8. End Game

By now it must have been three to four hours into the night. Damn, had he said fifty guys? It felt more like five hundred – and every one of them had fucked me. Of course that's a bit of an exaggeration, but to call me a cum slut now would be like calling Paris Hilton a little spoiled.

I would have given anything for just a ten minute break and a shot at the shower. I felt absolutely filthy as the layers of cum on me dried only to be covered by yet another layer. It was like my face would have been used for some archeological dig – sifting through layers of sperm to find the original base layer of skin buried underneath. It was like taking Elmer's glue and pouring it over your skin and letting it dry and then pulling it off in one piece – come one, we've all done it when we were little kids.

My pussy was numb. It didn't hurt but it was like running a long race and afterwards not feeling bad but I knew the next morning I would be paying for this. I could only imagine how the poor thing looked by now. Beside the "miners:, guys cumming inside of me and the "firemen", guys squirting their cum over my pussy, there were those who were one step kinkier and held my pussy open while they came into it like pouring water into well. Bottom line, my pussy had been fucked like it had never been fucked before – and that was saying something!

My ass hurt like hell. After the first guy led the charge, it seemed the next half dozen or so had to follow suit. Thankfully, the "ass craze" died out and guys went back to doing my pussy again. Even so, it was tender and I had a feeling sitting down was going to be whole new experience for me later.

The one thing that remained consistent, and that was the steady stream of guys. At times the room filled up more than at others, and a few times I even had the momentary thrill of thinking we might get a break after the next guy, but sooner or later someone always appeared just in time to keep things moving along.

Before anyone asks, I can't say I came the entire night expect for those moments I spent with Becky into the hotel room. I simply couldn't put myself in the right frame of mind for it. Guys can cum no matter what so long as you manipulate their dick enough. Hell, a guy can cum in his sleep it so independent of his head. No girl I have ever met has ever had an orgasm while she was sleeping, no matter what was being done to her. Look how many girls never have one - or least don't have one for years. For a girl it's more a frame of mind than a physical thing and trust me, my frame of mind was not centered around my own orgasm.

As the last guy left the suite, the first thing I noticed was how quiet it suddenly became. No more grunts, swearing, foul language, lewd comments, moans, groans or whatever. I collapsed on the bed in a fetal position, not sure whether I should laugh at myself for what I had just allowed to be done to me, or cry for the same reasons.

"Come on, Kelly, you need to clean up so we can go," I vaguely heard someone saying to me, their hand on my shoulder trying to awaken me. It sounded like they were a mile away and all I could hear was their voice coming out from afar.

I groaned and somehow got out of bed for the first time in hours. I almost feel to the floor as my legs felt like rubber and my sense of balance was off. I felt almost like I had been drugged or was coming out of a coma.

"That's it Kelly, you're doing great," I hear my cousin to the one side of me as someone, Alicia it turned out to be, helped me on the other.

The two of the got me in the shower and started the warm water. God it felt so good. I felt like a complete disaster. I was covered with cum from head to foot and my hair felt like I hadn't washed it in a month except it wasn't grease that had it matted down. Kristen slipped in the shower with me and helped to wash me off.

"God, you really got it tonight girl," she couldn't help but giggle. Then she hugged me under the stream of water and I felt her warm naked body against mine.

"I love you Kelly," she said, her voice starting to crack, "I'm so proud of you. I feel like such a jerk for tricking you like this."

What could I say? I really wasn't mad at her. I wasn't hurt, just exhausted. I'd been fucked by dozens of guys - how many, I really have no idea as I am sure there were a number that did me at least twice. If I was honest with myself, I knew something like this was going to happen. After all, it was my cousin I was listening to and she never told the whole story about anything!

"I love you too Kristen," I assured her, hugging back as I felt better with each passing minute under the shower. It was like washing the cum off of me was taking away the feelings of exhaustion with it.

It took forever it seemed to get the cum off of me and no doubt there would be more to find when I got home. My hair was the worst. Normally I hated it when ONE guy came in my hair because it was so hard to get out and then there was tonight, as lord only knows how much cum had been dumped in it. There was a blow drier in the bathroom and I just blew my hair dry without caring about how it turned out as who would care at this time in the morning?

When we finally exited the bathroom, all fresh again, I was greeted by clapping and cheers from Becky and Alicia.

Even Trish seemed to have softened towards me and gave me a hug. Then we all threw out towels back on and headed down to our room to get dressed.

As we were about to leave the room, Trish pulled Kristen aside and whispered something to her. Whatever it was, Kristen hugged her and thanked her. Then Trish turned to me.

"I've got to hand it to you girl, I never would have thought you would have made it," she said solemnly. "I told Kristen she could have her full share since you carried your share of the loads tonight."

Kristen thanked Trish again but this time she hugged me and squealed as well. I had no idea how much money that represented but I would have to think with the number of guys there tonight it had to be a bundle. Trish had one last thing to say to me before we left.

"You know, we're always on the lookout for new talent. Kristen told me where you're at now and I can offer you a LOT more than you ever dreamed of making there. Think about it, here's my card if you change your mind."

I took her card to be polite but I knew I would never call her. There have been many things in my life I have done just once that I would never do again - slugging down a shot of Tequila, fucking a dog, and now being a true whore for a night. All interesting experiences and none that I would ever regret doing - ONCE. Nope, maybe Kristen can handle this type of lifestyle but it wasn't for me!

(Dec 15) Chapter 155: Dad's Office Christmas Party

Agas (28)

It was supposed to be just another typical brief office Christmas party where lunch is catered, a few gifts handed out, Christmas music plays, and maybe an appearance by Santa. You never know who you're going to meet at such gatherings – or what you'll do with them.

1. Getting the Party Started

My dad is a lawyer for a legal firm in Pittsburgh, specializing in corporate law, whatever that is. All I know is it's nothing like Boston Legal and incredibly boring most of the time. I'm not complaining, my dad is a senior partner and made plenty of money to spoil me when I was growing up (and I'm still growing up, at least according to him).

Every year his office has a small Christmas party. For the past several years I was away at college when they were held and so I couldn't attend. I DID manage to make it to a few of the bigger bashes where the wives and significant others celebrate at some downtown hotel ballroom. Usually I found a way to celebrate in ways a few of the wives might not have approved of had they known..

This year the office party was being held later than usual and so seeing I was home for Winter Break, my dad invited me to come, adding that I might find a few of the new attorneys to be pretty hot. He had this grin on his face when he said it, as if he was holding back some important information. However, try as I might (and I have my ways when it comes to getting my way with my dad), I couldn't get him to confess so it must have been something pretty good. Well, there was only one way to find out!

The party was scheduled during lunch as nobody wants to interfere with those precious billable hours. It was a cold winter's day so I decided drove downtown for once rather than fool around taking the small train transit (the "T") and dealing with walking around downtown. The office building where my father's firm is located has a parking garage underneath so it was easier to just park and take the elevator on up. I arrived a few minutes before lunch and just walked in as there was no receptionist at the front desk. Evidently the festivities had already begun!

I found quickly that the party was centered around the largest conference room. It was filled with people and the buzz was enough to almost drown out the forlorn boom box in the corner as it cranked out some old Christmas classics. My dad must have spotted me before I saw him as the next thing I knew he was hugging me and wishing me a merry Christmas.

"Hey honey, glad you could make," he said as he released me before it started to look awkward, "Here, let me put your coat up for you."

I unbuttoned my long winter coat and allowed him to slip it off my shoulders. As it dropped down my arms to reveal my outfit I heard him whistle behind me.

"Now THAT'S an outfit guaranteed to bring some holiday cheer!"

I couldn't help but giggle a little as I knew he would like it when I picked it out this morning from my closet. I recalled standing in front of my closet, naked and still a bit damp from my shower, debating what to wear. It was tempting to go with the elf costume I had worn at a previous Christmas party. It showed off my body, especially my legs, but I hated to wear the same outfit twice, especially to the same group of people. After pulling several outfits out and returning them to the closet, I finally settled on something I knew my dad would like. Actually my dad likes anything that reveals my legs and shows off my boobs so it wasn't THAT hard to choose.

"So I take it you like my skirt daddy?" I teased him in a low voice that the others wouldn't hear.

"Like it? You know damn well better than that. I LOVE it! Where did you pick up that cute little number? I haven't seen you wear it before."

Actually, I'd bought it months ago when the fall clothes first came out. It included a lightweight tartar skirt that came about half-way to my knees with a white cotton cami with a red button-up, long-sleeved sweater over it. The cami was skin tight and without the sweater, would have been a bit over-the-top for this type of setting as my nipples poked through it like it was Saran wrap and the darkness of my areola was plainly visible. Even though I wore the sweater unbuttoned, it was still enough to cover my such that I was "decent", at least using my definition of the term.

Under the skirt was a black thong. It wasn't one of my more revealing ones as it actually had enough material in the rear to allow it to cover most of my ass crack. A pair of 4 inch sling-back heels finished off the outfit. A pair of pantyhose would have probably made my legs look better being it was December, but other than not being tan I thought they looked good enough go bare.

"So... what are we hiding behind here?" he used as he pulled my sweater to the side, revealing my boobs, "A little snug, don't you think? And transparent too!"

The tone of his voice made it easy to recognize he wasn't critiquing me, not by any means. He quickly replaced the sweater before anyone caught he ogling his daughter's boobs.

2. Meeting Agas

My dad put his hand on the small of my back and guided me into the conference room. Most of the people there knew me, even if it had been a few years since I'd seem a number of them. A few new faces stood out in the crowd. My dad introduced me to most of them and then we came upon a gorgeous specimen who he referred to as "Agas". He had a Russian type of accent and a rather rough-hewn face that was handsome nonetheless. Apparently his real name was about twenty letters long and had been immediately shortened upon starting work to something more easily pronounced. What stood out the most for me was his height. Damn, he must have been at least 6'6" or more!

Agas shook my hand and then introduced me to the beautiful woman by his side. Tonya was almost as tall as Agas and he introduced her to me as his fiance. Tanya was apparently an American citizen whereas Agas was not. A more cynical person may have viewed their marriage as one of convenience for Agas in terms of getting his citizenship but they seemed to be in love so even if such a situation WAS true, it appeared to be a side benefit and not the deciding factor for the upcoming nuptials. Did I mention Tonya was gorgeous? Tall and thin as a rail, she wore a stylish black dress that hugged her figure and revealed the vast majority of her long shapely legs. All-in-all, the two of them made a great looking pair.

My dad moved me on to the next people to be introduced to but I couldn't help but notice Agas' eyes following me as I walked away. For a brief moment I thought perhaps Tanya was looking as well but I put it down as just a coincidence.

"Agas may be engaged but don't let that fool you," my dad chuckled, "I've already had two secretaries complain and threaten to file a sexual harassment suit if he doesn't stop looking down their blouses. Apparently he comes from a slightly different culture when it comes to dealing with women in the workplace."

Before he could say about it anymore, we were up to the next group of people and I was shaking the hand of the newest partner and his intern. For the time being I put Agas and Tonya out of my mind.

As I would have expected, everyone body was really nice to me, just as they always had been over the years when I would visit my dad's office. Although I knew I looked pretty good in my slinky outfit, I was under no illusion that it was my good looks that caused them to act that way. Being the daughter of one of the senior partners was enough to get most anyone to kiss ass a little - figuratively that is. More than a few gave me some looks that might have been deemed "inappropriate" by someone who didn't appreciate them as much as I did, but by and large most of the guys behaved themselves. It was one of the things I noticed over the years that as a teenager the men seemed more willing to flirt with me whereas now that I was in my twenties it was as if they were afraid to do it anymore. It was like it was no longer just goofing around but perhaps a bit too serious now that I wasn't a kid.

After being there about twenty minutes or so I was finally able to get a few minutes to myself - or so I thought. To my surprise, Agas appeared at my elbow, sans Tonya this time.

"Do you mind if I talk to you a minute Kelly?"

"Sure," I answered, shrugging my shoulders as if I didn't think it was any big deal - which I actually didn't at the time. I turned to face him, waiting for him to say whatever was on his mind.

"Sorry, I meant something a little less... public," he said meekly.

I looked at him sharply, wondering what he REALLY meant. He pointed me towards the main office area which was vacant now as everyone was in the conference room. We moved to an out-of-the way corner and he started to say something but then stopped, as if unsure about what he had to say to me.

"Well, what is it that you wanted to ask me, Agas?"

"Ummmmm... you know I've only been here a few months so I've never had a chance to meet with you before," he finally managed to get out.

"Well, I guess you've met me now then, right?" I said, trying to sound light-hearted but wondering what this was all about.

"Ok then... it seems there are some rumors here about you, you know what I mean?"

Of course I knew what he was most likely referring to and that was my flirting around the office. I didn't think even for second that he'd gotten anyone to confess to him what more "interesting" things I'd done at the office.

"Oh? What kind of rumors would they be, Agas?"

"Ummmmm, how do I say this?" he stammered, "That you like to be friendly with some of the men here, you know what I mean?"

Again, I had a pretty good idea what he was talking about - "friendly" was obviously just his way of saying flirting.

"What's the big deal Agas? Heck, I like to be friendly with all the guys in the office."

Agas looked shocked, as if I had said something totally unexpected.

"ALL of the men?" he repeated back as a question, "You mean to say that you have had sex with ALL the men in the office?"

"Whoa big boy! Who said anything about sex?" I fired back immediately, "I thought by 'being friendly' you meant flirting and that sort of thing."

"I'm so sorry, I should have said it better," he apologized, "Let me start over, OK? I meant to say that you have had sex with some of the men here before, yes?"

Well, there really was no point in denying it. Plus, if nothing else maybe he would tell me more about what he had heard about me. I shrugged my shoulders as if it was no big deal for me. Agas' eye widened and he subconsciously licked his lips which seemed to be suddenly dry as a desert.

"What does someone have to do to have sex with you?" he asked, as if he was asking what it took to have me make some copies for him or arrange his travel plans.

It was a little surreal, to be honest, and if it had been most anyone else, I would have started laughing at him for pulling my leg. With Agas, though, his earnestness and intense demeanor signaled to me he was being 100% honest with me. Damn, he really DID want to know what it took for someone like him to have sex with me! It wasn't like he was treating me like a hooker, wanting to know my price for an hour, but rather more innocent and not just a little bit naive in my opinion.

"Well, have you ever considered just asking me?" I replied, not sure how to reply but at the same time, unable to keep myself from teasing him a little bit.

Agas took a deep breath and then let it out slowly, as if he was trying to work up his courage for whatever he wanted to ask me next. It wasn't like it was any surprise when he finally got it out.

"Will you have sex with me then?" he said softly, looking around to make sure nobody was able to hear him ask me.

"Like... NOW?" I asked incredulously, acting as if his questions was a complete shock to me, "What about Tonya?"

"I am not married YET, you know," he rationalized. "So it is OK then? Is there someplace we can do it now?"

He must have assumed that since I had done it in the office before that I must knew where the more discreet locations were - and he was right. Of course, it didn't hurt that I was one of the senior partner's daughters with access to offices he normally never even went in, let alone had a key.

"We could use my dad's office," I offered.

Agas' eyes widened yet even more as he almost choked trying to get the words out.

"Seriously?" he asked, as if he couldn't believe I had even mentioned such a place, even it may have been in jest for all he knew.

"Sure but we need to hurry up then," I encouraged him as I started heading for the hallway leading to the senior partner offices. "The party will be over in half an hour."

As I passed by the conference room I saw my dad talking to a group of people. He caught me going by and raised his eyebrows, as if he was asking me where I was going. I just grinned and tossed my head just enough toward Agas that he got the picture of what was going on. My dad just grinned and winked at me before going back and paying attention to whoever he was talking to. Actually, I was glad he had seen me as now I knew he wouldn't go to his office and stumble upon us until he saw me back again.

3. Agas Fucks Me in My Dad's Office

Agas followed close behind as I quickly unlocked the door to my dad's office and stepped out of the deserted hallway. As soon as we were both inside I closed the door quietly and made sure that it was locked securely. I walked straight to the front of my dad's desk where I leaned forward until I was holding myself up with one arm while I reached behind me and lifted my skirt, exposing most of my tight ass for Agas to see. Spreading my legs, I could feel my thong pulling up tight between my pussy lips and I knew Agas had to be seeing just about all of me that there was to see below the waist. At first he just stood there and stared so I "encouraged" him by wiggling my butt and calling him over.

"Well Agas, are you just going to stand there and stare like an idiot or are you gonna fuck me? We really don't have all day you know."

Somehow I don't think this scenario was what Agas had envisioned. Honestly, I didn't know WHAT he was expecting but I was pretty sure it wasn't anything where I would so openly display myself and be so eager to have him fuck me. I flipped my skirt up over my back and pulled my thong to the side, giving him a better look at my bare wet pussy.

"C'mon Agas, you gonna fuck me or not?" I sort of whined to him, as if I was becoming a bit frustrated which in truth, I was.

Agas moved in behind me and I could hear him fumbling with his belt and pants, dropping them to his ankles but keeping his shoes on which made it impossible for him to take them off completely. It didn't matter as if things went as I expected, he wouldn't need to move from that spot anyway. I looked around to the back of me and I saw he had his stiff dick in his hands, already looking nice and plenty hard for me.

"Mmmmmmm, your dick looks so hot Agas," I purred, "Now put it in me... please!"

There was no way an hour ago Agas could have in his wildest dreams envisioned that he would be in the position that he was sin right now. Obviously he had learned about my reputation from someone and maybe even fantasized about how I might react but I would have taken some pretty good bets that none of his fantasies had been as hot as the real thing was turning out to be.

I turned my head back forward again and stood there, waiting impatiently for him to shove his dick in me but nothing happened. He certainly hadn't been shy about dropping his pants but suddenly he seemed to be a little uncertain about actually carrying out his fantasy. Perhaps he had never expected it to really go this far. Was he waiting for me to snap my legs shut and tell him it was just a joke, that I had no intention of going through this and I was just leading him on to see what a fool I could make of him? Maybe thoughts of Tonya were holding him back. Was he as flippant about his promise to marry her as he had tried to make himself out to be? Maybe a little guilt was creeping in now that he was actually about to DO something rather than just jerk off thinking about it?

Whatever the reason, I was horny as hell and all I really care about at the moment was having a nice warm dick in me. As much as it might bruise poor Agas' ego should he find out, I really didn't give a damn about him except for that stiff object projecting from his hairy crotch. Given the type of party and the location, I hadn't really expected to get laid today. Sure I knew there would be a lot of teasing and flirting, but actually getting some dick was not something I had seriously anticipated. Not that I would turn it down if the opportunity arose (as I was proving now), it was just not something I would have gone home all broken up over had it not happened. Now that the opportunity WAS here though, I was getting tired of the fooling around and my throbbing pussy was getting a bit impatient as well, to say the least.

"Damn Agas, what's wrong with you? I thought you wanted to fuck me?" I whined.

"I... I just don't think I can do this," he said in a small voice, almost like a little boy afraid to climb the rock wall at the fair after bragging to all his friends that he could do it.

Well, he wasn't going to get off THAT easy, not after getting me this worked up. There was no way I was letting him out of this office without fucking me... no way in hell! I turned around and pushed him backwards. He almost fell as his pants were still wrapped around his ankles but he managed to keep his balance and not kill himself as he stumbled a few steps backwards.

"Noooooo... I don't think so Agas. You're going to fuck me – just like you promised," I said with a determined tone as I gave him another shove, harder this time.

Agas lurched back and then he did lose his balance this time. Luckily for him, the couch was right behind him and he dropped down onto it, his bare ass pushing against the cold leather couch cushion. I dropped my thong to the floor and stepped out of, leaving my heels on and lifting up my skirt as I approached him on the couch.

"Well, if you're not going to fuck me then I guess I'm just going to have to fuck you," I informed him as climbed up on the couch.

Once on the couch I straddled his legs and then kneeled with him between my bare legs. He just sat there with his hands to his sides, palms flat on the cushion as he didn't hardly even blink. Reaching down, I grabbed his stiff dick in my hand and pressed it against my warm wet pussy, rubbing my clit with the smooth tip of his cock head. God it felt so good to massage my clit with his dick! He sat there without saying a word as I rubbed his dick up and down my pussy slit, making the head slick with the wetness of my pussy.

"So Agas, are you ready to put your dick in me now?" I whispered to him as I leaned forward. For a moment I thought he wasn't going to answer but then he moaned as if he couldn't resist any longer.

"Yes... yes I want to," he said in a hoarse sounding voice. Then he closed his eyes and sighed heavily.

As much as he knew it was wrong for him to be doing this, I knew he wanted it, desiring it more than anything at the moment. It thrilled me to see him literally submit to his most base desires, yet another man unable to resist his lust when faced with circumstances he had only fantasized about before.

Positioning his rock hard dick directly under my crotch, I slowly lowered myself down onto him, feeling his cock head push its way into me, forcing my pussy to spread pussy apart. God I loved the feeling it give me when a man's cock violates my pussy for the first time! Once he had the entire head in me I paused and wiggled my ass a little, making him move around just inside of me, stimulating me just the way I knew we both liked it.

Then suddenly, without warning, I quickly dropped down onto him, although not in one swift movement but slowly and deliberately, twisting my ass in circles as I took more and more of him inside of me. Finally I was able to put my entire weight on him, driving his dick into me as far as it would go.

"Mmmmmmm, I love your big dick in my pussy Agas... I love fucking you," I whispered again, barely loud enough for him to hear me.

He kept his eyes closed but his hands finally moved from the his side and he grabbed my ass, one cheek in each hand. It felt good as he squeezed my tight ass and I started to rock on his dick, grinding my pussy into his hairy crotch, rubbing my sensitive clit against him. I put my hands on the back of the couch on each side of his head and started to stroked his dick in and out of me, raising my hips until he was about half-way out of me and then dropping back down again until I was pressing hard against his crotch.

"Look at me Agas... open your eyes and look at your dick in me. It looks wonderful buried in my pussy, don't you think?"

Agas finally opened his eyes and he looked down at his lap where his dick was being swallowed by my pussy. Then he smiled and I knew he was loving it as much as I was.

"So tell me Agas, does Tonya fuck you like this?" I taunted him, "Does her pussy feel as tight as mine? Does she like to ride it like this?"

For just a moment I thought maybe I had said something wrong or over the top. His face went blank for just an instant, as if for a brief moment his mind cleared and he realized what he was doing, remembering that his loving fiance was literally just a few doors down the hallway. Then as fast as it appeared, the empty look disappeared, replaced by the one so typical of any man in this situation. Agas was no different than most men. Put his dick in your pussy and he didn't care about anything else.

"God this feels so good!' he gasped as I felt him starting to hump his hips under me, matching my rhythm.

"Tell me Agas... does Tonya fuck you like this?"

Agas groaned again, but this time it sounded more like frustration than anything else.

"God no, she won't even let me fuck her until we're married... not even a damn blowjob!"

Now THAT was a revelation indeed! No wonder the poor guy was so horny. Although I respect a girl's wishes should she want to remain a virgin until she is married, I have never understood the rationale behind it. I once had a roomie in college who wouldn't even masturbate because she considered that "sex" and she was "saving herself" for marriage. Just seems ridiculous to me I guess. What does your past sex life have to do with the man you want to marry? If you both love each other enough to get married, then who cares who you fucked before!

I knew we had already been gone long enough from the party that people might be wondering what happened to us. Tonya may be getting curious as to where Agas had disappeared to but I was confident she had no idea whatsoever what the REAL reason was that was keeping her fiance away from the party. In any case, it would be best to get this over and get back to the party before someone DID start looking for him.

"Cum for me Agas," I moaned softly, riding his dick like I was riding one of those mechanical bulls at a cowboy bar, "I want you to cum in my pussy."

"No! Let me cum on your face," he protested, "I can't cum in you... I just can't"

Well there was certainly no physical reason why he couldn't cum in me so I figured it was more guilt than anything else behind what he was saying. Like it was somehow not less cheating on Tonya if he fucked me and pulled out than to stay in me and give me his cum. Yeah right.

"No way," I came back to him, "I've got you right where I want you. Cum in me dammit, cum in me NOW!"

Although there have been a few times when I wish it was different, one of the great things about men is that they can't control their orgasms. They can protest and pretend that they don't want to do something, but in the end their dicks always betray them. Agas sight SAY he didn't want to cum inside of me but his cock wasn't getting the same message. When it came to a man's lust and horniness, I always trust his penis over his head.

Agas was pushing himself into me even faster and harder now whether he consciously realized it or not. Instinct and lust were driving him more and more. Fortunately, the closer he got to his orgasm the less his rationale side intruded.

"Oh god, YES" he groaned as he lifted his hips high off the couch, driving himself into me as deep as he could. I knew what was happening so I stopped and focused on my pussy and his dick that was penetrating me so deeply now.

"That's it Agas, cum in me... give it to me," I said one final time as I could tell he was still struggling to hold himself back but it was futile, his dick loved being in my pussy and it was about to explode in me any second, whether he wanted it to or not.

"Ahhhhhh!" he groaned as he dropped and then thrust himself into me, firing his first load into my waiting pussy.

Again and again he repeated that move, dropping down and then thrusting himself up into me as his cock shot out yet another load of warm sperm into me. It was like he was trying to not just cum in me, but to mate me was well. He was trying to shoot it as deep inside of me as he could. Eventually he ran out of cum and he collapsed in the couch. I stayed on top of him, feeling his warm dick throbbing inside of me.

Yet again Agas demonstrated he was no different than so many other men I'd fucked. Once his orgasm was over it was like someone threw cold water on him and he awakened to his situation.

"Oh my god, we have to get back to the party," he gasped, looking at his watch. I still had his dick in me and would have preferred to keep it that way for a while if possible.

"Awwwwww, don't you want to fuck me again Agas?" I teased him. I knew there was no way that was going to happen but it was fun to push him a bit.

"C'mon Kelly, get off of me," he said rather brusquely. It was a bit odd to hear that from a man whose dick may be dwindling but was still planted firmly in my soaking wet pussy!

Reluctantly I lifted myself up and I could hear as well as feel when his spent dick flopped out of my pussy, followed by some of his sperm as it started to drain out of me. I quickly got off the couch and dropped to my knees.

"Well, I'd better clean you off before you go back to the party," I said seductively as I took his head in my mouth and sucked and licked the combination of sperm and pussy juices from his hard shaft. Mmmmmmm, it tasted so good!

"God you're even more incredible than they said you were," he sighed. Then he pushed my head back and stood up saying, "I never dreamed this would actually happen. I figured it was just stories they made up to tease me. Damn, you really ARE a slut, aren't you."

I was pulling my thong back on when he said that. I gave him a look straight in his eyes and grinned. "Well, you didn't seem to have any problems fucking me so what does that make you Agas?"

This time I DID push the wrong button. His shoulders drooped and suddenly it was like he couldn't get dressed fast enough.

"What's the matter Agas, didn't you like fucking me?" I asked, "I loved it when you put your cum inside of me."

"I can't believe I did that," he mumbled, more to himself to me.

It didn't really matter a bit to me how he felt NOW. What had really mattered to me was how he felt earlier when faced with the choice to either fuck me or not. THAT decision was what showed how he really felt. THAT was the moment when he had to decide whether I was worth it or not, whether I was hot enough to make him do something he might regret now for the rest of his life. There was just something about knowing I was now permanently etched into his memories. Even if we never met again he would never forget what he had done to me here in my dad's office. There was just something about it that made me feel incredibly sexy and naughty.

"You better go first," I told him as I unlocked the door, "I'll be there in a few minutes."

Agas nodded and finally smiled at me again as he left. He didn't try to kiss me and I realized that he never had the entire time we'd had sex.

For that matter, he didn't even hardly touch me at all except for my butt. Oh well, I guess what counted was that his dick HAD touched me - and as intimately as it possibly could. THAT was what counted most in my book.

As I waited for a couple of minutes I checked myself over. It was a good thing I was wearing a black thong as I could feel his cum dripping from me and knew the crotch of the thong must be getting soaked between his cum and the wetness of my pussy. It was tight in the crotch and my clit was practically burning up as the pressure against it kept stimulating it, even without any deliberate effort by myself. When I finally returned to the party, my dad saw me enter and he pulled me over to the side.

"I take it someone's been a VERY naughty girl?" he said in a barely audible voice. He didn't wait for me to answer. "Let me guess... is that why poor Tonya's been looking all over for her wayward fiancé?"

I smiled at him and he knew instantly he had me pegged.

"You really ARE something else, you know that don't you?" he sighed, "How am I ever going to get him to keep his hands off the secretaries now?"

We both laughed and hugged for a moment. It was already well past lunchtime so the party was starting to break up and the admins began cleaning up the leftovers. My dad gave me yet another hug and said goodbye as it was time for me to leave. He walked me to the elevators and then looked around to make sure nobody was within eye or earshot.

"You know I'm going to want a full report when I get home," he said, as if I was one of his interns working on a briefing paper for him.

"Don't worry daddy, would it be OK if I SHOWED you what I did with him?" I teased him as the elevator door opened.

He kissed me on the cheek and I walked in and pushed the button for the parking garage. I blew my dad a kiss as the door closed and then leaned back against the back wall of the elevator. On the way down it was like it stopped at every floor and it took forever to get to my floor. As the people came and went I could feel my pussy tingling. Was it my imagination or could I smell the sex on me? If I could smell it then certainly the other people in the cramped elevator could, especially the women. Oh well, who cared?

Back in my car, the first thing I did was pull off my wet thong. The crotch was soaked and I didn't want to drive home with it that way and get all chapped. I tossed it on the seat next to me, forgetting that I still had to pay the attendant on the way out. As he handed back my change I saw him looking across to the passenger seat where my thong was sitting out in the open. He didn't say anything and neither did I but I think we both knew what was under my skirt (or should I say, was NOT under my skirt)!

As I drove him I thought about my dad back at the office. Was he as horny as I was thinking about what we would be doing as soon as he got home tonight? Was he masturbating in his office, just as I was now driving through the tunnel to get back home? Well, in just a few hours I'd find out. Something told me dad wasn't going to be late from work tonight!

(Dec 31) Chapter 156: New Year's Party

Story codes: FF FFF F-solo oral
Me (22)
Kristen - cousin (20)
Beth - BFF (23)
Carrie - girlfriend (23)

Just because you don't have any guys at your party doesn't mean you can't have fun. Kristen and I each invited our best friend and you can imagine what a night we had!

1. Making Plans

New Year's Eve is always a problem for me. When I say a problem, it's a similar problem to what I face in my favorite restaurant where there are simply too many options to choose from. Which party do I go to? Do I even go to a party? Just friends or a public affair? Stay in town or go for a road trip? For that matter, what about just staying home and watching the ball drop from bed? My dream has always to be at Time's Square but that will probably never happen so what's a girl to do? This year I opted for something in between. My cousin Kristen was over for Christmas and the subject of New Year's Eve came up somehow.

"So, what do you have planned this year, miss big college graduate?" she teased me.

"What's it to you," I came back, "Isn't that, like, one of the biggest nights of the year for girl's like you?"

Kristen stuck her tongue out at me playfully and pretended to be hurt. By now she was use to me teasing her about her "occupation". She likes to call it "Customer Relations Manager" but I preferred the more straightforward term - whore. It may sound a bit harsh but I simply mean a girl who gets paid for her "services" - which is what Kristen does to make a living, a damn good one at that!

"Well, all the more you should appreciate what I'm proposing," she replied, "How about just girl's sleepover, kinda like we use to do when we were kids."

My immediate reaction was the desire to retort that back then the most we would do is masturbate and giggle at each but I had a feeling Kristen was not going to be happy with just THAT so I managed to keep a straight face and keep my thoughts to myself. At least, I THOUGHT I was keeping a straight face. If anyone could read me, besides my mother, it was Kristen and I wasn't fooling her for a second.

"Well of course it wouldn't be COMPLETELY like when we were kids," she laughed, "But you get the idea."

I asked her who she wanted to invite and she responded instantly. Obviously she had thought this through ahead of time as Kristen wasn't always the sharpest knife in the drawer. Otherwise she wouldn't have dropped out of college for a career that depended more on what was between her legs than on her shoulders.

"I thought we would keep it a bit intimate, don't you think? How about we each bring our best friend?"

It sounded fine with me but as it was already Christmas, I was afraid that Beth, my best friend since I could remember, might already have plans. Again, Kristen was ready with the answer.

"I just happen to know that Beth is free," she said with a smirk. Obviously the little vixen had already asked Beth. "And Carrie can make it too." Carrie was Kristen's best friend, like Beth was mine. We had met a few times and she was as much as slut as Kristen was - she just didn't get paid for it. I rolled my eyes at allowing myself to be so easily outmaneuvered by my cousin - not something that happens a lot, trust me. I had to wonder if someone had helped her to set this up? Maybe one of our mothers?

So we had a plan for the night. I learned later that Kristen's mom, my Aunt Linda, had plans for a party of her own, if you can call being with one guy all night at a casino in West Virginia a party. That would leave Kristen's house to us for the entire evening. At first, I questioned the wisdom of not having any guys. One thing that would be ruined would be my record for being fucked when the new year came in. For the past three years I'd managed to have a dick inside me when the ball dropped in Times Square and it looked like THT wasn't going to happen this year. My goal was to make him cum just as the clock struck midnight. So far I'd come close but it looked like it would be another year now before a guy got another chance to get his timing right.

As the end of the year approached, I came to realize a couple of hidden benefits of going this route this year. For one, I didn't worry about buying a new dress. Sure, a new dress is ALWAYS a welcome addition but it was nice not HAVING to buy one. I didn't even bother buying any new lingerie like I would probably have done had there been plans for guys to join in. I had a feeling the "uniform" for the night was going to be pretty simple - and we'd all be "wearing" the same outfit. Besides not worrying about a dress, there was the savings of having to get my hair done. Again, it never was a BAD thing to spend an afternoon at the salon but I planned to just wear mine straight and free.

There were a few things, though, that still were important, not the least of which was my period was off by a few days last month and normally would have been in full swing at exactly the wrong time. I just had to hope it was permanently shifted now and not just off for one month. None of us, at least so far as I knew, were into dipping our tongues into the red river so I could only pray things went OK and that I wasn't all bloated in any case.

Hygiene issues were the most critical and beside my period I made sure I was shaved and waxed to make myself as smooth as possible. I think some guys wouldn't care if I had armpit hair and stubble on my legs so long as they got to fuck me, but girls are more sensitive about such things - we like our girlfriends to be cleaned up. Just before leaving for my cousin's I took a long, hot, soaking bath with some scented salts, washed my hair, and made sure I was as clean as possible and smelled good too. Lord only knew what I would smell like when I was back home again!

After my bath I went back to my room and checked myself out in the mirror. God, I'm getting so old! A few more months and I'd be 23. For a while now birthdays were just going to be another year added to my age without any significance. Like sixteen you get your driver's license, seventeen you're "no longer jail bait, eighteen and you're a legal person, twenty one and I could gambler and drink (legally at least). What was there to look forward to now but the big 3-0 and who looks forward to THAT? The one good thing was that at least I wasn't fretting about my boobs being too small or fighting a bout of acne right before a big date. I hadn't changed clothing sizes in the past couple of years now and again, that meant things would only get worse in the future if I wasn't careful. Gee, was I being "glass half-empty" this evening or what?

I was musing when my dad called to see how I was doing. I knew that he and my mom were spending the night downtown on some package deal at the Hilton which included a room, party and dinner. Sounded like fun - for old people! I teased him by telling him what I was wearing, or should I say, NOT wearing.

"Much as I like the sound of the outfit, don't you think maybe you might need to add some accessories?" my dad teased me over the phone.

"Dad!" I whined back at him in mock annoyance. Like duh, I wasn't going to be leaving the house naked. Now once I got to Kristen's house, then all bets were off!

"What's this about no boys tonight?" he asked, an amused tone to his voice now. "I thought you were hoping to nail it this year?"

He was, of course, referring to what I had mentioned before about the timing thing. Well, maybe next year he might get a shot at it, who knows? But then again, he had swung and missed once already so would he get another chance at bat? I teased him about it now and then so I guess payback was only fair play. He laughed at me and then said he need to get to the bathroom to get ready for their night out. If I hadn't just spent so much time cleaning up and getting myself all freshened and smelling good I might have considered stopping by on my way to Kristen's but that would just have to wait for another time.

For the ride over, I just threw on some jeans and a sweatshirt. No need to get a nice outfit all wrinkled up when I knew it wouldn't be on me long anyway - or least it better not be. A pair of boots and my coat was I needed. Grabbing my purse, I reached in for my keys and as usual they weren't there. Damn, I NEVER put my keys away where I could find them again. I looked all over and of course, they were in my coat pocket. Looking in the mirror on my way out, I muttered to myself that just because I was wearing my hair blonde these days didn't mean I had to act like I was a blonde!

2. Getting Started With Kristen

It was only a few miles to my cousin's house but the traffic was pretty heavy with everyone heading to wherever they were going for the evening. Nonetheless, I made it there in short order and parked on the street in front. There weren't any other cars I recognized so it looked like I was the first to arrive. Kristen greeted me at the door and I knew it was going to be THAT kind of evening - she was already nude and had a glass of wine in her hand.

Unlike me, my little cousin liked her alcohol and I just hoped she didn't get herself too drunk too early. Actually, to be fair, Kristen hardly ever got all that drunk, just enough to where she did things even more outrageous than she normally would do. I couldn't help but take a second look at her. No matter that I had seen Kristen nude countless times and had sex with her more times than I could ever remember, she was always so beautiful and sexy. Her thin body and girlish looks belied her twenty years, much to her chagrin when it came time to be carded but it made her one of the most demanded girls in her agency. I guess nothing beats fucking a girl who LOOKS like she's underage but is legal. Right now she was standing with her weight on one leg, her hips stuck out and the most naughty grin imaginable on her face. Her perky boobs were a perfect size B and her nipples were already hard and poking out. From the flushness of her face, I had a good idea somebody had been getting herself off while waiting for her guests to arrive.

"Damn Kristen, couldn't you even wait for use to get here?" I teased her. Bulls eye - her grin got even broader as she couldn't help but look guilty.

"Well, what do you expect? I'm here all alone and got to thinking about you guys and then... well, you know."

We both giggled as yes, we both "knew". If there was one thing Kristen and I had in common, it was our love for masturbation. We had masturbated together since we were barely teenagers. Some people seem to think masturbation is for when you're not getting enough of the "real" thing. Well, Kristen and I would beg to differ. We both look at masturbation as just another form of sex no different than being with a guy or a girl, just that in this case we were with ourselves. I've had to explain this to guys who wonder why, after they spend all evening doing their best to fuck my lights out, I start masturbating as soon as when they're spent and forced to take a break. It's no reflection on them, not at all. It's just when it comes to sex, girls like me and Kristen just want more than most girls, more than most guys can deliver.

"So I take it Beth and Carrie haven't arrived yet?" I asked, just to confirm the situation.

"Well duh! Why would I be rubbing myself if they were here?"

She had a point.

"So what's the plan for this evening?" I asked, finally stepping in and closing the front door behind me.

"Well, my dear older cousin, why not start by getting out of those ridiculous clothes? How are we supposed to have fun if you're all dressed up?"

I was under no delusions that I would remain dressed for long when I left my apartment but this was a little faster than even I had expected. Then again, so what? In a way, it was a relief to get my clothes off as I quickly stripped. This was better than playing some silly game when everyone knew what the outcome was going to be anyway. The two of us were now both nude in the hallway and no sooner were my clothes off than Kristen rushed forward to hug me, pressing her warm smooth body up tight against me, pressing her leg in between mine and pushing up against my exposed crotch. It had the effect I knew she was trying for as my clit was stimulated by the pressure against it and I was already wet to begin with anyway.

"Mmmmmmm, you smell good," she murmured, kissing my neck and running her hands over my now bare body. She pulled her head back and we each looked into the other's eyes for what seems the longest pause before as if on cue, we both moved forward until our lips met and out tongues reached out to caress each other I loved kissing Kristen as she just felt so soft and warm against me, sensuous in a way no other girl was with me.

3. Beth and Carrie Join In

We probably would have dropped to the floor and started in on each other when the doorbell rang. Mixed emotions ran through me as on one hand I didn't want to let go of Kristen but on the other hand, I knew who must be at the front door. Sure enough, Kristen greeting our two best friends in about the same manner as she had me In walked Beth and Carrie, both dressed almost exactly as I had been, both undressing almost exactly as fast as I had after I came in. Soon the four of us were standing nude in the hallway and Kristen offered that we all head for the living room. She didn't have to extend the offer twice!

Once in the living room, Beth came up to me and greeted me with open arms. We hugged and I felt her large breasts pressing against mine. We had been best friends since I could remember but I had always been jealous of her when it came to the boob department. When I was struggling to justify a training bra, Beth was already a B cup pushing into a C. At just fourteen, she had a better rack than most of the girls in high school - or college for that matter. What made it "worse", at least for me, was that her boobs didn't evolve into overly large, sagging monsters as seems to happen to many large-breasted girls. It was like she was twice blessed with her boobs growing fast when she was young and then, just as they reached a perfect D cup, they stopped and never sagged, at least no more than you would expect for that size.

Beth planted her hand on my bare ass and gave it a squeeze. "God I love this ass!" she proclaimed to the other girls, "What do you girls think, does Kelly have the best ass or what?"

Yep, Beth was indeed my best friend!

Meanwhile, Carrie and Kristen were "greeting" one another as well. They had only met a few years before when Carrie moved in from out of state but it was "love at first sight" for the two of them. Carrie was a little surprised to find that Kristen still slept with her mom (maybe it was the fact they only have one bed in their small house that gave it away) but that was nothing compared to how she felt when she found out WHY. Carrie was a confirmed slut but still pretty straight in many ways. Sure she liked girls but overall, she was pretty much "normal" when it came to her sexual preferences and incest was NOT "normal" to her. From what Kristen told me, it took just one night in bed with Kristen and her mom to change her mind. Carrie still had no idea that Kristen's uncle (my dad) fucked her or, for that matter, that my dad fucked me. Beth, of course, knew all about me but we had been best friends for so long it was like she is a sister sometimes to me. Maybe someday Carrie would learn the whole story about her best friend but for now, we just didn't discuss it with her around.

Just to give the complete story, Cassie and I had played around a few times but only when we were with Kristen. Beth and I, of course, were "intimate" to the point my dad had even broken the cardinal family rule and fucked her, even though she wasn't part of our family. His rationalization at the time was she was as good as a member so it was OK in this instance. As for me, I had seduced Beth's father once (a long story which I have included in my diary) but it was a one-time thing that neither her father, nor Beth, were keen on entertaining a repeat performance.

Interestingly enough, this was the first time just the four of us had been together like this. Sure we went to the same parties and often did things socially together, but an overnight party where the intended goal was girl-girl sex was something new for us. That's not to say we were strangers when it came to being intimate. Kristen and I had been with Beth many times and a few time with Carrie, but never with them both before. I was looking forward to it - and from the looks of the others, so were they.

At first it was sort of funny as we were all naked and horny yet nobody just jumped right in and got things going. Maybe there is such a thing as being TOO prepared? None of us were what you would call shy and we all were more than ready to take the lead and get things rolling when we were with a guy, but it was almost like two experienced fighters meeting in the ring for the first time. Each respected the other's talents and reputation and both expected their opposite number to be the first to step forward and throw a punch.

Thus for a few minutes there is an uncanny awkwardness, almost like we were all back in eighth grade again, nervously sitting around at our first slumber party waiting to see who would be the first to touch themselves. It shouldn't come as any surprise that the certified "pro" of our group should finally have had enough and get the ball rolling. Kristen was the only one of us who got paid for having sex (at least professionally) and although she was the youngest, she wasn't afraid to take charge.

"Damn, are we all just going to stand here staring at each other or are we going to fuck?" she huffed, her hands on her hips with a look of total exasperation on her face. It was like someone had broken the spell we were all under and next thing I knew, there was a flurry of activity.

Kristen didn't wait for anyone to answer her challenge. She and I had been having sex now for years and I had no doubt that she and Carrie kept each other warm many a night, so it made sense that she had her sights set on Beth. Kristen took Beth by the hand and literally pulled her to the couch, then pushing her backwards so she flopped on her butt on the couch. Like a tiger attacking its prey, she jumped on top of Beth, straddling her with her knees on both sides of Beth's legs. Putting her arms around Beth's neck, Kristen leaned forward and planted a kiss right on Beth's lips. Beth responded instantly, putting her arms around Kristen's slim body, one hand on the small of her back while the other went lower and planted itself on Kristen's cute little bare ass.

Carrie was watching the spectacle along with me and as Beth and Kristen started making out, we looked at each other and shrugged our shoulders, each of us pretending it was no big deal and that we may as well get started ourselves if we had nothing better to do. In reality, I couldn't wait to feel her and taste her. Carrie was a little heavier than any of the rest of us but by no means fat. Her extra weight emphasized her massive boobs and large ass. She wore her long hair in a simply short hairstyle, almost butch.

Our eyes met and I started to say something I hoped would be smart and witty but fortunately Carrie saved me from myself and stepped forward to kiss me. We were about the same height so neither of us had to lean over or stretch and for the first few minutes we just stood in the middle of the room embracing one another. Her lips were full and soft and her breath was already hot and quick as our lips met tightly and tongues explored each other. Her boobs were crushed up against mine as I held her big butt in both hands and pulled her in tight against me.

I glanced over at Kristen and Beth and saw that Kristen hadn't wasted a lot of time on preliminaries but rather had slid down until she was kneeling on the floor between Beth's legs and was eating out Beth's pussy like a she was a dog and somebody had spread peanut butter over it. Beth had both hands on Kristen's head, pulling her into her crotch even tighter and leaning her head back as she moaned softly while Kristen went to work. I felt my own pussy twinge as I was well aware of how it felt to have Kristen eat your pussy. Beth was very lucky indeed!

Carrie didn't allow me to concentrate long on those two as she kneeled down on the floor and stuck a finger up my waiting pussy. She didn't even bother feeling me up or playing with me, but just reached between my legs and rammed her middle finger up inside of me as far as she could. Of course I was already as wet as could be so she slid easily in and I spread my legs apart further to make it even easier for her.

Carrie's finger was quickly followed by her outstretched tongue as she licked my pussy and soon found my already enlarged clit. I gasped involuntarily as she took my clit between her teeth and tugged on it gently. My own hands went to my boobs and I cupped each one with one of my hands and squeezed them, pinching my nipples as I did.

Unlike many girls, Beth was the type to sit back silently and just soak in the incredible pleasure a girl like Kristen was capable of giving. Even so, it wasn't long before the room was filled with her moans and cries, telling Kristen how good her tongue felt on her and giving her instructions and tips for how to eat her pussy. I was facing them while Carrie was licking my own pussy and I watched in fascination as Kristen's hand went under her face and then Beth practically shouted out, "Oh my GOD!" and her hips thrust upward as Kristen must have pushed her finger up Beth's asshole.

Meanwhile, Carrie was doing quite a respectable job on me. Granted, it wasn't a Kristen-style pussy eating but then, I doubted many girls in this world CAN eat pussy as well as Kristen. I gasped again as she put a second and then later a third finger up my pussy, fucking me with her fingers as she thrust them in and out of me like a guy stroking his cock in my hungry pussy. I felt my legs starting to feel weak as my first orgasm approached (I say "first" as I knew it wouldn't be the last by any means that night). What I really wanted was to lay down on the floor and let Carrie finish me off but I couldn't bear the thought of stopping her even for the few seconds it would take to move into a new position.

It sort of gave me a good feeling to be the first one to cum. Even though Kristen may have been better at eating pussy, I had always been easy to bring to orgasm and tonight I was ahead of Beth by several minutes - more if you figure in that she had a head start on me (sorry, pun intended). My knees almost buckled as I felt my pussy explode and my entire body tingled with the onset of my orgasm.

Carrie obviously recognized what was happening - maybe the flood of pussy cum in her face gave her a hint? She attacked my pussy with renewed vigor, forcing my orgasm even higher as it was all I could do to keep standing up. It wasn't long before I heard Beth crying out that she was cumming but I was too absorbed in what was happening inside of me to even look at her or hear much more of what she was saying for that matter.

"That's if Carrie, make me cum harder!" I finally found the strength to say as my orgasm peaked, or so I thought.

God, I loved the feelings that were flooding my entire body, when suddenly I felt Carrie's finger pull out of me and thrust up my own ass! I don't know if it was the shock of what she had done or the stimulation itself but just as I thought my orgasm couldn't get any better, I was off on another level of pleasure.

It was simply too much for me and I collapsed to the floor, my legs shaking uncontrollably. Carrie didn't abandon me but quickly got between my legs and planted her face square on my crotch once again, this time her tongue pushing up into my pussy and her nose pressed against my clit. Again she pushed her finger up my ass and again I was shocked and amazed at the results. My arms were outstretched from my body, like I was being crucified but the only thing being driven into me was Carrie's long tongue and finger. For a moment it was like I couldn't even breath and then suddenly I gasped and sucked in a huge breath of air.

"Oh god that feels so good!" I moaned yet again, repeating myself over and over. Finally, my legs went limp, as did my entire body. Carrie lifted her head from my crotch and laid alongside me, putting one leg over me and fondling my boobs with one hand as she kissed the side of my neck.

As I regained consciousness I became more aware of Beth's orgasm which was apparently still ongoing. From personal experience I knew Kristen could be almost sadistic in situations like this. There have been times I found myself overwhelmed by the intensity of the pleasure she was creating in me and I would beg her to stop, almost in a panic. Would she honor my request and ease up? Of course not. It always resulted in the most incredible orgasm but there were a few times I couldn't help but wonder if I DID pass out momentarily. Beth was evidently on the receiving end of such a "treatment" now.

"Oh my God Kristen, stop!" Beth was begging her, "I can't take any more! Please... STOP!"

Kristen didn't believe that deep down Beth REALLY wanted her to stop any more than Carrie and I did as we watched the show. Carrie's hand felt good on my breast and I liked the way her pussy was pushed up against me as she drew her leg in tighter against me.

"She's good, isn't she?" Carrie whispered to me in awe We looked at each other and grinned, like partners in crime as each of us knew from our own experience what was being done to Beth.

"You weren't so bad yourself," I encouraged her, a grin on my face. Indeed, my own pussy was still throbbing from Carrie's work on it. It was time to repay the favor so I pushed her gently aside onto her back. She knew what I intended and rolled back from me, spreading her heavy legs apart in anticipation.

I crawled around and got between Carrie's legs. Her thighs were a heavier than Beth's, and a LOT more so than Kristen's thin legs, but they were still tight and smooth and felt good against my cheeks. I kissed the soft skin and let my tongue glide up towards her crotch. Somewhere along the way I apparently hit a ticklish spot as she jumped and then giggled as I continued working slowly up to where my prize awaited - her wet and warm pussy.

As I neared her crotch I could smell her pussy, that musky odor a pussy emits when a girl gets horny and wet. God she smelled so good! Now I LOVE the smell of a man's crotch, especially when he has been working out and the odor of his sweat mingles in with the musk of his sex, but nothing beats the tantalizing aroma of a woman's pussy. Naturally the pussy I think smells the best is my own, but I am admittedly a little biased. One thing different about pussies though, whereas I said I enjoy it when a man smells dirty and horny, when it comes to a pussy, I love them clean and naturally wet best, right out of the shower all horny and dripping. Carrie hadn't just come out of the shower, but I could make barely out the scent of her soap even with the overpowering aroma of her pussy doing its best to crowd it out.

"Oh god!" Carrie whimpered as my tongue finally found its way to her pussy.

At first I just liked my way along her labia, getting a deep smell of her pussy as my tongue gently went up her wet pussy lips and then to her clit. "OH GOD!" she cried out this time as I took her clit gently between my teeth and tugged on it just enough to pull it away from her pussy and then released her and let it snap back in place again. I pulled it into my mouth, letting my tongue run around the hardness and then tickling the tip of it as I sucked on it like a nipple.

Carrie put her hands on the top of my head and pressed me into her pussy, pushing my face into her wetness. It was a little hard to breathe but I rubbed my face and nose into her crotch, licking her all over her pussy. Carrie pulled her knees up and set her feet flat on the floor, allowing her to raise her hips up against my face and then thrusting into me like she was trying to fuck my face.

"Lick me Kelly," she moaned, placing her hands under her ass to help hold herself up to my face, "Oh god, right there!" I could feel her trembling beneath me, her hips starting to jerk erratically and uncontrolled as he orgasm approached. It wasn't going to take much at this point to push her over the edge so I took two of my fingers and thrust them into her sopping wet pussy.

"Oh FUCK!" Carrie yelled out as her orgasm exploded. I felt her pussy cum in my face as she worked her hips and kept pushing herself tighter and tighter up against me.

My fingers were thrusting in and out of her cunt, like she as being fucked, as my tongue and lips stayed on her pussy despite all the bucking around.

"Go Carrie!" I heard a voice say behind me and I realize that Kristen must have been watching from behind me as I licked her best friend into a monstrous orgasm. I couldn't help but smile to myself as I thought that two could play her game. When it came to licking pussy, she might have the best reputation but I wasn't too shabby at it myself, even if I do say so myself.

I lifted myself off and pulled my fingers from Carrie's pulsating pussy. Sitting up, I looked around to see Kristen and Beth sitting arm-in-arm on the edge of the coach, enjoying the show in front of them. Both of them were grinning and I noticed Beth was still flushed from her recent orgasm. God, as red as she still was she must have really cum hard!

Carrie just laid there on the floor, oblivious to anything around her. No sooner had I taken my mouth off her pussy than she reached down with both hand and cupped her crotch with her hands, pulling upward on it and toying with her clit in the process. She was still moaning and almost crying as the last vestiges of her orgasm clung on. Eventually she just collapsed on her back, arms and legs stretched out spread-eagle as she let herself relax for just a moment. Just a moment was all she would get as Kristen stepped over to help her sit up. For a few seconds it was deathly quiet in the house as the four of us just looked at each other, amazed at what we had just done. Kristen, of course, was the first to break the silence.

"WELL, now that we got THAT out of the way, how about ordering something to eat?"

4. A Masturbation Challenge

Actually, she had it pegged. It WAS like we all had something to get out of our systems before we could move forward with anything else that night. I was sure that it wasn't the end of our evening, not by any means, but it had been a nice way to break the ice and set the tone for the rest of the night. Kristen ordered out a pizza and brought out some wine and beer. I had to fend for myself, getting up to go in the kitchen to get a Diet Coke as drinking wasn't one of my most favorite things (drinking alcohol, that is). Beth turned on the TV and we all sat on the couch next to one another. Our naked bodies felt so soft and warm against each other. Nobody was even thinking about getting dressed, at least not until the following morning.

The doorbell rang and I think we all jumped a little bit as we had just been relaxing for about a half hour on the couch, forgetting about the time. Kristen jumped up and grabbed the pile of bills on the coffee table that she has prepared earlier and started for the door.

"Ummmmm, Kristen?" Carrie called out to her gently but firmly, "Aren't you forgetting something?"

Kristen turned to look at her and for a moment seemed confused. Then she looked down at herself and we all broke out laughing as it seemed she suddenly realized she was naked. Knowing her, though, I wasn't buying it and is it turned out, I was right.

"Nahhhhh, don't worry, all the deliver boys around here know how I answer the door," she giggled, "Hey, it beats having to fork over a tip and I think they like this better than money anyway, don't you think Kelly?"

The other two looked at me as if I should have an explanation but I was as taken off-guard as they were. The three of us just sat there silently as Kristen answered the door.

"Hey Johnny, good to see you again," I heard her greet someone at the door, "So you have to work tonight, eh?" I couldn't hear the answer but then I saw Kristen wiggle her ass a bit, making her boobs bounce in the process. She was definitely putting on a show for someone! "Hope you liked your tip!" she said in her classic flirty tone and then she closed the door and brought in the pizza.

"We get the most amazing service here from all the delivery boys," she said with a naughty grin on her face. We all knew what she really was talking about and I just shook my head, marveling yet again at my cousin's total lack of propriety. I loved her for it though!

I was surprised at how hungry I suddenly was for something besides pussy and apparently so were the others as we polished it off in just a few minutes. Kristen belched and I thought Carrie was going to choke when she started laughing so hard. For one quick flashback it was like being with my kids in school again, each adolescent boy trying to out-gross the other.

"Well, we still have a couple of hours before midnight," Kristen said as she gathered up our mess, "Anyone have any ideas on what we can do until then?"

I don't know about the others, but I had PLENTY of ideas and none of them were suitable for network TV - or even cable for that matter. Kristen didn't wait for a response before putting out her own idea first.

"Hey Kelly, remember the game we use to play when we were little?"

I looked at her, uncertain as to what she was talking about. We had played lots of games back when we were little so which one was she referring to?

"Oh come on, you remember," she teased, "Or maybe you don't want to because I use to beat you all the time."

I frowned at her, not entirely out of fun either. I knew EXACTLY what game she was referring to now and she wasn't being exactly truthful as I actually beat her most of the time. When she was 13 and I was 14 we started masturbating together. Of course, both of us had started years before but that was when we started doing it together. We never touched each other - THAT wouldn't happen for another four years as it turned out, but it was fun to watch the other person get themselves off.

In many ways, Kristen and I are like sisters and as such, tend to be a bit competitive. It wasn't long before we were seeing who get themselves off the fastest. Regardless of what she might remember, I was the one who won the most! Kristen grinned as she saw the light pop on over my head as I recalled those times we use to have. God, we were so young and naive back then!

"I KNEW you would remember!" she chuckled and then explained the rules to the other girls. We had established a complete list of rules back then to try and keep things fair. Fingers only - no artificial stimulation including dildos and vibrators. Mental imagery only - no visual aids such as porn magazines or videos. Finally, no faking - we had to take each other's word on that one and I STILL think she cheated now and then on me.

Beth and Carrie seemed up for it. After all, it wasn't like we'd never masturbated together before, just not as a contest. Back in high school we use to have sleepovers and masturbation was generally a part of the evening's "activities". Usually it was just part of a discussion over some guy at school or magazine hunk, not really the central focus at the moment but more as an accompaniment. Now, however, the act itself was front and center. It was one thing to masturbate with your friends or even do it for your boyfriend on a date. Doing it as a contest, though, was totally different as Carrie and Beth were about to find out.

We decided to get in a circle on the floor. We each had our favorite position to masturbate in so we spread out and go ourselves ready. Kristen went for the doggie position, leaning down on one elbow while her other hand was up between her legs. Beth was more of a "spooner", acting out like she was being fucked on her side by a guy laying behind her. Carrie and I were more simplistic. We each grabbed a pillow from the couch and laid our heads back on it, our knees bent with our feet on the floor, hands between our legs as we waiting for Kristen to give us the command to start.

"Ready... set... GO!" Kristen yelled and after that, none of us spoke a word other than to moan or otherwise express the pleasure we created for ourselves. As horny as I was still, I didn't think this was going to take more than a few minutes. I LOVED to masturbate and for me, it had nothing to do with the amount of sex I was getting. For me, masturbation is something that stands on its own, regardless of how many times I get laid in a day. There's just something about the feel of my own hand in me that makes me cum as hard, or harder, than anything anyone else can do to me. I've been known to masturbate immediately after sex. More than once, I have had to soothe more than a few bruised egos when some guy took it to mean he hadn't satisfied me enough. How he fucked me had nothing to do with my need to masturbate. I guess because guys can't jerk off right after they fuck, they seem to think girls don't like to masturbate right afterwards too.

As much as I was concentrating on myself, I couldn't help but open my eyes and peek at the other girls. Kristen had dropped to the floor, her hand still under her but now pinned under her stomach as she played with her cute little pussy. Beth and Carrie were each making a good attempt but I could tell they had never tried to race with another girl before. The trick, I had learned, was to forget about everything but the orgasm, concentrating on my desire for it and my need for it over anything else. Beth and Carrie had that look a girl normally has when they masturbate, where having an orgasm is the result, not the immediate goal. Oh well, they were in for a shock.

"Ohhhhhh," I groaned involuntarily as my clit was getting more worked up with each passing moment.

I was SO close now. To help myself along, I remembered when I had been fucked by a dozen guys at a party once, one after the other, nonstop fucking my pussy. Sure, it wasn't something I was thrilled about ever doing again, but it WAS a tremendously erotic moment for me, especially when one would be cumming in my mouth as the next one fucked my pussy with the rest lined up and waiting impatiently. As I said, maybe not the best thing to actually do, but it was the hottest thing I could conjure up to get me off at the moment.

Kristen was starting to moan more herself but I had seen her masturbate enough times in the past to know she was still several minutes away. Beth and Carrie weren't even in the race but at least they were having a good time. I felt my clit surge and then it was like I felt my body going numb and I knew what it meant - I was about to cum!

"Oh yeah, I'm cumming!" I sighed as my hips jerked involuntarily.

My eyes were tightly shut as I imagined one cock after another cumming on my face, in my pussy and all over my body. OK, so maybe it's a mess in real life but that's the great thing about a good fantasy, no cleanup afterwards!

"What?" I heard Beth exclaim but I pushed her out of my mind and didn't even look at her.

She was probably thinking I must have been faking it to have "cum' that quickly but she would have been wrong if that had been the case. Mmmmmmm, I WAS cumming and it felt extra special to have the three of them watching me as I knew they were.

"Oh god," I moaned, not content to just win but I wanted to get off badly as well.

I had one hand on my pussy and the other on my boobs. My nipples were now ultra-sensitive and sticking out like bullets from my boobs. Meanwhile, my clit seemed intent on doing the same as my nipples, getting so hard and sensitive I could barely stand to touch it - but I did. "Keep fucking me... Mmmmmmm, more!" I moaned as my imaginary train of lovers kept filling me with cum, one after the other.

Finally, after who knows how long, I stopped moving my fingers and just let the palm of my hand cup my pussy, pressing gently against my clit as I felt it throbbing under my hand. I was exhausted, my breathing forced and my face felt like I had a fever from being so flushed. I opened my eyes to see the three of the sitting next to each on the floor opposite of me, like they were admiring me as I masturbated non-stop. "Well?" I said with a grin on my face, "Did I win?"

All three of them clapped for me, even Kristen although she looked a little chagrined. As for Beth and Carrie, they were looking at me like I was some exhibit in a carnival show. I could see it now, "See the girl with the incredibly fast orgasm... watch her as she masturbates herself into an orgasm faster than any other woman in the world." OK, so I was being a little melodramatic but you get the picture.

"Damn, that was amazing!" Carrie said. Beth, as my best friend, had seen me masturbate plenty of times before but come to think of it, probably never seen me do it so quickly before. When you think about it, why would she? After all, if masturbating is "about the journey, not the destination", you would expect me to take a long time to get off under normal circumstances.

5. Fun With Toys

We still had plenty of time to go before midnight so Kristen put up her finger as if to tell us to hold on and disappeared up to her bedroom. God only knew what she was hunting for. Something told me it would have something to do with a fake dick and sure enough, when she returned, I was spot on. She was holding what looked like a nice dildo but attached to what appeared to be a male jock strap. I had seen this before, it was one of her favorite toys with her mom as well - the strap-on dildo. Beth looked at me with a questioning look but Carrie was grinning broadly. It wasn't too hard to figure out who had the experience with the strap-on in the past. Beth and I, although was had shared a few sexual experiences, had never even come close to using such a device on one another. It didn't help that I wasn't a big fan of artificial dicks in the first place.

OK, who wants to be fucked first?" Kristen dared us as she strapped it on.

I found myself wanting to laugh at the incongruous sight in front of me. Here was this beautiful and sexy blonde girl with a giant dick sticking out from her crotch. It was almost like she was some transgender experiment or something with the best of both worlds merged into one - a warm pussy and great boobs together with a big stiff dick.

I was more than happy to allow one of the other girls to be first. As I mentioned, I am no fan of such devices, preferring the real thing. If anything besides a man's cock was going to be n m pussy, I preferred it to be fingers - mine or theirs. The only exception for me was my trusty ol' double dildo. I didn't mind that because it fit in both of us at the same time and it was the closest thing to us each fucking each other simultaneously as you could get.

As Kristen moved in on Carrie, who quickly "assumed the position" (obviously this was something the two of them had "practiced" beforehand), my thoughts went to my double dildo and then I remembered that Kristen or her mom had bought one of their own not too long ago. I knew where they kept their toys so I dashed up the stairs without saying a word.

In the bedroom, I opened up the bottom drawer of the dresser where I knew my Aunt Linda and Kristen kept their toys. God, it was stuffed full! And here I thought MY mom was into toys but her drawer was practically bare compared to this wonderland of sex toys. I rummaged through them, marveling at the ingenuity and even wondering what a few of the more oddly shaped ones were used for, until I found what I was looking for - a long, black, flexible, thick dildo with a cock head molded into each end. It was about eighteen inches long and flopped in my hand as I held it.

Back downstairs, I realized that Kristen and Carrie hadn't waited for me to return. Kristen was fucking Carrie from behind, driving her fake dick into her best friend like she was drilling for deep oil. Carrie was loving it, rocking in time with Kristen's thrusts to drive it even deeper into her soaking wet cunt. Bath was patiently waiting for me, watching the show in front of her. She saw me enter the room and immediately recognized what I was holding. Now Kristen and Carrie might be use to sharing the strap-on, but Beth and I were old friends of the double dildo. Beside my college roomie that had introduced me to the amazing device, Beth was the one I had played with the most using it.

"Mmmmmmm, I see you found one," Beth giggle as I approached her.

Beth quickly dropped to the floor on her butt, spreading her legs in preparation for me. I also got down on the floor, one leg over hers, the other under as we scooted up to get closer to each other. Each of us took one of the thick cock heads in our hands and stared rubbing it against out bare pussies. I was still wet from masturbating and even though she hadn't had time to make herself cum, Beth was well lubricated as well. For a few minutes we just rubbed out pussies and clits with the tip of it, wetting the dildo and getting ourselves ready for it.

Beth just wet her dry lips with her tongue and nodded to me, almost a determined look on her face. The dildo had a lot bigger head than 99% of any guy I had ever fucked and getting it in wasn't exactly the easiest task as times, regardless of how wet and horny I was. We each took our end of the dildo and pressed it onto our pussies. God it was so fucking big it was like pushing a baby back inside of me! I gasped as the head finally pushed its way inside and I heard Beth do the same as her end disappeared from sight. We each push it more inside of us until we each probably had eight or nine inches of it in us, leaving just an inch or two showing between our pussies. God it felt like I was filled inside!

With the dildo in each of us, we started to rock on our butts in opposite direction, causing the dildo to pull out and then be pushed back into our pussies like we were some sort of pussy accordion. At times it was like one of us would be tighter than the other and it would stick in one pussy and all the in and out action happened with the other.

Actually, I think my pussy was tighter than Beth's as it seemed to stick the most in her pussy but I would never say that to her face. Beth was much more into gangbangs and dildos than I was which I think takes more of a toll on your pussy. At such times one of us would grab the dildo in the middle and hold it in place so we each could feel it moving in and out together. I loved the feeling it gave me as it was more than just me ramming an artificial cock in and out of my pussy. It would move in response to Beth's movements as well, giving it an element of randomness and surprise that was more like having a guy fuck me than my own hand.

As we literally fucked each other, Kristen was banging away on Carrie like she was possessed. I have never actually used a strap-on as the concept escapes me - why bother? If I want to be fucked I'd rather go out and get a REAL dick. If I'm with a girl, then why not enjoy her pussy instead of pretending she is a guy? Maybe it's OK for a true lesbian to get her pussy fucked that way without having to allow a male to touch her, but for bi and straight girls, I've never seen the attraction. Carrie had moved over to the couch where she laid her arms over the cushions to help hold herself up as Kristen slammed the dildo attached to her waist in and out of Carrie's sloppy pussy like she had been a guy all her life.

Meantime, Beth and I were enjoying our time together, each of us now touching the other's clit as he sat more still and just rocked and rotated out hips enough to move the dildo around between the two of us. I could feel her movements becoming more jerky and erratic and her breathing was getting raspy as her orgasm approached. My finger rubbed her clit as fast as I could and then her hand fell off of my pussy as she leaned back on both hands and her head fell backwards. A loud groan escaped as her hips thrust upward, driving the thick dildo deep into both of us until our bare pussies actually touched, the dildo completely inside between the two of our pussies. I don't know who had more of it but I knew there was a LOT of it in me, that was for sure.

"Ohhhhhhhhh Kelly!" she moaned in a long, loud voice. My finger left her pussy and I started playing with mine, trying to catch up with her with my own orgasm before hers let up. As turned on as I was by then, it only took a few rubs and I felt my own pussy contract around the dildo, grabbing onto it like it was a real dick in me, trying to force the damn thing to cum in me (another reason I hate dildos - no cum). Both of us were now leaning back, our crotches pressed tightly together as we rubbed our pussies against each other, the fat dildo tying us together like some erotic bond.

I don't know if it was just coincidence or the sight and sound of Beth and me cumming, but Carrie launched into her own orgasm as well. God, if only that delivery boy could see us now! Three girls all cumming with the fourth drilling her strap-on into one of the three. How long we carried on that way, I have no idea but it seemed to last forever although I have learned that "orgasm time" has no relationship to real time. There have been times when I could have sworn that I was cumming for an hour only to find five minutes had passed yet other times when it seemed time went by quickly only to find a lot more time had expired than I realized. Who cares when you come right down to it, especially in this situation where time was something we didn't care about anyway?

Eventually we did settle down and Carrie and Beth decided to trade places. I left the dildo in me as Beth scooted back to pull it out of her. The wet half glistened in the light and imagined how good it would taste if I licked her juices off of it right then. Before I could think about it more, Carrie was in Beth's place but just as she started to insert in her pussy she seemed to change her mind.

"Let's do it doggie style," she suggested and I shrugged. It was fine with me!

Leaving it in me still, I twisted over and got on my knees, leaving the dildo to hang out of my pussy like some dick that had been cut off in the middle of fucking me. It felt a little weird as it hung from my crotch but Beth helped out as Carrie backed into me. Beth lined up the dildo with Carrie's soaked pussy which was now well stretched by Kristen's efforts so it went in much more easily than it had for Beth earlier. Carrie continued to back up until our butts touched and the dildo was as far into the two of us as it was going to go - which was fortunate as I doubt it could have gone much further into me.

"Go for it girls!" Beth exclaimed as she slapped each of us on the ass, like she was smacking some horse to get it to take off. She laughed at her "joke" and laid on her back with her legs back over her head, smiling at Kristen and waiting for my cousin to fuck her. She didn't have to wait long as Kristen descended on her like a horny teenage boy, jamming her strap-on into Beth as fast and hard as she could.

The second act was almost a repeat of the first act, just different partners and positions. In this position, Carrie and I couldn't really each other's pussies so we played with our own clits instead. Kristen was pounding away at Beth when she suddenly pulled out and paused for a moment. The unexpected change caught even Carrie's and my attention and we just kneeled there with the dildo between us, not even moving as we watched to see what Kristen had in store for Beth. Even Beth didn't seem to know what was coming but it wasn't long before she found out. Kristen moved in again with the dildo and looked about to simply put it in her pussy again when at the last second she made a detour south and pushed the head against Beth's asshole.

"Oh my god, what the hell?" I heard Carrie whisper as she watched in amazement.

Now I knew Beth was more in to anal than I was. Well, that is an understatement as I'm not into it at all and she loves it. I wasn't aware, though, that Kristen knew about Beth's preferences in that area but apparently either she did or maybe she simply didn't care if she didn't. Either way. Kristen was pushing her strap-on dildo into Beth's ass and Beth wasn't complaining one bit about it, THAT was for sure.

Beth's ass obviously saw a lot more dick than mine as the dildo slid in relatively easily. It was slick with her pussy juices which I am sure helped as well. Before long, Kristen had shoved the entire thing all the way into her ass! I wasn't sure if it turned me on or made me feel queasy as I couldn't imagine anything going that deep into my asshole - not from that direction at least! Beth seemed to love it, though, and she was pushing her fingers into her pussy at the same time which must have felt really weird as well with the dildo in her asshole at the same time.

"Cool, I want it in mine too," Carrie announced, looking for help but Kristen was too engaged and neither Beth or I were in any position to help.

That didn't deter Carrie as she pulled away from me, leaving the dildo once again hanging from my pussy and then she grabbed it and directed it to her asshole. Damn! I had a hard enough time getting it in my pussy. I could only imagine how it must feel to get that monster fake cock into her asshole. Obviously I was unaware of Carrie's preferences as well as her asshole was a lot more elastic than I had imagined it would be.

Before long, our butts were touching once again but this time the dildo was in her asshole while I kept it in my pussy. It may be OK for Beth and Carrie to do the asshole thing, but not me. My ass was a one-way street marked with an exit- only sign! OK, there have been a few times it's been violated but never intentionally.

Both Carrie and Beth were fingering their pussies as they felt a dildo in their ass. The dildo was stuck in Carrie's ass so tight it was like it was locked in place.

That wasn't so bad for me as it made the action at my end all the better but I had to wonder what Carrie was getting out of it. Apparently something as she was about to cum again. Once again I listened to Carrie as she carried on about her orgasm.

A few minutes later Beth joined her and finally it was me, last this time but by choice as I was interested in what was going on with the two of them. Kristen seemed to be enjoying herself even if she wasn't cumming but I knew she would be getting herself off before long. No way was she going to go very long without an orgasm of her own when her friends had two of them since her last one. After Beth had cum Kristen moved over in front of me and offered the dildo. To be perfectly honest, the thought of sucking it after it had been in Beth's asshole wasn't doing it for me and so I politely refused. Now if she had been fucking her incredible pussy...

By now we were all exhausted and the four of us collapsed on the floor, unable to even speak for a few minutes. I looked up at the TV and saw we had only five minutes before the ball was about to drop in Times Square. Damn, we almost missed it! I quickly sat up and got on the couch, spreading my legs apart and started masturbating as I watched the clock counting down.

"What the...?" Kristen asked, looking at me and wondering what I was doing.

"I've always wanted to cum as the New Year arrived," I explained, "Every year I seem to miss it by a few minutes so be quiet or at least help me."

Kristen looked at me a little odd but it was true, it WAS something I had been trying to do for years. The problem was, sometimes I was at a party where it wasn't acceptable for a girl to masturbate in the middle of the room while at other years, I had been fucking or sucking someone and lost track of time, regardless of how much I tried. Heck, even this year I had almost blown it. Kristen, to no surprise, chose the latter option and kneeled on the floor in front of me, leaning forward to lick my pussy.

"Well, what are cousins for if not to help each other out?" she said with a grin as her mouth descended on me.

There were only a couple minutes left but as sensitive as I was, I had no doubt I would be ready in plenty of time and sure enough, with a full minute left on the clock I could feel that familiar but wonderful feeling arise within me. Mmmmmmm, I was about to cum yet again!

"She's there," Beth observed as she and Carrie sat on the floor and watched as my cousin licked me and drove me into the most incredible orgasm I'd had yet that night. God her mouth felt good on my pussy! There was something about the way her tongue moved in and out of me that drove me crazy.

"Happy New Year!" Beth and Carrie cried out, kissing each other as the year ended and the new one began. I was glad they said it as there was no way I could watch the TV the way Kristen was making me feel. Kristen immediately moved up and kissed me, my first kiss of the New Year with her face covered with my own pussy cum.

"Happy New Year cousin," she said with a naughty grin. I was trembling too much to respond but we kissed while my orgasm went on until finally it died down enough for me to talk to her.

"Thanks Kristen, that was wonderful," I sighed as my pussy literally was throbbing.

From there we moved up to the bedroom where we spent the rest of the evening. Suffice to say that the toy drawer was opened and yes, it WAS interesting to see what some of them did!

(Jan 01) Chapter 157: New Year's Resolutions

Story codes: nosex
Me (22)

I've never been much for New Year's Resolutions but this year should be so different from any other year in my life that it seems fitting to take a look ahead. These aren't really in any particular order, just how they came out.

#1 Do all things to bring honor to God.

What more can I say about this one? Anyone who knows me understands that my faith and religion are Number 1 in my life. I believe that if everyone abided by this resolution we would have a much better world – wouldn't you agree?

#2 Honor my parents.

As one of the Ten Commandments, we all are to honor our parents and that is what I have always strived to do. Second to God, my parents are the most important people in my life and have the biggest influence on me. My father is also a man, which means he has needs and desires that only I, as his daughter, can fulfill. Of all my resolutions, this should be the easiest to keep as I enjoy pleasing him, not just sexually but in every way I can. Fortunately for me, I love my dad so giving myself to him has never been something I looked upon as being a chore or unwelcome. Before anyone asks, yes, I DO believe that a father has a right to expect his daughter to submit herself to him totally but ONLY if he shows her the same love and respect in return. Nobody has the right to hurt or abuse anybody, no matter what the situation or who they are.

#3 Accept myself for who I am.

This may sound a little silly but the issue of self-acceptance was something I have really struggled with during the past few months. After leaving home to live in my own apartment I had a lot of time to think about who I thought I SHOULD be. In doing so, I got caught up by who I thought I should be in terms of what the world expects rather than worrying about what was best for me. As a result I did a number of stupid things which I regret today. For instance, I quit my escorting job (which I loved) and applied for what turned out to be a boring 8-5 marketing position. My "self-revelations" created tension between me and my parents, especially my mom, when I accused her of using me as a teenager to satisfy her own desires by living out her fantasies through me. Fortunately through prayer and a lot of heart-felt discussions with my friends and family, I eventually realized how far off the deep end I'd gone so now I think I'm back where I should be.

So who am I? In short, I would describe myself as a young Christian woman who is looking to simply enjoy life for the time being. I have strong ethics and morals. I am loyal to my friends and family. I realize that I have issues caused by sexual addictions which I am addressing with the help of my family. In the meantime, I will seek employment where my social behaviors are acceptable rather than conforming to someone else's requirements.

#4 Do not pester my cousin Kristen regarding her career choices.

At first I had a really hard time dealing with Kristen quitting college and going to work full-time as a prostitute. Of course, SHE doesn't call it that but face it, she's a whore whether she want to t admit it or not. It's one thing to be a slut as I don't see anything wrong with being one. Personally, I think most girls secretly wish they had the courage to be more slutty and I have never regretted for a minute anything I've done sexually. However, It's quite another issue to sell yourself to someone without having any say in the matter. At least as an escort I always am in control and get to make the final decision. So far as sex goes, my goal is to enjoy myself, not to earn money.

Now I have come to terms with the fact that my cousin has different morals and values than me and that I really have no right to impose mine on her. While I'll never be HAPPY about it so long as Kristen remains a whore, at least I can love her for who she is and support her in hopes that someday she will change her ways before anything serious happens to her.

#5 Do not have sex with anyone I don't want to.

This may sound strange but what it really refers to (at least for now) is my Uncle Jim. Over the years I have allowed him to fuck me only because my dad has wanted me to. My dad LOVES fucking my younger cousin Tammy and he has always felt that it was only fair that he let my uncle fuck me in return. Finally this past summer we went out on the boat and I was so disgusted with his behavior that afterwards I finally got the courage to ask me dad not to make me give myself to him anymore. Of course he said it was OK and I have to ask myself why I didn't do this years ago!

#6 Do not gain any more weight.

What would a list of resolutions be without something about your weight? Actually, I'm pretty happy where I am now but I know if I'm not careful that it would be easy to add a few pounds living alone with my junk food.

#7 Travel

While I tend to be a bit of a homebody, I've always dreamed of going to either Amsterdam or Hong Kong as both seem to be incredibly erotic and exciting. If I had to pick just one, I would say Amsterdam as it would offer me the opportunity to realize one of my biggest and oldest fantasies – to be fucked on stage in front of a crows of strangers.

(Feb 17) Chapter 158: Anything For My Daddy

Me (22)
John - my dad (43)
Uncle Jim (41)
Tammy - cousin (15)

One of the reasons I have always been willing to submit totally to my father is that I love him and trust that he will never ask me or force me to do anything I do not want. What happens when the day comes there is something he wants so terribly bad and there is only one person who can give it to him - me, but it means I have to do something that I really don't want to. We're not talking about cleaning my room either.

1. My Father's Sacrifice For Me

If there is one tenant that has always determined my actions regarding sex with my father, it's that as his daughter, I willingly submit myself to whatever desires and needs he has. I'm immensely proud of the fact that I have NEVER refused to give myself to him no matter where or when and what he has asked. At the same time, it's NOT a master-slave relation in any way, shape or form. Part of the reason I submit to my father to a degree that I would NEVER do with any other man, at least until I am married, is that I know he loves me unconditionally and would never even ask me to do anything he knows I don't want or is not in my best interest.

A good example of that is anal sex. While I know my father enjoys it, he recognizes that I do not and he has never even hinted to me that he would like me to do it. Many people have asked me if I would let him fuck my ass if he asked. Sorry, I won't fall into that trap because It's a moot question as he would never ask me in the first place.

that point onward. I guess for a while things were tense between them but after all, they are brothers and brothers work through these sorts of things. Besides, it's not like my dad had nobody else to turn to. My mom was there for him not to mention my Aunt Linda and cousin Kristen. Of course, there was me, even if I was living in my own place now. The only thing is, the youngest of us is Kristen and she isn't even a teenager anymore. In fact, she can legally drink in just a few months. I can only imagine how it felt for my dad to see the young girls at the mall and church and have to think about how fifteen year-old Tammy was once available to him and now she wasn't.

My dad never mentioned anything about Tammy, at least from a sexual perspective, after the day I told him about not wanting to be fucked by my uncle. Even so, at Christmas and other family gatherings, not to mention church and school activities, I noticed his eyes were always on Tammy. I made it a point not to mention her either, not wanting to pour salt in any wounds. At the same time, I noticed my Uncle Jim would leer at me and grin when he thought nobody else was looking. God, he was such a jerk!

2. My Mom and Kristen Gang Up On Me

After this went on for months, I stopped thinking about it as much and assumed life would go on as it was with regards to my uncle and niece. I knew my dad still lusted for Tammy but then he lusted for Amanda Tapping every time StarGate SG1 was on TV and he didn't get to fuck her either. Then one day I was having lunch at the mall with my mom and she let me in on the REAL situation.

We had been talking about the new summer outfits in the store until then when she dropped this little bombshell on my lap. Damn, talk about a shift in the conversation!

"Oh really? What does he tell you?"

My mom looked around quickly to make sure nobody was standing behind her listening. The food court was crowded but even though that meant a lot of people were around, the general background noise made eavesdropping all but impossible.

"When I came home from work last night he was jerking himself off so hard he never even noticed I was in the room. He had his eyes closed and was moaning for Tammy to suck him harder and the fuck him harder. He even had some of her photos up on the computer screen."

"You sure it was Tammy he was thinking about Mom?" I asked, "I mean, what's the big deal about him jerking off when you're out anyway. He use to do that all the time if I remember correctly."

"Maybe it was the 'Tammy, oh god Tammy' part of the moans," my mom responding with a wry grin.

"Well whatever. Heck mom, dad's been jerking off about Tammy since she was twelve - at least that's when I first saw him. What's the big deal now?"

"No, you don't understand," she replied, shaking her head with her eyes looking down at the table as if she was afraid to look me in the eyes, "It's ALL the time now. It seems every time he masturbates, it's about her. He has one of her bikini photos as his screensaver on the computer. I had to poke him in church last week when he kept staring at her boobs during the service. THEN, last night when he was fucking me, he called me Tammy!"

"Kelly, that's not the point and you know it," she snapped slightly at me, "Oh sure, he'll fuck Tammy if he gets the chance; he's not THAT much of a saint. It's just that he'll never feel as good about it as he would if he hadn't found out that you had sacrificed that way for him."

At that point, what could I say? I knew it must have been terribly hard for my mom to bring this up. Something told me she probably wasn't telling me half the story as it had to be a lot worse than what she described for her to ask me this. All my life my mom was the one who protected me from my dad's sometimes "overzealous" moods, those times when he would get really horny and almost do something stupid, like trying to fondle me in public. Usually it was my mom saying "no" and for her to even propose such a thing told me more than she could ever explain.

The relief on her face when I agreed was instant, as if a huge weight had been lifted from her shoulders. As much as my stomach was churning at the moment, seeing her expression told me I had made the right decision. Now the question was, how to get it done!

I suppose I could have just gone to my Uncle Jim and announced my intentions. In retrospect, that would have been a better idea. My only concern was that he was such a boor that he might say no just to be a prick. He knew he held all the cards. How can you compare a fifteen year-old girl against one who was almost 23 when it came to a swap? Other than I weighed probably a hundred pounds less, I could have been my aunt compared to how my dad would view Tammy laying naked on the bed. I knew my mom would be too worked up to discuss it further with her and of course, I couldn't ask my dad for his ideas so who do you turn to in these times? Well, why not turn to the family whore? In my case that was my cousin Kristen.

Kristen's outburst when I first explained to her my plans was as foulmouthed as it was predictable. Fortunately, at least in this case, Kristen didn't have to worry about a father who had the hots for her little cousin so she stayed a mile away from our uncle whenever she had the chance. We both shared the same opinion of him.

"Kelly, you're a saint, you know that," she sighed as she sat back in the overstuffed chair in her living room.

"Hey, a girl's got to do what a girl's got to do," I replied, shrugging my shoulders.

I had called Kristen up and explained to her that I needed to talk to her about something important. She wasn't working this particular evening so I drove over and we shared a 2-liter bottle of Diet Coke.

"So what do you think I should do now?" I asked her, sipping from my glass.

"Well, you COULD take off all your clothes and lick my cunt," she replied, a big grin on her face. I threw a pillow at her and huffed.

"Gee whiz Kristen, is that all you ever think about? C'mon, be serious for once. I have to figure this out and you're not helping matters."

"Who said I wasn't being serious?" she replied mischievously. The problem was, I knew she WAS being serious. If there was any further proof as to how much this was bothering me, the fact I was turning her down said more than anything.

"You know girl, this really IS all your fault," Kristen teased me.

"Say what??"

"Well, if you hadn't been so obstinate about living on your own and stayed home to take care of your daddy's needs, he wouldn't be thinking about Tammy so much."

I glared at her, trying to figure out from her impish face if she was teasing me or expressing how she really felt.

"Fuck you Kristen. That has nothing to do with this and you know it."

"Oh I don't know about that. He's been a LOT more horny since you moved out," she countered and then grinned, "and if anyone should know, it's me."

The dirty little whore! I knew exactly what she was referring to. It was like when I was away at college and she "filled in" for me with my dad. Now I wasn't almost four hours away, barely more than four minutes if you hit the lights right. My dad could have me anytime he wanted and I knew it. All he had to do is call if he needed me that bad.

"Well screw you Kristen!"

THAT certainly was an intelligent way to end the conversation but it worked. Even though I knew all I had to do was spread my legs a little and she would be on me in a second, she tried to be helpful, as much as my blonde cousin can. Fortunately, we were discussing the ONE subject she excelled at - sex.

"Well, first of all, you need to do the foursome thing again."

I looked at her and squinted, as if I was having a hard time hearing her. No way did I hear her say THAT!

"You know, father-daughter, swap thing, all that," she went on, ignoring the look on my face, "At least that way your dad's around to keep him under control."

Now THAT made sense finally. One of my fears was that my uncle tends to get rough and with my dad there, even if he WAS busy screwing Tammy, maybe my uncle would be a little less likely to go overboard.

"And you can't make it like you are doing this just so your dad can fuck Tammy. You need to make him think you WANT him to fuck you."

Yeah right, and next I would convince him I was an alien from outer space. She could tell from my expression that I was unconvinced.

"Look Kelly, Uncle Jim is a guy and a not too bright one at that. Just get him horny and he'll believe anything if it means getting in your panties."

She had a point. If Kristen knew anything, it was how to manipulate men. As good as I felt I was sometimes at it, I had to concede that she was the master!

Kristen went on like she was a professor giving a lecture, "The trick is to make him think HE is the one initiating it. Then he'll never suspect it is something you are trying to get him to do."

"OK, sounds good," I acknowledged, "Now just how the hell do I do that?"

"Fuck Kelly, I don't have to tell YOU how to do that," she sighed loudly, "Just wiggle that cute little ass of yours in his face and make eyes with him. It doesn't take much to get him going anyway. Just don't be TOO obvious about it."

3. Kristen "Inspires" Me

Then Kristen looked at me and I could see her mind had shifted gears. She licked her lips subconsciously and I could see her staring at my boobs and then my crotch. Something told me the conversation about Uncle Jim was over!

Kristen got up from her chair and walked over to mine where she put her hands on the back of the chair, one on each side of my head. She was wearing a tight tank top but that didn't stop her boobs from hanging down in my face as she leaned down to kiss me. Our mouths met and I felt her tongue instantly reach out, searching for mine. God she smelled like pussy! She must have been soaking wet already.

"Speaking of your cute little ass, why don't you get out of those clothes and show it to me," she whispered huskily in my ear, her voice thick with lust.

It wasn't like she needed to lick me to get me wet, I was already horny enough as it was from our earlier discussion. Kristen got her taste of me and then stood up and took the dildo attached to her strap-on and started to move in on me like any guy would as he got ready to fuck me. She seemed awfully anxious to get started but then, I'd never been fucked by a girl before so it wasn't like I had anything to compare against.

"Now didn't I warn you that I was going to fuck you Kelly?" she giggled as she lined up the flesh-colored dildo with my waiting pussy. She rubbed it up and down between my wet pussy lips, lubricating it with my pussy juices and rubbing my clit with it at the same time. I tried to imagine it was a real dick, like my dad's, trying to enter into me.

"Here it comes bitch," she taunted me as she pushed the dildo into me. She was merciless, driving it deeper into me as soon as she pushed it past the head. Once it was in me, she started stroking it in and out of me like a guy was fucking me.

"Oh god, fuck me Kristen," I sighed as she pushed it in and out of me. I wasn't too sure what SHE was getting out of it other than knowing she was making me feel good. In any case, who cared? I felt good and at the moment, that's what counted. Kristen started to smack my ass with the flat palm of her hand, making more noise than pain at first.

"Yeah, you're a naughty girl for letting me do this to you," she scolded me, "And naughty girls have to be spanked."

With that she smacked me hard such that the flat of her hand met my butt and it stung sharply this time.

"Ouch!!" I protested, "Hey, THAT hurt dammit."

Kristen responded by smacking me the same way, only this time harder and on my other butt cheek. God, my ass must be as red as a ripe beet.

"Damn Kristen, what the hell are you doing?"

"Shut up bitch, or I'll REALLY give you a spanking," she snarled back at me, "You've been naughty and I have to spank you."

Over and over she smacked my ass until it was stinging badly. At the same time, she was pumping my pussy with her strap-on. It was like sweet and sour, hot and cold, yin and yang, whatever you want to compare. My ass was stinging while my pussy was loving it. There was something about the contrasting feelings that set me off and I could feel my orgasm starting to rise in me.

"Oh yeah, spank me, I'm such a bad girl," I panted as my breath was getting harder to take as my orgasm began to sweep through me. Kristen smacked me especially hard while at the same time she rammed the dildo deep up inside of me and held it there so her crotch was pressed up against my bare ass.

"Oh shit...," was all I could get out as my orgasm crested. It was incredible, like my entire body was awakening after having fallen asleep, like when your arm is twisted under you in the wrong position for a while when you sleep. Every pore on my body tingled and I could feel my pussy clamp down on the dildo, trying to hold it in me but Kristen insisted on stroking it in and out of me as I came.

Kristen pulled out of me and grabbed me by the waist, literally flipping me over on my back. I raised my inner leg up onto the back of the couch while my outer leg hung over the side, exposing my convulsing pussy to her. My slutty cousin didn't hesitate a second, diving between my legs and burying her face in my soaking wet crotch, licking up my pussy juices as they flowed out of me.

"Mmmmmmm, you taste so damn good," she moaned as she looked up at me from between my legs. I grabbed her head and pushed it back down, my actions demanding that she lick my pussy more and she was more than happy to do it.

"God, don't stop now," I panted, "make me cum again." Kristen put two fingers in my pussy and pushed them in as far as she could while she licked my clit and between my pussy lips. Then she took them out and I felt her press one of her now wet fingers against my ass hole.

"Don't you dare!" I hissed at her, barely able to move as my orgasm threatened to rise again.

I looked down and she grinned up at me, that naughty grin she gets whenever she gets her way - which was most of the time. She didn't say a word but instead, pushed her index finger up my ass. I almost jumped off the couch!

"Kristen!" I whined, squirming under her finger.

She totally ignored my protests and I have to admit I - didn't mind that she did. She pushed another finger up my pussy and I could feel her two fingers, one in my ass and one in my pussy, touching each other through the flesh inside of me. God, nobody had ever done this to me before! It was enough to set off my second orgasm, an even harder one this time. When it finally subsided she pulled her fingers out of me and moved up to kiss me. The fresh taste of my pussy on her lips was wonderful and so sensual

Needless to say we didn't get much more planning done as we spent the next couple of hours playing with each other. I even tried on the strap-on for a while and fucked her. It was weird as I couldn't feel anything of course but yet I was fucking her like a guy. It made me wonder what a guy felt when his dick was in me.

As I drove home later that day, my pussy tingled the entire way as I daydreamed about sex with my cousin. Mmmmmmm, talk about providing some inspiration for fucking my uncle! By the time I got home I had my plan all worked out, now I just need to put it into action.

4. Flirting With My Uncle Jim

There was only one place where I regularly saw my uncle and that was Sunday morning services at church. Thus if I had any hopes at all of following Kristen's suggestions, that was where I had to make my move. Of course, there was one little problem - it WAS church so it wasn't like I could dress like a hooker and seduce him. In the past I had done a lot of things at church but the common factor was that it was usually the thrill of not getting caught or being more flirty than outright sexual. There was something about crossing your legs slowly in church seemed to turn on guys more than anything sometimes, especially when they got a look at your inner thighs in the process, just enough to make them wonder if you were wearing panties or not.

My mother was already distraught enough over the whole thing so I decided to leave her out of my plans. Besides, what could she do to help anyway? No, I was on my own this time. The day started out as most Sundays do, with me stopping by my parents to give my dad a little present before church. Our tradition of sex on Sunday mornings was more for his benefit than mine. Typically he would just lift my dress and fuck me without taking anything off. Since I almost never wore panties to church, all he had to do was lift my skirt and have a go at me.

It always seemed to be the same - I would show up late, my dad would be rock hard waiting for me, my mom would fuss about us being late for church and for him to hurry up, he would cum in me, and then there was the mad dash to get to the service on time. Sitting in the pews with your dad's fresh cum inside of you certainly makes the service a lot easier to listen to!

With it being winter - and a cold day at that, it would have been a little out of place to wear some frilly summer dress that exposed my boobs and ass so that was out of the question. Instead, I chose to go with the basics - a tight black skirt and a white blouse. The skirt hugged my hips and came down to within a few inches of my knees - rather long by my usual standards but actually it helped to show off my thighs the way it hugged them. The blouse wasn't sheer but thin enough that it wasn't a mystery as to what color my bra was underneath. Yes, I was wearing a bra. With an outfit like this, I've found that wearing a colored bra (black in this case) was actually more erotic and got more looks than going bare breasted. Even back in grade school I realized that there was something about seeing a girl's underwear that never failed to turn on the boys. Grown men are no different as they're just the same boys now with bigger dicks.

My uncle and his family were in a pew just in front of us. We were too late to get a seat next to them but I think my dad actually preferred it this way. I noted that he somehow managed to maneuver himself into a seat right behind Tammy. Every time we stood up to sing a hymn (Presbyterians STAND when they sing), his eyes appeared to be looking down at the hymnal but I knew better. If you looked closely you could have seen that they were focused not on hymnal but rather on the tight little ass in front of him. Tammy was wearing a cute little denim skirt and it showed off her bare legs nicely. I also noticed that when he sat down, the hymnal stayed in his lap! Not too hard to guess why (sorry, couldn't resist the pun.)

After the service I knew I wouldn't have much time so I was anxious to get out of the pews before my aunt and uncle left. I tried to time it so that I was stepping out into the aisle just as my uncle was walking by and then I almost fell as I "accidentally" bumped into him. He grabbed my under my arms and helped me up to my feet.

"Whoa girl, better be more careful there," he teased me. We were in the middle of a crowd of people but as I regained my balance I managed to put my hand on his crotch for just a moment, not enough for anyone to notice but long enough for him to know it wasn't an accident.

"Now you better be careful girl, somebody might get the wrong idea," he said softly as we worked our way up the aisle.

"Well, I was hoping you might get the RIGHT idea," I teased him back. People around us were busy gossiping (well, in church that's called "sharing") and I knew that even if they did overhear us, they would have no idea what we were talking about. Who would ever even think that we would be bantering about sex?

We were almost to the pastor so we couldn't continue our little exchange. After shaking hands and telling the pastor what a wonderful service it was, I headed downstairs to where our coats were hanging and waited for my uncle. As he grabbed his from the rack, I slowly put mine on. There was nobody within a few yards of us so I moved over close to him and grinned.

"So tell me Uncle Jim, just what ideas were you getting back there?"

My uncle rolled his eyes at me and shook his head.

"Nope, not falling for it kid," he said, "Your dad gave me the lecture already, remember?"

"You know Uncle Jim, sometimes girls make mistakes," I said off-handedly, "Sometimes you don't appreciate something until you don't have it anymore."

"Oh? And just what might THAT be?" he said, starting to move over closer to me.

"You know, sometimes a girl likes it a little rough, do you know what I mean Uncle Jim?"

He looked at me with his eyes narrowed, probably trying to figure out if I was just leading him on for the kill or what. I knew he was teetering on the edge. I also knew just how to push him off.

"Don't you want to fuck me anymore Uncle Jim?" I said softly to him, trying my best to sound like an eight year-old girl if you know what I mean.

My uncle quickly looked around; as if he was afraid someone had overheard me. Even with all the hustle and bustle after the service, nobody was near us and when someone did walk by, they weren't paying us any attention.

My uncle grabbed me by the arm through my coat and pulled me over to the side.

"Now listen to me sister, if you're fucking with me...," he started to say.

"Uncle Jim, don't you get it? That's exactly what I WANT you to do to me," I giggled, acting more like a dippy teenage girl than a sophisticated college graduate.

As usual when it came to men, Kristen was right - he WAS easy. God, some men will believe anything if they think it will get them laid and my Uncle Jim was probably one of the easiest in that category.

"So what do you say I stop by later this afternoon?"

God, this WAS too easy. There had to be a fly in this ointment somewhere. Was he just setting me up?

"OK, how about a little father-daughter swap again?"

He looked at me narrowly and for a moment I thought maybe I'd come out with that too quickly. Was he thinking now that this was my plan all along? Well, it WAS but he wasn't supposed to know that. I quickly took some action to put him off the scent. Moving in close to him so nobody could see, I reached down and put my hand squarely on his crotch. Yep, he was getting hard! The harder he got, the less he would be thinking with his other head.

"C'mon Uncle Jim, I thought you liked it the last time we all did it together, didn't you?"

It must have been hard for him to concentrate with my hand pressing on his stiffening dick. My heart pounded as people walked by. God, here I was in the church basement with just my winter coat hiding my hand on his crotch from view! Obviously my uncle was as turned on as I was but my pussy wasn't sticking out for all to see the way his dick was. Good thing he had a large overcoat on to hide it.

"Yeah, that WAS pretty hot, wasn't it," he mused.

"So you gonna set it up with my dad then?" He looked thoughtful for a moment, as if just one last time he was wondering if he as being set up. Maybe he was thinking it was too easy as well.

"You're really something else, aren't you," he sighed, "Yeah, I'll talk to John now about it."

He disappeared from sight so I didn't get to see him talking to my dad. I met my parents in the parking lot at our car and at first I wondered if my uncle had said anything because my dad acted as if everything was normal. It wasn't until we were about half way to the restaurant where we were going to have lunch that suddenly he turned his head towards the back seat where I was sitting and called out to me.

"OK girl, spill it!"

I acted as if I had no idea what he was talking about. I could see his face in the rear view mirror as he looked back at me and grinned.

"Don't give me that innocent face," he scolded me, "I KNOW you had something to do with this."

"With what daddy?" I asked innocently, still pretending I had no idea what he was talking about.

"What's up John?" my mom asked.

"Oh it's our horny little daughter, at it again as usual," he sighed. "You'll never guess what Jim asked me after the service."

My mom looked sharply at me in her visor mirror. She must have realized instantly that I was up to something and she probably already knew what that something was.

"John wants to do another father-daughter swap this afternoon," he said, as if he couldn't believe what he was saying, "Can you believe it? After what I told him about Kelly, I can't believe he had the nerve to ask me."

My heart sank as I anticipated what he was going to say next. Damn, after all that work and he turned my uncle down. On the one hand, I felt good as I knew what a sacrifice that was for him just for me. On the other, I hadn't expected him to be so chivalrous!

"As if that's not enough, THEN, he tells me it was all our Kelly's idea," my dad continued. My heart started beating again. Maybe there was hope?

"So what's the story girl?" he asked again.

What could I say at that point? There was just no way he was ever going to believe that I really wanted my uncle to fuck me just for my own pleasure. I had made it pretty clear how I felt about him when I finally worked up the nerve to ask my dad to keep him from me. I made a quick decision to come clean and let him know what I was planning. By the time we reached the restaurant, I had spilled my guts. The only thing I left out was my mom's role. The last thing I wanted my dad to know was that his wife had to ask his daughter to help him with his sexual needs!

We didn't say a word until we were seated. It was a Chinese buffet so we all got our first helpings and returned to the booth. After my dad gave the blessing, he looked up over the table at me with a puzzled look.

"OK, I buy everything that you've told me about WHAT you have done so far, I just don't get the WHY," he mused, "Not long ago I went to my own brother and had to tell him my daughter didn't want him doing her anymore. Any idea how that made me feel? And now you're coming on to him like a teenager in heat. I KNOW there's more to this than what you've told me."

As I sat there wondering what to say next, my mom came to the rescue. She put her hand on his arm and squeezed it gently.

"Now John, can't a girl change her mind without you having to cross-examine her?"

"Yeah but..."

My mom cut him off and gave him that look she does when she wants him to shut up.

"Enough already honey, why not just enjoy the afternoon?"

That effectively ended the conversation and we finished out meal without anything else being said about it. Even on the ride home, when my dad tried to mention it my mom would shush him and tell him to be quiet.

Back home I went straight to my room and undressed. I pulled out one of my nightshirts, the one that barely covered my ass when I was standing up and exposed about everything any other time. On a whim, I pulled my hair back into a ponytail and looked at myself in the mirror. After all, I would be effectively competing with a hot little fifteen year-old and I didn't want to look any older than I had to. Wearing a ponytail always to take a few years off of me.

Although the nightshirt was loose on me, my boobs poked out nicely. At least I had bigger ones than Tammy who was still probably an A cup although lately I had noticed she was getting a little bigger in the chest. If I noticed them, I was sure my dad had so anything to make mine look better was fine with me.

5. Fathers and Daughters Again

It was about 3:00PM when my uncle arrived with Tammy in tow. My mom greeted them as they came in and commented on how hot Tammy was looking these days. Indeed she was. Under that thick winter coat she was wearing a tight sweater than seemed to magnify her boobs and a pair of jeans that had to have been hell to get on they were so tight. The sweater was short enough that her tight little belly peeped out when she stretched or moved. It wasn't anything risque but yet at the same time seemed to accentuate her natural sexuality. God she was a hot little vixen! Needless to say, my uncle couldn't take his eyes off my ass as I walked in. He had always been more an ass man than a legs or boobs guy and I knew all it took to get him going was to flash my butt at him - which I naturally did.

As my mom took their coats, my dad joined us and greeted them. He took a long look at Tammy and just grinned. I could only imagine what thoughts were going through his head at that moment, knowing in a matter of minutes he would be fucking her cute little pussy again. He shook hands with his brother and asked him what excuse he had used to get out with just Tammy under his wing. Uncle Jim explained that he was coming over here to watch the race (I had no idea if there really was one on TV) and that Tammy had begged to come over and see me since it had been ages since the two of us had spent any time together. Apparently my aunt had bought the story since they both were here.

My dad looked at Tammy and then at his brother.

"She knows?" he said cryptically. Tammy must have overheard because she giggled and replied before her dad could say anything.

"What, that you want to fuck me today Uncle John?" she said with this impish grin on her face. That was my little cousin for you! I could only imagine the reputation she was building in school these days.

My mom just sighed and waved us upstairs saying, "OK, you guys go have your fun, I have laundry to get done."

In a way, it was sort of surreal. It was as if she had told us all to go upstairs and have some ice cream she was so nonchalant about it. I could only imagine what Tammy's mom would say if she had any idea whatsoever what her husband and daughter were REALLY planning when they left the house. Aunt Shari was such a pain in the ass sometimes. It was such a shame she didn't approve of even premarital sex, let alone incest. Things would be so much easier if we didn't have to worry about her all the time.

We ended up in my parent's bedroom as they had the biggest bed in the house. For a moment the four of us just stood in the room so I decided to take the initiative and get the ball rolling - or should I say "balls"? I reached over to my uncle and started undoing his jeans, quickly unbuckling his belt and undoing his zipper.

"Damn, look like someone wants something bad today!" Uncle Jim laughed, "Damn John, haven't you been taking care of your daughter?"

"Hey what can I say?" my dad shrugged his shoulders. He sat on the edge of the bed and Tammy quickly perched on his lap, her arm around his neck as she hugged her uncle and watched her dad's dick emerge from his underwear as I pulled it down to his ankles.

"Hmmm, looks like someone else wants something pretty bad too!" I remarked as his hard dick flopped out once I pulled his underwear down. There was no need to coax him at all, he was already stiff as a rail with his dick slightly curved such that it stuck out but pointed up to the ceiling.

"Well, what are you waiting for?" he said harshly, "Get down on your knees and suck it!"

Something told me today was not going to be one of these slow, romantic times where there is lots of cuddling and foreplay. Nope, today it was going to be all about sucking and fucking if I knew my uncle at all.

Of all the guys in my family that I have sex with - my dad, my cousin Rick, and my Uncle Jim, my uncle's cock is the smallest. Now normally cock size isn't an issue for me, but I couldn't help but notice how easily his entire dick fit into my mouth without me even having to take him down my throat. I slipped my mouth over him and immediately ran all the way down his shaft until my face met his thick bush of hair that surrounded his dick.

"Damn John, your girl isn't wasting anytime today is she?" he commented.

My dad laughed and said, "Well, how many times have I told you know how she gets when she's good and horny?"

As I worked on his dick, I was positioned so I could watch my dad and Tammy at the same time off to the side and behind my uncle. My dad had his hand on Tammy's thigh, rubbing her and letting his hand wander to her crotch where he pressed his fingers in against her pussy through the tight denim. He rubbed her through her jeans and she started to squirm a little bit. He had his other hand around her, pulling her up onto his lap.

I watched as he started to play with her boobs through the sweater, rubbing them and cupping them in his hands. Eventually his hand moved down and then up under her sweater. The outline of his hand was visible as he stretched it out to grab her small breast in the palm of his hand. In a way it was like watching two teenagers making out. They started to kiss as her back arched and she pressed her chest up against his wandering hand.

"Shit John, quit making out like some kid and fuck the girl! That's what you want anyway, isn't it?"

"Now why would I do that when I've got your lovely daughter girl here for me to fuck instead?" my uncle returned with a deep laugh.

Uncle Jim looked down at me then and grabbed my head in his hands, pushing my face into his smelly crotch. One of the many things I disliked about my uncle was he didn't keep himself clean. It was one thing to fuck a guy who had been working out and was a little sweaty. It was another when the odor was simply umpteen days without a shower.

"Damn you give one hell of a BJ; I'll give THAT to you," he chuckled, "You need to give your cousin over there some more lessons."

I did my best to ignore him, concentrating instead on watching my dad as he slowly pulled Tammy's sweater up and over her head, exposing her bare chest with orgasm struck her. Tammy was never much of one to say a lot during sex but her breathing and sighs told me everything I needed to know, she was cumming – and cumming hard!

My dad never stopped until she finally relaxed and her back stopped arching upward. He stood up, his face covered with her pussy cream and a wide grin that stretched from ear to ear as he looked down at her with her legs spread apart, her wet pussy wide open and waiting for him, totally unashamed. She put one hand between her legs, rubbing her clit as if she couldn't bear for it to be not touched even for a moment.

He was just rocking himself in and out of me now, not putting a lot of effort into it, just letting his dick enjoy having my pussy around it. One good thing about the way my uncle was fucking me, I could watch my dad as he got ready to put his dick in Tammy. As always, I couldn't believe his hard dick was going to fit inside that sweet little pussy of hers. If course, I knew from past encounters that it would, but it was still pretty amazing that she could stretch out that much. Her brother actually had the biggest cock in the family, at least that I had seen, so if he could get his thick dick inside of her, my dad certainly could.

6. The Ultimate Sacrifice For My Dad

I wanted to say something, to cheer him on, to tell him how happy I was that he was getting to do what he so desperately wanted to do. After all, wasn't this why I was putting up with this useless dick in me now? Still, it was all worth it as I watched his hips thrust forward and his cock head disappeared inside of her. Tammy grunted and bit her lower lip as she waited for the next thrust which he quickly gave her, driving his dick into her in one smooth motion all the way up inside of her pussy.

"Fuck she's so god damn tight!" my dad groaned as he just held himself in her, savoring the feel of her tight pussy as it gripped his dick.

As my dad started to fuck her, my uncle started getting more into it as well. Then, just as I figured he would cum and maybe I would get out of this relatively unscathed, he pulled out of me and started to push his dick against my asshole. Oh god, he wanted to fuck me in the ass. I had NEVER let him do it in the past so why did he think I was going to let him do it now?

"Uncle Jim!" I exclaimed, reaching back with my hand to push his wandering dick away from my butt hole. I felt the weight of his fat stomach press against my back and then his hot breath on the back of my neck as he whispered into my ear.

"You must think I'm really stupid, don't you?" he whispered so softly I could barely hear him, "You don't think I bought all that crap about you wanting to fuck me, did you?"

I squirmed under his weight as it was a little hard to breathe with his fat stomach on me.

"Look at them, see your dad fucking her? Do you want me to tell him why I'm letting him fuck her? Especially after that crap of you not wanting me to fuck your whore pussy anymore?"

I looked over at my dad but he was too engaged in Tammy's pussy to pay any attention to us. No doubt he just figured his brother was being dirty with me as that would have been typical of him. If he only knew HOW dirty he was being this time though! I couldn't let my uncle know that they dad knew all along what the story was.

"Well, if you want me to shut up and let him keep fucking her after this, then you're getting it up the ass - got it bitch?"

What could I do? My dad was in heaven. He looked so happy fucking Tammy. As I watched he climbed up in the bed behind her and spooned her. They were facing us and I could see his dick sliding in and out of her wet pussy while he reached around and fondled her little boobs. How could I deny my own father this? How could I betray him by resisting my uncle and this depriving him of something he clearly craved so badly? I knew all I had to do was cry out and say I didn't want it and my dad would stop fucking her and protect me but I could never impose on him like that. No, I was his daughter and if I had to do this to make him happy, then I would do it.

"Alright you bastard, go for it," I said grimly.

"Nahhhhh, not that easy bitch," he hissed, "You gotta beg for it... loud. I want them both to know you want it up your ass. You can do it you filthy whore."

I was almost in tears but I fought back my feelings of revulsion as he stood up and started fucking my pussy again. I knew what he was waiting for and I wanted more than anything for a miracle to occur and take this from me. Tammy was riding my dad now, facing him and leaning over so he could lick and bite her nipples as she rocked on his dick. He looked SO happy and the lust in his eyes was unmistakable. I had to do this. I had to do it for my father.

"Oh god I love it when you fuck me Uncle Jim," I started out, moaning and groaning like I was actually enjoying it, "I want you to fuck me in the ass... fuck my ass Uncle Jim."

I said it loudly and as much as my father was concentrating on Tammy, he still heard me and I saw his eyes widen as he looked at me. Actually, my dad would have loved to fuck me in the ass years before but he knew how I felt about it and never pressed me to do it. What must he be thinking now to hear me ask my uncle to do it after all those years of me turning him down?

My uncle pulled out and stretched my butt apart wide to get a good luck at my asshole.

"Oh yeah, I've been wanting a piece of that tight hole for a long time now," he said roughly.

"Give it to me Uncle Jim, stick it in me, I want you to cum in my ass."

Well, in for an inch, in for a yard they say, and if I was going to ask him to fuck my ass; I was going to make it sound good. I had to convince my dad I really wanted it or else he might catch on to what was really going on here.

My uncle lowered his head and spit onto my asshole and then worked up another one and spit again. I could feel his warm spit on my ass and then it drained down and must have dripped to the floor. He put his finger up to my asshole and I felt him push it roughly into me and then back out again to wet and lubricate me.

OK, so I'm not an anal virgin but I've never asked for it nor have I enjoyed it. The only time a dick has been in my ass was when I was in a situation where I couldn't control the guy fucking me. The last time was when I went out with Kristen on one of her assignments and ended up getting fucked by at least a couple of dozen guys (or maybe twice that, I don't know for sure). A few of them took advantage of the situation and fucked my ass despite the fact I didn't want them to.

This would be the first time in my life I had ever "asked" to be fucked in the ass but I wasn't looking forward to it. Each time his finger pulled out of me I could have sworn I dumped a load of shit. I hated that feeling. Well, as it turned out, it was nothing compared to what was coming next.

"Watch John," Uncle Jim bragged, "Don't you want to see your daughter taking it up the ol' bung hole?"

Again my dad looked at me as if he couldn't believe what I was doing. Actually, I couldn't believe it either but I couldn't say that. I did my best to force a smile and pretend I wanted it. Just then I felt his hard dick press against my tight asshole. It was a good thing I was already on my stomach as he was pushing really hard to get his dick into me.

"Damn, talk about being tight!" my uncle gasped, pausing his efforts for a moment, "Tammy's cunt is as loose as a whore's compared to your daughter's asshole!"

He pushed hard again and I felt the pain increase as his head forced its way into my ass. I put my head into the bed so my dad couldn't see the tears streaming from my eyes as my uncle's dick violated my ass. God it hurt! Losing my virginity was a walk in the park compared to this! I wanted to cry out for him to stop, to take it out of me and never put it in me again but I knew I had to take it. I had to do this for my father. "Damn, all that and only half way in," Uncle Jim said as he panted from his efforts.

He grabbed my hips and pulled me back into him as he pushed harder against me and forced his dick deeper inside of my ass. God, would he ever get it all the way in me?

"Ahhhhhh, there we go," he finally got out as his pubic hair tickled my ass like a coarse hair brush.

Now that he was in me, he started to stroke his dick in and out of me. At first he only pulled out a little bit so he could easily stuff it back in me all the way again. As things went, he kept pulling out more and more until finally he was fucking my ass like he fucked my pussy - nothing but long, hard, rhythmic strokes. There was no way I was going to cum being fucked this way. Indeed, it was all I could do to not cry out in pain and beg him to stop. My only hope was that he would cum and cum fast so I figured it was in my best interest to help him along.

"Oh god, that feels so good... fuck me ass Uncle Jim... cum in my ass," I pleaded, lying my ass off but they didn't need to know that. At least all my dirty talk seemed to have the desired effect.

"God damn... almost there," he groaned, pumping his dick stiff hard into my tight ass. Suddenly I felt his cum in my ass, like an enema which for me, is NOT a cool thing.

Well, he certainly seemed to be enjoying it. It was all I could do to hang in there until he had expended himself and withdrew from my ass.

Later when my dad apologized to me, I tried to assure him that he had nothing to feel guilty about. Even so, for the past week it's been like he was some hurt little puppy, moping about whenever I was around and trying to do anything he could to please me. At least THAT wasn't too hard to do as all he had to do was fuck me and he made me as happy as he possibly could!

My birthday was coming up soon. God, it was hard to believe that I was going to be 23 years old on the first of the month! I felt like I was becoming so old. It didn't seem that long ago when I was just sixteen and anyone in the twenties was ancient! The only good thing now about birthdays was wondering what my parents would be getting me. A nicer apartment or a new car would be fine with me but I knew it wouldn't be anything quite so dramatic. My dad had been hinting at something good but so far all he'd done was tease me about it without really saying anything definitive.

A client was in town and needed someone to escort him to lunch at some conference downtown. It was pretty routine, lasting a few hours and then I was back home again to find my mom had left a voice mail on my phone while I was out working. "Hey dear, would you like to join us for dinner tonight? Since it's your birthday tomorrow and everyone will be coming over, I thought you might want to spend some family time tonight before things got too busy on Saturday. Give me a call when you get home. Hope you're having fun! Bye... mom."

I listened to it again and wondered what she was up to. Since moving to my own apartment, I rarely spent the night at my parent's house anymore. Even if I was over and my dad fucked me, I returned to my apartment for the rest of the night. Since I can remember my parents have always considered their bedroom as THEIR sanctuary and even after we started having sex together, I still rarely saw them having sex. So why was she asking me to spend the night? There was no doubt in my mind where I would be spending it - in their bed, so what was up? Did this have something to do with my birthday present?

I called my mom back to tell her I would be over shortly and quickly packed a light bag with some makeup and toiletries and clothes to wear in the morning. I only lived a few minutes away from them so I would undoubtedly return home in the morning to get ready for whatever birthday celebration activities they had plotted for me. She seemed excited that I was coming but she didn't say much as I would be over there in a short while anyway.

Before leaving, I took a quick shower and shaved myself, wanting to be sure I was smooth and clean for my daddy. As the shower rinsed the cream from my pussy, I leaned back and enjoyed the feel of the pulsating water as it struck my crotch and felt oh so good. My hand moved between my thighs and my finger started to press against my clit. God I was so damn horny! My client this afternoon had been single, handsome, and about ten years older than me. He was quite polite and I got the impression most likely quite rich as well. God I would have loved to have had him fuck me! Something told me he wouldn't have minded if I'd offered myself to him but we both knew what the rules were for my agency so I just returned home with the memory of him grabbing my ass a bit but nothing more than that.

When I got to my parent's house it was still early meaning my dad wasn't home yet from work. My mom was fixing dinner so I sat down at the kitchen table to chat a bit with her. It had been a while since we had some quality mom-daughter time. Actually, except for church we hadn't really talked since my dad and uncle did their thing.

"You know Kelly, I really appreciate what you did for your dad last week," my mom started out, "After hearing what happened I feel a little guilty since I was the one that asked you to do it in the first place."

"Oh mom, that's OK, it was no big deal," I tried to reassure her. She knew better.

"Kelly, I can't tell you how much your dad appreciated what you did for him," she continued, "I know he has told you about it and such but you would have had to see the change in his attitude to really understand."

"Well, I was afraid when I asked him to tell Uncle Jim not to fuck me anymore that something like that would happen. I know how much Dad love being with Tammy."

"Yeah, he's been horny for her since she was like 11 or 12," my mom laughed, "I don't know how her mother never caught him with that whopping erection he would get whenever she was around him, especially by the pool in that hot bikini she wore last summer. How she convinced her mother to let her wear it I'll' never understand."

"What makes you sure she didn't see him and just ignored it?"

"OH god no!" my mom exclaimed, "Your Aunt Shari would have killed them both on the spot if she even had an inkling of what they were doing!"

"So has Dad fucked Tammy since then?" I asked.

"Well, I can't say I was expecting this!" my dad greeted me with a grin, "Been quite a while, hasn't it?"

Geeze, I hadn't realized that it had been THAT long ago for both of my parents to comment on the matter. Grabbing his wet flaccid cock in my hand, I grinned at him and replied, "So daddy, have you missed me holding you like this?"

I felt his dick stir in my hand as he chuckled in response to my silly question. Between the cascading water and soap it was so slippery that it was like trying to hold a wet sausage. Fortunately, this sausage was well anchored at one end! He turned so his back was to the showerhead, shielding me from most of the water.

Carefully I squatted down until my head was level with his dripping wet crotch and stroked his growing dick in my hand. It was still covered in soap and while I appreciated that my father practiced good personal hygiene, having soap in my mouth was not one of my favorite things. The more I stroked him the more the soap rinsed off his cock, and the more he grew and hardened. I gently played with his balls and ran my fingers through his matted-down pubic hair to clean out any soap that remained. Finally, there right in front of me, was one of my most favorite things - a glistening clean hard daddy dick!

Pushing my soaking wet hair back and out of the way, I looked up at him. Our eyes met and we both grinned, each of us knowing exactly what was going to happen next. Holding his cock still, I took the tip of it in my mouth and sucked on it, then the whole head was in my mouth. He still had just the slight taste of soap but it was nothing unbearable and I knew it would disappear more as I sucked him. You might say I've had some experience in the matter.

"That's it baby, suck it," he groaned as I took more of him in my mouth quickly until my face was buried in his wet clean crotch, "God I love it when you suck my cock!"

Well, if he was totally honest he would have said he loved it when his cock was sucked - period. However, I like to think that as his daughter it means a little extra special to him to look down and see his dick moving in and out of my mouth. Personally, I've sucked literally hundreds of cocks over the past nine years or so but there is one that will always be special to me - my dad's.

I grabbed the base of his wet shaft and twisted my hand around it as I sucked on the upper half of his dick. Both my head and hand were turning on his cock but in opposite directions, my tongue playing on it inside of my mouth. Then I had just the head in my mouth, holding it like a sucker as my hand ran up and down his stiff shaft, stroking him like I was giving him a hand job but with the added bonus that he got to feel my lips over his cock head.

"Damn that feels so good," he kept groaning over and over again, "Here, get up now so I can fuck you before I cum."

I gingerly stood up and he held me by the shoulders to ensure I didn't slip as I turned around and put my hands against the wall of the shower opposite the shower head. He had the shower pointed down so the back wall was quite dry and I was able to plant my hands there and lean forward, allowing my ass to stick out for my dad's enjoyment. I was rewarded by the feeling of his strong hands on my bare hips, gripping me tightly. I let my feet slide out to each side until they were pushing against the side of the bathtub and made it easier for me to keep my balance.

"Have I ever told you that your ass is fucking incredible?" he mused, saying it just loud enough for me to hear over the noise of the shower. Well, maybe a thousand times before but of course, he could tell me a thousand time more and I would never tire of him telling me.

I lowered my head and concentrated on standing up without falling down while I felt his cock press up against my wet ass and slide up my crack until he was pressed against my butt with his cock on top my ass, almost like a hotdog on a bun. He rubbed himself up and down between my butt cheeks, stroking himself like he would do sometimes between my boobs but using my butt this time instead.

Eventually my dad pulled back more and his cock dropped down between my legs, passing over my puckered asshole as it did. My dad didn't even make an attempt to press it in my ass and let it just glide by. As much as he probably wanted to push it in, he knew how I felt about anal sex and my dad would never do anything to me that he knew I didn't like - sexually at least. When his dick dropped it then slipped down to between my legs. I started to reach for it with my hand but I almost slipped and so he took his dick by himself and positioned it so it was now at the entrance to my pussy.

"Fuck me daddy," I said softly to him, trying to look back over my shoulder at him, "Please fuck me now... Show your daughter how much you love her."

Of course it was totally unnecessary for me to tell him that but from the smile on his face I knew it was music to his ears. Actually, it would probably have been harder to convince him NOT to fuck me at this moment than anything else. My dad gets horny just like any other man and just because the pussy in front of him was his own daughter's, that didn't mean he didn't want it with the same animal-like lust he would get for any other pussy. No, you could bet the bank that he was about to push that dick in me - and I was counting on it.

He gripped his stiff cock with one hand and rubbed it up and down my pussy slit, working it between my lips more with each pass I wanted him in me, wanted to feel my father's stiff cock stretch my hungry pussy open and force itself deep inside of my body. I wanted to feel him penetrate me, to feel him join his body with mine. Actually, you could sum it up by simply I wanted my dad to fuck me!

"Now daddy," I urged him, holding his dick still at the entrance to my pussy, "Push it in me now... Give me your love!"

My father's hands gripped my hips even tighter and he pulled me back into him while at the same time thrust his hips forward. I gasped as his dick slide easily into my wet pussy, driving inward non-stop until he was quickly buried inside of me. God it felt so good in me! He immediately started to pump himself in and out me, driving himself in until his crotch met with my wet ass and then pulling back until most of him was out of me and then immediately back in again. I was in heaven!

"You love this, don't you?" he asked rhetorically, "You just love a dick in that nasty cunt of yours, don't you? God you're such a fucking sexy slut!"

I loved it when he got a bit carried away and started talking to me that way. Under the circumstance I didn't take it as anything bad or demeaning but rather as a sign of how much I was turning him on. When he got so horny that his lust consumed him to the point he didn't worry about what he said to me, it was then that I knew I was making him feel really good.

"Yes daddy, I'm your fucking slut... fuck my cunt daddy, shove that fucking dick in me harder!"

He responded by simply banging me harder, slapping up against my ass so hard it make a smacking noise.

"Almost there...," he groaned, driving himself deep into me.

Any other time I would have gripped his cock as hard as I could with my pussy and wait for his to orgasm and fill my pussy with sperm. For some reason, I FELT like a dirty slut and I wanted him to be nasty to me so I suddenly straightened up, causing his dick to drop out of me. I quickly turned around and before he could protest I squatted down and grabbed his dick with both hands, stroking his and jerking on his dick as fast and hard as I could to make him cum.

"What the...," he started to say and then his orgasm hit and he just groaned loudly.

I had his dick aimed at my face and the first shot struck me on the forehead right between the eyes, quickly followed by another that hit my nose and upper lip. Again and again he shot his cum at me like a water pistol. After the first few I opened my mouth and took the remaining loads inside, my lips wrapped tightly around his dick as I literally sucked the last drops of incestual sperm from his cock. God I loved the taste of my dad's cum! When he was finished, I continued to stroke his dick and suck on his cock. I felt him shudder as my tongue explored the tip of his dick, pressing in against the tiny slit where he had just shot out his cum.

"Christ that felt good," he gasped, taking in deep breaths as he panted from the exertion.

I stood up and grinned at him. I could only imagine what I looked like with his cum all over my face. As it turned out, I didn't have to imagine it, he told me.

"You look so fucking hot with my cum all over your face," he said with a big grin on his face.

"Oh? So you like me to look like a cumslut, eh daddy?" I teased him, "And here I always thought you preferred to cum in my pussy."

He sighed and smiled at me. Then he surprised me by kissing me and sticking his tongue in his mouth. As much as my dad loved sex, he was a typical guy in that he treated cum like it was radioactive. For him to kiss me with my mouth still lined with his cum, and then to let the cum on my face stick to his as we kissed was unusual, to put it mildly.

I have to admit that one of the reasons I so easily allowed him to defile me with his cum this time was that we were already in the shower and so I could wash it off quickly before it dried like glue in my hair and on my face. I grabbed the soap and washcloth and moved past him to get to the full power of the shower and scrubbed my face. A generous amount of shampoo in my hair helped to rid it of the little bit of cum that had managed to get on it.

In the meantime, his lust had drained from him along with his sperm count and he slipped out of the shower to dry off. I heard him gargle with some mouthwash and grinned. He had made a good effort to be loving by kissing me but I'm sure the taste of his cum had been revolting to him.

By the time I was finished he was already out of the bathroom and in their bedroom getting dressed. I dried my hair and when I finally was finished and left the room, he was waiting for me out in the hallway holding one of the roses he had brought home for me before.

"C'mon dad, admit it, you love fucking her, don't you?" I pushed him, adding little giggle to my voice to take any edge off of it.

"Well...," he said, rolling his eyes.

"Exactly," I said, as if concluding a point in a debate, "So no more of this guilt crap, OK? Besides, if you DIDN'T enjoy it, THEN you should feel guilty."

"Whatever," he said, conceding the debate, "But in any case, I just wanted to make it up to you somehow. How would you like me to take you out shopping this evening?"

Well duh! What girl would ever say no to such a question?

"We can go anywhere you want," he continued, "But just so you know, I want it to be more than just buying you things. I want us to have a fun father-daughter night out. What do you say?"

Had any other father said that to his daughter, I would have thought it to be sweet and just an innocent evening at the mall. However, when my dad uses the word "fun", it has a special meaning to it that most fathers wouldn't intend. As an example of me having "fun" with my dad, I ended up fucking a couple of his clients from work right in front of him. (Of course, they had no idea I was his daughter.) My pussy suddenly tingled and I got that feeling I get in me when I know I'm going to have a good time soon.

"Oh????" I responded innocently, "So what should I wear?"

My dad just laughed, knowing full well I was just teasing him, and then he got up and said, "Well, since you'll be trying on clothes I guess something that comes off easy would be appropriate."

"Appropriate" my ass! I knew the LAST thing my dad would want me to wear was something appropriate.

"Well, get going and we'll go as soon as you're ready."

He walked out and headed downstairs while I hurriedly scoured through my closet for something to wear. Fortunately I had left a few outfits at their house when I moved to my apartment. I frowned as noted that some of the outfits I would have loved to wear were over there now but I did have one that looked to be perfect for the occasion. It took me about half an hour to get my hair looking a little less disastrous, put a bit of makeup on, and then get dressed. One last look in the mirror to check things out and I was ready to go.

I rushed down the stairs with all the bounce and enthusiasm I use to have going down these same stairs as a little girl on Christmas morning. When I went into the kitchen, my mom and dad were sitting down with some coffee and my dad turned to look at me. His eyes opened wide and let out a soft wolf whistle.

"Wow, you look fabulous," he said, mimicking the tone of some TV comic.

I smiled and twirled about, giving him a 360 view of my outfit. It wasn't exactly original but it was perfect for tonight. The short pleated white denim skirt hugged my ass like a glove before it descended down legs just barely enough to hide the black thong underneath. About the only thing the thong hid was my pussy itself and then only barely. From the rear, unless you saw the strap that went around my waist, you would've probably thought I was naked as the one that went down my ass crack was so thin it just hid inside my crack like a wedgie (which it also felt like to be honest).

A wide black belt contrasted nicely with the white skirt. On top I was wearing a black tube top with a sheer white blouse over the top. The blouse was only buttoned half-way up as it was one or two sizes too small and never would have stretched over my boobs. This caused it to be tight and showed off the curvature of my bust under the tight tube blouse. My mom looked at me and smiled, giving me her non-verbal approval while my dad just acted like a teenage boy seeing a stripper for the first time - and I was fully dressed!

"Well, ready to go daddy?" I asked, wiggling my hips suggestively.

My dad looked at my mom and I could tell he was about to change his mind and just take me then and there but as always, my mom, the conscience of the Wells family, set him straight.

"You're not getting off THAT easy dear," she admonished him gently, "You promised her a shopping trip so get going and take her."

It was only a short drive to the mall. There were several we could have gone to and had I been intent on simply buying some new outfits, the closest one would actually have been my preference. It was made up primarily of boutique stores with a great selection of the latest, and most expensive, fashions. However, something told me tonight the shopping was just an excuse for having "fun" with my dad so the larger mall was the our destination. I behaved myself the entire way there, something which I wasn't sure if he was all that happy about to be honest. Oh well, if he wanted to have "fun" he was going to have help out a bit.

We entered the mall through the food court entrance. There were lots of people sitting around and I felt that tingle I get when I noticed some of the guys staring at me. Most of them tried to make it appear they weren't but a girl can always tell. I was sure my dad had to feel proud to have me on his arm as we walked in. At 22, all but a few hours away from being 23, it wasn't like I was obviously his little girl any more. Anyone that knew us (and I didn't see any) would have seen me simply holding my dad's arm as we walked through the food court. As for the rest, they undoubtedly had to be thinking that here was an older man going through a mid-life crisis, dating a younger girl or maybe even an escort.

Since we hadn't eaten at home, I asked him if we could grab some Chinese which we did. Sitting at one of the tables, I had to be careful to keep the skirt around me as it wanted to ride up to my waist when I sat down. There's a fine line between showing off and getting busted for indecent exposure and I like to think I'm a pro at nudging right up to the edge of that line. I smiled to myself as I saw several guys deliberately taking a path that allowed them to get a better view of my legs, probably hoping I would part them a little more so they could see what, if anything, was hiding underneath the skimpy skirt. My dad grinned at me as he realized what I was doing.

"You're really bad, you know that?" he said admiringly, "We'd better get going before you draw too big a crowd."

As we walked thought the mall, my dad put his arm around me. He didn't exactly grab my ass but put his hand on my hip so he was touching more the side of me than my butt. Again, there's a line between being suggestive and outright flagrant.

"So dad, where to first?" I asked him.

We were right in front of a jewelry store and he led me inside. It was a smaller store, not like the big chains that dominated the corners of the mall, and empty except for us and a lone girl behind the counter. No sooner than we walked in than an older couple came in behind us. The girl started to serve us as we were the first to arrive but my dad smiled and offered to wait while she took care of the older couple. The guy thanked my dad and they started talking about it being their 50th anniversary and such. Boring!

I leaned over the counter as if to get a better view of the diamond necklaces under the glass. As I did, my skirt rose up and I could feel it starting to just barely pass over the bottom of my ass. Needless to say, I didn't make any effort to pull it back down. My dad moved in beside me and this time, instead of putting his hand on my hip, planted it square on my ass cheek, his bottom finger just off the edge of the material such that it touched my bare flesh. I could see the other couple and the girl in the mirror in front of me and I just pretended to point out some of the more interesting pieces below us. Actually, I was looking in the mirror more than anywhere else.

"Now Kelly, I see what you're doing. You want them to see your cute ass, don't you my little slut?" my dad whispered in my ear so softly I could barely hear him.

With that he pulled his hand up slightly, just enough to pull my skirt up to where it exposed the bottom of my butt on that side. I could see in the mirror that the couple was facing away from us but the clerk was definitely aware of what was happening across the aisle from her. She seemed to be having a hard time paying attention to her customers for some reason!

"She sees you," my dad whispered again, "Does it turn you on to show her your hot ass?"

"Yesssssss," was all I could say back.

My pussy was tingling so bad it was all I could do to keep standing up. What I REALLY needed was to lay down on the floor, spread my legs, and rub myself like crazy! It didn't make it any easier when my dad pulled up my skirt even more - a LOT more this time. My entire ass felt the coolness of the air against it as he lifted my skirt up completely. The couple were both leaning over several pieces of jewelry the girl had brought out for them and never even threatened to turn around. The clerk, however, was now openly staring at me. A few times they would ask her a question and it was like they had to say everything twice to get her attention. I looked at the store entrance a little nervously but it didn't appear anyone was even thinking about entering the place.

"Let's give her a REAL show," my dad continued. He put his hand on my all but bare ass and squeezed my butt a bit before moving it down between my legs.

As my dad pulled the thong aside, I spread my legs apart a bit to make it easier for him, not to mention giving her a better view as well. My dad pushed his middle finger up and into my pussy. GOD! I was about to cry out but somehow managed to just keep it a minor gasp, but it was still loud enough for the others to hear. My dad quickly pulled his finger out and dropped my skirt and not a moment too soon. The woman turned her head to see what was wrong with me. I tried to pretend that I didn't notice that she was looking at me and pointed to something in the case and gasped again, saying something to my dad about how beautiful it was. Apparently she bought the ruse as she turned back and started talking to her husband again.

She wasn't even all the way turned around before my dad was going for my ass and pussy again. I think he was as turned on as I was and he couldn't wait to get his finger in me again. He wetted his finger in my pussy and then pulled it out and reached up further to my clit. OMG, I was about to cum any second! As he touched my clit it was like my legs just got weaker and I leaned more on the counter to keep my balance.

My orgasm was so close I could almost taste it. Just then the couple straightened up and once again my dad pulled his finger out from my crotch and yanked down my skirt. It was even closer this time and I don't know if he got it all the way down before they saw us. The guy didn't seem to have a clue but the wife certainly seemed suspicious. She gave me a look that clearly sent the message that she was disgusted with me, and my dad, and took her husband by the arm and led him out of the store without another word.

4. Shocking the Store Clerk

The poor clerk looked both disappointed and yet relieved at the same time. It was a shame she didn't make a sale to the couple but then again, now it was just the three of us in the store.

"Sorry about that," I said to her contritely, "We didn't mean to make them leave."

"Don't worry, they've been in here a dozen times now and still haven't spent a penny," she said as she shrugged her shoulders indifferently. Then she gave us both a funny look as she started to say something but then seemed to think better of it and stayed quiet. Then she changed her mind again and came over to us on the other side of the counter.

"Ummmmm, I don't know how to say this but was all that just a tease or what?"

"That depends. Would you like it to be more?" my dad said, taking the lead.

Her face flushed and she seemed again to be uncertain what to say. She glanced at the entrance but business was certainly slow as nobody was even looking in the windows. She was a cute girl, maybe in her early twenties. More the girl- next- door look than fashion model. Her blonde hair was pulled back rather severely into a bun and her clothes were that of a girl trying to look business- like. It's a shame so many girls think they have to dress like a man to be accepted seriously when there are so many feminine outfit choices today.

Seeing she was tongue-tied, my dad continued with, "Is there someplace in back where we can be a little less conspicuous?"

What he was inferring without actually saying it was that he wanted to fuck me but even he knew better than to do it in the middle of a store open to the public. It as naughty enough to feel me up where anyone walking in would have gotten an eyeful but to fuck me was another matter entirely. She was pretty sharp and I could tell from the way she looked at me that she got the message, loud and clear. Now it was up to her.

"Well, we have an office in back where they do the paperwork," she offered.

"Do you mind?" my dad said, taking me by the hand and leading me to the back even before she could respond. There was only one door at the rear of the store so it wasn't like we needed directions. My heart was pounding as we stepped into a cluttered office and the girl followed behind us. She stood in the doorway, as if wanting to watch what was going on inside but at the same time allowing her to keep an eye on the store.

"By the way, I'm Kelly," I introduced myself She simply replied, "Cindy."

"And this is my dad. You can call him John."

Until now she had been looking at us with a mixture of curiosity and trepidation. All that disappeared from her face as her mouth dropped open and her blue eyes widened.

"He's your... father?" she asked, her voice almost failing her.

"I guess you could say I'm a daddy's girl," I teased her and then reached up to kiss my dad on the lips. He responded by hugging me tight and sharing his tongue while Cindy just stood there and stared.

"You mean you've never wanted to fuck your dad, Cindy?" I continued to tease her as I dropped by thong to the floor and stepped out of it, leaving it there for the time being. "NO!" she gasped, "I would NEVER do that!"

"Well Cindy, you don't know what you've been missing," I said in a sultry tone, switching my gaze between my dad and her. "Show her how you fuck daddy."

"Whatever you want baby," he replied, undoing his pants in the process.

He dropped them the floor and left them by my thong, leaving on his shirt which hung down and partially covered his ass and crotch, but not enough to hide his dick from sticking out between the flaps. I reached down and held his cock in my hand, slowly stroking it with one hand.

"So Cindy, what do you think of my daddy's dick? Isn't it just awesome"

Something told me Cindy wasn't going to be saying much from here on out. Her mouth was stuck in a partially open position and her eyes were riveted to my dad's crotch where my hand held his stiff dick.

"Do you want to watch me suck it Cindy?" I asked her, not expecting a reply but happy with just a further widening of her eyes at the suggestion of me giving my dad a blowjob.

There was no sense waiting for a response that was never going to come so I bent my knees and squatted in front of my dad and took his dick in my mouth. Since basically this was a show for Cindy, I went straight at it and took his entire dick in my mouth, burying my face in his thick pubic hair with my nose pressed into his crotch. My dad, realizing what I was doing, kept Cindy involved.

"Oh god that feels good! What do you think of my daughter Cindy? Look at her taking it all."

I bobbed my head back and forth, sucking his cock like a cheap porn star. His cock was just long enough that the final inch or so had to go down my throat but that wasn't difficult compared to some of the longer ones I've sucked over the years. I turned my head to look at Cindy, keeping my dad's dick in my mouth the entire time. She was looking at us with an almost blank look on her face, as if she couldn't believe what she was watching. At the same time, she wasn't making any effort to stop us or even look away.

"Didn't you ever want to suck your daddy's dick Cindy?" I asked, letting his dick flop from my mouth to catch my breath. I stroked his wet shaft with both hands as I grinned at Amy. Actually, at the moment I was more turned in by her watching us than the actual BJ I was giving my dad. She just shook her head violently back and forth.

"You mean you're daddy never got hard when you sat on his lap Cindy?" I teased her some more, "Didn't you ever catch him staring when you wore a sexy bikini?"

The poor girl, I almost felt sorry for her. It was obvious she had never been involved in anything like this before and she was way out of her comfort zone. Yet at the same time it was like watching a horrible car accident, you know you shouldn't watch but at the same time you can't tear your eyes away.

I stood up and turned around, putting my hands on the edge of the desk. Stepping back a bit so I was leaning over onto the desk, I spread my legs shamelessly to give my dad, and especially Cindy, a clear view of my shaved pussy. Again, this was more for the fun of seeing Cindy's reactions than intimate sex so my dad didn't waste any time when it came to his turn. He lined himself up with my pussy and shoved his dick in me, pushing it in to the hilt until I could feel his lush pubic hair pressed between him and my bare butt. I gasped, a little melodramatically to be sure, at the pure pleasure that rippled through me as he drove his cock in my pussy.

"Oh God Cindy, he feels so good!" I gasped again, looking over at her to see her reaction to my father fucking me. I had a feeling she thought we were just teasing her before when I mentioned him fucking me. To see a girl's father actually drill his daughter's pussy right in front of her had to be quite a shock.

"Fuck me daddy," I said to him, making sure Cindy heard me. I made sure to include the "daddy" part because I wanted to emphasize that my own father was fucking me.

"Oh yeah baby, your pussy is so damn tight!" he groaned as he thrust himself over and over into my pussy, driving his stiff shaft as deep as he could into me and pulling out most of the way before driving himself back in again. There wasn't a whole lot of technique involved, but I was sure it had to look hot as hell for Cindy.

"I bet your daddy would love to do this to you too Cindy," my dad said, not slowing a bit as he continued to pound my pussy. "I bet your daddy still masturbates wishing he could fuck you... just like I'm fucking my daughter now."

Cindy maintained her "deer-in-the-headlights" stare. I noticed her licking her lips more and she shifted her weight about as if something was itching inside. I had a pretty good idea what was itching!

"Do you want my daddy to fuck you too?" I offered with a naughty grin as my dad's dick continued to pound me.

It was a calculated risk. Of course my dad would never actually fuck her as that would be adultery for him, but she didn't know that. From the way she acted I knew she would never say yes but I just had to see how she reacted. I wasn't disappointed. She gasped and her mouth dropped open. She didn't say anything but from the way her face flushed and she shook her head it was perfectly clear that the idea turned her on but was WAY she would actually do it.

For whatever reason, seeing her reaction was the final straw. Between everything my dad and I had done so far, the feeling of him inside of me, and now the way Cindy was staring at us as he fucked me, was more than enough to get me off - and hard!

"Oh God daddy, make me cum!" I cried out softly. Thank goodness nobody was in the store because odds were they would have heard enough to arouse their suspicions. The way my pussy was feeling though, I wouldn't have given a damn who heard me.

"Oh Cindy, my daddy's making me cum!" I called over to her, wishing she would join us until I suddenly gasped and moaned as this tremendous feeling of pleasure and lust suddenly overwhelmed me. God I felt so good! I wasn't faking it, not in the least. Cindy was getting to see me cumming for real - and really hard at that!

It was all I could do to stand on my two feet as my dad helped steady me. I dropped my head and sagged as my legs felt like Jell-O and my entire body was tingling like one giant funny bone had been hit.

"Oh daddy, that feels so damn good!" I exclaimed as my pussy tightened down on his dick like a vise.

"I cumming too baby," my dad suddenly announced.

Normally we would have stretched this out a lot longer, maybe until my second orgasm, but that wasn't going to happen under these circumstances. Besides, I was getting almost as worked up over the show we were putting on for Cindy as I was about my dad's cock inside of me.

Although my dad loves to cum in my pussy more than anywhere else, for a brief moment I thought he was going to pull out and squirt his cum on my ass for Cindy's benefit. He pulled his dick out of me but instead of shooting his cum on my butt, he grabbed my hips and spun me around. To my surprise, he pushed his dick to my mouth and I opened my lips without even thinking about what I was doing, reacting totally on instinct.

"Oh fuck!" my dad groaned as he stroked his cock a few time until he started squirting his cum into my mouth. I leaned forward to make sure his dick was in my mouth and I could feel the warm loads of cum stroke the back of my throat. The sharp taste and slimy feel of his cum in my mouth was so nice. He finally gave it one last jerk and then held still as I tried to swallow the cum they had collected at the back of my throat.

When he was finished, I turned to Cindy and opened my mouth so she could see my dad's cum that remained on it. I felt so proud of my dad! Then I closed my mouth and swallowed the rest of it down, turning back to Cindy then and showing her my empty mouth.

"Mmmmmmm, my dad's cock and cum taste so good. You don't know what you're missing Cindy," I teased her some more.

With that I grabbed our clothes from the floor and stood up. I handed my dad back his stuff and he quickly dressed while I slipped my thong back on. When we were ready I led the way back out to the store. Cindy took her position behind the counter, acting as though nothing had happened. A closer look at her would have dispelled that rumor. Her face was beet red and I could have sworn I smelled her sex.

She was really turned on! Just then a couple of guys walked in, one with what looked to be a girlfriend. Hmmmmmm, pretty hot! Too bad they hadn't come in a little earlier! My dad looked at Cindy and smiled.

"OK, so where were we? I think I like the ones in this case."

At first I thought my dad was just playing along but then I saw what he was referring to - some of the most beautiful Leo diamond earrings!

"What do you think Cindy, does my daughter deserve these?" he asked, pointing to one of the pairs.

Cindy looked at me and then smiled demurely at my dad saying, "Oh I think she deserves THESE even more."

I could have kissed her. She held out a pair of 1 caret earrings (each) and handed them to my dad.

"I think she would great walking out of the store in these, don't you sir?

My dad looked at me and smiled. He nodded at Cindy and pulled out his wallet to buy them for me. My dad is SO wonderful! After he had paid, Cindy put the earrings in my ears and I winked at her, quickly licking my lips for her benefit.

"Well, I hope this was your best sale today Cindy," I said to her softly. The others may have overheard me but there was nothing in what I said that would have told them WHY I thought it would be her best sale. Note that I didn't say her "most expensive" sale (although they DID cost a fortune.

"Oh I don't know," she said, almost giggling like a school girl passing notes in class, "It may be my all-time best!"

We said goodbye so she could serve the other customers. As we walked out my dad gave me a hug.

"Well Kelly, does that make-up for everything?" he said with a grin.

"Oh daddy, I LOVE the earrings!" I exclaimed. The look on his face as priceless! "Oh daddy, you know I am teasing you. I love the earrings but I LOVED how you fucked me before. That was SO hot!"

I couldn't wait to get home to tell my mom all about it. My mom always told me that makeup sex was the best. Well, I bet she never had great makeup sex AND an expensive pair of earrings, all at the same time.

(Mar 01) Chapter 160: Birthday Present From My Friends

Story codes: MF F-solo oral
Me (23)
Beth - BFF (24)
Kristen - cousin (20)

You only turn 23 once and although it's not usually thought of as a "significant" birthday, my girlfriends weren't going to let it go by without celebrating it. With a little help from some friends, it was indeed a birthday to remember.

1. Masturbating While Thinking About Steve

When you're growing up, there are a lot of milestones marked by birthdays. Turning thirteen announces you're a teenager, sixteen allows you to drive, seventeen makes you "legal" (at least in my state), eighteen gives you the right to vote (even when there's nobody worth voting for) as well as the liability to be convicted as an "adult", twenty marks the end of your teen years, and finally twenty-one makes it legal to drink.

So far, for the most part each one has marked something new and better, more freedom and less supervision. But what about after that? It seems to me it's all downhill. I mean, who REALLY wants to turn thirty (or forty or more)? People rationalize but face it, your body starts to deteriorate, boobs sag, hips increase, arms get flabby. God, I don't want to get older! As you may have guessed, I do NOT look forward to birthdays anymore and my twenty-third was no exception. What good was it other than to remind me I was just one more year closer to that dreaded 3-0?

To be fair, there IS one thing that is good about a birthday - gifts. OK, so I'm a little selfish and I enjoy receiving gifts - sue me. Of course, there are gifts and then there are GIFTS. Most people give you something because they feel obligated. They buy you something that is good enough to fulfill their obligation but nothing more if at all possible resulting in the inevitable sweater, gift card, joke gift, and so forth. I'm not trying to say that they don't mean anything to me - hey, a gift is a gift after all.

It's just that there are sometimes one or two gifts that are special, that really mean a lot to me when I receive them.

Sure, sometimes they are expensive, like when my dad gave me a car. Other times they can be heart-warming, like when my friends all sent flowers to my school on my first day. While expensive clothes and jewelry are certainly welcome, deep down it's the ones that tug at my emotional strings that I treasure the most.

This year my birthday fell on a weekend - Saturday to be more precise. At the time, I was still working for my escort agency although interviews for a potential teaching position were going well. Thus typically my Saturday nights were booked well in advance but my agency was kind enough to let me off when I told them it was my birthday. I don't know, something about spending my evening with a total stranger just staring down my blouse and fondling my leg while telling me all about his life problems just wasn't my idea of how I wanted to spend my birthday. Instead, I figured that I would probably spend the day at my parents as this was the first time that I'd been around for my birthday after four years of college and my mom had already forewarned me that she was inviting some of the relatives over for a party. Hmmm, maybe the escorting gig wasn't such a bad thing after all!

Saturday morning rolled around and I treated myself to sleeping in. Yesterday had been a wild but wonderful day. My dad had taken me out to buy me some beautiful diamond earrings and before it was over, we were doing it in the back room of the jewelry store while the clerk watched. As he drove me home, I figured the day was over since my birthday was the next day and my mom had plans for quite the party. My cell phone rang and it was my escorting agency, asking me if I could fill in for one of the girls who had a "personal problem". I agreed and kissed my dad goodnight, knowing I would be seeing him the next day again.

The client had insisted on a late dinner and then he droned on for what seemed like hours later. Sheesh, talk about boring! Some guys just seem to need someone's shoulder to cry on and I was blessed with having to listen to his many woes concerning his unfaithful wife, ungrateful kids, and a dead-end job with a boss from hell. Well, that's what I get paid for but it doesn't mean I have to enjoy it.

Of course, he didn't just talk to me. His hand would wander under the table and fondle my leg, pulling my skirt up and trying to reach between my legs for a feel. I let him get away with touching my leg but anything more was off-limits. No doubt he wanted me to offer to go to his hotel room and must have figured that if he kept going on long enough I would cave in and head up the elevator with him (we were around it. My lips moved and I sucked on a finger from my other hand as I played back my first BJ in my head. As much as it excited me to suck him, what was best for me was the way Steve reacted. It didn't take long for me to realize that he was completely under my control, that he would do literally anything to keep his dick in my mouth. Damn, now THAT was power and I'd never felt so controlling over a boy before - over anyone for that matter.

It wasn't until later that he fucked me and I plunged my middle finger deep into my pussy as I recalled how he had taken my virginity. Needless to say I was tighter back then, a LOT tighter although most men still tell me that my pussy is tight - for a girl my age (oh my god, that sounds terrible!). My pussy was throbbing as I remembered how hard it was for Steve to force his stiff dick into my virgin pussy that first time. Damn, it HURT, a lot more than what most people seem to say, especially in those silly sex stories where they make it sound like it is just some momentary thing that goes away quickly. Well, let me tell you the pain never did go entirely away that day, but it was true that the more he fucked me the more it was masked by the pleasure he was creating within me. Imagine fucking while someone is sticking a hot needle in you and you get the idea. The pain is still there but at least you get something to help you feel better about it.

Now I plunged two fingers into my wet pussy as memories of him pushing his cock deeper and deeper into me flooded my consciousness. I looked down at my shaved pussy, seeing my fingers inside of me and recalled how my heart leaped that first time when I looked down and saw his hairy crotch pressed up against mine, his dick nowhere to be seen. From the feelings inside of me at the time, there was no uncertainty as to where it WAS, that was for sure. It seemed almost unbelievable that his dick was finally INSIDE of me, that we were literally joined together in such as special, intimate manner.

God, you can imagine how soaking wet I was by now. With the fingers of one hand working on my clit, I played with my pussy hole with the other. My orgasm start to rise within me, just as it had my first time with Steve. As he fucked me, I felt sharp stabs of pain in my pussy as his dick rubbed against my newly torn flesh Despite that, I never, not even for an instant, wanted him to pull out as I had never felt anything this wonderful before in my life. God, I was being fucked - and I loved it! Even back then, I knew having sex was something special for me. Something deep inside of me told me that I would be having a more dicks in me - and boy was I ever right on that one!

My orgasm peaked like someone had drenched me with gasoline and lit a match. It felt like my skin was burning up, like I was having an intense fever and I could feel it over every inch of my body. Even the roots of my hair on my head tingled and my fingers and hands felt almost numb as they worked non-stop on my pussy.

Then, just when I thought it couldn't get any better, I thought about how Steve had cum in me, flooding my newly initiated pussy with a huge load of his teenage sperm. At the time it never crossed my mind that I wasn't protected. My mom obviously thought I would be waiting a little longer to have sex but she had me on the pill soon enough but on this day it was pure luck I didn't get pregnant. Was it stupid of me? Maybe and I wouldn't recommend it, but I know one thing and that is I would have regretted it for the rest of my life if he had worn a condom. I will NEVER forget the feeling of the first time a dick unloaded inside of me. Of course, I wouldn't have known the difference if he had been wearing a condom that first time but I cherish the memory now.

Needless to say, memories of my boyfriend's hot cum shooting into me, one load after another, was making my current orgasm even better. I gasped and moaned, calling out Steve's name, just as I had so many years ago as he came inside of me. My hips thrust upward and then bounced back onto the bed, only to rise up again as I called out for him to fuck me harder and faster, just as I had when I was alone with him before.

Finally, I literally collapsed onto my bed, one hand cupping my crotch, applying just enough pressure to let my clit feel it as I laid there spread-eagled, like some primitive offering - except I wasn't qualified to be a virgin offering anymore. Odds were I might have fallen asleep - or maybe I would have done it all again, who knows, if the phone hadn't rung. I flipped it open after seeing it was Beth, my best friend.

"Happy Birthday Kelly!" she practically screamed into the phone. God, it was almost too much with my head in a fog but I loved her and so I didn't hang up - as I was sorely tempted to do and would have had it been almost anyone else. I tried to answer but it must have sounded more like I was mumbling.

"Damn, are you STILL in bed girl? What the hell are you DOING?" she asked and then she laughed and answered herself saying, "Hmmm, from the sound of your voice I bet you've been masturbating - am I right?"

Well, if anyone knew me it was Beth and once again, she proved why she was my best friend. There was no hiding anything from her, even if I had wanted to. I moaned as I tried to clear my head but that didn't deter Beth from continuing to pester me.

"Hey, it's your birthday Miss Horny so get your pretty bare ass out of bed!" she commanded me, "So what do you have planned for today, anyway?"

My cheeks puffed out as I released a blast of air, signaling my frustration. I explained to her about the party that my parents were plotting for me. Beth cut me off before I was finished saying, "A day with the relatives, eh? No wonder you're so enthusiastic. So when do you think you can slip away? We've got a special present to give to you - and it can't be with the relatives around!"

I started to ask who the "we" were but I stopped myself in time. It didn't really matter as anyone would be better than my Aunt Shari! What I was more curious about was this mysterious reference to a "present". Somehow I had my doubts that it was going to be as simple as a wrapped box with a sweater inside.

By the time she hung up we had made plans for her to pick me up around eight in the evening. I tried several times to get her to spill more of the details but she refused to budge. Oh well, she WAS my best friend and I trusted her totally. Beth had always had a knack for coming up with new and "interesting" ideas so lord only knew what she had in store for me tonight.

After I hung up with Beth my pussy wasn't throbbing quite so badly and when I looked at the alarm clock next to my bed I realized I'd better get going if I was to arrive on time to my own birthday party. I quickly took a shower and washed my hair. I just let it hang down after drying it, it was usually a disaster anyway so who would notice? A little baby powder on my boobs and ass, a dash of perfume on my neck and wrists, some lip gloss and just a little foundation and eye liner and I was ready to get dressed.

Given the time of year together with the people I was expecting to attend the party, it wouldn't have been appropriate - or comfortable, to wear anything too revealing so revealing cutoffs and ultra-short miniskirts were off the menu. Instead, I picked out a tight pair of Tommy jeans, the kind you had to lay on your bed and pull up hard to get on - and then pray you didn't have to use the restroom very much afterwards! A black satin blouse with just enough looseness to allow me to go braless without drawing TOO much attention was next. Sneakers would have been my first choice but I reluctantly pulled out a pair of sensible black heels from the bottom of my messy closet. I had to look a little dressed up after all.

Looking in the mirror, I saw your average 23 year old girl-next-door. Nothing overly wild yet not TOO conservative either. You could have walked through my old cafeteria at school and seen a hundred girls dressed almost exactly like I was now (well, with bras if you were at my old college). Well, that's what having a party with your entire family present will do to you.

2. My Family Throws Me a Birthday Party

Only a small portion of our family was engaged in incest, something that would have shocked and likely even horrified the rest of the family if they ever found out, at least on my dad's side. My mom's side was small - just my Aunt Linda and cousin Kristen as my grandmother lived in Illinois - much too far for her to travel for such an event. Of course, they were both involved but I couldn't say the same for my dad's side. Only his younger brother and two of his three kids played together, a dangerous situation when you considered how fanatical my Aunt Shari was when it came to sex - or should I say, no sex.

When I was younger, I use to tease my older uncle but that was another thing about getting old - it got harder and harder to tease without it being taken the wrong way. For a sixteen year old to jump in her uncle's lap and tease him was one thing and most people just laughed at it (expect my Aunt Shari of course). But at my age now, it didn't seem so naive and innocent anymore. God I hate getting old! Thus the time for skirts that "accidentally" rose up, or shorts that showed off a little more ass than was 'appropriate", was past for me, at least in these type of situations.

Both of my older cousins were married now and had nice husbands but again, they wouldn't have looked to kind at me 'seducing" their men, even in jest. I sighed but accepted the situation. One last thing about getting old - you start being responsible! Not many years before I would have dressed wild anyway and pissed off my Aunt Shari - not so hard to do really. Back then she would complain to my mom about how she raised me. Now I don't know what she would do if I pulled a stunt like that and I really didn't want to find out.

I finally made it over to my parent's house around noon, much to the annoyance of my mother who had apparently expected me to come earlier and help set things up - for my own birthday party! Sheesh, whatever happened to the old-fashioned surprise party where all you had to do was show up, even if it wasn't really a surprise? She DID wish me happy birthday, though, and when I kissed her, we held onto each other like two lovers. Well, it HAD been quite a while since she kissed me like that and when we finally broke apart, I looked at her with my eyes wide open with surprise.

"Don't look at me like that... it IS your birthday so I guess I have to give you some slack," she chuckled as she returned to her work.

Mmmmmmm, I loved my mom and for a moment, my pussy got that tingly feeling again as I imagined what we might be doing if she didn't have to get ready for my party. Personally, I would have gladly traded the party for an afternoon in bed with her. Now THAT would have been a special birthday present, yes indeed!

One thing I had noticed when I pulled in the driveway was that my dad's SUV was missing so I asked my mom where he was. For a moment she got this pissed-off look on her face but she held her tongue as she explained that he had gone in to the office earlier this morning. He'd promised on a stack of bibles to be home in time for his only daughter's birthday party but I could tell from her tone that she wasn't too confident. Based on past history, she had good reason to doubt his word when it came to getting home, but something told me that if he didn't return home in time today that there would be hell to pay!

For the next hour or so I helped my mom finish setting the tables and getting the food ready. I felt a little guilty over all the work she was going through as deep down inside I really didn't give a damn about the party in the first place. Had it been up to me, I'd have been just as happy to go with my parents to some local restaurant, have the staff sing me their silly birthday song and get it all over with. Oh well, she meant well and I wasn't going to spoil it by saying something insensitive. See - I AM getting old!

Finally everything was ready and we retreated to the living room for a few minutes of relaxation before people started arriving. We both sat on the couch and I leaned back and took the weight off my feet (no comments are needed as to HOW much weight!). My mom reached behind one of the pillows and brought out a small box wrapped in shiny silver paper with a pink ribbon and bow tied around it. She handed it to me with a smile and said, "Happy birthday honey. I know you'll be getting more stuff later but this is something special for you that's just from me."

I looked at her and saw she was about to cry and I wondered what in the world could possibly be in it. I carefully untied the ribbon and bow and opened the wrapping slowly so I wouldn't rip it to shreds (ok, ok, I am getting old!) It was a small jewelry box and had it been from my boyfriend I might have thought he was proposing but it was from my mom so THAT was out.

I flipped open the top and inside was a silver locket with the smallest, most dainty silver chain imaginable. It had that look that said it was old, from a different era. I looked at my mom and she smiled at me and encouraged me to open it. Inside was a picture of my grandmother on what appeared to be her wedding day.

"That's your grandmother on her wedding day," my mom explained, her voice shaking slightly. "She gave that to me just before I married your father and I have always planned to give it to you on your wedding day. I don't know why but something told me I needed to give it to you now. I know you're not getting married but it seems like your life has been through so many changes lately that it's like you were."

What could I say in reply to that bombshell? I looked at my mom and held up the locket between us. It was beautiful! Tears came to our eyes and we both hugged each other tightly. I loved my mother dearly and though we'd had a few shaky times recently, she was still the closest friend in the world to me and the only person I have ever "made love" with (and probably ever will until I AM married). At this stage of my life there was nobody in the world I felt as intimate with or as close to as I did my mom and her gift meant so much to me.

"I love you mom." It wasn't much but what more did I need to say?

"I love you too Kelly," my mom responded softly, stroking my hair and running her fingers through it. I could feel her warm breath on my neck as she leaned over and kissed me gently on the neck and around my ear. Her hand reached over and cupped my breast as I felt her move closer to me such that our bodies were tight against one another. We kissed and it wasn't just your standard, "mother kissing her daughter" type of kiss. No, this was a sensuous woman kissing her younger lover. God, I wanted her so badly right then!

"Oh mom, that feels so good," I whispered to her as her hand reached inside my blouse and I felt her caress my bare breast. My nipples were hard as bullets and sensitive as hell as she brushed the backs of her fingertips lightly over them. I leaned back against the couch and closed my eyes as she slowly unbuttoned the rest of my blouse and moved her head down to my chest.

"Oh yes!" I moaned softly as her lips touched my nipple and then she took more of my breast in her mouth. Her hand slipped down from my boobs and cupped my crotch as her middle finger pressed in against my pussy through my jeans. God, I wanted her to touch me, to put her fingers inside of me, to bring me to a climax as my mother could do to me. Yes, I wanted my mother to make love to me. I wanted to be her lover.

The doorbell rang.

"Damn!" my mom hissed through her lips as she looked up over the couch and through the front window curtains, "It's your Uncle Paul and Aunt Julie... Of all days for them to be early... Shit!"

It wasn't like my mom to swear so that should tell you how upset she was. I quickly buttoned my blouse and tried to straighten out my hair as she stood up, looking flushed with lust and yet totally flustered.

"I'm so sorry Kelly...," she started to apologize but I hushed her up, assuring her it was nothing she could have anticipated and that we would do it again sometime. It really was a shame as my mom and I don't have sex very often and moments like this, when everything just felt like it was the right time and place, didn't come around every day.

As she went to the answer the door, I stood up and wavered as I felt a little unbalanced at first. God, I was so horny I had to look between my legs to make sure my pussy hadn't wet my crotch. Much longer with my mom touching it the way she had been and it most likely would have been! My mom stood at the front door and took a deep breath, then slowly exhaled as she reached for the handle. No doubt she had been just as horny as I was and I would have loved to have tasted her pussy about now.

"Hey, glad you made it!" I heard her say as she opened the door. I smiled to myself. Liar!

My aunt and uncle came in, carrying a present that looked like it came straight from the department store, probably wrapped by Customer Service. Yep, a sweater I bet to myself. Oh well, they meant well. My Uncle Paul was about eight years older than my dad, old enough that he was always the "big brother" such that he was never as close to my dad as my dad was with his younger brother, Jim. Although I'd teased him mercilessly in that past when I was a teen, he'd never done another overt with me other than a few times when I would catch him looking at my ass or boobs.

Uncle Paul had two daughters, Laura and Ginny, who were both married and quite hot. Although I'd never been "intimate" with either of them, I DID attend Ginny's bachelorette party about four years or so ago which was the first time I'd ever had a compensate for the fact that he was also an asshole. Sure, I'd enjoyed that dick a few times myself but I didn't see what my mom got out of fucking him so often. I guess she didn't have many other options since she didn't believe in adultery and he was one of the few males in our family that was available to her.

Tammy gave me the best greeting of all - a quick kiss on my cheek. Damn it was like she looked hotter every time I saw her and I knew my dad would be wanting to get in her pants if possible before they went home - that is, IF he ever showed up.

That left my Aunt Linda and cousin Kristen. It didn't surprise me that they were the last to arrive, they were NEVER on time it seemed. Then I was shocked to see their car pull up. Wow, I'd better be careful as pigs would be flying overhead soon! I waited at the door for them as the others moved to the back deck.

"Hey old woman!" my cousin teased me as she came in the door and smacked me on the rear. I was only a couple years older than her so it wasn't like she had THAT much to brag about. True, she looked more like she as five or six years younger and I hated her for that! (just teasing).

"Happy birthday Kelly," was all my aunt said.

Now I loved my Aunt Linda. For an older woman she was pretty cool. I guess living alone with Kristen kept her young in spirit, especially since Kristen liked to share her boyfriends with her mom. My aunt and I had played off and on over the years as I grew up but not all that much. My mom told me stories of how my father use to fuck the two of them back in high school. Well, some things just never change, even after you marry one of the sisters!

With their arrival, that was just about everyone - except the most important person, my dad. I looked out the door and down the street but there was no sign of him. Disappointed, I closed the front door and made my way to the kitchen. My mom was there and she looked at me with a silent question on her face. I solemnly shook my head and her lips tightened - someone wasn't very happy with my dad!

As for the rest of the afternoon and early evening, what can I say? It was your typical family birthday party, nothing shocking or revealing. Nobody came out of the closet, said anything inappropriate, or got mad at each other. Even my Aunt Shari managed to keep her razor-edged tongue sheathed most of the time. It was too cold go out on the deck for long so most people stayed in the house and eventually split into groups with the men in the living room and the women in the dining room and kitchen. It didn't take long for the guys to get bored and they drifted downstairs to the family room where the big screen hi-def TV was.

About midway through, my mom gave up on my dad and announced it was time for the traditional cake and present opening. God, twenty-three candles is a LOT of candles to blow out but I managed it somehow. As for presents, nothing much to say there either as they were about what I expected - clothes and an Old Navy gift card. I remembered the marvelous gift my mom had given me earlier but I didn't say anything about it as it was something personal between my mom and me. Besides, I wasn't sure if my Aunt Linda knew about her mother's locket being passed on to her older sister. As for the guys, they couldn't wait to get back downstairs as some game or another was on leaving the women, as usual, to clean up and gossip.

3. My Cousin and BFF Give Me Their "Present"

Eight o'clock was rapidly approaching and I found the closer it got, the slower the clock moved. I wasn't sure who Beth had invited - or even IF she had really invited anyone since she hadn't told me anything at all about her plans for the evening. Kristen didn't act like anything was going on so I didn't say anything to her in case Beth hadn't planned to include her. The, with about ten minutes to go, Kristen moved up to next to me and whispered in my ear, "Well, are you ready for the REAL birthday party to start?"

I looked at her and she grinned that naughty grin she gets whenever she is about to do something she knows she shouldn't. Damn, did she know what Beth's plans were? She probably hadn't said anything until now so I wouldn't pump her for information all day. As dimwitted as my cousin was most of the time, when you least expected it she would show glimmers of intelligence. Given such moments were rare and far between, she was lucky to have a backup plan to get through life - her pussy. OK, so maybe I'm being a little hard on the whore but god, she could be SO stupid sometime! I loved her, though, despite some of the things she did.

I'd told my mom about having to leave earlier so she was expecting it. She didn't seem all that surprised leaving me to wonder if SHE knew what was going on as well. I went around and gave everyone a hug and a thank you for being there for me. Needless to say, my Uncle Jim took advantage of the opportunity to grab my ass again but it was just a quick squeeze and I ignored him. My mom was the last and I thanked her for going through so much trouble for me. She hugged me and I thought she was about to cry.

"Oh Kelly, I'm so sorry about your dad not being here," she said, the tears starting to form in her eyes.

I assured it that is was OK but deep down we both knew better. How could my dad have missed my first birthday at home in five years? He was never this inconsiderate towards me so I knew something must have been pretty important at work to keep him away. He was one of the senior partners and it always seemed like something or another was dragging him to the office. It was just I was accustomed to him finding a way out of it when something really important came up. I guess my birthday didn't qualify as something "really" important. After all, it was just my 23rd so what was the big deal?

I waved goodbye to everyone as we went out the front door and I got in the front seat with Beth while Kristen took the rear seat. Before putting on my seatbelt, I turned to Beth with a determined look. "OK, so what is it?" I asked, "When do I find out what's going on?"

"Trust me, you'll NEVER guess so just shut up and sit there," Beth said in a mockingly tough tone. The grin on her face softened her words and I knew she was just giving me a hard time. Damn, what in the world was she up to now? Between her and Kristen, ANYTHING was possible so she was probably right, I never would guess so I accepted my fate and sat back and waited.

To my surprise, we ended up at Beth's house, about the last place I was expecting.

"Don't worry, everyone is out tonight so we have the place to ourselves," Beth assured me.

It wasn't like I'd never been to her house before - she WAS my best friend and all. It's just that except for one little incident where I seduced her father, it wasn't like we ever did anything naughty at her house other than for the two of us to play in her room now and then. Well, maybe what she had planned wasn't going to be naughty. If so, I was going to be disappointed!

Once inside her house she took us to the living room and I recalled the time I managed to convince her dad to fuck me. I will always consider that one of my better conquests as it prove once again that no matter how devoted and religious the father, given the right temptation and opportunity they ALL will succumb sooner or later.

"Earth to Kelly!" Beth called to me, snapping her fingers in front of my face. I must have zoned out slightly thinking about me and her dad but now she had my full attention. Actually, it was what she held in hand that had my attention - a black blindfold.

"Oh noooooo, you've GOT to be joking," I said, putting my hands out in front of me as if to ward some demon away. Indeed, it WAS like there was a demon in front of me. It wasn't Beth's fault. Other than my mom, I doubted if anyone knew that I was deathly afraid of blindfolds and even if they did, they couldn't possibly know why. Once my dad had tried to blindfold me, thinking it would be fun but I almost went berserk, ripping it off after a few minutes and running from the room.

Briefly, almost four years ago I was working as an escort while at college. I wasn't doing it for the money so much as I was horny as hell living in such a restrictive environment and I was just looking for some fun - sexy fun. The first few clients went great until my fifth one who tied me up and blindfolded me. That might have been OK except he then brought in several more guys that I had no idea were waiting for me. They each proceeded to rape me. I say I was raped in that I hadn't consented to them fucking me. Had they been more open with me then who knows, maybe I would've agreed to fuck them all anyway. The point is, I did NOT agree to have sex with them and with the ropes and blindfold I was left totally helpless to do anything about it. Ever since then, anytime a blindfold came near me I would literally freak! It wasn't Beth's fault, she had no idea what had happened to me. Still, the sight of the blindfold terrified me.

"C'mon Kelly, what's the big deal?" Kristen asked. I didn't really want to explain and I knew they both had planned something for this evening that I was about to ruin if I didn't get my act together. I took a deep breath and closed my eyes.

"OK, go for it," I said, feeling like I was surrendering myself to my worst nightmare, "But this had better be damn good!"

Both of my friends laughed and I felt ashamed of myself for being such a freak. Here was my best friend and cousin who was more a sister to me and I didn't trust them. How ungrateful could I be? Beth wrapped the blindfold around my head and my heart raced as my sight was taken away from me. God, I felt so vulnerable!

"Well, now that we're here and you're ready, I guess I can tell you what our present is for your birthday," Beth said, sounding like she was standing right in front of me. "Kelly, for one night the two of us are going to pleasure you and fuck you like you've never been fucked before."

Despite the anxiety created by the blindfold, my pussy instantly reacted. Wow, I couldn't think of two girls I would rather be with tonight than Kristen and Beth. We'd all been paired together numerous times in the past, but a threesome like this was rather unusual. Actually, so unusual that I couldn't recall when we had ever done it and I would have certainly remembered if we had. Well, maybe at a party but that would have been the three of us hooking up between other groupings. So far as a night set aside for just the three of us, this was a first.

"But why the blindfold?" I had to ask. Personally, it would be even better if they would let me take it off. I couldn't see the point in wearing it.

"Because tonight WE are going to pleasure YOU." Kristen answered, "No distractions, nothing but you just laying back and letting us take care of you."

It made sense I guess. Having my sense of sight removed would allow me to focus on my other senses. It's not like I didn't know what they looked like naked or anything. I still felt a little queasy with the blindfold on but as time went by, I was starting to adjust and it didn't hurt when I felt someone kissing me. Although they were about the same height, I knew right away it was Beth from the way her big boobs pressed against me. Kristen may have a smoking hot body, but her boobs were not even in the same league as Beth's. Actually, mine weren't either but that's another story.

"Here, let me help you out of those things while you guys make out," Kristen said as I felt her small hands unbuttoning my blouse and then taking it off of me, leaving me topless in just my jeans and heels. It wasn't long before the jeans were being pulled down and as I stepped out of them, I could feel her hands loosening my heels and slipping them off as well such that I was now standing stark naked in the middle of the room.

Beth and I kissed and fondled each other with her hands wandering all over me as mine were doing the same to her. Even though we were best friends, we actually rarely had sex together, at least not one-on-one. I guess our relationship was already so close that we both realized adding in sex would only lead to issues we didn't want to have to deal with. Of course, just as I did with my other friends we masturbated together a lot growing up - and I mean a LOT, but we never touched each other until a few years ago. It just shows how you can have a close, intimate relationship with a girlfriend without including sex.

In the meantime, I heard a rustling and a belt loosening and I figured Kristen must have been stripping off her clothes as well. My listening skills were proven to be correct as Beth and Kristen traded places and I felt Kristen's bare breasts pressed against mine. God she felt like a child compared to Beth! How many times had she and had sex together yet this was the first time I had ever been with her without my sight. It WAS more erotic, I had to grant them that.

It didn't take long for Beth to strip and the two of them guided me to the floor where Beth had spread out what felt like a thin foam mattress, the kind you see in camping stores. It was nice thought as the hardwood floor would have felt awfully HARD after a while - as I knew from personal experience.

For what seemed like an hour or more, it was I was their personal sex toy as they laid on each side of me, rubbing their pussies up against me and touching and licking me all over. It was funny how even though I was blindfolded, I still had a pretty good idea most of the time as to who was doing what to me. I'd had sex with Kristen so many times I knew her little moves and technique, especially when it came to licking pussy. I like to think I suck cock better than Kristen but when it comes to licking pussy, I have to bow before her greatness. It's not that Beth was a slacker, not by any means, but Kristen was a one of a kind when it came to oral sex. Several times I tried to reciprocate and make them feel good as well but each time I was gently pushed away, sometimes with a quiet, "It's YOUR night."

How many times did I cum that first hour, well I can't even begin to say as I lost count early on. Besides, it wasn't like each was separate and distinct as sometimes one would die down and then another emerge as they switched places or did something unique to stimulate me yet again. I felt incredible, absolutely phenomenal, as my two closest friends in the world treated me to an evening of pure bliss. I loved it when both of them were sucking on my boobs, Kristen on one while Beth had the other. My nipples were at a state where just brushing against them was about enough to drive me over the edge again so you can imagine how horny I was. Heck, I could even go for Kristen's strap-on about now so you KNOW how desperate I was to be laid.

My hips were gyrating as they sucked and fondled my boobs, dreaming of a cock buried deep in me. Their warm soft bodies felt so sensual as they pressed up against me, wrapping their legs over me and thrusting their crotches up against me.

4. Who the Hell Fucked Me?

"Hmmm, I think someone needs to be fucked," Kristen snickered, obviously seeing my hips doing their thing and easily deducing my needs.

"Well, what are we going to do about it Kristen?" Beth answered her back. It was like listening to a bad comedy sketch between presenters at the Academy Awards but it was fun anyway. I still had the blindfold on and I was about to reach up and take it off but Beth grabbed my hand and pinned me back down again.

"Not yet my Kelly," she admonished me, "the blindfold stays on until you've been fucked properly."

Now what the heck did "properly" mean? I was about to ask when I found out. My legs were pushed apart and then lifted up in the air and over my head. No sooner was I in "the position" than something was trying to push its way into my pussy! Damn, had Kristen gone and gotten the strap-on while Beth was distracting me? I started to reach down to feel what it was but Beth pulled my hands back and pinned me down with my hands behind my head.

A brief surge of panic ran through me as visions of my hands being bound by a rope appeared in my head but they quickly disappeared as I was penetrated further. From the warmth and feel of it, whatever was pushing into my pussy wasn't some plastic dildo, it was a REAL cock! OMG, what the hell was going on? Who in the world was fucking me?

"What the hell, who's fucking me?" I burst out, struggling against Beth's grip but she had the advantage over me and kept my arms pinned down.

"Guess right and you can take the blindfold off!" Kristen teased me. How the hell was I supposed to know who it was? Beth was really into the sex party scene and it could have been any one of a hundred guys for all I knew.

Whoever it was, he didn't say a word but instead, started stroking himself in and out of me. Other than my "rape" experience, no man had ever fucked me blindfolded and once again, I found myself understanding why Beth wanted my sight removed. Concentrating totally on my crotch and his dick was so much easier without having to worry about what he looked like, or even who he was. In fact, NOT knowing who he was made it even MORE erotic. Granted, I've been fucked by a lot of guys I didn't know at the time, but never by one I couldn't even see what he looked like (again ignoring my rape).

I found myself fantasizing about my secret lover. Was he old or young? God, what if they had pulled a trick on me and gotten one of Kristen's young boys to fuck me! Now I'll admit that I enjoy fantasizing about fucking boys that young but in reality, I have never fucked one younger than sixteen. A few times Kristen had tempted me with her latest conquest, "fresh from the playground" as I use to tease her, but it would be the end of my teaching career if I was ever caught with a kid that young.

As the mystery dick continued to fuck me, I started thinking that maybe he was old, like REALLY old, maybe in his sixties even. I don't know where they would have found such a guy but when it came to Beth and Kristen, nothing would have surprised me.

Whether it was the actual fucking that got me off or the emotional whirlwind that I was caught up in, but whatever it was my next orgasm was the best so far - DAMN it was good! The guy even had to stop momentarily as my pussy clamped down on his dick like a vise. It must have felt good because he grunted, the first sound of any kind he had made so far. I was still cumming when I sensed something was over me and then I smelled it and knew what it was - one of my friends was about to sit on my face!

"Mmmmmmm, let me rub my pussy on your face," I heard Kristen say as I felt her bare cunt press down against my mouth and nose. Mmmmmmm, she smelled incredible. I LOVE tasting pussy, especially my own, so it was a treat for me to reach out with my tongue and lick her wet slit. Meanwhile, I felt Beth's hair on my stomach as she put her mouth down by my crotch, licking my clit as my mystery man continued to fuck me, still without making another sound after that quick grunt. Let's see now... I had a pussy on my face, a dick in my pussy, and a tongue on my clit. Yep, I'd died and gone to heaven!

"I think he's about to cum," Beth warned me. No doubt he'd signaled to her and she was relaying the news flash to me. It didn't matter, he was going to do what he was going to do to me regardless of what I wanted. Face it, I'd lost all control of what was happening to me long ago when the blindfold was first put on me. Sure enough, a few second later he thrust hard inside of me, pushing his stiff cock deep into my wet pussy and I felt him thrust himself against me time after time as he came inside of me. God, whose sperm was it that was flooding my pussy? Just who was mating me? I wanted so bad to rip off the blindfold but I knew it would only spoil the moment if I did.

After he had cum, he pulled out of me and I felt Beth licking his cum from my pussy as I grunted and pushed it out for her as best I could. Meanwhile, Kristen was fingering her clit as she rode my face and I could tell she was getting herself off as well. I felt overwhelmed as it was like every part of me was being stimulated sexually.

I was exhausted, mentally and physically. Damn, what a birthday present. Well, I may be 23 now but I guess I can still be naive. They weren't done with me - not yet at least.

"C'mon, roll over slut," Kristen said, lifting herself off my face and twisting my shoulders.

"Who are you calling a slut, whore?" I teased her back as I somehow found the strength to turn over onto my stomach.

"Up on your knees," Beth demanded, "C'mon, you don't fool me. Don't forget, we've both see you do a lot more than this before so quit pretending you're too tired!"

I grinned at her as I was sure she was doing, even without being able to see her. I figured whoever it was must be wanting to fuck me again and who was I to turn down a nice hard dick. Now more than ever I was convinced it must be one of Kristen's boys or a stud from Beth's sex parties as an older guy would have needed some time to get the fires burning again - at least so far as his erection was concerned.

Sure enough, it was no surprise to me when I felt the head of his dick pressing against my pussy from behind. I moved my legs further apart to make it easier for him. As wet as I was and with his first load of cum still draining from me, his dick slipped in easily. Quickly he started to fuck me, stroking at a fast pace, in and out of me. It only took me a few seconds to realize this wasn't the same guy! His dick just felt different in me, like it was a different size, maybe a little thinner but longer? He also had a different pace than the first guy did. Every guy seems to have his own distinct style when he fucks a girl, whether he realizes it or not. For instance, as many times as my dad had fucked me, I was pretty sure I could pick him out of a "lineup" just by sucking his dick or having him fuck me and recognizing the distinctiveness of his dick.

"Now who's fucking me?" I couldn't resist asking, if nothing else to show them I knew what was happening. Let THEM figure out how I knew.

This time it was Beth who answered but with the same message saying, "Nope. Like you were told earlier, tell us who it is and you can take off the blindfold if you're right."

"Well, just as before I had no idea whose dick was in me and actually, it was to the point I didn't even want to know. There was something about having a totally unknown man fucking me that was increasingly erotic the more I did it. It was almost like those videos my dad has of girls at "glory holes" where they suck dicks poking through a hole in the wall and never see the guy, sometimes even backing up to them and fucking them. Well, in my case it was even more erotic as not only didn't I get to see the guy, I didn't even get to see or touch his dick!

He was pounding me pretty good and I tried to match up with his rhythm, moving in opposite directions such that when we came together he would slam into my butt and make a slapping sound. It felt great and I knew I was about to cum again when I heard something in front of me, like a wet sucking sound and I knew what it was right away.

"Alright, which of you is cheating and getting fucked?" I called out in a teasing voice. I was answered with several giggles and then Beth answered saying, "Do I really have to tell you?"

Of course she didn't have to tell me. It would be just like my cousin to take advantage of the situation and get herself a quickie while she could. Put that girl anywhere near a hard dick and it wasn't long before she was riding it. I had to wonder if it was the first guy she was fucking or maybe even a third. Damn, were there more waiting in the wings? How many guys did they have lined up to fuck me?

It was perfect as I came just as the guy started pumping his cum in me. After a couple of squirts he pulled out and I felt his remaining cum strike me on my butt and asshole. I guess it turned him on but I would have been just as happy if he had given it all to me inside my pussy. I supposed he was one of those "cream pie" pervs so while I was nursing the small orgasm he had produced in me, I used the opportunity to bear down and squeeze the cum he had left in me out of me as much as possible. I could feel the cum dripping down my pussy and then probably down on the pad under me.

Was there to be any more? Now it was like I was in the zone and I think they could have brought in an entire train of guys and I would have fucked them all. But it wasn't to happen as I felt Kristen lifting the blindfold off of me. I immediately looked around, wondering who it was that had fucked me but there was no sign of anyone.

"Sorry, you'll just have to wonder for the rest of your life who they were," Beth said, a big grin on her face.

"That's not fair," I whined, pretending to be upset but in reality, I was feeling pretty incredible at that moment. What fantastic friends I have! After we had cleaned up a bit and gotten dressed, we sat around and just talked about this and that, the way good friends do. It was killing me to find out whose dicks had cum in me earlier but neither of them would tell me. Sooner or later I would get them to talk, but for tonight it appeared I just had to go home with cum in me from a pair of total strangers - and in this case I mean TOTAL strangers.

Suddenly it dawned on me who it might have been. Of course, no wonder we had to go to her house for the evening.

"It was your dad and brother, wasn't it?" I accused Beth, smirking at her and feeling pretty good about myself for having figured out the mystery on my own. Beth suddenly got this weird look on her face and I knew I had it all wrong. Worse, I apparently had guessed at someone even SHE hadn't expected?

"MY dad?" she said incredulously, "You've GOT to be kidding. Damn it Kelly, you know how I felt about it when you fucked my dad even that one time so why in the world would you even THINK that? Why Kelly?"

Uh oh, I'd really messed up and stuck my foot in my mouth this time. Rather than saying any more and digging my hole of shame deeper, I just shrugged sheepishly and while it was tense for a few moments, it seemed to pass and we ignored it after that. Needless to say, it was the last name I threw out THAT idea.

From the amused look on Kristen's face, I was becoming more and more convinced at least one of them was one of her boy toys. God, just how young had he been? I knew Kristen was still fucking boys as young as fourteen, probably even younger for all I knew, so had she taken advantage of the situation to drag me into her little harem? Well, I could always claim I was coerced into it although I doubt if anyone had witnessed the event that it would stand up in court.

I looked at Kristen again and the naughty grin deepened. Yeah, that's what it was. No wonder he hadn't said anything. I would have known immediately from the high pitched voice it was a young boy. Leave it to my whore of a cousin to pull this on me. Even so, it didn't explain who the other guy was. That is, unless she had brought in two of them.

Beth finally returned me to my parent's around midnight so I could pick up my car and get home. The street lights were bright enough that I could see my dad's SUV parked in the garage. Well, he must have finally gotten home. Better late than never I guess. Since the lights were on I went inside to say goodnight where I found he and my mom waiting for me in the kitchen with a small birthday cake that had only one candle on it. Honestly, it felt better than seeing the forest fire that was on my earlier cake!

My dad hugged me and then kissed me passionately in front of my mom. He then wished me happy birthday and apologized over and over, claiming a client overseas had needed help and with the time difference he couldn't get home for my birthday party. Then he handed me a small box and said he hoped it would make me feel better. I eagerly opened it up and inside wasn't some sweater or blouse but rather the sexiest pair of panties and bra I could have asked for. They were bone-colored, trimmed with lace, and so light and sheer it was like I wasn't holding

(Mar 22) Chapter 161: Beth's Stage Party

Me (23)

Everyone has sexual fantasies, whether they admit them or not is a different story. Usually they just stay as fantasies - which is probably a good thing for the most part. Sometimes, though, they come true. It helps when your best friend knows about them.

1. My Fantasies

People ask me all the time if I fantasize about things. I think what they are inferring is that since I have had more sexual experience than most girls my age, that somehow there is nothing left for me to do or experience. First, I am not THAT experienced! Second, of course I have sexual fantasies. Everyone does and if there is one thing I've learned in chatting and e-mailing with literally thousands of people over the past five years or so, it's only a question of whether or not they are willing to open up and discuss them.

Many people are shy about admitting their more darker, "taboo" fantasies. I think it comes from the "if you think it, you're guilty" mentality from the Bible. The reality is that I believe people cannot help but fantasize about the things they WISH they could do or even just try once. For most people, that is as far as it goes and for the most part, probably a good thing too for everyone involved.

As I've said many times, I personally believe that ANY fantasy is "OK", no matter how perverted, nasty, naughty, or immoral. In some ways, I think our fantasies can actually help as they provide an outlet for emotions and urges that might otherwise be acted out. The key is whether a person can separate their fantasies from reality. Unfortunately, there are some people who can't - which is why we have such terrible sex crimes and abuse. However, I don't think that the sins of a minority should be used to condemn the practices of the majority.

OK, I'll get off my soapbox. Still, I think it's important that people understand how I feel about fantasies. Just because I fantasize about something does not mean I really WANT to do it or WOULD. As an example, there are times when I sit in front of

On the other hand, it goes without saying that I DO have a some fantasies that I hope WILL come true someday. Perhaps one of my favorites is based on the experiences of a friend when she visited Amsterdam a few years ago. She came back and told me (in rather explicit detail) about how she watched live sex shows where naked couples would actually have sex on stage right in front of a crowd of people.

Well, ever since she put that thought in my mind it's been a HUGE fantasy of mine to be the "star" of such a show, even to allow multiple strangers to fuck me in full view of hundreds of people, none of whom I have ever seen before. Over the years the fantasy has taken on various forms but the basic plot remains the same. Needless to say, there are no opportunities to do such a thing in Pittsburgh!

Beth is my best friend and has been as long as I can remember. We've always shared everything, even a few guys along the way. As we entered puberty, we started masturbating together, telling our fantasies to get ourselves off. When we were younger, these generally centered around some cute boy at school or a guy on TV. As we got older, we continued to share our fantasies and they became more "interesting" as time went by.

Beth has always been more into group sex than me so most of her fantasies tend to involve large numbers of people. She belongs to several clubs that conduct sex parties which is another way of saying they have orgies but for some reason, she doesn't like to use that term. Over the years she has somehow talked me into going with her to a few of them and while I generally enjoyed myself, they aren't really something I would want to do all the time. It's sort of like having a big helping of double chocolate cake. It's wonderful to indulge now and then but you can't make a steady diet of it.

By now Beth was well aware of my "stage sex" fantasy, although surprisingly I could tell she didn't share my interest in doing it. I guess she liked group sex but only with people she knew. Still, she indulged me and would egg me on until we both got so horny we would have to get ourselves off talking about it. Little did I know that someday she might do more than just listen to me describe my imaginary sex show!

I had just turned 23 a few weeks earlier and Beth had conspired with my cousin Kristen to make it an interesting one. Since then, we hadn't seen much of each other, mostly just talking on the phone or email or text messaging. I had just started my new teaching job so my attention was focused pretty much on that. Beth had graduated with a degree in journalism and was working for the local city magazine which seemed to keep her occupied as well so it wasn't like we had a lot of time to get together. Still, it was always nice to hear from her so when my phone rang and I saw her name and picture displayed, I eagerly answered.

"Hey girl, how was the first day on the job?"

That was just like her, keeping close tabs on my life and checking in to make sure everything was OK. But then, what are best friends for if not to love and support one another? I spent the next hour or so talking to her about it and we gabbed on about local events and friends.

"So what do you have planned for Saturday night?" she asked.

From the tone of her voice, I could tell she wasn't so much interested in what I had planned as what SHE had planned that she wanted me to join in with her. The truth, much to my chagrin, was that I didn't really have anything scheduled.

"Great! I'll pick you up at eight then!" she informed me.

I tried to get her to tell me what she had planned but she just shushed me and said I would have to wait and find out. The little stunt she'd pulled on my birthday was still fresh in my mind so my ears perked up and I wondered what she had up her sleeve this time! That was one of the things I loved about Beth, she certainly kept my life interesting.

Before she hung up, I asked Beth what I should wear and she said just to dress casual. Actually, THAT told me more than anything else she had hinted at so far. Beth was a style fanatic and so if she said to dress casual then it usually meant what you wore didn't matter. Usually it didn't matter because it wasn't going to stay on for very long.

It wasn't that I would have refused if it had been her plan. Actually, it had been quite a while since I had attended one of them and the thought of doing one again didn't exactly turn me off. I just wanted to know - can you blame me?

Beth assured me it wasn't but there was something in the way she said it that made me think she wasn't being totally honest with me, or least she was parsing her words to technically be honest, which isn't the same as being straight- forward about something. Oh well, I knew Beth well enough to know that pushing her further would be useless so I hung up wondering what I was getting myself into this time.

Saturday came quickly as it seemed it was all I could do just dealing with my new job, leaving me exhausted by week's end. It was more mental exhaustion than physical, but draining all the same. Anyone who has started a new job knows what I am talking about. When I finally woke up and looked at the alarm clock, I couldn't believe my eyes - it was almost eleven o'clock already! Actually, it didn't really matter what time I got up, it was more just the shock that I could sleep in that long! Even back when I was escorting to all hours of the night I didn't sleep in this late. Wow, teaching really takes it out of you!

For the rest of the morning, what was left of it, and that afternoon I spent doing all the little things most people do on their day off - grocery shopped, cleaned around the apartment, worked on some lesson plans, and even found time to masturbate a couple of times.

Beth called me around four o'clock to check up on me and tease me a bit. She seemed to enjoy leading me on and making me speculate about what she was up to. As much as I pretended to grumble to her about it, it DID excite me as I knew any time my best friend did something like this it always turned out to be fun - and different. If there was one thing I was sure of, it would be nothing I would have guessed ahead of time. Little did I know just how right I was.

2. Takes Me to Church

Beth picked me up right at eight o'clock sharp. I hopped in the front seat and she was taking off before I even had my seatbelt buckled. She didn't say a word and just started driving out of town. We were heading to the west side and soon were out in the rural areas. Where the heck were we going? I looked at Beth and she just smiled at me and kept her mouth shut, keeping her cards close to her chest.

Finally Beth turned off a small side road and pulled into a parking lot next to a small old church. It had white siding with the paint peeling and a little steeple. No doubt it was nothing more than a sanctuary with maybe a basement, typical for the area. It was so run-down that at first I thought it was abandoned but then I saw the parking lot was filled with cars. There was a dilapidated sign out front listing the service times along with the current date so obviously someone was still using it. If that was the case, why were we here?

"You're actually taking ME to church?" I asked incredulously as she turned off the engine.

It was remarkable that as close as we were in almost everything we did, we were polar opposites when it came to religion. I'm a fervent, born-again Christian, pray and read my Bible regularly, and attend church regularly. I even attended a Christian-based university. In contrast, I don't think Beth has even set foot in a church for years and the only time she prays is to the porcelain god after a party. Somehow we've managed to keep our religious differences from causing any conflicts between us. Even so, it still shocked me to be sitting in a church parking lot with her, regardless of the reason. Well, there was a first time for everything.

"Sorry Kelly, you still haven't converted me," she teased me. "Really, you have no idea how hard it is to find the right place for something like this. Lucky for me one of my guys attends here and so he was able to get it for us tonight."

By "my guys", I knew she was referring to someone she hung around with at her sex parties so that certainly narrowed the field down - to maybe a hundred men or more. And what was this remark about "right place for something like this"? What the heck was "this" and what was she up to now? After my shocking birthday party surprise a few weeks earlier, I was prepared for about anything if Beth was in charge of the planning.

Beth had passed by several empty parking spots and ended up parking way in back of the church. We got out and she led me to a small entry door which was locked. She pulled out a key from her purse, unlocked the door, and sure enough, we entered a small kitchen and basement. There was nobody in sight but I could hear movement above us, evidently the people were all gathered up in the sanctuary.

"Ummmmm, Beth... why are we down here and everybody else is up there?" I asked her, pointing to the ceiling.

Something just didn't feel right about all this but I couldn't put my finger on it. If you had asked me an hour earlier, the LAST place I would have guessed I would be now would have been in the basement of a broken-down old country church.

Beth led me to a set of steep stairs which looked to lead up to the sanctuary. Just as we reached the top of the stairs, she turned to me and gave me the once over, putting her hand to her chin as if she was deep in thought about something or another. Then she looked at me and grinned, asking, "Well girlfriend, are you ready?"

I scrunched up my nose and gave her a look that clearly told her I had no idea what the heck she was talking about. Ready? Oh sure, ready for WHAT?

"OK, I suppose I'd better tell you a little bit before we go in. Remember how you're always telling me about your biggest fantasy ever?"

Of course I did but my mind was racing trying to figure out what was happening so to stall for time I joked back at her saying, "Hmmm, you mean the one about diving into a swimming pool of warm chocolate?" She frowned at me and I realized she was being serious so I nodded and said, "Sorry, the Amsterdam thing, right?"

"Well duh!" Beth said, rolling her eyes and playfully smacking me on my shoulder.

"So what the heck does THAT have to do with anything, especially at a CHURCH?"

Beth looked at me like she was almost sorry for me. A look that was saying poor Kelly, she just doesn't understand! "THINK girl... stage, audience..." Then she just stared at me,, pointing to the ceiling, waiting for it to sink in.

"No way!" I exclaimed, the realization of what she was telling me finally sinking in, "This is a practical joke, right? You can't really be serious!"

"Kelly," Beth said, her voice down low in mock seriousness, "I may joke about a lot of things but NEVER about sex."

"C'mon, do you really expect me to... to do it in front of a CHURCH?"

"Good grief Kelly, quit with the church crap," she chastised me, "I needed someplace with a stage and it wasn't like I could ask any of the schools or local theaters. Then it dawned on me - why not a church?"

"So the people upstairs... they're not from this church I take it?"

"Oh... I think a few might be but they're regulars at our parties and they helped to get everything set up. Besides, the regular church folks only meet here on Sundays so it's not like anyone cares or will even know what happens here tonight."

"And just so I get this straight... you expect me to have sex in front of all of them? Who are they? Do I know them?"

"Of course I expect you to, "Beth huffed, "I mean, like why else would I bring you here and do all this for you if not? As for who they are, I doubt you know any of them but isn't that the whole idea girl? I mean, for years now whenever you're hot and horny you've have been bending my ear about how badly you wanted to do something this so what gives?"

Beth was right, I DID want badly to do this but I guess I'd always assumed it would be something I had time to prepare myself for, not just get dumped in the middle of it without any warning. I took a deep breath and looked up at the ceiling, trying to imagine what was beyond the door in front of us and what was probably going to happen to me in just a few minutes. God, I had so many questions! At the same time, my heart was racing and I was feeling horny as hell. That tingly feeling I get between my legs when I really want to be fucked was working overtime!

"So how many guys...," I started to ask but she cut me off and grinned wickedly.

"No more questions, you'll just have to find out. Let's go, they've been waiting for us and it sounds like the natives are getting restless!"

3. First BJ On Stage

We walked through the door with her in front. I saw the stairs appeared to lead to an area behind the podium with a curtain blocking the view. Beth put her hand on the curtain and prepared to pull it back.

"OK, last chance to back out. You ready?"

Suddenly I felt a surge of panic. God, my hair! What about my makeup – or lack of it? I was dressed like a slob. Did I shave this morning? (Yes I did, by the way, but I was too anxious to remember). Was this all some dream and I would suddenly wake up?

"Good grief, quit fussing with your hair... you look great!" Beth encouraged me as she pulled the curtain back and basically presented me to the audience.

I stepped out, not quite sure what to expect. Would they applaud, cheer, or what? As it turned out, they did nothing – literally nothing. Suddenly the room was quiet – an almost churchlike stillness. I quickly scanned the crowd in front of me. There must have been at least fifty people or more which was a LOT more than I'd expected based on the number of cars outside. Obviously there had been some serious carpooling!

Time seemed to move in slow motion as I looked around and took in the rest of the sanctuary. It looked like something out of a museum photo. Ancient hard wood pews with no pads, cracked stained glass windows, modest furnishings with everything plain and cheap. It WAS clean, though, and looked well cared for overall.

I was standing on a simple platform in the front where a single podium most likely resided in the center under normal circumstances but was now pushed over to the side. There were a couple of wooden folding chairs leaning against the back wall.

The platform had a wood floor which could have used a new coat of varnish. In the middle, where the minister probably preached his weekly sermons was a twin-size mattress with a white fitted sheet covering it.

"Ladies and gentlemen, I am proud to present the star attraction of the evening. Kelly is my best friend and favorite slut so let's give her a hand," Beth announced to the crowd.

Finally there was a response and everyone clapped softly, but still it seemed like it was more to be polite than enthusiastic. Hmmm, tough crowd! I assumed they all knew what was going to happen but from the way most of them looked at me, they seemed to be questioning whether or not I would have the nerve to go through with it. Most of them were men although maybe a dozen or so were women. They all looked to be in their twenties and thirties with a couple of older ones scattered here and there. Thank god there were no kids!

At first I just stood there, not quite sure what to do. After all, it's not like this was something I had done before! My dreams usually skipped the introduction and started out with me already with the guy so I hadn't even "practiced" this part mentally. Awkward doesn't begin to describe how I was feeling!

Fortunately, Beth came to my rescue, reaching behind the podium, she pulled out a large picnic basket I hadn't noticed until now. In the basket were a bunch of folded pink slips of paper with something written on them. She held the basket over my head and told me to pick out one of the slips. What else was I to do so I did as she told me and she took the slip immediately from me but not before I could see that it had a name written on it.

Instantly I had a pretty darn good idea of what was happening. Sure enough, Beth read the silently name and grinned, looking out over the crowd for a few seconds to increase the suspense. It suddenly seemed like some sort of erotic Price Is Right show.

"Roland!" she called out, "Come on down!"

A number of the guys looked visibly disappointed as a man towards the back whooped and jumped to his feet. He bounded up the center aisle and I could see he was maybe in his late twenties or thirties, dark brown hair that was just starting to recede slightly, tall and thin with a grin that now reached from ear-to-ear. All of these people were supposedly from Beth's inner circle of sex party friends so I had no doubt that this wasn't the first time he'd fucked someone in front of other people although I would have been willing to bet a lot he'd never done anything quite so blatant as this.

When Roland reached the stairs he turned around and faced the crowd, pumping his fist like he'd just won the lottery jackpot. Well, maybe in a way he had if I might be so bold to say.

Beth nudged me towards the mattress and then introduced me to Roland, as if we were meeting for a blind date or something. We even shook hands which made me feel a little funny to say the least. One thing I DID notice, he already had a bulge growing in his pants and it didn't look like he endowed at the short end of the scale either.

"Well, are you two just going to stand there staring at each other or what?" Beth urged us on.

She certainly wasn't wasting any time but then again, I suppose it was easier to just get going than to stand there hedging like two kids at their first school dance. Roland and I stared at each other and I shrugged my shoulders as if to say what the heck. He just grinned back, his smile seemed to be even broader, if that were possible.

Looking out at the crowd again, for a brief moment I couldn't believe what I was about to do. Damn, I was really going to get laid in front of all these people - and in a church no less! At least someone had been thoughtful enough to bring in a mattress so I didn't have do anything REALLY kinky like use the altar to fuck on. While some (ok, most) girls may have been intimidated at this point and backed down, they hadn't been dreaming of such a moment for years as I had. Suddenly my resolve kicked in and I knew I wanted to do this it more than anything else (at least at the moment). I mean like, how many times had I already masturbated thinking about doing something like this and now it was actually about to happen!

With one last smile and a little wave to the crowd, Roland had my undivided attention. Not surprisingly, he seemed a little uncertain as to what to do now that he was actually with me. Taking the lead, I stepped up closer to him and started to go to work on his leather belt and zipper. He took my cue and helped me figure out the buckle such that before long I was pulling his jeans down to the floor along with his white jockey underwear (size 36 - the things you notice sometimes!).

As I expected, a very nice-sized penis sprung out from under his NASCAR T-shirt. Without a tape measure I had to guess but based on experience I would say he looked to be maybe seven or eight inches long, respectable in anyone's book. He had one of those curved cocks that pointed back at him slightly as it stood up nice and erect like a rocket about to be launched. He was circumcised and definitely unshaven with an especially thick growth of black curly pubic hair around the base of his dick. Mmmmmmm, my kind of crotch!

Pausing for a moment, I looked Roland in the eyes and smiled and then reached forward to take his swollen dick in my right hand. Oh yeah, it felt hard and warm! We positioned ourselves sideways to the crowd so they could see what I was doing and he pulled my hair aside, just like in a porn movie (obviously he'd seen his share).

Crouching down by bending my knees, my face was only about an inch or so from his dick. I could smell the odor of his crotch and from the heavy musk scent I could tell that he was definitely turned on! Licking my lips in anticipation, I looked up at him one more time and our eyes met. I could see the lust in his eyes and the hunger - the hunger for my mouth to be on his dick. Well, I was just as hungry myself for it!

At first I gently licked the tip of his dick, putting the end of my tongue up against the opening at the end of his cock. Then I started to lick around the smooth head and then up and down his stiff shaft, all without actually taking him in my mouth. With my left hand I gently cupped his balls, being careful not to squeeze them TOO hard. Up and down his hard shaft my tongue ran, like I was licking a long fleshy popsicle on a hot day. Glancing to the side, I could see everyone was fixated on the events at the front of the church. There was a little buzz going now as people murmured to one another. Briefly I wondered what they were saying but went back to the object of my desire - Roland's dick.

Roland was instinctively pushing his dick towards me and I knew what he wanted - the same all men wanted when I licked their dick like this. After teasing him a little longer with my tongue, eventually I took him in my mouth and sucked on it gently, starting with just the head. Roland groaned loudly and I could feel his dick pulsate and throb in my mouth like it was alive. I wrapped the fingers of my right hand around the base to hold it steady. Mmmmmmm, he tasted so damn good and his crotch odor was even stronger now that my face was closer to it.

Roland put his hands on each side of my head and pulled me in tighter to his hairy crotch, thrusting his dick forward into my mouth as he softly begged me to take more of him into my mouth. As I relaxed my throat, his cock was able to push in further and further until finally it worked its way down my throat. For a moment I felt a sense of panic as I gagged slightly when he pushed it in hard but then I managed to somehow let it continue to enter until he was bottomed out. With my face now pressed against the base of his dick, I twisted my head around him, feeling his coarse pubic hair rub against my cheeks and forehead as I rolled his balls gently in my hand.

"WOW! Look at that boys and girls, she's got it all in!" Beth announced.

I heard murmurs of approval from the crowd. Being busy with Roland's BJ, I hadn't realized that Beth was staying so near to us so it surprised me to hear her doing a virtual play-by-play. I peeked over at her and received an even bigger surprise - she was videotaping us! The way my eyes widened, she must have realized I'd finally noticed because her sly grin got even naughtier. Really, nobody had said anything to me about videos or photos and so I was a little miffed. It was one thing for my parents to take photos and videos of me having sex, quite another for Beth to be doing it, especially under the circumstances.

Oh well, what could I say, especially when I had this big dick filling my mouth? As long as I got the video when it was all said and done, it wasn't such a bad thing. I smiled to myself as I imagined what my dad would say if he saw it!

As I continued to suck his long cock, Roland stripped off his T-shirt and stepped out of his blue jeans and shorts that until now had been around his ankles at the floor. I reached down to help him get them off, being careful not to let his dick slip from my mouth as I did. Soon he was standing naked in front of me which was not quite what I had expected. For what it's worth, my fantasy dreams always had me naked first. Well, the heck with dreams, this was reality!

Roland was now nude but I was still fully dressed as Roland moved to lay down on the mattress. I followed along with him, keeping my mouth locked on his dick like a terrier with a new toy bone (well, boner in my case). As I kneeled over him, I tried to keep my butt towards the back of the platform so I was facing the crowd as I sucked his cock.

Beth came over and pulled my hair back to ensure everyone kept a good view. Honestly, I don't know what was turning me on more at the moment, sucking this lovely dick or being watched by fifty people as I did it. I would have to say that being watched was winning at the moment as I tried to put on a good show for my "fans".

Roland groaned and pressed my head down onto his dick, making sure I didn't let it slip from my mouth even for a second. His hips were lifting up under me as he tried to thrust his dick even deeper into my mouth and down my throat.

"Oh crap, I'm gonna cum," he groaned as his back arched and his hand pushed my head down even harder onto him.

Although I couldn't see them, I could hear the crowd really started to buzz now. Roland must have been pretty horny to come this fast and from the rustling caused by them moving around they must have wanted to make sure they saw the final event.

"Oh fuck! Jesus H. Christ" he cried out, apparently oblivious to where he was.

He groaned again, even louder this time, and my heart skipped a beat as I felt the first burst of warm cum erupt from the end of his dick into my mouth.

My lips parted slightly such that his cum dripped from my mouth and then down onto his dick as he shot one load after another into my hungry mouth. When his last shot had finally exploded in my mouth, I went back down on him again, using my lips like a squeegee to suck up all the cum I could that was covering his already dwindling shaft, letting it drain from my mouth onto his dick again, then repeating the process. Finally, as his dick softened, I got a last mouthful and turned to face the crowd, sticking my tongue-covered tongue out for them to see and then swallowing the entire load with an over-emphasized gulp.

"Alright! Give the slut a hand folks!" Beth called out and indeed, a light clapping resulted but more to be polite I think than anything. They wanted more, that was obvious. Well, I was ready if they were!

"Damn Roland, since when do you get off so fast? Last week I thought you'd never cum!" Beth admonished him in a low tone as she handed him his pants and practically pushed him from the stage.

Roland gathered his stuff and quickly left the stage without even dressing, apparently a little embarrassed. Obviously by undressing he had originally planned to fuck me but apparently his horny dick betrayed him. Oh well, now he would just have to watch someone else do me instead.

4. First Girl on Stage

"OK, let's try another one," Beth said, holding the basket out to me again, "Maybe this time we can get a guy with some staying power!"

Reaching into the basket, I rustled the slips around and finally pulled one out, as if it made any difference. Beth took the slip from me and grinned as she read the name.

"Lindsey, come on down!" she called out.

Lindsey? A girl? Now THIS was a twist. For some reason, my stage fantasy always centered around me being fucked by a guy. Why? Heck if I know, it's just always been that way. Oh well, why not do a girl when you come down to it? One thing was for sure, my fantasy was about to be expanded upon yet again. There was no whooping this time, at least not from the girl who stood up, Lindsey I assumed. There WAS a lot of chatter and people talking to one another as I think even the crowd was a little surprised at this turn of events.

I watched anxiously as Lindsey slowly approached. I had never met her before but the first thing I thought when I saw her was here was one erotic woman. Lindsey just oozed sexuality. An olive-skinned brunette, I was guessing that she was in her early twenties and was stunning, absolutely gorgeous. She had straight jet black hair that looked to hang down almost to her perfectly round ass and the most awesome, piecing brown eyes. Her mouth was curved in a mischievous grin as she advanced slowly to the platform. She wasn't in any hurt - she looked good and she knew it. God was she built! Her boobs were at least a D cup, emphasized all the more by her petite frame. Although she looked barely five feet tall, her legs were proportioned such that she walked in her heels like a supermodel with the most firm, smooth legs imaginable. To be honest, I was a little intimidated as she was a LOT prettier than me and I knew the crowd had to be looking at her now, most probably wishing SHE was the star attraction.

"Kelly, this is Lindsey," Beth said when she finally got to the platform, "She's just visiting from Greece and doesn't speak a lot of English but I don't think you two plan to hold much of a conversation anyway so who cares?"

The crowd chuckled at Beth's lame attempt at humor but I wasn't paying them much attention. Lindsey and I gazed into each other's eyes and I could plainly see the lust behind them. Damn, I think she wanted this as much as me - maybe even more!

"By the way dear, she's a 100% lez so have fun," Beth whispered in my ear as she stepped back and started the video camera again.

Without a word we both stepped forward and kissed. It felt a little odd to have to lean over to kiss someone as usually I am the shorter one. My cousin Kristen was a couple inches shorter but Lindsey was at least six inches, making it feel like I was the "guy" in the make-out scene.

Lindsey smelled wonderful, with a perfume scent I'd never come across before and her lips were soft and full against mine. Instantly our tongues met and we hugged each other and pressed our bodies tight up against the other. Her boobs pressed against me and her small hands went for my ass from the start, grabbing my butt and squeezing it tightly.

After kissing for a while, we each seemed to get the same idea and started to pull the other's shirt up over our heads. I stopped to let her pull mine off but she did the same and then we both started to do it again. We giggled and I reached down and just pulled mine of myself. She followed my lead and soon we were both topless in front of everyone.

Now I'm not ashamed of my boobs like I was when I was a teenager, but damn if Lindsey's didn't put mine to shame. As big and firm as they were it was my first thought that she'd had a boob job but it was soon obvious she hadn't. They were a natural as apple pie and felt so good in my hands. I don't think I'd ever felt boobs as big as hers without them being saggy but while they weren't "perky" like my cousin's, there was no unsightly drooping to speak of. Her nipples were large as well, dark brown and sticking out like bullets - large caliber ones. I couldn't resist any longer so I bent over and took one in my mouth, sucking on it and taking it into my mouth as my tongue ran over end of the nipple.

"Ohhhhhh, yessss," I heard her moan softly, barely audible even to me.

Well, she knew a little English at least! I lifted my head up and she took her turn at mine and I loved the way she twirled her tongue when she sucked on one and then the other. God, she really knew how to make a girl felt good! Something told me she was going to be pretty good at other things as well.

Again, it was technically my show so I took the lead and slipped off my jeans and she did the same. Soon we were both completely naked on stage. I suppose the crowd would have liked us to have at least turned and shown ourselves to them but at the moment I was oblivious to them, concentrating solely on the beautiful girl standing in front of me.

We laid down on the mattress, her on her back and me to the side of her, draping my leg over hers and pressing my bare crotch up against her hip. My pussy was screaming for attention and the pressure of her against it was enough to send shivers up and down my back. Putting my hand on her large breast, I leaned over her, my boobs pressing against her as we kissed again, long and slow as we enjoyed the feel of our warm naked bodies against one another.

Lindsey was obviously as horny as I was, if not more, and her hand slipped down between her legs and she started to masturbate. Damn, the girl needed to give me at least a chance to get started before she took things into her own hands - literally. I took my hand from her boob and ran it slowly down her flat stomach, letting my fingertips drag gently over her dark skin until I was finally down to the top of her pussy. Surprisingly, she wasn't shaved but I guess that was her European influence. Judging by the fullness and length of her pubic hair, I doubted she even trimmed it.

It was hard to tell given her dark complexion if she had any tan lines and besides, at this time of year she probably wouldn't even if she was a pale redhead. In any case, she probably didn't have to worry about trimming her pussy to keep the hair from sticking out from her bikini as something told me this girl never wore one.

I ran my fingers thought the thick wiry pubic hair and then I felt her hand moving between her legs. She had one finger working her clit slowly so I placed my finger alongside hers so we were both running over it gently. Her clit was wet and slippery, hard as a rock. I felt her trembling as she pushed her own finger up into her pussy as I continued to work on her clit. Damn, I couldn't help but think again about how horny she was! She didn't seem to have any hang- ups about what we were doing, I mean so far as people watching us, and I wondered if she had done something I like this before.

I could tell from the hoarseness of Beth's voice that she was getting off from watching is. Unfortunately Beth was behind me and so I couldn't see her very well, leaving me to wonder if she was touching herself. Knowing Beth, the odds were highly in favor of it. Turning my head slightly, I looked up at the crowd and noted more than a few guys had their hands in their laps!

Enough was enough... I HAD to taste her pussy so I turned and put my head down and between her slender legs, facing downward as my tongue ran over her clit. Her pussy was beautiful. I'd never licked such a hairy pussy before, not even my mom's was this bushy but then she kept hers trimmed a little to keep it under control for her bikini. I had to use two fingers to push the hair away from Lindsey's pussy slit so I could lick her without getting a mouthful of pubic hair in the process. I loved running my fingers through it and to feel it against my face, but getting hair in my mouth, ANY type of hair, wasn't my idea of fun.

Lindsey involuntarily jerked upwards as I took her clit in my mouth and I heard her whimper a little, like a baby seal crying for its mother as I tugged gently on it and let my tongue tease it. Lindsey wanted more. She grabbed me and pulled me up onto her so I was straddling her face. Well, it was obvious what she wanted and I was more than happy to provide my pussy for her to eat as well. Yep, I was right, she DID know how to make a girl feel good!

As we 69'd, I imagined what the crowd must be seeing. Hell, even I would have liked to have seen what we looked like with our faces smashed into each other's pussy. Her tongue felt like heaven on my pussy, licking my clit and then running up and down my pussy lips and sticking it into my pussy hole. I was doing about the same to her and were both about to cum any moment. I thought I was going to be the first but just as I felt my orgasm rising in me, Lindsey thrust her pussy up into my face and I felt her cumming - cumming hard. Oh my God, she was a squirter too! It was almost like she was pissing on me as her warm pussy cum poured out and over my face. It tasted wonderful, though, not like pee, and I felt her pussy convulsing around my fingers which were stuck up inside of her.

Seconds later, it was my turn and I felt my pussy sizzle as I came over her face and pushed myself down tightly over her mouth. It was all I could do to keep my tongue working on her as my skin tingled and my legs felt weak from my ever increasing orgasm. Damn I was cumming hard!

"Good job, simultaneous orgasms! Let's give them a hand!" Beth announced, continuing her play-by-play coverage of the action, even though it was plainly visible to everyone already.

The room was fairly quiet, though, as only a few people responded to her invitation this time . More than likely the rest were already using their hands for more important things!

Who knows how long we kept each other going but finally I just couldn't hold myself up any longer and I had to lay down next to her. We reverted to our previous position and started kissing again only this time our faces were smeared with each other's pussy cum. Mmmmmmm, she tasted good! Odds are we could have just stayed that way and maybe even gone back down on each other again but we weren't alone and as the self-appointed "director" of the "show", Beth had other plans for me.

"Ok girls, I'd say get a room but it looks like you don't need one!" she said with a chuckle, another lame joke attempt that fell flat.

Reluctantly, I sat up and Lindsey seemed to get the message as well. She smiled at me and I could see in her eyes she wanted more and frankly, so did I. Beth was quick to spot it though, and moved in like a referee at a boxing match to separate us before we "clutched" again.

5. Finally Fucked On Stage

"Well, it looks like you're all ready to go some more so how about we get you fucked this time, what do you say girl?" she teased me.

She didn't have to convince ME, that was for sure. By now I was so damn horny I could have fucked about anything with a dick. Damn I needed to be fucked - BAD. I have been in this condition before and unfortunately, usually it's when I can't get any satisfaction which has led me in the past to do some silly things. At least tonight there was a crowd of horny men all waiting to be the next to "come on down" and fuck me.

Once again Beth and I did the selection routine as Lindsey made her way back to her seat. She didn't bother dressing and I could see quite a few guys turn their attention to her as she sat back down on the pew, her face visibly flushed, even with her dark complexion.

"OK now, everyone just settle down!" Beth called out, trying to regain control of the crowd with little success. She finally shrugged and gave up, reading the name as she called out, "And the winner is... Travis! Alright guy, come on down!"

I remained seated on the mattress as I looked to see who "Travis" was. So long as he had a penis and was capable of maintaining an erection, everything else was secondary. Sure, Lindsey was fantastic and she'd made me cum pretty good, but now but I needed something only a man could give me - a hard dick filling my pussy.

Travis turned out to be one of the older guys. "Older" is a relative term for this crowd as I would say that put him in his early thirties at most. As he stood up, he kissed the woman next to him and as he approached the platform, I learned why. The gold ring on his finger sparkled in the light and I realized he was kissing his wife! It surprised me more than you might think because in the past, all the parties Beth had taken to me had all been limited to singles. Evidently her "clubs" now included married couples as well. To come to something like this they must have been swingers so it wasn't like he was cheating on her.

I wondered what his wife was thinking as her husband prepared to perform right in front of her? Well, she must have been interested as she moved up and took a place in the front row of pews. She looked to be about his age, maybe even a little older, with a short denim skirt and when she crossed her legs, her bare pussy was plain to see.

As I sat with my bare legs curled under me, I took stock of Travis as he quickly approached. Unlike Lindsey, he wasn't putting on a show for the crowd and from the speed of his approach, he was certainly anxious to get to the platform. The first thing I noticed was that he was tall, well over six foot, and well-built but not overly like some guys who worked out a lot seemed to get.

Travis had one of those light beards, actually more a three-day growth that men seemed to be wearing more and more these days, especially on TV. Some women must think it's sexy but it tended to make me think they were just too lazy to shave. His hair was trimmed short but he wasn't bald. To top it off, he was wearing cowboy boots, straight jeans, and a NASCAR t-shirt. Put it all together with his slutty looking wife and you had the perfect stereotype of the good ol' boy family.

"Congrats Travis. Now what do you say you get yourself undressed and show us how it's done," Beth suggested as he stepped up onto the platform.

Travis smiled and shrugged. Everyone watched as he quickly stripped, undoing a large brass big belt buckle on his fat leather belt and dropping his jeans, taking off his boots and white socks at the same time. As he got naked, I couldn't help but think God, he looked yummy! His dick was already about half erect as it poked out from under his T-shirt and then it was all there for me to see as he pulled it over his head and dropped it in a pile on top of his jeans and boots. Oh, one thing I DID notice - he wasn't wearing any underwear! I guess I noticed because as much as men seem to like it when women don't wear underwear, it's not often I see a man commando.

Once he was naked, Beth moved up to Travis like an announcer interviewing a fighter about to enter the ring. "So what's it going to be Travis, BJ first or just go for the straight fuck right away?"

Travis was stroking himself as Beth did her thing. Personally, liked seeing him do that and it turned me on. It always impresses me when a man is secure enough to stroke himself in front of others without being embarrassed. So many guys are afraid to jerk off even when they're alone with me, let alone when others can see them. Some sort of "guy thing" I guess, like their homosexuals or something if they touch a cock, even their own, in front someone.

Another good thing about him handling his dick was as a result, he was getting good and hard, leaving him the option to do about anything he wanted.

Travis looked back at his wife, his dick moving in his hand, and once again, I had this eerie feeling I was on the set of some perverted version of the Price Is Right where the husband always seem to have to look back at their wives to get their advice or permission.

Actually, I read her lips more than heard her over what was becoming a steadily increasing din in the room. To be fair, it wasn't like she was trying to be derogatory or mean towards me. The lustful grin on her face told me she was enjoying the show as much as anyone and I think she wanted her husband to get to the punch line without any more fooling around.

"You heard her Beth, I'm going to fuck her" Travis said into the microphone, like one of his NASCAR driver's responding to an interview question. Well, it wasn't quite "I'll take what's behind the curtain" but once again, the situation was eerily similar!

As for me, as soon as I saw his wife's response I started to get on my back but Travis had other ideas. He reached out to grab me and then twisted me over onto my belly, like some cowboy flipping over a calf in the ring. Then he straddled me, grabbed me by the waist with both hands and lifted me up to my hands and knees. OK, I got the idea, he wanted to fuck me doggie! Well, that was perfectly OK with me. It didn't matter at the moment what position he wanted so long as he got his hard dick in me sooner than later. As much as I love to suck dick, I was secretly pleased when his wife told him to fuck me as my pussy was simply dying by now for the feel of a hard cock filling it up.

Indeed, I felt the bulbous head of his dick push against my ass as he worked his way in between my legs. He pushed my butt cheeks apart with one hand while he grabbed his hard shaft and lined it up with my soaking wet pussy hole. Lindsey had prepared me well and I knew there would be no problems getting him in me. As wet as I may have been, I was certainly tighter than his older wife!

"Shit, she's tight!" he called out to his wife as he started to push his dick into me.

I was pleased to hear him say that as I was afraid as wet as Lindsey had made me that he would slide into me too easily and think I was some stretched-out whore. I take good care of my pussy and try to avoid doing things that will stretch it out, like ridiculously over-sized dildos. It makes me proud when men tell me how tight my pussy is, especially considering the number of dicks that I've taken over the years.

My thoughts were cut short and I gasped as he pressed harder and forced the head of his dick inside of me. Oh God, I wanted this so fucking bad! As he pushed I leaned back into him letting him press himself deeper and deeper into me, feeling his hard shaft sliding into me as my pussy was filled with his dick. Travis wasn't overly endowed, not by any means, but he was a good six inches, maybe seven at the most and fairly decent girth so it felt good inside of me. Once he was all the way in me he didn't waste any time pumping himself in and out of me like he was drilling for oil.

As Travis started to fuck me, I looked out and saw everyone in the crowd was watching me. Well, almost everyone. One couple had moved to the back row and she was riding his dick as he sat in the pew. She was facing away from me as she humped herself on him Oh well, I couldn't blame her. Not everyone can just watch and not want a little for themselves.

Most of the others were watching Travis fuck me with a number of guys openly masturbating and even a few of the girls had their hands between their legs as well, including his wife. God, this was what I had dreamed about for so long. Finally, I was being fucked on stage and everyone was watching and getting off wishing they were doing me!

After a few minutes Travis pulled out and without a word he turned me on my side and nestled in behind me. He lifted my top leg up and I could feel his cock poking into me, desperately trying to find its way back into my pussy so I reached down and guided it in - my pussy wanted it just as badly, believe me. It was great to lay there, facing the audience as he started to pump himself in and out of me again. In this position they could see his dick in me much better than before and I noticed his wife especially was staring at us intently, her hand under her skirt as she watched her husband fucking this slut, No doubt she had seen him screwing many other women before, it was obvious this wasn't something new for either of them, but I wondered if he had ever been done anything as openly and flagrantly as he was doing now?

Beth certainly wasn't immune to the sexually-charged atmosphere. Thankfully, she had abandoned her silly commentary and was holding the video camera with one hand while masturbating with the other. Since we were young teens I had always loved watching her do herself and knowing I was getting her off this good made me feel even better, if that were possible.

Travis only fucked me a short while in this position, almost like he was doing it just for show and once he had his "ticket punched" he pulled out of me again and turned me on my back. He still hadn't said a word to me but the sheer animal lust in his eyes told me more than anything he could say. He wanted me, wanted me badly, and he was going to take me now, regardless of anything I or anyone else might say.

This was a look I'd seen in many men before when their sexual needs outweighed any morals or controls they may have. Even my dad would get this way with me at times when he was extra horny. Personally, it was a little scary as you realize that everything from here on out was going to happen and you had no say or control over it. At the same time, that temporary loss of control is what made it so awesome and erotic.

Spreading my legs wide apart like some whore on a hotel bed, I waited anxiously as he climbed on top of me and shoved his dick quickly back into me again. He leaned over me, holding himself up with his arms so he wouldn't crush me as he rocked himself in and out of me over and over again. I started to wrap my legs around him, trying to pull him even deeper into me but I was quickly reminded that these weren't ordinary circumstances.

"Hey! Put her legs down, we can't see!" someone yelled from the audience. Oh yeah, there WAS an audience to keep happy as well!

Travis pressed my legs down flat on the mattress and then he maneuvered himself so he was kneeling and pulled me up on his lap to keep fucking me. I was still lying flat, but now with my bare ass supported on his lap. He somehow pushed me around on the mattress to give our audience a better view of his dick as it pumped in and out of my pussy. Hmmm, it was like he had "performed" before.

Travis' strokes were getting more rapid and forceful and from the intense look on his face I knew my man was about to cum. He looked over at his wife who also seemed to sense that her husband was getting ready to explode.

"That's it, fuck the bitch Travis, fill her cunt!" she encouraged him.

We both took that to mean that she wanted him to cum in my pussy. While that was the way I personally would have preferred, given the circumstances it somewhat surprised me as I would have thought she would have wanted to see his cum spurting out of his dick and onto me. Oh well, who was I to argue with his own wife when it came to how he fucked me and where he shot his cum?

"Oh shit Barbie, here it cums!" he finally spoke out - to his wife and not me.

Travis pulled my hips up to him tighter and then held me still for a couple of seconds before he jerked convulsively and I felt his dick start to explode inside of me. He jerked hard again and again and with each convulsion he released another load of his adulterous sperm inside of me. It wasn't long before he was finished after which he held me with his dick still inside of me, throbbing slightly and twitching now and then just enough for me to feel it move.

Having satisfied his lust, Travis grinned and pulled out of me for the last time. He moved back and let me flop back on the mattress flat on my back once again. Damn, I was exhausted! Although I didn't cum while he was fucking me, it was only because I was concentrating so much on the people watching me instead of trying to go for an orgasm. Oh yeah, I was loving every minute of this!

Travis quickly gathered his things and joined his wife in the front pew. She leaned over and put her mouth on his cock, cleaning off the mixture of our cum that was gleaming on it. It wasn't a blowjob, more like she wanted to taste the results of her husband's efforts. Licking her lips, she sat back up and kissed him. Meanwhile, Beth had regained her composure and was back in charge again.

"Hey everybody, so what do you think? Was that hot or was that hot?"

Everybody seemed to respond in one way or another. Some clapped, others cheered, some just made loud crude remarks about the way I'd just been fucked. I stood up and started to get off the mattress, assuming that this was the end of the show. After all, what more did they expect? I'd sucked one guy off, did a 69 with a lesbian, and now just been fucked - and fucked well, by someone's horny husband. Personally, I thought I'd fulfilled my fantasy stage fuck fantasy pretty well. It may not have been a theater in Amsterdam but for Pittsburgh it was pretty darn good. Well, I should have known better than to assume anything when Beth was involved.

6. Open Season On Kelly

"OK everybody, so much for the show, now it's open season," she announced. I looked at her like she was from another planet. "Open season"? What the heck was THAT? Apparently I was the only one who didn't understand the term as everyone jumped up and started to move towards the platform.

"What the heck is 'open season' Beth?" I asked as the crowd approached.

"YOU are!" she said, laughing at my bewilderment. "C'mon Kelly, you didn't think you were going to get fucked only once, did you? Besides, this crowd isn't exactly the type to be satisfied with just watching, if you know what I mean."

About that time the first guy had made it up to the platform and I quickly realized what was going on. Yes, the "show" was over but apparently that only meant that now everyone was going to be given their own opportunity with me. What the hell, I was REALLY horny by now and didn't mind getting some more cock so why not?

For the next hour or two, it like a slut's dream come true - or should I say "cum" true. Not every guy fucked me, maybe half at most. Some of them just wanted their dick sucked and others were satisfied with just a hand job. It seemed everywhere I looked there was another hard dick in my face. My pussy was never empty more than a few seconds at a time as when one guy finished, there was always another waiting in line, hard and anxious to replace him. The same was true for my mouth. No sooner would I suck one guy off then there was yet another hard dick in my mouth. Although it was hard to concentrate with all the dicks in me and in my hands, I DID manage to cum several times which made it even better.

For the most part, the women stood back and let the men do their thing with me. I noticed Lindsey had hooked up with another girl so they weren't paying a lot of attention to what was happening to me anymore, if you get my meaning. Other than that, the rest seemed satisfied just watching and most of them masturbated as they did. As you might imagine, I was quickly covered with cum as some of the guys couldn't wait their turn and ended up just standing over me and spraying their cum all over me. It was definitely a "guy" time as the girls hung back and just watched or played with each other. I really couldn't blame them for not wanting to have to deal with the ever-growing mess on me.

Things might have gone on another hour or more as I was pretty sure some of the guys who were now fucking me had already done me once before. Beth, however, stepped in to bring things to a close.

"OK everybody, 'open season' on Kelly is now closed. How about some help getting the place back in order. This IS a church you know!"

Everybody seemed to get a kick out that last comment as laughter erupted. Finally, her lame sense humor came through! Indeed, I had not even thought about where we were in the midst of all the commotion and sex. For just a moment, I looked around at the various religious artifacts and felt a little twinge in my heart but then, didn't God endow us with the ability to enjoy sex? If so, what better place to celebrate it but in his own house?

Needless to say, there wasn't a shower in the place so I gathered my stuff and made my way to the women's restroom where Beth had been thoughtful enough to bring some body wash and towels for me. I used a washcloth to clean myself off the best I could and even rinsed my hair in the sink to get the cum off that I saw in the mirror. God, what is it with men and cumming in my hair? At least on my face and boobs it was easy to wash off. My hair was definitely going to need some work when I got home.

By the time I'd gotten myself presentable again and returned to the sanctuary, it was like nothing had happened. The mattress was gone with the podium back in its place. Someone had sprayed air freshener which masked the thick odor of sex that had permeated the place not too long before. If you hadn't known there was no sign that anything had happened here tonight. Beth was sitting in the front pew with a couple of guys, watching replays on her video camera.

"Damn, he really came on her!" one of the guys exclaimed as they all laughed at whatever scene they were watching. I gently coughed, letting them know I was back.

"Well, tell me. How was it? Was it what you expected?" Beth asked.

I grinned and leaned over to kiss her and then replied, "I loved it and you know it! God, I never dreamed it would be so much fun."

Beth kissed the guys goodnight and took my hand as we left the building. Back in her car we both got in and then just threw out heads back and sighed together. I looked down and saw the crotch of my jeans was soaked. Beth saw where I was looking and giggled.

"Damn girl, I guess you must have a lot of cum in you now, eh?"

I just rolled my eyes and retorted, "You think?"

We both laughed and she started the car for the trip back to my apartment. Amazingly, I was STILL horny! I guess you can't take that many dicks in you and just turn it off in an instant. Something told me I was going to be playing with myself for a long time when I got back to my bedroom!

(Apr 12) Chapter 162: Homecoming

Story codes: MF oral inc father daughter
Me (23)
John - my dad (43)

As much as I loved living on my own, financially I was no longer able to swing it after I quit my escorting job to be a Christian school teacher. It was obvious that my parents weren't too upset about it, especially considering how I was welcomed home!

1. On My Own

There are certain days in anyone's life days that signify a special accomplishment. For me that would include the first time I rode my bike without my dad holding me up, my high school graduation, college graduation, passing my driver's license exam (after only 3 tries), my first blowjob, losing my virginity, and of course, the most special was the first time I had sex with my dad.

Recently, I reached another milestone when I moved out of my parent's home and into my very own apartment. Granted, it wasn't much, but it was mine and nobody could tell me when to clean it or how to live in it. It was the first time in my life that I was on my own without a roomie or parent around.

One of the reasons I was able to finally afford my own place was that I decided to return to the escorting business. Now I don't mean being an "escort" like my cousin Kristen, who is really a whore. She may prefer to call herself by some euphemism but she sells her body for cash which makes her a prostitute or a whore, whichever term you prefer to use. Rather than fronting for prostitution, the agency I worked for specialized in providing "companionship" for out of town business men or girls for companies that needed someone to socialize with the people at an event.

Again, I did NOT do was have sex with my clients. In fact, I could have been fired if I did as my agency didn't want that sort of reputation and the associated headaches with the vice squad. Still, even without putting out it paid pretty good although not nearly as much as if I worked on my back. It was enough to finance my way into my own apartment which was good enough for me.

Now I would hope that nobody gets the idea that I was trying to "escape" from my parent's home or that I had issues with them such that I needed to move out. Indeed, some people questioned why I would give up the rather cozy, all-expense-paid arrangement I had there. My parents have always been my best friends and other than the typical parent-daughter issues that occasionally arose, we got along fine and it had nothing to do with them, per se. No, what I wanted was independence, to be on my own. After almost 23 years of living with someone "in charge" of me, I wanted to be truly an adult.

My dad reluctantly helped me look over a few places on the south side of Pittsburgh. He wasn't exactly thrilled that I was leaving but he knew the apron strings had to be cut sooner or later. Granted, I couldn't afford a great apartment but my needs were not all that great. We finally found a nice apartment complex with around 40 or so units. The one I liked was on the second floor at the end which I thought would give me more privacy. It only had one bedroom but why would I need more? All my friends lived nearby so who would be spending nights with me - at least someone who needed their own bedroom?

My moving-in day was exhilarating. My parents loaned me some old furniture of theirs and I ended up just having to buy me a new bed but it was only a twin size and not very expensive. When I kissed my dad goodbye and closed the door behind him, I wanted to scream out at the top of my lungs it felt so good. YES! I was in MY apartment.

Unfortunately, it wasn't too last long. For a number of reasons, the past few months had been some of the most turbulent in my life from an emotional perspective. My whole life was changing now that I was out of school and I struggled with who I was and what I really wanted to do with my life. At times I even blamed my parents for things that I later realized were totally my "fault", or at least I was the one who made the decisions. After failing to get a job at the public school, I was getting close to saying the heck with teaching, especially when I considered how much money I was making as an escort.

All the while, though, this nagging voice in the back of my head was telling me I wasn't doing what I was supposed to be doing. Who knows what might have happened had I not been offered a temporary position at a small Christian elementary school teaching 4th thru 6th grader. It was a major decision for me to give up my escorting career to take this job instead. The pay absolutely sucked - practically minimum wage. Most of the staff was married and so they were not dependent on their income from the school. There were also no benefits but at my age I wasn't too worried about that for the short term. When they pitched the job to me it was described as a "ministry". Myself, I looked at it as a resume builder which would hopefully get me further up the waiting list at the local school district.

After quitting my escorting job, I went into a state of denial over my finances. I had some money saved up so the next rent check wasn't a problem. It wasn't until one day I was having lunch with my mom and she asked me how I was able to afford my bills that I finally broke down and recognized the situation I was getting myself into. My mom told me I was always welcome to return home and after thinking it over, I agreed to accept her offer. Fortunately, one of the advantages of having a cheap apartment is that it was on a monthly lease so I was able to move out rather easily. The manager was really nice and he knew the people that ran the school I was working at so he even allowed me to move out with only a half-month's rent.

2. Saying Goodbye to My Apartment

Packing up my stuff to leave home had been exciting. This time is was heartbreaking. I felt like a failure and I was running back home to the protection and security of my parents. Fortunately there wasn't that much to pack so the move went quick. I had left the majority of my stuff at my parents, figuring I might move to a better place anyway when summer came. Several of my friends came over to help me move and my new boyfriend Duane brought over a pickup truck from his dad's business that made it a lot easier.

Finally, when everything was out and the people had gone home, I went back one last time with my dad to make one last look around and then to turn in the key. Looking around at the empty floors and walls, I felt like crying. OK, it wasn't much but as I said before, it had been MINE. A tear started to flow from my eyes and my dad saw it and hugged me.

"Hey baby, it's OK," he said softly to me, holding me tight against him, "It's really not so bad moving back home, is it?"

I sobbed a little bit into his shoulder. "Oh daddy, that's not it. You know how much I loved to be on my own."

My dad hesitated a few seconds and then he reached down and cupped each of my buttocks with his hands through my tight jeans. He pulled me tighter into him and I could feel that he was excited. "Well, if nothing else the wake-up service is better at home, isn't it?" he said in a low voice, his hands and fingers working my ass.

I couldn't help but smile. For the past few years, whenever I was home my dad and I had a "tradition" where he would wake me up before he went to work and get himself off. Of course, I was usually already awake but it was the principle that mattered. Sometimes he fucked me and other times it was just a BJ, whatever he had time for. Sometimes if I was too tired and he would just jerk off and leave his cum behind.

"Oh daddy, is that the only reason you want me home, just to fuck me every day?" I teased him.

"Well... now that you mention it... yes," he said jokingly. The only thing was, I knew it wasn't as much of a joke as his laughter indicated. It was a rare day when I lived at home that my did didn't get off with me in one way or another, even if it was just masturbating and then cumming on me while I slept. It's not like he went without when I wasn't around with my mom, Aunt Linda and cousin Kristen available to him. I was just more convenient plus I like to think that as his daughter I was a little special for him.

"But daddy, if you want to fuck me that badly, then why didn't you ever come over and do me here? You know you could have any time you wanted. Have I EVER refused you?"

My dad chuckled, "Well, I remember the time you wouldn't help clean up the house. And then there was the time you..."

"Daddy!" I cut him off, huffing at the way he was teasing me, "You know what I mean."

Of course he did but actually, why he never came to my apartment to get any WAS a question for me. To be fair and 100% correct, my dad HAD fucked me just after I'd moved in, a sort of an initiation of my new bed I guess you could say. Yet for whatever reason, after that we never had any form of sex in my apartment again, not even a BJ. For that matter, he had never even visited my apartment unless it was with my mom. Not that SHE would have stopped him if he had wanted to fuck me, but for some reason he just didn't seem to want to do it here.

My dad was quiet for a bit and I waited for him to respond. Finally he took a deep breath and slowly let it out, saying, "It doesn't really matter now, does it baby?"

What the hell kind of answer was THAT? It was very unusual for my dad to be so cagey with me about anything, especially when it was about sex. My thoughts were interrupted when he pushed himself in tighter against me and I could feel his dick pushing on my stomach through his pants. Damn, my dad was horny as hell! Not that I wasn't either.

"Mmmmmmm, Daddy... you feel so good against me. Do you want to fuck me now?"

I whispered to him softly, my hand reaching down to caress his wonderful hard erection through his pants.

Even before I had sex with my dad I loved it when he got hard around me. You don't have to be having sex with your dad to know you turn him on. Even when I was younger, I enjoyed knowing my dad thought I was sexy. Of course, when I was that age I had no idea he had any desire to DO anything about it, just that her thought I was hot.

"Oh god you know it," he replied hoarsely, his voice suddenly lustful and deep.

"So why didn't you just say so!" I said, trying to sound exasperated, "Gee whiz daddy, what's the big deal with fucking me in my own apartment?"

My dad looked into my eyes and he smiled, the kind of smile that always melted my heart. It was a special look, one I only saw at times like this. It was more intense than the typical male stare he gave me when I was walking around the house in a T-shirt, more sexy and inviting but not the kind of nasty smile he got when he was watching porn. I liked to think of it as my "I want to fuck Kelly" smile.

"Ohhhhhh, I figured you'd eventually get the hint," he teased me, gyrating his hips slightly to move his hard dick against me.

"Oh daddy!" I exclaimed, shaking my head at his silly antics. Really, why didn't he just ASK? Since the first time he had asked to fuck me almost seven years ago, I had NEVER refused him when he asked to have sex with me, not ONE single time. Like any girl, there were days when frankly, I wasn't feeling sexy or in the mood but he was my father and so I always did it anyway.

What made sex with my dad so special, besides the obvious physical benefits, was the complete and total trust I was able to place in him. Many people have asked me what I would do if my dad asked to fuck my ass, to do a dog, or other things that are on my "off-limits" list. The question is moot because my dad would never ask me to do anything that he knows I would not want to do. Thus I can give myself to him unconditionally, never having to worry about compromising myself to satisfy his needs. Without sounding sacrilegious, it's like putting my faith unconditionally in God, knowing he would never do anything to abuse that trust.

There was no need to say anything else, I knew what he wanted and as his daughter, I wanted to give it to him. To say it was my "duty" as his daughter would be technically correct but really not a proper description of my state of mind. Again, to use a religious comparison, some people look at serving God to be their "duty" but I do it out of my love and faith, not a sense that I am being forced to do anything. It's the same with my dad. I can honestly say I never feel more loved than when I feel my father inside of me, filling me with his sperm.

I unzipped his pants as he unbuckled his belt and opened his pants for me. I pulled down the front of his pants together with his boxers to allow his dick to pop out. Yep, he was horny all right. His dick was swollen and hard. It was ready for me, ready for his daughter to please him and take care of his needs and desires. My mom and others may take care of his physical needs but masturbation can do that just as well. I knew that as his daughter it meant something special to him for me to take his cock in my mouth and suck on it. I was submitting myself to him, pleasing him in one of the most intimate ways a woman can please a man, except I wasn't just any woman - I was his only daughter.

"God Kelly, that feels so good," he sighed as I took his dick into my mouth and ran my tongue around the head of it.

In a way, it was too bad he was already fully erect. I loved to take his dick when he was still limp and soft, then feel it grow inside my mouth as my father reacted to my love for him. It excites me to feel him grow and lengthen further into my mouth as I know WHY it is happening. He is being turned on by me, sexually excited by me, wanting me and lusting for me as only a father can for his daughter.

"Oh yeah, I love it when you take it deep like that!" he groaned, his knees beginning to buckle slightly as I took his entire dick in my mouth until my face was buried in his thick pubic hair, my face pressed against the base of his dick into his crotch.

He smelled so wonderful, a blend of his natural male musk generated by his lust mixed together with good ol' fashioned sweat from a day's work of moved all my things. He pulled my head into his crotch, signaling he wanted me to take his dick in as deep as I could.

My pussy was feeling like someone had poured gasoline in me and lit a match - and now was trying to put out the fire. I was feeling so hot yet wet from being so horny. I rubbed myself through my jeans, feeling the wetness soak the crotch. My clit felt so sensitive between the tight jean material pressing against it and then with the sensation of my finger over top of that. God I wanted to be fucked so bad!!

Grabbing his dick in my hand and stoking it, I took my mouth off of him and looked up at him, our eyes meeting. "Fuck me daddy," I begged him, "Please fuck me now. Please show me how much you love me." I was SO sure he would just nod his head and start to strip me that it literally shocked me when he smiled and shook his head at me.

"Why don't we go home and do it in your room?" he said softly, "I want your first day to be special and fucking you on this hard floor isn't what I had in mind."

The floor could have been gravel and I think that as horny as I was I wouldn't have minded laying on my back if that's what it took to get hid dick in me. Damn, that was about the LAST thing I expected him to say. Surely he must be joking, I thought, but then he put his dick back in his pants and zippered them up. Crap, he was serious!

"Let's go... ten minutes and I promise you, I'll fuck you soooooo good you'll be glad we waited."

As I stood up, the material in my crotch rubbed and moved against my clit and I thought I was going to double over as it sent little jolts throughout my body. God I was SO fucking horny it wasn't even describable! Ten minutes? Why not just wait ten years or ten centuries? I wanted to be fucked - and fucked NOW.

"C'mon, you can hold on for a little longer," my dad chuckled at my discomfort, "Damn girl, I haven't seen you this horny in ages."

3. Back Home In Front of My Mom

The trip back home only took a few minutes, thank god, as I rubbed myself the entire was, one hand between my legs and the other on my boobs. My dad kept looking over at me and smiling at my obvious distress. It was so mean of him to deny me what I needed. Well, maybe he wasn't trying to be mean but that's how I felt with my pussy feeling so lonely and empty.

Once home, we entered the basement from the garage and as I literally ran to my room, my mom was watching TV in the family room and called to me.

"Hey, what's the rush?"

I just giggle at her and headed for the stairs. It was two stories to my room and by the time I got there, I didn't intend to have any clothes left to take off. Just as I got to the top of the basement stairs, I overheard my mom asking my dad what was wrong with me. My dad just laughed loudly and replied, "She's horny." Well, that told my mom all she needed to know. She knew how it was when I got this way and she also knew there was just one way to bring me back to earth - a good fucking, preferable by my dad.

I reached my room, leaving a trail of clothes behind me on the steps such that I was naked by the time I passed through the open door. I flopped myself on the bed and turned over on my back, my head supported by a pillow such that I could see outside my room at whomever was coming. I lifted my knees up until my feet were flat on the bed and spread my legs apart for him to get an unimpeded view of my pussy when he came in. I couldn't lay still but wiggled and bounced, trying to calm the storm raging in my crotch. There was only one way THAT was going to happen and it was on its way up the stairs. To my surprise yet again, my dad entered my room (THAT wasn't the surprise) but right behind him was my mom.

"Hope you don't mind if I watch," my mom asked, "Something tells me this is going to be good."

Hopefully, that would qualify as the understatement of the year. It was so like my mom to want to watch. VERY rarely she would join in. I could probably count on one hand how many times THAT had happened unless it was for my dad like on Father's Day or his birthday. My mom and I had our own thing which worked for us but when it came to my dad, for some reason my mom loved to watch him fuck me. It was fucking me that she liked to watch, too. If I was just sucking his dick or boob as he licked on the nipple, squeezing it and kneading it like bread. Gripping my nipple with his teeth, he pulled up gently on it and then released it, letting it snap back into place. Then his tongue would run circles around my nipples, playing over the dark areas of my areola, running over my nipple and then back over the fullness of my breast again. God it felt so good! I leaned my head back and closed my eyes so I could focus on the sweet sensations he created in my breast as he worked my boobs with his mouth, tongue and hand.

"That feel so good when you suck on them like that," I sighed softly, putting my hand over his as he fondled me.

I liked to feel his hand underneath mine, feel his fingers move and then feel the corresponding results in my chest. His hand was so much larger than mine. He could cup my entire boob, lifting it up and squeezing it just right. As he continued to suck on them, his hand moved its way down, teasing my ticklish stomach and then I could feel a single finger playing along my pussy slit, staying just on the outside of it as he dragged his fingertip up and down the length of it.

Just as I was about to burst from the suspense, his finger moved over and easily slid between my wet pussy lips and found their way to my pussy hole. He gently pushed one finger into me, probing me and inserting just up to the first joint and moving it around in me in slow circles. The thick bundles of nerve endings at the entrance to my pussy all seemed to respond at the same time, sending shock waves of pleasure coursing through me. My orgasm rose up quickly and before I knew it, I was cumming, and cumming hard, especially for my first one.

"Oh make me cum harder daddy!" I pleaded, reaching down and pushing his finger deeper into me.

He used his thumb to toy with my pussy while his fingers did their thing inside of me, toying with my pussy hole and then even moving down to my asshole. He didn't try to push it in my ass but rather just played around the outside of it, making me cum even harder.

As my pussy was still reeling from my orgasm, his mouth left my boob and he began to kiss my stomach and then the top area of my crotch. His pulled his hand back and spread my legs further apart, then traced over the smooth soft inner surfaces of my upper thighs with the backs of his fingers. He moved his entire body down until he was between my legs with his arms around my legs and his hands under my ass, gripping me and lifting me up into his face. His tongue ran over my clit and I knew another orgasm was not far behind, even as the first one was barely history.

My dad didn't eat pussy every time we fucked. In fact, he didn't eat pussy just about any time we fucked. I have never quit figured it out, it just was the way things were. It wasn't that he didn't like to eat pussy - he licked my mom and Kristen all the time. I had never really asked him directly about it and when I mentioned it to my mom, she just shrugged her shoulders as if to say, "men, who knows why they do what they do." So for whatever reason, he usually stuck with my boobs and fucking me. Today must have been really special because he buried his face in my pussy and quickly brought me to my second orgasm. My dad may not lick me often, but when he does, GOD it feels so good!

I would have loved to suck his cock some more but as my orgasm faded slowly away (it didn't help that he never stopped licking me the entire time but then, who as in a hurry?). Today, though, it was like he substituted my mouth on him for his mouth on me as now he was ready to fuck me. Sometimes I got in a say in how we fucked but once he made up his mind that it was time to get down and fuck, that was it, no further comments accepted.

I was panting from my orgasm as he looked up to see how I was doing. His face was all wet from my pussy cum and he looked like a man in heaven. He crawled up and on top of me, using his arms and elbows to support himself so he wouldn't put his full weight on me while he was on top of me.

"Oh daddy, I want you to fuck me so bad right now," I whispered to him, just loud enough for my mom to hear.

She had been sitting almost motionless throughout so far, just her hand moving, barely visible between her legs. She seemed mesmerized by the scene in front of her. I could see her eyes were fixed on where his dick was hovering over my pussy, waiting like an airplane on approach to enter my pussy.

Without another word he lowered his dick to my pussy hole. I felt the top of his head hit just above my asshole and then he slide it upward until it was just outside of my pussy hole.

"That's it, fuck her John," I heard my mom urge him on. Damn, BOTH my parents were horny as hell today. Typically my mom didn't say a word while my dad was fucking me unless it was for our safety or privacy.

Well, I wanted my dad to fuck me as bad as my mom did so I lifted my hips up to push against him. He responded by thrusting himself into me, driving his dick home in one long hard stroke. The base of his crotch met my pussy mound and he ground his pubic hair against me. I could feel him in me, his entire dick within my body as my pussy gripped him as tightly as possible.

"Damn, you're always so tight when we first fuck," he semi-complained.

Well, he could try with that act but I knew the truth, he loved my tight cunt. Compared to my mom, who had borne a child, I was much tighter, That said, I only hoped mine was as pretty and tight as hers when I got to be her age! My mom didn't shave hers, in fact she didn't even trim it half the time unless she knew it was something special. With today's things and such, NOT shaving was sort of slutty now and I always thought it looked so slutty when a girl would let her pubic hair stick out from her clothes. Maybe in Europe.

My dad pumped my pussy for a while and then he put his arms around me and we rolled the other way such that I was on top and he was on his back - all without his dick popping out of me even once. I was riding him like a cowgirl, facing him and putting my hands on his chest as I rocked on his dick to cause it to stroke in and out of me. It also gave my mom a great view of my dad's dick in my pussy as she was slightly behind me when she sat at my desk. I could only imagine how it looked to see my ass rising up and down with his dick sliding in and out of me like a fleshy piston.

I knew my dad also liked my ass so I paused for a moment to swivel around his cock, keeping it in me yet again as I changed positions. Now I could see my mom as I rode my dad, giving my dad a clear view of my perky ass. I felt his hands grip my butt cheeks as he pushed me and pulled me up and down his dick. Leaning over and supporting myself with my hand on his lower legs, I knew he could see not only my pussy with his dick in it, but my asshole as well. Granted, that was ALL he was going to see, but it still excited me that I knew he would be looking at me.

Had it been up to me, I would have stayed on top until he finished himself off. It wasn't my most preferred position for his to ejaculate in me but it was the one at hand at the moment and OK with me in any case. I was ready, ready for him to cum in me. I was rocking on his dick more than lifting myself on him as it was much less exertion for essentially the same results. As usual, my dad had other thoughts in mind. He lifted me up and flipped me over on my back again and this time he snuggled in beside me and turned me on my side. Lifting my upper leg up and behind his, he positioned his dick once again at the opening to my womanhood and without further fanfare, thrust himself into me in one hard stroke.

"Cum in me daddy, I want you to cum in me," I assured him as he began to stroke himself faster and faster in side of me, "I want you to fill me with your love."

For my dad, that was usually the way he DID cum at least 90% of the time, unless I was sucking him in which case he came in my mouth. Rarely he would cum on me and then it was usually on my boobs for some reason. Typically he did that when he masturbated while watching me sleep and wanted to leave me a reminder of what I had "inspired".

Suddenly he thrust himself hard against me, driving me against the headboard of my bead. "Oh fuck!" he groaned as his hips swung into me, his ass clenching as his dick began to release his load of sperm into me. Each time he banged into me, I could feel that slight sensation of warmth and I knew his sperm was being injected into me with each stroke. Mmmmmmm, my dad was cumming inside of me, he was literally mating me as he delivered his fresh incestuous sperm into my fertile womb. (OK, so technically I wasn't fertile being on the pill, so cut me some slack and let me be romantic about it, ok?)

He was indeed horny, delivering half a dozen decent loads into me, followed by several "aftershocks" where he just instinctively thrust himself again and again, even thought there was nothing left to give me.

When he was done, he collapsed, barely holding his weight off of me with his elbows. "Oh god... oh god," he kept repeating over and over as he tried to regain his breath. He was sweating profusely, some of it dripping onto me but I didn't care. His dick was still in me and I loved the way it throbbed inside of me, knowing it was surrounded by his cum.

Then I got the biggest surprise of the day. My mom got up and pushed my dad over on his side. He rolled over and laid there like a sack of potatoes, totally spent and exhausted. She looked up at me and smiled, saying, "Don't be too greedy, I want some of that cum too."

She lowered her head and started to lick my pussy. I squeezed down, trying to force his cum out of me. He had released it deep inside of me, though, and it was slow going to get it to drain down quickly so I sat up and then I felt it literally pour out of me and down the crack of my ass. Laying back again, my mom started to lick my pussy, gobbling up my dad's cum as it drained out of me.

It wasn't just my cum she went for either, she also made sure my clit got its fair share of attention and I felt my final orgasm surging in me. My mom sensed it as well and she pushed two fingers finger into my pussy as her lips locked onto my clit and her tongue teased the tip of it. Her tongue is what did it as I shut my eyes and felt like I was lifting up off my bed, suspended in midair as every nerve in my body felt like it was on fire.

My back arched and she held onto my, her arms wrapped around me and her hands clenching my ass as she pulled her face into me to keep me from bucking her off as I thrashed with the pleasure of my incredible orgasm. I thought the first ones were good, well they were nothing combined to this last one. OMG, it was like it would never end as my mom kept her tongue moving at just the right time to keep me on the knife edge. My pussy felt like I was draining a solid flow of cum, I must have been soaking the bed under me.

I really have no idea how long this went on but finally I just couldn't take any more and I collapsed in the bed like a sack of wet flour. My mom loved up on one side of me while my dad was on the other. She reached over and kissed me and I could taste the mixture of my dad and my cum on her mouth and tongue as we kissed softly.

Normally after sex I still feel the need to masturbate or otherwise be active doing something. Guys typically fall asleep on me but I don't care as that gives me the chance to do myself one more time. Today it was different. This time it was ME that was falling asleep as I felt like I had just run a marathon. I passed out in my parents' arms, my final thoughts being how wonderful it was to be home again. I couldn't have asked for a better homecoming.

(Jun 03) Chapter 163: Brenda's Wedding

Story codes: MF FF oral exhib adultery inc brother sister

Brenda - freshman roomie (23)
David - Brenda's older brother (29)
Gary - Brenda's fiancé (26)
Doreen - Brenda's girlfriend (23)

The fact my old college freshman-year roomie was getting married was a surprise but to get only a few days' notice was a shock. It had been quite a while since we slept together back in college but sex is like a bicycle, you never forget how to ride. In fact, the entire week was filled with new experiences and surprises!

1. June 3, Back With Brenda

Who can ever forget their first day at college? After the hustle and bustle of moving in, getting everything settled, saying goodbye to your parents; suddenly it hits you - you're alone, more alone than you've ever been in your life. Well, not quite. There's your roomie - that wonderful person we all get to either love or hate. In my case, it turned out to be this smiling freckled redhead who introduced herself to me as Brenda.

Brenda and I got along fantastic from the start even though we were quite different in many ways. She was the perky redhead with freckles whose great boobs (ok, so I was a little jealous about those!) and whose looks were already catching the eyes of the upperclassmen. One of the unusual things about Brenda compared to the rest of the girls in the dorm was that her family lived only about ten miles from school. As she explained it, her parents wanted her to stay in the dorms during her freshman year so she could have her "college life experience" and then live at home for the remaining three years (living in the dorms IS expensive). As things turned out, I doubt they had a clue what "life experiences" she would be having. If they had, they probably would have thought twice about the arrangement!

My diary has many entries in it about me and Brenda so I won't repeat them here. In short, Brenda was my "first" girl-girl experience. OK, technically my mom and Aunt Linda were, but when it came to girls my age and non-"family", Brenda was my first. Although Brenda never did find out about my incestuous relationships at home, eventually I helped her to realize one of her long-time dreams - to be with her older brother. He was married with two boys at the time but as it turned out, HE had the same fantasies growing up about his sister so all it took was for me to act as the catalyst to get them started.

Although we only lived together for one year, Brenda will always have a special place in my heart and we keep in touch, telling each other's about our lives after college and such - or so I thought. I guess since I never disclosed my family secrets to her, I couldn't say much when I learned she hadn't been keeping me up to date on all her issues either, although they were quite different from mine.

"Hey Kelly, can we talk?"

It was Brenda on my cell phone. Damn, it was all of like 6:00 AM on a Saturday morning. What the heck was she doing calling me now? It had better be good, that was all I knew as I tried to wipe the sleep from my eyes.

"I'm getting married."

THAT woke me up. I sat upright in bed, my eyes wide open as I listened to find out more about this revelation. Married? Heck, I didn't even know she had a serious boyfriend!

"Wow, that's cool Brenda," I said, trying to collect my wits as I digested this new information. "When's the wedding?"

"Saturday."

Obviously I had heard her wrong so I asked her to say it again.

"That's right, you heard me, seven days from now."

A million questions popped into my head. Where was she? Where was the wedding to be held? Most of all, why the hell was it being held on such short notice?

"I'm in the Florida Keys now and that's where the wedding's going to be," she started to explain, "Remember all the dolphin stuff I use to be into? Well, I work for a dolphin rescue group down here now along with Gary."

I learned that Gary was the guy she was marrying. He was a few years older than her and the two of them worked close together doing whatever they did with the dolphins. Apparently, they had been working a little TOO close together and Brenda was pregnant.

"Oh Brenda, how could you let THAT happen?"

No sooner were the words out of my mouth than I wanted to pull them back. That was the LAST thing she needed to hear. It was the sort of thing your mother said to you, not your best friend. I tried to apologize but she took it well.

"Hey, it's OK. I know I screwed up - literally, but I want to have the baby. We just want to be married as soon as possible so it won't look so bad for the baby later on. I figure we can always tell people it was premature."

Brenda came from a highly religious family and the fact that an abortion wasn't even mentioned as an option was no surprise to me. Well, if she loved the guy then I just hoped it all worked out for her.

"I know it's short notice - can your dad pay to get you down here? I want you to be a bridesmaid."

Wow, a bridesmaid! I'd never been one in my life as it seemed all my friends were still putting off getting married - me included. What about a dress? How did this all work?

"Don't worry, we're planning a beach wedding at his parent's house. They have a place right on the ocean. I thought we could wear bikinis - wouldn't that be wild?"

We talked some more and she told me all about Gary and his family. He was 26, a few years older than Brenda. He had just a brother, Paul, who was two years older than him and was going to be his best man. Her parents had lived in the Keys for over thirty years and from the way she described it, had a beautiful home that would be perfect for the wedding. His relatives all lived in Florida so they could make it easily.

Brenda's family was scrambling for tickets but she said her parents would make it along with David, her brother but not the rest of his family due to the cost of the last-minute flights. The other girls in the bridal party were friends from her old home back in Ohio and would also be flying down for the wedding.

Well, what could I say? There really was no choice in the matter. No matter what it cost, I was going to make my friend's wedding and that was that. It wasn't hard to convince my dad to buy me the tickets. I'd learned many years before when the best time was to ask him for things like that - in the middle of a BJ.

I flew first class.

My flight was to arrive on Tuesday which would probably get me to their place sometime late afternoon or early evening by the time we drove from the airport to the Keys. I was thrilled as I had never been to South Florida. Heck, I'd never been to Florida period except for a trip to Disneyworld with my parents when I was eight.

Brenda had everything planned out. Wednesday would be sort of a fun day, maybe we'd go swimming or even snorkeling, just sightseeing. Thursday was the bachelorette party and she said she had no idea what that was going to be about as her friends were keeping it a state secret. Friday was rehearsal with the wedding on Saturday. Being they planned to leave on their honeymoon immediately after the wedding, I scheduled my return flight for Sunday.

The flight down was rather uneventful. It was the first time in my life that I've flown alone, always with my parents in the past. All my friends teased me about joining the "Mile High Club" but the flight was packed and there was no chance of anything remotely like that happening. I arrived in the Miami airport and was fortunate to find all my luggage was there waiting for me. Walking outside the luggage area, I heard a familiar voice!

"Hey Kelly!! Over here! Oh my god, you made it."

I turned towards the voice and there she was, my old Freshman roomie, Brenda. God she had changed in the past couple of years! I don't mean in a bad way either. With her red hair and freckles she had always tended to shy from the sun but obviously that wasn't possible down here. She was now so tan that her freckles were barely visible and even though her hair was pulled back in a ponytail, it looked even redder than ever. I'd always been envious of her breasts but now they looked even better than ever! Damn she was built like a Mack truck! Whatever she was doing was keeping her in shape as she looked sexy and curvy as hell. She certainly wasn't showing any signs of being pregnant, let me tell you.

She was alone, explaining to me that the other girls were arriving the next morning at the Fort Lauderdale airport. They would drive down on their own and would arrive early Wednesday morning. So today it was just me and her.

It was quite a drive to the Keys, more than I had expected, so it gave plenty of time for Brenda to explain the situation and tell me about the people who would be there since I wouldn't know most of them.

Cathy was going to be her Maid of Honor (MOH). She and Brenda had known each other since they were little girls. As Brenda described her, I thought I remembered her from some events back in her hometown but I would have to wait until I met her to be sure.

"Wasn't she...,?" I started out but Brenda finished my sentence.

"Yeah, she's a lesbian," Brenda giggled.

I laughed and she continued. Celeste was another friend of hers from back home in Ohio and was going to be the other bridesmaid besides me. I hadn't met her so she would definitely be new for me. Then there was Doreen, a girl she'd met since moving to the Keys. Doreen was a local, born and raised in the Keys, and was helping Brenda out a lot with her wedding plans. Although Cathy was the MOH, Doreen was doing most of the planning for the bachelorette party. All-in- all, it sounded like a fun group of girls and Brenda seemed excited about having us all together for the week.

As we drove southward, I was amazed at the scenery - a lot different from the 'burgh back home, The Keys were beautiful and when I saw the ocean I couldn't wait until we had a chance to get out in it. We passed through Key Largo and a number of dive shops. Brenda pointed at them and told me she hoped to come back the next day and take a trip out to the coral reefs. I'd never been snorkeling before and to be honest, the idea of swimming with the sharks sort of scared me a bit but she said it was safe and easy. From the way she described the reefs and fish, I couldn't wait to see them.

We passed over several bridges and finally she turned off down a side road which led to a driveway, almost hidden by the palm trees and lush vegetation. We wound down a narrow path and then it opened up to reveal the most gorgeous view. The ocean was in front of us with a beautiful two-story home to the side. I noticed it was built up on these things like stilts which Brenda explained to me was for when the hurricanes hit. I couldn't imagine the water getting that high but she said they still had to put everything on the second floor at times!

There was also a smaller house on the opposite side of the property which Brenda explained was where her family would be staying since there would not be many of them. Gary's family would be in the bigger home while the other girls were staying at a Days Inn just down the road. Brenda turned to me and smiled, saying, "Don't worry, you get to stay here with me."

As soon as we had parked a guy came out of the bigger house and hugged Brenda and kissed her. Apparently this was Gary, and Brenda confirmed my deduction after they finally let go of each other. Wow, he was a hunk! He was tanned and in great shape, with a dark complexion and short black hair. He looked at me and grinned, something Brenda picked up on immediately and playfully hit him in the shoulder.

"Hey, eye's up fella. This is Kelly, my friend from college, the one I told you about."

I couldn't help but wonder just how much she HAD told him about me. Hmmmmmm, was Brenda going to share? THAT idea was quickly put to rest as while he was carrying my luggage into the house, Brenda grabbed me by the arm and whispered in my ear.

"Now Kelly, before you get any ideas, he's off-limits, OK?" she said in a tone more serious than I would have expected. I looked at her with a "Who, me?" expression but she wasn't buying it for a second.

"Oh right, don't give me that little miss innocent look, I know you girl!" she said in a more playful manner. Still, she looked more like a mother lion protecting her cub for a brief moment. Something told me that I had better steer well clear of Gary!

Her parents were already in the house. It had been years since I'd last seen them but they hadn't changed a bit - Mr. and Mrs. Cleaver personified. Someone else was there as well - her brother David. My pussy immediately tingled as he gave me the once over. He was here alone and I'd already been thinking all week about the possibilities. From the way he was looking at me, I was willing to bet he had the same thoughts. Hmmmmmm, this could get interesting... VERY interesting!

After that we went over to the big house where I was introduced to the groom's family. Wayne and Sylvia seemed really nice and from the looks of the place, Wayne wasn't doing too badly financially either. They had bought the property over twenty years ago and loved there ever since. I could only imagine what it was worth now but I wasn't about to ask how much that would be. Later Brenda confided in me that they had been offered over five million for the place a few years back and turned it down.

Back at her smaller house, Brenda showed me her bedroom where I would be staying as well. OMG, it was beautiful! It was in front of the building so it overlooked the ocean and beach. It was the most spectacular view I could have imagined for someone to have from their bedroom window.

As it was getting late and we had already said good night to everyone, Brenda shut the door behind us. We both stood there for a moment, just looking at each other and then as if on cue, we each reached out and held each other tightly. God I had missed her so! We kissed and I was taken back to that first day at her house when she kissed me. I remember how shocked I had been but then how wonderful it was after that.

"Mmmmmmm, I've been wanting to do that since we met at the airport," she said in a husky voice after we finally broke apart. "What do you say we get ready for bed?"

I nodded, almost afraid to try to say anything, not trusting my voice I felt so emotional. We both undressed silently and when she had stripped, I thought at first she had an all-over tan but then I realized it was just that what tan lines she did have were so small that her bikini must have been barely covering anything. Her figure was better than ever and I loved the way her ass was all tanned - her thong must have been non-existent in the back! She pulled back the covers and sat down on the bed nude.

"You know, you're the one that got me started sleeping nude," she said conversationally, "God, remember how shocked I was when you stripped that first night at school as if there was nothing to it?"

I started sleeping nude back when I was twelve. At the time, it was mostly a young girl trying to mimic her mom but as I got older, I found it to be just more comfortable. There was never any sexual reason for sleeping nude, although of course there were those times when it WAS sexual but I wasn't looking to sleep those times either so they really didn't count.

When I got to college, I found that each year my roomie reacted differently. Some, like Brenda, were a little surprised but adapted to it. At the other end of the spectrum was the one who totally freaked and threatened to turn me in for being indecent if I didn't wear at least something to bed. It wasn't like I ran around the room naked at night, just when I was in bed. It was the same when I was home. Usually I would take off the shirt or t-shirt I was wearing just before getting into bed and then when I got up, I usually headed for the bathroom first so I didn't worry about anything then, but after that I would slip something over me.

"Whoa, where did THOSE come from?" she gasped, a little overdramatic.

Brenda was looking at my boobs and I remembered that it had been a while since she'd seen me nude. I was a solid C cup these days after spending my college years pretty much a size smaller - to be generous. They were still nothing compared to hers but at least I wasn't embarrassed to be next to her now.

I sat down next to her and felt her warm nude hips and legs against mine. I wanted her so bad yet at the same time, I wanted to savor this moment. It been a while since we'd been together like this and then there was the added element of her being my first girl. It was almost like it would have been if I was with Steve again, my first guy. I could smell her perfume and wanted to lick her and taste her – everywhere. In the fading light she looked so beautiful, the outline of her breasts rising and then falling as her breathing seemed to get heavier.

After what seemed like ages I reached for her, putting my arms around her shoulders and pulling her naked body in tightly against me. She responded by wrapping her arms around my waist, hugging me just as tightly. We fall back onto the bed, embracing one another like two lovers reuniting after a long separation which in many ways was exactly what we were. One thing to be clear, in all our years together I had never considered us lovers, just very close friends. Still, the way we had sex at times it was almost as if we WERE two lovers.

We worked our way onto the bed as we kissed each other, neither of us even trying to speak but letting our mouths and hands do the "talking". There was nothing we had to say, we both knew what we wanted and we knew each other well enough to know what the other wanted as well. Our legs intertwined and I felt hers push in between my thighs, pressing against my pussy. I did the same, driving my leg upward and into her crotch until I felt the warmth of her bare pussy against me. Needless to say based on the tan lines, she shaved totally which was new for me. Back in school she liked to keep a trimmed growth of red pubic hair. Brenda was the only "true" redhead I have ever known.

"Ohhhhhh, she moaned as I pressed my leg against her pussy harder, putting pressure on her clit. If hers was feeling anything like mine at the moment, I understood totally why she was moaning! It was like we were synchronized, each of is doing the same to the other.

As we kissed and our tongues played, our hands ran up and down the other's bare back. God she felt so warm and smooth! Our boobs pressed tightly together as my hand moved to her ass while hers did the same with mine. I squeezed her butt and marveled at how soft yet firm it felt in my hand. I reached lower, letting my fingers trace along her outer thigh and then slowly worked my way in closer until my hand was working its way between my leg and her crotch. I loosened the pressure of my own leg against her so her hand could fit in better and she did the same for me.

"Ohhhhhh Brenda," it was my turn to sigh as I felt her hand slip into my crotch.

She didn't hesitate, pushing straight to my clit where her finger pressed against it. I jumped a little as my clit had ignited like a match that had just been struck and was flaring. Shortly after, I found hers, already swollen and hard from anticipation. At first that was all we did, rub each other's clit and kiss. I loved kissing

Brenda and we could have done that all night so far as I was concerned. Then again, there were other things on Brenda to kiss besides her mouth!

My finger moved from her clit down between her already wet pussy lips until I reached her tight little pussy hole. Pressing my finger against it, it slid in easily and I felt Brenda tense up as I pushed it in about half way. She gasped as I twirled it around, rubbing my fingertip in circles around the outer portion of her pussy where I knew it felt so good to be touched.

Guys see to think that the deeper they go into a girl, the better it is for them. I like a man's DICK to be deep in me but that's more an emotional satisfaction than a physical one. What makes me feel good is when I am touched closer to the opening of my pussy. A man sliding in and out of me is stimulating that area like the bow of a violin as it passes over the strings. The only difference the length of the bow really makes is how long a note can be drawn out for before having to reverse directions.

It's the same with a dick. Long or short, it feels the same as it moves in and out of me. The difference is only how long the strokes can be and I have to admit, the longer ones DO feel better. Fatter cocks tend to be a little better as they stretch me more and thus rub more against me but the difference isn't all that much. Bottom line, the old adage, "it's not the size, it's how you use it" is a lot truer than most people realize.

Brenda was the first to add a second finger so I did the same with her. She was a lot tighter than I expected, making me wonder how many guys she had been with. When I knew her in school, she liked to fuck guys (including her brother) but she definitely seemed to prefer girls. I wondered if she had moved more to the girl side but then if she had, where did Gary fit in? (no pun intended).

I was so horny it wasn't going to take much to make me cum and sure enough, a few more expert touches from Brenda and I was off to the races. My pussy gushed and clamped down on her fingers as my legs stretched out straight and my back arched and pushed by chest in tighter against hers. God it felt so good! Brenda was relentless, keeping her hand on me and making sure I came long and hard.

When it came to sustaining an orgasm, Brenda was almost in the same league as my mother. She seemed to have an instinct for when to push it and when to back off, like a balancing act between making me cum so hard I have to quit versus letting it die and wither away slowly. Any way you look at it, it lasted for several minutes and I was panting as I tried to catch my breath.

I just smiled at her. Back in school we use to have contests to see who could masturbate and get off first. I can't think of one time when Brenda actually beat me. A few times I backed off and let her do it just so she wouldn't feel bad but I think she knew it when I did it. Sometimes I felt guilty when we would touch each other and I would always be the first to cum but then, I guess I didn't feel THAT guilty about it!

Brenda usually took a little more to get her off, especially the first time. Once she was "loosened up" and had cum the first time, then she was like an orgasm machine with one after the other following. Simply fingering her usually wasn't going to do it the first time, at least not in any reasonable time and I had more planned for her than to spend the next half hour getting her off with my fingers. I pushed her over on her back and she smiled as she knew what was happening. Brenda and I'd had sex so many times, it was like we just knew what the other wanted or was about to do.

Her legs automatically spread open as she grabbed a spare pillow and pushed it under her ass to lift her crotch off the bed, making it easier for me. I put one hand on each of her inner thighs as my face moved in closer to her wet pussy. God she smelled so good! Her pussy was swollen and practically dripping as she lifted her hips to present me with her pussy. Brenda LOVED to have her pussy eaten, maybe that more than anything else when we had sex. Well, she was in luck, because I LOVED to eat pussy just as much.

My tongue reached out as my hands spread her pretty pussy apart. Really, she DID have a pretty pussy. Some girls really don't look all that appetizing sometimes but Brenda's pussy looked more like that of a fourteen year-old than a girl almost my age. Of course she was more mature, her pussy lips fully developed, but her skin was unmarked without a blemish or even a mark from shaving. Plus, as I already said but it kept reminding me with every breath, she smelled GREAT. Again, some girls don't practice the best hygiene and their pussies can be a bit skanky but not Brenda. I knew she was obsessed with keeping herself clean and it clearly paid off.

She shuddered as my tongue met her clit and I started to run little circles around it using just the tip of my tongue. As I did, I let my mouth move down closer until my lips surrounded her clit and then I started to gently suck on it like it was a nipple, my tongue teasing the tip of it between my lips. Her hips started to buck gently under me, reacting to the pleasure I knew had to be generated from her crotch and moving throughout her body.

I looked up and saw she had her head tossed back and her hands were on her breasts, squeezing them and kneading them like bread, her fingertips and thumb pinching her nipples and pulling on them. I've always told guys that if they want to know how to make a girl feel good, watch what she does when she touches herself! The same goes for guys. I've learned a lot about how to suck a cock and give hand jobs from watching guys masturbate. Although not all that many guys are willing to do that for me, those that do have been quite instructional as well as erotic to watch.

Without taking my mouth off her clit, I pushed two fingers into her pussy, stroking them in and out of her like a cock would if a guy was fucking her now. My other hand went around and under her, cradling her ass in my hand as best as I could. Yet again I marveled out how incredibly soft and smooth her ass felt in my hand! Brenda wrapped her legs around me, using them to pull me in tight into her crotch as her back arched and she cried out with pleasure. Her orgasm finally took over and her hips bounced up and down against me like she was being fucked. I tasted her pussy cum and lapped it up like a cat being offered a fresh bowl of milk. I have to say, she still tasted great!

After she had cum, I moved along side of her again. She was panting with her chest heaving up and down as she tried to regain her breath. I draped one leg over her and put my arm around her, hugging her as I put my mouth on her closet nipple and suckled on it gently. She used her hand to push her breast up against my face, squeezing it under my face.

"Fuck that felt so damn good," she finally managed to whisper hoarsely, "Like old times, eh Kelly?"

We were both exhausted. I knew she had been running around like mad all week getting ready for the wedding and with all my travel today, having sex with Brenda was the perfect ending to a wonderful day. I soon fell asleep with my head on her breast and my hand cupped around her wet crotch.

************

When I woke up it was still dark. I must have rolled over in my sleep because I realized that I was on my side and Brenda was behind me. Just as I was about to roll over, I froze. Brenda wasn't sleeping - and she wasn't alone.

"Oh yeah, fuck me," I heard her saying, obviously trying to hold her voice down but not doing a very good job of it.

"Shhhhhh, you'll wake her up - and mom and dad too if you don't keep it down!"

My heart skipped a beat as I recognized the voice. It was David, Brenda's older brother. It didn't shock me that he was fucking her - he'd been doing that for years and I take credit for helping them get started. No, what surprised me was that he was doing her NOW - with her parents right down the hall in a house that was NOT built for keeping things quiet. Even now I could hear her dad snoring!

I could feel the bed moving, bouncing gently as he was fucking her. My guess, from the way their voices sounded and the bed was moving, that he was on top of her in standard missionary style, pumping his dick in and out of his sister in a slow but constant rhythm.

As I listened to them fuck, I recalled the days when I was first staying at Brenda's house. Back then we got talking about doing guys and I had mentioned her brother was pretty hot. It was all in jest at the beginning but after a while she confessed that she had been attracted physically to her brother since she was barely a teenager. She had never dared to actually approach him about her feelings but many a night she had laid in bed masturbating about what it would be like if her brother were to come into her room at night when the parents were away.

David was married with two boys but his wife was a first-class bitch. It didn't take a lot for me to get him to fuck me, actually it would have been more fun if he HAD put up a bit more resistance. In the course of things I asked him about his sister. Of course at first he pretended it was appalling that anyone would fuck their sister but when he got good and horny he basically confessed to the same desires as Brenda - with the same worries holding him back as Brenda had. I thought it was hilarious that both of them wanted each other for all these years but neither thought they could do anything about it.

Well, I took care of THAT little problem. For the longest time they would only fuck when I was with them, as if somehow by having me there it wasn't quite as "bad" as if they were doing each other privately. Eventually they did fuck alone but I had wondered if that had kept up over the years or died down as they both grew older. Well, I had my answer to THAT question, that's for sure. For him to fuck her just days before she was to be married was even hotter. I wondered what would happen after she got married. Would she keep fucking him? I certainly had some things to discuss with her later.

************

After he had cum and quietly left the room, Brenda rolled over and I felt her put her arms around me and bury her head in my neck. I laid there, pretending to be asleep, as her hands roamed over me. It was all I could do not to react when she cupped my boob and played with my nipples. When her hand reached ,my pussy and she worked her finger on my clit, I HAD to do SOMETHING. I stirred and pretended to be surprised as I woke up. Brenda made no effort to pull away from me and she kept playing with my pussy as I rubbed my eyes and acted as though I had just woken up.

"Mmmmmmm, somebody's horny I think," I said softly, putting my hand over hers as she put her finger into my pussy a little bit. She didn't respond so I rolled over and pushed her on her back.

"Well, you're not the only one," I said to her, grinning as I reached for her pussy.

She was soaking wet, of course, from having just been fucked by David and her pussy was slimy with his cum. She had no idea that I knew she had just been fucked so I didn't say anything about how her pussy was a dead giveaway. I started to move towards her crotch again but she grabbed me and tried to hold me back.

"Let me lick you this time," she offered.

I knew that she was saying that only because she knew what was waiting for me down there. I smiled to myself as I thought the very same reason she wanted me NOT to lick her was the reason I WANTED to lick her pussy. I knew she wasn't ashamed or embarrassed that her pussy was a mess, it was probably more guilt that she had fucked David without offering me any of his dick.

"How about we BOTH do it then?" I proposed. I didn't wait for her answer because I knew what it was going to be before I even asked it. Brenda never could refuse a 69 and I knew she wasn't about to start tonight.

I moved myself not op of her and straddled her head with my crotch just over her face. I put my hands on her hips as I lowered my head to her crotch while squatting down and letting my own pussy drop to her waiting tongue. My pussy reached her tongue at the same time as my face reached her crotch and we both jerked slightly as pout clits reacted to the other's touch. She was spoon licking me while I did the same to her. Mmmmmmm, she tasted good and I could taste the mixture of sperm and pussy cum that was drinking from her pussy. I wondered if she knew that I recognized what I was eating and that it wasn't just coming from her horny pussy.

This time around she came a lot easier and we actually got ourselves off at about the same time this time around. When we finished, I got off and we reestablished our position next to each other, one arm around the other, our legs intertwined once again.

"Mmmmmmm, that was nice," she purred.

"Yeah, I hate to say this girl but your pussy tastes even better with your brother's cum in it."

I said it casually, as it we were talking about the weather, and it took a few seconds for it to register in her head what I had just said.

"Ohhhhhh, so you heard us?" she giggled.

"Well, you never were very quiet when he fucked you," I chuckled, "I use to wonder how your parents slept through your orgasms sometimes. So I take it the two of you have stayed close?"

Brenda giggled again, confessing, "Yeah, you could say that. His marriage has been pretty shaky lately and it seems he spends more time fucking me than he does with his wife - not that I really am bother by it, mind you."

"Well, don't I get a thank you?" I said teasingly.

Brenda laughed at me, "You're never going to let me forget that, are you?"

I reached up and kissed her and replied, "Nope, never... So do I get to fuck him this week too? And how come you didn't wake me and let me join in?"

Brenda frowned a little. "We actually talked about that before you got here and he seems funny about it for some reason. It's like it's ok to fuck me because I'm his sister and nothing can ever happen between us. With you it is like he is cheating on his wife. As much as they fight, I think he still loves the bitch for reason I don't understand."

Well, so much for getting fucked by David this week! Oh well, I had a feeling there would be opportunities. I was in Florida and there HAD to be a zillion guys looking to get laid!

We fell back asleep again and this time we weren't interrupted until the sun came up and flooded the room with light. I was the first to wake up and I looked at Brenda, lying flat on her back with the covers off. God she was beautiful! In a way, I envied her fiancé. He was going to get to wake up to this vision every morning for the rest of their lives!

It was Wednesday, the start of my first full day in the Florida Keys. I looked in the mirror and wondered what would happen before the day was over. If I knew Brenda, it was going to be fun if nothing else!

2. June 4, Snorkeling in the Keys

It was my first full day in Florida. Since arriving last night I'd met Brenda's fiancé and future in-laws as well as her own parents and brother. I was the first to wake up this morning and when I looked at the bed and saw Brenda's nude body sprawled out, my pussy tingled as I recalled our night together, the first time in ages for us. There's just something about being with her that has always turned me on. It was too bad that her brother wouldn't fuck me after he did her, but I could understand his reasoning. Who knows, maybe by the end of the week I might get him to loosen up a bit!

As I showered my hands rubbed over my boobs and I recalled how good it felt when she had kissed them last night. My pussy tingled as memories of her talented tongue on it flooded back. As my fingers rubbed my clit, I gasped as it responded quickly. God was I horny! Hmmmmmm, maybe I needed to give her a wakeup call? Actually, I was about to do just that when the shower curtain pulled back and there she was, standing there grinning at me. I had been concentrating so hard on playing with myself that I hadn't heard her come in the bathroom with the noise of the shower.

"Well, some things never change, do they, "she giggled, "You always did wake up horny as hell."

She was right. Although I guess you could say I was horny to some degree at just about any time of day, mornings were when my body seemed to naturally crave sex the most. It was a rare day that I got dressed without having first either masturbated or had sex - or both if I was lucky. When we were roomies Brenda use to tease me all the time about how horny I was when I woke up. Not she minded!

I just grinned at her without stopping what I was doing. My heart raced as she stepped into the shower stall behind me, taking the bar of soap and using it to lather me up all over. She seemed more interested in making sure my boobs were clean, rubbing the bar around them and then teasing my nipples with it. I loved the way the slippery surface felt against my hard nipples!

"Damn I love your boobs," she whispered behind me, "You know I've always liked them but now... Damn girl they are GREAT!"

It made me feel good to hear her say that. How many years did I spend as a teenager feeling embarrassed over my small boobs. I was barely out of a training bra by the time my best friend Beth was in a C cup. It seemed I was always behind the other girls but fortunately, the boys didn't seem to mind. Sure, the tended to look first at my friend's chest but I put out more easily than most of them and in the end, that trumped their bigger boobs so I was never at a loss for a guy to take me out so long as I lived up to my reputation.

I could feel Brenda's large breasts against my back as she wrapped her arms around me and pressed her nude, wet body up against mine. Her hands worked their way downward until she was 'cleaning" my crotch, using the bar of soap on my clit now. OMG, I started to cum almost immediately. Between my own touches before she came in and now with her body against me and playing with my clit, I came easily. My knees felt week and my legs trembled as I fought to even stand up.

"Oh god, Brenda... that feels SO good," I finally was able to gasp as my orgasm faded slowly away. She always did know how to get me off quick, almost as well as my mom.

Brenda let the shower rinse me off and then she patted me on the ass and stepped out of the shower. She looked back at me and grinned saying, "Just like old times, eh?"

Indeed it was. Damn... how many times had she gotten me off in the mornings when we were roomies? It must have been dozens at least, maybe even over a hundred. Funny, but I rarely did her in the morning, it was almost always her getting me off. I had tried, of course, to reciprocate but Brenda was more a "night" person in contrast to my being a "morning" person. She was more the type to wake me up in the middle of the night shaking the bed as she played with herself. It was no coincidence, I was sure, that her brother had chosen the middle of the night to fuck her.

Feeling a little better (I could have let her do me a few more times and still not been satisfied), I finished up in the bathroom and went back to the bedroom to get dressed. I chose a pair of my shortest cutoffs and a tank top that was a size or so too small and fit me like a glove. Without a bra, my nipples showed through it like I was wearing nothing. I wasn't wearing anything under the shorts, letting my ass poke out through the bottoms if I bent over even the slightest amount. My dad called this my "fuck me" outfit, as I usually wore it when that was what I wanted someone to do to me. I was hoping it wouldn't be too much for the circumstances but when Brenda retuned from the bathroom she looked at me and gave me an approving smile.

"Nice outfit," she said softly, "Yeah, you'll fit right in around here."

She just put on her bikini bottoms and a t-shirt that came to about her mid-stomach area. With her big boobs, it stretched out and she looked incredibly sexy. The bikini was really more of a thong. I covered her pussy well enough but her ass may as well have been bare for all those little pieces of string hid.

I was a little surprised, actually, that she would wear something like that with her parents around. Back home she liked to wear little bikinis but her mother never really liked it when I wore a thong and Brenda only wore them when her parents weren't around. I guess with her getting married and having loved o her own, she wasn't as concerned about what her mother thought of her wardrobe!

I moved up to her and kissed her, my hands immediately each grabbing a piece of her bare ass. "Mmmmmmm, I've always loved your ass," I murmured. She giggled as we tried to keep kissing. "Yeah, I know," she replied, "Why do you think I'm wearing this?"

************

Just then her mother called from the kitchen, announcing that breakfast was ready. It didn't really seem fair that her mother should have to cook for us while we were all enjoying ourselves but then, that was the type of mother and wife she was - a little old fashioned maybe, but loving and caring. Brenda and I made our way there and when we walked in, she looked at us and then gave Brenda a second look. Her eyes went to Brenda's butt and her lips tightened. I knew she was dying to say something but she kept it to herself, or so I thought. After a few minutes she turned around quickly and it was like she couldn't hold back anymore and would burst if she didn't say something.

"Brenda, do you really have to run around naked in front of your family?" she said, the anxiety clear in her voice.

"Mommmmmm, I'm NOT naked," Brenda protested.

"You may as well be," her mother insisted, "I can't even see anything behind you and in front... well I think it's obscene to let your swimming suit pull up into you like that in front of people."

"Oh mom, ALL the girls dress like this down here," Brenda insisted, pleading her case.

"Well your friend is at least wearing a little bit to cover herself. Why can't you wear something like she has on?"

It was sort of funny that the same outfit she use to think was too revealing on me in the past was now something she would prefer to see Brenda wearing. I guess everything is relative.

Before they went any further, her dad and brother walked in. I got a kick out of how her dad tried to pretend he didn't notice his daughters cute little ass on display for him as she served him his breakfast. Her brother was a little less circumspect, openly staring at her butt. I couldn't blame him, Brenda DID have an incredible ass and to see it all tanned and bare was about as sexy and erotic as I could imagine her being.

"David!" Brenda's mother hissed, as if the rest of us couldn't hear her.

David looked at his mom a little sheepishly and stopped staring at his sister's ass but throughout breakfast, he would use any excuse to get another peek at it. We were doing dishes while the guys went outside to look around at the beach when someone knocked at the door and then it opened. In walked a young girl, maybe eighteen or so. She was cute, maybe a few inches shorter than me with long straight brunette hair. She had the type of tan that told you she was in the sun all the time, not just for vacation. She was dressed actually quite similar to Brenda - a narrow thong and t-shirt but her top went down further and actually covered about half her all but bare ass - a cute little "bubble butt".

What struck me immediately, though, was her boobs. OMG, they were HUGE. I couldn't help but wonder if they were fake given how out of proportion they were to the her petite body. They had to be DD or maybe even bigger. From the way they moved under her t-shirt, though, they seemed to be real. As big as they were I was a little surprised that she didn't were a bra or bikini top to support them. The girl walked in like she owned the place and when Brenda saw her, they both reached out and hugged each other. Then she noticed me standing there and looked at Brenda, waiting to be introduced.

"Doreen, this is Kelly, the girl I told you about from school," Brenda said, "Kelly, this is Doreen, we work together at the Rescue Center."

We gave each other a polite hug and said a few things to get to know each other. So this was the local friend that Brenda had mentioned during our trip down here. Somewhere since I had arrived Brenda had mentioned she was bi. Looking at her incredible body, I wondered exactly how much Brenda had told her about us.

"So when are the others getting in?" Doreen asked. Brenda explained that Cathy and Celeste had taken the earliest flights they could get and should be here sometime around noon or so.

"So what's the plan for today then?" Doreen continued, "By the way, we're all set for tomorrow. You're gonna LOVE it, trust me."

I assumed she was talking about the bachelorette party. I wondered what she had planned and whether she would let me in on it the secret but that was all she said for the moment before changing subject. Brenda had obviously given up trying to pry the details out of her and let the comment go by.

"I thought we'd head up to Largo and take one of the snorkeling tours," Brenda explained, "Kelly's never even swam in the ocean and I don't think the others have ever been out to a reef before."

Doreen just nodded and they started to debate which place would be best to go. Each of them appeared to have their favorite but finally they settled on one. Personally, it didn't make any difference to me. Really, what was the big deal WHO took you out. Once you were in the water I imagined it was the same no matter what outfit took you there. Evidently they didn't share my opinion. Oh well, they knew more about what they were doing than I did and apparently I was missing something in the equation.

"Well, THAT'S settled so what are we going to do until then?" Doreen asked Brenda.

So far I had been sort of left out of the conversation but that was OK with me. Whatever they wanted to do I was sure would be fine with me. Personally, I wouldn't mind getting to know Doreen better - a LOT better.

************

It was getting on towards 10:00 so we didn't have time to go too far if we wanted to be back before the other girls arrived. Brenda suggested a few shops nearby and so it was off shopping for us. We visited a few bikini shops and I found the most incredible outfit that I JUST had to buy. Amazing how much something that barely is visible on you can cost so much! Unfortunately, it also showed off my tans lines and I knew I would have to be careful not to let myself get sunburned as those areas could be a bit sensitive!

When we returned it was just about noon. As we were getting out of the car, another car pulled up the driveway. It parked next to us and out popped two more girls, Cathy and Celeste I assumed. Cathy, the Maid of Honor, was the blonde that

Brenda had described as being someone I may have remembered but it had been years most likely since we met and to honest, she wasn't ringing any bells. She looked to be a little older and indeed, at 25 she was the oldest of our group. She looked like your average Ohio girl, a little heavy but nothing too much - "something to hold onto" as the guys liked to say back there. She was also a lesbian if I remembered Brenda's earlier comments.

The last girl, Celeste, was also a blonde. One thing that made her stand out from the crowd, at least our little one, was her boobs. As a solid C-cup, I was probably the smallest of the bunch until I saw Celeste. Her chest was all but flat, maybe an A-cup at best. She had to be a little self-conscious about them, especially with the rest of us wearing outfits designed to show ours off as much as possible. She was also a little plain, to be brutally honest, and it didn't help that her blonde hair was cut too short for her face and appeared to have been trimmed by herself in the mirror. She was also dressed the most conservative of all of us, with shorts and a loose t-shirt that if anything, hid what boobs she may have had. The shorts were the type that Brenda's mom would have approved of if that tells you anything. She was shy and I couldn't help but wonder how she was going to fit in with the rest of us, none of whom were shy about showing off anything.

We all hugged and with our little gang now complete, Brenda took us in for a quick lunch. We snacked on some sandwiches that her mom had made while Brenda's brother carried in the girls' luggage. It would have been sweet of him except I knew he had ulterior motives - it gave him more opportunity to get a closer look at us!

Brenda explained her plans for the day and both Celeste and Cathy seemed excited about snorkeling. Like me, they'd never done it before so it promised to be an interesting day, if nothing else. As we got ready to go, Celeste pulled Brenda aside and I saw them talking earnestly in the corner but couldn't overhear what they were saying. Celeste looked like she was about to cry but Brenda hugged her and seemed to be reassuring her. Hmmm. I wondered what THAT was all about?

We got back in the convertible again and headed off for Key Largo, where most of the tour companies operated for the reef trips. I wasn't sure what kind of place Brenda and Doreen had finally agreed up but it turned out to be something I hadn't expected - a state park! Brenda would later explain to me that there were lots of private outfits but most of them weren't as well equipped and they tended to be more tourist traps than anything else.

previous trip, giving me a chance to assess the people who would be going out with us.

Brenda's friend had told us that there would be a total of twenty of us on board plus the crew of three. From the looks of things, the remaining people were mostly couples with one family that included two boys and a girl. The boys were the oldest, one looking to be maybe sixteen or so with the other a couple years younger. The girl was maybe eight to nine, cute as a button. Mom and Dad looked to be worn out, probably towards the end of one of those classic "family vacations" where you actually had to return home to rest.

Of the couples, most looked to be in their twenties and one couple were newlyweds - you can spot them a mile away! It was shaping up to be quite a diverse group where a couple of the girls were pretty hot while one couple looked like they were Amish or something from the way they were dressed so conservatively. Oh well, Brenda had explained that it didn't really matter who was going with us since once we got out there we would all be on our own anyway.

The five of us hung together for the most part. I noticed the guys, even some of the fathers, glancing our way now and then. Given the way we were dressed and flirting, I would have only been surprised if they had NOT! Still, it didn't look like there was going to be any hanky-panky with a group as varied and large as this.

The one who stared at us the most, though, was the sixteen year-old who couldn't seem to take his eyes off of us. Of course we all noticed and made sure he got some good looks now and then, even Cathy. I was learning that just because you're a lesbian doesn't mean you don't like to show off your body.

Somebody said something and everybody looked over at the water. I turned and there was this huge boat heading back to the dock. Well, maybe it wasn't really HUGE but it was certainly a lot bigger than my parents' ski boat. I'd never been on a real boat before and for a moment I wondered if I would get seasick. God, THAT would screw up the day I bet.

The boat docked and the people streamed of in single file. They appeared to be smiling and happy so they must have had a good time. When they were off, somebody made an announcement and soon we were on board to replace them. Some of the people sat under the cover of the boat while the rest of us remained out in the sun at the rear end. Hey, I wanted some Florida sun so the last thing I was going to do was sit in the shade. Besides, I'd overheard someone say the odds of getting seasick were less if you stayed in the outside areas and could see the horizon.

The newlyweds were back with us and it was like "get a room" with them. God, they couldn't keep their hands off of each other and considering how skimpy of a bikini she was wearing, about any place he put his hands was bare skin. They didn't seem to care and neither did I. if anything, I was jealous. I wished my boyfriend Duane was with me now. We'd have put on our own show for them. The family was under the cabin shade. They looked a bit sun burnt already and no doubt were trying to avoid getting any worse.

Once we had a brief safety speech the boat got underway and we were told we could go up to the upper deck or even out on the bow. The bow looked a little scary to me so we all headed up the ladder to the top deck. As I started up the steps, I couldn't help but notice the teenage boy was positioned to give himself a great view of all the girls' asses as we climbed up the ladder. Given how skimpy some of our thongs were, he probably had a few good pussy shots as well! I didn't mind, it was sort of cute in a way.

It was about a half hour to get to the reef. First we had to wind though these channels and I kept hoping to see an alligator until Brenda laughed at me and told me they didn't love in the ocean. I felt really dumb! Doreen must have overheard me talking to Brenda because she came up to me and whispered in my ear something about seeing plenty of them before the week was over but I didn't have a clue what she was referring to. The water was beautiful! I'd never seen anything so clear and pretty in my life. We leaned over the railings, sticking our butts out and I hoped the guys were getting a good eyeful.

The only disappointing thing, if you can call it that, about the trip out was the professionalism of the crew. Damn, I flirted as much as I could with one of the hunks but he just acted as if nothing was happening. It wasn't like he wasn't polite to anything. Heck, if anything he was TOO polite. At the same time, if he reacted at all to my overtures, he certainly kept it to himself. So much for any fantasies about getting fucked by the captain or first mate!

When we arrived at the place where we would be snorkeling, I looked at Brenda a bit disappointed. We were out in the middle of nowhere with nothing around us. What was the big deal? She laughed at me and once again I felt like the stupid tourist.

"The reef is UNDER the water," Brenda sighed, rolling her eyes at me, "Why do you think we need the snorkeling gear?"

Well, somebody could have explained that to me BEFORE now. Of course I knew it was underwater. I just thought it would be visible from the surface as well. How was I to know these things?

Some of the people had their own gear and as soon as we tied up to this monster ball floating in the water, they were dressed and in the water, heading for where they told us to swim towards. For us novices, one of the crew held a brief tutorial on how to use a snorkel. It didn't look all that hard - piece of cake, right?

I sat down at the rear of the boat were it was almost level with the water and put on the fins and then adjusted the mask the way he had shown us. The snorkel tasted like plastic - maybe because it WAS plastic, and it felt funny in my mouth. I was the last of our group to go in and finally I slid in slowly.

************

The water felt perfect - not too warm but not chilly at all. I got my first good taste of saltwater right off the bat and thought I was going to puke. Ugh!

"You're not supposed to drink it!" Brenda teased me as she swam over to me. She helped me adjust the safety vest so it wasn't rubbing so much - letting her hand dwell in my crotch a little longer than necessary. It helped me to float and I started to swim along with our group. I was a good swimmer but I'd never used fins before and they took me a while to get accustomed to them.

Looking at our group, you would have thought we were all bottomless as our bare butts stuck up out of the water with our thongs pulled tight in our ass cracks. The crew was watching us and I'm sure they were taking in an eyeful.

Everyone seemed to head off in different directions. The five of us pretty much stuck together while the rest of the people who came out with us struck out on their own. At first there was nothing but grass under us but soon we reached deeper water and the reef started. Oh my god! I'd never seen anything so beautiful! The coral and fish were incredible. Now and then I still got a mouthful of seawater but I got better as time went by. I took a break for a moment and just floated. I noticed we were pretty much alone with everyone else a ways away. Apparently I wasn't the only one to notice.

Doreen was the local girl, along with Brenda who while not native, was at least living in the Keys unlike the rest of us. They were the ones experienced at snorkeling and soon the two of them started some more "advanced" moves where they would swim down under the water instead of staying on the surface. I tried it once and got a solid mouthful of sweater so I was content to stay at the surface and watch them. We were in a place where we were surrounded by the reef rocks, forming almost a coliseum type of atmosphere where Doreen and Brenda were like two gladiator in the center with Cathy, Celeste and myself watching as spectators. However, fighting reach each other was obviously the last thing on their minds.

To my shock, I saw Doreen suddenly snag Brenda's thong and pull the string, letting it loosen and fall off of her, Doreen grabbed the thong and stuffed it in her life vest while Brenda, not to be outdone, did the same with Doreen's. It wouldn't have worked with mine since it would only come off by sliding it down off my feet but I couldn't help but wonder now if it wasn't just a coincidence that the two of them both wore string-tied thongs. Something told me this wasn't their first time doing this! I watched as they swam around bottomless. Actually, from the rear it wasn't much different than before, but now I could clearly see their pussies when they twisted and turned in the water.

"C'mon, take yours off too," Doreen said to me as she surfaced in front of me." I saw Brenda talking to Cathy and Celeste, no doubt encouraging them to do the same.

It wasn't like any of us were prudes so soon all of us were snorkeling the reef sans our bottoms. From the boat, they probably never noticed anything as first they would have needed binoculars to see us that well and second, from the back most of us looked bare even WITH our thongs on. It didn't make a lot of sense to take our tops off with the life vests on so we kept those on. I remember when they first handed them to us I had wondered why I needed to wear it given I was a good swimmer. Well, try swimming for an hour in the open ocean and you'll be glad to have one to help you out!

It felt sort of naughty but good to swim bottomless around the reef. At first there was nobody around us but it was amazing how fast that could change. The newlyweds suddenly appeared in front of me but I quickly saw I didn't need to worry about them seeing anything. She was hanging onto his cock, totally unashamed to let me watch as she stroked him under the water. From what I could see, he wasn't hung too badly and I wondered for a moment what would happen if I made an attempt to share but then I decided it probably wasn't a good idea at the time.

I wondered if they planned to fuck as well? Or had they already? We weren't supposed to touch anything and fucking while floating in the water is not as easy as you might think - I know! Besides, I didn't know how salt water would act as a lubricant. Lake water wasn't all that great, I knew that much. If I hadn't been so horny and wet myself, it might not have been very enjoyable.

Cathy swam by me and I pointed out the couple to her. She just grinned and shook her head. Well, I guess as a lesbian seeing a guy getting a hand-job wasn't at the top of her "to do" list. Later, after they had moved away, Brenda came by and grinned at me.

"Did you see those two?"

"Yeah, do you think they fucked out here?" I asked.

Brenda gave me a naughty grin and answered, "Well, let's just say they wouldn't be the first ones."

My mouth opened and I almost caught a wave of saltwater for my efforts. Damn, she had done it out here herself! I wondered if it was with her fiancé or someone else. It was something I would have to ask her later, that was for sure. Brenda just laughed at me. She was still a tease, that was for sure. I also wondered just how much she and Doreen had done out here. Now THAT might be even more interesting.

************

It was getting close to the time when they would be blowing the horn to call us back in. I was off on my own a little, exploring some interesting coral formations and admitting the incredible array of fish that seemed to surround me. To the side of me, I saw the teenage boy that had been with the family that was out with us. He looked to be alone and I ignored him as I was engrossed in the beauty around me.

The kid hung around and seemed to be watching me closely when suddenly it downed on me what he was looking at. Crap, I'd actually forgotten I was bottomless! No wonder the kids was so mesmerized by me! I felt a slight twinge as I thought about this kid getting a view of my pussy. With the water, it wasn't like I was posing for him with a crystal clear view but I'm sure it was good enough for him. No doubt under those baggy swim shorts he was sporting one hell of an erection!

What do you do in such a situation? There was no way I was going to DO anything with him, not under the circumstances let alone the fact he was underage. He'd already seen I was naked, at least on the bottom, so it wasn't like I'd anything left to hide. Well, I decided to make it a truly memorable experience, as best I could at least in this situation.

I pretended not to notice he was there and slowly moved about the reef. I tried my best to keep my legs spread apart so he could see up between them and get a better view of my crotch. Now and then I would rub myself almost absentmindedly, not really masturbating but more like I was trying to rub an itch. I wondered how hard his teenage dick was and I would have loved it had he pulled off his shorts as well but he showed no signs of being willing to do that.

Just then the horn blew and it was time to head back to the boat. I surfaced and saw him there a few yards away. I grinned at him and he must have realized I knew he had been watching me because suddenly he look all embarrassed and he quickly swam away. I chuckled to myself as I slipped my thong back on and then joined up with the rest of our group as we made it back to the boat.

It was a lot harder to get back in the boat, even with a ladder, than I would have thought. Trying to pull myself up, my arms felt a lot more tired than they felt floating in the warm water. One of the crew members was there to help us in. He seemed to getting a pretty good eyeful down all our bikinis at the same time!

Once I removed my fins and life vest, the last thing I wanted to do was stand around on top like we had on the way out. I needed to sit down, lay down if possible. Brenda encouraged us to join her out on the bow where there was a flat section where she had laid out some beach towels for us all. The deck was warm from the sun and felt good on my worn-out body. The five of us laid out side by side, facing forward. I imagine the folks back in the cabin were getting a pretty good view - and I don't mean of the Keys! To be honest, although it made me feel a little horny thinking about who might be looking up our crotches, at the moment I was too tired to even think about having sex with anyone! Who would have ever thought snorkeling was so much work?

We stayed there enjoying the view and breeze as the boat rushed back to shore for their next tour group. As we approached, we had to go back through me maze of channels and by then I was feeling rested so I went back up to the top where I could see better. Damn if that boy wasn't perched at the base of the ladder, openly staring at the butts of the girls who went up and down the ladder. As I walked by him I smiled. He'd had a better view of my crotch out on the water. He actually blushed a little bit but I thought it was cute. I bet he would be masturbating about me the very next chance he got!

As we were getting off the boat, the crew guy who had "helped" us into the boat out on the reef pulled me aside. He mentioned that we might be interested in a more "personal" tour of the reefs and if so, he's be happy to take us out with just us and his buddies. I couldn't help but smile at his blatant attempt but then, I suppose he met a lot of hot girls during the day without a lot of time to do anything with them so why not be direct?

I smiled at him and told him I was just down for a wedding for a few days. His eyes brightened up and he said he did bachelorette parties. He was quite the hunk and I could imagine he would be pretty hot giving me a lap dance but sadly, I had to tell him we already had one planned. He just shrugged and ignored me after that. I guess since he didn't score he wasn't going to waste any more time with me.

One thing I learned about swimming in the ocean, you felt yucky afterwards so we all headed to a small shower set up near the boat dock. There was a big shower and changing building but it was under construction and all they had was this little nozzle. We all huddled under the feeble stream and washed ourselves off. I felt a nudge in my side and I didn't know who did it but I looked up and saw we had attracted quite a crowd of guys watching us. I bet they would have loved it had we pulled our tops off but THAT wasn't in the cards for today.

As we drove back to the house, I thought about what a great time I had out on the reef. OK, so it wasn't the greatest sexual adventure I'd ever had but sometimes, it's just fun to spend the day teasing and flirting. Tomorrow was the bachelorette party and something told me we would be having a little more "fun" than we had today!

3. June 5, Bachelorette Party

It was Day Three in Florida. Although Brenda's wedding was reason I'd come to Florida, today was the day I'd been anticipating the most from a purely selfish perspective. It had been quite a while since I'd attended a bachelorette party and this one was promising to be like none other. Doreen, Brenda's 18 year-old friend, was a local girl and had taken charge of the planning. So far, she had mischievously refused to share the details with any of us except Cathy, the Maid of Honor (MOH), as she is the one who traditionally would have been making the arrangements. The two of them were having great fun teasing us about it, offering little hints that meant nothing to me and then refusing to cough up any details that might give away their plans.

After snorkeling yesterday, I was nursing a minor sunburn but nothing too bad thanks to my SPF 50 sunscreen. Although I hadn't expected to have any problems with sun as I had started tanning back home, as it turned out the sun was MUCH more intense down here. It didn't help that I'd bought a new thong bikini yesterday morning which covered even less than my "slut bikini" (as my dad called it) back home. To make it worse (or better, depending on your perspective), when you snorkel your ass is facing up towards the sun so you can imagine the implications.

Doreen had warned us that we would have to leave fairly early in the morning (apparently 10:00 was "early" for her") so that left plenty of time for the five of us to hang together and have a light breakfast. Afterwards, we all piled into Brenda's rental car as it was the biggest (actually it was her parents' car). Even so, it was a convertible with a SMALL back seat and bucket seats up front so things were a little tight with three of us in back - but I wasn't complaining.

Doreen knew the way to wherever we were going so she took over the driving chores with Brenda up front riding shotgun. Wedged like sardines in back was myself, Cathy, and Celeste, the other bridesmaid besides me. With the top was down the five of us had a great time as Doreen sped back towards the mainland. As pretty as the scenery was, I wasn't really paying a lot of attention as with Cathy and Celeste on each side of me, I was more than a little distracted. We were all wearing just our bikinis and as people drove by, they would stare at us and depending on who was in the other car, one or more of us would flash them and we'd all laugh hard and had a good time. Even so, I couldn't help but notice that we seemed to be heading AWAY from civilization so it wasn't like we were heading to the beach or to a club.

Finally Doreen pulled off the road and I sat up in the seat to get a better look around. Needless to say, I was more than a bit surprised at where we were. The words "Airboat Rides" were featured on a large, gaudy sign out front. Now what the heck was THAT all about?

"Everybody out, we're here!" Doreen announced cheerily. We all quickly got out and gathered behind the car where Doreen and Cathy were grinning from ear to ear while the rest of us looked about curiously.

"Hey, I promised you something wild and different for your bachelorette party, didn't I?" Doreen quizzed Brenda, "Well... I bet you've never gotten down and dirty in a swamp surrounded by alligators, have you?"

"Oh... My... God!" was all Brenda could say.

Myself and the other girls were in shock as well. What the hell was Doreen talking about? OK, call me a traditionalist or even a little stuck in the mud, but I was expecting something more along the lines of a nude males or two... or three, but that meant naked GUY dancers, not male alligators! The very thought of being anywhere in the same county as an alligator on the loose made me shiver. The only alligators I'd ever seen were on TV or at the zoo and even then, they scared the hell out of me. And now I were supposed to go out and have a party right in the middle of a herd of them? And what was this about "getting down and dirty"? With who? There were a few other cars with out-of-state plates or rental stickers - tourists, but nothing that even hinted at the Southern Florida version of a male strip troupe.

"Oh no... not me!" blurted Celeste, "I'm not getting eaten by no alligator. You are nuts if you think I'm swimming in some swamp with who knows WHAT creatures!"

Celeste wasn't just being argumentative, she actually looked a bit pale and I thought she might pass out any second. I can't say I was any happier. This was crazy.

"C'mon girls, give Doreen a chance to explain," pleaded Cathy, seeing the three of us all looking like breakfast was about to make a reappearance, "I thought the same thing when she first mentioned it to me but it's really a pretty cool idea."

Doreen opened the trunk and brought out a zippered cloth bag. Reaching inside, like Santa on Christmas morning, she first brought out a headband and handed it to Brenda. I noticed it has silver letters along the top that read, "Bride" and a little sheer while vale hanging from the back of it.

"There, that's it. Now you have to wear it for the entire party," Doreen said as Brenda fit it on top of her head. I'd seen similar ones at stores and at least this one didn't have any condoms hanging from it!

Doreen zipped up the bag before we could see the remaining contents. Then she reached back into the bottom of the trunk again and brought out what looked to be exercise mats. They were made of dense foam and I would guess maybe three feet by two feet.

"Now you all can have a comfy seat," Doreen explained although I had a sneaking suspicion sitting on them was only one of the things we'd be doing on them. With that we headed to a little hut where the check-in was located. About half- way, thus guy came running out and greeted Doreen with a hug.

"Wow, you girls all made it, that's SO cool," he gushed, a little TOO enthusiastically for my tastes. "C'mon, your boat's all ready for you."

He led us down to a long wooden dock. On the way, Doreen introduced him as Tobi, one of the boat captains. Tobi was 30 and had lived in the Everglades all his life, and evidently was some sort of friend of Doreen's although she never got too specific about THAT part. He was going to be the one taking us out and I had to admit, I wasn't sorry to hear it. The guy was really cute and in a way, reminded me of my own boyfriend back home, Duane. Tobi had a darker complexion and longer hair but in terms of height and looks, they could have been brothers. My heart twinged a bit when I thought about Duane back home (plus some other areas of my body) but hey, he was over a thousand miles away so I had to take what I could get, right?

"Ladies, your chariot awaits you," Tobi teased us, bowing and waving his arm under him like he was introducing us to our private yacht. I looked it over with interest.

I'd heard of airboats before but never actually seen one. It look like someone had mounted a plane engine on the back of a small, flat bottomed fishing boat and put a big propeller on it. There were a number of similar boats tied up to the dock as well but this one was a little unique in that instead of having rows of sets for tourists to sit in and watch the show, this one had benches along the sides and a large open area in the middle with a plywood floor to make it flat. Towards the back was a cooler under the elevated seat for the captain. Doreen handed her bag to Tobi who put it in the cooler.

Tobi has us toss our mats into the center and then we got on one at a time and took a seat on one of the benches. Myself and Celeste took the left side while Doreen and Cathy took the one on the right with Brenda seated up in the front, facing the back of the boat when she was seated. Poor Celeste was still pale and I put my arm around her to try and cheer her up a little.

"I'm scared," she whispered to me. I hugged her harder and tried to reassure her which was a pretty good trick considering I wasn't too sure still about all this myself.

"Now is this cool or is this cool?" Doreen gushed as Tobi checked things out before we got underway.

"I don't get it, what are we doing?" I blurted out, my curiosity finally getting the better of me.

"Ok, OK, I guess I'd better explain before poor Celeste over there hurls," Doreen said with a grin, nodding towards Celeste but looking at Brenda the whole time. "Tobi here is going to give us a tour of the Everglades to start. He's lived here all his life and knows EVERYWHERE to go. Brenda told me none of you have ever been out here before so we thought that alone would be sort of fun."

She paused, looking to see what affect her words had so far. Well, the answer was simple, none. Ok, so an airboat tourist ride sounded like fun, but what about the Bachelorette Party?

"Tobi knows some places out there that are private... VERY private if you know what I mean. Since all of us like girls," she said, looking at Cathy especially, "I figured, who needs guys? From the way Brenda has described you all, I bet we can have plenty of fun on our won, doncha think?"

Well, if nothing else it was a unique idea, THAT was for sure. Even so, I STILL wasn't too sure about having a party in the middle of a swamp. Wouldn't it be all bugs and slimy things? Doreen seemed all excited about it so I just had to hope everything would turn out OK.

Tobi started the engine and it was loud - really LOUD. He had these ear protector things but they hurt my head so he gave us some things we rolled up and put in our ears which helped and didn't make us look like dorks at the same time. If I thought it was loud when he started it, it was nothing compared to when he got us going! We quickly left the dock and headed out into the Everglades. I had to admit, I WAS a little excited. I'd never done anything like this before!

The first thing that surprised me was that it wasn't a swamp. Instead, it was all water and grass with lily pads and all sorts of flowers blooming. We didn't see any alligators but there were all sorts of birds I'd never seen before. We were practically flying and our hair was blowing straight back behind us as he turned up the gas. There wasn't another boat in sight and it was like we were suddenly transported to another planet with no signs of civilization anywhere.

Doreen was the leader and so she took the initiative, removing her bikini top and letting her magnificent boobs out free. God she was beautiful! It was obvious that being topless wasn't an uncommon state for her to be in because there wasn't a tan line to be seen. It didn't take long for the rest of us to follow except for Celeste. She seemed to almost shrink into the bench, covering her boobs with her hands.

I suddenly recalled seeing her the day before with Brenda, crying about something. I wondered if she was that self-conscious about her small boobs. Granted, they looked like a small A cup at best but still, she was cute as could be and had nothing to be ashamed of. Thankfully, nobody teased her and she eventually took hers off as well. Her little boobs were like a young teenagers, firm and perky without a bit of droop to them. I bet when she got older and the rest of us were going in for boob jobs to pull ours back up that she would have the last laugh!

With the five of us topless and all but naked now in just our thongs and sneakers, we must have made quite a sight. I had to give Tobi credit, he just drove along, pointing things out to us like nothing was unusual. It felt wonderful to feel the air rushing by, tickling my nipples and almost caressing my boobs with the force of the wind. Doreen was the only topless sunbather from the looks of it as the rest of us had some tan lines, more or less. Tobi turned down this path, I guess you would call it, that seemed to be impossible for us to get through. I was amazed at how the boat skimmed over the grasses down this narrow waterway without even slowing down. A couple more turns and I was completely lost! If Tobi kicked off now, I don't know how we would have ever found our way back! A little farther and we were running down this narrow waterway. Tobi slowed way down and seemed to be looking for something in the water. Suddenly he stopped. The sudden quiet was almost as jolting as the initial noise when we started out!

"Hey girls, look over there!" he pointed down at a mud bank along the side of us. At first I didn't say anything but then I saw a movement out of the corner of my eye, and then more. Suddenly I saw them, as did the others, and we all squealed at the same time!

"It's baby alligators!" Brenda was the first to state the obvious. Sure enough, what looked to be at least a half dozen little alligators (if you call eighteen inches or so little) coming out to check us out.

"Keep your hands in the boat and don't frighten them," Tobi warned us.

"Ahhhhhh, they don't look big enough to be scary," Cathy spoke up, leaning over the edge to see them better, her boobs hanging down free and clear of the boat.

"It's not THEM I'm worried about,' Tobi chuckled at her naivety, "It's momma over there."

He pointed down the channel a ways and sure enough, there was an alligator – a BIG one though. All of us instinctively backed up into the middle of the boat, making Tobi laugh all the more.

"Naaaaahhh, don't worry, she won't bother us so long as her babies are OK," he assured us, "Now if she should WANT to, she could be in this boat in a few seconds. That's why I am up here and YOU are down there."

I wasn't quite sure he was joking at first but then he grinned at our reaction and sat back in his chair, pulling his baseball cap brim down and looking like he was about to take a nap. I guess since he wasn't too concerned about the mother alligator, why should we worry?

I was soon back on my knees on the bench, leaning over to look at the babies snapping and twisting below us. Tobi explained that they instinctively snapped at anything that moved - including our hair and fingers so we were careful to keep everything well out of reach. As I looked down at them, amazed that I was actually seeing real live baby alligators in the wild, I felt someone starting to caress my bare ass. At first I just pretended not to notice - yeah right. Then I wiggled my butt just enough to let whoever's hand was on me know I liked it. It was killing me to know who is was so I finally just had to turn my head and to my surprise, it was Doreen!

"So what do you think Kelly, like the Everglades so far?" she said in a sultry voice, her hand squeezing my butt as she did.

"Keeps getting better all the time," I teased her back. She ran her hand over my butt and then dived between my legs, running her finger along my crotch, teasing my pussy and clit as she did and then finished with a run over my asshole.

"Yeah, it really turns me on to be out here all by ourselves, nobody around us for miles," she said more huskily this time.

I saw Brenda had noticed where Doreen's hand was and she grinned, giving me a thumbs up. She was right next to Cathy and after winking at me she turned and kissed Cathy on the cheek. If she meant to get Cathy's attention, she succeeded as Cathy turned and they kissed on the lips this time, a long, slow kiss and I could see their tongues playing with one another. Meanwhile, Celeste was to my other side and I saw she was getting an eyeful herself. Brenda had told me she was bi but, as we had already witnessed, incredible shy about being with other girls. I wanted to kiss her but something told me she needed something less subtle. I reached back and started to play with her ass, running my hands flat over her smooth silky butt, squeezing it just enough to feel the firmness.

"He's watching us," she whispered to me but I noticed she didn't do anything to stop me. I quickly look up and sure enough, under that ball cap brim Tobi was watching everything going on below him. Of course, he probably would have been doing the same for a bunch of tourists under the circumstances, given all of the alligator surrounding us, but I liked to think he was enjoying his job a lot more than usual right now.

"Oh!" I couldn't help but exclaim as Doreen's finger pushed aside my thong and suddenly pushed up into my now wet pussy. Then I smiled and grinned back at her over my shoulder as she pushed her finger deeper into my pussy. Meanwhile, Cathy and Brenda had sat up and were hugging each other, their breasts pressed tight against each other as they kissed and fondled. Things were starting to heat up and our attention was being drawn from the wildlife around us to the wild life in the boat.

Suddenly the noise deafened me as Tobi started the boat. It was like the king of all alarm clocks going off and it got our full attention. Tobi looked down at us and grinned.

"OK girls, if you're not going to watch the gators anymore, let's move on. I don't like to hang around momma any longer than we have to."

He was one cool boat captain. Not a word about the five girls in front of him getting hornier by the minute but instead, blamed it on the gators. With the movement of the boat we were forced to take our seat again. My pussy was dying to have Doreen's finger back in me again. I looked over at her and she grinned at me, putting her finger in her mouth and making quite a show to of tasting my pussy on it. Meanwhile, Celeste was up tight against me, her hand on my upper thigh as she tried to keep her balance in the boat. We only traveled a little ways when the boat stopped again. This time Tobi stood up and looked further down, covering his eyes with his hand to block the sun.

"Down there...," he pointed ahead of us, "See those bumps sticking out of the water?"

We all looked but at first I didn't see anything. The I did - mostly because the bumps MOVED! Something was headed our way. If it had been a fin sticking up I would have said we in the middle of a Jaws movie as the object moved slowly toward us, shifting back and forth from side to side.

"That's the daddy," Tobi explained, "He has about a dozen or more females he keeps for himself around here. Momma back there was just one of them. He's just coming to check out who's in his territory. Nothing to worry about so long as you remember, it's HIS home."

"Ummmmm, doesn't that mean we should, like, LEAVE!" Brenda squeaked. I wasn't feeling entirely too safe as it was myself.

"Naaaaahhh, if he was going to do something, he'd already be in the boat," Tobi said, once again alluding to the fact these gators could somehow get in our boat on a whim. "It's pretty shallow here and his feet are on the bottom. Gators can jump two-thirds their length out of the water if they try hard enough."

OK, if that was true, what the hell were we still doing here? Suddenly, any thoughts about my pussy disappeared. It was my SKIN I was worried about now, as in saving it.

Damn, the daddy gator was huge! He was at least twice the size of the mother we had seen before, if not more. He seemed much wider and scarred up as well. He came within about two feet of the side of the boat and stopped, his eyes seemed to be boring straight into us. He didn't move at all then for the longest time. Neither did we. For what seemed like ages we all just sat there motionless, fascinated by the creature in front of us but scared silly at the same time.

"Can we go now?" Celeste finally spoke up, her voice sounding like she was about to crack any moment.

I had to agree with her. Seeing a gator in a zoo behind a strong fence was one thing, sitting a couple of feet from a monster that wasn't eating you simply because he wasn't inclined at the moment to do so was quite another experience!

Nobody argued although Tobi sort of laughed a little at our fears but he started the motor again and we moved off slowly, leaving the prehistoric monster behind us. My heart was pounding and I felt goose bumps all over me. God, I'd never been so scared in all my life!

As Tobi took off for our next destination, we all sat there and looked at each other. It was like a bond had been created between us, like we had all faced a common danger and somehow survived intact. OK, maybe to some people it wasn't that scary but for us, it was. Doreen was the only one who didn't have this look of relief wash over her as we put more distance between us and something that could have eaten us at any moment. Well, it was obvious she wasn't a first-timer at this but the rest of us certainly were.

I had never felt such fear and as a consequence, never felt such a feeling of relief either. It was like a rush, almost a small orgasm as I felt an almost sexual sensation, almost like just after having had sex. Damn, if I wasn't horny before I was now - in spades. Doreen looked at me as if she knew what was going through my mind. I heard her shout at me over the din of the motor.

"Feels good, doesn't it!" she said, grinning at me.

I rolled my eyes and looked down and saw my nipples were hard as rock, sticking out like bullets. Mine weren't the only ones either. All of us seemed to be having a similar aftereffect of our experience. Doreen seemed quite pleased with herself and I had this sudden realization that she KNEW this would happen. Damn, who needed a male stripper when a monster alligator was available to stir up your emotions! In this case it was more than just the usual lust, it was like my entire body was consumed now, making me as horny as I could remember being for a long time. Had we gone on much further, it's hard to tell what might have happened. I was about to start playing with myself, to try and relieve this sudden feeling of lust that was threatening to overwhelm me. Damn, I was with four beautiful girls, all of them horny like me all of them at least bi if not lesbian. How much better could it get? I was about to find out.

Tobi made a sudden turn and we went through these tall grasses where I would never have thought there was a path. Suddenly, there was like an island in front of us with trees and I could see like a hill of dry land under them. Tobi let the boat drift up to the bank and I was able to see a picnic table, a gas grill, and even the remnants of what must have been a cabin many years before. As we got out, Tobi explained his family had once owned the property and they had even lived here for a while when he was a young boy. Now they just used it as a get-away for parties or just to relax. Something to do with government leases or what not.

We all still had our sneaker and thongs on but we left the bikini tops behind, carrying just our mats. There was no way anyone would ever find us here, let alone see us. Tobi carried the cooler and another box of stuff I hadn't noticed before and headed for the grill. Meanwhile, Doreen led us to the picnic table.

"Here, put those out on the table," she directed us and soon the hard wood top was covered by a more comfortable set of mats.

Doreen grabbed Brenda and led her to the table and had her sit down on the top with her feet on the seat. She looked gorgeous with her freckled tan, red hair, and beautiful bare boobs. Her thong was barely visible with her legs together and even when she spread them apart, her pussy was only barely covered.

"We ARE here to honor our dear friend, Brenda," Doreen announced solemnly, almost like we were at a funeral instead, "So I thought what better way to send her off to her hubby than to spend the day with some close friends. And what better way to be with her friends than to have them all horny as hell... what do you all say?"

We all laughed and nodded. The effect our near-death experience was still fresh on our minds - and pussies.

"Sorry about Mr. Gator back there," Doreen apologized, "But I'll never forget the first time Tobi took me out to see him. We were alone and god, I fucked him so hard right afterwards he must have thought I was going to squeeze his dick off in my pussy!" We all laughed again and this time she turned and directed her voice to Tobi, "Isn't that right Tobi?"

Tobi may have been pretending to be fooling with the grill and food but he had been listening. He turned towards us and grinned, leaving no doubt that what Doreen had said was true.

"Soooooo, now that you're all horny as hell, what do you say we all give Brenda a bachelorette party to remember?" Brenda was sitting there with the most amused look on her face. I doubt that this was what she had ever dreamed of in terms of her party but she certainly didn't look disappointed, that's for sure. Doreen kicked things off by reaching for Brenda's thong.

"THIS definitely has to go," she said with a grin as Brenda lifted herself off the table just enough for Doreen to slip it under her butt and then down her legs and finally off. Then she slipped her own off quickly, stepping out of it and tossing it to the side where Brenda's had landed. Seeing the two of them naked together was a beautiful sight indeed!

The rest of us stood for the moment, transfixed by the sight of Doreen and Brenda together. Obviously they'd become pretty close friends since Brenda had moved here as they seemed completely comfortable with one another. Doreen spread Brenda's legs apart and stepped up closer to her, leaning forward to kiss her. Yet again I was amazed at her incredible boobs as they hung free and draped themselves onto Brenda's own breasts. Her all-over tan looked perfect with her complexion and contrasted nicely with Brenda's more pale skin. Even though Brenda was more tanned than I'd ever seen her before, she still had that redhead complexion that would never darken the way Doreen's had tanned.

Neither of them really seemed to be in the mood for a lot of kissing and making out, they were both too horny for that. Brenda leaned back and held herself up with her arms behind her while Doreen moved slowly down her torso, kissing her neck, then her upper chest, and stopping for a few minutes at Brenda's boobs to suck on her nipples, going back and forth between them, pulling them even with her teeth and then letting them snap back before grabbing them again with her mouth. Her tongue flicked over her nipples, teasing them and then she would run it all over the curvature of Brenda's boobs Meanwhile, her hands were all over Brenda's thighs, her fingers tracing lightly over her smooth legs and teasing her by running along the inner thigh and just up to her pussy but not quite all the way.

Finally Doreen made it to Brenda's bare crotch. Brenda had shifted to the edge of the table and lifted her hips forward to make it easier for Doreen to put her mouth on her. When Doreen's tongue found her clit, Brenda gasped and I felt my own pussy suddenly cramp as it reminded me that it wanted some attention as well. I was never very good at WATCHING people having sex, I preferred to be a participant.

I dropped my thong and noticed that the other two were doing the same. Hmmm, we all seemed to be on the same wavelength. I have to confess I felt a little disappointment when Cathy turned to Celeste and they started making out, their hands quickly groping one another with special attention to their butts. Oh well, I guess since they were friends back home it shouldn't have been something unexpected.

Cathy seemed to be the dominate one with Celeste, something that didn't surprise me in the least. She worked Celeste over to the picnic table where she took a seat next to Brenda and basically the two of them started in just as Brenda and Doreen had. It was simply too much for me and even with my hand rubbing now between my legs, I needed something more. I looked over at Tobi, who was working on making some sort of meal. God, from what Brenda had said he wasn't celibate or anything so how could he just go on like nothing was happening just twenty feet or so away from him? Most guys would kill to see just two girls going at it and here were four girls making out with a fifth looking for her own action and he was going about his business like it was just another typical day in paradise.

I walked over to Tobi and put my arm on his. "Doesn't all that turn you on?" I asked him, nodding toward the picnic table where the four of them were going at it hot and heavy.

Tobi looked at me and grinned. He even gave me the once-over before he shrugged saying, "Of course it does, damn, I AM a guy in case you haven't noticed. It's just this is my job and besides, I'm married."

I looked at his hand and didn't see any signs of a wedding ring. He noticed the direction of my eyes and held up his hand. "In this line of business, rings cause people to lose fingers so I normally don't wear one out here. Trust me, I've been married almost a year now and even have a 2 month-old boy."

"But Brenda said you and she...," I started to say but he knew where I was going and quickly moved to cut me off.

"Oh... THAT!" he said, rolling his eyes, "That was the beginning of last summer when she first came down here. I was engaged and it was sort of a last fling for me. I would never cheat on my wife now. Brenda knows that and she was just having some fun with you all about it."

I put my hand down to his crotch. Yep, the old lie detector once again told the truth. Tobi pushed my hand away gently and turned to me shaking his head saying, "Hey, just because I'm married doesn't mean I don't get turned on by this. Just don't confuse lust with desire, OK? Why don't you go join in with them?"

Wow! I couldn't even remember the last time I was naked with a guy and he had turned me down. For that matter, I couldn't remember ANY time such a thing had happened. I mean, usually by the time you got to where you were naked with someone, it was a pretty sure bet where things were heading. Tobi was trying to be really sweet about it and I appreciated that, but still! Now I was horny AND frustrated. A hard dick in my pussy would have been about the most perfect thing I could imagine right now and here was one right next to me and I wasn't able to use it!

Looking back at the picnic table, I saw both Brenda and Celeste were now laying on their backs, their legs spread wide apart as their partners were licking away at their pussies. One thing I DID notice, they weren't the same partners as when I had left them a few minutes ago. Evidently someone had initiated a switch while I wasn't paying attention!

Well, enough of this. Everyone was getting something except me and Tobi, and Tobi had taken himself off the menu, leaving me as the odd girl out. THAT had to change, and change FAST. Tobi was a lost cause so I made my way back to the picnic table and stepped up on the opposite side from where Doreen and Cathy were going at it with their respective pussies they were licking. I wasn't quite sure what to do yet when Brenda started to cum.

"Oh fuck that feels so good!" she gasped, grabbing at Cathy's head and pulling her face tight into her crotch, "Oh God!"

Her hips started to thrust up like she was being fucked as Cathy struggled to keep her tongue on Brenda's clit. Maybe it was a coincidence or maybe it was an effect of hearing Brenda starting to cum, but whatever the reason Celeste was obviously starting her orgasm now as well. She was the quite type - shocker that it may have been. Her eyes were shut tight and her breathing quickened as she bit her lower lip and squeezed her tiny breasts with her hands.

Doreen looked up and saw me and our eyes met but she kept her mouth on Celeste's pussy, licking her and poking a finger into her pussy. Both girls were cumming hard now, with Brenda crying out loud enough for the both of them and Celeste laid there, just enjoying her orgasm in a more subtle manner. I got back down and worked my way over to Cathy and tugged on her shoulder a bit. I wanted a taste of my old roomie's cum! Cathy reluctantly backed away and I put my face down quickly on Brenda's pussy. God she tasted and smelled so strong!

I'm not even sure Brenda realized someone else was now licking her pussy as she laid her head back her arms fell to her side, her chest heaving as she tried to gather her breath. When my tongue would pass over her sensitive clit, she would jump like someone had shocked her or something.

"Fuck that feels so damn good!" she finally managed to get out between heavy breaths. She lifted her head up and looked down and realized it was me between her legs now. She didn't say anything but as she laid her back once again, a big grin was on her face.

Cathy wasn't one to watch either so she had moved over to help Doreen with Celeste. She climbed up on the table and took Celeste's tiny boobs in her mouth, one at a time, sucking on them and licking her nipples. Celeste moaned, the first sound I'd heard from her, as the two girls worked on her. Meanwhile, my pussy was letting me know in no uncertain terms that it was long overdue for some real attention.

With Brenda laying back like she was, what better opportunity so I climbed up on the table and straddled her face, lowering my pussy to within a couple of inches of her. She opened her eyes to be greeted by the sight of my wet pussy hovering over her and she smiled even broader than before. She knew what her old roomie wanted! Her hands grabbed my ass and she practically pulled me down to her open mouth, her tongue sticking out like some lizard trying to catch a fly. I felt the first touch of that tongue against my clit as my pussy ground into her face. God it felt so good! Finally!

Celeste appeared to have been drained by her orgasm. Some girls I guess are like that, they put so much into it that they are wiped out afterwards. Doreen tapped Cathy on the top of her head and they both grinned as they looked at each other. This should be pretty hot. Cathy was the avowed lesbian but something told me Doreen was a lot more interested in girls than guys when it came to being bisexual. Sort of the opposite of me I guess, as I prefer guys over girls but at times like this, girls were definitely fine with me!

Leaving Celeste to her afterglow, Doreen and Cathy started kissing. I was sort of curious to see who would be taking the dominate position as both of them appeared to be pretty aggressive. Maybe it was age that was the determining factor, I'll probably never know, but Doreen laid down on the table while Cathy got on top, putting them in a classic 69 position. Damn, the table was getting pretty crowded! I wondered if whoever built it had ever dreamed it would be used by five girls to have sex?

Actually, it wasn't a bad idea and I lifted myself off Brenda and told her to move higher up on the table top. When she had, I dropped my pussy back to her face again but this time I put my hands on the table on each side of her curvy hips and lowered my own head to her crotch. It was hard to concentrate on her pussy when she was licking mine so well at the same time but I made a special effort as I wanted to please her. She still tasted so good after her first orgasm and I couldn't wait to make her cum again!

Doreen and Cathy were going to town, furiously licking each other's cunts. They were both so worked up and horny I was actually surprised they didn't cum faster than they did but once Doreen started, Cathy was right behind her. I didn't really see much of it as my own pussy was signaling it was ready but I could hear them moaning and gasping as they both enjoyed a mutual orgasm. The entire atmosphere was so overloaded with sex that with Brenda's tongue on me I started to cum, and cum hard.

I'd been SO incredibly horny that I'd been wanting this since we left that alligator and finally it was happening. It was such a turn-on to be licked by Brenda again, almost five years since she became the first girl to lick my pussy and make me cum. (OK, so my mom was the first female and my aunt wasn't far behind, but it is SO different to be with a girl who isn't you mother or aunt that I don't really count them as being my first "girls").

As my orgasm started to die down, I looked over at Doreen who I realized was trying to get my attention. She pointed at me and then at Cathy and I knew what she wanted. Why not? To Brenda's surprise, I lifted myself off of her and exchanged places with Doreen. Once Brenda and Cathy realized what was happening, the looks of surprise turned to looks of lust and we were off to the races again. Now that we were all warmed up, it didn't take long for us to each cum again. God, how could Tobi just stand over there and watch four girls all having multiple orgasms and NOT want to join in? The guy must have had one hell of a sexy wife - or one incredibly mean and vindictive one!

Actually, as it turned out, Tobi wasn't totally immune. He had been cooking something and I saw him bring over a plate with something covered by some tin foil. I had rolled off of Cathy and was lightly touching myself, enjoying the erratic sensations it created in me after an orgasm. I saw Tobi approach us and wondered if maybe he had changed his mind. Well, no such luck in terms of fucking us, but he DID have something for us, something pretty good indeed!

"Sausages are done, anyone want one?" he offered, pulling off the tin foil to reveal a plate full of large sausages that he had just finished cooking. They still looked pretty warm.

Doreen again took charge and she looked to have something on her mind, and it didn't appear she was hungry for a sausage, at least not to eat. She took one of them from the plate and approached Brenda with it. Brenda was up on her elbows now, a curious look on her face.

"Ummmmm, what are you doing Doreen?" she said hesitantly but I think by then all of knew exactly what Doreen was planning to do. "Just what you need, something warm and hard in your pussy, eh Brenda?" she teased as she pretended to stroke the sausage with her other hand.

"Oh god, no... you've GOT to be kidding...," Brenda exclaimed, as Doreen started to rub the sausage against her pussy.

"Oh fuck!" she exclaimed even louder as Doreen pushed it into her soaking wet pussy.

I could only imagine how it must feel in her. They looked to be pretty warm on the plate and it must have been like stuffing a heating blanket up her pussy, only this one was firm and long. Damn, it had to feel like a dick in her, even better because it was warmer.

"Oh god, it's so hot in me!" Brenda gasped but she wasn't making any effort to remove it.

Doreen had pushed at least six inches of it into her and I suddenly wondered what would happen if it broke off inside of her? Idle thoughts come from idle hands. Time to do something about that. Besides, I'd never tried anything like this before. A warm sausage certainly had to feel better than a cold cucumber or carrot!

I signaled at Tobi to come over by me and he reached out the platter to me and I grabbed my own sausage. Damn, it was even warmer than I thought and I wondered how hot it must be in Brenda's pussy. Well, there was only one way to find out. I sat on the edge of the table with one foot on top of the table and the other resting on the bench. My pussy was soaked from my own orgasms and the licking of the girls so getting the sausage into me wasn't any worry of mine. It was really warm in my hand and when I touched it to my pussy, the warmth made my clit throb with pleasure. I noticed the other girls' attention was not being split between me and Brenda with Brenda looking hot as Doreen "fucked" her with the sausage while they watched me to see me do myself.

Well, it was now or never as the sausage would only get colder the longer I waited. I pushed it into me and I loud gasp escaped from my lips as I shoved it up into me. God it felt like I was on fire inside! It didn't really hurt, but the sensations and feelings it created in me were so intense I felt like I was going to pass out. My vision seemed to narrow and everything blurred as I instantly came. I cried out, not even sure what I was saying, as I just held it in me. Between the she sensation of it filling my pussy and the heat inside of me, it was like it was cumming in me, only a thousand times more powerful than when a man cums in me.

The other girls, including Celeste, now were all clamoring for their own private cock. Soon we were all doing ourselves, even Doreen had handed over the reins to Brenda so she could enjoy one in herself as well. Although it didn't seem to make the others cum s hard and intense as it had with me, they still all came quickly. Tobi was just standing there watching and grinning away. I guess his morals about sex and marriage didn't prevent him from at least watching. Indeed, if he HAD walked away and not watched, then I would have wondered what was going on.

When we finally had finished and our "toys" had cooled down, we put them back on the platter and Tobi took them away. I wondered if he was going to eat them, or at the very least, taste them. It didn't take long to find out as he quickly returned, this time the with the same platter but with a basket of buns and condiments.

"Well, now that you girls have finished playing with your food, it WAS your lunch so you want a break to eat now? He asked. Then a mischievous smile came to his face and he added, "I mean something to eat besides each other."

We all giggled and I think by that point we all actually WERE a bit hungry. I really could do without all the bread so I just grabbed a sausage and took a bite out of it. Mmmmmmm, who needs catsup or mustard when you have a sausage that's been dipped in someone's pussy? I could distinctly make out the flavor and scent of someone's pussy and I looked around, wondering whose pussy it had been in, maybe even my own but I didn't recognize the scent and normally I can pick my own pussy odor out from anyone else's. Soon everyone was enjoying their own sausage and we all looked at each other and giggled like little school girls as I was sure we all had the same question in our heads - whose pussy were we tasting?

"Want to try some Tobi?" Brenda asked, offering hers to him, "It has quite a unique flavor you know."

Tobi just laughed and waved her off. "Noooooo, that's quite OK. I'm sure you all are enjoying them just fine as it is."

I could only eat about half mine. It was nice to be so big when it was in my pussy but other than that, it was twice what I could eat. I was going to have to pass the "recipe" on to my family when I got home, that was for sure!

Doreen then turned her attention back to Tobi. She started to run her hands over Brenda, letting the backs of her hands trace over her shoulders and boobs. It must have felt sensual and soothing to Brenda as she closed her eyes and seemed to just be happy to take it all in.

"You know Brenda's getting married in a couple days, don't you Tobi?"

"I think the 'Bride' headband and veil sort of gave that away," Tobi responded, shaking his head at Doreen's silly comment.

"Well, don't you think she needs to be fucked one last time before she gives herself to her husband?"

It was obvious to all of us, including Tobi, where Doreen was going with this. Tobi just sighed and shook his ahead again. "I told you I can't do that anymore, Doreen. Sorry Brenda, you know I'd love to do you."

Doreen wasn't ready to give up that easily. She looked at me, probably realizing that of all of us, I was the one who would love to have Tobi's dick out in the open the most. Our eyes met and she nodded her head towards Tobi and I knew exactly what she had in mind - the same as me. The two of us moved towards Tobi, still naked with our pussies all wet and slippery. Tobi's brow furrowed as he saw us approaching, probably wondering if he should call our "bluff" or not. The rest of the girls just watched as our little drama unfolded.

"I don't know about Kelly here, but I've never had a man say no to me before... and mean it, " Doreen purred as she got up close to Tobi. I moved in on the other side as we took positions on each side of him. My hand moved back to his crotch where I found his dick was just as hard as it had been before.

"I've never had one say that to me either," I said as seductively as I could, almost like a little girl complaining about something. "You're not going to be the first, are you Tobi? Mmmmmmm, I think someone wants to say yes."

Doreen's hand moved in next to mine and the two of us were rubbing his erection under his shorts. Damn, it felt like he was pretty well built under there! Tobi didn't say a word at first. He made no effort to help us in anyway, but at the same time he didn't do anything to discourage us either.

"C'mon Tobi, do it for Brenda," Doreen urged him, "It's not like you would be cheating on your wife, you'd be doing it as a favor to her."

"Oh yeah, I'm sure Dottie would see it that way," Tobi laughed nervously, trying to deflect the conversation. Dottie? Who the hell named their daughter THAT anymore?

"She'll never know a thing," I continued to apply the pressure, "Look at Brenda, you KNOW you want to fuck her."

"Shit, it's never been a question about WANTING it, I just can't do it now that I'm married," Tobi protested although it seemed he wasn't being as strong or forceful in his arguments anymore.

It was like watching control being transferred from his big head to his little head which meant it was time to up the ante a bit. I squatted down and started to work on his belt buckle. Doreen followed my example and between the two of us we soon had him undone.

"Girls, you can't do that," Tobi protested, even more weakly than ever.

He was still holding the platter but not for much longer as he tossed it aside and tried to push us away. It was obviously just to sooth his conscience as he easily pushed back and soon Doreen had his dick out in her hand. She smiled at me and for a moment I thought she was offering it to me but she took it for herself. Tobi made one last feeble attempt to pull back but it was like his feet were glued to the ground After all he's seen this morning, it was amazing he didn't pop off the instant her mouth was on him!

"Fuck that feels so good!" he groaned, exhaling loudly.

Doreen offered his dick to me and I finally got to taste his dick, taking me in deep from the start. I'd only had home for a short time when Doreen gently pushed me away and nodded towards Brenda. Of course! It was Brenda's bachelorette party and here I was being selfish with the only dick within miles! Sheepishly I stood up and moved aside as Doreen guided Tobi towards Brenda. His face showed the torn emotions he was struggling without his cock was sticking out like a hard pole as Doreen used it like a leash to pull him along towards Brenda.

As for Brenda, if she had any qualms about being fucked by someone besides her fiancé just 48 hours or so before their wedding, she wasn't showing any signs of it, that was for sure. Then again, she hadn't seem too bothered by her brother fucking her either. I wondered what she would be like AFTER she got married. I hope her fiancé is ready for it, whatever it is, because something told me this girl would never be happy with just one dick.

"Fuck her... fuck her... fuck her," the other girls started to chant, clapping as they established a rhythm to encourage him.

Brenda looked almost embarrassed at being the center of attention. I had no idea if she had ever done anything like this but she wasn't trying to back out of anything either. If anything, she scooted forward and spread her legs open like a whore for Tobi to fuck as he moved between her legs, Doreen's hand still gripping his erect penis.

"You know you want to fuck her so say it...say it Tobi," Doreen teased him mercilessly, holding the tip of his dick within an inch or so of Brenda's waiting pussy. Tobi's eyes rolled back and he let out a huge breath and then took in another before he answered.

"Oh crap, you know I do, stop teasing me," he protested.

"Noooooo, if you want to fuck her you have to say it," Doreen said, keeping the pressure applied. Brenda was squirming now. I had the distinct feeling she wanted to be fucked and was getting a little frustrated at Doreen's little game but then Tobi relented.

"OK, I want to fuck you Brenda... God help me I want to fuck you so bad," he blurted out. He looked at Doreen with a "well, I did it" expression.

Brenda was about to say something as well and Doreen seemed to realize she had pushed it as far as she could. She lined up Tobi's dick with Brenda's freshly fucked pussy (if you call a sausage up your pussy being fucked) and he took over from there, leaning forward and pushing it up inside of her with one hard stroked. Brenda was panting for air by the time his dick penetrated her. To be honest, he wasn't any bigger than the sausage had been but there was one thing different - it was a guy's dick, not a piece of dead meat! And not her fiancé's dick either!

"Oh yeah, that feels soooooo fucking good," she said loudly in a husky voice, full of passion and lust, "Fuck me Tobi...god fuck me harder."

Now that I was thinking about it, I realized that this was actually the first time I had ever seen Brenda being fucked by someone other than her brother. I knew she had boyfriends and such but for whatever reason, she never had them over when I was visiting her house. Hmmmmmm, I wonder why? It was wild to see someone I considered a close friend to be getting drilled by a relative stranger in front of four other girls, all of us touching ourselves in one way or another as we watched the erotic sight in from of us. I think we all were wishing we were in Brenda's place now, feeling Tobi's dick inside of us. Well, maybe all but Cathy and I have to admit, I don't understand lesbians. How can they deny themselves the wonder of a real cock? Oh well, it was like her choice so who was I to judge?

Tobi only fucked her like that for a few minutes as it was sort of awkward I the position she was in on the picnic table. He pulled out and Brenda quickly flipped over, kneeling on the bench with her elbows on the table in front of her, lifting her ass to him for his enjoyment. Tobi was on fire now. Any worries or concerns over "cheating" on his wife were long gone as all he seemed to be able to think about was fucking Brenda. He shoved her legs apart roughly and rammed his shaft back into her pussy as fast as he could, like he hated it being anywhere but inside her cunt. Brenda was grunting each time he shoved it into her, his crotch banging into her incredible ass and pushing her into the table each time. It was a good thing we had the mats as she would have been fill of slivers by now otherwise!

Cathy stepped in to help a bit. She sat next to Brenda, straddling the bench actually to face her as Tobi continued to fuck Brenda without missing a beat. Cathy reached under Brenda and as hot as she was already, she cried out as Cathy's hand found her clit. Cathy was fingering both Brenda and herself at the same time, with her left hand reaching under Brenda and her right between her own legs.

Brenda bowed her head to the table, unable to hold it up anymore as the waves of pleasure seemed to roll through her. God she looked so hot! I remembered her brother fucking her back home and how hot that use to be. Who would have ever thought way back then that one day I would be watching her getting screwed by some airboat captain in the middle of the Everglades, her cries of pleasure ringing out with no one to hear them but her friends and lord only knew what animal life.

Meanwhile, Doreen, Celeste and I were just watching the show in front of us, each of us rubbing ourselves but more because our pussies simply HAD to be touched than a conscious effort to get ourselves off. I mean, how can you watch such an erotic site and NOT touch yourself?

Tobi was getting close if my experience watching men getting ready to com meant anything. It was the way he started to talk to her, expressing his desire for her, the speed of his strokes, the urgency of his fucking her, it all pointed to an event that was soon to happen. The two of them also seemed to realize what was about to happen and he started to pull out but she yelled at him to stay in her and cum in her pussy. Tobi didn't seem to be willing to argue so he stayed in her and sure enough, in a few second his ass was clenched and he drilled his dick into Brenda's hot pussy as deep as he could.

"Oh fuck, I'm cumminggggg!" he groaned, grimacing as it seemed he was trying to hold back as long as he could but then he jerked forward as his first shot of cum was released in her.

Brenda cried out as well as she must have felt him shooting his sperm into her, or at least the sharp jerk of his cock in her pussy as it exploded inside of her. Over and over he jerked, like he was having a seizure almost, as he thrust his dick even deeper into her with each load of cum he was expelling into her cunt.

"Yeah, that's it! Fuck her good Tobi!" Doreen cheered, obviously satisfied with the results.

Tobi pulled out of Brenda, his cock covered with his sperm and the wetness of Brenda's pussy. Cathy quickly moved in before Brenda could do anything, licking the cum from her pussy as it slowly oozed out of her. Meanwhile, Doreen was the first to react, getting to Tobi's dick even before I could think of it. Damn, where was my head at?! She quickly sucked it and cleaned off the shaft as he dwindled down slowly. She started stroking him with her hand and looked up at him with a smile saying, "My turn to be fucked now."

Actually, I wouldn't have minded a turn myself but this time Tobi seemed firm. Having just cum, the little head had temporarily lost control and the big head was back running the show. Tobi backed away, pulling his shorts back up and snapping them shut.

"Sorry girls, it's Brenda's party so I fucked her but I can't do the rest of you – even if I COULD right now!" he protested.

This time his protests seemed genuine and I knew deep down he wasn't going to give in this time. At least, not until his little head regained control which might be an hour or more from now depending on his recovery time. Damn, and I would have loved it so much to be fucked by him. Crap, three days in Florida surrounded by hunks and I'd yet to be fucked!

Brenda hadn't moved and so I went up to her and put my hand on the back of her neck and spoke softly to her. "Hey, you OK roomie?"

She turned her head to me, looking all serious and solemn but then a huge grin appeared. "What the hell do you think Kelly! Of course I feel good!"

Tobi quickly hustled back over to his grill, as if he was almost embarrassed by what had happened and wanted to put some distance between us. My pussy ached and I wished there was some way to get him to change his mind about fucking the rest of us. Oh well, there were still a few days left to go...

With Brenda fucked and the rest of us all having cum a few times each, things started to wind down. We sat around the picnic table and talked about Brenda and the things we had done, turning the party into sort of a mini "roast". Damn, I thought I knew Brenda pretty well but I certainly learned a lot about her in that short time. I guess I had always viewed her as a bit quiet and reserved whereas from the stories her friends had to tell, she was quite the party girl although more in terms of drinking and games than sexual.

I wondered if any of them knew she was fucking her brother. I caught her attention and mouthed David's name to her but she just shook her head, obviously not wanting me to say anything about him. In a way, it made me feel good to know I was a part of something in her life that was so personal, even some of her closest friends had no idea about it.

After some more snacks and a few drinks, it was time to hit the road - or should I say the swamp, again. We pulled on our thongs but left our tops off for the time being. The sun was pretty strong now once we were out of the shade and I knew that except for Doreen, the rest of us had to be pretty careful. I had burnt my boobs badly one year sunning on our deck and I never wanted THAT to happen again! Back in the boat, Tobi cranked up the noisy engine once again and we were off. Even from a short distance away, I looked back and couldn't believe that in that mess of trees and brush there could be such a pleasant little oasis.

With the "fun" activities completed, at least for the most part, Tobi gave us a tour of the area. I've never seen so many alligators in my life. It was like they were everywhere! It wasn't just the alligators, either. Tobi was incredibly knowledgeable regarding the other wildlife and vegetation as well as the history of the region. He stopped frequently to point out birds and plants that I might have never noticed. It was hard to believe that so much had happened here over the years. Looking around, it was like we were the first people ever to be here yet from his descriptions, the place was practically teeming with people over the years.

As we approached the end of our tour, Tobi stopped for one final break. This time he didn't say a word but instead looked at us like we should know what to do. Finally, he huffed and looked at us like we were all dumb blondes.

"Uhhhhh, girls... are we forgetting something?" he said, looking directly at out chests.

Duh! I'd almost forgotten we were all still topless. In a way, it was a shame the trip had been as private as it was. It might have been fun to pass a few bats and wave at them to get their reaction. Now, as close as we were to the docks, Tobi obviously didn't think it would be appropriate behavior.

"Sorry girls, but we have families and small kids up ahead and... well, you know...," he trailed off, as if he didn't want to spell it out for us. We all could figure it out. We weren't THAT stupid after all. Maybe silly and horny at times, but not dumb.

We quickly arranged our tops and then Tobi brought us in the rest of the way. Sure enough, there were all sorts of people waiting to get on the bigger boats, including families with kids, just as he had warned. I had to agree with him, it wasn't cool to be naughty in front of little kids. That said, it wasn't like we were wearing coveralls either. I noticed more than a few boys - and their fathers, glancing our way as all we had on were our thong bikinis, but at least we weren't doing anything that could get us arrested for public indecency.

I guess Doreen had already taken care of any fees or whatever as Tobi waved us all goodbye and we blew him kisses as he headed back to the office. I wondered if his wife was around and what she would say if she had seen his latest booking. He was a cool guy, even if he hadn't fucked us all like we'd hoped. At least Brenda got it and that's what counted.

We had a great trip on the way back and when we got to the house, Brenda's parents were there as well as her fiancé. Gary hugged her and kissed her as the rest of us looked on, all of us trying to contain ourselves knowing what Brenda had been doing just a few hours earlier. Oh well, that's what bachelorette parties are for, aren't they? Besides, I'm sure Gary's bachelor party would be pretty wild. It was scheduled for that night and I wondered briefly if I could offer my services but somehow that just didn't seem appropriate under the circumstances, especially after Brenda's clear warning to me about steering clear of her fiancé. Oh well, it would have been fun but I had a great time today as it was.

We'll, so far I'd snorkeled a reef and now I'd visited the Everglades. Two days and two incredible experiences. Only one thing was missing - where were the hot guys that were supposed to be all over Florida? Who would have thought I could be here almost three days and still not get laid? Well, tomorrow was the rehearsal dinner. If you can't get laid at one of those, then when can you! The only question in my mind as I drifted off to sleep was , who would it be?

4. June 6, Wedding Rehearsal

So began Day 4 in Florida...

I woke up and realized I must have slept in as Brenda was already up and about. My eyes focused on the clock and I saw it was just after 9:00 AM; not THAT late but still, not exactly a qualifier for early bird status. Actually, I was surprised Brenda was up already after the night before. How many times was I awakened by the sounds and movement of her brother fucking her in the dark right next to me. Damn, how many times was he going to fuck his sister before she got married? Did they REALLY think I was asleep all the time with all the bed rocking and moaning? Actually, what perturbed me most was not letting me join in, a total mystery to me given our past history. Heck, if it hadn't been for me, they would never have fucked in the first place!

No doubt Brenda had a million things to do today. After all, tomorrow was her big day. I couldn't even imagine what it would be like for me the day before my wedding. With all the girls here now, she had lots of help. Because the wedding had been arranged on such short notice, there was a lot of work we needed to do that most people would have had professional service do for them. Flowers had to be arranged, music for the reception ripped, setting up the entire place for all the guests, getting food, the list went on and on.

The rest of the girls were staying together in the Days Inn just down the street. I suppose on the one hand it would have been fun to stay with them. Knowing them as I had yesterday at the bachelorette party, I could only imagine what was going on in their room! It also would have allowed Brenda and her brother to have had the bed to themselves at night without having to worry about me (assuming they did).

At the same time, I loved sleeping with Brenda and even if we weren't having constant sex (which we weren't), just sleeping nude with her in bed again brought back such vivid memories from our first year at school together as roomies. Of course back then we had to squeeze together on a twin bed and now we had a queen size one, but the intimacy was still there and her warm smooth bare skin felt just as wonderful against mine as it had so many years before.

Rubbing the sleep from my eyes, I finally got my butt out of bed, more because I had to go to the bathroom horribly bad than anything else. Having taken care of THAT detail, I looked in the mirror and frowned. Between the salt water when we snorkeled a couple of days ago and the blowing wind and sun of yesterday's trip to the Everglades for Brenda's bachelorette party, my hair was taking a major hit. Even worse, I had a bit of a sunburn but so far nothing that was going to make me look like a lobster for the wedding photos, thank god. My boobs felt a little warm as they had gotten some sun in places where they usually didn't but again, nothing that looked too horrible and besides, we wouldn't be topless at the wedding - although THAT would have certainly been interesting.

A shower was at the top of my priority list so after brushing my teeth, I stepped in the stall and let the warm water cascade over me. I used my new razor to take care of any growth around my pussy and elsewhere on my body. Someday they need to come up with a body hair remover where you step in and all your hair is vaporized - except for your head of course. I soaped myself off one last time, letting the slippery bar rub against my pussy a little longer than good hygiene required. God I was so fucking horny! Sure, I'd had some fun since coming down here but face it, it had been days since I'd been fucked properly and I wanted some dick. Make that, NEEDED some dick. After all, a girl cannot live by pussy alone - at least not this gal.

As I rubbed my pussy, I dropped the soap but it didn't matter, I only needed my fingers The shower stall was rather small so I was able to plant my feet under the controls and lean back against the opposite wall, making it easy to finger myself while the warm water rained down on me and flowed over my body. I started to think of Duane, my wonderful and sexy boyfriend back home. By now he should be at work. I wondered if he had jerked off this morning thinking about me. Did his nice big cock miss being inside my pussy as badly as my pussy missed the feel of him in me? Did he jerk off thinking of fucking me? When he came, did his cum spray all over his hands and stomach as he dreamed of pumping it deep inside of my pussy instead. God I wanted to feel him cumming in me right now! I wanted to feel him pushing his hard dick up into me, as deep as he could, then erupting inside of me, flooding me with his warm sperm.

My finger was rubbing my clit in fast little circles as I went on fantasizing about how Duane might have fantasized about me. Damn, I'd never missed a man this way before. Sure I'd missed being fucked this badly before, but that was just my body's response to a physical craving. No, I didn't just miss being fucked, I missed being fucked by Duane. As I started to cum, my eyes were closed and I dreamed he was kissing me passionately as his incredible cock pumped in and out of me, never stopping until I was literally overflowing with his cum to where it was spilling out around his dick. God it felt so good... so warm down there, so good ALL over me for that matter. The warm water cascaded over my clit and pussy slit, enhancing my orgasm even further. A loud sigh emerged from the back of my throat as my pussy throbbed and pulsed with intense pleasure. Damn it Duane, where were you when I needed you?

"Hey, you gonna help out or masturbate about that boyfriend all day?"

My thoughts were jolted back to reality. I hadn't even realized someone had entered the bathroom! Fortunately, I knew who it was.

"Brenda! What the heck are you doing in here?"

"Well, the rest of the girls are all here and I just wanted to see if you were hungry for some breakfast. Since you weren't in the bedroom if figured you must be in here, "she explained. Then I heard her snicker and add, "Guess some things never change, do they?"

I wanted to reach out and slap her, playfully of course. I knew exactly what she was referring to. Back in our college days I had a bit of a reputation with her for masturbating - a LOT. I don't think she had ever met a girl who loved to masturbate as much as I did! One of my favorite times to play was first thing in the morning while taking a shower. Well, I guess she hadn't forgotten. By the time I turned off the water and opened the door, she had already left. Oh well, at least she had waited until I had cum before disturbing me, a courtesy she hadn't always shown back in school.

Since we would just be hanging around the house all day, I threw on some gym shorts and a tight yellow cami and headed out to the kitchen where everyone was already snacking on cereal and fruit. Like me, everyone was in shorts with various tops ranging from a bikini top for Doreen (wouldn't you know it with her boobs) to a loose t-shirt for Celeste (I guess she wanted to hide the fact hers were so much smaller). Even Brenda's mom was in shorts and a t-shirt which was sheer enough to reveal she was the only one wearing a bra in the room. Looking around, I didn't see any of the guys and then someone told me that Brenda's dad and brother had left earlier to pick up the sound gear from somewhere or another.

The wedding was scheduled for tomorrow evening at 6:00 but Brenda wanted to start the rehearsal an hour or so earlier so that by 6:00 tonight we would be ready to go through the whole thing as if it was real. That meant a lot of work had to be done before then. Of course, we still had most of tomorrow for the final preparations but anything the more we could today, the better it would be tomorrow in case something went wrong.

There's no other way to describe the rest of the day as anything but barely organized chaos. Brenda had every set up a rigid schedule that we were all expected to follow to the letter but which, of course, never worked out as planned. It was sunny and hot, typical I guess for the Keys but a lot hotter than I was used to in Pittsburgh. The house was theoretically air-conditioned but with everyone coming and going and opening the doors constantly, the temperature never seemed to be able to get down to where it should have been and I was sweating most of the day. Someone commented that we were "perspiring" as girls don't "sweat." Yeah, tell that to my poor deodorant which was working overtime - and failing miserably!

Fortunately, the house had a nice pool so now and then we would take a break for a dip to cool down. The easiest thing to do would have been to just strip and dive in, like I use to do at Brenda's house back in Ohio (at least, when her parents weren't home). Unfortunately, like most of the time back then, her parents WERE around and I don't think her mom would have appreciated five girls running around naked in front of her husband - not that I think her dad would have minded all that much and I KNOW her brother would have loved it. As it was, David always seemed to find an excuse to be out near the pool whenever we had one of our "cooling off" breaks. I got the feeling he spent a lot of time in the cool water for reasons than to just cool down!

Gary, the groom and love of Brenda's life, made a few appearances throughout the day along with Paul, his brother and best man. Paul was still single, even though at 28 he was a couple of years older than Gary. AS SUCH, Paul was the only guy who could "legally" ogle the girls and he made the best of the situation. Wouldn't you know it but I noticed he had a special interest in Doreen.

Damn! It had always killed me how guys were attracted to the big-boob girls first. When I was in high school I hated it when boys would look through me like I was glass and stare straight at my best friend Beth, all because her boobs were twice as big as mine back then. These days mine had improved quite a bit, but memories of those days still haunted me. Poor Celeste, I could only imagine how she felt with her all but flat chest, and since she was 22, there wasn't much hope for anything to develop any more than it already had. Oh well, that's why God invented boob jobs!

As the afternoon progressed and the rehearsal deadline drew closer, the groom's parents made an appearance, It was the first time I'd seen them as they had kept to themselves pretty much, even though they owned the joint. Brenda introduced them as Wayne and Sylvia. Wayne looked a little older than my dad, maybe closer to fifty or so. I might have been the hair more than anything. It was still thick and mostly in place but had turned a shade of silver throughout. They seemed like nice people, if a little aloof. Obviously they had money but I didn't think that was the issue. They just didn't seem comfortable mingling with people they didn't know. I noticed Wayne had an eye for the girls though, and more than once his wife had poked him in the arm when he became a little TOO blatant, especially when it came to Doreen's boobs (do NOT get me started on THAT again!).

Around 4:30 the minister arrived. I was sort of curious about him since Brenda had never mentioned anything about a church or anything religious about the ceremony. It was a little odd for a girl who had graduated from a Christian- based university to be so secular so I wondered what she was doing relative to a church home in the Keys.

As it turned out, there was nothing much to say about the minister. He was middle-aged, the pastor of a small Baptist church on Marathon near where Brenda lived. I got the impression that she went there more because of the convenience of the location than the theology but I didn't make any comment to Brenda, of course. He introduced himself as Pastor Wilson, no first names, which I took to mean he was a bit conservative.

My suspicions were confirmed when he learned about the wedding "dress" and bridesmaids outfits. He didn't seem too thrilled about the bikini idea but Brenda assured him they were modest and that with the wraps it would be like we were wearing skirts after which he seemed to be OK with the idea. For the rehearsal, we were all in shorts and various tops (I had on a pink tank), so at least he didn't have to deal with the issue tonight.

We all went out towards the beach. The sun was blaring as there wasn't a cloud in the sky. The beach actually looked a little crappy as there was all sorts of garbage and seaweed along where the tide was receding. Doreen explained to me that the cruise ships and other boats tossed out tons of garbage every day and every beach along the gulf looked this way unless they had people constantly cleaning them. Brenda then mentioned they had someone who was supposed to show up tomorrow afternoon to clean off the beach before the ceremony. It was too bad the tide was going OUT and had it been in, then it wouldn't have looked so bad but I guess Brenda couldn't arrange to have the moon change its orbit for her wedding day.

It was quite windy and I hoped that it would be calmer for the wedding tomorrow. We went through all the parts of the ceremony and eventually everyone knew their places to be and when to be there. I thought poor Brenda was going to have a nervous breakdown at times but it all worked out in the end. FINALLY, after over two hours to practice for a twenty minute ceremony, she declared it would just have to be good enough and we all let loose a collective sigh - something she did NOT find very amusing. For a moment it looked like Brenda was about to morph into bridezilla but Cathy pulled her aside and calmed her down. I guess that's what a good Maid of Honor is there for!

For dinner, the one part where the groom's parents get the say-so and Brenda didn't have to plan, we all piled in the cars and headed down to a seafood restaurant where a gigantic buffet was waiting to tempt us all. It was located right next to this cool drawbridge and while we waited to be seated, I stood out on the deck and watched the most beautiful boats coming in and out, the bridge raised and lowered by some seemingly random schedule. Some of the boats were incredible! Despite myself, I envied the people on them, wondering what it would be like to spend just a day on one of them.

Finally our party was called and we were ushered into a large room where there were enough tables for all of us. I found myself seated at a table with David, Brenda's brother, and a couple of younger teenagers who were friends of the grooms there to be ushers. I forgot their names two seconds after they told me which should tell you how interesting they were. Even so, as the only girl at the table, I certainly got enough attention! The food, served buffet style, was delicious and there was an incredible selection. Sighing to myself, I declared my diet was suspended and let myself pig out for once. Who knows when I would ever get to eat food like this again!

Back at the table, it was just me and David as the teenagers hadn't finishing piling their plates to the ceiling. I was eating some shrimp when I felt something on my leg. Without looking down, I glanced to the side of me and David was grinning at me. With the table cloth hanging over as far as it did, it would have been difficult for anyone to see what he was doing, even if our table hadn't been on the outer ring and our chairs against the wall. As it was, it would have been impossible for anyone to see a thing and I wondered if David had realized that when choosing a seat. In fact, as I started to think about it, he HAD sort of helped me to find mine as well. That sneaky guy!

As you might expect, my first reaction was NOT to push him away or anything stupid like that. If anything, it was quite the opposite. After having spent three nights listening to him fucking his sister next to me, totally ignoring me in the process, it was about time he did something! I slowly reached down under the table, put my hand on top of his, and then looked him in the eyes and smiled ever so slightly.

"You know, if you're going to grope me, then do it right," I whispered to him as I pulled his hand up inside my legs and against my crotch. I could feel the pressure against my pussy through my shorts and my heartbeat quickened as I looked around to see if anyone was paying us any unusual attention. The room was so crowded and noisy, he probably could have fucked me and nobody would have noticed but I wasn't about to test out THAT theory.

"Still the same ol' slut, eh Kelly," he chuckled as his fingers pressed against me on their own, "Bet it's been killing you that I've been fucking Brenda right next to you, hasn't it?"

My eyes widened and I stared at him. Damn, the bastard knew I was awake and STILL he had ignored me? What a jerk! I was pissed off now and was about ready to reach down and pull his hand away when his finger pushed hard against my clit and I almost jumped out of my seat. Bastard! He knew I wanted it and he was taking full advantage of the situation.

"Then why...?" I started to ask but he cut me off.

"It's been ages since we've done it and to be honest, the first night I thought you WERE asleep. After that, I don't know, I guess she wanted it and I just went along I guess."

Yeah, like it was Brenda's fault he hadn't been fucking me. If there was one thing I was certain of, there was more to it than that. It wasn't that I was necessarily dying so much that HE fuck me (although after three days I was getting pretty damn horny for a guy), it was the principle. Guys just don't get in bed next to me and screw another girl without doing me too. Heck, it's just not natural, especially when it came to David and Brenda. I mean, who was responsible for getting the two of them together anyway? If it hadn't been for me, they would have lived their lives out fantasizing about each other instead of making their dreams come true! If anyone deserved to be included, it was me.

About that time the teenagers reappeared, bringing what looked to be half the buffet back with them. No sooner had they sat down than a waiter arrived so serve wine which I politely refused but David had a glass of something white. The kids tried to get a glass but the waiter just looked at them and shook his head. At least he was cool about it with them. Each table had a tray full of various cheeses and crackers set in the center and so I had to just grab what I wanted. Even when David was reaching out for his share, he kept his hand in my lap the entire time. The teenagers didn't seem to notice anything odd in that he was only eating with one hand. Heck, maybe they just put it down to good manners that he used one hand while keeping the other off the table.

I found myself starting to squirm in the seat as his finger pushed right over my pussy hole. God I felt so wet down there! It would be embarrassing to get up later with a wet crotch in my shorts but I didn't know what else to do at the moment. I certainly didn't want him to take his hand off of me, THAT much I was sure of!

The dinner progressed and it wasn't long before the teens were heading back for seconds, leaving David and alone once again. I figured it was only fair that I get to return the favor so I reached over and put my hand in his crotch. I almost laughed, he was so predictable! Damn he was hard! God, if he had to stand up right now he would have all but burst out of his shorts! Fortunately for him, they were pretty baggy but at the same time, they offered no assistance in retraining him so if he HAD stood up, his stick would have been poking out in front of him for everyone to see.

"Hmmmmmm, is someone horny?" I teased him as he ate some shrimp, trying to act nonchalant. He shifted in his seat a bit which seemed to free up his cock a little. I tried to unzip his shorts but to my complete surprise, her pulled his pussy hand from my crotch and pushed mine away from his dick.

"God, we can't do this in here," he hissed at me, "Shit, what if someone notices?"

"Isn't that half the fun," I teased him, trying to push my hand back to his crotch again but once again he deflected me away.

"God, you're such a fucking slut," he sighed, "Stop teasing me."

"Me? ...teasing?" I giggled, "You know me better than that David!"

David looked around and surveyed the crowd. The place was packed; they couldn't have fit any more people in with a shoe horn. The head table was on the other side of the room and barely visible. The parents were seated at tables close to the front as well. The rest of the girls were all at one table and to be honest, I was torn for a moment as to where I would rather be at this moment, with them or David. The warmth between my legs made THAT decision a no-brainer. I wanted to get laid and sitting with a group of girls, half of whom were lesbian or close to it, wasn't going to help in taking care of my cravings.

"What do you say we go outside?" he proposed, obviously still too scared of being discovered feeling me up in the crowded room. I was more than happy to accept as I knew what he had in mind - his crotch told the whole story.

We both stood up and he straightened his shorts out to hide his erection as much as possible but anyone looking close would have noticed. He tried to keep the front of himself away from the main crowd as we worked our way slowly through the crowd until finally we were out on the back deck. It too was crowded - damn this place did a business on Friday nights! David looked around as he was a new to this place as I was. There was no place that immediately stood out so we went down the steps from the deck to the beach area. People were everywhere and I started feeling a little anxious. Damn, here I finally had him ready to fuck me and there was no place to go!

"Come on, let's go over there," he said, pulling me along by my hand.

Where the heck was he heading? The only thing ahead of us was a dock where a couple of boats were. I guess some people drove their boats to the restaurant. Pretty cool! They weren't huge like some of the ones I saw going by the bridge earlier, but they were a lot bigger than my parent's ski boat back home. As we got closer, I saw there didn't seem to be anyone around except some kid who was cleaning up the area. From the looks of it, he was the only one keeping one eye on things as the owners must have been in the restaurant. As we got closer, it became clearer to me what his plans were. He HAD to be out of his mind!

"Whoa, you're not serious, are you," I protested, pulling back on his hand a little.

"Oh come on Kelly, where's your sense of adventure?" he teased me, "Who's going to know?"

I looked back at the restaurant nervously. Adventure is one thing, suicide quite another. What if the owners were watching from the restaurant? What if they finished and came back to their boat? What is someone else questioned why we were there? Then I remembered WHY we were doing it and any hesitation melted away. Damn I was horny! Who cared anyway if we got caught so long as he fucked me first? What could they do to us? Maybe they might even want to join in.

"OK, act like we own the place and he'll never know the difference," David whispered to me as we approached the dock.

Sure enough, we just walked right by the boy with a smile and a hello and he just grinned back and otherwise ignored us. Walking down the dock, David picked the larger of the two. I couldn't believe people just left their boats deserted! OK, so the boy was there to watch but it was obvious that he wasn't providing all the great of security.

We stepped into the back end of boat and looked around. There was a small door which David opened and we quickly ducked out of site down into this small cabin area. Damn, my dorm room was like a castle compared to this! There was a small cooking area, a bar, a table with booth-like seats that appeared to be able to be converted to a bed. There was a large picture hanging up showing a large family along with a number of others of the various people in the group photo. It looked like a typical family, nothing wild or pretentious. There wasn't a lot left around besides some food and things to drink. Maybe that's why they weren't afraid to leave the boat alone - there was nothing for anyone to steal anyway.

No sooner had I taken a few seconds to gather all this in than David grabbed me by the shoulders and pulled me up against him. Without a word he leaned over and kissed me, using his tongue to explore my mouth while his hands started to roam all over my body. He gripped my ass with both hands and practically pulled me off me feet as he brought me in tight against him. His dick was pushing against his loose shorts and I could feel it against my stomach.

'God I want to fuck you so bad!" he sighed as he pulled his mouth barely away from mine.

"So what are you waiting for?" I responded, "Fuck me!"

My pussy was screaming to feel his dick inside of me. The hell with foreplay - I wanted to be fucked, and fucked NOW.

"God you're such a fucking slut," he said grinning.

He pulled his shorts down along with his underwear, allowing his dick to spring loose and poke out from the shirt that hung down over it. God it looked so delicious. He was hard - VERY hard and his dick practically quivered with his horniness. I would have loved to have kneeled down and started sucking it but under the circumstances, I wanted him to fuck as soon as possible.

Keeping my eyes glued to David's stiff dick, I wasn't wasting any time either as I yanked my shorts off and sat back bare-bottomed on the table top. It wasn't the most sturdy thing in the world but I figured it should hold my weight OK. I spread my legs as I leaned back and supported myself with my hands on the table behind me. My hungry pussy was totally exposed, ready for his dick to enter me. I left the cami on as it emphasized my nudity below by being dressed on top.

As tight as it was, though, it may as well have been off as my nipples poked through and were outlined almost as if nothing were covering them. David stared at me, well at least at my crotch and boobs. I could imagine how I must have looked to him, a horny slut spreading her legs wide for him like some whore, wet and smelling of sex as I leaned back and gave him a better view of my pussy. How much more of an invitation could I give him - as if he needed one in the first place.

"Damn, you look incredible," he said in a voice hoarse with his lust.

He has holding his cock, stoking it slowly, almost unconsciously, as he stared at my pussy that was begging to be fucked by him. he must have been so turned on to see a girl like me offering herself to him, exposing herself without shame or remorse, ready to let him do whatever he wanted with her.

"Are you just going to stare at it or fuck it?" I teased him, reaching with one hand to rub my pussy for him as I leaned back on just one arm.

I let my middle finger run between my wet pussy lips with the other fingers on each side, passing over my clit which made me jump involuntarily and then back down again until I was at my pussy hole and pushed it inside. I started to stroke ,my finger in and out of me as he just stood there staring at me, his hard dick still in his hand.

"C'mon David, I'd rather have your dick in me than my finger," I encouraged him.

I was sure he needed no encouragement so why wasn't he fucking me yet? Maybe he was enjoying the show too much? Just in case, I pulled my finger out of me and stuck it in my mouth, tasting myself on it and grinning up at him with as naughty of a look as I could muster.

He HAD to want to fuck me yet instead, he put a hand on the inside of each of my thighs, pushing my legs even further apart as he took his place between my welcoming legs. He kneeled down and put his face up against my crotch, his tongue sticking out against my clit. It was like heaven! My clit practically exploded as he sucked on it, driving me quickly to my first orgasm of the evening - or at least I assumed it would be my first.

"Oh fuck, don't stop!" I moaned as my hips instinctively thrust up against his face. My head laid back and I shut my eyes tight as I concentrated on the incredible sensations being created between my legs. They started there and then it was like my entire body was being consumed, goose bumps rising all over me and even the hair on my head seemed to tingle with pleasure. Damn it felt so good!

As he continued to suck on my clit, his finger started to [push into my pussy, followed by a second. I was so wet now after my orgasm they slid easily inside of me as far as he could reach with them. It was like my orgasm was given a boost and somehow it felt even better than before although I would have never thought such a thing was possible. I must have been flooding his face with my pussy cum but he never stopped, keeping his mouth planted on my bare pussy as his tongue tickled my clit mercilessly. It was so intense I wanted to push him away yet at the same time I wanted to pull his head in tighter.,

As my body began to relax with the receding of my orgasm, David looked up at me and grinned saying, "Damn, didn't take much to set you off, did it?"

"What do you mean," I panted, trying to catch my breath, "Between you fucking Brenda next to me, touching me inside earlier, and not to mention not being laid in days... of course I came quick!

David ran his hands over my wet pussy, teasing me by just barely grazing my swollen clit and then running his fingertips the smooth skin of my crotch. "Awwwwww, somebody needs a dick in her cunt, doesn't she?"

Well duh!! Of course I did! What a week so far, Snorkeling bare bottomed, nude party in the Everglades, and now hiding out in someone's boat that we had no idea who they were or when they would be back... all without getting a dick in me even once! Shit, who would have believed me before now if I tried to tell them I could have gone through so much without getting fucked, not even ONCE!

"Alright then, quit screwing around," I said a little more tensely this time. I couldn't help but laugh at my poor choice of words. What I really wanted more than anything was for him to start screwing around - with my pussy. "Fuck me dammit, fuck me NOW!"

"Hmmm, oh well... if you insist," he responded coyly, as if he was doing ME some kind favor. As hard as he was, he wanted it as much as I did.

David put an arm under each of my legs, supporting my knees in the crook of each arm as he leaned forward and put his hands on the table on each side of me. I gave up trying to hold myself up and laid on my back as my legs were pulled up which cause my hips to rotate upwards, providing him with an even better shot at my pussy. I reached down and grabbed his dick with my right hand, pulling it into my crotch and up against my waiting pussy. Positioning it up against my pussy, I looked at him in the eyes.

"Push it in me... fuck me David... give it to me.. give me your hard dick," I pleaded with him.

This wasn't just me putting on a show for him, talking dirty to turn him on. No, I seriously WANTED him to fuck him - BADLY. Feeling the head of his dick against my pulsing pussy was almost torture. I NEEDED to feel it in me. It was like I felt so empty inside and if I didn't get something to fill me up I would die.

Frankly, although it was a turn-on to have Brenda's brother getting ready to fuck me again, at this point all that mattered was that SOMEONE fuck me. Hell, it could have been the kid at the end of the dock for all I care right now, as long as he had a hard cock for me. There was only one thing on my mind at this moment - my pussy and the cock that was about to violate it.

Usually, when a guy is fucking me and he is about to enter me for the first time, I prefer that he take it slow, easing his dick into me a little at a time, savoring the feelings inside my pussy as it expands and consumes his dick an inch at a time. I love it when he has just his head in me, stretching me apart and making me want to beg for more. In doing so, his dick focuses on the heavy concentration of nerve endings at that part of my pussy, driving me crazy with lust and passion. Well, that's NOT what David did! Instead, once he felt the tip of dick start to penetrate he suddenly thrust his hips forward, actually pushing me a few inches with the force of his entry as his cock rammed its way into me and the base of his dick literally slammed into my crotch.

"Oh my god!" I moaned.

Actually it was about all I could say as the sudden shock of his dick driving it's way deep inside of me initiated my second orgasm. I guess you could say having him enter me like this, compared to how I described the way I usually get it, is like comparing lighting the wick of a lamp versus dumping the contents into a fire. Whereas the former was good and burned steady for a long time, the latter created a gigantic blaze that while quickly consumed, provided for an explosive reaction.

My pussy contracted and I could feel his erect dick in me, locked in with the force of my pussy gripping it. It was almost like I was in labor as my pussy clamped down on him, trying to draw him in deeper, never wanting to feel empty again. Oh my god, his dick was all the way in me! I could feel his wiggling his ass as he tried to drill it even deeper into me.

"Cumming so hard... feels so good... so fucking good," I moaned over and over as it was like I was in another world. There was nothing around me, just a foggy mist, as all I could think about, all my mind could comprehend at one time, was the fantastic way it made me feel to have his stiff dick fucking me.

Somehow David managed to get his dick free of the grip my pussy had on him and he started to stroked himself in and out of me. At first it was just a couple inches in and out but as he got into it he kept increasing the length of his stroke until it got to where he barely was in me before reversing course and ramming his fat dick back to the hilt inside of me again. A couple of times he actually slipped out and I would whimper like a lost puppy until he quickly retrieved it and got back into me again. I wanted his dick in me - forever. Well, I wanted A dick in me and his was as good as any at the moment.

"Shit your cunt is so fucking tight!" he gasped as he struggled to speak while he fucked me. "Not even Brenda's this tight."

It made me feel good to hear him tell me how tight my pussy was. I had a good feeling why Brenda's was a lot looser - it was those huge dildos she loved to play with. Most girls with my "experiences" were looser than me and it made me proud whenever I fucked some guy together with them that almost always the guys would say I had the tightest pussy. Dildos have never held a huge fascination for me and it was times like this when I was glad they didn't. I don't know how girls can thrust some of those monsters in themselves on a daily basis and then wonder why their pussies are all stretched out!

Suddenly David pulled out of me and backed up, letting my legs drop as he did. He circled with his hands and I understood what he wanted without a word being spoken. I hopped off the table and twisted around. The space was so cramped I could feel his dick slide across my hip and then my ass as I turned in front of him. Leaning forward onto the table, resting myself on my elbows, I spread my legs wide apart and wiggled my ass for him as I turned to look back at him over my shoulder.

"See anything you like," I taunted him but he didn't even let me finish before he was virtually attacking me once again. What I would have given for a photo of his face at that moment. The expression was one of pure animal-like lust. He was staring at my ass, at my freshly fucked pussy exposed for him, waiting for him. I had seen this look before on other men when they got to this stage while fucking me. It was like any thoughts other than sex were banished and the only thinking they could do was fuck me, like they were being driven by some outside force beyond their control.

It made me shiver as I realized that even if for some strange reason I wanted him to stop and not fuck me, he was going to do it anyway. David was much bigger than me and I knew if necessary, we would force himself upon me now if that's what it took. Knowing I could drive a man to this most basic form of existence, where nothing mattered to him other than breathing and sex, made me feel incredibly sensual and self-confident. He would do anything now to fuck me - anything.

Without a word or so much as a grunt, he positioned his dick to my pussy and once again, as soon as he felt himself in place he drove it into me. I was crushed up against the table, barely able to even breath, as he pushed himself as hard as he could into me, trying to drive his dick all the way through me it seemed. No sooner than we were coupled once again than he started to stroke himself in and out of me, like a train piston with almost robotic precision. Each time he slammed into me, his crotch slapping against my bare ass loudly and then I would grunt myself a bit as my stomach pressed against the edge of the table, pushing the air out of me with an audible grunt each time.

"Yeah, your cunt feels so fucking good," he rambled on, "I love fucking you... fucking your slutty cunt... beg for it slut... beg me to fuck you."

It wasn't like he had to ask me. I wanted it just as badly as he did. As much as he wanted to feel my pussy around his dick, I wanted to feel his dick inside of me as well. As hard as he wanted to fuck me, I wanted it harder, to the point it actually hurt as he slammed ,me into the table. I pulled my cami up and exposed my boobs, feeling the rocking under me as he continued to drill my pussy with his cock.

"That's it David... give it to me... give me that dick... fuck me David... OH GOD FUCK ME, FUCK ME, FUCK ME!" I pleaded with him, wanting more of him in me than he could give, wanting to feel him bursting inside of me, feel his seed exploding inside of me.

"Oh FUCK!" he cried out as he pressed himself into me and held himself there.

David's hands grabbed my hips and pulled me into him as I felt his hips thrusting into me in short, hard stroked. Each time I could barely feel a warm sensation deep inside of me and I knew it was his sperm spurting into me from the end of his adulterous dick. The feeling of him mating me, of him exploding inside me as he filled me with his manhood, was more than enough to trigger my third orgasm. I dropped down the table, my boobs pressed flat under me as I lacked the strength even to stay up on my elbows. If he hadn't had his dick pegged inside of me, pressing me against the table as hard as he was, I might have fallen to the floor as weak as my knees suddenly felt.

"Oh yeah, you're cumming too baby... fuck yeah, cum for me!" he cried out as over and over he jerked, as if he had a limitless supply of cum for me.

Finally he came one last time and after that he held himself in me, staying still once again as he groaned long and loud, as if an immense sense of relief had passed over him or some huge weight had been taken from his shoulders. My own orgasm was still going as my pussy throbbed so hard with the feeling of his now spent dick within me.

As my orgasm dulled to a mere throbbing sensation, he pulled out of me and then he collapsed one of the bench seats by the table. His dick was covered with a mixture of his sperm and my pussy cum, glistening in the light that was starting to fade from the windows. He was gasping for air as he tried to catch his breath. I managed to slide over and sit on the seat opposite of him, my breath also coming in hard gasps. My pussy was so hot it felt like it was burning up! I could feel his cum draining from me and running down my ass. It must have been making a mess on the seat but at the moment, I didn't give a damn.

"Damn, that was good," he said heavily, still breathing hard as he looked across the table at me. I realized my cami was still pulled up over my boobs so I pulled it back down again which made him frown.

"No reason to hide those babies," he said with a grin.

"I don't know about that... you didn't even touch them," I teased him back.

"Hmmm, guess I had other parts of your body on my mind," he chuckled.

"You're one hell of a fuck, you know that Kelly Wells," he sighed, shaking his head as if in disbelief.

"Better than Brenda?"

David frowned, as if undecided how to answer. Well, it WAS sort of a trick question. Finally he raised his eyebrows and answered, "Don't you DARE tell her but you're a hell of a lot better fuck but then, she IS my sister and how do you beat screwing your own sister?"

I just rolled my eyes but in truth, it was about what I was expecting for an answer. It would be like if he had asked me if I liked fucking him or my dad better (someone, by the way, that David did NOT know fucked me). Sure he may have been physically better and had a bigger cock, but there was no way he could possible make me feel emotionally the way I felt when my own father fucked me. The fact the he admitted that it felt like that with Brenda actually made me believe his answer more than anything.

David suddenly looked at his watch and drew in a sharp breath. "Damn, we had better get back before dinner is over."

Of course, there was also the little matter of the owners of the boat possibly arriving at any moment. We were lucky so far that they hadn't put in an appearance but how long could we ask for our luck to hold out?

We both pulled up our shorts and got ready to leave. I noticed that I had indeed left a mess on the seat so I found a roll of paper towels and wiped it clean, throwing the smelly wad into what I hoped was the trash. I searched for some air freshener as the place undoubtedly had to be reeking with sex but without any luck. Oh well, hopefully by the time the owners returned it would have aired out enough. We stepped out through that small door and back onto the dock. As I walked down the dock, my pussy felt like it was swollen between my legs. I definitely could feel the aftereffects of his dick in me, that was for sure! I laughed as we passed by the kid and wondered if he noticed I was still a little bowlegged by the time we went by him.

About half-way back to the restaurant, a couple passed us that looked familiar and then I realized where I had seen them - in the photos on the boat! It was just the two of them and they looked more interested in each other than David and me. We passed by them without a word between us and after they had gone by, both David and I could barely hold back the laughter.

"Do you think they're going to do it when they get back?" David teased me.

"Well, only if they can hold off that long," I said back, grinning as I imagined them fucking in the same place David and I had just been.

Would they notice the smell of our sex? The guy probably wouldn't but women have a much better sense of smell when it comes to detecting sex. I guess it must be something from our cave men days when it was important for a female to know when another female was in heat to after her mate. For whatever reason, I can always smell another girl when she was really horny and my mom was always able to tell when I came from a date as to whether or not I'd been laid.

When we got back to the dining room, I saw that things were just starting to break up. Whew! We'd made it back just in the nick of time. No doubt Brenda would have understood why her brother and ex-roommate had disappeared but explaining that to the other guests, especially her parents, would have been a bit more difficult, to say the least. I joined up with the other girls as David split apart to be with his parents.

"You just got laid!" Cathy exclaimed, her hands over her mouth as soon as she said it as if she couldn't believe she had voiced what she was thinking.

It was like I said, a girl can always tell when another girl has been fucking. The only thing was, MOST girls didn't come right out and advertise it. Fortunately, it was the small group of us that heard her and everyone looked at me as if expecting some sort of report or whatever.

"OK, so I got laid... big deal," I responded, trying my best to sound nonchalant and not make a big thing out of it but the others would have none of that.

"Who was it?" Doreen asked, curiosity in her voice, "One of the waiters?... No, how about the cute bartender, he was out for a while the same as you were."

I just shook my head at them, as if I was disappointed in their lack of creative thinking.

"Oh come on, spill it girl," Cathy pressed me. "Why not tell us?" She paused for a moment and then her face lit up and her eyes opened wide as saucers. "Oh my god, you didn't; fuck Gary, did you?"

"Cathy!" I exclaimed, as if shocked she would even think of such a horrible thing. Then again, it wasn't a bad guess under the circumstances given the way I was acting. I thought about it for a second. What would it hurt if they knew?

"OK, if you all MUST know," I teased them, dragging it on for as long as I could, "It was David."

"Her brother?!" Cathy gasped.

"But isn't he married?" Celeste cut in innocently. Leave it to her to state the obvious.

"Ewwwww, he's so OLD" Doreen grimaced. THAT really wasn't far, he was only about six years older than we were but I knew for some girls, guys were like dog years, especially if they preferred them younger to start with.

"C'mon, you can ride back with us," Cathy cut in as the crowd began to dissipate, "We want to hear ALL about it." We started to walk out and then she looked at me with a quizzical eye. "Where the hell did you do it anyway?"

I just grinned back at her, leaving her to wonder until we drove home. I was secretly placing bets with myself as to whether any of them would be masturbating by the time we got back to the house. Cathy? Definitely. Doreen? Probably. It was Celeste that was the wild card. How much influence had we made on her so far?

That night as I laid in bed, pretending to be asleep, in came David again for the last fuck he would have with Brenda as a single girl. As I listened to them fucking, I wondered if he was going to keep fucking her after she got married? Did Brenda know he had fucked me just a few hours earlier? Somehow I didn't, think so. Why not? It was like there was something they were hiding from me but I just couldn't understand it.

I heard David grunting and I knew he was cumming inside of Brenda. My pussy throbbed as I remembered how he had felt not so long before. God, how could he have anything left for her after cumming so hard inside me just a few hour ago? After he had done her, he left quietly and I felt Brenda nuzzle up against me, spooning me as I laid with my back to her. I felt her arm reach around me and then her hand cupped my boob as she drifted off to sleep.

Tomorrow night she would be sleeping with her new husband and instead of being fucked by her brother, she would be with her new husband. I recalled what Cathy had said earlier, how she was wondering if I had been fucking Gary. My pussy twinged as I thought about how hot THAT would have been but I knew that I could never do that to Brenda, no matter how great the temptation. Then it occurred to me that it meant I would be sleeping alone! Would I? Or would someone else be holding me in their arms instead of Brenda? Male or female? Family or friend? So many options, so many possibilities.

I feel asleep dreaming of how the wedding might go, especially the reception. After all, tradition demanded that the bridesmaids get laid – the question was, who?

5. June 7, The Wedding

Day 5 in Florida - the BIG day!

This was it, the reason I'd traveled to Florida. Believe it or not, I hadn't come down here to cavort off the coast bottomless while snorkeling, not to run around nude in the Everglades with a bunch of girls, not even to get laid at a rehearsal dinner. The reason I was here was to celebrate the marriage of my ex- roomie Brenda and the day had finally arrived. It had been a while since I was even at a wedding and it would be my first participating as a bridesmaid. Finally, I would be walking down the aisle, although NOT as the bride but then who knows, maybe my boyfriend Duane back home might take a hint!

On such a day, not even I, the crowned princess of late morning sleep-ins, could stay in bed. My heart started beating faster just at the thought of it. Brenda had woken up earlier, positively beaming from the start. There was no doubt that she was madly in love with Gary, her fiancé, and even if she hadn't been pregnant I had no doubt that this ceremony would have taken place sooner than later.

Just to illustrate how excited I was, imagine me getting up in the morning, taking a hot shower, getting dressed, and heading to breakfast without even masturbating once. Yep, believe it or not, it actually happened. I can't remember being so excited over something that was happening to someone else. For goodness sakes I hadn't even felt this way before my college graduation, probably one of the biggest days of my life so far, socially at least.

The rest of the bridal party was just coming in the door as I walked down to the kitchen. Cathy, the Maid of Honor, acted as if she was shocked to see me. A little melodramatic maybe, but I took it all in good humor.

"Oh my god, I wouldn't have believed it if I hadn't seen it with my own eye. So she CAN get up early in the morning!" she teased me playfully.

She was just teasing but there was an element of truth as all week I'd been late to breakfast every morning. I wondered if she knew that it wasn't a matter of me getting to breakfast, but more of what I all did BEFORE I came down to breakfast? Given Cathy was a hard-core lesbian (I think technically she was still a virgin if not physically), I had no doubt she wouldn't have minded helping me out.

Pretty soon the moms arrived, both Brenda's and Gary's. Evidently the parents had gone out for breakfast earlier and so she had already eaten. The husbands had dumped them off and immediately left to go golfing or something like that. As for the groom and his posse, not even Brenda was sure where he was, just that he had better show up later - and be on time! It wasn't like the guys had all that much to get ready. They would be wearing Bermuda shorts and a light jacket so getting dressed should take all of about two minutes at most.

For the girls, Brenda had picked out some tasteful bikinis. Nothing from Wicked Weasel or anything like that. After all, there WAS going to be children and family at the wedding and thong bikinis with strings showing off our bare asses probably wouldn't be deemed appropriate by some of the guests. Actually, they were quite conservative, to the point where I called them two piece swim suits more so than bikinis. Our boobs were fully covered and the bottoms covered more than most panties I'd worn in the past. Still, it beat the heck out of some ugly bridesmaid dress that I would never wear again.

There had apparently been a lot of debate over color but she finally settled on a pale blue solid-colored suits with white silk wraps around our waists. The wraps were long enough such that they kept anyone from seeing too much of our legs and asses. Sure it would have been fun to be all sexy and wild but I also realized that under the circumstances, it was the right thing to do. After all, this was a wedding, not a fashion show. As bridesmaids, we were supposed to be there for effect, not the center of attention. THAT role fell to the bride, Brenda. Her suit, of course, was solid white. She wore the same wrap as her bridesmaids along with a sheer veil. One thing I realized right away, the Maid of Honor was going to have it easy as there was no long trail on the wedding "dress" to keep in place.

The entire wedding party would be barefoot, including the minister who insisted on wearing pants and a suit coat. Something about wearing shorts at a wedding just wasn't his thing. Even Brenda's dad agreed to go barefoot although like the minister, he insisted on wearing some thin pants instead of shorts. Brenda teased her mom about wearing a bikini as well but to be honest, her mom's bikini days were long behind her, if they ever existed in the first place. Don't get me wrong, I loved her mom dearly but she WAS a little frumpy. Guests had been told in their invitations to dress casual but given the locale, I doubted such a warning was necessary. It was way too hot for anyone to wear a suit or a heavy dress.

The day seemed to fly by and before we knew it, the moment was almost upon us. Everything had gone remarkably smooth. The flowers had shown up on time, the wedding cake looked fantastic, and all the chairs and sound systems set up and tested without a hitch. We headed into the house to change into our wedding "attire", leaving the rest of the growing crowd behind. Our hair had been taken care of a few hours earlier so it was just a matter of sipping on our swim suits and last minute makeup adjustments.

When Brenda slipped out of the shorts and halter top that she had been wearing all day, we all gathered around her, admiring her and telling her how great she looked. There MIGHT have been just a hint of a belly staring to show but it was too little for anyone to notice really. Cathy was already naked and so she walked over to Brenda and kissed her lightly on the lips so as not to mess up her makeup. Her hand slipped between Brenda's legs and she grinned at her best friend.

"Well. It' not like you're losing your virginity tonight but I envy Gary, I have to tell you that girl."

We all giggled and I, for one, knew she wasn't just joking. Cathy was really hot, especially with those boobs. While not as enormous as Doreen's, they still were great and even without being held up by the swim suit top, they didn't sag nearly as much as other girls did with similar sized ones.

As for me, I slipped on my outfit and checked myself out in one of the mirrors. For a moment I wondered what it would be like to be the one with the white bikini. What if this was MY wedding day? How would it feel to know I was about to commit my life to one man, forsaking all others? Could I be like my mom, be faithful to my husband for over twenty five years without ever once straying? Of course, I would still have my dad and even my Uncle Jim and cousin Rick should I REALLY get desperate, but that was a whole lot different than being with another man outside your family. God, to only have ONE man fucking me, it was almost too much to imagine. Yet I also knew that I would have to be ready for that sort of commitment before I could accept a marriage proposal so I knew I wasn't ready for that yet.

It was time. We all gathered at the spot where everyone was leading off to go down the "aisle" with Brenda hanging back out of sight. One of Brenda's friends played a guitar and he had been providing the music while people were being seated. He picked up the sound level a notch when the grandmothers and mothers were seated and then it became so quiet, all I could hear were the waves on the beach and the wind blowing in the palm trees.

One of the friends of the groom was a DJ and he had music all lined up for the remainder of the service. As the bridesmaids entered, he played something classical and my heart was beating fast as I lined up behind Doreen to walk down the aisle (well a path in the sand between the chairs). When my cue came, I stepped out, feeling everyone's eyes on me as I walked slowly and deliberately. I saw David, Brenda's older brother, looking at me from the audience and I smiled at him. Even with all that was going on, my pussy tingled a little as the memory of our little tryst the night before came flooding back in my mind. I mentally shook my head to focus on the moment at hand as I reached my spot and turned to face the people.

Everyone hushed and then the wedding march music began to play. I couldn't help but feel a tear in my eyes as I watched Brenda emerge from behind a tent that had been set up, take her father's arm, and walk slowly down the aisle. God, she looked so beautiful and radiant! Her father looked like he was about to cry himself as he said the words to give his daughter away and handed her arm to Gary before taking his seat next to her mom. The rest of the ceremony actually went pretty quick and before I knew it, she was being pronounced as married and they kissed long and hard before the crowd - a little TOO long probably for some people but who cared?

Well, that was it. She was married. It seemed to take hours for all the wedding photos but it wasn't really nearly that long, it just felt that way. Finally we were finished and it time for the reception. Everything was setup right here, with tables and chairs having been brought in. A "portable" dance floor was even set up, like interlocking rubberized pads that made it easier to dance than trying to do it on the sand.

Really, what can you say about a wedding reception? At least the food was decent. A friend of the family had volunteered to cook up shrimp and chicken for the meal and it was actually pretty good, better than most catered affairs I'd attended as an escort. The "bar" was simply a line of coolers filled with soda and beer along with liquor and wine bottles set out on a table. The DJ was good, keeping people hopping even if it WAS to some of the stupid songs that seem to only get played at wedding receptions (think Chicken Dance and Electric Slide).

Brenda and Gary did the cake thing and then they danced with their parents, all the traditional things. They even stuck around afterwards to dance and talk to the guests. I guess she figured it was her only wedding so why not enjoy it all while she could. After all, it wasn't like they wouldn't have enough time for sex later. As the darkness set in and the dancing and partying went on, I found myself feeling a little melancholy. Seeing the girls dancing with their boyfriends, I was missing my own boyfriend, Duane. Sure it was easy enough to get someone to dance with me but it wasn't nearly the same as it would've been if my Duane was there.

The wine and liquor didn't appeal to me so I stuck with my usual drink - Diet Coke. After a few of them I needed to use the bathroom so I slipped away and headed over to our house. Most of the activities were taking place by the main house so I was expecting our place to be deserted and at first glance, that's exactly how things looked when I stepped inside.

Why is it that when you have to go really bad, the closer you get to the bathroom the greater the urge to pee becomes? Well, in this case by the time I got to the bathroom door it was all I could do to hold it back. Desperate, I literally flung the poor door open as I started to pull down my bikini bottoms at the same time when to my utter surprise, I was greeted by gasp and then "What the... hey, shut the damn door!"

Oh my god, who should be sitting on the toilet but Wayne, the groom's father! Judging by his thinning silver hair and the age of his son, I'd guessed before that he must have been around 50 years old or so. During the week I'd seen him around a few times but never really talked to him, not even once. OK, so he'd given me the mandatory once-over but then, so did the rest of the guys so I didn't think there was anything unusual about it.

Now before you think of me as having an oversized ego, it wasn't like I was the only girl being ogled all the time. Guys like him looked at ANY girl so it wasn't like I felt special or anything, it was just a natural male reaction. They did the same with all the girls and who could blame them given our typical state of dress - or should I say "undress".

Now had I simply stepped in while he was peeing or washing up afterwards, that would have been one thing. What made it really awkward in this case was I saw him holding his dick in hand. Even though he quickly pushed it out of sight, his stiff erection was impossible NOT to notice and then he started stammering and blushing. Oh my god, he'd been masturbating! Instantly a classic scene from Fast Times at Ridgemont High came to mind but I managed to control myself and didn't laugh or say anything to further embarrass the guy.

"Oops, I'm SO sorry, I just needed to use the restroom," I said, backing out of the room quickly, trying not to stare at his crotch, not to mention his erect dick that was proving to be hard for him to hide from sight.

Before he could answer, I shut the door behind me and headed upstairs to the other bathroom by my bedroom where I barely made it without peeing all over the floor. If there is one thing I know for sure, "water sports" are NOT my thing, at least when it comes to sex.

What a relief - the feeling was almost as good as sex as I released the pent-up contents of my bladder! After washing my hands thoroughly, I headed back down the stairs to return to the party. Well, who should be coming out of the other bathroom at the same time but none other than Wayne, a sheepish grin appearing on his face when he saw me approaching.

"Ummmmm, sorry, I didn't think anybody would be around and so I guess I must have forgotten to lock the door," he started to explain but I just smiled and waved him off.

"Hey, it's OK. After all, everybody does it."

I was trying to be nice but he seemed all the more embarrassed with my reference to him jerking off earlier. Then he started looking at me a little more closely and I wondered if he'd managed to still finish himself off while I was in the upstairs bathroom. Maybe he had to quit due to the embarrassment of being caught by someone like me and now he was all hard and horny. I'd like to say there was something in his eyes that told me it was the latter case but actually it was pretty obvious given his erection was pushing out his shorts. Unlike Brenda's dad, Wayne had agreed to wear Bermuda shorts which did little in this situation to contain his stiff dick. It was just too much and I couldn't help but giggle and nod towards his crotch.

"You're not going back to the reception like THAT, are you,?" I couldn't help by tease him a little. He glanced down and his face reddened perceptibly.

"Well, you can't blame a guy with all you girls running around half naked and such," he said in a rather defensive tone.

"Oh really? Hmmmmmm, so you like the way I look Wayne?" I said in a more seductive tone this time. The kernel of a naughty idea was forming in my mind and something told me it wouldn't be too hard to carry it through - "hard" being the operative word.

"Well, I'd be lying if I said otherwise," he admitted, shrugging his shoulders as he tried to appear innocent but at the same time not taking his eyes off of me. The room was pretty dark with just a couple of candles so it was hard for him to see anything too clearly.

One of the things I get asked a LOT is how to initiate something sexual with somebody, like a father wanting his daughters, a girl wanting someone else's husband, etc. My answer is almost always the same - just go for it. Hey, if it's not worth taking the risk then don't do it, it's that simple. It frustrates me when people just TALK about what they want to do and then are afraid to actually DO anything. To all those people, and you know who you are, all I have to say is I hope you really enjoy masturbating because if you're expecting someone else to initiate YOUR fantasy, odds are it isn't going to happen.

So it was in this case and the question I had to ask myself was, was it worth it? If not, I could have easily let it drop after some innocent flirting. A couple more risque exchanges just for fun and then off to the party we would go, never allowing ourselves to be alone together again. Another option was to seize the initiative and make a play for him.

One thing I knew from past experience was a given and that was that HE would never be the one to start anything, no matter how hot and horny he might be. Wayne was married, twice my age, and had far too much to lose to come onto a girl and be rejected, possibly even having his indiscretion exposed. I didn't blame him. Sadly, there are far too many cock teasing girls who make a game out of conning men into asking for naughty things, only to turn them down as if it was some twisted form of entertainment. Most men seem to know this and so who can blame them for being a bit cautious, especially when you're someone like Wayne?

Now if I were to say that I just flirted and let him go, like some sort of catch and release program for men, would anyone have believed me? I'd like to think I have established at least THAT much of a reputation that people would know I would never turn such an opportunity. It was time to fish or cut bait as they say. I slowly moved up close to Wayne and planted my hand squarely on his crotch, feeling the bulge of his dick underneath his shorts against my palm.

"Mmmmmmm, I can take care of this for you, you know that, don't you Wayne," I whispered to him in a husky voice, rubbing his dick slowly under my hand through his thin shorts.

He started to push my hand away but it was a feeble effort and I was able to easily maintain my position on his crotch. He was just trying to establish an alibi in case he got caught so he could say he tried to make me stop but I forced him to do more. Like anyone was going to believe THAT line of crap!

"You're just teasing me, aren't you, just like those other girls," he said, his voice a little higher as he squirmed under my touch.

Hmmmmmm, "other girls"? Now what, or should I say who, was he talking about? Had Cathy and company been teasing the poor guy as well. Given she was a die-hard lesbian, I knew it would have been just that - all teasing, maybe even just to be mean. He didn't say anything more and I knew it was probably a sore subject for him so I let it drop even though my curiosity was killing me

"Just so you know Wayne, when it comes to nice hard dicks, like this one, I NEVER tease," I said in the naughtiest voice I have.

To make my point, I reached behind me and undid my bikini top, lifting it over my head allowing my bare boobs to be exposed to him. The candle light seemed to make them look even bigger for some reason and his eyes were locked onto them. I slowly took one of his hands and placed it on one of them. At first he just left it there but then his inner impulses took over and he began to squeeze it gently.

"See Wayne, I'm not a tease," I whispered as I reached inside his shorts and slipped my hand into his underwear in search of his stiff dick.

"Oh my god, what are you doing?" he asked, sighing as he enjoyed my hand on him. At least, he certainly wasn't doing anything to make me stop.

"I'm going to suck your dick, what else did you think I was going to do?" I came back at him, looking up into his face and grinning as my hand gripped his stiff cock. Mmmmmmm, he felt so warm and thick in my hand. I couldn't wait to find out how he tasted.

"No... no, you can't do this," he started to protest in vain, as if suddenly realizing what was happening. Yeah right! All they were just words as his cock told me the truth - it felt stiffer than ever. True, his more rational mind might be telling him that this was the wrong thing him to be letting me do, but that part of his brain was swiftly losing control as his little head began to dominate the big one.

"Oh yes I can," I replied in a firm voice, "I can do anything I want and you'll let me."

Sensing his weakness the way a shark homes in on the wounded fish, I was more determined now than ever to go through with it. Letting go of his dick, I pulled his shorts down and bent my knees to dip down to his crotch with my face and I quickly took his exposed dick in my mouth without any licking or further foreplay. No sense in giving him any chance to back out. Not like he was going to anyway!

"Jesus Christ Almighty, what the hell are you doing to me?" he moaned, standing there stiffly as I started to suck his dick with more fervor.

I knew he was mine when he pulled his shirt up and over his head, leaving himself standing there nude with nothing on but his sandals. Dang, he was really a weak man as it hadn't taken much to convince him, that was for sure. He must have been REALLY been horny after being interrupted while he was masturbating. Well, who could blame him? What's more frustrating than to be close to cumming and then being interrupted for one reason or another?

As I sucked his dick, which really wasn't all that remarkable a specimen but under the circumstances, still fairly erotic, I was thinking more about where I wanted this to go than sucking his cock. It really was MY decision as I was sure I could convince good ol' boy Wayne here to do about anything I asked him to now that I had his dick in my mouth! In a way, it was really terribly unfair of me, like shooting fish in a barrel. Pathetic men like Wayne are just SO easy to manipulate once you get them in the right "position".

Actually, that's usually the hardest part - finding a way to be alone with them where I can take control without being interrupted. Yep, put me in a room with a horny older man and I don't care HOW married he is, how "moral and ethical" he is, how religious he is, whatever. Before it's all said and done he will have fucked me IF that's what I really want. Heck, in this case it looked like Wayne wasn't even going to be a challenge. He had caved in so quickly that there wasn't a shadow of doubt in my mind that he was going to be fucking me tonight, even if he didn't know it yet.

From the way Wayne was groaning and his dick was jumping, I knew he wasn't going to last long so I slowed down a little. If there was one thing I learned early on about fucking older guys, it's that they are NOT at all like the teenage boys I use to fuck who were like machine guns, cumming time after time without hardly a rest in between. At 29, even my Duane's "machine gun" was now more like a pump shotgun, requiring a little more "recovery" time than I secretly wished it took.

Sometimes I was left to masturbate while he took a break or even snoozed a little to get his dick back in shape. If that's the case for a guy still under thirty, imagine when a guy gets to Wayne's age how it must be. It's like an old-fashioned muzzle loader - one shot was all you were going to get so make sure it counted! Well, if I let Wayne shoot it in my mouth, which I was sure he was OK with, then there wouldn't be any left for my pussy, and that's what I wanted!

Even so, I have to say I enjoyed sucking his dick if for no other reason than I LOVE to suck cock. It's always nice to know you're pleasing a man and from the way he was reacting, I had to wonder if his wife had ever given him a blow job. Like, he kept groaning and carrying on about how good it felt, how much he always wanted to have his dick sucked like this, and so forth. When I grabbed his balls and softly caressed then, and then put just the head in his mouth and licked the sensitive underside of his head, I thought for a second I had gone too far and he was going to cum. His precum was already seeping out and I knew if I wasn't careful, he was going to be shooting it out a lot sooner than I wanted. Seeing he was on the edge, I let him drop from my mouth and stood up, grinning at him and licking my lips as if I'd just finished a hearty meal.

"OK Wayne, so tell me, do you like the way I sucked your dick?" I asked coyly, holding his warm wet cock in my hand but not stroking him for fear I might set him off.

"For heaven's sake YES," he sighed, his eyes rolling back into his head, "I just can't believe this is happening."

"Oh it's happening alright," I assured him, "and now it's time for you to fuck me, isn't that right Wayne?"

His eye opened wide as saucers and his mouth dropped open almost comically. I wasn't sure if it was the shock of the unexpected offer or that he was appalled at my suggestion.

"Oh no... I can't do that... I can't make love to you," he protested hoarsely, although once again it was pretty feeble. "Oh my god, my wife would kill me if she ever found out I had sex with another woman!"

"So? Like who's going to tell her?" I countered, gripping his dick a little tighter in my hand as emphasis, "And besides, who said anything about making love to me? I want you to FUCK me Wayne."

Wayne looked torn, his face alternating between eager lust and then on the verge of a panic attack. Yeah, he WANTED it alright, but he was just afraid. No problem, I could deal with that. Easy.

I untied the wrap around me and tossed it over a nearby chair, followed quickly by my bikini bottom leaving me naked in front of him. "What's the matter? Don't I turn you on Wayne?" I asked him softly, in my best little girl imitation.

"That's not the point...," he started to say before I interrupted him.

"So what IS the point, Wayne? C'mon, you can fuck me if you want... AND YOU do want to, don't you?" I encouraged him, letting him get as good a view of my naked body as possible in the dim light. He wasn't ready to break yet but that was OK with me. In situations like this one, there was a process to follow here and so far I would he was right on track, maybe even a little ahead of "schedule".

"You don't understand... I've never cheated on her - never. I've never even had another girl suck my dick until just now. Kelly, you're a pretty girl and damn sexy and my God, you have no idea how much I WANT to do this... but I just can't, OK?" he said. It was like he was pleading with me not to seduce him any further. Sort of like, "Save me before I hurt myself." Well, he was asking the wrong person.

I smiled but it was a nasty smile. He knew he was weak, that it wouldn't take much to drive him over the edge, as already proven by letting me give him a BJ. I couldn't help but feel a little touched as he practically begged me to let him stay faithful to his wife, to fight the sinful urges threatening to overwhelm him and remain true to his wedding vows. Maybe if I had any concern for him as a person, if I could think of his needs ahead of mine, then I might have honored his request and left things as they were. Regardless, it should go without saying that nothing was going to stop me from finishing his blowjob (Give me a break, I'm not THAT much of a saint).

Let's be honest. I suppose I could have done all that except for one thing - I cared more about me than him. Who really cares what he wants - I wanted to be fucked and he had a hard cock available so why shouldn't I take advantage of the situation? Really, how bad could it be? It wasn't like I was asking him to leave his wife to run away with me. You could say I just wanted to rent his hard dick for a while, to let me ride it, feel it inside of me, and then return it the same way I found it. Sure, he would always have it on his conscience but at the same time, I was willing to bet his masturbation sessions would be a lot hotter in the future!

"Oh just shut up and sit down Wayne," I ordered him gently.

There was a dining room chair next to him and he sat down in it, his hard dick poking up out of his thick pubic hair like a missile ready for launch. From the relieved look on his face, he must be taking this as a sign I wasn't going to push him to fuck me anymore. Really, how dense can a man be? (OK, stupid question, I know.) I smiled to myself as I thought how surprised he was going to be in just a few seconds. With my hand between my legs I tickled my clit just a bit, enough to make me shiver with anticipation. Yeah, I was ready for him, my pussy was wet and warm, ready for his dick!

Leaning over at him, my bare boobs on display in front of him, I whispered into his ear saying, "Sorry Wayne, I need to be fucked and you're going to do me."

"Oh God, please Kelly, no!" he protested again. It was an empty protest, like he was saying what he felt he needed to say to assuage his conscience more than anything else. Heck, he certainly wasn't DOING anything to stop me. If he REALLY didn't want to fuck me, he was more than big enough such that all he had to do was stand up and push me away. It wasn't like I was strong enough to rape him or anything. In the end, there was only one way I was going to get fucked by him and that was if he WANTED to fuck me, not just because I wanted to fuck him.

Straddling his legs as he sat on the chair, I grabbed his still stiff dick in my hand and positioning it under my hungry pussy as I stood on my toes to get over it. I rubbed the tip of his cock against my pussy, getting it all wet and slippery and at the same time, rubbing my clit with it. God I wanted to be fucked so bad! When I had left for the house, I just had to pee and the thought of sex wasn't on my "to do" list. Now, it was all I could think about! Maybe it was because I was so anxious, but for whatever reason I seemed to just fumble around with it but finally his dick was positioned right under my waiting pussy hole. With a sigh of relief, I slowly lowered myself down until I could feel the pressure of his cock against me as my pussy tried to prevent the fleshy invader from making its way inside.

"Mmmmmmm, can you feel my wet pussy Wayne?" I teased him softly, whispering into his ear, "Can you feel your wonderful dick against my young pussy. You want it in me, don't you Wayne. Tell me you want to feel yourself deep inside of me."

"Oh god, please don't do this to me, PLEASE stop Kelly," he groaned.

I looked at his face and was astonished to see tears starting to flow from his eyes. Wow, maybe he really did want to stay faithful to his wife! Too bad. Someone should have sent the memo to his penis as it was clearly operating on a totally different wavelength. His dick was as stiff as a steel rod as I felt the mushroom head begin to penetrate me, forcing my pussy to open and accept him inside.

"Tell me you want it Wayne," I kept insisting, "Tell me you want your dick inside of my pussy... TELL ME!"

It wasn't just dirty talk, I really DID want him to tell me. Even as horny as I was, I couldn't just sit on his dick and cram it into me while the guy sat there crying and begging me to stop! It was one thing to tempt a man until he caved and betrayed his wife willingly, it was another to literally rape him, even if it was just mentally. Was it fair of me to turn his own sexual lust and desires against him, maneuvering him to do something he knew he shouldn't but couldn't stop himself? It was almost like I was tempting an alcoholic with a drink. Was it really a victory if he took it but protested the whole time he didn't want it?

Damn, it was SO frustrating! Here I was, poised over his cock with maybe a third of the head inside of me, and he was still somehow managing to hold out. Give the guy credit - he was putting up more resistance than virtually any other man I knew - my dad probably being the only exception. Just as I was about to stand up and give up, about to surrender for the first time ever, he cracked. It was like the damn burst and everything that was holding him back was overwhelmed by the flood of lust he had been holding back.

"Oh the hell with it, YES, I want to fuck you, god help me but I do," he said, the tears now flooding from his eyes as he confessed to his true desires.

YES! I knew it, I knew he really wanted to fuck me and it was just his principles that stood in the way. If there was one thing that was the easiest to overcome in a man, it was his so-called principles. It may have taken longer than with most men, but in the end when faced with a choice between maintaining his wedding vows after all these years and a few moment of pleasure with a fantasy girl, it wasn't much of a surprise what he chose. After all, he was a man so what can you expect?

Quickly, before he recovered and changed his mind, I let my full weight bear down on his cock and it easily slide up inside my wet pussy until I was sitting with my full weight on his lap, my feet all but off the floor with just enough to keep my balance. My entire body was driving his now adulterous dick as deep into me as I could possibly take it. It was so wonderful as I felt this tremendous sensation of being filled inside, like I was now complete after a missing part had been restored. What can I say other than I LOVE having a dick in me, it's like it completes me, makes me whole. It's the most wonderful feeling in the world!

"This is what you wanted, isn't it Wayne," I moaned softly as I wiggled my butt around his shaft, "Tell me this is what you wanted."

"God forgive me but yes, I wanted this from the first time I saw you. I've been wanting your pussy so bad but I never dreamed for a second that I could ever actually have it," he said in a husky low voice as his dick literally throbbed inside of me.

For the moment, he was just sitting there, letting his wife- cheating dick just stay inside of my pussy, the only movement being created by me as I worked my way around his dick. I tightened my stomach and squeezed down on his cock, gripping it as I stood up and pulled upward on him before releasing him and letting his dick slide partially out of me. I repeated it again, gripping him, pulling him up and then letting him drop out of me. I was about to do it a third time when he put his hands on my hips and held me still.

"Damn girl, where did you learn to do THAT little stunt?" he groaned, "God, I can't believe how fucking tight your pussy is. Shit, I haven't felt anything that tight for a LONG time!"

Yes, I smiled. Little did he realize that he was the second guy in as many days to compliment me on how tight my pussy was. If he only knew how many dicks had actually been in my pussy during the past nine years, he might be even more impressed.

"Just sit there and let me ride you," I instructed him.

I grabbed his shoulders for balance and started to rock on his dick, letting the motion naturally draw him in and out of me as I rocked my pussy on his crotch. He wasn't nearly as big as Brenda's brother David had been the night before, but hey, sometimes a dick is a dick and I was just happy to have one inside of me at the moment. He grabbed my ass in his hands, cupping each cheek in one hand and squeezing them, lifting me up and down to assist me as I fucked his dick.

"That's it Wayne, fuck me," I encouraged him, "Tell me how much better it is to fuck me than your wife."

It was beautiful to watch a man totally surrender himself to me. Wayne was not just over the edge, he had crashed and burned. Any pretense of wanting to be faithful to his wife had evaporated like alcohol on a hot plate. His vaunted principles had deserted him, his ethics and morality nonexistent for the time being. Wayne wanted ME, not his wife. He wanted to fuck ME right now, not his wife. It made me feel incredible sexy as he started to hump himself under me, his lust and desires surfacing. It was rather symbolic in that as he drove his wooden dick into me, it was if he was driving a wood stake into the heart of his wedding vows.

"God your pussy is so much better than hers, you are so much better than she is," he gasped, barely able to breathe, let alone talk. "She never fucked me like this, never rode my dick like this, never acted like a slut for me like you are."

Now THAT was what I call the ultimate compliment. What better thing can a man say to a woman than to tell her that she is better sexually than the women he married, the same woman he vowed to be faithful to for the rest of his life? Imagine how sexy you have to be to make a man throw away everything he has worked for more than twenty five years, just to have a few moments with me.

It was SO erotic that it was enough to make me cum, that's all I know. Between his wife-cheating dick inside of me and the incredibly nasty things he was telling me about how I compared to his wife, I was so turned on I simply HAD to cum. I moaned loudly as I felt my pussy release, my cum gushing out around his cock. I plopped down on his cock and just allowed the waves of pleasure to pass through me as I sat there impaled on him like a corn dog on a stick at the fair.

Wayne wasn't moving either, apparently mesmerized at the sight, sound and feel of this sensual girl sitting on his lap as she orgasmed. Later, when I thought back on it, I realized he had probably never felt anything like this before as I doubted his wife ever fucked him like this. For several minutes the two of us just sat there, not moving a muscle as my pussy contracted on his dick and he closed his eyes and enjoyed it.

As much as I love having an orgasm at any time, there's something about cumming with a dick inside of me that just makes it all the better. Finally I opened my eyes and sighed softly, "Oh god Wayne, that felt wonderful. You made me cum SO good."

It was sort of funny in a way, like he was some teenage kid again and didn't know quite what to say or do. That was fine with me, I didn't need the guy to lead, just provide the hard cock. I lifted myself off his cock, feeling him withdraw and then flop out of me. Moving over to the table, I leaned forward onto it and used one hand to reach under me and pushed a couple of fingers up into my pussy for him to see.

"C'mon Wayne, don't you want to fuck me some more?" I said sweetly, licking my lips slowly.

The look of sheer lust and decadence on his face was almost comical. At this point I think I could have asked him to jump off the roof and he would've done it. It was like he was in a daze, almost hypnotized as he stood up and stepped in behind me.

"That's it Wayne... enter me from behind," I instructed him, pulling my fingers out and using them now to spread my pussy open for him.

Imagine how my pussy must have looked to him, all wet and open from having just been fucked. I couldn't help but squirm a little bit myself as I waited impatiently for him to get his act together. "Hurry up, Wayne, I want you to fuck me again," I pushed him.

My slutty efforts were rewarded by the incredible feeling of his hard cock once again pressing against up my pussy. This time, however, being as wet as I was from being just fucked he slipped easily into me and I soon felt the tickling sensation of his coarse pubic hair against my bare ass as he rammed himself into me as far as he could. Mmmmmmm, it felt so good to have a dick in me again, even if it had just been a minute or so since he was last in me! Wayne immediately started to stroke his dick in and out of me as I toyed with my clit with my free hand while trying to keep my balance with the other. It wasn't going to take much to make me cum again and I figured Wayne had to be pretty close himself.

"Oh god, oh god...oh my god!" I heard him groaning hoarsely as he buried himself yet again inside of me and this time held himself in me.

Wayne's crotch slammed into me over and over as he expelled his adulterous cum into my eagerly waiting pussy. This is what I wanted, to feel him cumming in me, the ultimate act of betrayal against his wife and the decisive act of sensuality for me.

"Oh yeah... that's it... give it to me," I begged him, as if I needed to say anything more to encourage him. "Cum in me Wayne, fill me with your sperm... give it all to me."

Wayne quickly finished and as he did, he gave a final thrust into me and then immediately pulled out, so quickly that he almost lost his balance. For a scary moment I thought he was going to fall down and hurt himself but he managed to back into the chair again and sit down, panting rapidly as if he'd just finished running a marathon.

Smiling broadly with my victory in hand (or should I say "pussy"), I turned to face him, leaning back against the table so he could see my freshly fucked pussy all the better. Reaching down, I tightened my stomach and forced his cum out of me, capturing some of his cum with my hand as it dripped from my pussy. Then I put my cum covered fingers into my mouth, sucking and licking his salty cum off of them while all the time locking my eyes with his and smiling as nasty of a grin as I could muster at him. It wasn't hard to look pleased as damn, my pussy felt so good!

Suddenly it was like the hypnotist had snapped his fingers and Wayne's eyes lit up and his expression totally changed. Without a word he just stood up and quickly gathered his clothes. Wayne started dressing hurriedly, muttering something to himself. It was hard to make out exactly what he was saying but he was clearly upset, to put it mildly. I moved up closer to him, still naked while he was pulling up his shorts.

"That felt so good, thank you for fucking me Wayne, you were wonderful," I complimented him, as if he was the one responsible. Wayne looked at me with the saddest eyes and once again I thought he was going to cry but instead he seemed more angry than sad. It wasn't sadness in his eyes, it was hate.

"You fucking slut... I hope you're happy now," he said slowly, bitterly spitting out each word. "I'll never be able to look my wife in the eyes the same again - and it's all because of you."

Huh? As I remembered things, HE was the one who wanted to fuck me so why put all the blame on me, as if there was something to be blamed for in the first place. I reached for him but he pushed me away. Looking hurt (and I was, a little at least), I responded by saying, "Oh Wayne, you know better than that. You seemed to be enjoying it pretty much yourself there as I recall."

"You... fucking... bitch," he muttered, more to himself than me but I could hear him clearly.

Then Wayne looked at me again as he finished dressing and was about to leave. "You're really sick, you know. Does this kind of stuff get you off? Does it somehow turn you on to seduce older guys until they can't help themselves and then take advantage of them? What kind of perverted slut are you, anyway?"

It was too much of a temptation, no way was I going to let this opportunity slip away. As much as I loved being fucked by married guys like Wayne, I also despise them for being so weak and for betraying their wives. I wondered if he knew that in supposedly berating me and condemning me, that he was actually turning me on more than anything else he might have said? Now I just had to tell him.

"Yeah, it DOES get me off Wayne. And do you know what else gets me off?" I asked him. He just shook his head so I continued, "I know that tonight when you are in bed with your wife, you'll be thinking of me, no matter how hard you try not to. I know the next time you try to have sex with her, you'll remember how good my pussy felt and how much better you enjoyed fucking me. Yeah Wayne, that gets me off... it gets me off a LOT."

He looked at me like I was some sort of abomination, the feelings if disgust like bile in his throat were being clearly expressed. His last words as he left the house were, "I just hope someday you get what you deserve... bitch!"

After he had left, I just stood there and smiled to myself. Wow, that was about as incredible as I could have ever hoped for! Now I felt so horny and hot after listening to him tell me what a bitch I was for "making" him fuck me. Yeah right, like he didn't enjoy it. I knew all that bluster at the end was just to soothe his conscience. Without a doubt he would be masturbating again soon, and this time I knew what he would be thinking about - fucking me!

I washed myself off and got dressed again to rejoin the party. That night the bed was so empty without Brenda in it. I could only imagine what was going on between her and Gary right now! As I laid there with my fingertip lightly caressing my clit, my thoughts drifted to Wayne. Was he in bed with his wife now? Was he feeling guilty about what he had done with me? Odds were he wasn't, even if he was trying to convince himself that he was. Yes, he had loved fucking me just as much as I enjoyed him fucking me. Too bad they weren't sleeping in the house instead of Brenda's parents. Who knows, maybe I could have had an encore performance from him!

I never did see Wayne again. He made a point of keeping away from the guest house the final morning of my rip. Was it because he was afraid he might be tempted again or was he really upset that he had fucked me? Did it matter? I got what I wanted.

6. June 8, The Best Man

I woke up alone in bed, momentarily disoriented. This wasn't my room! Where was I? Heck, what DAY was it? Then my thoughts began to get sorted out and I remembered I wasn't in Pittsburgh, I was in Florida! Last night my old roomie had gotten married and afterwards I'd fucked her dad. Yeah, it was all coming back to me now. What a wedding - and reception.

As I laid there getting my act together, I couldn't help but wonder where the week had gone? It seemed impossible that my trip was about to come to an end already when it barely seemed to have started. What a week it had been! Would I ever get to snorkel again? Doing it bottomless was an bonus, giving me a bit more to remember it by. The Everglades had been spectacular and the airboat ride had been a thrill of a lifetime! Even without fun we had with the bachelorette party, it was well worth the trip just to see the scenery and wildlife. To be up close and personal with creatures I'd never seen outside a zoo before was more than I had ever imagined doing this past week.

After several days of nothing but girl-girl sex, I had been hungry (well, more like starving) for some real cock and look who stepped up to the plate but none other than the bride's married brother! Of course, it wasn't our first time but the circumstances certainly were unique and made it memorable. Finally, there had been the wedding yesterday and then the reception afterwards. Really, who would have guessed at the beginning of the week that the groom's father would fuck me during the reception? Not me, that's for sure.

My plane was scheduled to departure until the middle of the afternoon so there wasn't a huge rush to get going so I just laid there in bed, sprawled out naked as I continued to recall all of the events of the past week. As I got horny I started to think of my boyfriend back home. Wow, what would Duane say if he knew what all I'd done this past week? For that matter, what had HE been doing. We had talked on the phone numerous times, but neither of us had told the other anything about what we had been doing sexually, if anything. It wasn't like we were exclusive or engaged but at the same time, I felt we were a little closer than just your typical boyfriend-girlfriend arrangement. Duane was well aware of the majority of my "experiences" growing up except, of course, those that dealt with incest, so it wasn't like he would have been all that surprised about the things I'd done.

The same went for Duane's sexual history. I knew he certainly wasn't any virgin when we met. Heck, the first time we ever saw each other was at a BJ party several years earlier. For that matter, he'd fucked my cousin a while back and even did her mom at the time. For him to call me a slut would certainly have been the kettle calling the pot black.

The more I dreamed of Duane, the hornier I got. He was supposed to pick me up at the airport this evening and I wondered how far we would get before I had his incredible cock out and sucking on it. Could he wait until we got back to my place or would he pull over and fuck me on the way? Both scenarios had their advantages and disadvantages and I would be perfectly happy with either one. The more I dreamed of sucking his dick in the car, the more my pussy was tingling and my fingers started to move harder and faster around my clit.

God I was SO horny for his cock! Getting fucked by David, Brenda's older married brother, on someone's boat had been exciting, and having the groom's father commit adultery with me for the first time was another notch on my "belt", but neither of those could satisfy me the way sex with Duane did. David and Wayne were just about having fun, enjoying the physical side of it as well as the naughty element each brought with them. With Duane, it was developing into much more than just sex.

God I wanted Duane's dick in me right then! I threw off the sheet that had been covering me and thrust my middle finger deep inside of me, sighing as I imagined my finger was Duane's much better endowed cock. Oh yeah, fuck me Duane! I continued to masturbate, driving myself to a couple of orgasms as I dreamed of all the ways I wanted Duane to fuck me when I finally got him tonight. I was lying there still, my hand cupping my soaking wet pussy after yet another orgasm when there was a light knocking on the bedroom door.

"Are you awake Kelly?" I heard Brenda's mom calling through the door, "Breakfast will be ready soon if you want any."

Oh yeah, once again I had to remember I was in Florida with things to do. I managed to roll out of bed, my pussy throbbing after what had turned into just over an hour of solid masturbation. Suddenly, I REALLY had to go to the bathroom so after a long pee I showered and threw on a robe, leaving my hair wet as I headed down barefoot to the kitchen and dining room.

As I took a seat at the table, memories of the previous night flooded my mind. Hmmm, which chair had Wayne been in when I was sitting on his cock? Was it my imagination or was there some dried cum still on the floor from where it had drained out of me after he'd cum in me?

The table was pretty packed with Brenda's parents and her brother David at one end, and the rest of us girls at the other. I was the only one leaving today, the rest of them either flying back late in the week or driving home. As we ate, we talked about the wedding and how wonderful it had been. Someone had already printed off some photos from the ceremony which we passed around. I will say one thing, we had made the hottest bridal party I've ever seen at a wedding!

"So Kelly, what time is your flight again today?" Doreen asked. I told her it was just after 3:00 and she did some calculation in her head. "Hmm, guess you'll be heading out soon then, right?"

It would take a couple of hours to get back to the airport and I figured I should be there a couple of hours before the flight to be safe. It was already past 9:00 AM so yeah, I guess I DID have to get going soon. It then occurred to me we hadn't really discussed how I would get back. When I arrived, Brenda had picked me but she was off gallivanting around with her new husband. I looked at the girls but they weren't much help. Doreen explained she had promised them all a tour of the dolphin rescue center and there wasn't time to do that and run me to the airport.

"Paul, can you drive Kelly to the airport." Brenda's mom asked.

Paul was Gary's brother and had been the best man at the wedding. Although he was single, he hadn't shown the slightest bit of interest in any of us girls other than an occasional glance, no different than most of the other guys. About all I knew of him was that he was a couple of years older than Gary which would have made him around 28. In my opinion, he was the better looking of the two brothers but of course, I had NEVER mentioned that observation to Brenda!

"Whatever, so long as I get back for this evening," he said, not sounding exactly thrilled over the idea of shuttling me around.

Apparently he had made plans to go out fishing with some guy in the evening so as long as my needs didn't interfere with that, he was OK with it. As he turned to walk out, he looked at his dad and then back at me again. There was something in his expression I couldn't quite make out. Oh well, maybe I would find out on the ride to the airport.

I thanked him and once breakfast was over, I said my goodbyes to the girls. They had all been really sweet to me and I had to wonder why I hadn't thought of sleeping at their hotel with them last night instead of spending it alone. Sometimes I have to wonder whether my head is screwed on straight! Odds were I wouldn't have been masturbating alone this morning, THAT was for sure.

Back in my room, I quickly got dressed and started packing up my things. One nice feature about Florida, you don't have to worry about pack a lot of bulky clothes! As I was zipping up my suitcase, the door opened and in walked David. He closed the door behind him and my Spidey sense went right off the scale.

"Good morning my little slut. It's too bad you can't stay another day or two," he said conversationally, "We could have had some more fun together, you know?"

Yeah, like he had to spell THAT out for me. I knew what kind of fun David was looking for. Actually, he should've been happy to do me the one time. My "policy" is to never fuck a married guy twice but in David's case, it was special because he was my roomie's brother and I was responsible for getting them together the first time. I had "forgotten" to mention that little detail to Wayne the previous night when he talked about me wanting to get him to fuck me again but then, who cares?

"I think you need to go home and be with your wife instead of fucking your sister and her friends," I teased him. I knew how he felt about the bitch he lived with!

"Yeah right," he joked back, understanding that I was just teasing him. He moved up to me and put his arms around me, his hands immediately starting to grope my crotch and boobs. I pushed him away gently but firmly.

"Sorry David, but I really DO need to get going. I can't miss my flight you know."

"So are you gonna join the Mile High Club; or are you already a card-carrying member?" he teased back.

I just gave him a sour look and motioned for him to leave. Since he wasn't going to be fucking me, I didn't need to waste time with his crap. Soon I was packed. It was actually just a single suitcase and my purse so I was able to carry it downstairs on my own. The girls had left for Marathon Key so it was just me and Brenda's family. They had always been so nice to me over the years while Brenda and I were at college. Of course her mom and dad didn't have a clue about ALL of the things we did, but that was probably for the best anyway.

I hugged her mom and said goodbye to her dad and brother. Paul was waiting for me by his car. He was on his phone and distracted but when I came up to him he hung up and was pleasant enough. Actually, from what I'd seen all week he was a pretty nice guy. He had helped a lot with the wedding preparations and although the guys were pretty mum about it, from what little I'd heard he had thrown quite the bachelor party for his little brother.

The trip back towards the airport was rather uneventful at the start. During the course of the week I'd made the journey from the Miami area to the Keys a couple of times now so it wasn't all new anymore. Even so, I was still fascinated to see everything and as it turned out, Paul was quite a tour guide, telling me about the history of the area and what things were as we passed them. Along the way, I couldn't help but notice he looked pretty good in his denim shorts and tank top. It wasn't like his shorts were anything like mine as guys don't wear theirs high enough to reveal their ass but they still were tight enough to show me he kept in good shape and obviously spent a lot of time outside judging from his tan.

Although Paul was pleasant enough to me, there was also something distant, even cold about the way he reacted to me. It was like he was being nice because he was supposed to be nice, not because he wanted to be. The more I watched and tried to figure it out, the more it seemed as if there was something about me he didn't like but he didn't want to say anything, probably because he knew in a short time I would be gone so what would be the point. Even so, it bugged me and the irritation in me grew with each mile and each bland comment he made. Well, I've never been very good at keeping things inside of me and finally I just HAD to ask.

"That's nice Paul and I appreciate it, but do you mind telling me what's going on?"

Paul stopped his latest guide book tale of the history of the town we had just passed through and looked at me as if he had no idea what I was talking about. "Excuse me? What do you mean by that?" he asked innocently but I wasn't buying it. Not for a second.

"Like, did I do something wrong or what? It's just I get this feeling you don't like me."

"It's nothing to worry about, you're OK."

Paul started in again on his tour guide routine, as if trying to deflect anything else along that topic but I wasn't going to let it go at that. From his last comment it seemed there was SOMETHING bugging him but for whatever reason he wasn't going to tell me.

"C'mon Paul... what's the story?"

This time he seemed to get the picture that I wasn't going to let the matter drop. The artificial smile dropped and he looked at me with a more stern expression this time. My heart started to race a bit and I had to wonder if maybe this was a box of worms I should've left closed.

"What's with it with girls like you anyway?" he griped. I looked at him, not knowing how to respond. What the heck was THIS all about anyway?

"I mean, just because you were lucky enough to be born with a hot body, why do you have to be a slut? Why do you have to treat men like shit?"

Wow, now I was really confused. Paul and I had barely exchanged a word all week so where was all the hostility coming from. Had someone else done something to him this week and he was taking it out on me?

"I don't understand...," I started to say but he cut me off.

"Do you have any idea what you did to my father last night? Do you even care? Was he just some toy for you to play with and then discard when you got tired of it? Have you even thought about him today and how he might be feeling after last night?"

The words jumped out of him in tight, staccato bursts, like a machine gun on full automatic aimed straight at my conscience. Damn, talk about coming at you out of the blue! How the hell did he even KNOW about last night? I'd figured there was no way his dad would ever confess to anyone what he had done to me, let alone to his son. Paul must have sensed my confusion.

"Just so you know, he wasn't going to tell anyone. I found him crying on the deck early this morning when he thought he was alone and that's when he broke down and told me what you did to him."

"What I did to HIM?" I responded incredulously, "It's not like someone had a gun to his head forcing him to fuck me you know."

"Well, maybe not physically but you know damn well you may as well have. My dad's a decent and loving man but not exactly the strongest in the world when it comes to avoiding temptation. I know him and he would never have cheated on my mother unless someone forced him to do it."

I felt my face redden, not from embarrassment but from frustration and anger. "Oh give me break Paul! OK, so I opened the door but he's the one who walked through it, you have to admit THAT."

"Let's just quit the games bitch, you know exactly what you did and why you did it. You're just a fucking whore who gets her kicks out of coercing men to do her bidding."

Well, the "whore" part wasn't exactly to my liking but I had to admit, he WAS right about when it came to coercing men. At the same time, so what? It was just a game for me and in the end, if we both enjoyed having sex what was so bad about it? I was willing to bet far more men went home and masturbated about being with me than regretted it. Now that Paul had started, he wasn't about to quit until he'd cleared his chest.

"I just hope someday YOU find out what it's like to have some little young whore seduce YOUR husband. Maybe it won't be so funny to you then when it's your husband that's being taken advantage of."

Well, enough was enough and I was getting a little pissed at him and his high morals. Who was he to tell me what was right and wrong? I didn't do a thing to force his father to do anything he didn't want to so enough of this blame game and rationalizations. God, next thing he would be trotting out the "devil made me do it" excuse. It was time to stand up for myself.

"You know... fuck you Paul. I'm not ashamed of anything I've done, least of all with your father.

He wanted me Paul, yes... he WANTED to fuck me. When he came inside of me, he wasn't thinking of your mother Paul, he was thinking of how good his dick felt inside of ME. That's what bugs you, doesn't it Paul. You don't really give a damn that he fucked me, it's that he ENJOYED it, isn't it? Did he tell you how he told me I was a better fuck than your mother had ever been? Did he tell you how much better my pussy felt than hers? Yeah Paul, he told me ALL those things and a lot more. So fuck you!"

After my little speech, we both just sat there steaming, each of us too mad and upset to say anything else. The airport was only 30-45 minutes away but I had a feeling it was going to feel like an eternity. What happened next was totally unexpected. Paul suddenly veered off onto an exit ramp, zoomed through the automatic toll gate and turned down a side street. Where the hell was he going? That was when a feeling of panic hit me. Was he going to dump me off in some bad neighborhood? There were more than a few areas around Miami that weren't all that safe for a white twenty-something girl to be on her own on the street. Oh my God, this could get to be a serious situation - fast!

"Ummmmm, Paul... where are we going?" I asked timidly, all signs of my earlier bluster gone. There was a time and place to be a bitch, this wasn't one of them.

"Just shut the fuck up whore," was all he said in response. His face was burning red and I could see the veins in his neck sticking out. God he looked seriously pissed off. Had I pushed a little TOO far this time?

He seemed to know the area somehow as he twisted and turned through several stop signs and stoplights. Then he turned into what looked to be some sort of warehouse or storage complex. I couldn't read the rusted sign outside the broken gate but there was junk and litter piled everyone - and not a soul in sight. My cell phone was buried at the bottom of my purse so I figured if it came down to it, I could make a run for it and then try to call someone. Only one small problem with that plan - who would I call?! Paul went around back of an old abandoned building, the doors broken from their hinges and pulled the car inside. It was dim inside, the only light coming in from the door and the broken skylights way up high in the ceiling. Paul stopped the car and then turned in his seat to face me.

"You know, I was thinking and I wonder how you would feel if someone took advantage of you the way you took advantage of my dad last night."

Uh-oh, I didn't like the direction this was going. "Ummmmm, Paul... my plane leave in a few hours. Why not just take me to the airport. You'll never see me again and we can both just forget all this ever happened, ok?"

Paul just huffed with a disgusted expression on his face. "Yeah right. And then whose gonna to tell my dad that it all never happened? How can he ever feel right again? Who's gonna pay for what you did to him?"

"Now Paul, nobody has to 'pay' for anything. What's done is done and life goes on."

"Fuck that!" Paul practically spat out the words. "I think somebody needs to show you what it's like to be forced to do something you don't want to. Yeah... that's right, you need someone to do to you what you did to him last night, make him have sex against his wishes."

"But that's not fair! Your dad wanted it and...," I tried to defend myself but Paul cut me off in mid-sentence.

"Just cut that crap, I'm tired of listening to it. For all practical purposes, you raped my father."

Paul paused for a moment, letting the impact of what he was about to say build. He looked at me with a grin, but it was like the grin of a demon. "Yeah, you know what's going down, don't ya bitch. I'm going to rape you... and I'm going to enjoy every minute of it, just like you enjoyed raping my dad."

For a moment I wanted to laugh at him but I quickly fought back the urge. Heck, an hour ago I was dreaming of him fucking me so how could he possible think he was going to somehow rape me? Hell, I had WANTED him to fuck me the stupid jerk!

Then I began to understand things a little better. In a way, I guess you could say it was indeed like me with his father. Sure his father desired me, but only as a female with a tight pussy and he would have never done it if I hadn't pushed the issue. Right now, I desired Paul but only as an object, a male with a hard dick. My thoughts until a few moments ago had been focused on getting to the airport and flying home to my boyfriend, not fucking Paul. Now, after all that had gone on between us, the last thing on my mind was fucking Paul. However, he seemed to have other plans. Paul got out of the car, leaving me alone as he walked around to the passenger door. He pulled it open and reached inside, grabbing my upper arm and practically pulling me from the car.

"Strip."

I looked at him as if I hadn't heard him. Actually, I'd heard him perfectly well but I was stalling, unsure of what he really wanted from me.

"I said strip, dammit. Get those clothes off before I rip them off for you."

Meekly, I slid my shorts down and undid my blouse. I wasn't wearing any underwear but rather than turn him on the way it did most guys, somehow it seemed to piss him off even more for some reason.

"Shit... no bra or panties, eh? That figures. God, you really ARE nothing but a damn whore."

OK, what could I say? Personally, I don't buy that going without underwear makes you a prostitute, it simply feels better. Not to mention it also can get you some nice looks from the guys - not to mention a few girls as well.

Paul then undid his shorts and dropped them, along with his jockey underwear, to the floor, stepping out of them to reveal his cock hanging flaccid from his crotch. For whatever reason, the first thought that went through my mind was it was the first dick I'd seen in Florida that wasn't already erect as soon as it was out in the open in front of me. Despite the situation, my pussy tingled a little bit as I realized just far it was hanging down. Damn, Paul was hung like a race horse! My eyes couldn't break away from his incredible dick, something he noticed as well.

"Yeah, I see you're nothing but a fucking dick-loving slut alright. Doesn't matter what the situation, put any ol' dick in front of you and you salivate like Pavlov's dog," Paul declared with a huff. "Shit, just look at you... you're practically drooling, aren't you bitch? You want some of this dick, don't you? You're just dying to have it, I can tell."

OK, so he was a jerk, a conceited one at that. The sad thing was, he was right. God, his dick was incredible! Even with it just hanging there limp he was larger than his dad had been when he was rock hard. Holy smokes, I could only imagine how much it would grow when he became more aroused. At the same time, it somewhat irritated me that he obviously knew how glorious his dick was and it clearly made him feel good to know I wanted it – badly.

"Come on bitch, just say no... just try saying with a straight face that you don't want this dick and we'll pack up and head to the airport and do it just like you said before, just forget it all happened."

He did something to make his cock twitch and I could actually feel my pussy getting wetter as that monster dangled in front of me like a fat worm on a hook in front of a hungry fish. Hell with the airport, I wanted it. It was like the rest of the world just phased out as all I could look at, all I could think about, was his incredible cock. I started to reach out for it but he backed away, leaving my hand grasping air.

"I knew it, you can't resist it, can you? You can't say no to a dick like mine, can you? You want it.. hell, you NEED it. Beg for it slut, beg for my dick."

While I may not always be the sharpest knife in the drawer, it was obvious what he was doing. Even so, but there nothing I could do to stop him. It was like when I offered myself to his dad, teasing him with my nude body and telling him he just had to ask for it and it was his. Well, just as his dad couldn't say no to me, I couldn't say no to Paul's incredible dick either. His dad must have realized that he might never have another opportunity to have sex with a girl like me again.

For me, it was a similar situation in that I had to wonder when I would have another cock as huge as this one. God it looked incredible! Despite my feelings for Paul, even though I despised him and thought of him as nothing but a conceited asshole, I wanted his cock. In the meantime, Paul was growing more and more impatient with me.

"Well, are you going to beg for it or not, slut?" he demanded. He started to reach for his shorts as if he was going to rescind his offer.

Was he bluffing or serious? I wasn't ready to risk it. No way was I losing out on THIS opportunity! The more I thought about it, the more I figured the hell with it. Really, so what if I had to beg a little for it? As much as he might think he was humiliating me the way I had done to his father, the difference was that I didn't mind it and I also knew that later on I wouldn't regret it. Why Paul thought putting me in this situation would leave me crushed the way his father had been was beyond me. Was he that egotistical? Sure, I wasn't thrilled with Paul as a person, but in the end who cared so long since all I was interested in was located below his waist anyway? If I had to let Paul think he was somehow exacting revenge on me for somehow being the driving force behind his father's indiscretions in order to get a dose of that cock, then so be it. Yes sir, I could play this game ALL day...

"Please Paul... please let me suck your enormous dick... Oh God it's so big and I want it so bad!" I said, pretending to be overwhelmed by the enormity of his member.

He seemed to be buying my little act. If he only knew how hard I was fighting down the urge to burst out laughing at my silly little show I was putting on for him. Paul held his dick in his hand and let it flop like a large sausage right in front of me. From the looks of things, he was starting to get a little turned on himself! He grinned, probably thinking he had "won".

"I bet you haven't had a dick like mine before, have you slut?" he bragged.

Well, I wasn't about to tell him he was certainly big, but not the biggest I'd ever seen. No point in bursting his bubble and besides, he WAS most likely in the top 5 or better of all the dicks I'd ever had.

"Oh my god, it's so big...I don't think I could EVER take it all," I exclaimed, acting if I was some virginal school girl seeing her first big dick.

Paul was such as asshole with an ego even bigger than his dick that he took it all, hook, line, and sinker. He stepped forward enough for me to get my hand around him. Damn, even with it still mostly flaccid my fingers barely wrapped around it! He could never wear any kind of tight bathing suit without being arrested for indecent exposure - even WITH the suit on!

Taking a deep breath, I leaned forward just enough to let me start sucking the head of his dick. I had to open wide to take him in and to be honest, for a moment I had serious reservations as to whether or not I would be able to take him all. With all my experience, I sort of took it as a given these days that no matter what a guy may be packing, I would be able to take his entire dick in my mouth. It had been years since the last time I had any significant problem with it. Well, today was going to be a challenge, that was for sure.

"C'mon you whore, stop playing with it and take some more," Paul growled in a low deep voice.

He put his one hands behind my head and roughly pulled me into him, driving his dick into my mouth, forcing me to take more and more of it. As soft as he still was, it went in pretty easily and I was able to bury my face in his crotch, his thick pubic hair pressing against my cheeks as I took him in completely. Well, that was the easy part as it turned out.

"Play with my balls," he commanded. They were hanging loose in their sacks, large and hairy and feeling a little damp with sweat. Actually, with the oppressive humidity and Florida heat his entire crotch had a strong sweaty smell to it but that was OK with me.

I gently massaged his balls with one hand while I held his dick by the base with the other, supporting it as I started seriously sucking on it. He grew quickly and I could feel him pressing deeper and deeper into my mouth as he did until finally I had to take him down my throat to get him all in. At first he was barely able to reach down and my gag reflex almost made me puke but I regained my composure and continued. He grew even longer and now was fitting deep into my throat, deep enough to get past my gag reflex and fit tight into my throat. My mouth actually hurt a bit from having to stretch so far open to take him all in.

"Damn, you're doing it," he muttered, maybe more to himself than to me. Clearly he was amazed that I was able to take all of him in mouth, especially now that he was hard, or at least as hard as he was going to get.

One thing I've learned over the years about erections is that the larger the dick, the less rigid and upward pointing it becomes when the guy is aroused. In this case, Paul's cock was more like a firm sausage than a piece of steel or wood but it was fine for me. Most of the time I just took in the head or licked the shaft from top to bottom. Now and then I would treat him to a full deep throat and then go back to "normal" cocksucking techniques.

As I sucked his dick, marveling at the size of it while at the same time trying to keep my mouth open wide enough so as not to bite him or let my teeth cut into him as he stroked it in and out of me. It was sort of like being at my dentist when she says to open wide and it seems like eternity before you can close your mouth again. That same soreness in the jaws was how my mouth felt now after sucking Paul's wonderful dick. It got to the point where I was about to be forced to take a break and let my mouth relax for a few moments but Paul saved me, probably unknowingly but saved me all the same.

"I bet your whore cunt wants my dick now, doesn't it," he bragged to me, "You must be all wet now thinking about having my giant cock drilled up in that slutty cunt of yours."

Actually, he was right, at least for the most part. I DID want him in me but yet I knew he was just taunting me. The idea of all this, at least from his perspective, seemed to be to teach me some sort of "lesson". For me to suddenly go along with the idea of him fucking me would have been unrealistic, at least under these circumstances. I didn't want him to know that I was playing along with him, that I was really the one in control of things and not him.

"Oh Paul, please just let me suck it, it's too big to fit in my little pussy," I pretended to plead to him.

Of course, he would have nothing of that (thank God!). Oh well, little did he know my pussy had seen bigger although it HAD been quite a while since anything the size of him had been in me. I knew he would fit and I couldn't wait to try him on for size!

"Oh no... you're not getting off THAT easy, bitch. You're gonna find out how it feels to have a ten inch dick in your cunt."

Just as a note to guys who are fascinated with their own dicks and are proud of them. Yes, while size DOES matter, for me it is more important how thick a dick is than how long it is. The fatter the dick, the more it stretches me out and the more sensitive my pussy seems to become. The only thing length does it let a guy play a longer "note" in me. What I mean by that is I try to tell people that fucking me is like playing a violin where his dick is the bow and my nerve endings at the entrance to my pussy are the strings.

It feels so wonderful when a guy strokes his hard dick in and out of me. Just as running a bow over the strings provides a pleasing sound, so a dick rubbing over my sensitive nerve endings provides intense pleasure. A longer bow allows for a longer note without a break. So it is with a long cock; it allows the man to play a longer "note" within my pussy. Of course, that only applies if he is fucking me slow and deep. Doing me fast or limiting the depth of penetration creates no better feelings in me a guys with a short dick would produce.

Paul's dick was the best of both worlds - long AND thick. I didn't have a ruler but judging by how my hands fit on his shaft, his declaration that he was ten inches was probably pretty close to being the truth, maybe even an understatement. My hand barely fit around his shaft, meaning he was considerably larger than average but then I'd gripped many a guy much shorter than him who had the same girth.

"Please Paul... please don't hurt me," I pleaded to him. I hoped I wasn't going TOO overboard with the silly pleas for mercy. I didn't want him to think I was just playing him, even if I really was.

"Shit, you want it and you know it. You're just a fucking whore who loves dicks."

With that he pushed me back into the car so I was sitting on the seat with my legs out the door. I put one foot up on the door armrest and let the other rest on the ground, spreading myself open for him, exposing myself to him completely and unashamedly, just like the whore he was claiming I was.

"Yeah... I knew it," he gloated, "Look at that fucking cunt. Damn, you're soaking wet already. What a fucking whore."

"No... it's too big, you're going to hurt me," I whined as he started to press it against my pussy hole.

Actually, it DID feel too big and if I hadn't taken one even bigger in the past, I might have thought it was going to be impossible for such a monster to fit inside of me. Having the confidence that came with experience helped me emotionally, but physically I still had to deal with his larger than life dick. I was proud of my tight pussy as it put up a glorious fight, resisting the giant invader valiantly but Paul was not to be denied. I don't think he cared how it made me feel or whether to not it was hurting me. Now that he was trying to push his dick into me he was not going to stop until it WAS in me, one way or another.

Finally his dick was in me, just enough that the bulbous head penetrated me and forced its way inside of me. God, I thought I was being split in two like a steel wedge in a block of wood! It was like having a baby, only in reverse (well, as I imagine having a baby might feel).

"Shit, you're tighter than I expected for being a whore," he grunted as he gathered himself to drive himself deeper in me.

Wow, hat trick! All three guys who fucked me this week had told me my pussy was tight. Hmmmmmm, I had to be careful or I might start having a bit of an ego issue!

"Well, your dick is bigger than I expected after your father's puny cock," I retorted, at the same time lifting my hips to give him a better angle for pushing himself into me. God it felt HUGE in me! He would push hard and then relax and then push hard again. Each time his dick would drill a little deeper into me, maybe an inch or less with each push until about half his dick was in me.

"Fuck me Paul... please fuck me," I begged him, telling him what I knew he wanted to hear from me. It wasn't all that hard since I really DID want him to fuck me.

Paul pulled out a little and then pushed it back in me again to about where he was before. He repeated the process and then again and again and again. Each time he would pull out a little bit further while at the same time penetrating me a little more on the inward stroke. It was like my first time all over again as my pussy was stretched further than it was used to. I hate to even think of how it might have gone had I not been so aroused and wet. Paul never seemed to care about my feelings, only his. Had I been drier, I'm sure he would have fucked me anyway, regardless of how it tore me up.

"Oh god you're so big... it feel so big inside of me... oh god, put it all in me Paul!" I continued my dirty talking to him.

Actually, this time I wasn't fibbing or exaggerating - he really WAS big in me and I really DID want him all in me. Paul was getting pretty turned on but now as well and he was thrusting his dick harder and harder into me until I felt him deep inside of me, pushing up against my cervix which wasn't exactly the best feeling in the world but at the same time, it amazed me that he could be so far inside of me.

"How's it feel to have a REAL dick in you bitch... bet you've never had so much dick in you at one time before, have you?"

He wanted his ego massaged and under the circumstances, I was more than willing to go along with it. After all, he DID have a lot of dick in me so it was only polite to indulge him at least a little bit.

"I've never felt this full before, never felt so much cock in me before, oh my god, I'm gonna cum soon!"

I had been toying with my clit for the entire time he had been fucking me. Paul was holding onto the door and the back of the seat to keep his balance as he fucked me, leaving nothing to rub my pussy so I took matters into my own hands - literally. Between the insanity of his thick dick inside of me and the touch of my fingertips against my hyper-sensitive clit, .there was little doubt as to the outcome - and soon.

Just then Paul pulled his dick out of me in one quick movement. He grabbed his wet slick shaft with his hand and started stroking himself right in front of me.

What the hell was the bastard doing now? I was about to cum and I imagined so was he so why not finish in my pussy where I wanted it? I reached out for him, taking my hand from my pussy but he slapped it away from him.

"Oh no, you're going to have to finish yourself off - in front of me. Get going, masturbate for me and cum - NOW, before I do," he said authoritatively. He was being such a bastard and no doubt thought he was in charge. I was a little pissed because I really had wanted to feel his cum that deep inside of me. Oh well, as hot and horny as I was, I just wanted to cum and if that meant doing it myself with just my fingers, then so be it. I closed my eyes and played with myself and it wasn't long before I was moaning up a storm as my orgasm struck.

As I felt my orgasm heat up my body yet send shivers thought me from head to toe, I felt something hit my face. I opened my eyes to see Paul's' dick about an inch from my mouth, spurting cum out like a fire hydrant as he literally milked his cock in front of me. I closed my eyes again, just in time as it turned out as I felt some of his cum hit my eyelid. God, he was making me a total mess! As my orgasm slowly dies, I tried to wipe the cum from my eye so I could open it. Blinking rapidly, I saw Paul standing there, his dick already starting to dwindle but the smile on his face was large than ever. He seemed quite pleased with himself.

I could only imagine what a mirror would tell me right now. I could feel it on my face and neck, looking down, it was on my boobs and some of it had even dripped down to the tops of my thighs and stomach. I was exhausted and my pussy felt like it had been fucked for days instead of just a few minutes. God, I hadn't been this sore even after my 24 hour marathon fuck way back when! As sore as I felt, at the same time it was a "good" feeling. Maybe it was the adrenalin coursing through me, but I felt incredibly hot and sexy. What I really wanted was to be fucked again but Paul was already getting dressed so it looked like that option was off the table.

I looked around but didn't see anything to wipe myself off with. I reached in the back seat to my suitcase and opened it up. There weren't any towels so I used one of my tops to clean myself off with. Oh well, I would be home sometime tonight and could wash it then. I quickly dressed before Paul could get any brilliant ideas about making me stay nude while he drove. Under different circumstances that might have been hot but I looked at my watch and saw I only had a few hours before my plane left and we still had to get to the airport!

As we got back on the toll road and headed once again for the airport, Paul turned to me and grinned naughtily at me. "See what it's like when someone offers you something you can't refuse? You hated me but when I showed you my dick, you had to have it despite yourself. THAT'S what you did to my dad so maybe next time you think about playing games with someone's life you'll think twice."

I just nodded, like a little girl who had been bad and was accepting my dad's proclamation of guilt and punishment. If he only knew what I was REALLY thinking! What an idiot. All along I'd been wondering how to get laid today, especially as old as he had been to me, and then he thinks he "forced" me to have sex with him? So I had broken his dad's heart by somehow seducing him and "forcing" him to have sex outside of marriage. Really? Actually, that was pretty cool from my point of view.

I don't respect men who cheat on their wives. The fact his father didn't have enough willpower to say now is HIS fault, not mine. My dad has been married to my mom for over 25 years and over that time, has faced enormous temptations with my friends and other girls in my life. Never has he given into temptation and cheated on my mother. Well if my dad could do it, so could his but his dad couldn't. Sorry Paul, not my fault. Bottom line, rather than teaching me a "lesson" or "punishing me", all he had really done was reinforce the feelings I had after fucking his father. Cool!

By the time we got to the airport I had an hour and a half to make my flight. With all the security regulations I had to check my bag or lose all my makeup but even so, I made the flight in plenty of time.

Duane picked me up as promised. As horny as I was after the incident with Paul, any bets as to what happened on the way home?

(Jun 24) Chapter 164: On the Boat

Story codes: MF FF exhib oral inc father daughter
Me (23)
John - my dad (43)
Duane - my boyfriend (29)
Kristen - cousin (21)

I simply LOVE to water ski. About the only thing better to do on a boat is... well, you know. Combine the two and you have a great day. Add in your boyfriend and you have all the ingredients for a FANTASTIC day!

1. A Klutz That Can Ski

I may be known for a lot of things, some good, some maybe not so good, but athleticism is NOT generally one of my better attributes. Anything involving striking a moving object with a stick is simply beyond me. An evil high school PE teacher once told me I was the worst tennis player he'd ever seen! (So much for building self-esteem.) The only reason I would even think about going bowling would be if there was someone with me I wanted to watch my ass! Snow skiing was never something I could get the hang of and besides, it's too damn COLD! Despite being an almost universal klutz, there is one thing I can do well - water ski. Please don't ask me why I can ski on water but not snow or why I can keep my balance holding a rope but not when roller skating. Only God knows!

My parents have owned a ski boat of one sort or another for as long as I can remember. Unfortunately, with their work schedules we don't get to use it a lot but I love it every time we get a chance to take it out. They started me water skiing when I was little so I guess I learned to do it before I found out I was an uncoordinated klutz who shouldn't be able to stand on two skis, let alone one.

It seems today not many people have the patience to learn to ski and would rather just hop on a tube so it's great to go whizzing by them on my slalom ski and show off my skills a bit. Of course, as I got older I found it was a great way to show off other things as well! One thing that I love about being out on a boat is I get to wear just about nothing and nobody hassles me like they would at a public pool or something. The ski vest hides a lot on top but I guys seem quite happy to stare at my ass as I flyby them and smiled. Of course, the fact it was essentially bare with nothing but a small thong didn't hurt.

Another great thing about boats is they can be a great place for something I enjoy even more than skiing - sex. You can find some pretty private places on a big lake, even on a busy day. For those days when I feel a little more ambitious (i.e. horny), it's amazing how much you can get away with right in the middle of a crowded lake with nothing but the sides of the boat to hide what you're doing. Those who have read my diary know that I've taken advantage of both opportunities.

Usually we go skiing on a weekend when my dad can help with the boat and drive. Most summers we left the boat at the marina even though my dad wasn't thrilled about it, especially if we didn't use it much and it just sat in the water the whole time. The good thing was by leaving it at the marina, we could use it without him to help get it in and out of the water.

So far this summer it seemed something or another was always going on and so finally my mom decided to use one of her days off and just head down to the lake on our own. She had called my Aunt Linda, her sister, and invited her and her daughter Kristen along. Normally that would have been a quorum but this summer I had something that I hadn't had for quite a while - a boyfriend!

2. Meeting Duane

Back in March my best friend Beth had set me up on a date with a guy she knew. Normally I avoid blind dates like the plague and with Beth making the arrangements, I could only imagine what I was getting myself into. She assured me that she wasn't setting me up with some unwashed geek and as a matter of fact, she claimed that I already "knew" the guy (and yes, she used her fingers to make quote marks when she said "knew"). Now what was THAT supposed to mean? Usually when someone uses that phrase in that way it means "knowing" someone in the biblical sense which means you've had sex. She assured me that in this case it wasn't quite that but it was along those lines.

"OK, then what the heck ARE you referring to?" I finally blurted out over the phone to her in exasperation.

I could just imagine Beth smirking at the other end. We'd been best friends since we were little girls and shared everything - even dads (a couple of long stories there). She loved to tease me and to be fair, I loved it when she did. Beth and I had quite different tastes when it came to sex (get your minds out of the gutter - I mean tastes as in "interests"). I've always preferred the intimacy of one-to-one sex with a group thing thrown in here or there for a change in pace.

Beth, on the other hand, loved parties and gang bangs - the more the better was her mindset. She was involved with a couple of groups that met regularly for sex parties and over the years she had even dragged me along with to a few of them. I found them interesting, to say the least, and overall they were some fun experiences, but overall they left me unfilled and I always felt I wanted something more when they were over.

"OK... remember that BJ party we went to a few years back over at the house by the tennis courts?" she said slowly, letting it sink in as I struggled to dredge up old memories. In case you can't figure it out, a BJ party was where the girls gave the guys blowjobs. As a general rule, there was no sex although you always had the adventurous couple or two that would sneak off to one of the bedrooms.

I remembered the one she was talking about. Actually, my first memory was how sore my jaws were the next day after having blown what must have been around twenty guys. I hadn't even gotten undressed, or even unbuttoned, during it so needless to say, I didn't have sex with anyone. Sometimes I think it gets guys off more when I suck their dick while fully clothed, without letting them touch me or play with myself.

"OK, I remember it," I finally replied, "As I recall, we could have used a few more girls!"

Beth snickered, saying, "Well, you weren't complaining about the guy-girl ration back then!" Then she went on saying, "Remember a guy there by the name of Duane? He's about six years older than us, tall, dark hair, good looking, GREAT dick."

Sheesh, what did she think I was, some kind of computer that could just store away images and bring them back on demand? First, I don't remember ANY of the guys telling me their names at the party. Most of them just pulled out their cocks and stuck it in my face. Who needs introductions for that? Besides, I can never remember names and would probably forget my own if it wasn't on my driver's license. Second, as I said there were maybe twenty guys there. How many of them were tall with dark hair? As for a great dick, that was sort of in the eyes of the beholder, wasn't it?

"Sorry, doesn't ring a bell," I conceded.

"Well, don't tell HIM that," she sighed, "He sure remembers YOU!"

Well I would HOPE he did, even if I had no idea who he was back then. I'd like to think most guys remember my blowjobs. I DO try awful hard to make a good impression! I waited patiently, or maybe not so patiently, for Beth to spill the rest of the goods.

"So anyway, my forgetful slutty friend, I was at a party this past week and lo and behold, he was there. We got to yakking - AFTER he fucked me with some of his friends mind you, and somehow or another we got talking about that party. I guess it was the first time we'd done a party together. Then he mentioned some hot brunette slut who'd done a really great job on his dick and as he described her I knew just who he was talking about - my best friend Kelly! I went and grabbed a pic of us from my purse and he couldn't believe she was my best friend. The blond hair these days made it harder to recognize you as well."

"Cool," was all I could think of to say. I was getting a bit more impatient as to where this was all going.

"OK, OK, I get the hint. I'll get there... Gee whiz, have some patience. So anyway, I asked him if he would like to go out with you. I told him you didn't have a boyfriend (which he found hard to believe - just as I do), and that I could get him set up with you."

"Oh really?" I teased her back, "Like you're my pimp now or what?"

"Oh shut up girl! He's even more gorgeous than he was back when you blew him. Besides that, he's got money, and he's really a great guy. Oh, and not to forget, he still has that great dick AND he knows how to use it, trust me on that one!"

Well, to make the rest of a long story short, I did meet him and after our first date, I was able to tell Beth she was 100% on target - he WAS a great fuck! Yet as much as I enjoyed being with him, there was something more that I didn't quite realize until after he had dropped me off at home. I LIKED the guy. He was funny without being corny, intelligent and sarcastic - a form of humor I love yet find difficult to write about, well informed about local and current events, and an INTENSE Steelers fan, something my dad would have appreciated more than me. He dressed well without being "metro", worked for his dad's construction firm as a Site Manager (whatever that is), and lived in the basement apartment of his parent's mansion which was in an executive development as part of an industrial park south of the city.

I was thrilled when he asked me out again... and again... and yet again. Between dates I found myself thinking about him all the time and not just about how good he fucked me. I actually looked forward to a dinner out with him where we debated issues and had a good time without fooling around. I knew it was something REALLY serious when we had our first date where I didn't even give him so much as a hand-job.

Now I realize that NOT having sex might be a little opposite from what most girls would think signified getting serious with a guy, but not for me. Since breaking up with my last boyfriend so many years ago, dating has just been a way to get laid or suck a dick. After being dumped the last time, I realized that guys dated me because I put out, no matter what they might say about liking me for being ME. Well, if that was the way it was going to be, why not take advantage of it? Duane was the first guy in ages I didn't think about in just sexual terms.

People on-line always ask me what Duane knows about my family "situation". Well, I've always maintained that I wouldn't tell a guy about that until he proposes to me. Then, before I accepted, he would know ALL about me and what my expectations were for how those relationships would continue after we were married. Then, once he agreed and his proposal was still on the table, I would accept. I don't want to be in the position my Aunt Linda was in where her husband couldn't deal with her having sex with her sister and brother-in-law, not to mention her dad. They ended up divorced over it, a decision I never want to have to face.

While Duane may not know about my incestual background, he certainly knows about the rest of my sexual "resume". Heck, when you meet a guy at a BJ party, that should tell him SOMETHING about the kind of girl you are. Besides, it's not like he's some sort of choir boy himself. Beth told me he was a regular at her parties before I met him and has a reputation for being quite the stud, not a bad reference when you consider some of the hunks who attended those parties. About as close as he came to knowing about my more private affairs was that he knew Kristen and I fooled around but so far as he knew, it was just a party thing and nothing we did at home. Indeed, Duane had fucked Kristen a few times at the parties before we started dating (and maybe even afterwards).

So by now, Duane and I had been dating for just over three months. This was all new territory for me and I wondered where it would lead. I was even starting to think I loved him but had yet to tell him in those words. We weren't "exclusive" yet, and we both fucked other people although as a rule we didn't discuss it. What was interesting was that I was finding myself thinking about Duane when other guys would fuck me. When I masturbated, it was Duane that was becoming my "usual". While we never agreed to stop seeing other people, it seemed to be happening by default. Of course, there WERE those times such as when I went to Florida for Brenda's wedding where I got a little out of control, but in general I looked forward to being with Duane more than other guys.

So anyway...

Duane had never been out with me on the boat so I asked my mom if she wouldn't mind him coming along. My mom didn't hesitate a second before she agreed. I rolled my eyes at her because I knew she had an ulterior motive. Indeed, she'd been teasing me now for that past few weeks about how she couldn't wait for me to marry Duane so she could get a little of what I was getting. It had to be killing her to see us together when he came to our house, especially after I had been telling her all the details about our dates - ALL the details.

My mom takes her wedding vows VERY seriously so she would never do anything with him until he marries me but that didn't keep her from thinking about it, that was for sure. I sometimes wondered how Duane would react if he knew her true motives behind her playful teasing of him about marrying me and making me an "honest girl".

At 42, my mom is still pretty hot and I caught Duane stealing a look more than once when she was wearing one of her skimpier bikinis out on the deck. Something told me he wouldn't be hard to convince when the day came and I told him how married life with me was REALLY going to be.

Duane didn't hesitate to take a day off work when I asked him if he wanted to go with us. I guess what guy wouldn't take advantage of a day out on a lake with two girls he'd fucked and their hot moms? I had no idea how the day was going to go. I DID know for sure one thing, he wouldn't be fucking my mom or Aunt Linda but as for me and Kristen, that was something I was looking forward to.

My gut feeling was that Kristen was going to be a bit disappointed. Duane knew that I knew he'd fucked Kristen before but it was never anything that personal, just another pairing off at a sex party. That was a LOT different from doing her privately with me along, especially with our moms there. If only he knew both our moms would have loved nothing more than to watch him screw their daughters but that's sort of hard to explain to a guy without telling him the rest of the story behind it.

Being divorced, my Aunt Linda would have had no qualms fucking Duane; it wouldn't be the first time she had done one of Kristen's boyfriends. But in this case, Duane was MY boyfriend so it would be a little more awkward and knowing Duane as well I was getting to know him, I just couldn't see it happening.

3. Morning Sex With My Dad

It was almost two hours to get to the lake at one of the state parks in West Virginia. We didn't want to get there TOO early while it was still cool but we also didn't want to face the noon-time crowd. Everyone was to meet at our house and from there we would pick up the boat at the storage place and head south. My dad knew about our plans, of course, and I think he was unhappy he couldn't attend. He would never have told us NOT to go but the disappointment in his eyes was apparent the night before when he was helping my mom get the SUV ready. Well, I knew just the thing to do to help reduce his disappointment!

For the past couple of years now, my dad and I had developed a "tradition" where he would come to my room before he went to work and get himself off. Sometimes it was nothing more than masturbating as he watched me sleeping nude in my bed (one of the few times he actually saw me nude when we weren't having sex or in the hot tub). Usually that was when I was really tired and didn't wake up when he came in. Later I would wake up and find the "evidence", usually on my boobs and face. Most of the time he would put his dick in my face and I would wake up with the feel of his cock pushing into my mouth.

Sometimes I would just suck him off and other times, if he had the time, it might lead to him fucking me. On rare occasions, my favorite "wakeup call" was when I was really tired but rather than masturbating over me, he would get in bed with me and try to fuck me without waking me. Needless to say, I almost always woke up as soon as his dick penetrated me but there had been a couple of special mornings when I was literally passed out and I woke with his cum draining from my pussy.

As I said, according to our "tradition", my dad would come to my room where I would be asleep, even if I was only pretending to be. Now I can't say we do this EVERY morning, but definitely more times than not. Weekends were usually a different story as he likes to sleep in on Saturdays. Sundays were also special as he usually waited until just before we would go to church to fuck me so the cum was fresh inside of me as we sat in the pews. Tomorrow was a work day so I faced a deadline before he had to leave to catch the "T to get downtown on time for work. Not that it mattered usually if he was late but it set a bad example.

That night I set my alarm for about a half hour before my dad's usually went off. As it turned out, I really didn't need to have bothered because I woke up fifteen minutes before the alarm anyway. Damn, my pussy was already soaking wet! Evidently I must have been dreaming about Duane again! My hand instinctively reached between my legs and I started to play with myself when I caught myself and stopped. As much as I wanted (make that NEEDED) to get off, I had more important things to do. I quietly got out of bed and went to the bathroom where I straightened myself out a little. Then I sneaked into my parents' bedroom and carefully turned off his alarm.

My parents were both in bed, sound asleep. As usual, my mom was bundled up in her covers while my dad had thrown his off during the night. He was laying on his back, and snoring quite loudly. Of course he was nude (I don't EVER remembering either of my parents wearing anything to bed even once my entire life unless they had plans besides sleeping). His dick was laying over on its side, flaccid and partially hidden by his thick curly pubic hair. Fortunately he was positioned close to the side of the bed so I didn't have to worry about waking him by having to get on the bed to reach him.

I have to confess that the snoring wasn't exactly erotic, but at the same time it provided a great indication of how hard he was sleeping. My dad always tried to say he didn't snore so when he was quiet it was either he was not sleeping very soundly or he was pretending to sleep. There had been times he tried to fake being asleep by pretending to snore but he never got the "sound" quite right and I could always tell when he was trying to fool me. My mom, on the other hand, was more difficult as she slept with the covers over her and as a rule, wasn't much of a snorer unless she was flat on her back and exhausted.

Reaching out, I carefully picked up his cock by grabbing the head with my fingers and stretching it out towards his stomach. Well, he certainly wasn't having a wet dream, that was for sure. His cock was totally limp and soft and frankly, looked a little shriveled with the excess skin in his limp non-erect state. I let the tip of my fingers run up and down the back of it, gently caressing it from the tip of the head to the base. I loved the feel of his pubic hair as I ran my fingers through it softly. His legs were spread apart just enough that I could rub his hairy balls as well.

shook his head when he saw what I was doing. Too bad he didn't have more time. I had the feeling I wouldn't have had to ask twice for him to fuck me otherwise.

4. Road Trip to the Lake - Sharing Duane With Kristen

Finally I got out of bed, showered and put on my bikini and a pair of denim shorts. I just let my hair hang straight and didn't bother with any makeup. My mom was dressed about the same, granted her bikini top was a little less revealing than mine plus it had to be a little bigger to contain her larger boobs. She had on shorts as well which were cut pretty high, but her ass wasn't hanging out like mine was. My mom may be over forty now, but I had to admit she still made the outfit work!

My Aunt Linda and Kristen arrived not long afterwards. I smiled as it seemed we all were like following some sort of dress code where the only variant was the length of the shorts and the cut of the bikini top. Of course, UNDER the shorts was where the real difference was and I was curious to see if Kristen had her slutty thong on today, the one that was basically a piece of string with a small triangle of material in front. Odds were she was, especially since Duane was coming with us today. The little slut wouldn't miss out on any opportunity to tease him as much as possible. I'd warned her to stay away from Duane now that I was getting serious with him but I knew my cousin better than to believe her when she promised to be good. It was what she was "good" at that bothered me!

We had things about packed when Duane's truck pulled up. He parked it in the street so we would be able to get out with our SUV and came into the house without knocking. It was nice that he was getting more comfortable around my parents and such but I hoped that he never just barged in when I was sucking my dad's cock - or more. Someday if he decided to propose to me he would learn about that side of my life, but until then he was staying the dark if I had anything to say about it.

Actually, it was sort of ironic when you considered what Duane did, and did NOT know about all of us. No doubt he figured my parents knew we were having sex, it's not like we were teenagers anymore. Little did he know how MUCH I actually told them. Many a night I got my mother all worked up and we would masturbate together as I told her, in great detail, how Duane had fucked me earlier that night. If there was one person who was rooting for him to propose, it was her.

Of course Duane knew nothing about me and my parents having sex. While he knew that Kristen and I played together at parties, I think he assumed that was more to tease the guys who watched us than anything else. I wondered what he would say if he knew just how intimate we were at home - not to mention the close relationship she had with her mom. Duane had actually fucked them both but didn't know that each of them knew the other had fucked him. No doubt he thought it was hot to fuck the mother of a girl he was screwing at the parties. How would he feel when he found out the mom and daughter compared notes? Similarly, I knew he'd fucked Kristen in the past - and still did now and then if they happened to be at the same party. What he did NOT know was that like she and her mom, we both compared his sexual prowess on a regular basis as well.

Someday, if things continued on the way they were going and Duane and I get engaged, THEN he will know about all of this but in the meantime there were limits to which we would let him know about the "family secrets". I couldn't wait to see the look on his face when I told him everything!

Duane was wearing long shorts that came to his knees and a tank top that did more than show off his muscular chest. All four women had their eyes on him - if only he knew what we would have all liked to have done to him right then and there! I felt a little proud being his girlfriend. He may still fuck other girls, including Kristen and her mom, but I knew where he came to first for sex, and the most - me.

It was getting late so without much ado we climbed in the SUV. My mom was driving with my Aunt Linda riding shotgun. I got in and moved to the middle with Duane getting in after me. I expected Kristen to get in from the other side but she gave Duane a push and told us to move over, leaving Duane in the middle between the two of us. I looked over at her and she just grinned at me and winked. Oh lord, what was she up to now? With Kristen, you always knew it had to be something to do with sex but what you never knew was what she had planned. With her, it could be about anything.

It was almost two hours to the lake and so we made a pass through a drive-thru to get some breakfast and coffee. Then we hit the highway and headed south to West Virginia. For a while we all just chatted and talked about friends and some gossip, nothing serious. I could tell Kristen was getting a bit anxious from the way she was squirming in her seat. That girl was worse than the kids I had in elementary school when it came to sitting still for any length of time. My mom and aunt were engaged in some conversation but with the noise of the highway and the radio I couldn't make out much of what they were saying.

Kristen, of course, was the one to get things started. Without warning, she twisted around slightly and planted her hand firmly on Duane's crotch, squeezing down on his dick and gripping it through the loose material. She looked at me as if daring me to say anything but I just shook my head in disbelief and shrugged. Really, what was I going to do, try and stop the horny little slut? May as well try to stop the tide once she set her eyes on a guy.

I watched as she slide her hand under the elastic band of his shorts and down inside his crotch. From the way he jumped, I knew she had struck gold, or at least his cock. Duane looked at me as if asking me if it was OK with me. I just grinned and shrugged yet again, knowing it was useless to say anything else. Actually, I really didn't mind what Kristen was doing. If anything, it was kind of hot to watch.

Not to be outdone, I slipped my hand in along hers and put it over her hand as she gripped his hardening cock. Together we stroked his thickening dick while he sat there stiff and quiet, as if he was afraid to move or say a word. I saw his eyes keep glancing to the front seat, as if he was worried that one of our moms would notice what was going on in the back seat – as if they would have cared! It wasn't like we were trying to get him off, more like we were just playing with it, enjoying the feel of a nice hard dick.

I nuzzled up next to him, pressing my boobs against him and whispered in his ear, "So do you like this?" Yeah, as if he was getting this massive erection for some other reason.

Duane tilted his head towards the front seat and motioned with his eyes, as if to say, "What about THEM?"

"Who cares?" I whispered as I put my head on his shoulder, my hand slowly working his dick as Kristen moved hers to caress his hairy balls.

It must have been like torture for him, the two of us ministering to his cock and balls just enough to get him totally erect, but not enough to set him off over the edge. After a while I felt the wetness of his precum seep from his stiff dick and onto my hand. I pulled my hand out from his shorts and licked it off, the offered some to Kristen who eagerly lapped it up.

We had maybe another half hour to go and Duane still hadn't cum. There were a couple of times when I thought maybe we'd gone too far but one of us would squeeze down on the base of his cock until his breathing slowed and his dick backed down just enough so as not to cum. His cock was oozing a continuous stream of precum now as Kristen and I would take turns stroking him and licking it off our hands until finally, Kristen had enough of the hand-to-mouth thing. She unsnapped his shorts and pulled his dick out into the open. God it looked so delicious, all hard, slippery and just begging for attention. By now, Duane had forgotten all about our moms in the front seat and had his eyes shut, focusing his thoughts on his crotch and what we were doing for him.

Kristen looked up at me and grinned. I knew what she wanted. Sucking Duane's dick in front of me, knowing I considered Duane to be my boyfriend now, a claim I hadn't made to a guy in years, was just too much of a temptation for her. I didn't really mind; it wasn't like I couldn't have Duane's dick about any time I wanted it. Why not let my horny cousin have her way for now? Tomorrow this dick would be all mine again and she would be nothing but a wet dream for him.

Kristen leaned over and took his wet head in her mouth. I could only imagine how good he must taste with the precum coating the head and shaft! As Kristen sucked his dick, I let my hands wander under his tank top, caressing his firm chest and playing with his nipples just a little. God he was such a hunk! He kept his chest shaved and it felt firm and smooth under my fingers.

My pussy tingled and I looked down at Kristen sucking his dick, wishing I could sit on it and feel his wonderful hard dick pushing deep up inside of me. Sucking his dick in the backseat was pushing it with him, though. Riding his cock with my mom right up in front would have probably weirded him totally out! Still, I as almost at the point of saying the hell with it and pulling my shorts off when Kristen suddenly held her head still and Duane looked at me with an expression I can only describe as pure ecstasy. I knew what was happening and sat back to watch.

Kristen held his shaft and kept just the head of his dick in her mouth, using the lip of his head to help form a seal around his dick with her mouth to keep Duane's cum all inside - smart girl as it also provide the most room in her mouth to take whatever cum he was now filling her mouth with. I could imagine the messy sperm shooting out from the tip of his dick, striking the back of her throat and landing on her tongue as she gently stroked him, pushing every bit of cum out of him and into her mouth. Lucky girl! I LOVED the taste of Duane's cum and wouldn't have minded a few shots of my own right then to savor. Kristen wasn't going to have anything to do with that though. She kept her mouth locked down on Duane's dick as if she was never going to let go.

Despite himself, Duane let out a low groan as she started to bob on his dick again. He must have finished cumming and now she was just enjoying his dick for a few last strokes. Duane's face was flushed red as a beet and his breathing was erratic. He jumped reflexively as her tongue worked over his ultra- sensitive dick.

Fortunately, Kristen hadn't totally forgotten about me as she lifted her head up and looked at me. She opened her mouth and I could see his cum still pooled on her tongue. Then we kissed and as we opened our mouths, I felt the slimy cum slip from her mouth into mine. Mmmmmmm, he tasted so wonderful! Ordinarily I might have slipped it back to Kristen but I was too damn horny and hungry for his cum to give up what I had so I swallowed it down and enjoyed it. For what little was left of our trip, we took turns playing with his dick and by the time we turned into the park entrance, he must have wanted to cum again based on how hard he was. Oh well, there was always the trip home!

5. Out on the Water

My mom drove slowly through the park and parked near the marina. We gathered our things and made our way to the dock where the boat was kept. After removing the cover and stowing our gear, we refueled and then it was off to the lake. We didn't waste any time or fool around. After all, getting out on the lake was the whole reason we'd come all this way today.

Once out on the lake, we spent the first half hour or so just cruising around, taking in the beautiful surroundings and see in where the people were at - and not. It was a beautiful day, with the sun shining and barely a cloud in the sky. We all quickly shed our shorts (except Duane, of course) and sure enough, Kristen has her slut bottoms on. Duane couldn't help but take in a good eyeful of her bare ass (having a string up the crack of your ass doesn't qualify as cover). She had the greatest little butt in the world and I loved to play it myself so I could imagine what must be going on in Duane's head - both of them. He was being a pretty good boy overall. He WAS my boyfriend so he managed to keep next to me as much as possible with his arm around me. With my mom and Aunt there, he was a little more subdued than normal but that was to be expected. After all, most guys don't feel up their girlfriends in front of her mother.

I was the first to hit the skis and I couldn't wait to show off for Duane. He knew I was fairly uncoordinated at most sports but this one was my specialty and it meant a lot to me for him to realize I wasn't a complete dork when it came to athletics. It wasn't long before I was up on my slalom ski and hopping waves, throwing up a monster rooster tail behind me as I zigzagged back and forth across the wake. I could see Duane clapping and he definitely looked impressed. Of course, he wasn't the only one looking as we passed other boats and I loved the way guys would look at me as I zipped by. It didn't hurt that I wasn't wearing much below the life jacket and leaning back with my legs outstretched wasn't exactly a bad pose either.

After I was finished and back in the boat, Duane kissed me and told me he was amazed at how good I was. For a moment I frowned as maybe he was a little TOO amazed. Did he think I was THAT big of a goofball before? Oh well, he'd just learned a new side to me he hadn't known before. My mom suggested we get some lunch before continuing on since it was well past noon by now. We'd brought a picnic lunch with and my mom drove us over to a cove where we would be out of the way of the other boats and we had lunch.

Afterwards, I wanted to go for a swim and coaxed Duane and Kristen to join me. The moms said they were going to work on their tan so they stretched out on the benches while we jumped in the water. It wasn't that deep where we'd anchored and about twenty feet closer to shore or so I found that I could stand on the rocky bottom.

"You were incredible out there!" Duane said, sliding in behind me and putting his strong arms around me, "I never would have believed it if I hadn't seen it!"

Again, maybe he was carrying this a little too far but I wasn't about to protest when he spun me around and kissed me. As he did, he looked back at the boat and I followed his gaze. You couldn't see my mom or aunt as they must have laid out on the benches for now. Kristen was next to us, probably jealous but who cares! I reached down and put my hand down his shorts quickly and grabbed his dick.

"Damn Kelly, what if your mom looks out this way?"

"Oh stop being such a fuddy dud," I admonished him playfully, tugging on his dick, "Besides, somebody doesn't seem to mind getting a little attention."

Indeed, his cock practically jumped to attention in my hand despite the cool water. I put my arms around him and then wrapped my legs around his waist, pulling my crotch in against his hard dick. I could feel it through the material of our suits, pressing nice and hard against my sensitive clit.

"Mmmmmmm, something feels good against me," I purred, "I want you to fuck me."

He seemed startled at my sudden request. Kristen must have overheard me as well because I heard her giggling just behind me.

"Here??? ...NOW?" Duane replied, the tone of his voice clearly one of disbelief, "You mom is right there for God's sake."

"I don't care," I answered flippantly, "I want you to fuck me... NOW!" He stuttered and was about to say something when I heard something behind me and then my mom's voice called out.

"Hey, it's too hot out here, let's get going girls!"

Duane pulled my legs down from his waist and hissed at me, "See, what if we'd been doing it just now?"

I just frowned at him and then kissed him. "Well, it's not like she doesn't know we do it."

"Yeah, but not right in front of her for God's sake," he said, grabbing my hand and leading me back to the boat. Kristen moved in alongside of me and giggled.

"Somebody horny?"

I just splashed some water at her playfully as we swam in to the boat and climbed back in. Duane helped with the anchor and soon we were off and running again. My Aunt Linda was the next to go. She needed two skis, never having mastered the single slalom ski technique but she still had fun. She didn't look bad, either, for a woman almost twice her daughter's 21 years.

Duane was next and I was curious as to how he would do. He warned us ahead of time that he wasn't the best skier and it had been a while since he had skied. As it turned out, that was a bit of an understatement. It took four tries to get him up on two skies and by the time we did, he must have been exhausted just from the aborted starts. He wasn't about to admit it though, not in front of me at least. Typical male macho ego.

Next was Kristen. She could slalom almost as good as me but today I had talked to her earlier about using two skies. I had hinted that I wanted her to be able to stay out longer and not risk falling. I'm not sure if she understood exactly what my plans were, but she probably had a good idea. As she got ready to go, I noticed Duane was more than helpful in buckling up her ski jacket and making sure the belts fit her properly. He could be such a pig at times! But I loved him anyway. It wasn't like Kristen wasn't doing every trick in the book to get his attention as well.

6. Duane Fucks Me on the Boat

With Kristen out on the water, my mom's job was to drive the boat and watch out for other skiers. My Aunt Linda was the designated spotter, keeping tabs on whoever was skiing and warning my mom if anything happened. That left me and Duane to act as spectators and cheerleaders. My mom was in the driver's seat up front while my Aunt was in the back corner of the boat where she could keep a clear eye on her daughter. As busy as it was today, it was important that both she and my mom pay close attention as an accident was too easy when this many boats were all in the water at the same time.

This was the moment I'd been waiting for. When I asked Duane to fuck me earlier in the water, I knew there was no chance he would actually do it, not with the chance my mom would look out and see us. If anything was going to happen, it would be up to me so it was time to take control of the situation. Duane was sitting in the front corner of the rear bench, a little behind and to the side of my mom where she would have had to twist around to see him.

My Aunt Linda was perched at the other end of the bench with one leg tucked under her, her attention focused on Kristen behind us who was about to get started. I grabbed a dry beach towel and then sat down right smack On Duane's lap with the beach towel over my lap. Duane didn't say anything but just then my mom hit the throttle and he grabbed me by the waist to keep me from flying off his lap onto the deck. When he pulled be back down, I let my hand rest under my butt and I could feel his dick under me. He was a little stiff, probably from the sight of Kristen flaunting her perfect ass in front of him just a few minutes prior.

There was not time to waste. Kristen could stay up on those skis for maybe ten minutes max and that would be pushing it. If I was going to do anything, it had to be quick. I reached between my kegs and pulled his dick out from his shorts. With my other hand I pulled my thong to the side as I leaned forward enough to get his dick under me. Just as quickly, I sat down on his cock and it plunged easily into my hot wet pussy. It all happened so fast that Duane didn't really have time to react, let alone stop me.

"Kelly!" he hissed into my ear, "What the hell are you doing?"

I ignored him and started to rock on his dick. With the waves and resulting motion of the boat, it wasn't hard to get myself to bounce on his dick, feeling him move alternately in and out of my soaking wet pussy. Mmmmmmm, it felt wonderful to be fucked by my boyfriend - even better right next to my mom and Aunt who didn't appear to have a clue that I was being fucked. With the towel over me, it probably looked like I was just sitting on his lap, bouncing to the waves.

"You're insane, you know that don't you?" he said in my ear.

Maybe so, but his dick certainly didn't seem to mind. God he felt so good in me! I'd been wanting his dick in me from the moment he walked in our front door this morning. Back in the water before, I may not have had high expectations that he WOULD fuck me, I was sincere about the fact that I WANTED him to put that wonderful hard shaft deep in my hungry pussy.

One thing I was counting on and that was that Kristen wouldn't go and fall down! Even though I knew my mom and Aunt wouldn't be bothered by the sight of me riding Duane, I had no illusions that it would have been traumatic for Duane. Even now, though he wasn't trying to stop me or hinder me in any way, if anything quite the opposite, I knew from the way he kept looking fore and aft that he was expecting one or both of them to see us at any moment and say something.

In the end, Duane's a man and his male lust overrode his fears and he came in me. With all the vibration and pounding, I couldn't really feel much when he did but from the way he was grunting and bringing his hips up to meet me I knew that he was having an orgasm beneath me. It was enough to make me cum as well and I felt my pussy clamping down on him and grab him like it was trying to milk his dick of every ounce of sperm that it had.

I was still quivering and cumming when Kristen went down. I couldn't blame her as this huge boat had just gone by and swamped her with its wake. My Aunt cried out to my mom that she was down and instantly the two of them went to work. My mom cut the throttle and swung the boat around while my aunt raised a flag and waved off approaching boats.

I took the opportunity to lift myself off Duane's lap and took a seat beside him, adjusting my thong back into place while he rearranged his crotch. He kept the beach towel over him, probably to hide the tent that was still rising from his crotch. I could feel his cum trying to ooze out of me. Fortunately my thong was still wet so it wasn't going to show anything.

Duane looked like a photo study of contradictions. On the one hand he looked ecstatic, as you would expect for a guy whose girlfriend had just rode his dick and made him cum. On the other, he kept looking at my mom and aunt, as if he was half-expecting them to make some comment about what he and I had just done. When neither of them made any mention of it, his expression turned to relief as he realized we had "gotten away with it". Yeah right.

Kristen finally made it back in the boat, totally exhausted. She took a seat next to me, trying to catch her breath. She looked at me with questioning eyes and I gave her a thumbs up to which she laughed and smiled at Duane. Duane looked a little sheepish as I think he suddenly realized that Kristen and I had plotted ahead of time for this to happen. Then she turned to me and said, "You owe me one, big time!" Indeed I did and I could only imagine how she would "collect" someday.

My mom was the last to ski and my Aunt took over the driver seat while Kristen played the part of the spotter. Duane and I looked at each other and he shook his head. He put his index finger straight up and then let it curl and I got the hint. Well, he WAS 29 and while not in bad shape, he didn't have the recovery of say, my nineteen year-old cousin Rick who seemed to be the Energizer Bunny of dicks - he just kept going and going and going! Ordinarily Duane was quick to recover but with my mom just a few feet away, it was as little too much to expect of him today.

7. A Friendly Competition

Before the day was over, Kristen, Duane and myself all had another shot at skiing and then it was time to head in and get home. We were all exhausted and had more that our share of sun for the day. Leaving the boat moored, we put out shorts back on, carried our stuff back to the SUV and before long, were ready to be on our way back home. Just as we were ready to go, Kristen pulled me over to the side with a conspiratorial look.

"OK, you had your fun, no small thanks to me. What do you say we give Duane something to remember on the way home?"

I knew exactly what she was leading up to. Whenever Kristen said something about giving a guy, "something to remember", it invariably involved some memory of him fucking her. Duane was cool and he was by no means shy or afraid to be a little aggressive in public when it came to sex (why do you think I love him so much?), but he DID have his limits. While I may have been stretching those limits a bit with things like sitting on his dick while in the boat, he still wasn't at all comfortable with being seen fucking me by my parents and the same would apply to doing Kristen with her mom watching. Even then, it wasn't that he didn't WANT them to watch, he was still operating under the mistaken impression that my parents were like most other parents and didn't want to see their daughter fucked in front of them. Someday we would cure that impression but for now there nothing I could do that wouldn't have had potentially dire consequences.

"Hang on Kristen, you know we can't do that," I sighed, "Duane isn't ready for that yet."

"Well... when's he going to propose to you so we can get this over with?" Kristen teased me. I just pretended to pout although I have to admit, the idea wasn't all that unattractive.

"Tell you what, I've got a better idea," I said to her, a grin breaking out on my face as an idea came to mind. "It's been ages since we raced. Wanna do it with Duane watching?"

Kristen giggled and looked at me to make sure I wasn't kidding. I looked at her and waited for a response, as if I didn't know what it was going to be before I even asked.

"What's the payoff?" she said, taking my challenge seriously.

I thought carefully and then I knew just the bait for her. I looked over at Duane who was talking to my mom and aunt as they checked over the last of the stuff in the SUV.

"Winner gets my boyfriend when we stop for supper."

Kristen's face lit up and she grinned nastily at me. "Ha! You're going to regret THAT bet. No way I'm losing this time."

"You're on!" I challenged her and we kissed to seal the deal and headed to the SUV.

"What's with you two, eh?" her mom said, seeing us giggling and playing with each other as we ran back to the SUV.

"Oh nothing," Kristen lied through her teeth. Her mom looked at her in total disbelief. She knew her daughter better than that but she also knew her well enough to not ask again.

Poor Duane had no idea what he was being led into. This time he automatically took the middle seat, as uncomfortable as it was, while Kristen and I flanked him again. Maybe the looks on our faces, but something seemed to tell him we were up to no good; he just couldn't quite figure out what that something was. We waited until we'd been on the road about fifteen minutes and his alertness began to sag as we talked about the day's events. Kristen was the one to finally get things started - as usual. She motioned for me to come in closer and we both got up next to Duane.

"You know Duane, Kelly and I have always been a little competitive in case you haven't noticed," she started off. Duane laughed and started to reply but Kristen kept going and cut him off.

"When we were teens we use to see who could masturbate and get off the quickest."

Well THAT got Duane's attention and he looked at me and I just shrugged with a "what can I say" look.

I took over the narrative at that point, saying softly to him, "So what do you say, wanna referee us?"

Duane looked a little confused, obviously not sure what I meant for him to do so I tried to explain further saying, "All you have to do is watch and determine who cums first."

Duane looked at me, then at Kristen, and then at me again as if we had become two aliens from outer space.

"I'm dead SERIOUS," I said to him, trying to get him to accept what we had told him.

He still seemed to think we were pulling his leg so Kristen backed into the corner of the seat and slipped off her shorts and thong, sitting bare-bottom on the leather seat. She put one foot up on the seat and turned to face Duane, spreading her hot little pussy apart with one hand while she cupped a perky boob in the other.

"I think she's ready to go," I giggled, "Are you? Just sit there and watch, it's all you have to do."

He didn't say anything but still I think he thought any moment we were going to laugh at him and tell him it was all a prank. If he WAS still thinking that way, it probably stopped when I did the same as Kristen was doing on the opposite side of the seat. He couldn't see us both at the same time so it was rather comical to see his head twist back and forth to try to see what we each were doing.

Meantime, my mom and aunt were carrying on like nothing in the world was going on in the seat behind them. I knew it was a bit of an act as there was no way they couldn't have known something was happening. They were just cool enough moms to ignore us and let us have fun. Duane didn't know it or he might have felt a lot more anxious than he seemed to be now.

Kristen and I started masturbating in earnest, each of us having our own distinctive technique and style. Personally, I've always been a finger girl myself, preferring to push a finger or two into my pussy and pretend they were a boy's dick in me. My clit was also a favorite target and usually I tried to pay some attention to my boobs although my crotch was the primary focus point of my attention when I was really trying to simply orgasm and get it over with. Sex toys such as dildos and vibrators are not usually part of my masturbation routine although now and then they make for an interesting diversion.

Kristen, on the other hand, was a dildo queen and seldom masturbated without one. This put me at an advantage given she didn't have one now although it wouldn't have shocked me if she brought one out from Lord knows where. Lacking one, I saw that she was focusing on her clit almost exclusively.

For Duane, it had to be a male fantasy come true. What guy hasn't dreamed of two hot girls masturbating, one on each side of him! I wondered if he thought at all about what the stakes might be in our little contest. From the way he was shifting around, I bet he would have loved to have pulled his hard dick out and stroked himself as well. With my mom and aunt not three feet away, though, there no chance of THAT happening tonight, that was for sure. Well, it certainly didn't impede me or my cousin, that was for sure.

Kristen had her eyes tightly shut but her mouth was hanging just a bit open as she must have been fantasizing about something or another while she rubbed her wet bare pussy. It would have been interesting to be able to see what she was thinking about. Whatever it was, it had to be pretty naughty from the way she was reacting so quickly to it and for Kristen to be "naughty" it had to be pretty wild.

As for me, it was easy to get myself off. All I had to do was think about Duane fucking me back in the boat earlier in the day. God his dick had felt so good imbedded deep within me. It was like I was impaled on his cock, like a hot dog on a stick. The only thing that would have made it better would have been for my mom and aunt to watch. Picturing my mother and her sister playing with themselves as they watched my boyfriend fuck me was an incredibly erotic thought. Then I thought of him fucking the two of them, screwing his mother-in- law and new aunt. If only he knew how bad my mother was hoping to be fucked by him some day!

I was concentrating totally on my crotch now as there was no way in hell I was going to let Kristen have Duane on the way home. My pussy practically screamed as I play with myself using everything I knew in terms of technique and desire. Ordinarily

I beat Kristen at this game two out of three times at least so the odds were with me, especially given the other circumstances surrounding us today. Talk about home field advantage!

In the end, Kristen didn't have a chance.

My pussy throbbed as I felt the onset of my orgasm surging up within me like a volcano erupting. I looked up at Duane who had just turned his head from Kristen and I mouthed to him that I was about to cum. His eyes opened wide, apparently finding it hard to believe that a girl could make herself come as fast as I just had. True, I hadn't made it there yet, but I was right on the verge and I wanted him to see it from the start.

Oh my God, my pussy felt so hot I thought it would burn up. As my orgasm exploded, I was literally gushing cum as it ran down my ass and drenched the seat beneath me. All the day's events, sucking my dad's cock, Kristen and me playing with Duane's dick on the trip down, fucking Duane on the boat, and now the two of us masturbating for him, all of it seemed to blend erotic happening as my orgasm overwhelmed me. My body quivered as I felt the most wonderful, most natural high a girl can feel. My nipples felt like they were going to explode from my chest as I touched them with my free hand and squeezed them.

All I wanted then, all I could think about, was the need for Duane to fuck me Again... and again... and again. I wanted his dick in me so bad I felt like I would have to scream with frustration. It was right there next to me, all hard and ready to go. What made it all the worse, all the more frustrating, was I knew he wanted to fuck me just as bad as I wanted him to drill me!

A little squeal came from across the other side and I knew Kristen was cumming now. Too late but still, she had cum really quick all things considered. Ordinarily she would probably have won but not today. To be fair, she hadn't stood a chance under the circumstances. As I slowly calmed down I could see Duane was trying to see out both sides of his head as two all but naked girls finished off masturbating for him. Granted, it wasn't the first time he'd watched me masturbate, not by any means, but it certainly had to be the most erotic setting for it ever.

Duane conveyed the bad news to Kristen. A fast as she had cum, no doubt she was sure she had beaten me and she looked at me with amazement as if she couldn't believe anyone could have made themselves cum that fast. I playfully stuck my tongue out at her but she was truly pissed off that she hadn't won and just ignored me. Oh well, better luck next time was all I had to say to her. When it came to masturbating, I am not too shy to claim I am pretty damn good.

It turned out that it was a good thing we had both gotten off as fast as we did because not five minutes later my mom took an exit off the expressway. I couldn't help but groan when I saw where it was that we were going to eat - a Cracker Barrel. Now they may be OK for breakfast but they certainly didn't top my list of favorite dinner locations. My mom, on the other hand, would eat at one seven days a week and twice on Sunday given the chance. Oh well, at least dinner wasn't my main concern anymore. I was hungry, to be sure, but what I wanted wasn't on the menu.

Kristen and I dressed quickly (well, wearing as much as we had to wear) and by the time we stopped most of the flushness had gone from my face but I knew my mom would know instantly what we'd been doing, if she didn't already know. There was no way my mom and aunt could not have known what was going on this time in the back seat yet once again they proved how cool they were by ignoring us. My mom DID grin at me and winked as she locked the doors with her key. Yeah, she knew all right!

On our way in I walked over next to Kristen and smacked her playfully on the rear and gloated, "Sorry kid, he's mine so hands off - you hear?" It was really more a threat than a question, and not such a playful one at that - I meant it! Kristen just looked at me sullenly. She could be a sore loser sometimes, that was for sure. Oh well, she could deal with it.

8. I Claim My Prize

Duane had no idea what kind of storm he was headed into as we made our way inside. It seemed to be a common element today - Duane not having a clue what was coming next. Oh well, it was getting towards the end of the day so why change things now? As usual, there was a waiting list so while the rest of our group browsed the store, I kept an eye on Duane who excused himself to visit the little boy's room. Once he was in and couldn't see me, I camped outside the door and watched the men go in and out until finally I figured the only one that could be left in there had to be Duane. Glancing about to be sure nobody was watching, I quickly slipped into the restroom where Duane was at the sink washing his hands. He looked up instinctively to see who was coming in and when he saw me, his mouth dropped open.

"Kelly! What the hell are you doing in HERE?" he gasped.

"Well, as you know, I won my contest with Kristen and YOU were the prize,"

I giggled at him. "You don't think we did all that just to put on a show for you, did you?"

"And if Kristen had cum first..." he started to ask, his mind racing with the possibilities but I would have none of it and cut him off.

"Oh give me a break Duane, under the circumstances do you think there was any way possible that I was going to let her win?"

He seemed dumbfounded and just stood there as if he didn't know what to say or do. I grabbed his hand and quickly pulled him towards the handicapped stall before someone came in. We stepped in and he closed the door behind us and not a moment too soon as the outer door opened and someone came in and made their way quickly to the urinals across from us. I could barely see the guy through the door as I heard him unzip his pants and start to pee. I turned back towards Duane as I really wasn't into THAT and besides, I had this little matter of Duane to take care of.

"NO!" he mouthed silently to me. Although I think he assumed this was all a joke, he said it just in case I was serious about wanting to do this. I'm not sure if he knew exactly what "this" was, but he probably had a good idea knowing me.

Needless to say, I simply ignored him and reached behind my neck to untie my bikini top. I just let it flop down, exposing my firm breasts to him. Then I stepped out of my shorts, hung them on the coat hook inside the door, quickly followed by my thong. At this point all I was wearing were my sandals (no barefoot in a public restroom) and my bikini top which was only tied around my chest with my boobs exposed. I motioned at his shorts, pointing at them and indicating he should take them off. He wouldn't do it so I shrugged and started pulling them down myself. At first he tried to stop me but more guys had come in now and he didn't want to make a fuss so he caved and let me pull them to his ankle but he wouldn't take them all the way off..

One great thing about men - they come with a built in horny level detector that they can't turn off. It's also known as a penis. No matter what man says, his penis never lies. In this case, Duane may have been trying to say he wasn't ready to fuck me in a public restroom, but his dick betrayed his TRUE feelings. No man's cock stands up straight as missile ready for launch unless he wants something, and I don't mean a new truck (well, maybe for SOME guys but you get the idea). I gazed at his beautiful dick, all hard and stiff, sticking out from his thick bush of black pubic hair like a tree trunk from the brush. Oh yeah, he wanted to fuck me! That's what made it especially hot for me. A hard dick is always nice but when a man has an erection because he wants to fuck ME, it's just that much better

If any of the guys outside our stall had any idea what was going on, there was no indication of it as they came and went, doing their thing, MAYBE washing their hands, and leaving. I put my hands out, leaned against the wall, and spread my legs, exposing my wet pussy for him to see. Duane didn't need to have to be told what to do. He knew EXACTLY what I wanted, just like a male dog reacts when his bitch "assumes the position".

Any hesitation by Duane had evaporated, any concerns about the men on the other side of the door were lost, all replaced by an all-consuming lust, the need for him to mate and drive his cock into my pussy and deliver his seed. It was about as basic an instinct as any human being has, what is left over when everything else is stripped away. The need to survive is first, but it is closely followed by the instinct to procreate the species. As sophisticated and evolved as man be today, those two basic needs still form the foundation for all our behaviors.

Despite everything, I couldn't help but gasp as he drove his dick into me with no fanfare or foreplay. Thank God I was soaking wet already from masturbating in the SUV and the anticipation of being fucked. Duane simply moved in behind me, lined up his dick with my pussy hole, and then drove himself into me, drilling his dick deep into my pussy with one hard, forceful stroke. He backed it out until the very tip was all that was in me and then literally thrust it into me again, like he was trying to drive it right through me. If I hadn't been supported by the wall and instead was just standing up with my hands on my knees, I would have been knocked forward to the ground but in this case I just felt myself pushed up into the wall by the strength of his cock ramming up inside of me.

"So you wanted to be fucked... Well I'll fuck you, fuck you hard you fucking slut," he whispered sharply in my ear.

Then he pulled back and rammed into me again. It reminded me of one of those pile drivers you seen in movies where a weight is pulled up and then dropped to force a pole into the ground. So it was with his dick. He would draw it out of me like an archer pulling back on his bow and then he would ram it back in, hard and fast like the archer releasing his bow or the pole driver pounding onto the pole. I was literally lifted off my feet on the next thrust as he rotated his hips under me a little, driving almost straight up as he pounded his dick into me, taking my up to my tip toes.

Someone knocked on the door, "Anybody in there?"

Duane grunted as he rammed himself into me again. The guy outside must have figured somebody was having constipation issues or whatever as he just gave up and left. Duane didn't even seem to notice him and he just kept fucking me slow and hard. His hands reached around me, each cupping one of my bare boobs. As he would pound his dick into me, his hands would clench and squeeze my boobs, hard enough to make me wince a little actually. His fingertips grabbed my nipples, pinching them and then pulling on them and letting them snap back.

After treating my pussy roughly, like some sexual pile driver, for a couple of minutes, he changed and instead of seeing how hard he could fuck me, it seemed to now be a question of how fast. He was stroking himself in and out of me as fast as he could, his breath sounding like some form of perverted Lamaze class where they teach the quick breathing techniques for child birth. Nobody was in the restroom, at least I didn't think so, so I finally was able to whisper hoarsely to him.

"Oh god that feels so good Duane, I love it when you fuck me like this! Fuck me Duane... FUCK ME!"

Just as I said that the outside door opened. As far as I could tell, it was someone coming in but from the way it sounded, there might have been someone leaving as well. Had someone heard us? If so, they hadn't provided any indication of it. Hopefully if someone HAD, they weren't heading to report us to management.

Suddenly Duane pulled out and I knew from experience what he wanted. I twisted around as fast as I could and bent my knees to squat in front of him (I wasn't too eager to actually kneel on the floor). He was stroking his dick and he grabbed my head by the hair and pulled my face to his dick. Dutifully I opened my mouth, anxious for him to deliver my prize. A few more strokes and I was rewarded with a mouthful of his warm cum, shooting out and collecting on my outstretched tongue. He stroked himself a few more times, milking the remaining cum from his dick onto my tongue.

When he was finished, he pulled my head back and I opened wide so he could see his cum filling my mouth and covering my tongue. I closed my mouth and pushed it up until I was blowing a frothy mixture outside my lips and then swallowed the entire load down in one large gulp. I opened my mouth again, like a patient after being given a pill, to prove it had all gone down.

Although I hadn't cum this time, I was still satisfied. Just the thrill of fucking him in here was enough for the moment. There would be plenty of opportunities to get off when I got home anyway. In the meantime, I couldn't wait to get back out where I was sure Kristen had told our mothers what was going on. I pulled my bikini top back up and was tying it again when the door when I heard the outside door open again. This time, instead of heading to the sink or to urinal, there was a knock on the door.

"Excuse me, this is the manager, what's going on in there? Is everything OK? Someone said it sounded like there was a problem."

I had to cover my mouth to keep from bursting out in laughter. Oh My God, whoever it was before must have actually squealed on us! What a dork! As you might imagine, Duane's expression was priceless. What I'd have given for a camera at that moment.

"Ummmmm, everything's ok, I'll be out in a second," Duane called out through the door, glaring at me but then he couldn't help but grin.

It doesn't take long to pull on a thong and shorts so in less than a minute we were ready to walk out. Duane looked at me and took a deep breath and opened the door. Sure enough, there was this fat guy with a manager pin on his shirt and his arms folded, waiting for us.

"Excuse me miss, this is the MEN'S restroom," he started out. He was also giving me the once over so my first thought was what a hypocrite! "And may I ask what the two of you were doing in there?"

Duane was going to be nice and reasonable, I could tell because that's the kind of guy he is. Well, not me.

"No, we would NOT like to tell you what we were doing in there," I answered back rather curtly, "That is, of course, unless you want us to SHOW you what we were doing in there."

Duane looked at me with a "I can't believe you said that" stare while the manager stammered, trying to come up with a response. Finally he managed to gather his composure and he tried to look all serious and managerial again.

"I'm afraid I am going to have to ask the two of you to leave this facility," he said. God, do people REALLY talk that way? There was no arguing and we left the place without further comment. Outside I was surprised to find my cousin waiting for us.

"Mom and Aunt Mary are in the SUV," she said with a wicked grin on her face, "We figured you'd be out shortly. I looked at her, trying to read her expression. Suddenly it hit me. I was ready to bet anything that Kristen had something to do with all this. Was it her that tipped off the manager? From the naughty grin on her face, I was positive she had. That little brat!

"Hey, don't look at me that way," she laughed, "You didn't really expect me to just sit back and let you have all the fun, did you?"

"You little...," I started out, pretending to be mad at her.

In reality, I didn't care. In fact, I was sort of glad she had. After all, I'd gotten what I wanted - fucked good with a mouthful of cum on the side. PLUS I didn't have to eat dinner here at this miserable restaurant. So far as I was concerned, it was a Win-Win situation.

We all got in the SUV where my mom and Aunt Linda were indeed waiting for us. They didn't say a word, mostly I think so as not to embarrass Duane any more than he already was. He had to know they knew and I noticed he avoided eye contact with them the rest of the way home. It was only about twenty more minutes to get home, time that went by rather uneventfully, even boring when compared to the rest of the trip. When we got back, I kissed Duane goodbye at his truck as he got ready to go.

"Well guy, I hope you had a fun day, I know I certainly enjoyed it!" I said to him as we kissed goodbye.

"You know Kelly, you have one crazy family," Duane remarked solemnly as he got into his truck. The way he said it I wasn't sure if he was joking or serious. Then he grinned and gave me one last kiss through the window. "And that's OK because I love you and any family that has you a part of it has to be OK."

OMG, he used the "L" word! I wondered if he even realized what he had said. It wasn't the first time he had used it and to date, it had always been in passing like this time. But still, it was worthy of note. I wanted to grab him by the neck and kiss him and tell him I loved him but somehow it didn't seem like the right time for that.

As Duane drove away, I watched him disappear around the corner and walked back to my house. Hmmmmmm, maybe this was going to be the guy! Any guy that could go through what he had today and still say he loved me at the end of it all had to be pretty special. Special indeed!

(Jul 04) Chapter 165: Family Anniversary

Me (23)
John - my dad (43)
Mary - my mom (42)
Aunt Linda (40)
Kristen - cousin (21)

It's hard to believe that it's been four years to the day that I was back home for summer break after my first year of college and my Aunt and cousin Kristen joined us to celebrate the 4th of July. That was the day I learned that Kristen had "substituted" for me so far as taking care of my dad's "needs" while I'd been gone. Before it was over, we had our first family "orgy". Since then the five of us getting together all at once has only happened a couple of times. Would today's anniversary be one of those times?

1. My Aunt Linda and Cousin Kristen

My Aunt Linda is my mother's younger sister by about two years. Aunt Linda divorced her jerk of a husband after demanded that she choose between him and her family. It was really unfair of him to force her to make such a terrible position. After all, she'd told him everything about her relationships with her family before they were married. If anything, he claimed to be excited about being allowed to be with my mom as well as her once they were hitched.

Alas, some men's egos are just too big and his jealousy finally overwhelmed him to the point he demanded that my aunt stop having sex with her dad and brother- in-law. Really, what choice did that leave my aunt but to divorce him? If there's one principle I strongly believe in, it's that your family always comes first, even ahead of your husband. She and her only child (my cousin Kristen) live nearby. As a result they practically live at our house.

Kristen was only a couple of years old at the time and has no memories of her real father so in many ways my dad has been the only "father" she has ever known. Growing up, I had no idea that my dad was doing my aunt although looking back I probably should have figured it out. In my own defense, why would I have even suspected that they were doing it? My aunt is a successful realtor and dresses pretty sharp (some would say slutty but that's their opinion).

Although we would never qualify as nudist, it's not like nudity has ever been something we hid either, especially when in the hot tub and laying out on the deck. Seeing my aunt around the house in little or no clothing wasn't anything that would cause me to think twice. It wasn't until I started having sex with my parents that my mom told me about the true relationship they had shared since they were barely teenagers. Imagine my surprise when I learned that they'd started having sex with my grandfather back when Aunt Linda was in 7th grade and my mom was just a freshman. It was more that I just hadn't known about it than being shocked or anything; after all, I was having sex with my own father as well but I hadn't started until I was sixteen - not seventh grade!

Even with all those revelations finally out in the open, my mom didn't say anything about my Aunt and cousin having sex and I never even thought to ask. Again, it's easy to look back and say it should have been obvious but it's not that easy when you're so close to people. Little did I know that shortly after leaving I left home for my first year of college, my dad started fucking my cousin, sort of using her as my "replacement" while I was unavailable to attend to his needs. Nobody told tell me about it, even when I was home on breaks. I guess they were concerned that I would feel even more homesick than I already did, at least when it came to missing being with my dad.

Finally, after I'd finished my freshman year and was home on summer break, I learned the truth. Actually, it was rather thrust in my face as we were all gathered on our for July 4th and my cousin started sucking my dad's dick right in front of me, followed shortly by him fucking her. In short, before it was over we all joined in and had our first true family "orgy", if you want to call it that although it makes it seem a little dirty when I use that wording.

Now before anyone gets any ideas, this type of thing did NOT become the norm for us. We didn't suddenly turn into a bunch of sex addicts holding daily orgies or anything silly like that. It's hard to explain but it just never seemed like something we should do again as a family. My dad fucks me because I am his daughter and he loves doing me - but strictly as his daughter. He fucks my aunt and cousin, well, because he can (what more reason does a man need)?

It's important to keep in mind that my dad IS a married man and as such he can't just go out and fuck anyone as that would be adultery. My aunt and cousin were the only women "available" in the family as at that time my younger cousin Tammy wasn't in the picture yet. My mom was raised in an incestuous family so she doesn't mind him doing women so long as they are family because she realizes he is just a normal man with normal "needs". Besides, it wasn't like he was the only one with extra "needs". My mom has fucked his younger brother and eventually did her nephew!

Thus sex in my family is typically one-on-one for the most part except for some special times when my mom and I would do something just for my dad, like on Father's day or his birthday. The idea of a family gangbang just seems out of place in this type of environment, like it would be crossing some sort of line. I don't think any of us regretted what we did that past July 4th as the circumstances were special and it seemed the natural thing to do at the time. We never had actually SAID we wouldn't do it again, it was just like we had an unspoken agreement that it would have to be a VERY special time for it to happen again.

So here we were, four years later. A LOT had happened since that first time yet much was the same. I'd graduated from college and was now teaching at a small Christian elementary school. Kristen had dropped out of college to become a working girl - literally. It didn't exactly thrill me but nobody else in the family seemed to have a problem with her becoming a high priced whore so who was I to say anything?

My parents and Aunt Linda hadn't really changed much. They were all still working the same jobs, living in the same homes. I'd tried moving out on my own but accepting a position at such a small school meant having to take a very small salary which meant moving back home. On the opposite end of the spectrum, Kristen could have afforded a downtown penthouse but chose to stay at home with her mom - still sharing the same bed of course.

One of the biggest changes for me was that I had a boyfriend. Duane and I were getting pretty serious and it wouldn't surprise me if next year there wasn't a new member of the family when we got together for July 4th, 2009!

Speaking of which, I was a little perturbed at my boy. I'd assumed he would join me and my family for our annual celebration but he was off with his dad on some fishing trip! Really, the nerve of that boy, leaving me stranded on a holiday weekend! He was going to have to beg me a little to suck his dick when he got back, that much was for sure (not that I would ever turn him down of course). The only "good" thing about him being gone was it would have put a wet rag on any extra "activities" had he been around as Duane had no idea my family was involved in incest.

As usual, my dad would be cooking out on the grill only this year he had a brand new stainless steel monster with a hundred knobs (OK, maybe not THAT many) and he was quite proud of it. My aunt and cousin came over in the middle of the afternoon, just in time for his first round of hotdogs and hamburgers. After that he had more grandiose plans for supper - juicy steaks and 3" thick pork chops.

Both my Aunt Linda and Kristen were wearing shorts and tops which were quickly removed, revealing their sexy bikinis underneath. My aunt may be forty now but that didn't mean she didn't look hot in a sharp bikini. Kristen, of course, wore one that was even more revealing, not much more than strings with some triangles for her pussy and nipples. Really, what was the sense in even wearing it? My mom was also in her bikini. She was a couple of years older than Linda and frankly, had aged a little more but she still looked great and I was proud of her. I only hoped I looked as good as her when I was her age!

As for me, I also had on a pretty revealing suit, not quite as nasty as Kristen's but then she always was one up on me it seemed. Still, it would have been too revealing for the local public pool but I had to wear SOMETHING. Like I said, we weren't nudists.

My dad had on long denim shorts that came over his knees and a plain white T-shirt. It was sort of funny how the only male was dressed so conservatively while all the females were all but nude. He certainly didn't seem to mind!

Kristen and I wasted no time in getting in the hot tub, dropping our thongs and getting in nude. It's not like we revealed all that much more by taking them off! The water felt good and I loved the way it felt against my back and under my bare ass. There was one jet that HAD to have been installed by someone with something naughty on their mind as it shot straight up between my legs and when I sat down, I could angle it straight at my crotch. You can imagine where I was usually seated. There was another one at the same angle on the opposite side, which to no surprise is where Kristen made herself comfortable. Even though neither of us did anything overtly like start to masturbate or whatever, it still felt good, like when I use to rub up against the desk leg in class to feel better during a boring lecture.!

My mom and aunt gabbed away while my dad was busy on his cell phone. You would think on July 4th he could stay away from work but I guess when your law firm does business with a number of foreign companies, American holidays don't mean much to them. It was just a perfect day with the sun out and the temperature in the lower 90's with just enough breeze to make it bearable.

2. Kristen Gets Things Started

Looking back, it shouldn't have surprised me that Kristen would be the one to start things. All my life she'd been like my bad little sister, always the one to instigate things and get me in trouble. Now that we were older, she seemed to delight in finding ways to stretch my boundaries, as if they weren't already stretched out pretty thin as it was. One of her crowning achievements recently was to lure me to a party where she and I were the entertainment - for dozens of men as it turned out. It was one of those things you look back on and wonder how in the world you ever did it - and that you would never do it again! Not that it wasn't fun or anything, but it was like when I had sex with a dog, good for the one-time experience but now it was in the "been there, done that" category.

You had to hand it to Kristen, she was great when it came to luring people into situations where they never expected to be and then take advantage of them once they were there. I guess that's why she was in such demand as a call-girl (or whore as I preferred to call her). It also didn't hurt that even though she was 21, when she dressed right she could pass for being several years younger, something that seemed to draw men like bees to flowers. As it was, she caught me off-guard and it was too late before I realized what she had in mind. It's not that I was unhappy with how things turned out, it was being manipulated that sort of made me feel a little used.

"So Kelly, where's Duane?" she teased me.

Damn her, she knew perfectly well where he was as I had complained all week about his leaving for his "manly" trip. No girls allowed. What a crock. I could have had fun with them all, if that's what it took although I'm not too sure how Duane's dad would have handled THAT.

"Go ahead, rub it in," I replied, frowning at her for bringing it up. Well, I should have known better than to have even acknowledged her.

"Awwwwww, is someone horny? I bet you miss Duane's nice hard dick, don't you?" she teased some more.

"And what business would my boyfriend's dick be of yours?"

"Hey girl, don't forget the guy has fucked me a few times too you know," she reminded me, as if I could forget that.

To my chagrin it was true. Before Duane and I started going out he had dated Kristen and like just about every boy she'd ever dated, he'd fucked her on their first date. Personally, I preferred giving a BJ the first time and then MAYBE letting him fuck me the next time but usually never the first night. Kristen just looked at that as a waste of good dick I suppose. I sometimes think the only reason she dates in the first place is to get laid.

"So what has THAT got to do with anything now?"

"Well, I'm just saying, I can understand why you miss him. He DOES have a great cock and boy or boy, he certainly knows how to use it."

OK, what was THIS all about? It wasn't really cool to tell a girl about how great it was to fuck her boyfriend, especially when she's getting more and more serious with that guy and even starting to think about what happen in the future. What was ironic was that if I DID eventually marry Duane, then he could fuck Kristen all he wanted as she was my cousin and part of my family and I really wouldn't have any say in it.

Kristen got up from her spot and moved slowly over to me, staying underwater for the most part with just her head above the frothy water. She got up to the side of me and I felt her hand between my legs, searching for my pussy which she quickly found.

"Mmmmmmm, I knew you were horny for him, god you're wet!" she teased. Well duh, I was in a hot tub so of course I was soaking wet.

I just sat there, not sure what she was planning to do. Out of the corner of my eye, I saw our mothers were still chatting away, ignoring their two daughters completely it seemed. My dad was in the house preparing his masterpieces so it was almost like Kristen and I were alone in the tub. Suddenly I gasped as she thrust her finger up into my pussy.

"What the heck are you doing?" I asked, not sure what was going on. It wasn't that I minded her finger in me, it was just something I hadn't expected.

"What does it feel like I'm doing, my clueless cousin?" she teased, "I'm finger fucking your pussy. Just lay your head back and pretend it's Duane's dick."

"Sorry, his dick is a lot bigger," I teased her back.

"Well, just use your imagination then, it's not like you haven't been thinking of it all week, am I right?"

She had me there. God, how many times had I masturbated this week already dreaming about him fucking me and I still had a couple more days to go before the real thing was available again!

"Ha! I knew it!" she gloated as she worked her finger in and out of me, added a second one now to fill me even more. "C'mon, admit it, you need to be fucked, don't you? You need it BAD."

I'd started to rub my clit now as she kept her fingers moving in and out of me and yes, I DID want to be fucked... BADLY! I closed my eyes and my head dropped back as I felt my nipples start to tingle and my pussy felt even warmer now than the hot water could claim responsibility for.

"Oh yeah, I want it... I want to be fucked," I moaned softly, loving every second of what she was doing to me.

"You want to suck his dick, don't you," she pushed me, "You want a dick in your mouth now, don't you Kelly. You don't care who's it is, just a dick. C'mon, tell me how bad you want a dick in your mouth."

Sheesh, of course I wanted a dick in my mouth! I wanted it in my mouth, in my pussy, everywhere. As much as I loved her fingers in me and I loved the way my clit felt as I rubbed it, they were just poor substitutions for the real thing. There was something about a real dick in me that no finger or dildo could duplicate. Sucking a real dick was like nothing else in the world and I wanted to suck one so badly right now.

"Oh fuck yes, I want a dick so bad... I want to suck his dick and then have him fuck me with it," I groaned, continuing my fantasy as I closed my eyes and tried to imagine it was Duane's dick inside of me.

3. My Dad Joins In

I moaned again as Kristen thrust yet a third finger in me, stretching my pussy and making me feel even better. My mouth opened wide as I prepared to moan yet again when I felt something against it and suddenly something was in my mouth. Holy crap, there was a real dick in my mouth! I opened my eyes and of course, it was my father standing up behind me, his dick dropped down into my mouth with his balls hitting me in the forehead. I couldn't say anything with his dick slipping into my mouth so what other option did I have but to start sucking him.

I looked over at Kristen and if she wasn't looking like the cat who had just ate the canary! That little bitch! I bet she'd planned this all along and while my eyes were closed, dreaming about my Duane fucking me, she must have motioned for my dad to come over and stick his dick in my mouth after I started "begging" for one.

"That's better now, isn't it Kelly," she said, "Suck that cock, make him cum in your mouth... Show me how you like to suck your dad's cock."

Actually, it wasn't so much that I was sucking his cock as he was fucking my mouth. Essentially I was just holding my head back while he moved his cock in and out of me like it was my pussy instead. He was getting harder with each stroke, driving his cock deeper and deeper into my mouth as it grew. Kristen finally shut up but only because I felt her mouth on my boobs, licking me and sucking on my nipple, even biting it slightly.

I tried to look out of the other corner of my eye to see what my mom and aunt were doing but I couldn't move my head over enough to see them. There was no way they could be ignoring what was happening in the tub now, that was for sure. The question was, what would they do about it, if anything? Well, for now, apparently nothing, at least so far as I could tell.

As hard as I was trying to concentrate on my dad's dick in my mouth, my pussy was demanding more and more of my attention as I felt an orgasm starting to rise within me, quickly surging and overwhelming me. I almost choked on my dad's dick as I opened my mouth wide to groan, just as he rammed his stiff dick in and down into my throat. It didn't matter as all my thoughts focused on what was happening inside of me as every nerve in my body suddenly firing like I was being electrocuted. My dad had to see what was happening to me but he was relentless, shoving his stiffening dick in and out of my mouth even faster as Kristen held her fingers still in my pussy as it clamped down tight around them like I was having a spasm.

"Oh fuck, I'm cumming," I barely heard my dad said.

Fortunately I HAD heard him as it allowed me to prepare a little for his cum, otherwise I might had gagged - or worse, on it. I was still feeling great as his cock surged and I felt my mouth filling with one shot of cum after another. He actually pulled it out of my mouth and I held it open as he squirted it into my mouth, watching his cum shoot out and landing on my tongue.

"Oh yeah, now THAT'S better!" Kristen crowed, evidently pleased with herself for arranging all this.

I lifted my head up so I could swallow without choking. It actually took a couple of swallows to get it all down. God, he must have shot a quart of cum in my mouth from the way it felt!

I turned around and grinned at my dad, who was looking quite pleased with himself as well. "Thank you daddy," I said, smiling sweetly at him, "I really needed that."

"Hey, don't thank me, it was all Kristen's idea."

I turned to Kristen who was grinning from ear to ear. "Well, I can't say I didn't like it," I admitted to her.

Kristen was all too pleased with herself. "Now wasn't that better than just dreaming about Duane's dick? Besides, I love seeing you suck off your dad."

I nodded and then squinted my eyes as I looked at her, like I was trying to figure out what was going on inside that silly blonde head of hers.

"OK, that was fun but whatever possessed you to get my dad to do this today? I figured we were just going to have a quiet afternoon."

Kelly's cheeks puffed out as she tried to stifle a laugh. She shook her head solemnly, saying my name over and over like I was some naive soul. Then she nodded to my dad who seemed to have turned his interest to my mom and her sister.

"Think about it Kelly... don't you remember what happened four years ago as of today?"

Well duh, like how could I ever forget THAT. Yet what did that have to do with anything now?

"Well," she continued, "I just thought it would be fun to celebrate our anniversary, that's all. I mean, it certainly didn't take much to convince your dad!"

So it WAS a setup. She must have arranged something with my dad when I wasn't paying attention. That made more sense than him just appearing on the deck and just happening to find the two of us masturbating together. Kristen's "assignment" was obviously to get me going and I had to hand it to her, she'd done her job well - and more. So now what?

4. Our Moms Play Together

As if reading my mind, Kristen nodded her head towards our moms. "I made a deal with my mom that if I could get your dad to surprise you with his dick in your mouth that she would make out with your mom for us. I mean, when was the last time we got to see them do that?"

She was right, it HAD been ages. Come to think of it, it was probably four years ago on this very date since I'd seen just the two of them together without someone else being in between them (like me). My mom and Aunt Linda had played with each other since they were barely teens (or not quite as in Linda's case) and from what my dad told me, they kept pretty busy with one another throughout their teen years. What he remembered most was they loved to include him as well and I could see the look in his eyes as he would tell me about how they would put on a show for him and his younger brother when they were all in high school.

Now that they were older and more "mature", they seemed to keep things more private between them. In fact, my mom rarely even mentioned doing anything with her sister although I had a pretty good idea they still did it quite regularly, if more privately.

Which brings to mind one of my gripes. It gets frustrating at times when people seem to think just because various members of a family have sex that it's all one big gangbang and everyone knows what everyone else is doing. It's not like we hide things from one another, but there is an element of personal privacy that we all respect. Although I knew my mom and aunt enjoyed one another at times, I never pushed my mom to talk about it nor did I ever try to barge in on them and force my way together with them. So just because I can't tell a lot about what they do together doesn't mean they are secretive or trying to hide anything. It's just something personal between them, sort of the same way my parents treat sex between the two of them.

OK, so back from my rant... I was saying all that just so people reading this realize what a special thing it was for me and Kristen to see our mom's making out like two teenagers in the backseat of a car. They were on the chaise lounge chair, sitting side by side kissing one another. They were still dressed (if you can call wearing those bikinis being dressed) but I had serious doubts that it would be the case for long.

"Looks like my mom didn't have to do much to convince your mom either," Kristen whispered to me as we sat next to one another on the edge of the hot tub.

The tub water felt good but it was too hot to stay in for too long so we'd gotten out and taken a seat along the outside edge. With the main pump turned off it was a lot quieter now, making it possible for us to whisper so we wouldn't interrupt our mothers. My dad was obviously pretty turned on by the two of them kissing as well as he pulled up one of the chairs and took a front row seat to the exhibition. He stayed naked and slowly stroked his dick as he watched his wife and sister-in-law. His dick was pretty limp after having just cum in my mouth but I was pretty sure THAT condition would change pretty soon. Like, what could be hotter for him to watch than his wife playing with her own sister?

In a way it seemed a little weird to watch two women in their forties kissing and touching one another. I'm not sure why, it just did. Maybe it was because it just wasn't something I saw very often, not even in my dad's porn collection. My pussy was tingling as I watched my mom's hand caressing her sister's boobs through her bikini top, making her nipples poke through. Aunt Linda seemed more interested in my mom's crotch than her boobs, putting her hand between my mom's legs which she'd spread slightly for her sister's convenience.

"They're pretty hot together, aren't they," Kristen whispered to me. I noticed her hand was between her legs again and I started to rub myself as well. The taste of my dad's cum was still thick in my mouth and my pussy was even wetter than it had been in the hot tub!

By now my mom had Aunt Linda's top off, exposing her firm breasts and allowing her to fondle them and squeeze her nipples between her fingertips. Linda's boobs were smaller than my mom's but thanks to a lift a little while back they were as firm as a woman's half her age. She had decided to just take out the sag and not "enhance" them which I knew pleased my dad as he loved the natural feel.

Our moms were still kissing, their tongues visible now and then as they tasted one another. My aunt had my mom's bikini bottom pulled to one side so her thick pussy hair was showing, her finger pushing inside my mom's pussy as far as she could shove it in. I could tell from the way my mom's hips were moving in sync with Aunt Linda's finger that she was loving it.

My own finger was threatening to penetrate my pussy as I watched what was happening just a few feet away. God they looked so hot together! It was killing me how slow and deliberate they were taking things, as if they know we were watching and wanted to tease us like a pole dancer taking her time on a strip club stage. Of course, they DID know we were watching and I wouldn't put it past the two of them to do just that - take their time to drive the rest of us crazy.

My mom moaned, the first sound I'd heard from her, as Aunt Linda used her thumb to rub her clit as her finger was up inside her pussy. With all the hair she had, it was hard to see just what my aunt was doing to her but it must have been pretty good from the way my mom was reacting. I guess it goes without saying when two women have been doing each other for almost thirty years that they would have a pretty good idea what to do to get the other one off!

My aunt must have wanted more than just to finger my mom. It was like they had some sort of psychic connection as without a word or any signal I could detect, my mom laid back on the chaise lounge chair, pulling her bottom off as my Aunt took hers off as well, followed closely by the rest of their clothes, leaving the two of them naked.

Damn, if I looked just half as good as them twenty years from now I'll feel lucky! My aunt especially had preserved her shape. My mom's larger D-cups were starting to show the effects of gravity and sagged a little bit without a bra to hold them up. Still, nobody would have complained, I am sure! Each of them had kept their stomachs flat and their legs trim. Although I would NEVER tell her this, my mom's ass was little bigger than my aunts but then judging from the family album, that had always been the case.

It was sort of like me and Kristen. We each seemed to have inherited much of our mother's figures as she had the tight little ass while mine was more "rounded", shall we say. I'd always liked my ass, though, especially back when my chest wasn't exactly doing me any favors. Maybe that's why even today, I like to run around with something that covers my top more than my ass, like a t-shirt at night.

My aunt was the first to taste pussy as she leaned over my mom's tanned stomach and put her head between her sisters thighs. She used one hand to spread apart the thick forest of pubic hair so she could get a better view of my mom's pussy. My mom trimmed her pussy just enough to keep her bikini decent but that was about it. Even my aunt just trimmed hers, although she kept it much shorter than my mom. Must have been a generational thing, I guess, as both Kristen and I kept ours shaved bare. I'd experimented different times with a landing strip, small v-patch, and other 'designs" but inevitably I would get frustrated with it one day and just shave it all off again.

As my aunt ate my mom's pussy, my mom reached over and tugged on my aunt to encourage her to climb aboard. Fortunately the chaise lounge was a really nice one (as in expensive) and so it didn't even squeak with the weight of both of them on it although my aunt had to tuck in her knees hard against my mom to stay on board. God, it had been so many years since I had seen them in this position. Again, for some reason it was so much more erotic than when say, I saw Kristen and a friend in a 69. I don't want to say they were "too old" to do this sort of thing and they should "act their age" or anything silly like that, yet there was just something about seeing two mature women in such a sexy position, both of them obviously enjoying every minute of it.

I heard a low growl next to me and glanced over to see Kristen with her eyes fixed on her mom, her lips separated just slightly and her chest breathing hard as her hand rubbed her pussy faster and faster. Damn, she was getting off! The intensity of her facial expression, as if she was ignoring everything else around her and conscious only of the two women in front of her, was impressive, to say the least.

Damn, if she could only have focused on her studies at school as intensely as she was on her mom and aunt fucking each other, she would have graduated at the top of her class! Instead, the airhead (and I mean that lovingly) dropped out of school and became a whore. Of course, she drove a new convertible while I drove my little Saturn Ion and she had money to burn on every toy while I was forced to move back with my parents because I couldn't afford to pay for my own apartment.

It would have been an interesting question for my old philosophy professor - who was better off, the whore or the Christian school teacher? Financially, there was no contest. However, I think I had her beat in the 'self-worth" category. When I leave work to come home I feel like I've accomplished something to make the world a better place and help a young child in their life. Kristen has nothing but a worn pussy and a purse full of money for allowing some jerk to fuck her who doesn't even know her real name, not exactly a "save the world" way of life.

As for me, I was too fascinated with watching my mom and Aunt Linda to cum myself. It wasn't like watching a porn movie where you play with yourself and imagine being a part of the scene. I really had no desire to join them, it was too special the way it was to interfere. When they made each other cum I was so excited that I wanted to stand up and cheer. Kristen just came herself again, thinking of herself as usual. I couldn't help but notice that my dad was starting to recover, not a surprise given what was happening within an arm length of his chair. He would've had to be a eunuch to not get an erection, no matter how recently he had just unloaded!

Once they had both cum, they turned on their sides, facing each other, pulling in ever so tightly to one another with their legs intertwined such their thighs were pressed up against their wet pussies and their boobs were mashed against one another. As they resumed kissing, I wondered how they tasted to each other. My aunt's back was to me and I could see her ass clench and then release as she pushed her leg in up against my mom's pussy, trying to stimulate her once again. It was like watching a dig hump your leg, except in this case the women were humping their thighs into the other's pussy, rubbing up against their sensitive clits.

As they moved quicker, I could hear them whispering to each other but I couldn't quite make out what it was that they were saying to each other. Then it was like my aunt was given an electric shocked as her body straightened out and she tensed stiffly, almost quivering as another orgasm ,must have been ripping through her.

I guess as sisters their bodies must have been in sync as my mom quickly followed her and it was like two statues for almost a minute. I hadn't seen my mom cum like that before, just all stiff and tense, like she was so consumed that her body was frozen as it tried to deal with it. Then, just as quickly, they both relaxed and started humping each pother hard, moaning and sighing as hugged each other tightly and buried their faces in each other's neck. Eventually it was over and it was like they just collapsed, somehow staying on the chaise lounge but other than that, not moving a muscle as if they were totally exhausted - as they probably were.

5. My Dad Fucks Us All

"God DAMN that was hot!" Kristen whispered loudly, enough that my dad heard her and turned to us and smiled. He was fully erect once again and I was sure ready to bury his pussy in someone. Who would he fuck first?

Now I would be lying through my teeth if I didn't start to get myself in position for him to fuck me. After all, as his daughter, wouldn't he want to do me first? Of course, Kristen was a couple years younger than me and without a doubt the hottest female in sight at the moment. But she was a whore now and my dad, while he didn't let it stop him from fucking her, wasn't as enthusiastic about her as he used to be.

Probably my biggest "competitor" was my mom. After all, she WAS his wife so maybe he would feel obligated to fuck her first. The last person on my "list" was my Aunt Linda. Sure she was hot and probably reminded me of his high school days when he fucked her and she was still in 8th grade, but other than reliving the past, she may be a good fuck but didn't have the "pull" the other three of us.

My logic was impeccable, so of course he chose my Aunt Linda. Given my line of reasoning I was more than a little surprised but he didn't offer up any explanation. He simply moved in behind her where she was still on her side, lifted her top leg up and used his other hand to direct his now stiff dick straight into her wet pussy. It seemed to surprise her as much as it did the rest of us but she didn't do anything to discourage her.

"Bet you weren't expecting this, were you?" Kristen whispered to me, a grin on her face. Evidently it was a turn-on for her to see my dad choose her mom as the first one to be fucked as she was masturbating like crazy once again.

Sometimes I think Kristen masturbates when car insurance commercial comes on TV - anything works as an excuse for her to get herself off. You would think that someone who gets fucked as often as she did wouldn't masturbate so much but she did, and then some it seemed. I didn't respond to her taunt but the disappointment in my face must have been obvious.

"Awwwwww, you thought he was going to do you first, didn't you?" she giggled, as if it was something funny - which it was not, at least for me. "I bet you don't know just how many times he comes over to fuck my mom, do you?"

I looked sharply at her. What the heck was she talking about? I knew my dad liked to fuck my aunt now and then when she stopped over but I wasn't aware of him making regular stops at THEIR house. Damn, the things you learn sometimes in the strangest of places and times.

"So does he do you then too?" I asked, almost afraid to hear the answer.

In all these years I'd never felt jealous of my cousin when my dad would fuck her because I was certain I was his favorite pussy. Suddenly I wondered if I had been wrong all these years. For the first time I watched my dad fucking my aunt and wondered if it was right.

"Noooooo, hardly ever," she reassured me. "Mostly he does my mom and even then It's usually when I'm not home."

Well, that was a LITTLE better but still, why was he fucking her first? He'd already cum once in my mouth and even with Viagra, he wasn't going to be cumming a third time anytime soon so was he doing my Aunt instead of me?

As it turned out, later I was very disappointed in myself for having thought such crazy accusations. My father is such a wonderful husband and father that I should have known he would never do anything to hurt or disappoint me or my mom. After fucking her just a little while, he pulled his dick out of my Aunt Linda, walked around the chaise lounge chair and did the same with my mom.

Watching him doing my mom, I wondered if he was going to do me and Kristen next. It was a valid concern given his age. After my recent BJ, would he have the stamina to cum in my mom and still have enough left over to get hard enough to fuck both me and Kristen? If past history was anything to go by the odds were against it, even given the marvels of modern pharmaceuticals.

In the end, I should have realized that there was no reason for me to be so Worried. My dad had never let me down before and he wasn't about to start now. What happened was like my aunt, he only stayed in my mom for a couple of minutes before he pulled himself out of her and headed like an arrow for Kristen, quickly burying his cock, still wet from fucking my mom, in her younger pussy. After our two moms, she must have felt pretty tight, despite the wear and tear her pussy was subjected to every week.

It's not that our mothers were all that loose or bad in any way, it's just a pussy is never the same after childbirth. I've actually known women who wanted a C-section because they didn't want their pussies permanently stretched out by childbirth. Talk about allowing your vanity to get out of hand!

Knowing Kristen, she must have been impatiently waiting for her uncle's cock from the moment I started his BJ and from the way her face was gleaming, she was loving every minute of it now. I have to say this, as much as I LOVE being fucked and there are times I think I will simply not make it through the day if I don't get a cock in me, Kristen is at another level. Her addiction to dicks was probably the primary reason she became a prostitute, not the money (although it certainly didn't hurt). I'd seen her in action at parties and with clients and as hot as I like to think I am, and as good at being fucked as I claim to be, I'll never be in Kristen's league. It's something that has to be born into you I think.

You won't see Kristen in any of my situations, horny and dying for a dick but not having anyone to help me. No, my whore of a cousin goes out like a hunter and bags her own trophy dick, by whatever means is necessary. Married, single, short, tall, skinny, fat... it didn't seem to matter to her when it was just her need for dick that had to be satisfied. I love sex with married guys but at the same time, I try to be careful not to hurt their marriage and if anything, try to make it an experience for him that will help his marriage.

Not Kristen. If anything, I think she gets off from ruining marriages. Any man that trusts her when she says she'll never say anything to his wife is an idiot, no other way to say it. There are enough broken marriages and estranged spouses left in her dust to testify to her selfishness.

At the moment, though, none of that mattered. Kristen obviously was loving being fucked by my dad but then, who am I trying to kid? She would love being fucked by him just as much if he wasn't my father. I never got the feeling that having him fuck her was as emotionally fulfilling for her as it was for me. If he never fucked her again, she might miss it when she was over at our house and feeling horny, but it wouldn't devastate her the way it would me.

As for me, I can't even imagine my father not wanting to fuck me. It's not that his dick has any special powers or his sexual technique is all that great. It's the fact that it tells me how much he loves me that means so much to me. If he ever stopped, regardless of why he claimed the reason to be, I would be left for the rest of my life wondering what I'd done so wrong that he no longer desired me physically.

"Cum in me Uncle John," his blonde whore of a niece begged him. It wasn't like when I begged him to cum in me. For me it was a plead for his love but for Kristen it was all about lust and desire.

Kristen was humping her hips, driving her crotch into him, doing her best to stimulate him into an orgasm. She was good, too. I'd seen her more than a few times practically wring the cum out of a guy before he's hardly even started fucking her.

There were a few moments when I thought it might actually happen. My dad's movements, grunts and facial expression all pointed to an impending eruption at the end of his dick, which was no buried to the hilt in Kristen's pussy. Damn her, she was going to make him do it and she KNEW how I felt about it. Indeed, she turned to face me and winked, my dad not even noticing as his lust overtook him. It was like he was some werewolf who no longer could be held accountable for his actions as he turned into a beast.

"Dammit Kristen, don't you dare do it," I said sharply to her. She knew exactly what "it" meant and it looked like she was just going to ignore me for the sake of her own selfish pleasure. "I'M WARNING YOU..." I said a little louder this time.

My dad was concentrating so much on fucking her it was like he never even heard me but Kristen sure did. Finally she just frowned and stopped humping on his cock, letting him regain consciousness or whatever it was that had him so spellbound for a couple of minutes there.

"Fuck ME now daddy," I invited him, sitting on the edge of the hot tub with my legs spread apart, leaving no doubt whatsoever where I wanted his dick. I curled my finger at him, inviting him towards me.

My dad looked down at Kristen and sort of smiled and shrugged his shoulders, as if to say there was nothing he could say, that he didn't have a choice. Indeed, if anyone had a right to his cock in a situation like this, as his only daughter, I felt I was entitled, even more so than my mom. Sure she was his wife and lover, but then anyone would say he should fuck her.

As his daughter it was a much different story. After all, how many fathers actually got to fuck their daughters? Sure, a lot of them WISH they could and who knows how many would if they had a chance, but face it, there are very few fathers who ever actually get to experience the joy of thrusting their erect cock inside of their own daughter's pussy. Then to do it in front of his wife, and her sister and nice, that just made it even more special. I just wish his entire family could watch as well.

I could feel my heart pounding in my chest as he approached me. His dick was standing out straight, pointing at me like some sort of spear all ready to pierce me. I knew everyone was watching and I squirmed a little from the anticipation of feeling him in me. He was staring at my pussy all the way, not taking his eyes off of it for even a second as he approached me. The was a calm, deliberate manner in the way he came to me, like a man on a mission, one that he would now complete no matter what it took.

When he was close to me he put his hands on my knees and spread me even further apart. With both hands occupied, he shuffled in closer until his dick was up against my pussy. I could see it was still wet from being inside of Kristen and it just seemed hot knowing her puss cum was about to enter me as well. At first he was a little too high and when he pushed forward it slipped up and over my pussy. I didn't; really mind because it caused his shaft to slide over my clit, like a fleshy dildo rubbing over me. God it felt so good!!

"Put it in me daddy," I begged him again, "Oh please fuck me daddy. I want everyone to see how much you love me."

Like he needed to be asked! Still, I've learned over the years that no matter how in control they were, men still loved to hear a girl ask for it. Oh that incredible male ego! I could say it a hundred times and he would want to hear it again... "Fuck me."

"OK baby, here it comes," he said needlessly as I felt the pressure of his cock head against my open pussy.

I was incredibly wet from masturbating and he was stiff as a steel rod so it didn't take much to get him in me. As mentally prepared as I was, I still couldn't help but gasp as he slid into me, the thickness of his cock filling me and stretching me apart between my legs.

"Oh daddy... that feel so good!" I moaned, leaning my head back and shutting my eyes as I concentrated on the sensations being created within me as his dick drilled its way deeper and deeper into me.

One final thrust and we both grunted as he base of his cock planted itself against my bare crotch, pushing up against me, almost sealing me off as he ground himself into me. His stiff pubic hair scratched my bald pussy like a fine steel wool pad as he gyrated his hips to literally drill his dick into me even a little bit deeper.

By now his dick had been in four pussies, two older ones and now two younger ones, in the space of less than half an hour. I'd like to think mine was the tightest of the four so I figured it wasn't going to take much for him to get off. Under the circumstances it wasn't a big deal to me how many positions we were in or how long he could go without shooting off inside of me. No, the important thing was after fucking the other three, I was the one he wanted to finish in. It made me practically burst with pride to know my dad had waited until he was fucking me to release himself. As much as he loved my mother, as much as he got off fucking his sister-in-law and her daughter, in the end it was his own daughter that turned him on the most. I may not be sixteen anymore but still, 23 isn't exactly OLD and he was a man so of course it had to be special for him to fuck me. How many men dream of fucking a younger girl than their wife? A LOT if my mail is any indication. How many of them wish that younger girl was their daughter? A lot of them as well, again if my e-mail and chats tell the story.

He was getting close, as was I. I could feel my orgasm rising inside of me, like a surging tide rising irresistibly. Men seem to think a female orgasm is the same as jerking off a dick - do it long enough and it erupts, just a matter of performing the correct procedure. Heck, men can get off sticking their dicks through holes and not even seeing the woman sucking their dick! Sure, there are times I can cum just manipulating my pussy, but the best orgasms are never straightforward but rather complicated creations, like comparing a store-bought cake mix with a pastry crafted by a French chef.

This particular one I could feel about to come was a complex mix of physical pleasure created by my dad's dick in me, combined with the emotional feelings produced by having three of the women closest to me watching me being literally mated by my father, all blended together with the satisfaction of knowing I was pleasing my father in a way no other woman in the world could.

"God I love you baby," he cried out softly as he lifted my legs higher and rammed his dick into me and held it there, his body quivering as he fought to hold it back as long as possible. "Ahhhhhh!" he groaned as finally he couldn't resist the overwhelming primal drive that dwelled within him, the evolutionary imperative to deliver his seed into his mate.

The feeling of him jerking as the first load of incestuous sperm erupted from his cock, combined with the just perceivable warmth within me of his warm sperm as it bathed the interior of my pussy, and then seeing the look on his face as the pleasure consumed him, all served to ignite my own orgasm. It bloomed in me like a match thrown into a barrel of gasoline, exploding in a fiery wave of pure pleasure that filled me from head to toe. I could feel the goose bumps rising all over yet at the same time it was like a heat lamp was on full blast, making me feel flushed and sweaty. Even my hair seemed to sizzle as my vision narrowed into a tunnel with just his face in view, that face of my father as he continued to release load after load of his cum into me. Damn, not bad for a guy his age, especially considered he had cum in my mouth not that long ago!

"Oh daddy, that feels so good in me.... stay inside of me," I somehow must have said but my voice seemed to be coming from someone else, like I was hearing myself but not saying the words.

Suddenly I felt this incredible feeling of fear, not that I was afraid of being hurt or scared like at a horror movie, but fear that he would pull his dick out of me, leaving me empty with nothing but his cum inside of me. I didn't want that, not yet at least. I wanted to feel him inside of me after he had cum, feel myself joined together with him as his dick slowly dwindled inside of me.

My dad released my legs but instead of dropping them to the deck, I wrapped them around him waist, pulling him into me so he couldn't withdraw. He reached down and put his arms around me as I wrapped my own arms around his neck. He grunted slightly as he lifted me up and off the hot tub, holding me in the air, pinned on his dick like a bug in a tray. My boobs were squished tightly against his chest as he lowered his hands and supported me by putting his hands under my butt and lifting up with one hand on each of my ass cheeks. He was sweating terribly, his body slick as the sweat dripped from his face.

"Thank you daddy," I whispered in his ear so only he could hear, "Thank you for cumming in me... for choosing me."

"You'll always be my baby girl," he said in a lovingly soft voice back to me, "How could I have picked anyone but you?"

"Oh daddy!" I sighed, burying my head in his neck, ignoring the sweat as I felt the tears rising. I felt so proud... so loved.

I could also feel my dad's dick still in me. I didn't even look around to see what the others were thinking or doing. All I could think about was how wonderful my dad had just fucked me and how perfect it was for me to be held by him like this, joined together with him in the most intimate way a father could be with his daughter.

A little cough suddenly interrupted the moment and I opened the eyes to see my mom standing in front of me.

"I know this is special but the rest of us are hungry. Do you plan on ever cooking us dinner or are you just going to fuck your daughter all night?

She said it in a disarming tone so neither of us took it the wrong way. To be perfectly honest, the second option would have been fine with me but we needed to eat and get ready for the fireworks. Our deck was positioned perfectly so we had a great view of the city fireworks display. Of course, they were nothing like the ones in downtown Pittsburgh but here we didn't have to drive and fight the crowds. Not to mention we were free to do other things should the desire come about.

Actually, cooking dinner was probably the best thing at the moment to give my dad a chance to recover. He got dressed again as experience in the past taught him that hot greasy grills and nudity don't get along! The rest of us stayed nude, a little different from the norm but somehow it seemed appropriate tonight.

"So Kelly, will we get to have Duane with us for our 5th anniversary?" Kristen taunted me.

I knew what she was referring to. It seemed lately all my mom and them could do was ask me when Duane was going to propose. Granted, the idea didn't make me shiver but still, it was a major step and I wasn't sure I was ready for him to ask me yet. Even if he did, would we get married in time for next year's 4th of July? Sure he could fuck Kristen and my Aunt Linda. Heck, he had already done them both.

The key was that unless we were married he couldn't fuck my mom. My parents were VERY strict about adultery and never were swingers or did any sort of sex outside of marriage. OK, there was that brief thing with Beth, my best friend, but she was practically a part of the family and it wasn't anything that continued on anyway. He COULD get a BJ from my mom as that wasn't sex, but penetration was out of the questions unless he was married to me and thus officially, and biblically, a part of the family.

My plans for Duane were to wait until he proposed to let him know the rest of my family "involvements". I could never marry anyone unless he fully understood my commitment to my family and the expectations I had once we were married. I would be 100% faithful to my husband and never cheat on him but I could never turn away from my family. It really wasn't a bad deal for him as he could fuck my mom and the other women in my family with my full permission and encouragement. As open minded as Duane was, I didn't anticipate any problems but then you never know for sure. The reason I didn't tell him now was we could break up or who knows what and then what if he told people about my family?

By the time the night was over, my dad had 'recovered" and this time he fucked the others while I either masturbated or played around with whoever was left over with me. It was one of the best 4th of July picnics we had ever had. The only thing that would have made it better would have been if Duane was there. Maybe next year????

It shouldn't come to anyone's surprise that knows anything about my family where the solution came from - my mom. We were talking one day about something or another and somehow the subject came up. Well, it wasn't really THAT random.

"Mom... Dad was fucking me this morning and can you believe it, all he did was go on and on about Tammy again," I whined.

"Well dear, don't think you're alone," she chuckled as she rolled her eyes, "The horny bastard was doing me last night and he actually called out her name when he came. How's THAT for something to complain about?"

We both laughed and hugged and then she got more serious again.

"Really, I've been thinking about it a lot since last night. Now that you're having the same issue, we really DO need to do something. Want to hear my idea?"

I just nodded my head, my full attention riveted on her. Of course I wanted to hear her idea!

"How about you invite her over for a sleepover at our house this weekend? It would be as good an excuse as any for her to stay the night."

"Ummmmm, mom, you're forgetting something," I said, shaking my head, "I'm not sixteen anymore and girls my age don't have sleepovers."

My mom just grinned slyly at me and came back with, "Oh yeah, so let your old mom get this right... you just sleep over at Duane's house but it's not a sleepover because you're 23?"

"Mommmmmm!" I whined again, not finishing my sentence. I then got more serious and looked at her asking, "Do you think Aunt Shari will really buy it? I've never asked Tammy to spend the night here before."

My mom just shrugged and said, "I don't see why not. Besides, we don't have to tell her it's only the two of you. Let her think it's a complete party. I bet she doesn't think twice."

We both knew better than THAT. If there was one thing my Aunt Shari DID do and that was worry about anything that had to do with me. She was convinced I was a bad influence on Tammy and wasn't afraid to speak her mind about me to my mom when they were alone. She barely gave me the time of time but frankly, it didn't bother me in the least. The less I had to do with her the better.

If Aunt Shari had REALLY known anything about me, she would realize that her attitude towards me just gave me all the more incentive to do even more around her. Knowing she would hate me for it made being fucked by her son all the better for me. As much as I despised my Uncle Jim as a man, sometimes I let him fuck me just as I masturbated, wondering if my dad was thinking about fucking Tammy again as he fucked my mom.

2. Picking Up Tammy

Friday finally came and my mom and I were getting ready to drive over to my cousin's house to pick her up. I came downstairs and met my mom, purse and car keys in hand.

"Damn it Kelly, do you always have to push it with your Aunt Shari?" she sighed, looking me over, "You know she takes it out on me, don't you?"

"Oh mom!" I whined, like a girl half my age, "What's the big deal?"

My mom looked at my ass, half hanging out from my ultra-short cutoffs. It didn't help, at least from her perspective, that they were ripped in a couple of places such that you could see my bare butt thought the seat.

"I thought we agreed you wouldn't wear those out in public?"

"But we're not going out in public, just to Aunt Shari and Uncle Jim's," I rationalized.

She just rolled her eyes and then pointed at my tank top. "And as for THAT, my darling slutty daughter, wouldn't you say you outgrew that a few years ago?"

I gave her my best "who me?" look and grinned. OK, so it WAS a couple of sizes too small and was tight as hell on me but it let my nipples poke through like it was Saran Wrap and exposed a few inches of my stomach where it was too short to cover me. The top plunged to show a healthy amount of cleavage. Obviously I wasn't wearing a bra!

"We're late so I guess it will have to do. God, your Aunt is going to have a fit!"

She turned to head downstairs to the garage and I followed her, grinning the entire way. She may protest about me upsetting my Aunt but I knew she really enjoyed tweaking her sanctimonious sister-in-law. My Aunt Shari was the type that gives Christians a bad name - "holier-than-thou", self-righteous, and conservative to the extreme in dress and conduct. Needless to say, she didn't approve of me and held my mom responsible for how I turned out to be - "a slutty little whore" in her words.

I didn't help the situation, making sure I always dressed in my most revealing outfits and flirting with all the men when she was around - including her husband and son. What she didn't know, and what would have probably caused her to "go postal", was that I was doing more than just flirting with them, a LOT more! If there was any way I could tell her without her going ballistic, I would have loved to seen the expression on her face when she found out her loving husband and teenage son had been fucking me for years!

As we drove over to their house, my mom turned to look at me yet again and shook her head with a loud sigh. "You know, she MAY refuse to let Tammy come over with you dressed like that. That bitch can be pretty stubborn sometimes. God, if nothing else she's going to give me an earful, I just know it!"

"Oh well, that's her problem," I huffed, crossing my arms and feeling more determined than ever to mess with my Aunt's head.

I hated people like her, or at least really didn't like them. What right did she have to say how I dressed or what I did with my private life? Look what all her high and might so-called morals had gotten her - a husband doing their niece and kids committing incest behind her back. I'd love to see her in church sometime giving one of her pious speeches about all the ills of the earth and how the world was decaying and then stand up tell everyone there what kind of family SHE was a part of.

"Yeah, but remember that she's the one who can keep Tammy home and there goes all our plans for your father tonight," my mom replied.

As usual, she was the calm one who kept things in perspective. She may have been right but it wasn't like I was wearing my sluttiest bikini or anything. Sure my outfit probably would have gotten me removed from most public places but then we weren't going to the mall or anything like that.

By then we had arrived so the conversation ended as we got out of the car and approached the front door. Rick answered the door and his eyes immediately went to my boobs and ass - where else? I imagined his cock was already twitching. It had been a few months since he'd last fucked me as usually my mom was the one to grab him when he was over at our place. I can't say I missed him fucking me all that much but he WAS enthusiastic and damn if he couldn't stay hard a long time!

"Tammy, Kelly and her mom are here!" he called out over his shoulder, his eyes still fixed on my boobs.

"See something you like Rick?" I couldn't help but tease him.

My mom's elbow jabbed me in the side, reminding me to behave. For some reason, standing on the doorstep where anyone in the neighborhood could see me, with Rick right there in front of me, a growing bulge in his pants, and it was like all I could do to stay off my knees and start sucking his dick. One thing about Rick, he DID have the biggest dick in the family, at least so far as I'd seen.

My mom pushed me through the door, taking my mind off thoughts of his hardening dick in my mouth, at least momentarily. As the screen door closed behind us, Aunt Shari made her appearance. As usual, she was dressed in a long denim skirt with a high neck blouse, her hair pulled back tightly in a bun. It was almost funny, in a way, to see someone dressed that way on a day as hot as today was. She started to say hi to my mom when she caught sight of me and her smile instantly dropped into a deep frown. She pursed her lips and curtly told my mom she needed to speak with her in the kitchen.

"Don't you have work to do young man?" she hissed at Rick, who was trying his best to conceal the erection that was sprouting in his jeans.

Lord only knows what she would have said or done if she'd seen his reaction to his own cousin. No doubt she would have blamed me for it - and then my mom for letting me come over dressed this way in the first place.

Rick shrugged and turned to go back outside. With our mom's out of sight in the kitchen, he made a circle with the fingers of his felt hand and then poked his index finger of the other hand through it, moving it in and out. I knew what he was doing, and I just grinned at him and cupped my boobs for him, lifting them up and jiggling them slightly for him. Something told me that Rick would be needing to use the bathroom pretty soon - with the door locked!

I heard voices in the kitchen and it didn't sound like things were going to well. As much as I would have loved to hear what they were saying, I stayed well away. Despite what my mom might think, I really DID know what lines not to cross and getting caught listening in on their argument was such a line. Just then, Kate came up the stairs from their bedroom downstairs.

"Tammy said she would be right up," she said, then she looked at me and like her mom, a look of disgust came over her. Kate was a clone of her mother in many ways and I couldn't stand her - and the feeling was mutual.

"Why do you always have to dress like a whore?" she whined at me, "Don't you have any respect for yourself?"

I couldn't help but sigh out loud and roll my eyes at her. What an idiot! Just because she was likely going to be a virgin AFTER she was married, it didn't mean everyone else had to love by her rules. The truth was I DID respect myself which is exactly why I wore such outfits.

"Oh go fuck yourself Kate," I responded, fed up with her and her attitude.

"Well at least everyone in school doesn't call me a slut," she came back, crossing her arms in defiance.

"So what?" I replied, "That's better than being called the class bitch."

Our little debate probably would have gotten quite heated had not Tammy come up the stairs, a backpack hanging over one shoulder and her purse in her other hand.

"Don't tell me... are you two going at it again?" she sighed, dropping her pack to the floor.

"You're going to be just like her someday, aren't you?" Kate practically spat at her younger sister and then marched back to their bedroom. I could only imagine some of the fights they must have had being forced to sleep with each other in the same room!

I gave Kate a hug and she giggled a little at me. "Did mom see you yet?" I nodded and she giggled again. "I bet you really pissed her off. I hope she still lets me come over."

We quickly learned that answer as our moms My aunt's face was all red and I would have loved to have known her blood pressure about now. My mom just look amused. That's what was so cool about my mom. My aunt could yell at her and call her names all day and it didn't faze her a bit. If anything, even though she wouldn't admit it, I knew she secretly liked it when I dressed up for my aunt.

My aunt purposely avoided looking at me and addressed her youngest daughter. "I suppose you can spend the night but you had better behave and call me before you go to bed, you hear me young lady?"

Tammy knew her mom well enough not to say anything stupid at this point. She just nodded again and picked up her case to leave.

"Hey, don't I get a hug?" her mom reminded her. Tammy looked a little embarrassed but she did as she was told, hugging her mom and then we all headed back to the door. I was about to say something when my mom jabbed me in the side again. OK, message received, shut up Kelly!

As we went back to the car, Rick was watching us from the garage. I could only imagine the thoughts going through his deviant mind. They would have REALLY been wild had he known our plans for Tammy that night!

"So mom, did you and Aunt Shari have a nice talk?" I asked innocently as we headed back to our place.

"Well, I think SHE did all the talking," my mom replied, "And young lady, PLEASE don't wear that outfit back there again, OK?"

I smiled and Tammy was giggling in the back seat. My mom looked in the rear view mirror to see her and called back to her. "And what's so funny back there anyway?"

Tammy giggled again and then said, "You should have heard what my mom said to me after you called and asked me to stay over. It was so funny!"

She didn't elaborate, nor did she need to. Both my mom and I had pretty good ideas what must have transpired. She was probably read the riot act about behaving herself and not going out anywhere with her slutty cousin. Well, I bet she had no idea what I REALLY had in store for her daughter, and we didn't need to go out to do it.

3. Getting Started in the Hot Tub

It was only a short while and we were back home and I led her to my room to change into something more comfortable. Tammy, though, had other ideas.

"Hey Kelly, can we go in the hot tub first?" she asked, her eyes bright and a big smile on her face.

I didn't see any reason why not so we just stripped and grabbed some towels from the hallway closet and headed downstairs to the hot tub. This was one of the few times I ran through the house naked - between my bedroom and the hot tub. It didn't make any sense to put on anything just to take it off less than a minute later. So far as I knew I'd always used the hot tub nude unless we had company over. It was just one of those things we did as a family, not meant to be sexual.

Of course, that didn't mean the tub wasn't ever used for sex. Indeed, the first time I ever saw my parents making love was looking down from my bedroom window onto the deck and seeing them in the tub together. After I started having sex with my dad, that opened new doors as well. When my friends came over, most of them enjoyed being nude too - although they stayed dressed when my dad was home. More than a few boys I dated got to spend some time with me in our tub as well. The look on their faces when I just stripped and hopped in was priceless!

I remembered when Tammy and her family would visit and we would all use the tub (in our suits, of course). When Tammy got to be around twelve or so and started to fill out in all the right places, I would reach under the foam and feel my dad's erection under the water. He use to get SO horny when she ran around in her swim suit, even it is was rather conservative because of her mother.

Tammy helped me pull the cover off and I started up the jets. The water was hot and even thought the sun was out and it was a hot day, it still felt good to climb in and feel your skin tingle from the heat of the water. I slowly lowered myself in as Tammy did the same. I couldn't help but notice she was developing into quit the looker! Her boobs were definitely filling out, maybe a solid B cup by now. She was a little heavier maybe than she should be but not fat by any means. She had wide tans lines from the conservative two piece suit her mom made her wear. Actually, I was amazed she ever let her wear THAT as until the past year or so all she could wear were one-piece suits.

"Wow, it's so hot!" she exclaimed as the water went over her chest and up to her neck. Indeed, it did feel a little hotter than usual but that was probably because we were already so warm from the sun before we got in.

I felt the jets striking me from all sides and I recalled the first time I figured out what other things the jets were good for. We had the standard shower massager in the bathroom (why do you think women all want them?) but the jets did a much better job as they were more powerful and the force of them against my pussy was absolutely delightful!

We just chatted for a while as it had been quite a while since the two of us had been alone together. She was really curious about my boyfriend Duane and I guess I couldn't blame her. It had been a long time since I had a real "boyfriend" and Duane was special. I could actually see him proposing to me someday - and me accepting!

"So does he fuck you good?" she asked with a naughty grin, reaching over with her foot to rub my leg.

"Oh yeah!" was all I said in response, my smile telling her more than anything I could say.

"Does he know...," she started to say, dragging it on as if not sure she should be asking.

"You know better than to even ask that," I replied, maybe a little too sharply and then added, "Someday if and when he proposes I will. I don't want to be like Aunt Linda."

She knew what I was talking about. My Aunt had agreed to get married and thought her new husband was cool with her lifestyle but soon found out he couldn't handle it. Their marriage lasted long enough to bring Kristen into the household but not long enough for her to ever know her father. When he gave her an ultimatum, stop having sex with her family or he would leave, she handed him a suitcase. Family came first with her as it did with me. As much as I loved Duane and dearly hoped someday we might be married, if he wasn't ready to accept me for who I am then it would never come to be.

"Hey... Rick's been over here a lot lately," she said, changing the subject. "Who does he do the most, you or your mom?"

"You mean he doesn't brag about it when gets home?" I chuckled.

"Oh sure but I never know what to believe with him sometimes. He claims that he just fucks you mom. Is that true?"

I nodded at her and shrugged my shoulders. "It's OK, my mom gets a kick out it. So what about you? Have you been a good sister lately?"

Her eyes lit up again and she smiled broadly. "Not so much him as some of his friends. He has some really cute guys he hangs around with and now that they know he has a sister like me, they seem to want to come around more often. Hmmmmmm, I wonder why?"

She said that last part with such an innocent look on her face, as if she had no idea why a bunch of guys would want to come over to fuck their friend's sixteen year old sister, that we both burst out laughing.

"What about your girlfriends? Anything happen there lately?" I asked.

Tammy had never really gotten into girl-girl sex, even though I was the first one to eat her pussy. Sometimes I think she let me play with her more to please me than her and over time, we had sort of gotten away from it. In fact, it had been ages since the last time we played together, maybe last Christmas?

"Nah, I like boys, you know that," she reminded me, then looked at me with a haughty grin and then added, "Of course, present company excepted."

"Get over her silly," I said, motioning for her to move closer to me.

Tammy turned her back to me and I put my arms around her and pulled her in tightly between my legs/ She was quite a bit smaller than me still, even smaller than Kristen was. I felt her naked body between my legs and then the pressure of her pushing against my pussy and felt a chill run up my spine, even with the hot jet pumping out against it.

"Ready for a little jet action?" I asked, twisting around without waiting for a response.

I turned so she was facing the side of the hot tub. This wasn't the first time we'd done this and she knew the drill. She lifted her legs up and out of the eater, draping them over the side of the tub so her crotch was up close to the jet that was shooting out air and eater. I supported her from behind so she wouldn't dunk under the water and she spread her legs apart so the jet pulsed directly against her bare pussy.

"Oh wow, that feel SO good," she sighed as I felt her relax and fall back into my arms, trusting me to hold her up.

I had my arms around her, my knees resting on the bottom of the tub, barely enough to keep my own head out of the water. Her arms were stretched out to her sides, floating in the water as she relaxed even more, letting the water shoot out against her hot little pussy and taking in every sensation.

"Oh Kelly... it feel so good against me like that."

She shifted herself slightly so her crotch was up even closer to the jet. I let her rest yup against my chest as I reached down lower, trying to stretch my arm out to get to her pussy. I could feel the turbulence against the backs of my fingers as I touched her clit and felt her jump against me. She didn't say anything, just moaned as she let my finger assist the water in stimulating her pussy.

"Well I see you two didn't waste any time going at it!" my mom exclaimed as she came out on the porch to see what we were doing, "Your dad just called, he's on his way home. Don't worry, I didn't tell him a thing about Tammy being here."

I didn't know if Tammy heard her or not because as she spoke, Tammy was moaning and stretching out as I felt her start to shiver in my arms. She certainly wasn't cold which meant she was about to cum or was cumming. She must have inherited the same family Gene as me - quick to orgasm! Her hips were bucking now, like she was trying to fuck the stream of water that was shooting out against her pussy. My fingers were rubbing her clit as quickly as I could as she started to gasp and moan, like she was running out of air. Finally, her knees straightened out in one quick jerk, almost throwing me backwards and causing me to come close to letting her slide down into the water.

"Oh my god!" she moaned loudly.

My mom was standing right in front of her, smiling as she watched her niece enjoying herself. Too bad he own mother wasn't so understanding. I suppose to her enjoying yourself like this would have been a sin. Somehow I just can't buy it that God would create us with the capacity to enjoy such pleasure and NOT want us to use it!

"Damn, that was quick," my mom observed, her eyebrows lifting, "Someone must have been pretty horny, eh?"

By now Tammy must have returned from where ever she had gone during her orgasm, at least enough to comprehend what my mother had just said, because she answered back saying, "Well, it's not I didn't have some help!"

I grinned at my mom and shrugged, as if it was all in a day's work. Tammy [pulled her ;legs back in and sat next to me in the tub with my arm around her and her head against my shoulder, resting after her quick orgasm.

"Wow, I really needed that," she sighed, still breathing hard. "I wish we had a hot tub!"

"Yeah but you have a great pool which I wish we had!" I countered.

Funny how we always want what someone else has. Actually, on a hot day like today I would have loved to have gone for a swim in their pool. With her mom home we certainly wouldn't have been able to have fun and swimming naked would have been totally out of the question. A few times I had teased Rick by reaching in his swim suit and tugging on his cock when his mom wasn't looking which on the one hand, he loved it but on the other hand, was mortified that his mom would see us.

"Your turn now," she declared after a while, looking up at me with a grin.

Actually, I had something else I wanted between my legs besides a stream of hot frothy water. I moved to the other side of the rub and put my arms out to my side, supporting myself on the upper edges of the tub. I then used my position as leverage to lift my lower body up to the surface of the water, my pussy just breaking the surface as the water seemed to boil all around it. Tammy knew what I wanted and she grinned as she moved in between my legs.

"It's been a long time," she said softly, barely audible over the noise of the pumps.

She was looking at my pussy, as if mesmerized by the sight of it. :Lifting my legs over her shoulders, it allowed me to raise my crotch up and out of the eater for her to get to my pussy without having to dunk her head under water.

"Eat my pussy Tammy," I encouraged her, my heart racing as I watched her slowly lower her head between my legs.

Tammy's little hands reached under and grabbed my ass, helping me to keep it up high and free from the water. My mom moved around the tub until she was behind me so she could get a better view. I wished I could see her, to see how she was reacting to watching her niece as she started to lick her daughter's pussy. No matter, it felt wonderful!

Since I'd been the one to teach Tammy about licking pussy, she knew exactly what to do to get me off. She knew just how to run her tongue around my clit in tight little circles, teasing it before taking it lightly between her teeth and tugging on it. I loved the way she put her finger in me, first one and then two and finally three, pushing them in and then stroking them in and out of me like a dick. Her tongue pressed up against my clit, licking me like a dog, driving me crazy.

"Oh yeah... right there," I moaned as she hit the perfect spot, making me jump with pleasure, goose bumps rising all over me despite the hot water surrounding me.

My pussy felt stuffed with her fingers and I closed my eyes as I felt my own orgasm starting to rise within me, like a rapidly approaching storm as the sky filled and the thunder began, only this was my blood pounding in my ears.

"YES! Make me cum Tammy," I cried out, arching my back and driving my pussy into her face.

It felt so wonderful, like every pore of my body was screaming out in pleasure. Damn she knew exactly how to lick me, just how to touch me, perfect in every way. I tried to open my eyes but it was like everything was blurry and the tears started to flow from my eyes as I literally cried because I was feeling so good.

4. My Dad Gets Home

"Whoa! What do we have here?" I heard a deep voice somewhere in the back of my mind."

Slowly it registered with me - my dad was home!. I blinked and tried to focus on the fuzzy image in front of me. Gradually he came into view and I saw my dad standing there in his dress suit, smiling as he watched his niece eating out his daughter and bringing her to an orgasm. It must have been a pleasant surprise to come home to!

"Hi daddy!" I greeted him. Tammy's eyes widened and she turned to see her uncle watching her. She too grinned and greeted him, as if this was the most natural position in the world for her uncle to see her in.

"Hey Uncle John! Are you going to join us?" she said, a naughty grin on her face. Really, was she expecting him to say no?

My mom went over and gave him a kiss, patting him on the crotch lightly.

"I need to get dinner ready," she informed us all. Then she turned to my dad and wagged her finger at him. "Now have fun dear, but don't you dare get that suit wet, I just had it cleaned!"

My dad grinned but at the same time, I could see he was a little puzzled. Not that he minded seeing the two of us in the tub, but he had to be wondering what the occasion was. It had been ages since Tammy had been over and naked in the hot tub with him. As he undressed, carefully laying his suit out on the table far away from the tub, I filled him in on the details.

"So she's staying the night?" he asked, almost as if he couldn't believe it was possible. I nodded and he shook his head as if he was dreaming and about to wake up. "How in the world did you ever convince her mom to go along with this?"

I told him about how so far as my Aunt Shari was concerned, there were a number of girls her tonight for a sleepover as she would have never approved of her spending the night alone with us, or should I say me. I knew she didn't have a clue that my dad was fucking her daughter but that didn't mean she trusted me.

Tammy and I spread apart, both of us sitting on one side with room for my dad to squeeze in between us. It must have felt good for him to feel the naked bodies of two girls against him, one on each side. As he dropped in, I saw his dick was still flaccid and I knew he was going to need some work to get going. It shouldn't take much to correct the situation, not under the circumstances. It seemed Tammy had the same thoughts as me as when I reached for his crotch under the water, her had was already in place, gripping his dick in her little hand.

In my mind, I was just going to stroke his dick with my hand for a while to get him hard but Tammy was apparently less patient than me. She slid off the seat, drew in a deep breath, and then quickly dunked her head under the eater. From the gasp and then the groans that started to come from my dad, there was little doubt where her mouth was at or what she was doing with it. A few second later, she was up for air and then back down again.

"Feel good dad"? I asked Tammy sucked his dick under the water.

My dad groaned as she must have hit a sensitive spot and then he tried to answer, "You knew the answer to that, she looked to be doing quite the job on your earlier as I recall."

Indeed she had, and my pussy still was feeling the residual effects of her incredible pussy eating skills. It was hard to believe she had never done another girl! This time when her head bobbed up, I was ready and I quickly dunked my head under the water to help her out. His dick was starting to harden, not yet at full mast but getting there. The bromine taste of the water was sort of yucky but the feel of his dick in my mouth more than compensated. I still was somewhat out of breath so I couldn't stay under for long before tag teaming with Tammy who was ready the moment I appeared above the water. "Here, let me get up," he offered, seeing how exhausted we were becoming.

My dad pulled himself back and up until he was sitting on the edge of the hot tub, his hard dick now at the perfect level to be sucked and played with. His pubic hair was wet and matted down, making his dick look even longer than usual. I let Tammy have the first shot at him and she went to town, hungrily sucking his dick like a kid with a new popsicle. For as girl who preferred boys her age, she certainly didn't seem to be hesitant about sucking off her uncle who was almost three times her age! I wondered if it was because he was her uncle or my dad that got her off the most. So far as I knew, besides her own father my dad was the only man who could legally drink that she had sex with so there had to be something special about it for her.

I couldn't just sit there and watch my youngest cousin sucking my dad's dick and do nothing so I started to play with myself under the water, rubbing my clit and boobs as the two of them enjoyed one another. I doubt anyone could have been in my position and NOT masturbated, I don't care whether they claim they never do or not. I quickly got myself off again as my dad just sat there with his head stretched back, his eyes rolling in their sockets as she got him closer and closer to cumming. Heck, I bet she could have sat back and read the dictionary and he would have cum sooner or later, just from the site of her cute naked body between his legs.

"Suck it just like that," he groaned, grabbing her head and holding it one particular spot where it must have felt extra special for him.

My dad groaned again and then I saw his hips buck and Tammy choked and gagged slightly as he began to pump his cum into her mouth. Damn, everyone was cumming fast the first time tonight. My dad was usually pretty good at controlling himself. I think he just wanted to cum in her mouth as quickly as he could to get things started.

When he finished Tammy leaned back and like a good little slut that I taught her to be, she opened her mouth to show off the load of cum she had just taken. She then closed her mouth and with an exaggerated gulp, swallowed it cleanly and then opened her mouth again, like a hospital patient proving she had swallowed all of her pills. God she looked so hot, like a little cumslut with just a tiny bit of his cum leaking out the cornier of her mouth and down her chin. Yep, I was proud of my star pupil!

5. Overnight

"Well, that's what I call good timing!" my mom declared as she came out just in time to see Tammy sticking out her tongue to show his cum was all I her stomach, "Supper is ready, that is if Tammy is still hungry after that big load!"

We all laughed, especially Tammy as she wiped the cum off her chin and then licking it off her hand while my dad watched. What a girl, getting every drop without wasting any. My mom brought dinner out on the deck so we wouldn't get things wet in the house. It felt a little odd eating nude but under the circumstances, what choice did we have without running all the way back to my room while my mom had supper waiting for us? Now that we had a few moments to relax, my dad was curious. "So what's the story, anyway?" he asked my mom, "What's going on?"

My mom explained out plans for the evening and as soon as she mentioned Tammy sleeping over, my dad's eyes widened and he looked like a little boy who had been told he was getting a new bike.

"Really, the entire night?" he asked incredulously, as if he wasn't sure he had heard her correctly.

"Yep, ALL night." Tammy chimed in, her face lit up and her eyes sparkling.

I knew what was probably killing him to ask but he was too much a gentleman to ask it so I answered it without making him say the words. "And YES daddy, she's all yours tonight. Mom and I will sleep on my bed."

"Really?" he seemed like he couldn't believe what I had said.

For him he must have thought he had died and gone to heaven. Actually, this was the first time Tammy had heard our plans for the entire evening but she didn't seem bothered. If anyone felt any sort of disappointment, it was probably me as I would have loved to have joined them in bed. I am sure my dad would have agreed had I mentioned it but I also knew this was one of those very rare opportunities that might not be available to him again for a long time, if ever. What man wouldn't want to spend the entire night with a nubile, cute, sixteen year old slut?

There wasn't much to clean up after supper as my mom has used paper plates and cups as well as plastic utensils. I sort of wondered what my dad would do, stay down and maybe watch TV and play around a little or go right for the jugular? Like it was a question at all! No sooner than we were done with dinner than my dad grabbed Tammy's hand, their eyes met and they were gone, headed straight for his bedroom. I had little doubt that was the last time we would see them until morning, at least see them and be able to converse with them. I turned to my mom and grinned.

"Well mom, I guess it's just me and you tonight!"

My mom kissed me and her hands moved to my breasts and she squeezed them lightly. "Is that really so bad?" she said in a sultry voice. "Why do you think I wanted so bad for this to happen with your dad and Tammy?"

Now THAT I hadn't expected! Actually, we DID watch TV a while and hared a bottle of wine before we slipped off to bed – in my room which meant we had to squeeze onto the double bed, as if THAT was a problem.

Before we went to bed, though, we took a peek into my parents' bedroom to see who things were going. My mom had lit some candles for them earlier and it was the only light making the room dim and hard to see. What we COULD see, thought

Cindy (18)

Back at the end of February, my dad and I went out and to my surprise, ended up having sex in the back room of a mall jewelry store, AND watched by the girl working there. Nothing happened so far as she was concerned. Would that be the same the next time we met?

1. Cindy the Store Clerk

It's always nice when a guy feels guilty and takes you out to buy forgiveness. In this case, my dad wanted me to feel better about what I had done in order to make him happy so we went to the mall where he was going to buy me something nice - jewelry. Clothes, whatever I wanted. I love it when daddy tells me to pick out whatever I want!

As it turned out, that night we did more than just buy me some nice jewelry We met Cindy at the store where, to make a long story short (read about it in my diary for the details - 2008 (Feb 29) Chapter 159: Makeup Sex With Daddy[1]), my dad ended up fucking me in the back office while Cindy watched in amazement. It was one of those one-time things which, when it was over, I assumed would make my diary and that would be the end of it.

Back in April I started dating Duane, a 29 year-old guy who I quickly fell in love with - and lately even more. Now, five months or so later, I'm thinking he might be considering proposing to me. We have joked about it now and then but never anything serious. My mom and aunt have been teasing me relentlessly about it, asking me every time after I go out with him if I had a new ring yet. I keep telling them it has ONLY been five months so give it a rest!

Well, on this day I was looking for some work clothes. I teach at a small Christian elementary school with a pretty tight dress code so I was always looking for something fashionable yet within their strict guidelines for teachers. It's sort of ridiculous - women aren't even allowed to wear pants! Skirts have to be below the knees, bras required, no cleavage, well you get the idea. Needless to say, I can't wear 95% of my wardrobe to school and I had to do some heavy investments in under-wire bras!

[1] This is an estimate for the closest entry to these details, as the original text said “Feb. 2, 2008”

Along the way I happened to pass by the jewelry store where my dad and I had fooled around so long ago. I'd passed it many times since, but never saw the girl working in there again that helped us out that night. As I walked by I glanced in, more out of habit than anything else, and stopped in my tracks so suddenly I was about run over by some far guy behind me but I didn't care. Cindy was behind the counter! Well, I just HAD to see if she remembered me. Being alone, I didn't have any ulterior motives other than to see what her reaction would be to seeing me back in the store again. Heck, with all the customers they have and the months since that night that had gone by, I figured she most likely wouldn't have an idea about me but it was worth a shot.

Stepping into the store, there were a number of people looking at several cases. Poor Cindy seemed to be the only one working again. She looked a little flustered as people kept demanding that she pay attention to them instead of the others. One guy in particular was giving her a hard time. He looked to be in his thirties or so, the kind of guy you know just by looking at him that the world revolves around him and everyone should do what he says - the exact kind of guy I can't stand!

"C'mon sister... Look, I'm the customer and I want service," he said loudly as she tried to put away some rings that another couple had been looking at.

God he was rude! Poor Cindy looked about ready to cry and I felt so bad for her. She didn't look all that old and for her to be left alone in the store with all these customers was really unfair of someone. Someone needed to help her and I just happened to be uniquely qualified for the job.

"And just what kind of service would you like?" I said demurely as I moved in behind the jerk.

Surprised, he turned around and then his eyes opened as he looked at me. I could almost feel my clothes dropping to the floor as he unabashedly undressed me with his dark brown eyes. He didn't seem to be embarrassed at all as he stared at my breasts - which were a lot more visible now than when I'd walked in thanks to me unbuttoning the top two buttons of my blouse before I moved in on him. It would have been better with a short skirt but as it was, I was wearing a tight pair of jeans that were practically painted on, showing off my ass as much as possible and pulling tight in my crotch.

Actually, this pair was more accurate in telling me my weight than any scale. If I gained anything at all, they had to be relegated to my "fat" drawer (don't be shocked, every girl has one whether she admits or not). My hair was down to my shoulders and I allowed my tongue to run over my lips slowly. All in all, it was the best "come hither" look I could muster on such short notice.

Why anyone would think a girl would just come on to him in the middle of the store for no reason unless she was a hooker? Whether he thought I was tricking or just a dumb blonde, either way he was so full of himself that he apparently never asked himself the question.

"You know baby, the hell with this crap... I think I'll just take one of you," he said without so much as a hesitation.

Yep, certified Grade A narcissistic jerk. There was only one good thing about such guys - they are SO easy to manipulate! I deliberately look down at his crotch, leaving no doubt as to where my attention was focused, and then responded, "Well sir, would you like that order to go or for here?"

At this point he seemed to finally start to wonder whether I was just teasing him or what. Well duh! If he only had a brain as big as his dick, maybe he would've figured that out from the start but sure enough, his ego won out and he walked right in like a moth to a flame.

"Do you do home delivery?"

"That depends on what you order."

"How about something to go along with my sausage?" he countered. Sheesh, was this guy an idiot or what! It was Al Bundy reincarnated. Oh well, at least he wasn't pestering Cindy so I went along with it.

"Hmmmmmm, I suppose that depends on what your sausage can do."

"Well baby, why don't you come with daddy and find out."

What a moron. I made a show of looking around to be sure nobody was watching, not that it mattered to me for real. Then I stepped in a little closer, reaching out with my hand and pressing against his crotch through his jeans with the palm of my hand. Feeling the hardness of the lump there, I grinned at him saying, "Wow, I think I'd like some of your sausage."

He put his arm around me and it was all I could do not to cringer as his cheap cologne all but overwhelmed my sense of smell. It wasn't two steps before he lowered his arm and planted his hand firmly on my ass. As we walked out of the store, I turned back to see Cindy looking at me with those same wide open eyes I remembered from back when she first saw me sucking my dad's dick. "Deer in the headlights" I think I described them before. I winked at her and she looked at me curiously but at the same time appeared relieved that her antagonistic customer was being led from the store without further fuss.

So far I hadn't even asked his name but that didn't matter, as I had plans for whoever he was, plans he wouldn't have liked had he known them. On my way in I had noticed that the usual security guard was lounging around near the doors (as it seems they do at all the entrances these days). Well, for once I was going to take advantage of one of them instead of being harassed.

As we left the store, the guy's hand started to squeeze my butt - hard. Enough of this crap. Suddenly my entire composure changed and I jumped back and slapped him across the face - really hard. The look of astonishment on his was worth paying admission to see as I looked over at the security guard and yelled, "Help me! This pervert is trying to touch me!"

The fat guard hustled over as best he could while the idiot just stood there and looked at me like I was suddenly some sort of alien creature or whatever.

"What the fu...." he started to protest but the guard grabbed him by the arm and started to pull him towards the door.

"Let's go fella, you need to leave... NOW!" he ordered him.

The guard looked back at me and asked if I wanted to file a complaint but I said no, I just wanted him away from me and so they headed for the doors. Meantime, I returned to the jewelry store. Cindy had finished with the other customer and smiled at me when she saw me come back.

"I guess I should thank you but you really didn't need to do that," she said with a shy smile, as if she was almost afraid to even talk to me.

"Hey, we girls have to watch out for one another," I said, nodding toward her as I buttoned my blouse again - not TOO high but enough my boobs weren't hanging out anymore. "Besides, he got what he deserved... what an asshole."

"I saw what you did with him," Cindy said admiringly, "I could never have done that!"

"Done what? Tease a guy and then dump him?"

"Well, it was more than that. You acted like you were really hot for him. You even had me fooled."

"It was just an act to get him away from you. I felt sorry for you to be honest." Then I grinned at her and couldn't help but ask, "You DO remember me, don't you?"

The way her face turned red was answer enough but she added, "Like how could I forget you! That was the craziest night of my life!"

"Oh, so you don't get father-daughter teams here every night that you take to the back office and then watch them have sex?" I teased her. Her face went from beet red to almost a deep maroon as her embarrassment deepened.

"Noooooo, that was the only time," she said so naively I wanted to hug her.

"Did you ever tell anyone about it?"

Cindy shook her head vigorously and let out a deep breath, her cheeks bulging out as she replied, "Oh heavens no, who would I tell? Besides nobody I know would have even believed me!"

Then she looked like she was puzzled or trying to remember something and after a few seconds she shook her finger the way my mom does when she is trying to make a point.

"Do you have a boyfriend?"

Odd question but I nodded.

"Do you have a photo of him?"

Even odder question but I rummaged through my purse and came up with one of the two of us that I liked to show people. We were at a party and I had my arms around him, hugging him. She picked it up and seemed to stare at it for a few moments before she giggled. What was THIS all about?

"I probably shouldn't tell you this but he was in here yesterday."

"Oh really?" I responded. She had my full attention now!

"He was looking at wedding rings."

Oh my god! So Duane was looking at wedding rings. Was her just curious or serious?

Cindy seemed to guess what I was thinking, "He didn't buy anything. He just said he was looking."

She was being so sweet! I would have loved to been able to discuss it more but then the bell went off as people walked in and broke the security beam. I looked at her and quickly asked, "Hey, when you get off? Would you like to get some dessert together?"

Cindy started to move towards the newcomers but she smiled weakly and said she would be done in about half an hour. I looked at her with a "well?" expression and she giggled and nodded. It was the most I could probably ask for under the circumstances so I left her to her new customers and headed out to finish my shopping. I felt a little weird, like I was a guy asking her out for a date. Well, I guess now I know how apprehensive a boy must feel when he asks a girl out AND how good it felt when she accepted.

I didn't know if this would go anywhere and honestly didn't expect it to. I was more curious to discuss what kind of rings Duane had been looking sat plus I also wanted to know how she felt about watching my dad fuck me the last time I saw her. When I came back, she was already waiting for me, clutching her purse as she stood looking rather forlorn at the store entrance. As I was about five minutes early, she must have been to leave sooner than she had planned. Her head perked up when she saw me approach and her smile practically beamed at me.

"You know, I was wondering if you would really come back," she admitted a little sheepishly.

"Well, I'm here so let's say we grab something at Eat-N Park?" I offered.

Eat-N Parks are a Western Pennsylvania thing, something like a Denny's and known for their smiley cookies and pies. There just happened to be one within a short distance of the mall exit so we simply walked across the parking lot to it. Again, I had this odd sensation I was taking her out on date or something like that. Well, if that was the case, I was being pretty cheap as we didn't even drive and dessert at Eat-N Park isn't exactly all that expensive.

For once the place wasn't all that busy and we got a booth right away to ourselves along one side of the restaurant. They offered a salad bar and buffet but I just ordered a Diet Coke even though it was just after 4:00 and I was starved. She ordered a coffee and we decided to split a piece of apple pie - with vanilla ice cream, of course.

"Soooooo...," she said softly, letting her voice drift off. From the way she was shifting herself around in her seat, I could tell she was uncomfortable and was probably wondering now why she had accepted my offer.

"Well, how about we start by telling something about each other. I know nothing about you and you know only a little about me."

Cindy didn't seem to be concerned about talking about herself and before long I learned her full name, where she lived, what her parents did, how she still lived with them after graduating from high school this past spring and now she was going to the University of Pittsburgh soon to be in their nursing program. The jewelry store thing was just until she started school to help pay for books and such. It became apparent her parents weren't that well off which explained her rather drab clothes. While she was neat and presentable, it was obvious she shopped at Wal-Mart.

In return, I told her about me but only in general terms. For obvious reasons I didn't get specific about my address and last name and such, as she knew a thing or two about me that could have been embarrassing should the wrong people learn about them. Thankfully, if she was curious about the missing pieces, she was too polite to ask.

After our drinks arrived and we finished our "introductions", we talked more about Duane. I didn't tell her ALL the details about our relationship, especially how we'd met. Not everyone is open minded when it came to blow job parties and I didn't want her to get the wrong impression of me - or should I say any worse than she probably already had. She seemed to have had a change in heart about telling me too many details about what he said about me. I think she was worried I might tell Duane and then he would be mad at her for ruining his surprise - which hopefully he was getting ready for me.

Eventually I tried to steer the conversation to that night back in February, when my dad and I had sex in front of her. There were people in both booths on either side of us so we had to be a little discreet and keep our voices down. Had they been just boys or something it might have been to let them overhear us but it was some old ladies in one and a couple with a baby in the other - not the kind of folks who I wanted to listen in on what we were talking about.

"So Cindy, what did you think about what my dad did to me?" I asked.

By being so blunt with my question it caught her off-guard which was what I'd hoped it would, and her initial reaction was thus a more honest one. Her face reddened again and I couldn't help but smile at her reaction. Sheesh, it didn't take anything to get this girl embarrassed! I waited patiently for her and she finally answered me, which was a relief because for all I knew, she might not want to discuss it.

"Well Kelly, to be frank, I was really shocked," she said, her face cringing a bit as if she expected me to get mad at her. "I mean, what kind of father does... well does THAT to his daughter? ...and what kind of girl does it with her own dad?" She hesitated, her face back to deep red again, "I'm sorry, I don't mean to offend you, it's just how I feel."

Before I answered, a thought came to my mind and I smiled at her and asked, "Cindy... are you still a virgin?"

Poor girl, her face was going to be permanently flushed the way things were going. Finally she nodded, but she looked rather sheepish, as if I had asked her if she was Typhoid Mary. I reached out and took her one hand in mine and squeezed it. Her first instinct was to pull back but then she let my hand cover hers.

"Hey, that's nothing to be ashamed of... not at all," I reassured her, "I had a college roomie that was virgin and she was two years older than you (Cindy had told me she was eighteen earlier). "Did it turn you on to watch us?"

Her head moved back and forth, from shoulder to shoulder as if she was undecided as to how to answer and then her eyebrows lifted and she shrugged saying, "Well... at first I was too shocked to do anything. I couldn't believe you were doing it to begin with!"

"But then how did you feel?"

"Well, it WAS the first time I'd ever seen two people having sex!"

"Haven't you ever seen a porn magazine or movie?"

She looked aghast, "Oh no, I NEVER look at anything like that!"

"So you've never touched a boy before... I mean down there?"

Cindy's eyes opened wide again and she drew in a sharp breath, "Oh no, I've never done anything like that!"

"Do you like to touch yourself." I asked, trying to shift the conversation yet again to keep her a little off-balance.

"Masturbation's not good for you," she said, almost like a robot repeating the words that had undoubtedly been brainwashing the poor girl since she was an infant. I can't understand why anyone would teach their daughter that masturbation was a sin. Talk about child abuse!

Based on her response, I let that one go and went on, "So have you even KISSED a boy, Cindy?"

She smiled at that one so I knew she was happier with her answer this time.

"Oh yeah, my boyfriend and I fool around a little," she said with a gleam in her eyes. I was sure that her definition of "fool around a little" was drastically different than mine! She probably thought a French kiss was second base!

Finally it was time to ask what I was suddenly dying to ask. "Have you ever kissed a girl, Cindy?"

Her mouth dropped opened, as if the thought was being presented to her for the first time. "Oh no, I could NEVER do that, I'm not a lesbian."

The way she spat out "lesbian" was like it left a bad taste in her mouth. Still, I smiled at her and responded with, "Well, I don't consider myself a lesbian either but there ARE times when kissing a girl can be really nice."

Our waitress appeared then with our pie, just in time to pick up maybe a little of my last response and I saw her looking at me a little odd. Oh well, I just ignored her and she moved on without saying anything take care of other customers.

"This place is sort of crowded to talk like this. Would you like to somewhere more private?" I asked Cindy, nodding toward the retreating waitress as Exhibit A for my question.

She hesitated and I could practically see the gears whirring in her head. This was all moving a little fast for her and I doubted when she reported to work this morning that she had even dreamed about the events that had occurred so far.

"Well?" I said, pushing her just a little without scaring her off.

"I guess so... my parents aren't home tonight so it should be ok," she finally gave in.

"So how do you get home? Drive?"

"No, I have to take the bus. I don't have a car."

Would you like me to drive?" I offered. She nodded in agreement. It didn't surprise me that she didn't have a car. A girl who wore Wal-Mart jeans and worked at such a sucky job probably wasn't running around in a Jaguar.

2. Exploring Cindy

Over her protests, I paid for our drinks and dessert. Cindy's polite resistance was just token and I could see the relief on her face that she didn't have to spend her hard-earned dollars. My car was close by so we got in and she gave me directions. On the way to her house, we didn't hardly say anything except for her to tell me when to make a turn.

As it turned out, she lived south quite a ways, in an older neighborhood with small homes. They were generally well maintained, though, and the neighborhood seemed to have that pride which is missing even in some more affluent areas of town. She mentioned again that her parents were away but she didn't say where. I didn't push the issue but it seemed odd that she had been so open about everything else but now she was being rather sheltered when it came to the whereabouts of her mom and dad. Oh well, we all have our little secrets so I allowed her have this one without any further comment.

"You can sit on the couch, I'll get us something to drink," she offered as we entered the living room through the front door, "More Diet Coke?"

As she left to go to the kitchen, I took a quick sweep of the living room. It was like going back thirty years or more. Some older furniture was centered around a brick fireplace which didn't look like it hadn't burned anything in years.

What struck me the most were the knick-knacks - they were everywhere. Just little things, not Hummel Dolls or anything too expensive, just odds and ends, a rather eclectic mix. Next were the photos. Somebody LOVED family pics. They ranged from faded black and whites from a century ago to more modern ones and everything in between. She seem to have a pretty broad family, to say the least! Oddly, I had a hard time finding any with her in them.

"That's from our last family reunion," I heard her say ash she came in the room with a glass in each hand. I had been looking at one with what appeared to be maybe fifty people in it. She pointed herself out in it and I had to say, she was one of the better looking ones in the family, that was for sure. Still, it didn't look like her now but I didn't point that out.

We both sat on the couch, each of us shifted slightly so we faced on another. We sipped on our drinks, not another word for what seemed like forever but was probably only a minute or so. Finally I decided to go for it.

"So Cindy, why did you ask me over?"

Her eyes popped open and she looked at me as if she wondered why I had just said what I did. I almost giggled as I imagined what she must be thinking. After all, it was really ME that had popped the question but I wanted to catch her off-guard.

"Ummmmm.... didn't YOU ask if you could come over?" she finally corrected me.

"Well, I may have done the talking but it was obvious you wanted me to come over."

Cindy again seemed a little flustered. "I never said anything like that!"

"Oh but your eyes said it all, I saw how you looked at me."

"They did?" she replied, incredulously.

Without saying anything, I put my hand gently on her bare leg. She was wearing a modest skirt that she had made sure to pull down when she took a seat next to me earlier. Even so, my hand reached just above her knee, slipping just under the skirt about half-way. I squeezed her firm leg slightly and smiled at her.

"Has a girl ever touched your leg like this before, Cindy?"

"Uh... no," she said, her voice cracking a little as she tried to talk. She seemed confused, as if unsure whether she should run from the room or tell me to take my hand off of her.

Ever so slowly, I moved my hand under her skirt until I was about mid-way up her thigh. My goodness, her skin felt so smooth and soft. She wasn't wearing hose or anything so it was my hand on her bare tanned legs. So far she hadn't resisted although I could feel the muscles in her leg tense more and more the higher I went.

"Do you like me to touch your leg like this, Cindy?" I said softly, reaching down from the top of her thigh to the inside, still several inches away from her crotch though. Her skin felt even more soft there and I again felt her flinch just a little as I took a handful of her leg in my hand.

"Just tell me if you want me to stop, Cindy, OK?" I whispered softly in her ear, reaching even further under her skirt.

"I want you to stop," she came back immediately. Well, that is what she SAID but her tone wasn't nearly as confident sounding about it. I had a strong suspicion that she was saying what she thought she SHOULD say, not what she WANTED to say. She was going to have to put a little more resolve in her demands if she wanted me to really quit.

I left my hand where is was and scooted over against her. I put my other arm around her shoulders, pressing up tightly against her. She stiffened a little but didn't push me away. My pussy was literally throbbing with excitement. I'd never 'seduced" a girl before like this. It was like I was her boyfriend, trying to get to first base on the family room couch with her parents away. I don't know about her but it was making me horny as hell!

Without a word I brushed her long brunette hair back, exposing her soft neck to me. Images of a vampire movie suddenly flashed through my head as I leaned over and gently kissed her on the nape of the neck. She jumped slightly as my lips touched her neck.

"I thought I told you to stop, Kelly," she said in a husky voice, almost too low for me to hear her.

Yeah right, her voice did but her body was saying something else entirely. She could say stop all night but until she actually pushed me away or clamped her legs shut, I was "staying the course".

My tongue reached out and lightly licked her neck, tracing a wet line to the back of her ear and then I sucked lightly on her ear lobe. With my free hand, I ran my fingers through her silky hair. It felt good to let the strands slide between my fingers as I stroked her velvet smooth hair. My tongue ran around her ear and then along her jawbone and cheek. I could feel her breathing becoming more shallow and faster.

"I'm going to kiss you now," I said ever so softly as moved closer to her, "Do you want me to kiss you Cindy."

"No, we can't do that!" she started to protest but I cut her off by placing my mouth over hers.

Contrary to what she had just said, she responded instantly, her lips reaching out to meet mine, her tongue just as eager to explore my mouth as mine was to be in hers. After several minutes, I pulled back and smiled at her as our eyes met. She was panting, slightly out of breath from our first kiss.

"So what do you think Cindy, is kissing a girl really all that bad?" I teased her gently, wanting to make the situation a little less heavy but keep the focus on the sensual tension that was building between us.

"I guess it's ok," she said hesitantly, almost distant.

I took that as "yes" and leaned in to kiss her again. She didn't seem to tense up as much this time although I can't say she responded back enthusiastically. Still, she wasn't saying no anymore and that was a plus. Encouraged by her lack of resistance, I moved my hand further up her soft thigh until the edge of my fingers brushed against her panties. I lightly touched her crotch through her cotton panties which brought an immediate response.

"No! Please don't touch me there!" she gasped, slightly out of breath again from our kiss.

The girl needed to learn to breathe through her nose! Her hand moved down over her skirt and pushed mine away from between her legs. I didn't try again right away, but instead just rubbed her thighs again, then letting my fingertips trace along her sensitive skin. I didn't say anything but just went back to kissing her but the tenseness had returned. She didn't fight me but her response was rather lukewarm at best. It was like she was letting me do what I wanted, but not letting herself respond. Undeterred, I gradually worked my way back up until my hand was cupping her crotch. Again she put her hand over mine but this time I didn't let her push me away.

This time, though, there wasn't the same forcefulness as the first time and with her hand pressing on mine, I pushed my finger against her clit through her panties. Whether she intended or not, I could feel her shudder as my finger rolled over her little bump and the heat of her pussy made its way through her panties.

"Ohhhhhh," she sighed ever so softly as I rubbed her some more.

The pressure from her hand relaxed as she shifted her position slightly to let her legs spread apart slightly. I'd done this little maneuver myself enough times to know what it meant - she wanted more. I didn't know what her brain was telling her but her body was reacting instinctively whether she wanted it to or not. I would have bet quite a bit that she wanted it more than she was willing to admit.

"Your pussy's so warm....it likes this, doesn't it?" I whispered to her.

The house was deathly silent except for her breathing which was becoming more labored and forceful as my finger continued to work on her clit. I moved my hand up and quickly slipped it under the elastic top of her panties and down back to her clit again. She wasn't shaved which didn't surprise me all that much. What was the point in shaving your pussy if nobody was playing with it?

"Noooooo, you shouldn't do that," she moaned, a little louder this time as my finger touched her hard clit directly, spreading the hair away from it with my other fingers while my middle finger caressed and teased her.

I reached down between her pussy lips to her pussy hole and put my finger barely inside of her, working the tip of it in and out of her, wetting her pussy hole with the wetness inside of her and then spreading it up along her slit and to her clit, making it more slippery and easy to massage. Her hips were starting to move slightly as she reacted to the rising feelings within her. I couldn't even see anything as my hand was under her skirt and was hidden from view.

"Right there!" she gasped as my finger crossed over her clit, making her jerk involuntarily from the pleasure it produced.

It was the first time she had really given me any "directions" and I knew she was now enjoying it and wanted it. No more pretending she didn't like it or want it. I reached down and pushed my middle finger up into her pussy. Damn, for a girl supposedly as against doing this as she had claimed to be, she was soaking wet where it counted! I rubbed the inside of her pussy, trying to make her feel as good as I possibly could, moving back out now and then to rekindle her clit. The panties were a real pain and needed to go.

"Here, help me," I said to her as I got off the couch and kneeled in front of her.

I lifted her skirt and pushed it up to her waist, revealing her white cotton panties. She knew what I wanted and she raised her butt to help me pull them down and over her legs and then slipped her feet through them, her shoes still on, one by one. I looked at her and smiled as she sat there bottomless with her hairy pussy in full view, I said she didn't shave but she DID trim it a bit, probably for her swimming suit more than anything.

"You have such a beautiful pussy, Cindy," I purred, moving one hand up each of her legs slowly, making my way back to her hot little crotch. Her response was unexpected, a little giggle which seemed to be more out of nervousness than thinking it was funny.

"Tell me Cindy... do you like to touch your pussy?" I asked gently. She shook her head vigorously, as if I had asked her if she abused puppies.

"Is it because your mother told you it was bad to touch yourself?"

This time she nodded, just enough for me to see, as if she was ashamed to admit it.

"It's OK when you're with me, you know Cindy. Show me how you like to touch yourself. I know you like it."

She shook her head even more this time and I didn't push her any further - at least not for now. No sense in spoiling the mood by pushing her farther than she was ready to go at the time.

"Would you like me to kiss it?" I asked, smiling at her again.

She bit her bottom lip and I knew she wanted to say yes but too many years of brainwashing wasn't going to be overcome in a few minutes. What was promising, though, was she didn't say no! Still on my knees, I pushed her knees apart to make her pussy more accessible and lowered my head towards here. God she smelled so good! She was horny, I could smell it strongly with my head still a foot away.

Then, to my surprise, I heard her whisper to me, "I want you to."

Now THAT was the most surprising thing I'd heard from her yet! I could only imagine the courage it took her to say those words, words she undoubtedly had never thought in her wildest dreams that she would ever say. I didn't push for her to be more explicit, although I would have LOVED it had she come out and said something more like, "Lick my cunt, Kelly", but I took what she gave as it was already more than I'd expected.

When my tongue first touched her clit she jumped noticeable as I let it flick over her hard little bump. Then I kissed it and took it gently between my teeth, pulling up on it carefully and then releasing it to snap back into place where I would lick it again. She was moaning softly now, almost nonstop. Her hands were to her side, pressing against the couch as she let herself slide down a little bit, allowing her crotch to lift up and make it easier for me to eat her pussy. Looking up at her as I licked her pussy, our eyes met and I could see the lust growing on her face, feelings running through her that she probably had never experienced before.

"Show me your boobs," I murmured as best I could without talking my mouth off her for long.

Cindy seemed to hesitate at first but then she unbuttoned her shirt, pulling it open to reveal a simple white bra, probably right off a Wal-Mart shelf. I kissed and sucked on her clit, making her shoulder and she paused for a moment to take in what I was doing to her. Then she pulled the straps down and over her shoulders, pulling her arms through and then twisting the bra around so the clasp was in back where she undid it and pulled the bra off with one hand, letting it drop to the couch next to her. She still had her short-sleeved shirt on, but it was open such that her perky breasts were fully revealed, She wasn't all that big, a solid B-cup I guessed, but they were tight as a drum and her nipples were rock hard. They were almost identical to my cousin Kristen for that matter.

"Touch them," I murmured again to her, returning to her clit once again.

Again Cindy hesitated but once again, she listened to me and she cupped her boobs and just held them at first. Gradually she got more courageous and began to massage her own breasts, twisting the nipples between her fingertips as she fondled herself. Her eyes shut and she leaned her head back as she played with her boobs while I licked her clit.

As I licked her, I inserted my finger into her pussy again, sliding in easily this time as she was as soaking wet as she could possibly be by now. She was tight, REALLY tight, and I could only imagine how it would be the first time a guy tried to stuff his dick in the impossibly small hole. I wondered if she had ever had anything up her pussy before my finger, maybe not even her own?

"Oh that feels so good... don't stop... oh PLEASE don't stop," she suddenly cried out, the first time her voice had risen above a whisper as she called out to me now in a loud voice, lifting her hips up against my face and hand.

"Oh god... oh god... oh god...," she started repeating, almost like some chant at a religious ceremony.

Cindy's female instincts were taking over as her hips bucked up against me, like she was being fucked. Her hand were squeezing her boobs so tight she was leaving marks where her fingers were when she would move them. I could hear her breathing become faster and faster until she was panting like she'd just run a marathon. Oh yeah, Cindy was about to experience her first orgasm!

"OH GOD!!" she practically screamed this time, just a single outburst and then her hips lifted up and stayed up this time, like she was being hit with a bolt of electricity and being electrocuted.

Cindy's pussy spasmed and I could feel it tighten even more than it had been around my finger. She was cumming and I loved it! I had one free hand so I started playing with myself, rubbing myself through my tight jeans as I was still fully dressed.

"What happened to me?" she gasped as she finally relaxed and dropped to the couch suddenly. Her chest was beet red and her eyes were ablaze with passion.

"You just had your first orgasm, Cindy... wasn't it wonderful?"

"I never thought it would be like THAT, though," she finally managed to gasp, "That was... that was incredible!"

3. Cindy Returns the Favor

I stood up and sat back down next to her again. I could feel the wetness of her pussy all over my face as I leaned over to kiss her. This time, instead of sitting there like a statue, waiting for me to make all the moves, she turned to me and leaned towards me. She must have smelled and tasted herself on my face and tongue but if she was bothered at all by it, she didn't say a thing. I wondered if she had ever tasted herself before?

"Do you like the taste of your pussy on me?" I asked her, not sure if she would respond.

"Mmmmmmm, yesssssss," she sighed as the walls that had been guarding her sexuality continued to crumble. An hour earlier she would never have even dreamed of tasting her own pussy, let alone tell me how good it tasted.

"Would you like to taste mine?" I asked quietly, not wanting to push too hard but yet seizing on the moment.

"Mmmmmmm, yesssssss," she sighed again, almost like she was hypnotized and just answering automatically. Her orgasm must have been incredibly powerful and as unaccustomed to having one as she have, the aftershocks were still undoubtedly affecting her thinking.

"Undress me Cindy," I said, more as a suggestion than a demand.

I stood up in front of her and she undid my jeans and finally managed to work them down and to the floor. She looked at my bare bottom and giggled, almost like she was drunk.

"Kelly doesn't wear panties," she declared in a sing-song voice, like schoolgirls chanting when they tease some poor girl about something. "You're a naughty girl."

Yep, if I hadn't know better, I would be giving her a breathalyzer test because she was acting like she was wiped out drunk! I kicked off my shoes and stepped out of the jeans, pulling my blouse off at the same time such that I was stark naked in front of her.

"Kelly doesn't wear a bra either, she's REALLY a naughty girl," Cindy went, almost making me wonder if she hadn't slipped herself something back when she got a drink but I knew better. She was on the most powerful drug of all - sex.

I pushed her back on the couch so she was almost on her back with her ass barely on the couch. Straddling her, I stood over her and put my hands on the back of the couch behind her to keep my balance as I lowered my crotch to her face. Cindy didn't need any encouragement anymore. She reached up with her hands, planting them on my ass and pulling me into her face. I felt her mouth and nose against my freshly shaved pussy as she tried to lick me.

One nice thing about sex with girls is they already know who to make a girl feel good. Had this a guy, I would have been getting frustrated trying to get him to touch me and lick me in the right places, and what to expect when I finally did cum. Not so with a girl. Even when it's her first time, a girl instinctively knows how to eat pussy. After all, she knows what SHE likes so all she had to do is do the same thing to her partner. Admittedly, every girl has her own quirks as well but it's not on a scale like men where each wants his dick sucked differently. Cindy knew what to do and she wasted no time in doing it to me.

I could feel how hot and wet I was so I imagined my pussy must have had a strong sex scent but that didn't deter Cindy for even a second. She buried her face in my crotch like she'd been doing it all her life and went to work on my clit like a pro from the start. Damn, she was a natural born pussy eater. I wondered if she would be as good at sucking dick as she was at eating pussy? I tried to encourage her and tell her how good she was doing, maintaining as continuous a banter as I could while she licked me. It didn't take long for my own orgasm to arrive. If there is one thing I was blessed with, it was an easy-to-get orgasm!

"Oh Cindy, you're making me cum," I moaned as I felt my pussy begin to flood her face with cum.

I don't know if she was expecting all that to come out of me but she took it like a trooper, if anything lapping it up like a cat with a bowel of spilt milk.

God it felt so good to stand there naked over her, feeling her hands on my butt and her tongue on my clit. I wanted it to never stop, to keep going and going and going. My knees started to buckle as I tried to keep my composure as I came even harder. Cindy, whether she knew what she was doing or just luck, never stopped but kept on licking me and driving me to an even more wonderful orgasm.

Finally I couldn't stand anymore and once again I dropped on the couch next to her. She pulled herself up so she was closer to sitting up straight. She still had on that silly skirt, although he rest of her was nude. She unsnapped the side of it and unzipped it, sliding it down so we were naked next to one another. We turned and rolled out on the couch so we were laying naked on our sides. We barely fit but it was good enough. Our legs meshed such that we each could press our pussy against the other's thigh and the gentle pressure of her leg against me was such that I almost came again!

For the next ten or fifteen minutes, we just hugged each other and pressed our sweating, naked bodies tightly against the other. I loved the feel of her perky breast against mine and her wet pussy sliding on my thigh as she instinctively humped my leg like a dog in heat, only slower. We kissed like lovers, out tongues touching and our hands roaming over each other. It was heaven! I could have stayed that way all night but I also knew there came a time when things had to end. It was like we somehow were on the same wavelength as we both started to say something about it at the same time. We giggled at it and then kissed one last time.

As I gather my clothes and struggled to get my jeans back on, she picked up her things but kept them in a pile on the couch. No doubt she was going to shower before her parents came home and she smelled like a whore in heat.

"Well, was that what you expected?" I asked her with a grin on my face.

"No!" she said empathically. Then she laughed at having tease me and continued, "I didn't expect ANY of that so no, it wasn't what I expected at all!"

"OK my little tease, then was it good for you?"

"Oh Kelly, I don't know what to say. I never dreamed of ever doing anything like this!"

I could understand how a girl her age, having passed so many opportunities until tonight, might feel having sex for the first time. God, the emotions and feelings that she must be feeling now must be incredible!

We kissed one last time, me in my clothes and her naked this time. She was beautiful and seeing her now, with her hair a wreck, sweating and smelling of sex, she was even more pretty than ever. She could pass for a genuine slut the way she looked now! We never even mentioned getting together again as I think we both realized this was a onetime thing. Would she do it with another girl? Was her boyfriend in for a surprise the next time they were alone?

One thing I knew for sure... I was going to have to do more jewelry shopping in the future.

Muse \Muse\, v. t.
  1. To think on; to meditate on.
  2. To wonder at. [Obs.]
Source: Webster's Revised Unabridged Dictionary (1913)

Note: This is NOT a "stroke story" with lots of sex but rather just me getting some things off my chest. If after reading it you have any suggestions or comments as to what I should do, please send them to me!

****************

One of the more frequent questions I get asked is whether my boyfriend knows that my father fucks me. Of course, the answer has always been "NO". I've never told anyone outside my family about such things except for Beth, my best friend, who is for all practical purposes a member of the family (including being the only girl outside our family my dad has fucked since being married to my mom).

Following that question, I then typically get asked if I will continue to have sex with my parents once I get married. Well, the answer to that is an unequivocal "YES". I mean, how could I turn away my father just because I got married? So long as he desires me and lusts for me, I will NEVER say no to him and anyone who marries me will just have to accept that. It's not at all like I would be cheating on my husband with another man. I have sex with my dad because he is my father and he wants me, not at all like me going out and seeking someone for my own pleasure or fulfillment. Besides, while I would expect my husband to be totally faithful to me, he would also be allowed to be with anyone in my family as that would not be adultery so long as it remained within my own family (or his if that should be the case).

From the natural progression of questions goes to when I would tell my husband this "minor detail" about our marriage. Of course it would have to be before we got married as this is not the sort of thing you spring on a guy AFTER he has made a commitment. As my Aunt Linda proved, even if he DOES know about it, it still doesn't guarantee it will work out. I have always figured that I would wait until someone proposed to me and make that a condition of my acceptance. That assumes I know him well enough by then that I think he would agree with my conditions. If I didn't think so, I would simply have to refuse his proposal.

Like many things in life, things get a bit more tricky when reality sets in. For the past five months I've been dating the most wonderful man I have ever known - Duane. We first "met", at least according to him and Beth, years ago at a BJ party. It was the sort of thing where the girls give all the guys blowjobs but they stay dressed and there is no sex involved. Apparently I gave Duane the best BJ that night although to be perfectly honest, there were so many guys that I didn't remember him. You can't blame me when you're evening is spent with your face in one guy or another's crotch. He was seeing other girls at the time (he is about six years older than me) and I just became a fond memory, maybe good for a jerk off or two.

After that he hooked up with my cousin Kristen at a few parties (as most guys did sooner or later). It goes without saying they had sex since that's Kristen's main objective on any date. What made it more interesting was her mom took a liking to him as well. After my Aunt Linda flirted with him enough, he ended up taking her out as well. It's not like she was robbing the cradle or anything as he was 27 by then, about ten years younger than her. Of course Kristen knew her mom was going out with Duane AND what they did but Duane has always assumed his tryst with my aunt was something Kristen didn't know about. I guess they figured while it be a fantasy come true to be screwing a mother and her daughter, might make him feel awkward to know they were both in on it.

It was back in mid-March and I had just quit my escorting job to take on a position as a school teacher, my life-long dream. To celebrate, Beth and I went out to a party and Duane was there. I didn't recognize him and at the time, had no idea about his past relationships with my aunt and cousin. Beth was friends with him and introduced us.

The rest, as they say, was history. I feel head over heels in love with him. It was like being blind-sided by a Mack truck as I never saw it coming. With the changes in my professional life, about the last thing on my mind was finding a full-time boyfriend. Besides, it had been years since I did anything more than casually date a guy. After some bad experiences earlier in my life, I was always suspicious that guys just wanted to go out with me to have sex, not because of ME. Not that I didn't like it, mind you, but at the same time it wasn't the basis for any sort of deeper relationship.

Duane, on the other hand, was so much different than any of the other guys I dated. Sure, he liked having sex (I can't see myself going out with some virgin, "waiting for marriage"), but at the same time, that's not all we did. For the first time I went to movies with a guy and actually WATCHED the entire movie. I could spend the evening with my head in his lap and be happy keeping his zipper closed. I just enjoyed being with him.

As summer progressed, I felt more and more like he was "the one". Of course, while he knew my "reputation", he had no idea about what I did at home. We never even discussed incest, even as a point of conversation, let alone anything specific about me. We both got to know the other's sexual history, sort of our way of clearing away any potential obstacles. He was actually the one to tell me about my cousin and aunt, although he didn't realize that they WERE my relatives until I told him. You can imagine his shock at finding out they were related to me! Later, when I griped at my cousin for not telling me herself when she knew who I was dating, she just grinned and was more curious about Duane's reaction than anything else.

Perhaps the biggest thing to happen was just recently when I learned Duane was out looking at wedding rings (see my Diary entry for (Aug 24) Chapter 167: Jewelry Store Girl). He wasn't BUYING one yet but just the fact he was apparently interested in them was like a wakeup jolt that things might be getting serious sooner than later. Even though we had been dating for only just over five months, I know I would accept if he asked me to marry him. I'm not sure I want to be married right away but then it takes a year sometimes or more to arrange a proper wedding, at least the kind I have all planned out already.

So now I am facing the reality of what until now has been just a fantasy. Do I want to wait until he proposes to tell him about my family? That's always been an easy way to push aside the question but now I was questioning the wisdom of such a move. He would be expecting an answer from me, not a list of demands to be negotiated. The more I thought about it, the more I wanted to be able to say yes when he asked me at some romantic location to be his wife. Still, I remain 100% sure that I need him to understand and agree about how our sex lives will be when we are married.

So how do you tell the man of your dreams that after he marries you that your father will be fucking you as well? It's not like I would expect that he watch us or be obvious about it, unless, of course, he was into that sort of thing. I figure it would be somewhat like my dad and Aunt Linda had been over the years. They had been fucking each other since high school and marrying her sister didn't change anything. Yet growing up I had no idea he was doing her. It wasn't until I had sex with my own parents that I learned about their intimacy with my aunt. If necessary, I was prepared to be discrete if that made Duane feel better. I just didn't want to do anything behind his back.

Just to reiterate myself as to my concept of sex and marriage (sorry if this repeats other writings of mine but it seems necessary in this context to be clear about this). When you marry someone, you pledge yourself to that person and thus sex outside of marriage is a violation of the ten commandments - "Thou shalt not commit adultery". I figure anything big enough to get into the "top ten" of God's requirements for us must be pretty important. Being so important, it's crucial to understand where the boundaries are.

First, "sex" is the penetration of a woman's vagina by a man's penis. Blow jobs, eating pussy, "massages", etc. are NOT technically sex and thus are permitted between a married person and anyone else. Of course, whether or not that is done needs to be agreed upon by the two partners and most people would not feel comfortable with their spouse doing these things with other people. While not "adultery", many people would still consider it "cheating" which may be an offense to them if not to God.

Second, "marriage" is an act which unites not only two people, but their immediate families as well. A family is the single most important group and must always remain intact, even after marriage. When you marry someone, you are in effect marrying their family as well. Marriages which do not follow this concept are typically the ones that fail as they lack the support and love that the family unit brings to its members. Thus, having sex with members of your family is not adultery as it is within the marriage "family".

So back to my question again, how do I explain this all to Duane without him getting the wrong impression? Just look at all the porn movies and internet sites that deal with incest. All of them make it out to be some family orgy or something else perverted. Look in the newspapers when incest is reported and it's more a report of child abuse under the false pretense of "true" incest.

You never hear anything about the families where incest is properly practiced because they don't want the world to know about it. Take my family, for instance. I can guarantee that while our neighbors may think of me as being a bit on the slutty side, NONE of them would ever have any reason to suspect my dad fucks me almost every morning I am home. If more people knew about the love and bonding that takes place in a family such as mine, I would think that incest would not be such a taboo topic.

Soooooo, do I just look him the eyes one night and tell him something like, "By the way, did I ever tell you my dad has been fucking me since I was sixteen and still does - and will even after I am married? Oh, and also that my mom can't wait for me to get married so my new husband can fuck her?" Oh yeah, I'm sure THAT method would go over well. Obviously something a little more subtle is required.

One thought was to make use of the fact that most guys aren't thinking too clearly after they have sex. I learned early that if I wanted something from my dad that I knew he wasn't too obliged to agree with, that if I waited until he fucked me and then immediately asked him that usually I got my way. It's like when the cum something happens to numb their brains for a little while, perhaps one of the reasons so many guys go from horny animal to sleeping soundly in a matter of minutes.

By this reasoning, I would fuck Duane's brains out, making the effect as powerful as possible, and then while he was in a daze, tell him what I needed to tell him. Of course, later on it would sink in what he had been told, but it would give time for it to filter inward and then slowly be recognized as he regained his full faculties once again. This plan has the benefit of having some great sex at the onset, but there's always that risk that the shock would be enough to drive away the mist in his head and lead to a powerful reaction.

Another idea of mine was to write him a letter, explaining what the situation was. AT least then he would have time to mull over the situation. On the one hand, it might give him time to come to grips with it and accept it. On the other, without me there to temper his reaction, it could also give him time to work up to the boiling point if he doesn't like what he reads. This idea has too much potential for disaster.

In a more fantasy world, I would let him "accidentally" catch my dad fucking me. Of course, the ultimate fantasy would be to have a situation where my dad and us were in the room watching TV or something and I just went to my dad and started sucking his cock right in front of Duane. While this might be a great idea to masturbate over, I can't see it as being anything but a fantasy.

A more sneaky approach might be to have my best friend Beth tell him under the guise that she knew he was getting serious about me and she felt that he needed to know some things about me that he wasn't aware of. While this would be the "easiest" for me as I wouldn't have to face Duane when he found out the truth, my fear is that he would feel I was hiding something from him and resent me for it.

So I was stuck in this quandary, not knowing what to do. My fear was growing that he would pop the question and I wouldn't have a plan. Then I was contacted by Heather, a professional sex therapist. She was a "fan" of my web site and while not interested in incest for her own life, she did have considerable experience dealing with incest "victims" as was interested in me as apparently she had little to no experience with anyone where incest was making a positive impact on their lives.

After some e-mails and chats, I brought up this topic with her and we had some interesting discussions. It was really helpful to discuss this with someone who was trying to have cybersex or otherwise come on to me. Heather and I had a frank, open discussion and in the end I think we came up with something together that might work.

What I am leaning to now is to use the relationship Duane already has with my Aunt Linda and cousin Kristen to my advantage. Clearly he has no issue with having sex with them, something that he would be permitted to continue after we got married. My thought was to break the news to him about their true mother-daughter relationship first, and see how he reacts to that before going any further. Who know, maybe even get him involved in a mother-daughter threesome. He had already realized the male fantasy of fucking both a mother and her daughter, I doubted he would object to expanding that fantasy to include fucking them at the same time. Assuming he was OK with one situation of a mother and daughter having sex together, he wouldn't be as surprised to learn that my mother and I did also.

The next step would be to somehow insert me into the picture. He has already seen me and Kristen playing together at parties but he most likely just put that off as something we did at parties to turn on the guys more than anything else. I've never met a guy yet who didn't love watching two girls having sex and he knew I got off on men watching me with other girls, including Kristen. What I needed to do was show him it wasn't something I did in the heat of the moment of a party but also in the intimacy of a bedroom at home.

From there, I would have to bring in my aunt so he saw that I was also having sex with her. This would likely be a much greater shock than anything I did with Linda but there was least a little separation in that she was my aunt - not quite the same as if she was my own mother.

From there the decision would be whether to reveal my girl-girl relationships included my mother as well, or jump straight to my dad. So far I am leaning to including my mother as it would just be a natural extension of being with her sister, The trick is that even if he were to see her with me, he couldn't fuck he because we weren't married yet. I guess this would offer him the potential reward of marrying me - getting my mothering bed as well.

At first I thought if he knew my mother and I were sex partners, then it would be OK to let him know my dad did as well but I might get cold feet and go off on a little detour first. Again, Aunt Linda and Kristen would be the keys. Just as I introduced my mom through them, I think it would be best to do the same with my dad, letting him see that my dad fucks his niece and sister-in-law. This would be the first big test. Girl-on-girl is "normal for most guys that watch a lot of porn (Duane is one of them) so even thought it was my mom and her sister and niece, it would be within the realms of possibility for him, I'm sure. "Real" sex, though, between my dad and aunt/cousin, would be a whole different thing. His reaction to that would be very telling to me as to whether I go the next, and final step.

I still haven't decided how to break it to Duane that my dad fucks me, even if all the previous "steps" go as planned. Would I have to let him actually see my dad fuck me to make him believe it? Would watching me with my dad actually help him to understand that it wasn't about being lovers with my dad and that it would not be cheating on him when my dad fucked me? Would I be better off just telling him about it and waiting for his reaction before ever letting him watch? Hopefully by the time I worked my way to that final stage I would have the answers.

So imagine you are in my shoes. Twenty three years old, settling into the teaching position you always wanted to have (even if not at the school and salary you had hoped for). Madly in love with the most wonderful guy you'd ever met. Holding within you a secret that could either make your marriage stronger or tear it apart before it ever begins. What would you do if you were me? Do you think I have a good plan? How do you think he will react?

I called this entry a "muse" because it is about something that I have been pondering and dwelling upon almost all the time lately. Hopefully I need to act soon as the last thing I want to happen now is for him to propose to me before he knows all about me - and I mean, ALL about me. Any idea I may have had in the past about waiting until he proposes is out the window so far as I am concerned. I know he wants to marry me and that soon he will ask me to be his wife. I need to make sure he is fully aware of what it means to marry me. He already thinks of me as being special, what will he say when he learns just how special I am?

Any thoughts from anyone?

I received some very nice replies to my "Muse" entry. Here are some of them. What do you all think? Lots of different opinions, which one do I go with, if any of them?

just read your comments on Duane...that's a tough one. If a guy is looking at rings 5 months into a relationship, that means he thinks he knows all about you...which he doesn't. From reading your diary, incest is a huge part of your life, and also a part that you are not willing to give up. So for him to make the decision of his life, don't you think he deserves to know the truth? On paper, your plan sounds ideal. In reality, who knows how he'll react. He certainly doesn't seem to be the most "by the book" guy, but knowing your g/f / wife is fucking her dad is quite something to take. If anything, it will be a lot for you to deal with. You can't be shocked if he needs some time to deal and doesn't accept right on the spot.

Me, I'd leave my wife and marry you in a second, but he may not be the same. It's different reading and fantasizing about you then actually dealing with that type of decision.

Let's chat sometime,
George

Subject: comments on muse about Duane

First some disclaimers.

I am not a health care professional or any type of counselor. Take anything I say here as data points to be used in your search for your path, but you are responsible for the decisions. Some are questions you may want to ask yourself, others just comments. I don't really know you, just have read some of your stuff, so I only have the picture you paint.

I have read some of your stories and diary entries and enjoyed them. Don't take this the wrong way, but there are a lot of "false identities" on the net. It is possible you are not who you claim to be and this is all a wonderful figment of your imagination. But if so it is quite good and I am willing to go along.

I am not putting anything in here to try and convince you or change your mind. I am not looking for an argument, just trying to provide food for thought. It's value is only what you make of it. These are in no particular order.

Now my comments on your post "Muse about Duane".

I have not read all your entries, so if I ask a question that has been answered please overlook it. Plus your analysis of the situation may have touched on these while formulating your "plan".

In my experience any plans that depend upon how people react to emotional situations better be flexible. Better yet forget planning. You can sort of predict how people will react when they are being objective and thinking clearly. But when emotional responses are involved, people are basically irrational and illogical. They don't always do what you expect. Since Duane does understand you have a robust sexual past and appetite, he might fully know what he is getting into. He may be OK with anything and everything and you guys will have a wonderful life. I wish you the best. But your post indicates you are smart and objective enough to realize there might be some issues.

Incest is a topic filled with danger. While you claim to have no emotional or psychological problems as a result of your relationships, we only have your word. And they may not have surfaced, just waiting for the right trigger. Some would say the situation you are discussing is a problem. You potentially have to choose between your father and someone you want to be your husband. That seems like a pretty big emotional problem to me.

Note that "incestuous relationship" doesn't have much of a place in our social vocabulary. All we hear about are "victims of incest". Don't be surprised if Duane's response to knowledge of your incest is a concern that you were abused or controlled. Society paints someone who voluntarily has these relationships as somehow mentally damaged and in need of help.

Even if Duane is ok with you and your father, what will he think if you and he have a daughter? Would he be ok with his daughter fucking her grandfather?

Don't forget, not only must Duane be ok with things today, but he has to be ok in the future. As a buddy of mine says the story of his life is "It seemed like a good idea at the time".

Does Duane know you still have sex with other people? (according to the diary entries) Is he Ok with sharing you with another man?

Have you had threesomes with him and another man? If so how was he the next day/week? Did you sense anything?

To Duane your Father is another man.

The fact that Duane did your cousin and her mother doesn't really enter into this. He did something a lot of men would. But he was single. Most men expect fantasy life to end at some point. Pointing out he can still have sex with them seems like a bribe. "Hey, if your ok with me fucking my father and uncles you get to fuck Kristen and her Mom? Sound's like a good deal to me." While that may sound glib, most men quickly discard the flowery language and boil things down to the basic question. And in theory it sounds good when looking at it objectively. This could easily be one of those things that if discussed as someone else's situation he would say "that sounds great, you should go for it." But when asked if he wanted the same would say no thanks, I don't think its for me.

You have done what humans are very good at. Rationalizing your decisions and situation. You want a particular outcome, so you define the situation in terms that allow your conclusion.

Society does not define marriage as a joining of the family where sex is concerned. I think the Bible (and you claim to be religious) pretty much says that when you are married you are to only have sex with your husband. Of course you have defined "sex" to leave some loopholes.

Let's say Duane is ok with your position. By your definition, not only having sex with your father is ok, but sex with Duane's father/brother/uncle would be ok also. If he requested that you not have sex with them, would you agree? If so, is the basic principle that if your husband requests you not have sex with some man you don't, why wouldn't that apply to all men? Or would it always be a negotiation, depends upon the man?

Because of your definition of "adultery" you get to keep having interesting sex with men besides your husband. I assume that if you had another guy you were really enjoying sex with now, you would give him up because that doesn't fit the definition.

Relationships change. If you told you family that if you married Duane you would be giving up sex with them, would they abandon you or look down on you. Sometimes you make sacrifices in some areas for greater rewards in others. Giving up sex with random guys seems to be a small price to pay for a wonderful marriage and your own family. Is giving up sex with your father/uncle too great a price?

Most men realize that Fathers/Daughters have a special relationship (not usually like yours). But in our society and history it is assumed that when the girl marries, her husband becomes more important than the father. She never stops loving her father (emotionally) but her allegiance is supposed to be with the husband (baring abuse and other mitigating factors).

As I reread your post and think more I might send more comments if you want them. I don't expect a response but if you want to explore any of these points further just let me know.

Subject: Telling Duane

Dear Kelly,

As a father, as a fan of yours and as one who enjoys a healthy sex life I am very happy for you. He sounds like a guy who can keep up with you. I hope everything works out well for you because I could tell by your writings you haven't been happy.. Now I think you are.

My best advice to you about telling him about your relationship with your father is to first have a heart to heart with your mom. My fear is that if the news comes from you, he'll be upset and mad at you. If the news comes from your mom, whether it's during one of your "trysts' with your father or not, will, at least, carry the weight of acceptance and permission by the patriarch and matriarch of the family. That combined with his history with your cousin and aunt should be enough, I think, to at least be a subject for discussion by like minded adults.

If he's any man at all he'll realize the lucky bastard he is and go along happily with the family plan. I mean really... Your Mom, your Aunt, your cousin AND you. If he acts up send him to me so I can slap him around awhile.

I really am happy for you, I've been a fan of this site for quite a while and I hope to god you're really getting away from other peoples sex lives and focusing again on yours and in writing about that.

All the best to you and your parents who raised a lovely girl.

Dan R.

Subject: The Unplan

Hi Kelly, Kids off to school one more time and I have a little time to myself. Big weekend ahead and a lot to do, but I want to do this first.

Thank you again for "sticking your nose in" for my daughter. Although she didn't ask straight out, I think she was seeking some input from you. Now it is my turn to stick my nose in, it seems. But at least you did ask. So here goes.

I would be cautious about using one of those systems that hit him with a little bit and then leave him waiting for the other shoe to drop, as they say. Just how would you arrange for him to witness Linda and Kristen together? Would they cooperate with something like that? I have no way of knowing him as you do, so it is difficult to suggest a plan. However if I have it right, there is one common friend who knows him pretty well. Beth. Might you consider getting her to feel him out on the incest thing for you? She might ask him right out if he has ever been involved in anything like that. Then follow with a question as to his feelings on the subject. You and she would have to work out the actual wording. Something she could be comfortable with.

Another thing about Beth. Janie has discussed with me the idea that Duane might be your mystery birthday "guest" that she arranged. Her idea sounds plausible to me and the way she figures the timing of everything, it does seem to fit. Have you considered that if he is the one, then maybe he already knows about your Dad, since you are sure he was the other one? If so, he may be just waiting for you to open up with him about that? If so, it is time to be honest, not sneaky. Remember this. You don't really know what he already knows about you. That could throw a hammer in the works of the best laid out plan.

With that kind of possibility in mind, I have a tendency to go with the straight out, honest approach. No conniving, nor beating around the bush. Don't pick a time like just after sex, the way speak of manipulating your dad, and not at a point that is leading up to sex and he is extra horny. A neutral kind of time. Then sit down with him and look him square in the eyes and tell him that the way you are feeling about him compels you to open up with him and tell him some things about your life that he may not be aware of. Things that are very important to you, and if he is in love with you as you are with him, then they would be important to him as well. Now that you have his undivided attention and he has been reassured of your love for him, tell him. Maybe omething like, "Duane, I love you very much and I feel that you love me too. There is something you need to know about me before our relationship goes any farther, as I hope that it will. You need to know something about me that began long before we ever met. Since I was sixteen I have had a wonderful, beautiful, special relationship with my father. Ours is a very special father and daughter relationship. We share beautiful sex together." Gauge his reaction and follow up from there as you see your opening. You might reassure him that what you have with your father cannot compare with what you share with him, but it is very special to you.

If he cannot accept what you have shared with him, then you know that you have at least been honest with him. If he cannot accept you as you are, then, Kelly, that must mean there is something even better out there waiting for you. As much of a dream as Duane seems to be, I cannot imagine him turning away from you over this, IF you are honest and straight forward with him. But as much of a dream as he is, he just may not be the one. You need to be prepared for that, even though I think it is quite unlikely. This may only be a prelude, a warm up, for the real thing that is out there somewhere, just waiting. Waiting for a very special young lady named Kelly.

Maybe it's the influence of the straight forward, honest and open relationship that I have with my husband and with my eldest, and am trying to develop with my younger children, but I like that kind of thing. At least with that, you have no repercussions to anticipate from any sneaking around, conniving methods that could come back to haunt you later. This direct approach may not be comfortable for you, but think about it. And think about the things that could go wrong with the other plans that have been discussed. The only thing that could go wrong with being honest is an honest rejection. Would that really be so wrong? No one likes rejection, but if that were the outcome, could it possibly have been the right thing for you? No! And no amount of subterfuge could have made it right.

Sometimes the best plan is to not plan too much. Simplify it. Don't involve too many other people. Just get it square in your mind that you are going to do it and then do it. Do it the most natural way for you that you can. Do it as if you love him. Let me repeat that one. Do it as if you love him, enough to do what is best for him even more than for yourself. That's love.

Ask Janie about this idea. Of course, she and I have been such close friends for so long, through so much, that we tend to think a little alike at times, but I think she will agree with me on this one. And I know that she loves you very much and would want the very best for you. She is like that, and I know you hold a very special place in her heart. You know that I also want the very best for you. And I think this approach holds the best chance of meeting that goal.

I will close before I think about this too much more and maybe ruin it.

Love you, girl.

Deni

Subject: I concur

Hi Kelly,

Wouldn't you know my own best friend would one up me? I was actually thinking along that same line while feeding Jenny, but hadn't quite gotten it clear enough to put it together on paper yet. I couldn't have done it any better.

The only thing I know to add is a question. Do you love him that much? Do you love him enough to do what is best for him, even though it could possibly temporarily bring hurt to your own heart? I want to stress the temporary part. You would get over it, and go on to find your real true love. Best to find out now. Personally, I think you will like the answer. But then you know what a romantic I am.

You do have one other hurdle to clear that may be an even bigger bomb shell to drop on this dreamboat. What does he know of your website? Do you know if he has been exposed to it at all? Once again, not knowing just what he knows could cause trouble if you are not totally honest with him. Someone could very well have innocently mentioned it to him even before the two of you became so involved with one another.

My vote is with straightforward honesty.

Denise is right, I do want the very best for you. I would so love to see you live the dream, much like I am doing. And you helped me so much with that.

I love you, Sweetheart.

Janie

Subject: Re: comments on muse about Duane

I don't think it would be appropriate to tell you what to do. You have to make that decision. Not only must is it be a decision you can live with, it must be one you want to live with.

I read your chat with Heather and saw that you have covered many of the questions and issues here. You seem genuinely interested in Duane otherwise you would probably not put yourself through such a "soul searching". It would be very simple (not easy) to just tell him and let the chips fall. You could weed out someone who isn't interested in your lifestyle so potentially not compatible.

I do have another comment after thinking more about it today. Don't take this the wrong way, and maybe you could discuss it with Heather or someone.

Have you asked your Father what he thinks?

You seem to really be concerned about being able to continue "servicing" him. I call it that based on my conclusion from what you have written. But why? Why do you feel it is so important to continue fucking him when he obviously can get all he wants for others. He is capable of a relationship that isn't based on sex isn't he? I assume he has co-workers and friends he doesn't have sex with.

Go to him and say "I love you, but our relationship has to change. I have found a man I love and may marry. I don't feel comfortable telling him about this and I don't want to continue behind his back. Maybe in the future we can resume, depending upon my situation. I hope you understand."

What do you think he would say?

If he says I understand and will be willing to comply, that is what I would expect any loving father to do. They would want happiness for their daughter even if it meant some sacrifice for themselves. Plus I don't see it as much sacrifice since there is so much other pussy he is getting around there.

If he argues or doesn't agree, I propose that is being selfish and greedy. He is more interested in his own needs (some pussy) than your happiness. I don't believe you should let someone like that stand in the way of your happiness.

Of course, he may argue that changing your lifestyle for someone isn'ta good idea. And it usually isn't a good idea to start a relationship with someone you plan on changing.

But we are talking a unique situation here.

As I said previously, we mature, we change. That's what life and growing up is. As time goes on, our needs/desires change. And we change with them. It is natural.

http://www.gather.com/viewArticle.jsp?articleId=281474976856549[2]

I will continue to ponder on your situation. If you discuss this with Heather I would be interested in her take on my comments.

Subject: My Commitment to My Father

It's not like I am obligated to do what you tell me, I'd just like to hear your thoughts and suggestions as you never know what it might conjure up in my head as I read it.

As for my dad, I guess it's hard for me to express how deeply I feel about submitting myself to my father. Since the first time I gave myself to him seven years ago, I have NEVER refused him ir denied him EVER, regardless of my own needs or feelings. Of course, he is so loving that he never asks me to do anything beyond what he knows I am willing or would desire to do (like anal sex) which is why I am able to trust him so completely. For me to go to him and even discuss this is inconceivable to me. Maybe someday he will not need me but until HE decides that the time has come to where he no longer needs me to satisfy the lust and desire that lurks within him, as it does with any man, then I will NEVER deny him.

I can understand why you would say to do this but you have to understand how deeply I feel about it and what a part of me it has become. If you could only see his face when he cums in me, to see the satisfaction and enjoyment I can give my father, then maybe you might be able to even begin to understand.

Love to hear more from you,

---

Subject: Re: questions and musings.

Dear Kelly

It was just idle curiosity that led me to ask about the cum. I went to church last week for the first time in quite a while and that naughty notion popped into my head. It was just a frivolous thought. I'll respect your wishes and not ask religious questions. I think you're pretty cool about things but everybody has what they're comfortable with and what they aren't.

I read your musings about Duane and the responses so far. I can't come at it from the angle of an expert or anything, I'm just a friend who hopes that you find the love and happiness that we all seek. I agree with your thoughts that a letter is a really bad idea. It'll seem cold and cowardly no matter how good your intentions are. Having Beth tell him is only slightly better. Do ask her if he was the mystery guy you fucked at that party though. If he was that's the best you could hope for and if he wasn't then you aren't any worse off. I would also STRONGLY advise against letting him catch you with your dad. I just imagine that if he finds out for the first time that way it'll blow up. That might work if he already knows and has been playing too cool but that's the only way I predict that would end well. My suggestion is to be as straightforward as possible. Denise M. wrote some pretty good advice. Ease into it a bit without too much beating around the bush. Acknowledge that it's rare and unconventional but that it works for you. Hopefully he will respect your honesty and that'll be good for you. Remember it's not just you telling him but (hopefully) till death do you part afterwards. You wouldn't want him looking back on how he found out and thinking there was chicanery. Of course neither I or anyone else can guarantee a positive response but think beyond just telling him and think about how you tell him will affect your relationship from that time onward for the rest of your life. For this reason I advise against the more elaborate scenarios you crafted involving Kristen, your aunt or your mom.

Kelly, I wish you the best possible luck with this. If you let me know when you plan to have this talk I'll be extra sure to say a prayer for you. I would advise you to talk before he proposes instead of after. To me that just seems considerate. The catch is it'll be so hard to guess when would be best. When he looked at rings was he thinking the next few weeks or someday. I met my Kelly in either Jan or Feb, proposed in summer and we married two days before Christmas. Maybe soon I'll talk about that wedding, it was beautiful. The contrast is that my sister took a few years before she got to the altar with her guy. Even if Duane is thinking about it who knows what time frame is in his mind.

Again, I wish you every happiness and I desperately hope this goes as well as you hope. Regardless I feel you are a wonderful sweet intelligent Christian woman and whether it's Duane or someone else GOD has a wonderful sweet intelligent Christian man (or woman, who knows) who will make you complete.

your friend,
Jonathan.

Subject: musings

Hey Kelly,

(It's Adam, I had to change my e-mail addy 'cause of the way hushmail works. I'm saying that as if it will make much difference to you lol)

Here are my thoughts, for what they're worth, on your situation with Duane. I think I may have some small inkling of your dilemma probably very small. Someday I hope to find someone to who will want to be my wife and when I do I'll have to tell her about the fact that I'm sexually attracted to pre-teen girls. (that's going to be a fun conversation) I want to share my whole life and everything I am with her in the same way that you are now wanting to with Duane.

I just got done reading some of the responses so far. I think your worry that he might only see incest as a negative is justified. I googled "incest experiences" the other day and, after sorting through all the porn, only found negative references. I don't think the straight sit-down-and-tell-him-everything approach would be the best. Unless you did have someone talk to him first and bring up the subject of incest and get his reaction. If he actually seems like he could see it as a positive situation then maybe you could try telling him straight out. But, otherwise you might have to try and ease him into it, revealing things in increments.

As difficult as this situation is you do have a nice tool that you can work with. And you've already discovered it: his previous relationship with Kristen and your aunt. Before you bring that into play though I think there are some other things you can do. I'm guessing that you've already told him that you were raised in a way that you were able to discuss sex openly and honestly with your parents. If you haven't already, you should also let him know that your parents are completely aware of everything that goes on in your sex life. This will let him know that when it comes to sex your openness with your parents wasn't just "educational" and that you share a level of intimacy with them that goes beyond what most parents have with their children. Maybe you've already told him this but, if you haven't I think this would be good way of nudging him toward the ultimate truth that you need to tell him.

The first thing you might want to tell him is that fact that Kristen knew he was fucking her mom. You could do it in a playful way, like your letting him in on a joke. Tell him that the two of them don't keep any secrets from each other, just like you don't keep any secrets from your parents. You might even let him know that it's not the first time the two of them have slept with the same guy and that Kristen even lost her virginity to one of her mom's boyfriends. Again, if you can present the whole thing in a light way, like your letting him in on the joke, then it will probably be much easier for him to absorb.

After that I think revealing that your aunt and cousin have sex with each other would be the next step like you suggested. Just how you would do that I really don't know since I don't know him at all and have no idea how he would react to certain situations. Maybe after you let him know that the two of them sharing him was no secret you could feel him out about them having a threesome. If he thinks it's a hot fantasy he might be up for doing it for real. You might want to hold back on the fact that Linda started licking Kristen's pussy when she was 10 though.

From there I think the best progression would be finding out about you and Kristen. Another threesome? It may even be better to do this before telling him about Kristen and her mom. The fact that you two grew up together and are so close and that he's seen the two of you fooling around before could make it an easier transition. Now that I think about it this really may be the best place to start. AS odd as it may be for two cousins to be having sex, especially two hot female cousins, isn't as big of a jump as a mother and daughter. After that you and Kristen could let him in on the "joke" that she knew about him and her mom and some of the other info I suggested earlier.

If he can accept you and Kristen and Kristen and her mom being together I think the next step would be telling him that you and Kristen and your aunt have sex together. Again, it's hard for me to be specific about how you would do that. If he can accept that though, I think it would be time to stop being incremental and come out and tell him everything.

Tell him the story of your parents. What went on when they met and what your father found out when they decided to get married. The decision that he had to make, and the benefits he reaped from making that decision. And you and your father. What that relationship means to you. And what Duane means to you as well.

Of course the greatest tool that you have to work with is your parents. They've been through this before and they can help you more than any of the rest of us can.

The one thing I advise you against would be having him watch you fuck your dad unless it's something that he really wants to do. In the interview with your dad he said that he was "totally uninvolved" when it came to you mom and grandfather having sex and that he could never get into watching it. Even if Duane does accept your "family life" - and I hope he does if he's the man God has meant for you - he may never be totally comfortable about your relationship with your dad in the same way that your dad was with his father-in-law.

One question for you. Is Duane a Christian? You've often talked about God being the number one priority in your life. (and as someone who was raised in a church I wish that I felt that sense of devotion that you have and I have never been able to feel) I ask about that because I hope that's a priority that he shares.

Well, I truly hope that my own musings are of some help to you. I hope that things turn out well for you. You've let so many of us into your life and we've come to care about you even though we've never met in person. Whatever happens I hope that you can stay close to God and find his plan for your life.

Adam

Subject: re: MUSE ABOUT DUANE

Hi Kelly

I've not written for a long while but to get some basics out of the way, I still really enjoy your site and it's hard to comprehend that you've been running it by yourself! The email/chats obviously add to the content but it's an incredible body of work however it's viewed... I think you should be a writer, a journalist maybe...

Just for the record, I'd prefer if you don't publish my name/email if you decide to post this, you've never done before so I'm not really worried and quickly, so you know where I'm coming from... I'm your parents' age but with much younger children - three pre-teens. I'm in a long term relationship, been in a couple "serious" relationships since my early-twenties, pretty open-minded but consider myself fairly down-to-earth....

Anyway, your "muse" has definitely touched me since I remember well the hope and doubts about new love (barely mind you :o) I really hope this will work out for you. For most people, getting to this is point is hard enough and committing to a lifetime together poses lots of challenges but ... you've also got this...

I would like to suggest that you take careful note of some of Duane's natural responses.

1. Does he genuinely like & respect your parents? Your gut belief is what I'd go with... Has he had a close relationship with his own parents (not the sex of course) Does he know yet how much you and your Mom talk about?

If you start to share with him some of your history:--The way your mom helped you understand your own body-How much you told her about your dates as a teen-Their open-mindedness about you masturbating-Them encouraging you to bring your boyfriends home

You'll get an initial response about his feelings on the overall situation.... If you sense that he can't handle that basic level of intimacy between you and your parents, you may need to proceed carefully.

2. Is he a "loving" guy does he hug & kiss.... aside from sex. Do you and your parents, for that matter? If he has started to give/get hugs & kisses from your Mom as a natural part of greetings, you can at least see the initial lead up to greater intimacy, (I realize you make a clear distinction between love & sex) I'm a guy (a really horny guy at that) but I wouldn't fuck someone I'm not comfortable with.

3. Have you had any kind of discussion on incest and, separately, on marriage? His response to incest in porn doesn't tell you very much (maybe not anything at all) but does he know of anyone who has had sex with a sister or cousin, does he ever comment about some of the cases of incest reported... Has he ever got anything at all from you on your thoughts, enough to generate a discussion. You should get some feedback before you go in deeper.

I wonder, if possibly, he knows about you already, maybe from Beth or your cousin. In one of your stories, "Truth or Dare" - 2007, it seemed that at least three other friends know about your situation, maybe he's gotten wind of it...?

On the subject of marriage as a whole, I've gotten your thoughts pretty clearly and I think you have a bit of a grey area which could pose a problem like this... Most people (men & women) sort of fit into two groups. Group 1 - Monogamous, Group 2 - Polyamorous (i.e. not monogamy) of course, very few are honest enough to admit up front that they are in Group 2! So... you want to allow sex outside of your marriage with a Select group of people, but for some people this could be seen as.... Hey, Hey, Hey! It's open season, All Year Round!

Does Duane seem like the kind of guy who will understand & respect your specific definition of Fidelity?

The communication thing is a biggy, because if you're not doing it now, you probably won't be doing it then (after marriage) except then there will be way more things you'll need to talk about (like money, your ambitions & plans, lots of things relating to raising a family, etc. and yeah, sex) and the stakes are much higher.

I'll wrap up by saying, for you I have two major concerns, one the obvious, I hope this guy is ready to work hard to make you happy & fulfilled (you've got to reciprocate) and most of all... If you get an initial positive response from Duane, is he really mature enough to commit to you and not think, "hot dog more sex for meee!" without being able to give you the respect due to someone he will share his life with; the respect A Wife deserves.

What does your Dad, and particularly your Mom think about what you're facing? Listen to their advice but follow your heart and most of all be strong. Whatever course you choose, be prepared to live with it.

I see how long this has gotten so if you've made it this far, thanks again and all the best.
Phil

Subject: your possible choice

Dear Kelly,

You asked what to do if he gave you an either or choice between sex with your dad and him. My first response would have been something like "only you can decide, search your heart" etc. The more I think about it the more inclined I am to say move on. The reason why is that would be him giving you an ultimatum. Even if you accept it things could go badly. Maybe you would try and still have sex with your dad on the sly. I imagine at first it would only be under circumstances where there is little or no chance of being caught. After getting away with it enough times you might get careless and be caught. That could lead to a messy divorce and you'd be in horrible shape if there was a custody battle involved (I know that's moving ahead a lot). Maybe you really would move to a conventional father-daughter relationship and be perfectly chaste. Would resentment grow inside you? Would that poison your feelings towards your husband? Here's one more thing to consider. Would he trust you? Let's say that you're spending time with your family and he's not there. Would he be suspecting you of having sex with your dad even if you don't? Would you be inundated with accusations and suspicion? I know this isn't painting a very pretty picture but if he makes that ultimatum to start with things are nowhere close to what you hoped for.

I guess the easiest way to say what I believe is this. Make that promise to him ONLY if you can (A) keep it and (B) live a happy life with keeping it. If you can't/won't keep that promise or if doing so makes you unhappy then walk away. Hopefully this scenario won't happen but it's understandable to want to think about all possibilities. I hope this advice gives you some peace. It'll be best if you never need it but like a smoke detector or fire extinguisher it's something you want just in case. Take care and think happy thoughts. I'm optimistic for you Kelly.

your friend,
Jonathan

I see you are getting lots of advice from well meaning friends regarding Duane. In my 68 years I have always found that being upfront and honest in my relationships worked best. I agree with Jane and Denise, let the shoe fall and live with the results.

I am sure that he already is very much aware of your life style. If not, he should know before he proposes! Relationships cannot survive without honesty, trust and extreme caring for each other.

As a caring lurker, I wish you well and believe you will make correct decisions.

I just read some of the ideas that u had about telling him about the relationship that u have with ur family. although the last idea that u have is good, I would suggest that u ask him in general how he feels about incest. breaking the news to him that ur aunt and cousin fuck might turn him on but it also might scare him away. also u might be surprised (lol help teacher I can't spell that word)that he might have a positive reaction towards incest, but the only way to know is to ask him how he feels about it. if he does not have a positive response to it then maybe he isn't for you. remember the person u marry is suppose to love all of the big parts of ur life and if they don't then it will never work out. incest will always be a big part of ur life and it's something that I hope u find a balance in, because happiness in life is the only thing that truly matters.

Subject: my (possible) response.

Dear Kelly

Oh, boy is that a tough question. What would I do if my Kelly had come to me with something like that? That is so hard to predict. I think if I was faced with it when we got engaged I would have freaked. If (GOD forbid) I lost Kelly and a future fiancé hit me with something like this I would react a ton better. Back then I was very sheltered and it just would have been so far away from what I knew, there would be no chance I would deal with it well. Since then I've had e-friends (including you of course) who are not nearly as vanilla as I am. It sounds like Duane has a healthy sexual appetite and is pretty adventurous so that's promising. I haven't lived those kinds of adventures but I'm a lot more open-minded about things than I used to be.

The thing is that this is so different from anything I've ever experienced and something I don't remotely anticipate. It's like being asked if I met an alien or suddenly had the ability to fly. I could imagine a response but it would be from a perspective of not really expecting it to happen. I can sit by the computer and think, "I'd be cool. I'd take it in stride.", that sort of thing. Would that be the reality if it happened? I have no idea. I know that's not very helpful and I'm genuinely sorry about that but I'm being honest. The catch is I'm probably not a good predictor of how Duane will act since we're different people with incredibly different life experiences. I've had intercourse with three women in my entire life. He's been having a mom and daughter as well as his girlfriend just recently. He's probably been with three women in a week, perhaps in a single weekend (I almost said day but us guys need time to recharge so that's kind of pushing it). I hope that doesn't sound bad because I'm not trying to be negative, just emphasize that we're different in many ways.

To try and answer your question simply I'd guess I'd be surprised but I'd get over being surprised and be o.k. If (as one would hope would be obvious) I loved her I think I would accept it. The possibility of being jealous over "sharing" is something to consider but it ought to be negated by getting to be with her relatives as well so that's fair. I do have to toss out one huge caveat. Please don't interpret this as being judgmental because that's not remotely how it's intended. I won't have sex with any blood relative of mine. I can imagine an in-law but that's only remotely likely if a future fiance/wife is into this to begin with. I read somewhere on your site that you think the vast majority of people should not practice incest so I'll just be part of the vast majority. Having an e-friend, a pen-pal who's into that is perfectly cool with me. Going there myself is not. I trust that you get that and know where I'm coming from.

I would almost think you should find a Duane-like person to ask. I say almost because everybody is so unique. You could find people with certain qualities, traits, demographic factors, etc. in common but there is only one person who has lived his life. There is only one Duane who loves you enough that (apparently) he's given some thought to marriage.

Kelly, I'm going to ask you to do something far more difficult than people realize and that's to have faith in GOD. That sounds easy but it's not. Let me give you one of my favorite illustrations.

There was a dare devil who did a high wire act. He had a tight-rope strung up over Niagara falls with a platform on the American side and the Canadian side. He got a wheelbarrow full of bricks and pushed it across, turned around on the other platform and came back. The crowd loved it. They were cheering and clapping and hollering. When they calmed down a bit he pointed to a guy in the front row and asked him "do you believe I can do that again?". The guy said "Sure I do. I saw you push that wheelbarrow across and back again with my own two eyes. Of course I believe you can do it again". The daredevil dumped out all the bricks and told him "Get in".

It's easy to be part of the crown and say "sure I believe". It's fantastically harder to get in the wheelbarrow. Pray about what to do. Trust yourself, trust Duane, and most of all trust GOD. GOD has a path for you. It's possible that path isn't the one you hope for and want. It's possible that path begins with tears and heartache. But even if that is the case it's the path that your infinitely loving (Heavenly) Father has for you. I love my baby girl and will always do what's best for her (even when it's not what she wants, although that breaks my heart). Although I can't get my mind around it GOD loves us far more than I love my baby or your dad loves you (and I know that's incredible). Trust that. Again I wish you every possible joy and happiness. I hope your path is a smooth one but even if it's not I believe you will walk it beautifully. As always I look forward to hearing from you again.

your friend,

Jonathan

Subject: Response to your request for comment

Kelly, First of all, delighted to see that you're keeping the site up! I'm sure I'm not the only guy who was worried.

Also glad to be invited to share comments regarding Duane, and your prospective future together. Frankly, I think it's a no-brainer. It goes like this:

First, last and always: You MUST tell him, EVERYTHING, and JUST as soon as possible. If he cuts and runs, it wasn't meant to be, and BOTH of you might as well find out as soon as can be; if he finds out by some means other than you telling him, your position is damaged, perhaps forever - how can he trust you fully?

SO...You "spill it"...what does that mean?

A single, private, unhurried conversation. NOT right after fucking - you both need to be fully clothed (in case one or both needs to "run off" suddenly, in great distress).

You lay out the following, in this order:

1. I know you've been with a number of other women, and you know I've been with other men. I love you dearly, and want to tell you a couple of things. It's just important for me to get these secrets off my chest.
2. I know you've been with both Kristy and her Mom (does he know it was her Mom?)
3. I know this because my family is really close (as you've seen), and we don't keep secrets from each other, especially as regards sex.
4. They both know it, too, and actually think it's really cool.
5. You've seen me with Kristy, and know we're all really open about sex - so is my whole family.
6. I'm really close to my extended family, and intend to stay close to them, even after I eventually get married. We all really love each other.

(OK, pause here - at this point, if he's starting to show signs of panic, slow down, and brace yourself for a negative reaction. The "easy out" is to tell him you and Kristy have sex. If THAT freaks him, there's no hope. Just stop, say goodbye, and go have a good cry. However, my bet is that he'll be "paying really close attention" to you, and saying little or nothing - that's the smart play, in his place...If he's still "there", he won't yet know where this goes, but that's OK - then you pick it up)...

7. Kristy and I have been having sex since 19XX. (Pause - still OK? Good - continue)
8. We're not lesbians or anything, we just believe in sharing sex within our family.
9. I've also been with her Mom. (Now he's bug-eyed, but if NOT screaming and clutching his chest, it's still OK - keep going...tear off the whole bandaid at once!)
10. And my Dad has been with Kristy, his niece.
11. My Mom and her sister, Aunt (I forget!) were playing with each other sexually since they were kids. When she married Dad, he became part of the family, and so he began to have sex with Aunt (X), too.

(NOW he might see where this is going, but as you can see, it hasn't yet explicitly involved YOU...Basically, everybody is fucking everybody, "except Kelly"...Keep going)

12. So basically, Duane, all the adults in my extended family love each other, and share sex with each other. (If he's ready, then…)
13. And that includes me...

(Now the reaction...If still silent, NOW you ask what he thinks. You haven't SAID you fuck your family, and haven't used the I Word, but it's all out there. At this point, the "discussion" could go anywhere, and will probably become a kind of rapid-fire Q&A between you two. At the end of it, if he seems to be on board, you must have gotten the following points out, in any order:

- I do and will continue to have sex with all adult members of my family.- My future husband will be brought into the family and embraced fully. He will be able to have sex with any family member, and they with him.- Nobody is being oppressed or tormented here - it's all completely consensual, and based on love and trust.
- None of this has to do with "cheating" or "extramarital affairs". Nobody in my family does that, I never will, once married, and my husband had better not!...Just inside the family.
- I only tell you this because I love you, and want you to understand, and to accept me for all that I am...

Now...he WILL be stunned...that is unavoidable...He might need a little time to let it all soak in - don't give him "too much time alone". He will want to talk about it again, hours or a day or two later - be there for that!

If he is incredulous or denies it, suggest that the two of you should meet with Kristy and her Mom...to see how they both know about each other, with him, and are obviously OK with it. Of course, you will have arranged in advance that it will turn into an "all 3 on Duane" event.

Unless he's a corpse, that should convince him... AND win him over...

Good luck, sweetie! Do let me/us know how it goes, please!

Bill

Subject: your mom

Dear Kelly

You asked if it was me and I didn't bolt after finding out about your family fun would I have sex with your mom. I think yes. If I was single and in Duane's shoes and know all that I know from reading your diary (or that he will find out once you tell him). I would very much look forward to being with your mom. I would also look forward to being with Kristen, your aunt Linda, and cousin Tammy(yes, he's already had 2 or the 3). Perhaps Tammy most of all. That's about a perfect age, not so young as to be creepy and sick but with the beauty and freshness of youth combined with womanly attributes. I really don't see him saying no. If incest freaks him out you won't get to the point where you say "oh by the way, my mom is really looking forward to us getting married so she can do you". If he isn't freaked out and still wants to marry you once he knows you have sex with your parents of course he'll join in. There's no way he'll say "o.k. dear, go have fun fucking your dad while I sit home and watch reruns instead of joining in with the hot m.i.l.f. who gave birth to you in the other room". I've seen pics of you and Kristen so I'm assuming hotness runs in the family. I'm also assuming the four of your wouldn't be together. I think I read somewhere that you all don't do that. I have a swinger pen-pal who has sex with her family and when they get together with swing friends nobody goes to separate rooms for privacy it's all together. Of course you don't swing and I don't think you're especially a voyeur (everybody likes to look a bit, but I'm thinking that bit is as far as you go). This one's pretty easy. He'll either bolt when you first tell him or he'll join in, nothing else is realistic.

Take care of yourself.

your friend,
Jonathan

Subject: Musing about Duane

I hadn't read your website for a while, trying to end a relationship with a woman I should have ended a long time ago. I read the new entry you put up about how to tell your boyfriend about your relationship. Having your cousin do it is something I would not do. I know if I was told this I would want it to be done by the woman I loved, because my opinion on marriage is, it needs to be completely honest. The letter idea is what I liked. There you can control the words, lay out your feelings. Personally if someone were to tell me this and it was a total shock I would not want it verbally done because who knows what argument or emotions may flow at once, it would be best if you did something one night, you left him in a place by himself away from you tell him you live him, and have something you want him to read and think about and you will talk to him in a few hours, after he seriously thinks about it. That way you give him space and time to think over all you have put down to paper to seriously and fully understand all of your feeling about him and your family and what that commitment means.

That is only my opinion if a girl was going to tell me this. I would want her to see my final reaction and think and ponder on it alone before letting her know how I feel.

Kelly,

First and most important, I'm sorry to hear the advice you've received isn't consistent, therefore useful. I have to admit that surprises me, but...I do hope you'll let us (at least those of us that have expressed an interest and support) how it all turns out.

On the other matter, I do understand, but just a point of irony - I'll speak for myself, but for others I'm sure, that I feel I know Kristen, thanks to your rich literature. You have made it clear that she's "easy" (perhaps understated?), AND that she works in an industry where that's not only "not uncommon", but she perhaps sought such employment IN ORDER TO act of those "personal preferences".

So you see the irony...Here's a girl that seems more than willing; a man (men) who are more than willing to pay (well, if need be - you have no idea what a shot at you would be worth to me!...and I'm not alone) for the privilege of sharing her inner beauty, if only briefly; and a "story line" that would make the "short term engagement" memorable over time - it's perfect! We even know what city (area) to look in! Alas...

No answers, I know...maybe I should get a one-month apartment in Pittsburgh and just start down the yellow pages. One question that I HOPE you can answer: Is she still working actively, and if so, does she go by "Kristen" at work, or some other "work name?"

I won't bother you again on this, but thanks anyway...

Good Luck with Duane - really!

Bill

Hi Kelly.

I read your letter and your questions and I can understand your questionings. There is some few questions you have to ask yourself before you enter into the conversation. How open he is about love and life? I know it's sound weird but I'm the kind of guy who believe that if things are done to bring love and pleasures to anyone and that it's the wishes from every parties , that it should not be a crime but you know how is the society.

Let's said that he is open minded like i am; yes it's something I will like to know, before I get married, that my future wife have been in a special relationship and that her need to be happy is to continue into it with me. To be able accept it, I will need to be introduce slowly, very slowly and not feeling pushed.

How to test him, that's another question since I do not know his way about life and how open he is about what life could bring him. a little of hint could help me to advise you.

And one thing, do not sacrifice everything because you feel he is the one because after many years your life will turn empty and filled with regrets.

Subject: Dealing with Duane

Hello, Kelly.

You have already received a lot of feedback on this subject, much of it well intentioned, I'm sure. I read your thoughts, as well as many of the third party suggestions and comments, and I certainly don't envy you your dilemma. I won't pretend to have a solution for you but I would like to share a couple of general thoughts.

First, and most importantly, no one can give you advice on this (at least not advice that means anything) unless they know Duane personally. Otherwise, they--guys for the most part--color their commentary based on their own preferences and feelings. You already know this, of course, but it just seemed to me that so many of the responses I read were too "personal" to be helpful. The truth of the matter is that every guy would respond to such an unusual situation differently.

Second, much of your musings and the subsequent responses revolved around using other female members of your family to "ease the transition," as it were. Speaking only for myself, now, I have problem with that. The flaw I see in all these theories or plans is that no matter how you look at it, most guys will see a GIGANTIC difference between their girlfriend/fiance/wife having sex with other women (be it incestuous or not) and that same girlfriend/fiance/wife having sex with other men (especially incestuous, most especially her father). From what you've said, Duane is a pretty typical guy when it comes to women having sex with other women so I suppose it isn't unreasonable to think he could get used to the idea of you, your mom, aunt, and cousins. He might even consider himself a lucky man, as indeed he would be. But I fear that the typical guy would have an altogether different reaction to the father issue. Again, this is just my opinion; I obviously don't know Duane at all.

I hope you find the solution you're searching for. I can only imagine how stressful such a situation would be. Whatever course you choose, I think you're right in that you must be there to gauge/temper the reaction. No matter what else happens, you're right about that.

Chris

Hi Kelly,

Why would it be bad that Duane has not told you about his little tryst with your cousin and her mother? Isn't he a gentleman? Gentlemen don't kiss and tell. Or whatever it was they were doing besides kissing.

Be glad you have one of those, Sweetie. Could he have any reason to believe that he NEEDS to tell you? Are the two of you always sharing war stories about ALL of you individual exploits? It seems there may be one or two things you have not shared with him as well. Hmmmm. Let me check back a couple of pages. When you open up fully to him, then he may see the need to share with you things like this one, or even other things we don't know about. Are you ready?

You just said that you were not involved in any way, at least as far as he is concerned. So, why would he be concerned with a need to discuss it with you? I don't think you need to worry about him not talking about this yet. When the time is right and he thinks he should, then I believe he will.

If you just can't stand the suspense (that you instigated, by the way) any longer. Then tell him something rather innocent like, "Kristen let it slip that you guys had a real good time while I was away. Was she as good as ever?" Just keep it light with no spark of jealousy. Definitely don't let it sound accusing in any way. Just what would he need to be accused of? Not talking enough? I just don't think I would use this kind of thing, though.

What I'm trying to say is, don't blow this out of proportion, Sweetie. Relax. Let it happen. If you love the guy, you have to learn to trust him. Even when you "think" there might be something he should tell you. Trust him.

Let me say that one more time. TRUST HIM.

When he knows you trust him, he will feel more like trusting you. It's kind of contagious.

More on our little lady later, Hon. For now you need to cool it and just spend some time with this treasure of a gentleman you have. .

Love you,

Janie

What do YOU want to do Kelly?

First, when you made a step forward without the fear of losing that person, you have always got out of the situation. Stop worrying about losing him. If he would react, he would react in any way. If he would accept, he would accept any way. Would you still marry him if he does not accept? No. So why worrying? What I mean is: The way "how you say" is not that important to me...

You might even say that your mother liked him very much and even thought about fucking him. You can ask for his idea. Don't think too much. Make a step forward. Whatever will be will be...

Big kisses,

Subject: Re: Mad

Hi Kelly,

Honey, you have got to calm down about this. You are liable to say the wrong thing at the wrong time with him, just because it is eating you up so. Please settle down and let it ride for now. Wait at least until something more comes up about it. Either from him or from the girls.

I just hope you didn't get into it with him today at church or after. Please, listen to Mother Hen on this one.

As things stand right now, I think the biggest chance of you losing him, would be from how you are reacting about all this. Please don't let this wreck such a good thing. Your relationship has beautiful possibilities for a wonderful future together. But not if you keep acting like this.

Have you discussed this with your mother? I would like hearing her response.

Sweetie, here is an excerpt from your recent e-mail. This sounded to me like you gave the green light to this and you were alright with it, and anxious to hear how it worked out.

From you: "Before I left, and before I got yours and Deni's e-mails, I discussed some ideas with my cousin. She was thrilled with the idea of getting Duane with her and her mom so who knows what might happen this weekend while I am gone. The only good thing, I guess you could say, is I won't be there so it will just be a way of exposing him to a mother and daughter having sex. I don't even know if they will do anything, but you know my cousin, she can convince guys of about anything! It wouldn't make any difference if I tried to tell her not to do anything. If anything, that would make her all the more determined!"

Now, I want you to settle down and try to forget all about this. You have a more important project to be working on. How you are going to follow through on Denise's suggestion about being straight forward and honest, and tell him what you need to tell him about yourself. NOT speculating and worrying about something that is most likely no problem at all, unless YOU make it into one.

Now, go back and read over what she wrote to you and get to it. NOW. If you don't have her e-mail on that, one of us can get a copy to you.

I really think you need to follow through on that, and if it works for the best, then there is nothing you need to worry about regarding his little fling with Kristen and Linda.

I have explained my idea about gambling before. I only bet on a sure thing. Well, I will stick my neck out just a little this time and put my money on Duane. If you do something like Denise's unplan, then I expect to see the light glistening off of a ring, all the way down here from Pittsburgh.

Go for it, girl.

I love you,

Janie

Subject: The Unplan revisited

Hi Kelly.

Janie and I talked last night. Basically I agree with what she has advised. But let me put it in a little more brief form.

Get your mind off of what Duane has not said and get it busy on what you have to say.

I suspect that maybe a part of what you are doing with this obsession is to keep from doing what you know you have to. Forget what he has NOT told you. Now WHAT are you going to tell him? And WHEN?

In case you have lost it, here is the main part of what I wrote before. Please read it all again. Not to say I told you so but some of this points to just what is happening with you right now.

With that kind of possibility in mind, I have a tendency to go with the straight out, honest approach. No conniving, nor beating around the bush. Don't pick a time like just after sex, the way you speak of manipulating your dad, and not at a point that is leading up to sex and he is extra horny. A neutral kind of time. Then sit down with him and look him square in the eyes and tell him that the way you are feeling about him compels you to open up with him and tell him some things about your life that he may not be aware of. Things that are very important to you, and if he is in love with you as you are with him, then they would be important to him as well. Now that you have his undivided attention and he has been reassured of your love for him, tell him. Maybe something like, "Duane, I love you very much and I feel that you love me too. There is something you need to know about me before our relationship goes any farther, as I hope that it will. You need to know something about me that began long before we ever met. Since I was sixteen I have had a wonderful, beautiful, special relationship with my father. Ours is a very special father and daughter relationship. We share beautiful sex together." Gauge his reaction and follow up from there as you see your opening. You might reassure him that what you have with your father cannot compare with what you share with him, but it is very special to you.

If he cannot accept what you have shared with him, then you know that you have at least been honest with him. If he cannot accept you as you are, then, Kelly, that must mean there is something even better out there waiting for you. As much of a dream as Duane seems to be, I cannot imagine him turning away from you over this, IF you are honest and straight forward with him. But as much of a dream as he is, he just may not be the one. You need to be prepared for that, even though I think it is quite unlikely. This may only be a prelude, a warm up, for the real thing that is out there somewhere, just waiting. Waiting for a very special young lady named Kelly.

Maybe it's the influence of the straight forward, honest and open relationship that I have with my husband and with my eldest, and am trying to develop with my younger children, but I like that kind of thing. At least with that, you have no repercussions to anticipate from any sneaking around, conniving methods that could come back to haunt you later. This direct approach may not be comfortable for you, but think about it. And think about the things that could go wrong with the other pans that have been discussed. The only thing that could go wrong with being honest is an honest rejection. Would that really be so wrong? No one likes rejection, but if that were the outcome, could it possibly have been the right thing for you? No! And no amount of subterfuge could have made it right.

Sometimes the best plan is to not plan too much. Simplify it. Don't involve too many other people. Just get it square in your mind that you are going to do it and then do it. Do it the most natural way for you that you can. Do it as if you love him. Let me repeat that one. Do it as if you love him, enough to do what is best for him even more than for yourself. That's love.

Once more, with feeling:

Get your mind off of what Duane has not said and get it busy on what you have to say.

The only question here is, do you love him.

We all love you.

Deni

Hi Kelly,

I know how corny that sounds, but I'm totally with Jane on this... It's times like this that your wedding vows would be tested and if Duane is still getting his head wrapped around this (just this small part of the big picture), you need to let him know how you feel and give him a chance to prove how HE feels by living up to your expectations.

I hope you understand what I'm struggling to say.

I'm really hoping for the best for you.

Subject: Re: Now what?

Alright, Kelly. One more time. SLOW DOWN!

I don't know if you will get this before your date this evening or not. But right now I have to think this out some more.

One. Linda was likely just going along with her daughter. You know how mother/daughter relationships can be. And as you stated, you know the daughter.
Two. While I still think Duane is an exceptional man (especially for you), he is, as you say, a man.
Three. Were they really trying to deceive you in any way? What exactly is your official claim on him right now? There has been no proposal, and no big solemn commitment that I am aware of. He is basically a free man.
Four. Do you love him? Do you still believe he just may be in love with you?
Five. And most urgent for the moment. DO NOT confront him during your date this evening. You might casually mention Kristen and Linda. Give him the opening to say anything he might want to say. I haven't heard from you that you have been with anyone else recently, besides your dad, but if you could offer something like that to him about yourself, that might encourage him to share with you as well. However you get into it, DO NOT make it confrontational. If you feel you have to get into it, use something light like, "Kristen says you guys have been together lately. Was she any good." But in your wording and manner.
Six. Most critical in the end. Are you ready to talk straight to him about you and your dad? If so, not in the restaurant or in his place. Maybe get him to park some place romantic. Or just park in front of your house and turn to him and let him know you need to talk. At least there, unless he comes back with something to call for other action, you can leave it with him to ponder and go into the house alone. And await his call or knock on the door. Which may be in a few days, if he decides to take time to think it all over.

My money is still riding on this guy, but I could be wrong. I was once. And I married the creep (not Jerry). Let me remind you that Jerry came back...to stay, and I had the added burden of telling him that I was already pregnant with my father's baby. Somehow I still want to put Duane in the same basket with Jerry.

I haven't read from you therapist's writings yet. But I will. But if she advises anything that sounds the least bit devious, talk to Mother Hen first. At least you know I love you , and have for a long time now. Hopefully she has some really good things for you. She is a professional sex therapist and a big help, I am a hopelessly incurable romantic. And what I want for you is a hopelessly incurable romance. Together maybe we can infect you with a cure for what is ailing you.

Keep one thing in your pretty little head no matter what happens. If this does not work out with you and Duane, then I know there is something far better out there waiting for you to get over this one. He may just be another step getting to the very top.

I love you and am praying for you tonight. Now pick out the right dress for this occasion. No! Not that slinky, slutty, sexy one. And wear a bra and panties. Got to hold yourself together.

Love you,
Janie

Hi Kelly,

I hope I am not too late with this. But I haven't even taken time to call Janie. Sissy, however is right here with me, and she is very concerned about you and Duane. I let her read what you have written. We haven't gone to the site to read about your therapist friend yet, but we will. We wanted to get this out quickly first.

Sweetie, do not confront this man on that date tonight. Lead the conversation into some kind of opening for him if you feel you must. But do not confront him with anything.

Unless something tragic happens to prevent it, I hope you can find a time and place to open up with him about you and your father. That will straighten this other mess out one way or another. If it should go for what seems like the worse, then it is not really the worst. If all of this breaks up this relationship, then there is a better one waiting in the wings for you. Maybe that next one would be the one. And that would be infinitely better than going too far with the wrong one. I hope I said that right.

Now, go and get dressed right for a special night.

We love you,

Deni and Sissy

Hi Kelly,

I know this is too late for your date. "I'm late, I'm late for a very important date."

I was with my mom though when she wrote to you and gave you our best wishes, and I think some good advice. Did Janie write too? I do hope things go well for both of you.

For whatever it is worth, I think you should wait until you have that ring on your finger that stands for a commitment the both of you have made to one another before you start worrying so much about what "your" man is doing "behind your back." Which he hasn't really until the both of you make that commitment. It can't be behind your back unless there is something up front first. OK, that sounds kind of nutty, but you know what I mean.

I wrote an email to that therapist friend of yours, but I haven't heard back from her. I guess she is too busy or would rather not talk with a girl my age or something. It's not like I was asking her to do her sex therapy stuff with me. Or do you think I need that? lol

Love you,
Sissy

Hi Kelly

I know how corny that sounds, but I'm totally with Jane on this...

It's times like this that your wedding vows would be tested and if Duane is still getting his head wrapped around this (just this small part of the big picture), you need to let him know how you feel and give him a chance to prove how HE feels by living up to your expectations.

I hope you understand what I'm struggling to say.

I'm really hoping for the best for you.

Hi Kelly.

Well, Sissy and I read what you wrote about this incident with Duane and Kristen and Linda. If I were reading it for the sex, I could have gotten off to it for sure. I imagine any guy with a health cock would have too. What a piece of work. Wow!

Well, if Duane's other work falls through, he could make some real money as a porn stud. If you decide not to take him, you can send him to Georgia. He seems to like mother and daughter activity. My little girl got quite hot reading all that.

We are anxious to hear how things went with your date with Duane.

Sissy has also been trying to read up on some chats with the therapist you mentioned. She seems quite interested.

The kids are home now and the boys should be about finished with their snack, and will be wanting to feed me one next, I expect. The question is where they will want to feed it to me this time. Maybe one of each. One of the advantages of twins.

Love,
Deni

Hi Kelly,

Anxious to get that new letter.

I did read one chat you had with Ms F. Or is that Dr. F.? That was how I got her address and decided to write to her. But, no, I haven't heard anything from her yet. And I haven't caught her on line to chat. Do really think she would chat with me? I want to go back and read more from her. Do you think I might be able to study hard in that area and someday work in her field? I would like helping young girls like you said she does. It has been so interesting and feels so good to try helping Amy the way I have. Maybe that could be my calling. In Amy's case, I really don't think I am helping her much except to be a friend. She really needs that. And I like being her friend. It kind of makes me feel needed and good for something.

Now down to business.

Mom and I read your account of the latest things with Duane. Very, Very Hot!

I had a lot of observations go through my sexy little head while reading it. Let me see if I can get them all down.

First, when you marry this guy, you have some new things to work out. Are you going to start doing anal for the man you love? It seems that he wants that with you. Understand, he had just fucked Kristen's ass hole but he WANTED yours. That's a pretty big hint as to his preferences if you ask me. If you still have an aversion to anal, then you at least have a convenient outlet for your man's needs in that department. Knowing that his fabulous dick would come home afterward. Home to the one he loves, not just one he is horny for.

You said these were reports from Kristen and her mom as well as your mom. Well, all the way through it, you can see (at least I can) that his primary interest is in YOU. That is their point of view. Just think about it. He has all this fabulous sex with a very hot mother and daughter, but he wants YOU. Now doesn't that tell you something? This guy is in love with you. Even if his lustful male ego gets him into a situation like this with the others. He WANTS YOU!

Be glad he is a very sexy, and very capable lover. You can have the best of all worlds with him. Do it, girl. Do it. Tell him about you and your dad. With what I just read, I expect he might even get turned on by the idea and you may have to soften that raging hard dick before he can calm down enough to put that ring on your finger.

I am glad my mom is not into those toys. I don't want her getting me one like your aunt gave Kristen. She can have that. Not for me.

As for him not telling you right away about that little escapade, have you told him about that jewelry store girl? Well, remember this. He wasn't in her store shopping for your aunt nor your cousin.

It is eating you up inside that you cannot seem to bring yourself to tell Duane about you and your dad. Well, just do it. It seems to me that that would help clear up a lot of things between you. And maybe, just maybe solidify your relationship.

Kelly, it looks to me like the ball is in your court, as they say. Now, do you want his balls in your court for the rest of your life, or not? Not every girl gets a proven porn stud like the one you wrote about. Just think of the scenes you could have with your very own porn stud.

There is lots more I thought about while reading what you wrote, but I cannot think of them right now. Maybe I will say more on those later. I will go back and read again.

For now, just make up your mind about telling him. I think he might want you even more when he learns what you have to share with him about you.

You love him. And he loves you. Right? Do it.

Aside. I heard Mom going in the boys' room with them just now. I think I will peek in.

Love you,

Sissy

Subject: Sorry to hear about Duane's "conduct"

Kelly,

I'll keep this short, since you're now signaling (on the site) that you're getting lots of mostly-useless advice... I don't WANT to add to that, but here goes anyway...

OK, he knows. He didn't freak. It seems clear that if he were to be offered a shot at your Mom, he'd be on her without (much of) a fight. from that, he has NO business getting upset about you and your intentions, after marriage (if he does, he's a selfish asshole, and good riddance - tough love, girl!)

Sad to say (as a man), the issue is that he's a cheater...Set aside the foolish belief that your slutty cousin promised not to tell, and whether or not he should have believed that. The issue is that if he loves you, deeply and in a way that will accept sacrifice over time (and take it from me, ALL marriages do!), can YOU trust HIM to be there, be honest, and be loyal, within the "unusual" bounds of your family's love...?

If you told him tomorrow, he'd be relieved, and (I now know) think it's great. He'd perhaps hurry up and want to marry, to remove the "ambiguity" before he gets back into Linda, Kristen, etc...The question is, would he stop there, and honor YOUR boundaries, and if he DID stray, would he lie and conceal to cover it up...

SO, my current "free advice" (which is worth EXACTLY what you're paying for it): Confront him (privately). Seek to understand his true feelings about doing it, and being "caught"... Be discerning - and ask just one question... "Do I STILL TRUST him?" - not love - trust is different. Love will GET you married, but only TRUST will KEEP you married...

Good luck, sweetie - however it turns out.

XO,

Bill

Subject: advice re: Duane

Dear Kelly

I've read your most recent entries about Duane being with your aunt and cousin and how you felt about it. All in all I'd have to say there are positive signs about him accepting you and your family. It can't be guaranteed of course even now but it looks promising. My advice still is to be completely straight-forward. I think the idea of telling him during or immediately after sex is a bit manipulative. I'm sorry but it would kind of obviously be buttering him up. Afterwards he'll realize that and probably be a little resentful of the fact, no matter how smooth it goes at first. Like I've said before it's better to plan for a positive reaction. If things go well you've laid the foundation for a long and happy future. If things go poorly you can only react the best you can. On the other hand if you plan it assuming the worst then you've starting things off on a poor footing. I guess more than anything else I'd say that with every decision you make don't just think of that occasion or the next day or two but be deliberately thinking about how it will affect the rest of your life because it profoundly does.

I haven't forgotten about your request for a story. I will do that and I'm sorry I'm being slow. Things aren't good on my end. The most recent bad news is that one of my grandmothers is terminally ill. It might be days. There's other things too but I'm sure you don't want a list. Suffice it to say I'm very far from my best. I'll write that when I can but hopefully we can write some until then just about life. I really hope that things so very well for you and Duane. Take care of your yourself and I hope to hear from you soon.

your friend,
Jonathan

Don't tell him during before or after sex.... it might be easier on you and sure he might take the news better but it won't be taken seriously and you won't get how he truly feels. He might agree to something just cause he getting some at the moment and then he won't express how he really feels about it later.

Sit him down and try to have a serious convo about it. I know it's harder but at least this way you get to know right away what he thinks of your participation with your family.

Re: telling Duane

Heather,

Well, it seems everyone thinks it's a bad idea to tell him after sex - even some of the guys who wrote. I guess I won't then, even though I still think it would be a nice time to do it.

Last night I went to my dad's office as soon as school was over. My mom and a few others have pointed out to me that I have been ignoring him lately which sort of shocked me as I hadn't realized what I apparently had been doing. It's been a long time since I did anything special for him at work so I thought it would be a great way to make up for being so bad. Well, long story VERY short, I think I made him happy! It ended up being an entire evening with my dad, dinner and all.

Everyone is pushing me to tell Duane but I am so scared. I've NEVER had to make a decision this big and frankly, I don't know what to do. I'll work it out but in the meantime, I just have to hope he doesn't propose - now THAT is sort of a twist, isn't it?

How are things with you? Been masturbating a lot lately? I think you are a lot hotter and sensual than you try to let on.

Love you,

Kelly

I can't imagine someone hasn't already said this but... just in case.

I think the biggest thing is to ask him what he thinks of the overall topic. Like if you know his opinions on the subject, you can move forward. There are a million things in relationships like this. But if a guy hates dancing, you'll never get him into Salsa.

However, if he's not into dancing, you might suggest that there are other Things similar to it that he wouldn't reject and gradually pull him in further. After all, he wants to chase you down whatever road you go down ... you just have to make the route easier and give him time.

I don't think waiting until he's in a "condition" to better agree is the best way to go. If he rejects the idea later, he might feel manipulated.

(Aug 31) Chapter 170: Aunt and Cousin Do Duane

Me (23)
Aunt Linda (40)
Kristen - cousin (21)
Duane - my boyfriend (29)

Lately I've been giving a lot of thought about how to approach my boyfriend about my incestual family life as I think he may want to propose to me soon. Wouldn't you know that my cousin would take matters into her own hands - literally. It was my fault - should have known better than to give the slut any ideas.

Note: Obviously I wasn't there when this took place so I had to go by what my cousin and aunt told me. Thus I had to use some "literary license" to fill in the gaps and reconcile differences in their memories. They have both read it and agree that it is a pretty accurate recollection, even if they disagree on some of the details.

1. My Dilemma

One of the strongest "rules" in my family is that we don't tell people outside our family about what goes on between us, at least sexually. For better or worse, incest is technically illegal (what a stupid law) and if nothing else, socially taboo, so any "revelations" would likely cause some pretty severe problems for all of us. Face it, "fucking my dad" is not a resume builder if you're a teacher!

Because of all this, I've always said that I would not tell any boyfriend about my dad fucking me until after the guy proposes to me. According to my "plan", once he did it would be a condition of my acceptance of his proposal that my relationships with my family be allowed to continue after marriage. Of course, that would mean he could join in as well so it isn't like it is just for me.

OK, so now everyone gets to tell me they told me so. To be brutally honest, I have to admit that I may have been just a little bit naive but it sounded good at the time. I always assumed that by the time a relationship got to the point where a guy wanted to marry me, that I would know enough about him that revealing this information would not be all that big of an issue. After all, what normal heterosexual male would turn down the opportunity to be married and still fuck several of the women and girls in my extended family - and do it with my blessings?

Of course, it would be up to my relatives as to whether they wanted to have sex with him or not, but as hunky as Duane is, I never even gave it a second thought as to whether or not it would be an issue. My mom was quick to inform me that he made her wet and horny the first time she met him! As for my Aunt Linda and cousin Kristen, they had fucked him before we even started dating. So far as I could see, there would be no issues or problems. Boy, was I ever stupid.

My oh my, how things can change when fantasy becomes reality. After almost six months of dating, I was getting reports that Duane may be thinking of proposing to me. One thing I did know for sure was that he had been looking at wedding rings. With a potential proposal at hand (and I wanted to say YES), there was one thing that I thought would have been settled but wasn't. You would think that with as much sex as we've had between us (and with others as well), that by now I would know his opinions about incest. The reality is, I knew almost nothing. Granted, it's not the kind of topic that typically comes up in idle conversation, but still you would think it would have popped up sooner or later when we watched a porn movie together or something.

The biggest reason this started to become a concern to me was that the more I thought about it as the time approaches (as hopefully it is), the more I wanted to be able to say, "YES!" the instant he proposes. The idea of me giving him a conditional response, especially given the sort of "condition", became less and less appealing to me as the reality of it approached.

It became quite a dilemma for me and I discussed it with a lot a number of people - even to the point of posting something on my website looking for advice. While the responses were great, the suggestions have also varied widely and often conflict. As a result, I still didn't have a coherent plan as to how to handle Duane. My biggest fear was that he would I surprise me and I would be stuck without knowing what to do, maybe even ruining the whole thing for both of us in the process.

The person with whom I discussed this with the most, as you may expect, was my mother. She has always been the one I turn to when I have a difficult decision to make or face a supposedly insurmountable situation. Unbeknownst to Duane, my mom has been drooling over him since the first time I brought him home. Hardly a date goes by that she doesn't stop me on my way in to ask if he has proposed to me yet (starting with our first one). Of course, given her stand on adultery she would never fuck him until we actually tied the knot so she has been as anxious as me to get the process moving along.

Two other people I discussed this with at length have been my Aunt Linda and my cousin Kristen. They have what you might call a "unique" perspective into my situation. Duane has had sex with both of them - at different times of course. This all started long before he and I started dating and Duane has no idea that I know he has fucked the two of them. It started back a year or more ago when he went out with Kristen after a party. She took him home afterwards where he met her mother wearing nothing but a short (make that VERY short) terry bathrobe. One thing led to another and eventually he asked her out and quickly got into her bed. Actually, Duane has only done my aunt a couple of times and Kristen maybe three or four (if you don't count the party fucks) so it's not like he had anything too serious going on with either of them. Duane was 28 when he first fucked my Aunt and she was 39 so it wasn't THAT big of an age difference, nothing like when she pursues Kristen's underage boy toys.

After I started dating Duane, Kristen was polite enough to stop flirting with him, well, at least she stopped at the flirting and didn't go to bed with him. Duane also stopped asking my Aunt Linda out, perhaps because he didn't want me to know he was doing her before we had met. Of course he still fucked Kristen at parties, no big deal since every guy fucked her, and since he didn't mind if I did other guys while he was doing her, it worked out for both of us. What he didn't know, and I didn't know how to tell him, was it wouldn't have bothered me if he had fucked Kristen privately some time so long as it was just sex and nothing more personal. Heck, the same applied to my Aunt Linda but that would have been really interesting to explain!

This past Labor Day weekend my mom decided to visit her mother in Illinois and she had to drag me along for company. Grandma had just turned 66 the week prior so we would also celebrate her birthday, if a little late. I hadn't visited with her in a while but still, I could think of better ways to spend a three day weekend than driving ten hours one-way to sit in a hot house (she hates air conditioning) and listen while my mom and her talked about the same things they talk about every time they get together.

our house. I had never considered it unusual that she made herself comfortable in our home, wearing little to nothing much of the time (she has always been more of a nudist than me or my parents).

What I didn't know, though, was what was happening those times the two of them would disappear for a while. Once I was in on the full story, my aunt stopped worrying about hiding it from me so it wasn't all that unusual for her to show up at the door, asking him if he had some free time when she was a little extra horny. So you can imagine how with me and my mom both gone this weekend, I had no doubt her sister would be taking full advantage of the situation.

My cousin Kristen is a little different story. As hot as he must have been for her (he knew what she was doing with her mom a LONG time before I did), my dad didn't start fucking her until after I had left for college. She was sixteen at the time, the same age as I was the first time he fucked me. While his having sex with my Aunt Linda was just the continuation of a long-term relationship, I knew he liked to fuck Kristen simply because she was HOT and young. Besides, every guy wants to fuck Kristen so why should my dad be any different?

I didn't know if she would be at our house while my mom and I were gone, it probably depended more on her work schedule than anything else. My dad probably would have liked having the two of them together but again, what man wouldn't unless he was gay?

As I mentioned earlier, while Duane has fucked them both separately, he had no idea that Kristen and her mom had been having sex since she was a young girl. Maybe the fact they still both slept in the same bed should have given him a clue, but if he suspected anything he certainly never let on about it to anyone. You really can't blame him for not figuring it out as how many daughters have sex with their mothers?

OK, so I do with my mom but my sexual relationship with my mother is totally different than that between Kristen and her mom. For me, sex with my mom is rare and extremely intimate, like being with a lover. With Aunt Linda and Kristen, it's like all the time and when they do it, it's for fun and pleasure rather than "love", although they DO love each other but no different than any other mom and daughter love each other.

The reason I'm talking so much about my Aunt and cousin having sex is that one of my thoughts about how to break "the news" to Duane was to have him see Kristen and her mom together. This would allow me to gage his reactions to mother-daughter sex before I revealed that I did the same with my own mother. It was just one of a number of thoughts and ideas, nothing I was ready to see actually happen yet.

To give credit where due, it was Heather, a professional sex therapist that I chat with, that helped me work out the idea. However, that's all it was, an IDEA, not something I had decided on doing. I mentioned it to my cousin and she thought it was a great idea (especially since it meant she got to do a threesome with Duane) but I told her I still had a lot of thinking to do before any of us did anything rash with Duane.

So off to my grandmother's house my mom and I went. Crap, talk about a long and boring drive! Sure enough, when we called home to tell my dad we had arrived late on Friday night, my aunt's voice could be heard over the phone in the background. You had to hand it to her, she certainly hadn't wasted any time! When my grandmother heard she was with my dad, her lips pursed but she didn't say anything. Actually, I don't why my mother even mentioned it to her as my grandmother was a bit old-fashioned when it came to a husband having sex with someone else while his wife was away. I would have agreed with her had it been a hot neighbor but this was his sister-in law so what was the big deal? Besides, she knew they had been having sex for almost thirty years now!

The weekend was about as boring as anything I could imagine. The weather was perfect and all I could think about was how we were missing a great weekend on the lake. Waterskiing in my thong bikini, all the guys drooling over me as I walked down the pier, was a LOT more exciting than watching grass grow in dry Illinois. Oh well, I suppose someday I'll be her age and be happy to have my daughter and granddaughter visit me. Still, I was bored out of my mind. Lord only knows how many times I masturbated as much to pass the time as anything else.

When we finally got back home early Monday evening, Aunt Linda was gone but my dad admitted she had only left a few hours before we had arrived. My mom just shook her head at her sister's blatant attempt to take advantage of her absence to the maximum extent possible. My dad also mentioned something about her not being around all afternoon on Sunday after church, but that was just tossed into the conversation and at the time, neither my mom or I asked anything more about where she had gone, probably shopping to whatever or checking in at the office.

It wasn't until Tuesday night that I learned what had happened Sunday afternoon and who should be the one to happily inform me but my whore of a cousin, Kristen. (I can call her that because she IS a whore - she is a prostitute making big bucks selling herself to men, but that's another issue for another time.)

I'd just got home from school and was looking forward to a hot night out with Duane after not having seen him since last week when my phone rang. Kristen was practically tripping over herself trying to tell me what she had done "for me". As soon as she mentioned that, my heart leaped to my throat and my first reaction was, "Oh god, what the hell did she do now?"

What I learned, in intimate detail as she didn't want to leave a thing out, was that on Sunday afternoon Kristen had somehow talked my boyfriend, the guy I thought was getting ready to propose to me soon, into coming to her house and fucking her. That wouldn't have been so bad since Duane and I had agreed were not "exclusive" although I myself had cut way back on what other guys I was having sex with. What made me freak was when she gleefully told me that her mother had joined in!

After listening to her version of the events, I went straight to my own mother and told her what had happened. You can imagine my surprise when she was NOT surprised. Apparently it had been her suggestion to my aunt before we had left that had triggered the mother-daughter part of the afternoon. Her sister had called her Sunday night to tell her all about, while we were still at my grandmother's house! I looked at her in total disbelief. How could she have done this to me? I was going to meet with Duane in a couple of hours so how was I supposed to know about this? We had talked on the phone a ton over the weekend and he had never uttered the slightest hint as to what was happening. Come to think of it, we had a brief call in the middle of the afternoon on Sunday. He had seemed as little preoccupied but I assumed it was just the football game holding his attention. Apparently, somebody else was instead. Obviously he didn't want me knowing about it so now what was I supposed to do?

After getting the news from my mom, I immediately called my aunt to get her side of the story as well. She was quick to plead innocent and put all the "blame" on my mom and her daughter, but at the same time it didn't sound like she put up much resistance.

2. Duane Fucks Kristen at Church

What follows is the best I can do to piece together the stories I got from the three of them. Although my mom was only involved in the "setup", she still had some information that helped to fill in the blanks from conversations she had with her sister. It wasn't easy as in some cases their stories were a little different and in a couple of minor points, even conflicted. I guess that's the case any time you get more than one person recounting what happened at a major event. The dialog is the best I can do from what they said and how I interpreted what happened as they didn't videotape anything. I debated writing up three versions, one from each of their perspectives, but frankly, that would be too much work and most would be repetitive anyway. I had them all read it over and they made some changes, helped with the dialog, and fixed a few errors.

*************

"So did you hear about Kelly's boyfriend?"

Linda looked up from her magazine at her daughter's question and answered, "You mean Duane? What now, they didn't break up or anything, did they?"

Kristen crawled in bed next to her mom and grinned, "Oh no! In fact, the word is he's been out looking for rings. I bet he's going to propose to her soon. "

"Oh really? That's interesting considering they've only been going out for what, five or six months? Sounds kind of quick if you ask me."

"Oh mom, don't be so old-fashioned! You've seen them together. They really love each other so why put it off? For crying out loud, he's almost thirty already!"

"Hey, let's watch the old age comments kid," Linda playfully smacked her, "So has she told him about the family secrets yet?"

"No... you know better than that. But now she's all worked up over how she's gonna tell him. It was all she talked last time we went out." Kristen paused and grinned at her mom mischievously before changing the subject. "So will I be sleeping alone this weekend while Aunt Mary and Kelly are at Grandma's house?"

Linda couldn't help but grin. She knew full well what Kristen was referring to - that she would be staying the night with her brother-in-law while her sister was out of town. She ALSO knew that Kristen already knew the answer. Well duh! Even Kristen could figure THAT one out. Of course she would! Kristen silently moved in closer to her mom and started to gently massage her mother's breasts as she pressed her wet crotch in against Linda's hips.

"You know mom, I still don't get why Uncle John married Aunt Mary instead of you," Kristen went on, "He seems to like fucking you a lot more than her."

Linda brushed her fingers through her daughter's blonde hair as she felt her nipples responding to Kristen's light touch. "You know Kristen, some day you're gonna learn that there's more to a relationship than just sex. Besides, it's not like that by marrying her we don't get to have fun. In a way, I prefer to look at it as he lucked out and got the best of both of us - her personality and love, my sex drive."

They both giggled at that as Linda put her book away and turned to embrace her petite nude daughter. There was little talk after that as the two of them were exceptionally horny with Linda looking forward to the weekend with her brother- in-law and Kristen having her own thoughts about the possibilities for the upcoming holiday weekend - ideas her mom wasn't aware of, at least not yet.

As planned, Linda was off to her sister's home before Mary and Kelly had cleared the city limits. It had been over a week since she had last been fucked by her brother-in-law and the sex she'd had with one of her clients since then had been boring and unimaginative. No matter as it had been good enough to close the deal which was all she really cared about at the time.

As she approached the house, she couldn't help but remember the first time John had fucked her, way back in eighth grade. He was the first boy to fuck her and only the second guy period as her dad had been the only one until then. The look on her sister's face when she found out her boyfriend was fucking her little sister was priceless, etched forever in her memory. As she walked in the basement from the garage, she left her clothes behind on the family room couch. She wouldn't be needing them again for a couple of days if everything worked out as planned!

Meanwhile back home, Kristen was pacing the bedroom, debating for the umpteenth time what to do. Well, she already knew exactly what she WANTED to do, it was just a matter of what WOULD she do. On the one hand she wanted to fuck Duane again but then while she knew her cousin wouldn't claim to care if she did, she remembered the look on Kelly's face at the last party where Duane had been fucking her in the bedroom (one of many guys to do her that night so it wasn't like it was anything romantic) and Kelly had walked in.

Her eyes blazed at the sight of her boyfriend's hard dick in her cousin's wet pussy but she manage to put on a smile and act like everything was OK. In fact, she had laid down next to her cousin and invited the next guy in line to take her and fuck her. It was pretty obvious she was trying to get Duane jealous by having him see a train of guys fucking her but if anything it backfired as he seemed to enjoy the show, even encouraging more guys to fuck her.

Finally she picked up the phone and started to punch in Duane's number. The heck with it. It wasn't like he and Kelly were married - or even engaged. Even if they were, Kelly would have to let Duane fuck her cousin, those WERE the rules, right? Duane seemed surprised to hear from Kristen but she went right at him nonetheless.

"Hey lover boy, your precious Kelly's out for the weekend so I was wondering if you had anything that needed some... let's say.... attention?" Kristen said after exchanging perfunctory hellos. She wasn't wasting any time!

"Kelly would kill me if she found out," Duane responded just as vaguely. Kristen found it interesting that he didn't say he didn't WANT to, only that Kelly would not be happy if he did.

"Well... who says Kelly has to find out?"

"Shit Kristen, don't you get enough dick without having to go after your cousin's boyfriend?" he teased her.

"Sure... but now I want YOURS," Kristen taunted him.

There was a moment of silence on the phone and then Duane replied, "I don't think it's me so much you want as your cousin's boyfriend. Shit, why are you two so competitive all the time? That last party was crazy."

"Well, it wasn't like you complained when we bet to see who could give you the best blowjob," she retorted, "And I know you said she won only just because she's your girlfriend."

"Well Kristen, as tempting as the offer may be, I have to take a pass, OK?"

Kristen abruptly hung up on him, frustrated and a little bit pissed off. She couldn't even remember the past time a guy had turned her down and the feeling was not all that great. She sat back on the bed and started to masturbate as she plotted how she was going to get Duane's dick in her before the weekend was out, except now, it was more than just being horny. Now it was a challenge!

It was a long night for Kristen, alone in bed with nothing but a few toys and a couple of porn videos to watch. Saturday was even worse. She had a client for the afternoon but her heart really wasn't into it. Besides, he was some overweight, middle aged man who probably hadn't fucked anyone, including his wife, in years. He was so horny that he probably never noticed that the whore he was fucking couldn't have really cared less about his dick in her. Fortunately he had no idea that Kristen was imagining it was Duane fucking her instead of him. Nothing drives her crazier than to want a man and not have him. She would get Duane to fuck her, one way or another.

Saturday night there was a party at one of her friend's house. There was quite a crowd, mostly guys from high school which was why Kristen wanted to go in the first place. Kristen wasn't the only girl in town who preferred younger boys and when you're into that sort of thing, you tend to gravitate towards other people with similar interests. Most of the guys were seventeen or eighteen although a couple boys were clearly lying about their age but nobody really cared, least of all Kristen.

Normally Kristen loved these parties, especially when someone brought in one of their younger brothers (or sisters for that matter). Tonight, though, she just felt depressed and couldn't get into the spirit of the party. Her body instinctively reacted so it wasn't like most of guys knew she was distracted. Still, as one after the other fucked her and came in her, all she could think of was who was NOT fucking her - Duane.

That night back in bed, as she did her usual bed-time masturbation session, Kristen thought about Duane even more. It was like it had become some sort of quest for her. She certainly didn't want Duane as a boyfriend, he was WAY too old for her so Kelly could have him for that. She just wanted to get him to fuck her and prove to him that he couldn't resist her.

After she had cum a couple of times and was laying back in bed, feeling a little more relaxed, her brain seemed clearer and suddenly an idea popped in her sleepy mind. The more she thought about it the hotter it made her and before she knew it, she had to get herself off yet again before settling back into her pillow with a satisfied smile on her face as she fell asleep.

Normally, Kristen would have slept in on a quiet Sunday morning. With Kelly and her mom 500 miles away or so, her mother and Uncle John "worshipping" each other in bed this morning, and given that Kristen wasn't all that religious to start with, she would have blown off church except for one thing - she knew Duane would be there. It was easy for him to turn her down over the phone but she had a feeling it would be a lot harder in person, especially if she baited the trap properly.

Walking into the church entrance, Kristen was greeted by an older couple assigned to shake everyone's hand as they came in. It was all she could do to keep from bursting out in laughter as she shook their hands and noted their differing responses. The couple this morning looked to be in their sixties or so, or maybe even older. As hot as it was this morning, he was wearing a full suit and she had on a long, hot, dress.

What was funniest was not their reactions, per se, but the contrast between them. The husband kept trying to act as though he wasn't interested in her but his eyes kept glancing down at Kristen's boobs. It wasn't like they were well hidden or anything, practically bursting out of her bra that was barely concealed by her blouse which was unbuttoned at least two butto1ens lower than most girls would have considered "decent". He also seemed interested in her legs and there was plenty of them to see as well given the shortness of her skirt. In fact, it was so short she even conceded to wearing panties, or at least a thong, as it wouldn't do to flash her bare pussy in this crowd.

The husband's reactions were fun, but predictable and Kristen brushed them off as just about every other heterosexual male in the room was looking at her the same way (and maybe a few women as well). No, what turned her on the most was the barely disguised look of disgust that his wife was giving her.

As they shook hands, it was like she couldn't pull her hand away fast enough. It wasn't like the folks in church were seeing her this way for the first time and she was well aware of her reputation and the fact that most regular attendees knew her profession. She wasn't like Kelly, trying to act all innocent and sweet. Kristen's philosophy was simple, if you got it, flaunt and flaunt it some more after that.

As she made her way down the pews, she noticed Duane was sitting alone towards the back. That was unusual as usually he either sat with his parents or Kelly. For whatever reason, his parents weren't in sight, leaving him all alone, like a young gazelle separated from the herd, vulnerable and easy to hunt down. Kristen took a seat next to Duane, not bothering to pull her skirt down such that her thong was almost visible as she sat close to him and crossed her legs, pulling the skirt even higher up her tanned thigh.

"Hi Duane, I missed you last night," she greeted him with a sultry voice.

"Oh I'm sure you did just fine without me," Duane replied, rolling his eyes, "So how many did you do?"

"It doesn't matter, I was thinking of you the whole time," she whispered. "You must be wound pretty tight without Kelly around this weekend, aren't you?"

"Well, if you really must know, she called last night and you can imagine how that went," he replied, trying not to act like he was paying her too much attention.

The service started and they had to shush their banter. When they stood to sing the first hymn, Kristen "accidentally" brushed her hand against his crotch but he just ignored her. After the hymn, every greeted one another and Kristen turned to Duane and whispered in his ear, "I want you to fuck me.... NOW!"

Duane just shook his head. He undoubtedly knew what she wanted and she couldn't believe that he didn't want it too. Crap, he wasn't married or anything like that so what was the big deal anyway? Well, there was just one thing left to do. She planted her hand on his crotch and he promptly pushed it away.

"Damn it Kristen, you can't do that here!" he hissed softly to her, trying not be overheard.

"Then fuck me now," she mouthed quietly to him. "I won't stop until you do, you know."

Duane must have realized that Kristen would have done about anything to "convince" him, even resorting to this sort of blackmail, so he was probably better off giving in to her demands than trying to fight her off any further. He rolled his eyes and nodded, making Kristen grin from ear to ear as they both quickly slipped out of the pew and out the side exit. The basement was deserted, as she knew it would be.

"Let's do it right here," Kristen offered as she slipped behind one of the room dividers that move on tracks in the ceiling. It might have blocked them from being seen by anyone walking by, but it wasn't soundproof by any stretch of the imagination and anyone could have just walked around it and seen them.

Duane's eye widened and he clearly wasn't thrilled with the idea. "C'mon quite fucking around Kristen, let's go to the custodian's office or somewhere like that."

"Oh, is that where you go off to fuck Kelly?" Kristen teased him, "Well, I'm more adventurous than she is. I want you to fuck me right here, right now."

She jumped up backwards onto one of the tables, letting her skirt ride up so she was on her all but bare ass as she sat on the cool table top. Leaning back, she pulled her thong to the side and started to touch her pussy with her fingers.

"Fuck me Duane, you know you want to so just do it."

Like what else was he going to do? Duane may be almost thirty but that didn't mean his dick wasn't still thinking like a teenager's. Who could blame him for wanting her? The sight of Kristen, looking so sweet and fucking hot at the same time, her skirt hiked up around her waist with her wet pussy revealed from behind her thong, was more than any man could have turned down.

"Oh the hell with it, but we better get going before someone catches us."

Duane just unzipped his pants and bent over to let him pull his stiff dick through the opening. When he stood up, his cock was sticking out and Kristen just stared at it, licking her lips at the thought of having it inside of her in just a few more moments. She wiggled her bottom to spread her legs apart further, putting her feet on the edge of the table so her pussy was wide open to make it easy for Duane get it in her.

Now that he had given in, he was holding back a bit anymore and he held his cock in his hand, stroking it quickly as he worked his way in between her thighs. Grabbing her by the ankles, he lifted her legs up and pushed her back on her back as he pressed his dick against her pussy. He cunt was so slick already that his dick slipped and slide up through her slit, rubbing over her clit like a bow over a violin string.

"Oh god, that feel so damn good, rub your dick against me like that more," she whispered, trying her best not to scream out as the pleasure he was creating within her spread out from her pussy like ripples in a pond when a rock was tossed in. In this case the rock was his dick hitting the wet pond of her pussy.

"Umm, that's it, now put it in me," she directed him after he had stroked over her slit a few more times, "Mmmmmmm, I want your dick in me Duane... fuck me."

"Shhhhhh... not so loud! Someone might hear you!" he hissed at her but at the same time swinging his hips back to let his dick fall down until he was positioned at the opening to her slutty pussy.

"Ohhhhhh," was all she could get out as he pressed his dick into her and the head of his dick slid easily into her moistened cunt.

Her head fell back and her eyes screwed tightly shut as another orgasm rocked her as her pussy was filled with Duane's dick. What got her off was not just the feeling of his dick entering her but the thought of her cousin who was probably sitting in church right then, except she was most likely bored stiff without a clue as to who her boyfriend was fucking at that very moment. Kristen found herself wishing she could call Kelly on her cell phone and gloat over how good Duane was fucking her.

As for Duane, he was just getting off, probably nothing more deep or inscrutable going on his big head than thinking about what his little head was doing. He had Kristen's legs pinned back against her, her ass tilted up and back as he pounded her juicy little pussy. With as many times a week as she got fucked, Kristen might not be as tight as her cousin but she certainly knew how to use it! Duane was quickly groaning and the short strokes were underway before long as Kristen gripped and massaged his erect cock with her talented pussy.

"Damn! I love the way your pussy feels when I fuck you," he sighed, barley loud enough for Kristen to make out what he was saying, "I've never felt a pussy like yours before!"

Kristen grinned, quite proud of herself actually. She wondered if he realized just how many dicks she had to have fuck to learn the techniques she was using on him, or how many exercises and practicing on bed alone at night it took to hone her skills. Any girl could spread her legs and let a guy get off stroking in and out of her pussy. One reason Kristen had always been so popular, besides the fact it was slam dunk when it came to fucking her on a date, was the way she could make a guy's dick feel when he was inside of her. Sometimes she squeezed down so hard on them that the guy had to cry out for her to release him!

"Turn over," was all he said next as he pulled out and grabbed Kristen by her narrow hips to pull her off the table and then twist her around. Kristen leaned over onto the table, supporting herself on her elbows as she thrust her ass out at him, spreading her legs wide apart dutifully, submitting herself once again to him.

Duane didn't waste a moment as he rammed his horny dick back in her again, stroking himself violently in and out of her cunt. As Duane fucked Kristen from behind, his hands massaged her butt cheeks, letting his thumbs work their way into her sweating ass crack. She gasped as he pushed one of them into her tight pink asshole, pushing it all the way inside of her.

"Oh shit that feel so good," she sighed, looking back over her shoulder to look at the guy fucking her. She smiled and rocked in rhythm with his strokes, banging his dick in her pussy as his thumb continued to work her asshole.

Duane must have been about to cum but he had other ideas to fulfill first. Pulling his wet dick out of her, he simultaneously pulled out his thumb from her asshole. Pressing his dick up against her now already wetted hole, he teased her by just pushing it a little against her and holding it there..

"That's it Duane, do it... fuck my ass," Kristen begged him, waiting impatiently for him to enter her ass with his stiff cock.

Duane was too horny to tease her for long. He didn't say a word other than grunt as his dick pushed up hard against her ass. It was a LOT tighter than her pussy, that was for sure. Even Kristen couldn't help but gasp as he pressed harder, forcing himself into her asshole until he was about half-way in her.

"God that feels to good, put it in deeper," she begged him, trying to wiggle as if that would be enough to get his dick in her ass even further.

Duane was glad to oblige, practically squeezing her against the table edge as he pressed himself even deeper than before. Kristen was practically incoherent as she reveled in the feel of Duane up her asshole. As for him, he loved seeing his dick disappear in her ass, only to reappear and then disappear back in it again.

"You like your ass fucked, don't you," he observed, wasting time and energy so far as Kristen was concerned but it was still rather erotic to hear him talking to her. "Someday you have to get you cousin to let me fuck her ass... I don't understand her sometimes."

"Screw her... I don't want to hear about her," Kristen chastised him, "Just worry about fucking me, OK?"

Duane chuckled and grabbed her hips again, slamming his dick in and out of her ass as he started to feel the urge rising within him to mate her, even if he WAS in the "wrong" hole for that.

"Oh yeah, here it comes," he moaned as he buried his dick as far as he could in her ass. Kristen could feel his dick swell slightly and then the jerking of his hips and the feel of his hairy crotch ticking her bare bottom. As soon as he finished, he pulled out of her and she flipped back around and dropped to her knees to suck his spent dick, drawing every drop of cum she could from him.

"Damn Kristen, you are something else," he gasped as he tried to regain his breath and composure. Now that he had shot his load, control quickly reverted to his big head once again. "Get your skirt down before we get caught!"

He was already trying to stuff his semi-erect dick back in his pants but it just pressed out against the material, forming a huge bulge that would have been obvious to any girl in the room (and some of the guys if she heard right). Kristen stood up, weaving just a bit at first as she restored her sense of balance. Her ass felt wonderful, sort of how it feels after taking a major dump. Not that it was anything to do with poop or anything, just that wonderful sense of well-being you get. She reached her finger in through the crotch of the thong, stretching it out and down until it was back over her pussy "properly" once again.

"You'd better hold something in front of you when we go back up," she giggled, pointing at the still blatant erection in his pants, "Are you sure I can't help you with that?"

Diane looked down, frowning as he saw how far out the crotch was pushed, undoubtedly feeling his dick pressing against it. "Well, it's never going to go down if you keep talking like that!" he admonished her.

"And your point is...,?" she quickly retorted.

"God Kristen, you NEVER get enough, do you?" he said, shaking his head as he marveled over her stamina and almost unlimited sexuality, "Must be in the genes."

That last part he threw in there like an afterthought, as if he had not intended her to hear it. She DID hear it though, and knew he was talking about Kelly. She could only imagine how "high maintenance" it must be to have a girl like her as a girlfriend. In any case, it served as an opportunity to move to the next stage of her "plan".

"Well, why don't you come home with me after church and find out?" she asked. He looked at her as if trying to figure out if she was teasing him or what.

"Find out what exactly?"

"What you said... that it runs in the genes," Kristen replied, trying to keep a blank look on her face so as not to give away her intentions too easily.

"With who? Kelly's in Illinois"

"Obviously not her silly, so who else is left? ...Think about it."

The light bulb over his head suddenly flashed brilliantly. Duane looked at her incredulously and so Kristen went on to help ease him through it.

"C'mon, you think I don't know about you and my mom? ...Of course I do so do you want to do her again or what?" She paused to let it sink in for a moment and then added the final persuasion, saying, "Kelly doesn't go out of town very often so why not take advantage of it while you can? Don't worry, we won't tell her if you don't"

It was all she could do to keep a straight face as she threw in that last sentence. What kind of idiot would think that two cousins wouldn't tell each other about what they did with him? Then again, in all fairness he didn't know just how "close" they all really were. Parties were one thing as everyone played around at those. But at home???? Duane seemed to be considering it but took more time than Kristen was willing to give him.

"Damn it Duane, are you gonna come home and fuck me and my mom or not?" she demanded. Duane seemed a little taken aback by her aggressive tone yet I think that was one of the qualities he liked about Kristen - she was never afraid to speak her mind.

"Well, if you insist," he sighed, pretending he was doing it just to make her happy.

They both burst out laughing at that point and started heading from the stairs to go back to the sanctuary. Half-way there, Kristen grabbed him by the arm and said, "You know, the service is half over now anyway so walking back in might raise some questions. Besides, you will cause quite a stir with THAT!"

He looked down to follow her gaze and sure enough, the tent was still fully pitched. He just shook his head at his own lack of control and shrugged at her, as if to say it was up to her what happened next. That was fine with her, she liked to be in charge anyway. Kristen led them on a detour to the exit and they straight went to his car. She would just have to come back later to get hers.

3. More Fucking on Kristen's Bed

Once on the car, Kristen didn't waste any time as she dropped her panties to her ankles and settling back in the seat where she immediately started to masturbate. She made sure to hike her skirt up so Duane could get a good view as he drove to her home. Duane shook his head yet again as her unabashed sexuality.

"Good grief, you just can't stop for a minute, can you?" he marveled, "We'll be at your place in a just a few minutes you know."

"Well, do you want me to stop Duane?" she said seductively, pulling her finger out of her pussy and making a big show out of sucking the pussy flavor off of it.

"Hell no, just making an observation," he quickly recovered himself, "Go for it."

As if she needed the encouragement. Kristen managed to cum again before they reached her house as Duane barely avoided an accident when his attention was diverted by her moans and bucking. At least nobody saw her, at least nobody that they knew of.

The house was empty and quiet when they arrived. Duane looked at Kristen, a little disappointed but with maybe a bit of relief if he was honest with himself. Kristen took him by the hand and led him up the stairs to her room, well "their" room since she shared it with her mom. She couldn't quite tell Duane that her mom was spending the weekend at Kelly's place, fucking her dad the whole time. Then again, she knew that her mom had an appointment for the early afternoon so maybe she could work with that.

"Mom had a house to show at noon, she should be home soon. We can get started until then, don't you think?"

Duane just shook his head, maybe a bit unsure of whether he was doing the right thing. At this point, there was no turning back. Heck, he'd already fucked Kristen once so what did it really matter if he did her again? It's not like he was doing it in church again. Kristen was several steps ahead of him as she raced up the stairs.

Once in the room, she didn't hesitate before stripping off all her clothes, leaving them in a heap by the laundry basket (as usual). Duane was trying to keep up as he took his clothes off as well and hung them over the back of a chair. As he was getting his pants and socks off, Kristen started rummaging through a drawer at the bottom of the dresser, pulling out some strange contraption that looked like it was some prop missing from an obscene science fiction movie.

"Well, what do you think of my new toy?" she asked Duane with a huge grin on her face.

Kristen turned on a switch and it buzzed softly and it was then that he realized it was some form of dildo but with two parts, a long one and a shorter one. The longer one was now sort of twisting around like a drunk snake while the shorter one didn't seem to be moving. Each had a penis-like "head" but instead of smooth shafts, they had small bumps all over them. It was bright red and as Kristen manipulated the switch, the longer one started rotating faster and faster.

"Here, I want you to use it on me," she said turning it off and handing it to him.

My cousin showed him the control switch and then laid back on the bed, putting a pillow under her ass to help thrust it up in the air more easily. "There's some lube on top of the dresser," she pointed out.

Duane took the tube and squirted some of the gooey liquid over the longer shaft of the dildo. Kristen had her legs spread wide apart and in the light of the room, Duane took a moment to admire her pussy. God, it was hard to believe such a petite and cute little cunt had been fucked by so many dicks. What had Kelly told him once... hundreds? Just how many "hundreds"? How many gallons of sperm had been released in there?

"Hey, you gonna stick that in me or do I have to do it myself?" Kristen teased him, getting his attention back to the main event at hand. Duane looked at the dildo curiously. How was he supposed to use it anyway? Both holes to start or just one at a time?

"C'mon for Christ's sake, just shove the long one in my cunt," she said, huffing in exasperation. Finally she reached out and grabbed it from Duane, pushing it into her pussy in one swift stroke. "There... now turn it low to start."

Duane moved the switch to the first position and Kristen instantly jumped like she'd been shocked with a Taser.

"Damn that feel so weird," she gasped as she put both hands flat on the bed beside her and lifted her head up to watch it in her pussy. "I love it!"

Duane slowly moved it a little in and out of her, leaving the majority of it inside her at all times. As Kristen got use to the feeling inside of her, she motioned for him to turn it up a notch. Again, she jumped when he moved the switch but not nearly as much as the first time.

"Damn, if only it had a TV screen," she joked although Duane probably had to wonder just how much of a joke it was judging from her reaction to the strange object inside of her. It really wasn't fair for a guy to have to watch as there was no way a real dick could do what this obscene thing was doing to her.

"OK, now put the little one in my ass," she gasped.

Duane added a heavy coating of lube this time and Kristen pulled her legs back with her hands, rocking back with her hips up in the air to give Duane a good angle at her asshole. He pulled the longer part almost out of Kristen's pussy until he had the smaller one lined up with her asshole and then shoved them both inward. It took a lot more to get the smaller part in Kristen's asshole but soon they were both buried in her. The longer one was doing it's rotating thing while the smaller one just vibrated.

"There... feel better?" he asked.

It was a rather superfluous question. Anyone looking at Kristen at that moment would have known she was feeling intense pleasure with having to ask. As horny as Kristen already was, she was soon in the grips of an orgasm, panting and crying out for Duane to turn it up even higher. Duane could barely hold onto it and he had to be wondering what the heck it was doing inside of Kristen's pussy!

4. Aunt Linda Joins In

"Well, I see Kristen's at it with her new toy... again."

Kristen ignored the voice, concentrating on her orgasm but Duane's head spun around to see Kristen's mom standing in the doorway. She was wearing a skirt outfit, a little more shorter than your typical Realtor would be wearing, well actually a LOT shorter and the blouse was way too tight as well, which made it perfect for showing off her boobs.

"Hey, don't let me stop you," she teased Duane, who had gripping his hard dick but had stopped stroking it when Linda came in the room.

It wasn't like Linda hadn't seen Duane's dick before. Almost a year earlier, Kristen had brought him Duane from a party and they had been fucking in the bedroom when she came home, actually a very similar situation to this now. At the time, she had just smiled and left them alone. On his way out, with Kristen left lying on the bed upstairs, Linda had been by the door and as he passed her to leave, she had whispered to him seductively that if he was interested, to give her a call on her cell phone. There was little doubt as to what he needed to be "interested in, it certainly wasn't real estate, at least not land.

Duane had called her a few days later and they ended up fucking a few times over the course of the next couple of months. It was just casual sex for both of them but they had enjoyed it. He was also doing Kristen more at the same time but it was like they had an unspoken truce. They never mentioned the other when he was with one of them. In fact, Duane wasn't even entirely certain that Kristen knew he was fucking her mom. They never discussed it and Duane figured, why make an issue of something if you didn't have to?

Sure Kristen had teased him about doing her and her mom earlier at church, but he has always assumed that she was just doing that - teasing. Kristen was known for being the biggest flirt in western PA and she would say about anything when it came to sex so you never knew for sure what she was plotting. Although he was a little surprised that she had come home while he and Kristen were having sex, he quickly assumed she would simply do what she had the last time, turn around and ignore them. It was not to be. Linda walked in the room and reached down to grab Duane's cock for his own hand.

"Damn Duane, I swear you've grown since our last time. How long ago WAS that, anyway?"

Duane wasn't sure what to say as Linda started to slowly stroke his quivering cock. Kristen was still flat on her back, appearing to ignore anything else in the room not directly associated with her pussy at the moment.

"She really does love that damn thing, doesn't she," Linda joked with Duane. "Best present I ever bought her. Well, you wouldn't catch me dead with something like that up inside of me, that's for sure."

She paused and looked down at Duane's cock, in full erection mode with sexy Kristen nude next to him. In her own way, Linda was just as sexy, even fully dressed, in how it showed off her body and the way she was gripping his dick.

"You know Duane, there's something else I would rather have up my pussy about now. What do you think THAT is?"

Duane looked over at Kristen for just a second and then back at Linda, who was sitting next to him now, still stroking his dick slowly with her hand. He knew exactly what Linda wanted and he also knew what HE wanted as well.

"She'll be fine with that for the next hour or two,' Linda sighed, rolling her eyes as she looked over at Kristen as she masturbated while playing with her dildo. "Now turn around so I can sit on that lovely dick."

She didn't even bother to undress, leaving her heels and all her clothes on. Lifting up her short skirt, she revealed a jet black thong which barely concealed the heavy growth of pubic hair that covered her crotch. Linda had told him long ago that shaved crotches were for baby girls and young women. Women her age should act their age and shaving her pussy just wasn't natural. She DID trim it so it wouldn't show when she wore underwear and bikinis that were small in the crotch, but what was left was full and thick and pushed out against her thong. Reaching down, she pulled it to the side as she backed in to Duane and literally sat down on his lap, letting his dick slide up into her easily.

"You'll have to excuse me for being so wet already, but it was quite a showing this afternoon," she teased him.

Duane knew what she was referring to. Linda was a real estate agent with a reputation for doing whatever was necessary to close the deal - and that meant just about anything.

It must have been quite an experience for Duane. Every guy seems to fantasize about two things - sisters (preferably twins) and mother-daughter pairs. Sure Kristen had teased him about being with her and her mom, but he hadn't expected it to really happen.

Linda bounced on Duane's dick, holding her thong to the side as his cock slide effortlessly in and out of her pussy. Meanwhile, Kristen was working on her second orgasm, more or less ignoring her mother and Duane. Duane reached around Linda, unbuttoning her blouse and pulling her bra up and over her boobs so he could grab onto them and squeeze them.

"Ah fuck this," Linda huffed and she removed her top and bra, leaving her skirt and thong on for the moment so she wouldn't have to dismount her stud.

Linda held back her thong with one hand while she reached down and rubbed her clit while the other, all while Duane rubbed her boobs and pinched her nipples. Finally she stood up, letting the skirt and thong slid down to her ankles. She stepped out of them, leaving her heels on, and laid down on the bed nude by her daughter who was still absorbed with her dildo.

"Hey dear, mommy's home?" she teased Kristen, turning over to kiss Kristen on the lips.

Duane stood there at the end of the bed, his wet cock standing at attention as he watched Linda kissing her daughter, moving her hand to her breasts and kneading them like fresh dough. Linda looked back at Duane and smiled.

"What's the matter, can't a mother kiss her daughter?" she teased him.

Then she reached down and pulled the dildo out of Kristen's pussy and ass, leaving Kristen panting on her back, gasping for air like a fish out of water. Looking back at Duane again, Linda said, "I think it's time she had a real dick in her, don't you Duane?"

Duane didn't bother saying anything, what could he say after all? It's not every day a girl's mother invites a dude to fuck her daughter, especially when she's laying nude next to her as well at the time. If he had any reservations about fucking Kristen in front of her mom, he was too horny to worry about them. It probably could have been his own mother and he still would have stuck his dick in Kristen under the same circumstances.

"Oh god, yes!" Kristen moaned as Duane entered her, his dick sliding in easily after the workout her pussy had just had with the huge dildo. She was incredible slick between the lube from the dildo and her own pussy juices after two orgasms.

Meanwhile, Linda was rubbing Kristen's clit with one finger as she started to suck on her nipples.

"I've got to say, I love watching your dick moving in and out of my daughter. Isn't she pretty?" Linda purred to him as Duane pumped his cock in and out of her like a locomotive piston. "You don't mind me watching, do you Duane? I'm just so proud of her sometimes."

Duane just shook his head, struggling as it was to keep his breath as he worked his dick in and out of Kristen as hard and fast as he could. Linda rolled back over on her back and spread her legs apart, then looked at Duane and curled her finger at him, inviting him over to her.

"OK stud, if you're going to fuck my daughter, you have to pay me some attention too."

Duane looked a bit surprised at that one. It was OK with him to fuck Kristen in front of her mom but to fuck her mother in front of Kristen just somehow seemed altogether different. Sure Kristen apparently knew that he had fucked her mom before, but KNOWING it and WATCHING it are two totally separate things.

"Get that hard dick over here now and fuck me, do you hear me Duane?" Linda said again, a little more testy this time.

Who could blame her as she was super horny and needed to be fucked - badly. Besides, having sex with Duane with her nude daughter laying right next to her just made it all the better. Sure Kristen was one incredible hot girl, but her mom still had a few tricks up her sleeve. She was only about ten years older than Duane so it wasn't like he was doing his own mother or an old lady for that matter.

Duane realized she was serious and besides, the sight of seeing Linda on her back with her legs apart like some whore was too much for him to resist. He pulled his dick out of Kristen, leaving her to mew like a lost kitten at the sudden emptiness in her pussy, and scooted over to Linda. Just as he got there, she flipped over on her side, facing Kristen.

"Get in behind me and fuck me from behind," Linda instructed him.

Duane did as he was told and laid behind her. Linda raised her upper leg up and rested her foot on his thigh, opening herself up wide for him. As hard as Duane was and as wet and open as Linda's pussy was, he easily slid in and started to stroke in and out. Looking over her shoulder, he saw that Kristen had turned over on her side to face her mother. Her eyes were looking down and he could see she was watching his stiff dick as it pumped in and out of her mother's hairy pussy. Then he realized why Linda had wanted him to fuck her in this position - so Kristen could get a better view of him fucking her mom.

"So how does it feel to fuck me in front of my daughter?" Linda asked him over her shoulder. It was if she was getting off as much from Kristen watching as from his dick in her. Duane responded simply by thrusting a little extra hard into her - message delivered!

Kristen wasn't happy with just watching, she wanted to be a part of things so she twisted around until her crotch was up to her mother's face, one leg above her head and the other draped over her shoulder and by Duane's head. Linda eagerly started to lick Kristen's wet, bald pussy. Duane could barely see Linda's tongue as she licked Kristen's pussy but he knew what she was doing.

Damn! Linda was licking her own daughter's pussy – and right in front of him at that. It was like he was starring in some sort of erotic porn fantasy, except you know in the movies the mother and daughter were just actors and not the real McCoy. Not in this case though. No, this was the honest-to-goodness mother and daughter sex scene.

Before too much longer, Kristen moved back and Linda pulled away from Duane. Kristen "assumed the position" kneeling on her hands and knees with her legs apart, waiting for Duane to fuck her like a dog in heat. Her message was pretty blatant and as he approached Kristen on his knees, Linda reached in and grabbed his cock, directing it so it zeroed in on her daughter's anxious pussy. As soon as he felt the wetness of her pussy against the tip of his dick, Duane thrust himself forward, driving his dick all the way into Kristen, almost knowing her forward onto the bed.

Kristen grunted with satisfaction as Duane fucked her harder and faster than he had never fucked her before. Meanwhile, Linda slipped around and sat in front of Kristen, spreading her looks and moving up so Kristen could bend down and lick her pussy – it was mom's turn to get her pussy licked!

"Shit, I can't fucking believe this!" Duane groaned as he watched the girl he was fucking eat out her own mother right in front of him at the same time. No doubt he would have loved a video of the entire thing but there was no way Kristen or her mom would allow something like THAT to get out in public.

"Fuck her in the ass," Linda managed to get out between the overwhelming pleasure she was receiving from her daughter's tongue.

One thing about sleeping with your mom for so many years – you really learn how to turn her on. Duane reached over for the lube, keeping his dick inside Kristen as far as he could while he did. He squirted some around her asshole and rubbed it in a bit with his finger. Then, without warning, he plunged his finger into her ass. Kristen didn't protest at all and if anything, her moaning just got louder and more prolonged as Duane fucked her ass with his finger.

"For crying out loud, I meant with your dick, not your finger," Linda huffed, as If she was disappointed with Duane's feigned ignorance. Kristen started to raise her head to add her two cents worth but Linda pressed down on the crown of her head and forced her back down into her crotch.

Duane had a smirk on his face as he pulled his dick out of Kristen's pussy and added some more lube to his shaft, stroking it with his fist a few times to get it well lubricated. Grabbing his shaft firmly in his hand, he pressed it against Kristen's tight asshole. He pushed hard and her ass gave way more easily than he had expected but still, was several times as tight as her pussy had been. At least it wasn't nearly as difficult as it had been back at the church earlier. He wiggled his hips as he worked his way into her ass, literally screwing his cock into her as he gradually got more and more of his hard dick inside of her until his pubic hair was pressed between his crotch and her little ass.

"Shit your ass is still damn tight!" Duane exclaimed as he tried to stroked his dick in and out of Kristen's asshole. Kristen was moaning non-stop now, obviously enjoying the feeling of fullness inside of her ass yet again.

Not to be outdone, Linda got up from her position in front of Kristen and assumed the same position her daughter was in, only right next to her. "I want my ass fucked too stud," she insisted, wiggling her butt at Duane.

Granted, Linda's ass was a little heavier and wider than Kristen's, but it really wasn't fair to compare asses between a woman and a girl about half her age. Still, Duane was eager to fuck her ass as well, quickly pulling out of Kristen so he could drive his dick into Linda's asshole next. More than twenty years additional experience had left her asshole a lot more "accommodating" so his dick drove it's way home with a lot less resistance than it had met with Kristen's tight little butt.

"Oh fuck, I'm almost there," Duane groaned as he slid in and out of Linda's ass.

Linda pushed herself forward, letting Duane's dick slip out of her as both she and Kristen, as if on cue, twisted around and kneeled in front of him, mouth's wide open, waiting for his to cum.

"Suck it some more," he said, to both of them, not caring which one did as he stroked his dick in front of their open tongues.

Surprisingly, at least it was given Kristen's current job status, Linda was the first to suck his dick, taking in his cock into her mouth that only seconds before had been buried in her ass.

"THAT is so fucking hot," Duane groaned as Linda expertly licked and sucked on his dick.

Kristen wasn't content to be just an observer, she pushed her way in and took Duane's dick in her own mouth for a while before handing it (or should I say, mouthing it) back to her mom. It was sort of like some perverted game of Russian Roulette in that the question was who would be the one to get his load when he finally let loose?

As it turned out, they both did. Duane pulled back and gave his cock a couple of last strokes before the cum started to spew out the end of it, landing first on Linda just under her eye and then a direct score on Kristen's outstretched tongue. One shot after another emerged as he alternated between the two of them, getting some in their mouths but the majority of it on their face and boobs.

When he finished, Kristen was the first this time to get him back in her mouth, sucking the last remnants of cum in his cock. Then, as Duane looked on in amazement, they kissed, tongues pressing cum back and forth between them as mom and daughter shared his cum between them.

"Now THAT is the hottest thing I've ever seen," Duane gasped, panting still from his Kristen and exertions. Kristen and Linda both looked up at him, their cum-covered faces smiling like two cats that had just shared a fat canary.

"So what do you think Duane, does it run in the genes or what?" Kristen giggled, using her fingers to spread Duane's cum around on her chest and boobs. Linda looked at her with a questioning eye, no doubt wondering what she was talking about.

"Ohhhhhh, just something how not ever getting enough sex was in my genes - thanks to your mom," Kristen tried to explain, a huge grin still all over her face. Linda just shook her head, as if she couldn't believe her daughter would say such a thing.

"Well, he should already know that," she came back to Kristen, "I would think he would have figured that out being with Kelly this long."

Duane's face suddenly lost most of its excitement and he seemed a little down at the mention of Kelly's name. Was he feeling a little guilty? Kristen quickly picked up on his distress.

"Don't worry, we won't tell her about today... this can be out little secret, right mom?" Kristen said, looking pointedly at her mother who was looking a little concerned.

"Why hide it from her?" Linda asked.

"Well, if Duane wants to tell his fiance that he spent the weekend fucking her aunt and cousin while she was out of town, that's up to him?"

"FIANCÉ?" both Duane and Linda responded together. Kristen just laughed at pointed at Duane, "Well, ARE you going to make an honest girl out of her soon, right?"

They all laughed at that one as Duane avoided having to answer by flopping back and laying on the bed, exhausted. His spent dick was laying over, resting on a bed of thick black pubic hair. Linda and Kristen looked at each other, thoughts passing between them as only a mother and daughter with their level of intimacy could do. Kristen nodded and Linda just shrugged her shoulders, a sort of silent "why not?" response. Still grinning, Kristen laid down next to Duane, her face over his crotch as she started to suck his dick slowly with just her mouth, like it was some sort of fleshy pacifier.

"Oh god Kristen, haven't you had enough yet?" Duane moaned, lifting his head just enough to see who was sucking his cock.

"Hey, don't forget whose genes she has in her," Linda purred, pressing her nude body along the length of his, reaching out to kiss him while Kristen sucked his limp dick back into shape again. It might take a while, but they weren't through with him yet!

It was a couple of hours later before Kristen and Linda let Duane escape, which was almost how he felt about it when they finally let him out of their bedroom. After he had dressed and was about to leave, he looked back and was amazed to see Kristen and her mom locked in a 69, their sexual fires still not quenched. They didn't even say goodbye!

On his way home, Duane's cell phone had rung and he saw it was Kelly. "Hey lover boy, how are things going without me this weekend?" she teased him, "Been working on those right arm muscles and thinking about me?"

Duane decided this wasn't the time to tell Kelly about what he'd been doing most of the day. Maybe when she came home he would tell her, maybe not. Did she really have to know anyway? What harm would there be if she never found out?

5. A Final Note From Kelly

When I got home from my grandmother's, Duane never mentioned a word about any of this to me. Of course, my aunt told my mom and Kristen couldn't wait to fill me in an every detail. Really, why are men so stupid as to think a girl won't tell her friends about everything, no matter what she tells him?

Knowing what I knew, I figured Duane would tell me himself sooner or later but after a week had gone by, it was becoming obvious he wasn't planning on saying anything. To make it worse, I even caught him at their house one day when I went over there during lunch to talk to them about it some more. He didn't know I was there, he was fucking Kristen alone upstairs while my aunt was getting something the kitchen. What it DID tell me was this wasn't some one-time thing for him. He LIKED fucking my aunt and cousin!

The odd thing about it all is that if he DOES marry me, then he is free to fuck the two of them all he wants without ever having to worry about hiding it from me. It's like some "Catch 22" scenario. I want to tell him about incest because then he can be comfortable fucking them; but I can't tell him because he is fucking them and not telling me. All I can say is that this is NOT like anything I had ever dreamed about all these years as to how things would go when it came time to tell my boyfriend about incest.

Well, you could say this sort of threw a wrench n the gears of my "plan" to introduce him to the incest in my life. As I write this, I still am not certain what to do next. I have gotten tons of responses to my web site posting about it. Of course, everyone has a different idea and no two are the same!

(Sep 11) Chapter 171: Resolving Duane

Story codes: nosex
  Me (23)
  Duane - my boyfriend (29)

Everyone keeps asking me what has happened recently between Duane and me so here it is... This is just for my fans who want to know what's happening in my life. For the rest of you, don't bother as there's no sex in this one!

I won't rehash all that's been going with me and Duane recently except to offer a brief synopsis. Read my earlier Diary entries and e-mails between me and people like Jane W., Denise M., Sissy M., and Heather F. if you want the gory details.

****************

Here's the situation... Duane and I have been dating since April and I'm madly in love with the guy. I've always assumed I would never tell a boyfriend about my incestual lifestyle until he proposed, and then making it a condition of my acceptance that he allow it to continue. Well, now that I may be facing the reality of a proposal, I've changed my mind. I want to be able to say YES when he proposes, not enter into some sort of negotiation. Thus I have to know if he is OK with things BEFORE he proposes. It's more risky, but I think Duane's worth it. After all, the guys is looking at wedding rings so he MUST be getting serious about things.

HOW to tell him is the problem. I debated this extensively, even posting a "muse" on my web site about it. Lots of people have responded and of course, everyone disagrees on how to approach it.

One idea I liked was to have him see my cousin Kristen and Aunt Linda having sex and see how he reacted to a mother-daughter situation in real life. Seeing a fake scene in a porn movies is one thing but what about when it involved women he personally knew? One thing I had going for me was he has had sex with both of them in the past, before we started dating. He did it first with Kristen and then with Aunt Linda after he got to know her.

The catch is that he always did them separately and had no idea just how "close" they really were. Foolishly, I ran the idea past Kristen who thought it was a great idea (as if there any chance she wouldn't). Over the Labor Day weekend, my mother and I visited my grandmother in Illinois. Silly me, I assumed nothing would happen until I got back and we all talked about it some more.

I say "foolishly" because I should've known better than to plant an idea like that in my cousin's head. Kristen is all about one thing - Kristen. Well, more accurately, Kristen and sex. If your cousin was a prostitute and neighborhood slut, with little to no inhibitions or morals, would you trust her with such an idea? If anyone should have known better, it was me. My only defense is I was so wrapped up in my fears about Duane, I didn't think about what I was doing when I literally lit a match in a gasoline filled room.

Long story short (the long version is in my diary), Kristen took it on her own initiative to fuck Duane at church and then bring him home where her mom entered into the equation. Needless to say, I was a little shocked when I got back, not so much because they had sex (not like they hadn't before), but that they had done it together. Fortunately, I learned that Duane is a red-blooded, all- American heterosexual male (as if I didn't already know) and had been totally turned on by the entire affair. Now all I wanted was for him to tell me all about it.

I need to mention that although we have been dating seriously for months, Duane and I are not officially "exclusive". For the most part, we both enjoy a good party and having some fun so we each have had our share of casual sex under such conditions. Until now, we have both told each other when we did it while the other wasn't around.

To be fair to Duane, we never formally said we would, we just did and so I've grown accustomed to it and more or less expect it. As for me, between my growing love for him and being busy starting the new school year as a teacher, I really haven't done it with that many other guys in the past few months (much to the apparent dismay of my web site readers!). Duane still enjoys a good fuck now and then, which I don't mind so long as he is there for me afterwards - and tells me about it.

As the days went by, not only did he NOT tell me about his little tryst with my relatives, but he even did them again! This time I was there, though he didn't know it. I used my lunch break to go to my Aunt's expecting to ask her and Kristen for more information about what had happened but Duane was already there, up in the bedroom fucking Kristen. My Aunt may have looked guilty about it at the time, but yet it was obvious she was enjoying it all the same. Needless to say, Duane didn't tell me about THIS time either.

So leave it to Kelly to over-react. Anyone who knows me knows one of my basic character flaws is to overanalyze everything and read a lot more into a situation than is there. You would think after all the problems this has caused me over the years I would learn, but it's just a part of me. Ever try telling a smoker to quit? You'll have just as much luck telling me to stop parsing someone's actions or words, or lack of them.

OK, so I went off the deep end. I blamed my cousin for ruining everything, even though what she had "ruined" I never really did understand. I was mad at Duane for "hiding" it from me. I was mad at my mom as apparently she had talked to my Aunt Linda during the weekend and knew about everything before I did - and didn't tell me. I was especially mad at myself, for even thinking my cousin could have such a "juicy" idea in her blonde head without acting on it. I was mad and upset at everyone.

Fortunately, a number of my friends (including several from on-line) calmed me down and made me realize how stupid I was being. Really, if I was to marry Duane, one of the "benefits" for him would be that he could fuck my aunt and cousin all he wanted (assuming they wanted to), PLUS my mom (and I KNOW she wants it) and even my 16 year-old cousin Tammy (again, only if she wanted it). I couldn't expect a report from him every time he fucked them. Besides, was I planning on telling Duane every time my dad fucked me? Obviously not so maybe it was a little to expect of him to tell me about his latest endeavors.

The only question lingering in my mind was whether he was hiding it from me or just not telling me because he didn't think about it in the first place. Since he went back for a repeat just a few days later, he obviously liked it. Was he embarrassed to tell me? I doubted that was the case since he had seen me and Kristen playing together at parties (no different than the other girls did) so why would be not tell me anything that had to do with her?

The more I thought about it, the more I started to think I was simply giving him too much credit. After all, he IS a man (and WHAT a man he is) which means when it comes to certain things in life he is genetically at a disadvantage. Men can be so stupid and insensitive at times but I have also learned it's usually not because they WANT to be, it is because they are born that way. It's a guy thing.

There was only one way to find out for certain. Thus the other night when he took me out to Applebee's for dinner, I was ready to ask him point blank what the situation was between him, and my relatives. Needless to say, it wasn't that easy.

God, why can't men take a hint? Finally, after going all around the issue without directly asking about it, I just put on my best smile, held his hand, and asked him how he was enjoying doing my aunt and cousin. I had to be a little discreet as we WERE in a public restaurant so I couldn't say anything like, "How was it fucking my Aunt and cousin?" Nonetheless, he FINALLY got the message.

This isn't one of my typical diary entries where I try to recreate a conversation so I'll just say what happened instead of pretending to remember it word for word. Bottom line, he was surprised that I knew about it but at the same time, didn't seem to be able to comprehend why I was concerned about it.

Men! Why do men always seem to think that girls don't tell each other EVERYTHING? It doesn't matter what she tells him, she WILL tell her friends. As to why I would be concerned, again it was just a classic illustration of how clueless men are about relationships. Apparently, since he knew that I was aware of his past escapades with my aunt and cousin, even if it was a long time ago, he seemed to think I wouldn't want to be told again. Well duh! Earth to Duane! I really love this guy and normally he is so smart, but there are times when I have to wonder about him.

So that was it. I felt like an idiot but at least he wasn't cheating on me or trying to hide anything from me. We DID made an agreement to tell each other about ALL our sexual activities in the future (well, I crossed my fingers a little when it came to my family). Don't worry, I showed him my appreciation in the car on the way back home!

So now what? At least I know he wasn't freaked out seeing a real mother and daughter having sex together. Of course, watching two whores having sex isn't the same as seeing his girlfriend and her "normal" mom in a 69, but at least it's a start. Based on what my closest friends are all telling me, I think the best plan is to just tell him straight out the entire situation rather than doling it out piece by piece as I had originally thought of doing. Now I just have to figure out how! My inclination is to wait until we've had some great sex and I'm holding his dick while I tell him but not everyone agrees with my thinking there.

Any suggestions?

(Sep 12) Chapter 172: Surprise Office Visit

Me (23)
John - my dad (43)

Lately it seems all my attention has been on my teaching and my boyfriend. Leave it to my mom to gently remind me that my dad has been trying to give me some "space" as I work things out and that it might be nice to show him my appreciation. Well, what better way than to pay him a visit in his office when he was least expecting it?

1. Feeling Guilty

As much as I beat myself up at times over things I wish I hadn't done, or that I Should've done, if I'm truly honest with myself there are many things in my life that I HAVE done that make me a bit proud of myself. Not that I mean to be egotistical or overly prideful, but I think it's important that people recognize the good things they do as well as the bad. I remember my first straight-A report, earning a gold star on an art project that I had worked so hard on, the first time I was able to get up on a slalom ski, graduating from college, and my first day as a real teacher.

On a more personal and intimate side of things, what girl can ever forget giving her first blowjob or losing her virginity? OK, maybe those aren't always something to be "proud" of per se, as I really didn't know what I was doing, but I think I handled the situations very well.

One thing I take great pride in is that over the years, I have NEVER turned down my father when he has needed me to fulfill a fantasy of his or to satisfy the lust that has built up in him and needs to be released. It makes me feel good to know that he can always count on me, regardless of the time or place, to submit to him and thereby demonstrate my love and respect for him.

Setting aside the domination freaks and such, being able to submit to someone unconditionally, without hesitation, requires an intimate relationship built on love and complete trust. The reason I can submit myself to my father, as I feel a daughter should be able to, is because I know with total certainty that he would never ask me to do anything that offended me or would hurt me either physically or emotionally.

Take note that I did not say a daughter SHOULD submit to her father, I said she should BE ABLE to do so. What's most important is the love and respect between a father and daughter. If they wish to capitalize on that and engage in a more intimate relationship between them as a means of showing their love, then all the better but by no means is that some sort of "requirement".

Over the past month or so, my life has been a bit of a roller coaster ride. I started my first permanent teaching job, which thrilled me but at the same time was a little scary given the amount of responsibility that I'd never had before. At the same time, things have been getting more and more serious with Duane, my boyfriend, to the point I'm wondering whether he will "pop the question" sometime soon.

My emotions have been so riled up that I allowed a completely innocent situation between my boyfriend and my aunt and cousin to get completely out of hand when I tried to turn it into something it wasn't. I've put that one, and others like it, behind me but in the process I know I've driven those around me nuts with my emotional ups and downs.

Fortunately, I'm blessed with many friends, including a number I've met on-line. My mother and Beth, my best friend since childhood, have been especially supportive of me. In all the turmoil I didn't realize it, but my father was also trying to help out as best he could in his own way. Over the past few years, one of his favorite things to do is to sneak into my bedroom in the morning and have sex with me, even if I'm still sound asleep. It's usually pretty quick but I feel good knowing he's going to work with that little extra skip in his step!

Well, without me even realizing it due to my acute self-centeredness, over the past few weeks his daily visits have diminished to maybe once or twice a week. I guess I just automatically assumed he was busy or needed some extra sleep and didn't have time before he had to leave for work. It wasn't until my mother pulled me aside and gently, but firmly, brought it all to my attention, that I came to my senses.

"Kelly, did your dad fuck you this morning?" she started out, holding my hand as we sat on the edge of my bed together. It was like I was a young girl again and my mom was asking me how I was doing with a boyfriend or something.

I had to think for a moment, as the question sort of caught me off guard. "Noooooo," I answered softly, wondering where she was going with this line of questioning.

"And when was the last time he DID fuck you in the morning?"

Wow, I suddenly realized I had to think about it. Normally the answer was at the tip of my tongue, typically something like, "This morning," but not today. In fact, when WAS the last time I'd woken up with his dick in my mouth or pussy, or even just to find the cum he had left behind? Suddenly it dawned on me what she was trying to tell me. Never the best at hiding my emotions (I have NO future as a professional poker player), my mom just shook her head at me.

"Exactly... you see what I'm talking about?" she asked gently. It wasn't an accusation, just an observation on her part. However, it DID get the point across. However, as usual I was still missing the bigger picture and went off in the wrong direction.

"So mom... is dad OK?" I asked, suddenly worried that maybe there was something wrong with my dad that I didn't know about.

"Good grief Kelly, for a girl who's so smart, you sure can be clueless at times," my mom teased me, "It's not HIM that's been having problems."

OK, so I may be clueless but even I can see the picture when it's painted right in front of me. The proverbial light bulb suddenly went on high beam over my head.

"So he's been staying away from me because of MY problems?" I said, more rhetorically than actually asking her a question.

"Well, your father may be a man, as you are well aware, but he can be surprisingly sensitive at times," my mom replied with a warm smile, "As much as he loves fucking you, he also knows you're head hasn't been in the game... sorry, couldn't resist that one."

We both giggled over her poor attempt at a pun but I got the message all the same. I hung my head down and suddenly felt like crying. How selfish had I been that my own father felt he had to give up something I knew he loved just to support me? Although I didn't say "no" to him, and thus technically hadn't ruined my "record", it could be argued that I had, in spirit at least.

"I feel so horrible now," I said softly, my head in my hands as my mom put her arm around me and hugged me tightly up against her.

"No, that's just a sign of how much he loves you and cares for you. Face it, most men would have let their lust and greed take precedence and fucked you anyway; but your father just isn't that kind of guy... guess that's why I love him so much!"

"Has he said anything to you?"

"No... although he HAS been a little more demanding at night than usual. And then there was last night. The horny bastard woke me up in the middle of the night... can you believe it? He hasn't done that in years... a LOT of years for that matter. Guess that's what made me realize we needed to talk about it."

"What should I do mom?"

"Oh I think you know," she said with a knowing smile and a naughty wink. My mom, a graduate of the Yoda school of psychology. She was right though, I immediately knew what I had to do.

2. Advice From Mom

The next morning I was awake in bed, having hardly slept a wink thinking about everything that had been happening to me lately and how I could make it up to my dad. I heard him get up, use the bathroom, then dress and kiss my mom goodbye... all without even peeking into my room! Now THAT just wasn't right. Most likely he knew that if he HAD looked in and seen me laying naked in bed, he might not have the resolve to leave without pulling his dick out first.

As soon as he had pulled out of the driveway, I made it into their bedroom and crawled under the covers with my mom (my dad keeps the air conditioning in their bedroom just slightly above the "frozen tundra" setting, forcing my mom to sleep under a comforter all summer, even during the blazing hot nights.

I snuggled up next to her, feeling her warm naked body against mine. I pressed up close, pushing my breasts against her and draping my leg over her so my bare crotch was pressed up against her hip. Don't get me wrong, I wasn't looking for sex, it was just my favorite position to be with her, going back as long as I can remember.

"He didn't even look at me mom," I told her sadly.

"Well, if he had, do you think he would have left so quickly?" my mom replied. Yep, we were on the same page there, both of us knowing full well my dad's lack of willpower when it came to fucking me.

"I decided that I'm going to go to his office today after school," I told her, "It's Friday and I bet it will be pretty quiet by the time I can get there after school."

"Well, I'm sure he'll appreciate it. Just watch out for that new receptionist. She watches everything like a hawk."

Again I was reminded of how much I had been unintentionally ignoring my dad. It had been so long since I'd been to his office, I didn't even know he HAD a new receptionist. Well, she couldn't be any worse than the old bitch that use to guard the fort. She'd always given me the evil eye whenever I came to visit and I could tell from the way she looked at me and then at my outfit that she disapproved mightily of my taste in clothes. I knew she suspected that I was fooling around with guys in the office, but I doubt the idea that I might be fucking my dad there never crossed her mind.

"So watcha gonna wear?" she asked.

"I was thinking of that cute schoolgirl skirt and blouse outfit you bought me last time we were out."

"Ahhhhhh," she sighed, rolling her eyes just a bit, "I remember when I use to be able to get away with wearing an outfit like that!"

"Oh mom, you look great!" I chastised her. Actually, at 42 I thought she DID look great for her age. OK, maybe not her high school tone and a few extra pounds here and there, but I could only hope I had her genes when I got to be her age.

"Thanks, but let's face it, the boys don't follow me around the mall anywhere near the way they do you."

For a moment, it was like she was in a bit of a funk but then she turned on her side and hugged me. Our breast were pressed tightly together and I could feel the heat of her pussy as she intertwined her legs with mine and pushed in tightly against me. For the longest time we just laid there together, loving each other and enjoying the loud silence. Finally, I heard the alarm go off in my room and I kissed her before jumping out of bed to get myself ready. It wouldn't do for the teacher to be late to class!

"I suppose I won't have to worry about supper tonight?" she called after me. I poked my head back in her bedroom and grinned.

"I think I'll be getting plenty to eat mom," I teased her.

Suddenly I felt a little giddy and even a bit naughty. It had been ages since I was last at my dad's office and another millennia it seemed since I'd had sex with my dad there. This was going to be fun, I just knew it in my heart!

All that day in school I had the hardest time concentrating on my class work. It wasn't very professional of me and I can't say I'm proud of it, but my pussy was wet all day! It was killing me to feel so horny and not do anything about it but given the size of our school, there were few, if any, good locations to masturbate where someone might not notice. I looked out at my students and I knew there were more than a few boys with a crush on me. What would they say if they knew their teacher was thinking about fucking her dad? by the time the last bell rang, I was SUPER horny and more than ready to get laid!

After school, I had to make a quick stop home to change. It wouldn't have been good to change at school where people might see me in such an outfit. I was supposed to be Miss Conservative at school, and wearing a skirt that barely covered my ass together with a blouse that was easily a size too small, if not two. Although it may sound odd for me, I actually picked out a bra to wear, a black one that was clearly visible through the thin white blouse, making the outfit more sluttier than it would have been with just my hard nipples showing through. I also decided to wear a thin black thong rather than go bottomless. As short as my skirt was, it didn't take hardly anything to encourage it lift up enough to put my ass and crotch on display.

A little extra makeup (I only wore the minimum amount at school), white thigh- high stockings and a pair of black spike heels finished the outfit. I looked in the mirror and realized I still had my hair pulled back from school. Teachers weren't supposed to have their hair loose unless it was really cut short. I pulled out the wrap and shook my head to let my hair bounce free again. Yep, she was back - Kelly the slut!

3. Surprising My Dad

As I started to head back to my car, it started raining, which turned out to be for the good. What was I thinking heading out in public dressed this way? I was going to have to ride the T to downtown Pittsburgh and then walk over a block to my dad's office building, and then up the elevator to his floor. If I didn't get arrested for public indecency, I would probably be propositioned a dozen time on my way!

Inside I went to the closet and pulled out my mom's raincoat. I called her "spy coat", as it was a black trench coat style that came down to just below my knees. I wrapped the belt around me and fastened it in front and was off once again, this time "decent" enough for public transportation.

At this time of day, most people were leaving the downtown area instead of heading towards it, so my small train was all but empty. The few people pretty much ignored me and I did nothing to bring myself to their attention. I had to switch to another train after going through the tunnel and before long I was climbing the steps up to the streets of downtown Pittsburgh. The rain was coming down harder and so I grabbed a newspaper that was laying on a bench and used it as a umbrella of sorts to keep my hair from getting soaked and my makeup from being washed away. Fortunately, it wasn't far to the building and I was able to run under a number of awnings to stay as dry as possible.

Once I got to my dad's office building, I felt like a salmon trying to go upstream to spawn as everyone was heading OUT of the building while I was trying to push my way IN. At the elevators, again everyone was heading down while I wanted to go up so I had the elevator all to myself as I rode up to my dad's floor.

The doors opened and straight ahead was the new guard dog bitch my mom had warned me about. We'd never met so she had no idea who I was as I approached. I explained to her who I was. She looked at me like she didn't believe me and actually made her show me my driver's license to prove who I was. Sheesh, wait until I told my dad about her!

Once I was past the bitch, I knew my way around the office. A number of associates were there - they NEVER went home at 5:00, not if they wanted a future at the firm. I recognized a couple of older ones but even they had to look twice at me before the recognized me.

"Hey Kelly, how are you doing?" one of them greeted me, "Damn, you're looking great. What did you do to your hair?"

Again I was reminded of how long it had been since I was at the office. I am naturally a brunette but have been toying on and off the past couple of years with being a blonde until now that us pretty much what I stick with. I was tempted to flash them and let them see what was hiding under the rain coat but that wouldn't have been too smart, not if I had any plans to play around with my dad - which I most certainly did.

As it was, I just smiled and them and let my hair twirl a bit, enough to tease them but not enough to serve as a come-on to them. I waved goodbye and blew them a kiss as I made my way to the executive suites where my dad, as one of the senior partners, had his office.

When I got to his office, the door was open and nobody was there. Dang it, I KNEW I should have called ahead to make sure he was free but I didn't want to spoil the surprise. He WAS there, the watch dog out front had confirmed it, but who knew when he would be free. I bet the nasty little bitch knew he wasn't available and she just hadn't bothered to tell me. Hmmm, I was going to have to figure out something to repay her kindness.

Under the circumstances, my initial thoughts were to close the door, strip down to nothing but my stockings and heels, and lay back on the couch with my legs spread open as an invitation to him when he returned. There was just one tiny problem - who knew who would be the next to come through the door? It would have been hard to explain to just about anyone why my dad's daughter was laying all but naked on his couch! So sometimes discretion is the better part of valor and so I just sat down on one of the dark leather chairs, leaving my coat on, and waited for him to return... and waited... and waited.

An hour went by and still no dad. Thank god for cell phones and e-mail or I don't know how I would have kept myself from going crazy waiting for him. It didn't help that I was still horny as hell, especially now that I was there. More than a few times my hand reached for my crotch and it was only with the strongest of willpower that I didn't succumb. To be honest, if it had been much longer I might have had to head for the girl's restroom and take care of it!

Just then I heard voices down the hall, one of them being my dad. I had left the door barely open and my heart leaped as my dad pushed it open just far enough to see me and then stop.

"Say Bill, why don't we finish this later. I just remembered a couple of things I need to take care of right away," he said to somebody in the hallway that I couldn't see - and thus he probably couldn't see me either.

I couldn't make out the response but it must have been agreement because my dad slipped in without opening the door further and quickly closed it quietly, but firmly behind him. I barely heard the "click" as he turned the lock. He HAD to have been surprised to see me but nobody ever accused my dad of not being quick on his feet and he had instantly recognized the situation and reacted appropriately. After locking the door and making sure the shades were drawn completely, he turned to me with his hands on his hips and smiled.

"So to what do I owe the honor of your majesty's presence today?" "Oh dad, it hasn't been THAT long since I was here... has it?"

"Well, let's see... yes it has," he teased me. I got up from the chair and went up to him where he hugged me first and then leaned down to kiss me, just a peck the first time but then with passion and lust. After a few minutes, we separated slightly and he looked me over, a quizzical expression on his face.

"What's with the raincoat?" he asked, "Not exactly your style I might add. Steal your mom's?"

I giggled and nodded.

"Since it's not exactly raining in my office, any reason you kept it on?"

Again, I just giggled and smiled. My dad smiled as well as he reached to untie the belt and unbutton the rain coat.

"Let's see... do you even have anything on at all under here?"

For a moment, I was worried that he would be disappointed when he saw I wasn't stark naked under the coat. I guess I could have gone that route but the conservative side of me was worried about the trip downtown. If anything had happened, even my slutty outfit was better than being naked! Of course, such worries were needless with my father.

"Mmmmmmm, nice outfit," he complimented me, "Is this the one your mother was telling me about?"

I nodded as it undoubtedly had been. He huffed a little at that and said, "You CAN talk you know."

"Yeah, mom helped me pick it out," I blurted out suddenly, as if I had to get it all out in one quick breath.

"Well, I have to say, you look fabulous!" he joked, trying to imitate Billy Crystal, but doing it poorly.

All joking aside, a quick glance at his crotch was all I needed to confirm that his intentions were true. Always quick to notice things about people, my dad caught me glancing down at his crotch.

"Well, are you just going to look at it or do something about it?" he suddenly asked in a more firm voice.

This was a little unusual for him as typically he likes to play along for a while before actually doing anything. He must have been really horny himself to come right out and ask for it without me even teasing him a bit first. Not that I was complaining!

I set aside the raincoat and kneeled on the carpeted floor in front of him, looking up into his eyes and I smiled as he undid his belt and pants for me. I just waited patiently as he unzipped himself and reached inside his underwear to pull out his dick for me. He was already about half erect as he stroked it slowly in front of me.

"Been a while since you've done this in my office," he said softly, his voice sounding huskier now as his lust built up along with his erection, "Suck my dick Kelly... put me in your mouth."

I reached for his dick but he pushed my hand away, holding his dick out for me to take in my mouth. The tip of his cock brushed against my cheek as he stroked his cock along the side of my face and over my lips. I let my tongue stick out and he rubbed his cock head along it before pushing it against my lips. Easing my mouth open just a bit, he pushed his dick in my mouth and I could feel it sliding across my lips, filling my mouth. His crotch smelled of sweat after a long day of work, not too strong but distinctly noticeable.

As he filled my mouth, he released his hold on his dick and pushed himself forward, driving his dick deeper into my mouth. Being he still wasn't full erect, I easily took him all in without having to take any down my throat. My tongue ran over him as I sucked harder on his cock, as if I was trying to make him grow just with the force of my mouth on him.

"God this feels so good," he groaned softly, standing there with his hands on my head, his fingers running through my hair as he started to fuck my face.

My dad held my head still as his hips started to slowly swing back and forth, driving his dick into my mouth and the pulling it back out again. "That's it Kelly, suck it... suck it hard... god I love it when you suck my dick like that!"

With each stroke he seemed to get a little longer, a little thicker. He maintained a slow but steady rhythm, pulling his dick out until the head was barely between my lips and pushing himself back in my mouth again. As he got longer, I could feel the head of his cock drive deeper into my mouth and finally down into my throat. It was difficult at first as he was just barely making it into my throat, causing my gag reflex to kick in but I fought it back. Finally he was to where he actually pushed his dick down into my throat past where I felt I had to gag. He would hold it there for a few moments, and pull it back out again to let me breath.

As I sucked my father's dick, I loved the way he felt in my mouth, the way he tasted, the way he smelled. Looking up, our eyes met and I could see it in his eyes, the way he felt about me, the way he wanted me, the way he NEEDED me. There was something special when he looked at me this way that brought goose bumps to my skin and made my pussy tingle. The kind of look only a father can give his daughter.

I knew I was pleasing him, satisfying him in a way no other woman on earth could - not even my mom. Sure, there are lots of girl who could suck his dick, some of them who could probably even do him better (although I doubt many could). There was only ONE girl, however, who could create the emotions and feelings that were flooding through him now, only one girl who was his own daughter - ME! It made me feel special knowing that I was the only girl in the world he could look down at like he was now and say to himself, "That's my daughter sucking my dick!"

My pussy was throbbing now and I reached down and under my skirt, rubbing myself through the thong at first and then pulling it to the side to get direct contact on my clit. Talk about feeling good! I reached further down, pressing my fingertip into my pussy and rubbing it, drawing out the moisture and using it to wet my pussy lips and clit, making it easier to slide my fingertip over and around my hard, sensitive clit. Shivers ran up and down my back as I rubbed myself while my dad kept stroking himself in and out of me. Finally, I needed more than just a finger in me, I needed my dad's dick!

Grabbing his cock with my free hand by the base of the shaft, I pulled him from my mouth and looked up at him with a smile and twinkle in my eyes. "Fuck me daddy. I want you to fuck me... now."

Grabbing me by the shoulders, my dad helped me to my feet and directed my backwards onto his couch. When the backs of my legs felt the leather behind them, I dropped back onto the couch, keeping my ass towards the front edge and leaning back to give him a nice view of my crotch. Grabbing my thing by the sides, I quickly slipped it down and off my feet, leaving my skirt on but pulled up to my stomach so my bare bottom was exposed for him. Reaching down with both hands, I used the fingers on one hand to spread my puss apart and then pushed my middle finger of my other hand into my soaking wet pussy.

"I'm so wet daddy... I need your dick in me," I whispered to him, just loud enough for him to hear but not such that anyone outside his office would know what was going on inside. "Fuck me daddy... fuck me... fuck me"

If there was one thing I knew that turned my dad on the most to hear, it was those three words - "fuck me daddy". All I had to do was go to him and whisper those words in his ear and it was like a switch turned on inside of him, making him instantly horny. Over the years, I've learned just about every man loves to hear a girl ask him to fuck her, but with my dad it was special because of the extra word I added for him - "fuck me DADDY". Sure, some guys liked to role- play a father-daughter situation but in the end, that was all it was - a role- play. With my dad, there was no pretending, no fantasy, it was the real deal!

My dad looked down at me as he dropped his pants and underwear to his ankles. With his shoes on they wouldn't come all the way off but in his office, my dad never liked to get TOO undressed as you never knew what surprise might be in store. His white shirt tails hung around his hard which poked through them like it was poking out to see what was waiting for it. I could tell from the way he was breathing and staring at my pussy that he wanted me.

Oh yeah, he wanted to fuck me - badly. It was like he was hypnotized or something, as if he was in another world as he just stared at my open pussy, licking his lips with anticipation. He didn't say a word, those eyes told me everything I needed to know. It was moments like this that thrilled me, like when you're at the top of a roller coaster and you know that no matter what, you were going down that hill and through the loops and there was literally nothing in the world that could stop you now. So it was now with my dad. When he was in this frame of mind, consumed by his lust and sexual desire, it was like that roller coaster. Nothing was going to stop him now from fucking me. I think the door could open and the entire staff walk in and it wouldn't have mattered. His dick was going to be buried inside of my pussy in just a few seconds, and there was nothing I could do about but then, that's what I wanted as well.

"Fuck me... fuck me daddy," I kept repeating over and over as he lowered himself to get his dick up against my pussy.

On the one hand, I wanted to lay my head back and close my eyes, concentrating completely on my pussy and his dick as it began to press against me. However, I also wanted to watch him enter me, to see his stiff cock as it penetrated me and disappeared inch by inch inside of me.

My dad reached down and put his arms under my legs, letting the bottom of my knees rest in the elbows of his arms as he lifted me upward, my ass lifting up into the air just a little in the process. With his arms busy holding my legs up, I took his dick in my hand and guided it to the entrance of my pussy. At first I used it to move up and down my pussy slit, tickling my clit with it and then rubbing it up and down again. Finally I held it in place right against the opening to my pussy and waited for him to push it on.

"Oh yeah, here it comes baby," he groaned as he pressed his dick head against my open hole.

I could feel the pressure building in my crotch as he pushed it against me harder, forcing my pussy to expand to accept him. I stared down, mesmerized at the sight of his cock head as suddenly it literally popped into me and disappeared from site.

"Oh daddy, that feels so good," I moaned, not taking my eyes off of him for even a second as he pushed himself deeper into me, "Push it in me all the way, I want it all in me... fuck me more daddy. Love me daddy... show me how much you love me."

It was such an incredible sensation to feel him as he filled me inside and at the same time watching him as he quickly pushed himself all the way into me. It was almost surreal to see the base of his dick as it met my bare crotch, pressing his thick pubic hair tightly against me. I couldn't SEE his dick anymore but I could certainly FEEL it. God, it was like he was so deep inside of me, penetrating me, even perhaps violating me in a sense.

For what seemed like forever, he just stayed that way, his dick enveloped by my warm, inviting pussy. In a way I guess you could say his cock was where it belonged - inside a woman, surrounded by her, caressed by her. It felt wonderful to lay there with my father's dick inside of me, not moving or even saying a word, just feeling him throbbing inside of me, feeling as close to my father as a daughter can feel. It was extremely intimate and loving.

Without saying anything, my dad started to slowly stroke himself in and out of me, barely even moving at first as he pulled himself out until just the head of hid dick remained in me, holding there for a moment, and then driving himself back into me again until he once again bottomed out inside of me. He circled his hips, rubbing his coarse pubic hair against my bald crotch like a thick brush to stimulate me, and then pulled back out again, a little quicker each time, a little harder when he pushed against me with each inward stroke. Finally he reached a quick pace, pumping himself in and out of me hard and fast, pushing me back into the couch when he would drive it all the way in me.

As my dad fucked me, I used my right hand to touch my clit, rubbing it in little circles as I felt my dad's dick sliding in and out of me. My left hand was on my breast, squeezing my boob through my blouse and bra. I wanted to tear off my clothes but that would have required me to take my hand off my clit - something I wouldn't have dreamed of doing at this point, not with the orgasm that was building inside of me like a tsunami about to make landfall.

"Ohhhhhh Daddyyyyyyyy!" I moaned, closing my eyes tightly as my pussy exploded around his dick, clamping down on him and grabbing onto his shaft like a vise.

Even with my eyes shut it was like fireworks were going off in front of me as my entire world shrunk down to just me and my father, more specifically, his dick and my pussy. The intense feelings of pleasure quickly spread through me, making my nipples tingle and even my toes felt a little numb. Suddenly I gasped loudly, not realizing until then that I'd been holding my breath since my orgasm had first hit me.

"I'm cumming daddy... I'm cumming so hard," I managed to whisper finally, feeling my pussy still holding onto his dick with every muscle I had.

My ass felt wet and I knew it must have been me cumming and my cum was emerging around his dick and draining down my ass crack onto the couch. "Oh daddy I love you so much!"

My dad pushed my legs back further, holding them back with his arms so he could reach forward with his hands and put one on each of my boobs. Suddenly he grabbed my blouse and literally ripped it open, tearing it and popping off the buttons that had been fastened in one quick motion. My bra was too strong for him to tear it in half and unfortunately it fastened in the back so he just put his fingers between the underwire and my chest and then lifted the cups up and over my boobs, exposing them to the cool air in his office. My nipples were already hard and pointed as he gripped each of my boobs with his hands.

If anything, my orgasm grew stronger as he leaned forward, pushing his dick tight into me as he fondled my bare boobs. Finally I felt myself coming down just enough to open my eyes and smile at him, He was sweating now but the grin on his face told me he was loving this every bit as much as I was.

"Damn girl, I thought you were going to flatten my cock," he teased me as I gasped for air and my pussy released its iron grip on his dick.

"I want you to cum in me daddy," I said to him in the most lustful tone I could muster, "I want you to mate me."

Of course my dad was NEVER going to actually "mate" me in the full sense of the word. As his daughter, there was no way I could even imagine bearing his child. At the same time, it was that ACT of mating that turned me on, knowing that without the artificial interference of a pill he would impregnate me. Neither of us wanted it to actually happen, but it was incredibly erotic and sensual to engage in the process.

My dad suddenly pulled out of me, leaving my pussy with an odd sensation of emptiness, like something was missing. He motioned for me to turn over and I flipped around, kneeling on the couch and squatting down low as I held onto the back of the couch for balance. My legs were spread apart enough that my pussy was easy for him to get to. I could feel his fingers reaching between my legs to open my pussy for his cock as he thrust it inside of quickly.

Once he was in me, he grabbed me by the hips and pulled me in and out against him in sync with his thrusts such that we came together hard enough to make a smacking sound as my damp ass slapped into his crotch. I had my hands on the back of the couch, hanging on for dear life as he savagely fucked me.

"Almost there, baby... almost there," he moaned as he literally was getting to the short strokes. "You want me to cum in you.. don't you?"

"Oh yes daddy, cum in me, cum in me deep," I begged him again, repeating myself over and over as I pleaded for him to fill me with his sperm.

"Oh yeah, daddy's gonna give it to you," he said between gasping breaths, practically knocking me off my knees as he banged into my ass, "God I love fucking you so much."

He thrust himself into me hard and then held himself still inside of me. I concentrated on his dick as I waited for what I knew was now inevitable. The roller coaster was starting down the hill and nothing was going to stop him now.

"Oh daddy! Fuck me!" I cried out as I felt his dick convulse inside of me, together with the feeling of a bloom of heat deep inside of me as his warm sperm was being released into me.

Again and again he jerked, followed by another feeling of warmth inside of me and I could only imagine what it must be like in my pussy now, as his warm sperm flooded my pussy.

Finally he was spent, his entire load now in me. I wanted him to stay in me as long as possible Ie. To stay coupled with me, joined together as one. In this position, though, that would have been difficult, at best. My dad wrapped his arms around me, pulling me tight against him as he then lifted me up and then down on the floor next to him in a spoon position. His dick was still stiff enough to remain in me and we just laid there in silence, his strong arms surrounding me as his dick slowly shrank and withdrew from me. Finally just his head remained in me and I was afraid to move an inch which might cause his dick to fall out of me.

How long we stayed that way, I can't really say. Odds were it wasn't really as long as it seem to be, but it was a moment in time I never want to forget. I remember thinking to myself how incredibly lucky I was. How many girls don't even speak to their fathers, let alone feel close to them. Of those that do, I am sure it is a very small number that get to experience what I was feeling right then.

Sure my dad loved me, I knew that already. But it's one thing to SAY you love someone and KNOW they love you and quite another thing to SHOW how much you love them in such an intimate way. This didn't involve money, gifts, or anything like that. No, this was a deeply personal and intimate exchange of feelings for one another, using our own bodies to express ourselves. I could have laid there all night with him in me, holding me tightly against him, his hand over my boobs and his mouth kissing my on my neck and back.

Finally it had to come to an end and my dad rolled over onto his back, a low groan escaping from him as he stretched his arms high above his head. I turned over to face him, my hand automatically going to his dick, gripping the now soft shaft, still wet with a mixture of his cum and my pussy wetness. I started to lean over to kiss it and maybe suck it to try and bring it back to life but he gently pushed my head away.

"No way baby," he sighed, "It's had all it can take for now."

I frowned playfully but didn't release him. Instead, I rolled over against him, draping my leg over his and pressing my crotch up against his leg, rubbing myself up against him like a dog in heat. My boobs were pressed against this side as I put my arm over his hairy chest. My head rested against his arm as I snuggled up against him.

"I love you so much daddy," I whispered softly to him, "I'm sorry I've been so bad to you lately."

"Hey, don't even say that," he corrected me, "I know it's been hard for you lately. I just want you to know I will do anything to please you and to help you. I want nothing more than for you to be happy and whatever it takes to do that, I will never hesitate to do it, understand?"

At the time I didn't realize exactly what he meant by that. Later I would, and be quite shocked in the process, but for now I took it at face value as an expression of his love and respect for me.

With that we got up and he pulled his underwear and shorts back up. How he hadn't fallen and killed himself with them wrapped around his ankle, I'll never know but at least now it made it a lot faster for him to get dressed. As for me, I pulled my bra back down over my boobs but there was nothing I could do with my ruined blouse. It just hung open, exposing my bra. I decided to leave my thong off. With the raincoat it really didn't matter. I could have been nude under it and nobody would have likely known. Instead< I handed it to my dad, like a souvenir of my visit. He grinned and stuffed it in his briefcase.

"Now THAT would be pretty hard to explain," he chuckled.

For a moment I was thinking of how sweet it would be to drop off my damp thong at the receptionist's desk, to flaunt what I had done with my dad after the way she had treated me earlier. It would have been a short-lived "victory", however, and I was mature enough these days not to do something so stupid just for the thrill of it.

"Hungry?" he asked me as I put on my raincoat once again.

I glanced down at his crotch and he just shook his head and laughed at me. "Noooooo, not for THAT. I meant how about dinner?"

Again, I glanced pointedly at his dick and again, he rolled his eyes at me. "Damn Kelly, is that all you think about?"

"So you're saying I shouldn't?" I teased him, wiggling my butt for him teasingly.

"You know what I mean little girl," he pretended to scold me.

With that, he put on his raincoat and opened the door for me. The office was still pretty busy, the ever-present interns and associates trying to impress the partners. I could feel my face flush a little as they looked at us as we left the office.

Did they notice how flushed I was? Could they smell the distinct odor of sex that must have been around us like a cloud? If so, nobody made any point of acting like they did so before you knew it, we were in the elevator, heading for the lobby.

"I think she suspected something," my dad said as we waited for the elevator to come to a halt.

I looked at him with a quizzical expression, not certain what he was talking about. "The new brunette intern, I don't remember her name. She looked at us and I could see her nose wrinkle as we walked by her."

I hand; even noticed her, I guess I was too focused on the cute young guys. Oh well, so what? If she wanted to keep her job – or one at Amy other firm for that matter, she would keep her mouth and suspicions to herself.

My dad took me to a great steakhouse and from there we headed home. I couldn't wait to get home and tell my mom all about my office visit with my dad. In the meantime, I had a feeling my early morning visitations would be resuming – and I couldn't wait for morning!

(Nov 01) Chapter 173: Passion Party

Story codes: F-solo exhib toys
Me (23)
Barbara - party host
Wanda - Passion Parties Representative

It's been several months since I last wrote a diary entry. A lot has happened since then and I debated whether I would ever write again. Then came the events in this story and I just had to share it with my friends. It's the first I've written regarding my new job as well, and hopefully not the last!
Disclaimer: I've always said that my diary is not a reflection of my everyday life, but rather more like a "highlights reel". That is especially true with regards to this story. The reason I wrote about it is because it was something unique, NOT because it was something that typically happens. I do a lot of parties and this was the only one where this type of thing happened as a result.

1. Working Girl

Something I guess different about is that when I was growing up, unlike most of my friends I never had a "regular" job working in the mall or anything like that. Instead, I was the neighborhood babysitter, even through college. The pay was great and I enjoyed it for the most part. Sometimes I helped at my dad's office but I don't think that really counted as "work".

In college, I was lucky to have parents who could pay my private tuition and expenses so I was never forced to work. I DID do a brief stint of escorting and bachelor parties, but they were more due to address my sexual frustrations created by attending a school where sex was forbidden than to earn money. Those "jobs" didn't last long anyway as I quickly learned the dangers of such "careers". I was fortunate to get more of a scare than actually harmed, but I still learned a lesson.

After school I planned to be a teacher but when the job market was too tight, I tried an office job but quickly learned that wasn't for me and ended up escorting again. THIS time, however, I went to work for a professional agency which did NOT allow have sex with clients. I just flirted and let them grope them a bit but nothing more than that.

Finally I secured a teaching position which was thrilling after preparing for it for so many years. Unfortunately, I was forced to resign for reasons which I will not explain here. All I can say is that I won't be teaching for a few years unless a certain principal has a heart attack before then!

Losing my teaching job sort of threw me off balance, to say the least. All my previous "jobs" were simply something to get me by until I got my teaching credentials and started my teaching career. Thus I really had no "backup plan" if something should happen where I couldn't teach.

So here I was... 23, unemployed, and no marketable skills (at least as they are traditionally defined). I had to do SOMETHING so I turned to the one "skill" that I have - turning on men. This time was different though. I wasn't looking for something to just get by, I needed a more long-term solution. My cousin offered to get me in with her agency but I am not THAT desperate to where I would whore myself out. I've always said I'm proud to be a slut but I am NOT a whore.

After a lot of thought and debate, rather than returning to escorting where I had to deal with a single client in a one-on-one basis, I decided to pursue the things I've enjoyed the most - parties. From the start I knew I wasn't about to get involved in the type of parties my whore of a cousin Kristen does. Those type of situations can be fun as a one-time 'experience", but it wasn't anything I wanted to do on a steady basis. You might say I was willing to be in "R" or "TV-MA" rated situations but not "XXX".

With my goals established, I started by looking around for people doing adult-style parties and asking if they needed someone to help. For example, there are a number of quite legitimate sex-toy distributors that do home parties, sort of adult Tupperware parties where your typical "soccer moms" have the opportunity to feel a little naughty in a safe environment.

What I learned was that there is quite a demand for "models" at these parties. In addition, people who organize "adult" parties, such as risque birthday parties, off-site office parties, bachelor parties, etc., are also always looking for girls. The problem they face is most girls who are willing to do such parties are worn-out prostitutes - and look the part. What they need are reliable girls with that "girl-next-door" look who won't intimidate their clients while being comfortable in a more personal environment than your typical strip club.

Over a year ago I met "Wanda" (I know, I don't believe it's her real name either) at a party. What I remembered the most about her was that she sold lingerie and toys - and was quite pushy about it. She had been trying to get me to try some of the oddest shaped dildos one night. Some were really weird and in the end I just had to tell her I wasn't interested! After all, at a party where the real thing is readily available, why bother with something fake?

Now things were different so when it came time to start making contacts, I called my cousin, got her number and gave Wanda a call. My timing was perfect as Wanda's regular girl had just quit and she had some parties coming up for which she needed someone badly.

The first thing Wanda did was refer me to a website for the company she represented - Passion Parties. Reading it over, I was pleased to find it was a "legitimate" company that catered strictly to women over eighteen years old - no men. I couldn't help but chuckle to myself when they mentioned that they had tried doing "couples" parties but decided to stick with their "women-only" policy. I could only imagine what had happened at such parties with guys there as well.

The next day we got together for lunch where she told me all about what she did and the attributes she was looking for in a model. Wanda must have been around 35 to 40, not bad looking but a little past her prime. Watching us sitting together at TGI Friday, you never would've guessed what was the subject of our conversation. Most likely, people would have thought us as being just two women out for a typical lunch together. A couple of times the waiter stopped by without us noticing and I imagine he must have been curious.

Give my past experience as an escort and stripper, Wanda didn't think I needed a "rehearsal" or anything, something that made me feel even more comfortable when considering whether or not I wanted to work for her. Deep down I guess that I sort of suspected she might be using this as a front to find younger girls to have sex with. In fact, had she invited me over to "sample" the merchandise or "practice", I would have probably turned her down and walked away. My goal was to find work, not a sex partner.

As we finished out lunch, we both seemed to have reached the same conclusion about the other and agreed to give things a try. Wanda had a party scheduled for the upcoming weekend and said she would e-mail me the directions and time. She asked that I show up about a half-hour before the party started to do makeup and ensure any lines from my clothing had time to disappear - something I hadn't considered. With that, we shared a brief hug and went our separate ways.

With a couple of days to kill before the first party, it gave me plenty of time to contemplate about what I was getting myself into. Wanda had told me the upcoming party would be simply a bunch of your typical neighborhood "soccer moms", generally in their later twenties and thirties, who would be most likely more intimidated than turned-on by the party, especially at the start. Most likely their previous parties had been for Tupperware or some makeup line and this would be the first "naughty" party most, if not all, of them had ever attended.

If anything, Wanda warned me that my job was to NOT be overly sexy but instead to make them feel comfortable enough to buy something instead of just sitting there with wide eyes and open mouths, too embarrassed to pull out their purses. I found it interesting that the LAST thing Wanda said she was looking for from me was a sex show. She reminded me this was NOT a bachelor party, (or rather bachelorette party given the attendees), but rather a legitimate sales party on which most of her income depended.

Despite all that Wanda had told me, the was no getting around the fact that I would be parading around in front of a roomful of women in outfits that left very little, if anything, to the imagination. I'd looked at the web site already where I checked out the wide collection of lingerie as well as an interesting selection of adult toys and accessories. Wanda had left me with a catalog and I felt a little tingle between my thighs as I looked at some of the sexy lingerie and imagined wearing it while a group of moms and wives checked me out.

So many questions started to run through my head. Would they be jealous of me? Odds were at 23, I probably wouldn't be that much younger than some of them. Would any of them be turned on, maybe get a little horny even? How there be any closet lesbian or bi girls and if so, would they reveal themselves in front of their friends and neighbors? Wanda mentioned that wine was usually served which helped to get things going by the end of the party, just in time for them to break out their checkbooks!

What really stirred my imagination the most was the fact that I'd never done anything like this before. Whenever I had danced in front of a group at a party in the past, it was in front of men and my clothes inevitably came off. Something or another sexual happened, even if nothing more than a hand-job or perhaps a blowjob. Indeed, that was a large factor in why I did them in the first place - to satisfy my own needs and frustrations more so than make money. It was a little ironic that now that I wanted to do it more for money, I was looking at a situation where I would NOT be engaged in sex! Even so, while Wanda had told me to tone down the sexual aspect, but would I be able to control myself once things got started?

2. Morning Masturbation Time

Saturday morning arrived before I knew it and I woke up to the dead silence of my apartment. Not even the furnace fan was running and if not for the occasional sound of a car outside in the parking lot, it was like I was isolated from the world. Twisting over onto my back, I rubbed the sleep from my eyes and stretched my legs out, pointing my toes toward the end of the bed while my arms reached for the ceiling far above me. Despite the cold weather, my covers had been tossed off during the night as usual, and I felt little goose bumps rise on my exposed skin as I tried to rouse myself.

Lowering my arms, my hands instinctively fell to my boobs. I cupped myself, one boob in each hand, as my fingers tightened and lightly massaged them. The nipples were already somewhat erect from the cold and I let them slid between my fingers, sending a slight tingle through me. My thighs pressed together tightly in reaction to signals from my pussy that it wanted attention and my hands tightened more on my breasts. My pussy wasn't taking no for an answer so I let my right hand works its way slowly downward, the fingertips tracing lightly over my bare stomach, causing me to jerk slightly as it tickled me.

Down my hand went until it reached my pussy - which was badly in need of a fresh shave. It was like running my fingers over my dad's face in the morning before he shaved and for just a moment, my rational mind intruded to remind me that I needed to shave before I left this evening! With the panties and sort of things I was expecting to be wearing, this was not a time for me to have anything but a baby-smooth pussy.

My thoughts of shaving quickly disappeared as my clit sent out a little jolt when my fingertips brushed over it. Damn, I must have been having quite the erotic dream before waking up as I my pussy was already wet - not that it was exactly a surprise. As horny as I felt when I woke up, it would have been shocking NOT to have been soaking wet already.

What is it with mornings anyway? Is it the dreams I have that I don't remember that leave me feeling like I simply HAVE to have sex from the moment I wake up? Was it that with my body rested and feeling energized my natural sexuality just took over and made me horny as hell in the morning? Whatever the medical or psychological reasoning, mornings have always been my most naturally horny time of day. Don't get me wrong - it's not that I don't get horny all the time most of the rest of the day, it's just that mornings are like dependable like clockwork.

With rare exceptions, I can count on it as something that is always going to be waiting for me when I awake, waiting for me to regain consciousness so I can provide for the needs of my body. Of course, the BEST was to wake up is with a guy's dick already in me, or at least making a best effort, but that wasn't about to happen when you lived alone in your own apartment.

My finger slid down from my swelling clit, down between my wet pussy lips until I felt the opening to my pussy. Resisting the temptation to immediately press my finger inside, I only pushed hard enough to allow just the tip to slip in and then I quickly pulled it out, repeating the process over and over as if I was pumping it with my fingertip. At the same time, my palm was pressing down on my clit while my left hand continued to work on my boobs, pulling on my nipples and letting them snap back. It wasn't anything urgent, at least not yet, just slow and steady movements that barely caused me to stir on the bed.

As I continued to masturbate, my thoughts wandered from one thing to the next, never lingering for long on any one thought or fantasy in particular. It was like I was channel surfing with the remote control, switching from one channel to another, each time showing something totally different. One moment I was simply concentrating on how good it felt to touch myself, then the next I imagined my finger was my dad's hard dick trying to force itself into me, then a moment later it was my cousin's tongue teasing my pussy, her ever-present mischievous grin on her wet face as she looked up at me from between my legs.

A few times I imagined myself at the party I was going to be at later that night, dancing sensuously in front of a dozen women or so, all them turned on and touching themselves through their clothes and even under their skirts behind their white cotton panties. I dreamed that a couple of them even stripped and got on the table with me, licking me and masturbating next to me while the others got even more turned on by the erotic display being played out right in front of them.

Suddenly my finger plunged into my pussy, surprising me as it acted as if it had a mind of its own. As wet and swollen as I was, it slide into me easily and was soon followed by a second finger. Now I needed both hands between my legs so my left hand abandoned my breast and assumed the duties of rubbing my clit while my right hand fucked my pussy. My feet were planted flat on the bed with my knees bent, allowing me to raise my hips up against my hands, eventually bouncing as if I was being fucked by one lover after another.

My first orgasm of the day struck as I imagined one of my lovers starting to cum in me, my fingers pushed hard up inside of me as I imagined they were his stiff dick as it released its load of hot cum deep inside of me. My groan would have easily been heard all through my hushed apartment as my orgasm began to fill my body with the most incredible sensations.

How can I really describe an orgasm to a man? It's like trying to describe a color to blind man. It's sort of like the feeling you get when a roller coaster goes over the top of the hill and begins to plunge downward. That momentary feeling you get as your car slides over the leak and suddenly drops out from under you, except in this situation that sensation kept going on and on and on. Oh god it felt so damn good! My left hand manipulated my clit as only a girl can do to herself, sustaining me on that razor sharp edge where my orgasm peaked, yet without driving me so far I would have to scream out as it overwhelmed me or worse, backing off too far to where it subsided before completely fulfilling me.

It's what I love about masturbation, that ability to know exactly what you need at each instant, to keep yourself cumming and cumming and cumming! Thus as much as I love to be licked and touched by other people, when it comes to making me cum, it's pretty hard to beat my own two hands - if all I want is to feel good in a purely physical manner. Overall, however, masturbation can never replace the overall experience of being fucked. It doesn't matter that no man can make me cum by touching me as well as I can do it myself, that's not the point when you're having sex with someone.

Nothing can make me feel as complete as to be fucked by a man. It doesn't matter that the physical aspect isn't 100% as the emotional side of sex is 80% of the experience and thus easily outweighs anything I may "lose" by having someone else playing with my pussy. To sum it up, I masturbate to make myself feel good but I need sex to feel fulfilled as a woman.

After what seemed to be an eternity, I finally was so exhausted I had to stop. My bare ass crashed to the bed and my feet slipped out in front of me, leaving me lying in bed with both hands firmly cupped over my pussy, which was throbbing like a finger that had just been smashed - but with pure bliss instead of pain. Just the steady pressure of my palm against my crotch was enough to stimulate me at this point and my legs would periodically jerk involuntarily as a random bolt of sexual electricity would escape from between my legs.

Exhausted, I was panting, feeling hot and sweaty from my exertions. The afterglow of my orgasm continued to fill me, keeping my nipples hard and pointed. I could only imagine how flushed I was, my face and chest most likely beet red as if I'd just run a marathon. My eyes were shut but I wasn't about to fall asleep, not in a million years feeling as I did now.

I turned on my side and wedged my hands even tighter into my warm crotch as my legs curled into a fetal position. My chest felt like it would be burst as all I could think about was how badly needed to be fucked!. Oh god, I wanted a stiff dick inside of me SO bad right at that moment. If my doorbell had rung right then and a guy was outside, I would have run to the door, thrown it open and all but raped him right in the hallway where he stood. It didn't matter who it was attached to, if it was hard and warm, I would have let anyone fuck me at that moment.

Indeed, it was times just like this when I wondered what was keeping me from letting a guy move in with me. Certainly I had plenty of options available should I ever lean towards that direction. Imagine how wonderful it would be right now to have just masturbated while he was sleeping nude next to me and now that I was as hot and horny as a girl could be, to turn to him and take his soft dick, sucking on it as he slept and feeling it grow in my mouth.

Once I had him good and hard, I would mount him, taking him inside of my hungry pussy as he woke up slowly from a deep sleep, surprised to find his dick inside of me as I bounced on his stiff rod. Oh my god, what I would give to do that right now! Later, when my mind was more rational, I would ask myself if it worth the aggravation of a roommate just to get laid every morning. Now THAT was a serious question! So far, I just lived with things as they are.

Had Mother Nature not intruded, I might have laid there all morning, masturbating for hours. Damn, suddenly I felt the urge to piss so badly! Reluctantly, I rolled off my bed, quickly threw on a robe, and somehow made my way to the bathroom. Looking in the mirror, God, I looked like a wreck! My hair was totally disheveled and my face was puffy and covered with red blotches. All I could do was shake my head and mumble to myself, thinking maybe it was a good thing I did NOT have a roommate who would see me looking this way so early in the day. Why is it that in all the romance movies the girl wakes up with full makeup and her hair perfect, her breath smelling like mint and not a wrinkle or crease line anywhere on her anywhere? As sweaty as I was, a shower was definitely in order this morning.

One of the first things I'd done when I moved in my apartment was to go out and buy myself a good shower massager. I laughed when I was at the store looking at them. The aisle should have been labeled, "Girl Toys for Showers". It's not like anyone is fooled as to the real reason people buy these things! I mean let's be real - is there ANYONE who needs all those settings and the flexible hose to simply take a shower?

While I'm on the topic, why not just put on the label, "Includes hose long enough to reach all those hard-to-get places between your legs." Perhaps the manufacturers could mark the settings as "instant orgasm", "slow boil" and "pussy-pounder" while they are at it.

My own shower massager didn't have all that many settings, but plenty for my needs. I guess they are sort of like dish washers that come with 15 different modes but then most women only use one or maybe two of them. Mine has the basic hard spray, plus the soft fountain with the pulsating massage as my usual favorite but that also depended on my mood for the day.

Today was definitely a "fountain" day. As horny as I was and as sensitive as my clit was even after having rested for quite a while after my orgasm, I didn't need anything too heavy in the stimulation department. The soft spray felt just right against me as I held it a few inches from my crotch, the hot water flooding over me like the tongue of a perfect lover, except this one never tired or had to come up for air!

My knees suddenly felt weak and I had to hold myself up by grabbing onto the bar on the side of the shower as my second orgasm began to boil up within my inner caldron. It wasn't so much as it seemed to be concentrated in any one area but rather it was my entire body reacting to the stimulus between my legs. Every cell in me seemed to working in unison as my second orgasm of the day ripped through me.

This time it was more like a hammer striking me in the sudden way it struck me. For a moment I thought I might pass out as my vision narrowed and I found it hard to breath, like some alien was trying to break out from inside of me. Even my wet hair seemed to sizzle like it was being hit with an electric shock. My thighs tightened and my knees buckled as I dropped to the bathtub matt on my knees, unable to stand anymore.

Despite everything, I never let the flood of water cease against me. It was like the most incredible lure had been put in front of me and now that I had taken it hook, line, and sinker I couldn't release myself from it. It was like I had grabbed an electric cord and was unable to let go once my body was wracked with the jolt of electricity.

Finally the shower massager simply dropped from my hands, spraying water everywhere as I struggled to run off the water before it made a mess of the entire bathroom. My legs were so weak that it took every bit of willpower I could muster just to stand up and get out of the bathtub on my own. Feeling myself about to collapse, I sat down on the toilet seat, my elbows on my knees as I leaned forward and just closed my eyes, my pussy still throbbing and pulsating uncontrollably. Damn, I must have REALLY been horny this morning to have cum this hard twice - before I'd even brushed my teeth!

Eventually things calmed down and I was able to attend to the rest of my morning toiletry duties. I didn't bother with makeup yet as I wasn't planning to go anywhere and I would just have to redo it anyway before I went out tonight. Grabbing clean a t-shirt from the second drawer of my dresser, I pulled it over me until it was just covering over my bare ass. Like the makeup, a pair of panties or a thong was just unnecessary claptrap when it came to hanging around the apartment. A terry robe was hung over the back of a chair by the door that I could throw over me should anyone come to the door but that almost never happened.

Not surprisingly, I guess, most people who write me tell me that I should run around naked but what is the sense in that? Maybe it's because I never did such a thing growing up so why start now. Besides, it just seems more hygienic to be wearing at least SOMETHING around the apartment.

Looking at the clock next to my bed, I was shocked to see that it was almost noon already. Damn, how time flies when you're having fun! With nothing else planned for the day, I spent the afternoon catching up on some movies and shows I'd taped during the week on my DVR, caught up on a few e-mails, and even chatted a little bit. The chatting part didn't last long as I quickly tired of the constant barrage of perverts who wanted me to cyber with them and give them a free nude cam show. E-mail is easier for me than chatting as I can just hit delete or spam and don't waste any time with the people who have nothing to say and seem to think I exist to be their personal source of amusement.

After some leftovers it was time to get ready for the party. Wanda had told me to dress casual - if anything to NOT dress slutty so as not to draw attention to myself as I went into the house from the street. Apparently she didn't want the neighbors to think some hooker was coming to the party!

Keeping it simple, I just threw on some jeans and a sweatshirt along with a pair of warm boots. The heavy sweatshirt was loose and felt good rubbing on my bare nipples while the jeans were just tight enough to stimulate me if I crossed my legs without making too much of a camel toe in the process. My freshly shaved pussy felt smooth against the denim and for a moment it was tempting to take them off but I had a schedule to keep and there would be plenty of time when I got back home to do that.

3. Modeling at the Party

It was only a few miles to the address Wanda had given me. The house was in a neighborhood I'd never been in before, nothing TOO outrageous but still some very nice homes. I parked a few doors down to leave room for the women who would be arriving soon and knocked on the front door, ignoring the doorbell for some reason or another. A sharply dressed blonde woman who looked to be in her mid-thirties answered the door.

"Hi!" she greeted me warmly, "You must be Kelly, Wanda's model? Come on in and get out of the cold. I'm Barbara but you can call me Barb."

Feeling suddenly a little apprehensive, I just smiled and responded with some automatic reply. God, what was with me anyway? There was really nothing to be up-tight over. Sheesh, compared to some of the parties I'd done in the past, this should be a piece of cake! Yet for whatever reason I was feeling like a girl on her first date!

Barbara took my coat and then led me upstairs to what seemed to be the master bedroom where I found Wanda already there, laying out her wares. The bed was covered with various shapes and colors of dildos and vibrators. A clothing rack was set up with an array of lingerie hanging from it. None of it looked like much of what you see at Macy's, that was for sure. Wanda looked up, saw it was me, and came over to give me a quick hug while Barbara quickly left to tend to her party preparations.

"Hey girl, you're looking good tonight," she greeted me, "Why don't you get undressed? There's a robe over there you can put on."

She turned back to her things and I wasn't sure she even heard my quiet "OK" or something to that affect. There wasn't anything else to say or do so I quickly stripped down, laying my clothes over a chair in the corner of the room. Wanda hardly even glanced at me as I stood there naked for a moment before wrapping the robe around me. I guess you could call it a robe, that is. It was barely long enough to cover my ass and only did that if I was standing straight up. Oh well, I guess it wasn't going to be on me too much anyway.

"Hmmm, you're just a little taller than I had thought," Barbara mused as her eyes evidently judged my height from how far the robe covered my butt. "I never did ask you your sizes but there shouldn't be a problem. Most of this stuff claims to be "one size fits all" and besides, I don't think anyone's going to notice if they are too small or tight anyway?" she laughed.

(Mental note to Kelly - check out health club memberships, the nice lady more or less implied you were a little heavy!)

"OK, so here's how it goes.... I've hung up the outfits in the order we'll be showing them along with a picture of the toys associated with that outfit, if there is one. All you have to do it change into the outfit, bring down the toy, and model it in front of them. Remember, no table dancing or anything too overt, just work the room like you were modeling swimwear or something."

"Ummmmm," I hesitated, not sure how to ask the question but finally deciding just to get it out and over with, "How do you want me to model? I mean, do I leave the outfits on, take them off, open anything up, you know what I mean?"

Wanda immediately shook her head as she replied. "Oh no, nothing like that. Just leave everything in place and turn around and let them see how it looks on you. Don't bend over or anything slutty like that. It's just a bunch of neighbor women, not a group of horny men. The idea is to let them see what the outfit looks like on a real girl instead of some Victoria Secret model."

Something about that last comment could have hit me wrong but I let it slide. After all, I would be the first to admit that if there was one thing I did NOT have, it was a body that would model for something like Victoria Secret. At the same time, what girl likes to hear someone TELLING her that!

"OK, that's cool... so what do I do with the toys? Do you want me to actually use them?"

"Oh heavens no!" she gasped, shaking her head furiously, "Nothing like that at all. Don't put anything inside your panties, not even your hand, and NOTHING goes inside of you - is that clear? I mean, you can rub yourself THROUGH the panties a bit, but don't get carried away. Crap, the LAST thing I want is for you to start masturbating in front of them - got it?"

I guess that I knew that was what she would say that but I wanted to hear it anyway just in case. In a way, it was a little disappointing. Can you b lame me for wondering what some up-tight soccer mom with a little too much wine might do if I actually DID masturbate right in front of her?

By now I had the first outfit on. It was a simple stretch white lace and chiffon baby doll with a matching thong. Actually, it covered me a lot more than most of my swim suits did - or any other girl's suit at the pool these days. Unfortunately, my summer tan was pretty much gone or else I think it would have looked even better on me. The top was fairly opaque and hid the color of my nipples, while allowing them to poke through. From there down, it was sheer which allowed the thong to be clearly visible. It was also more conservative than most I'd worn, covering me completely in front and even part of my ass in back. Evidently Wanda didn't want to start with anything TOO wild, maybe to give the women time to down a few drinks and get more comfortable and relaxed.

"Looking good girl," Wanda commented, nodding her approval. "OK... I have to go get things set up downstairs so you can just wait up here. Someone will come get you when you're needed."

With that she grabbed a few things and then left, closing the bedroom door behind her. In the silence I could hear people gathering downstairs and wondered how many women there would be. I wondered what Barbara's husband was doing tonight. There was a large portrait of them on the wall and various photos of them and their kids on the dresser and nightstand next to the bed. Indeed, they made a good-looking pair with the standard son and daughter who poked to be maybe six to eight years old. It was a pretty safe bet the kids didn't know what mommy was doing tonight but at the same time I would have also bet that her hubby wouldn't have minded staying home tonight!

For a brief moment a fantasy of him coming into the bedroom, not knowing I was waiting in there, came to mind but the door remained closed as I sat on the edge of bed and looked over the various toys.

Most of the toys I'd seen on the website or in the catalog. A few were even in mom's personal collection. Dang, some of them had better have instruction books as they actually appeared quite complicated! I picked up a couple of vibrators and checked them out to see if they worked. The loud buzzing confirmed they were operational and while I was tempted briefly to give a few a try, the last thing I needed was to be in the middle of masturbating when Wanda was ready for me to model for her! My mind was distracted such that when the door to the bedroom suddenly opened, I jumped like a kid caught with her hand in the cookie jar. I turned to see Barbara smiling at me.

"I guess we're ready for you dear," she said, her eyes widening as she saw me more clearly, "My, you look really nice on that outfit."

I grinned and shrugged my shoulders as if it was nothing and followed her down the stairs, being careful not to stumble in the process. Four-inch heels may not be that big a deal for some girls, but trying to walk down a flight of wooden stairs in them would challenge most women I think, especially when your mind is so distracted. Still, I made it down without killing myself and stepped into the living room.

"And hereeeeeeee she is!" Barbara announced as we entered the room.

I immediately noticed the curtains had all been pulled shut so at least I wouldn't be putting on a show for the whole neighborhood. My eyes quickly took in the scene. First, there weren't as many people as I was expecting, only six women besides Wanda and Barbara. Wanda had mentioned more like a dozen were expected so evidently a few either couldn't make it or had second doubts about coming. They were spread out around the room with three on the couch, two on a love seat, another on an overstuffed chair with Barbara taking another chair. Wanda had a small table set up with a silk tablecloth covering it and various toys laid out like some sort of garage sale. She was dressed quite conservatively in a pant suit with a scarf and lots of gold jewelry - more than I cared for.

"OK girls, I want you all to meet my new model Kelly. This is her first time working for me so be nice!"

It was an interesting mix of reactions. All of the women looked roughly to be around the same age, maybe within a range of late twenties to mid-thirties. A quick glance at their hands told me they were all married but one and interestingly, she looked to be the oldest. They were dressed casually, nothing special, mostly jeans and pants although a couple had skirts which more than covered their knees. None of them appeared to be trying to send any sort of "message" that they might be looking for anything sexual, if anything quite the opposite. Heck, if it wasn't for Wanda and her merchandise, I could have been at an Avon party or something!

I did my best to smile and be sociable as I stepped into the room in nothing but heels and lingerie. I walked around, turning slowly and getting within a foot or two of each of them. It was like a school dance back in seventh grade where the boys and girls were looking at each other but neither would come close to the other. To be honest, it wasn't a turn-on for me and if anything, I felt a little out of place.

Wanda described the outfit, the various options and colors and a quick mention of the price which made me gasp before I caught myself. God, I hadn't realized her prices were so high! Well, I guess they would be paying not just for the lingerie but for the party and show as well. After she was done she made a comment about me going to get the next outfit on, which I took as a hint to leave and change.

Back in the bedroom, I sucked in a deep breath, puffed my cheeks, and then exhaled long and slow, hoping that nobody could hear me. Damn, this was like nothing I had ever done before. Normally, when I wore such an outfit, I had to fight off the groping hands from the crowd while listening to obscene comments about me and what they wanted to do to me. To be honest, at this moment I think I would have preferred the leering men to the funeral-like silence that had greeted me with the first outfit. I was just praying that I wasn't disappointing Wanda.

The second outfit was a satin soft cup slip with lace trim on bust. It featured a ruffled satin hem and included a matching thong. The slip was dark and so sheer that for all practical purposes I was nude. The thong didn't hide a thing, leaving my ass bare and on full display as the back narrowed between my cheeks into this thin strip. This time the outfit has a picture attached for what it called a "Rabbit". The catalog photo included a description which read:

"Rotating pearls stimulate the vaginal opening and the handy multi-speed control allows you to select the intensity of the vibrating, tickling ears. Let your Rabbit lead you to orgasmic bliss. 7 1/4" length, 1 1/2" diameter. Three C batteries required."

With that much battery power, the battery pack it was a little heavy and I bet the cord was a pain in the neck but it wasn't like I had to actually USE the thing. Compared to the other toys on the bed, it was average sized and fairly plain. Evidently Wanda wanted to start off simple.

Once I was ready I assumed that I should head back downstairs so off I went. This time I got a little more reaction from the peanut gallery. Several of them gasped noticeably and all eyes were fixed on me as I walked in slowly - strutted in might be a better description. It was then they noticed I was holding something in my hand and several little giggles could heard easily. Wanda went into her routine, describing the outfit and then she commented on what was in my hand.

"You may have noticed, girls, that this time Kelly had brought with her a simple, but effective toy. Nothing fancy but just the thing for those nights when you just need a little pick-me up... right Kelly?"

She looked at me expectedly and I was wondering exactly what she was expecting me to do. Well, evidently more than just holding it so I stood off to the side where they all could see me started to rub myself with the tip of it through the sheer panties. I looked at Wanda and she just smiled at me, nodding slightly to show me her approval.

The other women varied in the responses. A couple of them couldn't look my way and seemed to have a sudden fixation on one of the paintings on the opposite wall. A couple of others were watching me but yet at the same time, trying to appear as if they weren't REALLY watching. The rest seemed interested in what I was doing, some of them even glancing back and forth at each other like little girls in school sharing a dirty little secret.

The tip of the dildo was pressed against my pussy but it wasn't anything like what I'd felt earlier in the morning when my finger first touched me after I woke up. Sure it felt good, but nothing that was going to set me off, that was for sure.

My next outfit was more elaborate, a three piece set. It consisted of a floral tapestry underwire bra with adjustable straps and lace trim and hook and eye back closure. The waist cincher had boning and Velcro closure with a satin bow. As with most of the outfits, a matching bottom was included - this time a g- string that left absolutely nothing to the imagination.

Along with it Wanda had paired a "Jelly Osaki". The description read, "Caution! This kind of dual action is very addictive. Enjoy double pleasure as the vibrating shaft rotates deep inside and the exquisite tongue teases your clitoris. You control each feature and your orgasm. 8" length, 1-3/8" diameter. Three AA batteries required." It looked interesting but I had taken longer than before to get ready so I hurried downstairs.

By now the girls had been through their first glass of wine - or two in some cases it appeared. Inhibitions were starting to break down and they talked more as I displayed the outfit for them. Most of it was teasing each other about how their husbands would love to see them in the outfit or how the toy would feel when their husband was away on business, that sort of thing. None of the comments were about me in particular. They all giggled like school girls when I turned it on and the tip of the toy spun around like some nasty alien cock.

As the night wore on, everyone became more comfortable and I went through maybe another dozen outfits or so. There was a satin and lace underwire bra w/ satin ribbon detail that I would have liked to have kept for myself. There was a lace corset with underwire pushup bra that had metal closures along center front with a lace up back closure that seemed to appeal more to the dominatrix personalities. For fun, I enjoyed showing off a sheer embroidered soft cup triangle bra with adjustable bra straps and matching boy short panties. Then there were the inevitable open bra with matching crotch-less panties. The one that got the most giggles, though, was the classic schoolgirl outfit - a two- piece costume that included a light blue pleated mini skirt with a naughty short sleeve tie front top.

As for the toys, they were as varied as the outfits, There was the more basic "Jelly Cliterrific" which was a surprisingly life-like vibrator followed by the "Loving Spoon" which was primarily a clitoral stimulator with a bendable. The "Chocolate Thriller" was a blatant stereotype of a black dick, a thick and generous vibe that was nine inches long, with lifelike veins and a soft jelly chocolate brown cover. I thought it was a little creepy but it got a stir from the ladies. The "Double Delight" reminded me one of the few toys I owned myself. It was soft-to-the-touch that was flexible enough to bend completely in half. I guess for some women they would use to do a DP on themselves but I preferred to use mine together with a friend.

I was half-hoping that I would get to demonstrate that with one of the women but Wanda kept a tight rein on me. Somehow she seemed to sense that this one in particular was appealing to me and she gave me a warning eye to behave myself! I was most intrigued by the "Pleasure Pods". They were made of silicone for a supposed soft, natural feel. The pods were designed to be insert in the vagina to provide pleasurable sensations while exercising your PC muscles. What got me interested was the description said that the Pods could be worn during everyday activities and were easily retrieved. I was definitely going to have to talk to Wanda to see if I qualified for an employee discount!

As the evening started to come to an end, the wine was flowing and the women were becoming even more comfortable with the situation, talking non-stop now when I was in the room and even making more personal comments about me as well as the outfit. Things finally seemed to break completely when I came down in the last "outfit" - wearing nothing but a thin black thong leaving me totally topless. OK, so did this really qualify as lingerie? Upstairs I'd checked the hangar and the ones next to it to be sure but it was obvious that the only thing I was supposed to be wearing was this skimpy black thong. It was more like a few pieces of string with a small triangle that tried valiantly, but failed miserably, to cover my pussy.

This time I brought with me a monster vibrator-dildo combination. Called the "Pharaoh's Secret", it was touted as the perfect clitoral stimulator designed to send powerful pleasure to three different erogenous zones. It even had separate multi-speed controls that allowed you to customize the sensations. As I displayed it, Wanda revealed that the Pharaoh had a secret as well - a tiny- but-intense vibe located in the tip of the slender, flexible anal stimulator. The monster was over nine inches long and almost two inches in diameter.

Walking into the room this time, things were quite different than they had been just a few hours earlier. Just the number of open wine bottles should have been enough to tell anyone the state of mind most of them were in. It was all I could do to keep a straight face when I walked in and this time, instead of meeting a wall of silence like I had the first time, this time I was greeted with cheers and applause.

"Love the top!"

"Nice ass!"

"Oh my god, look what she bought this time!"

I felt more turned-on than I had all night this time as I walked among them with nothing on but my heels and a barely visible thong. After walking down the stairs and on into the room, the so-called thong had pulled up into my pussy, all but disappearing from sight. I teased them with the Pharaoh vibrator, holding it out for them and then pulling it away as they reached for it. As Wanda described the thong I was supposedly wearing, I ran the larger section of the vibrator between my boobs, turning it on so it gyrated obscenely between them. Well, I certainly had their full attention, that was for sure!

"Put it in!' one of the women suggested to me.

"Yeah, let's see it in action," another called out.

A couple of them were apparently more drunk than the others but a stern look from Wanda told me that no matter what they said, I was NOT to masturbate with it. Besides, it was clear that a couple of the women were a little less comfortable with what was turning into more of a sex show than a lingerie show. Still, it was the last outfit and toy for the night so Wanda seemed to be a little less worried about things.

"OK girls, can you imagine using that monster in bed tonight?" Wanda teased them, nodding her head at me and grinning.

I took the hint and pressed it between my legs, letting the vibrating head press against my exposed clit, running it up and down between my legs. I even dared to press it in just a little bit into my pussy this time. God, I was really getting horny now and it was all I could do to resist thrusting it up inside of me! Somehow I didn't think too many of the women would have minded if I had but Wanda broke in and said it was time for finish things up. She just winked at me and I knew she understood how horny I was. It was probably for the best but still, I had been watching a couple of the girls in particular who I think might have even helped me push it in!

"I think we better let Kelly go back upstairs and finish up, don't you girls agree?" Wanda teased them. Actually, that didn't sound like a bad idea to me. Besides, I wouldn't have minded if a couple of them had joined me!

Back in the bedroom, I closed the door and flopped back on the bed, clutching the Pharaoh dildo to my chest. I held it up and turned it on. Crap, it was truly obscene! The more I watched, the more I started to wonder what it would feel like. Wanda would undoubtedly be busy for a while closing out the party and taking orders. What would it hurt?

I actually had to think for a moment as to how I was going to use the damn thing. Finally I decided there was really no other way than to put it in both holes at the same time. Now mind you, anal sex is NOT something I normally care for and while I have fondled my ass a few times in the shower, the only time I have been fucked in the rear has been at parties where things have gotten out of hand. It's not so much I don't like the feeling, it really doesn't hurt so long as I'm lubricated properly. There's just something about knowing it's in my ASS that turns me off. It's much the same as I feel about sex with dogs. The one time I did it I have to admit I enjoyed the experience but now the thought of it grosses me out because I can't get past the idea that it is a DOG that was fucking me. So it is with anal sex. I probably could enjoy the sensations it gives me but the thought of what is happening just overwhelms any sensuality I might feel about it.

I noticed that Barbara had some lotion on her dresser which I used to get the dildo ready. Laying on my back on the bed, I put a pillow under my ass so my pussy and butt were up in the air. Positioning the dildo with one end at the entrance to my pussy and the other at my asshole, I took a deep breath and started to push it into me. For the moment I had it turned off so it was just like trying to ram any regular dildo up into me, except I'd never done it in my ass at the same time! My pussy was more than a little excited from the events of the evening. Even if the women hadn't been as outgoing as their husbands may have been, it still had turned into a fun experience by the end. I couldn't help but wonder what might have happened if after another bottle of wine if I showed nude and actually used one of the toys!

A gasp slipped from my mouth as the head of the dildo forced its way into my tight ass and began to slip into me. At the same time, the one in my pussy was now a couple of inches in and soon they both were in me most of the way. Now I had to pause for a moment to gather my senses as I worked up the courage to turn it on. Damn, even with them sitting still in me it was enough to drive me crazy! I wiggled it just a little and it felt positively weird to feel both my ass and my pussy respond. Throwing caution to the wind, I turned on the switch, making sure the dials were all set to their lowest settings.

OMG... OMG!

A load groan erupted from me as I felt the strangest feeling I've ever experienced down there. Talk about holy crap! The one in my pussy was rotating, like some monster finger was me and exploring all around my insides. The one in my ass didn't move but the vibration at the tip made me almost jump off the bed. What REALLY set me off was the little extension on top that had been pressing on my clit but until now, been rather still and innocuous. It started vibrating as well and my clit literally erupted in response. What the heck, I turned the knob up another notch and I couldn't help but cry out. This was insane, crazy, unimaginable. My clit loved the buzz but it was the way the one in my pussy was wiggling around that was really making me squirm. I felt like a monstrous worm was in me, wiggling around like it was trying to find its way out.

As for the one in my ass, it was just weird feeling, what more can I say? I'd never had a vibrator up my ass before and to feel it buzzing away deep up my asshole had to rank up there with the most bizarre sensations imaginable. Unless you've had one up your ass, I don't know how I can describe it to anyone.

Feeling wonderful I just laid back, my ass propped up on the pillow, not even moving but instead letting the toy do all the work. Frankly, I was afraid to take the setting to the highest level. That damn worm was already going crazy in my pussy – would it rip me up inside? The one in my ass was, well I don't have words to describe it. Another level up and I didn't how I might respond. Damn, would it even maybe make me shit?

As far as I was concerned, things were perfect as they were so I just closed my eyes and let the waves of pleasure and lust roll over me like breakers crashing on the beach. What I REALLY wanted was to cum. Hell, it was beyond wanting, I NEEDED to cum. As I held onto it with both hands, letting the motion and vibrations do to me what they would, I imagined myself downstairs, laying in the middle of the living room while the women all watched me, driving myself almost insane with pleasure right in front of them. In my heated imagination, they were undressing and playing with themselves as they watched me, all of us masturbating and fucking ourselves in one big lesbian group.

"Oh fuck!" I cried out, my eyes clenched tightly closed. My hips rose up almost like I was having some sort of spasm. Finally I was cumming. Fuck was I ever cumming!

"OH MY GOD!" I all but screamed out, trying to control myself but it was a losing battle.

My body was taking over, forcing my conscious mind to relinquish control as my orgasm wracked my body. It was like I just wanted it so badly, needed it so much, that it was making sure I couldn't somehow stop myself from finishing what I had started.

I tried to open my eyes but it was like the room was spinning in circles, everything out of focus, so I closed them again. I couldn't hear anything but my own cries of pleasure, my panting breath, the pounding of my ass on the bed as I humped this imaginary monster cock that was violating me every which way imaginable.

"Ohhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh!" was all I could get out as I collapsed on the bed. Somehow I managed to turn the damn thing off but it remained shoved deep inside of me.

My chest hurt as I couldn't hardly breath, my pulse racing like I'd just run a mile. My pussy was positively THROBBING, like another heart had suddenly appeared and was beating a mile a minute expect instead of pumping blood, it was sending the most incredibly pleasurable elixir imaginable throughout my entire body. To think that I had thought my earlier orgasms had been great today. Hell, those were nothing compared to what I had just done to myself.

"OK girls, now that you've seen how well it works, how many should I order?"

What the hell? Somehow I managed to turn my head and squinted at the door. As my eyes gradually focused, I realized that Wanda was there along with Barbara and several of the girls from the party. Damn, how long had they been watching? What had they seen? Evidently quite a bit from the look on their faces.

"Well, didn't I say that thing works great or what?" Wanda exclaimed, ever the sales lady, "I have enough with me for each of you to have your own if you want to cum like THAT tonight yourself."

So that was it, she had sneaked them up hoping I would do exactly what I had done. She had seen how worked up I was during my last showing and undoubtedly knew I wouldn't be able to resist pleasuring myself when I was alone in the bedroom. Again, I wondered how much they had seen? Despite my curiously, I couldn't say anything or respond to them at all before they left to go back to the living room. Wanda was the last to leave and she just winked and gave me a thumbs up.

My head sank back onto the bed behind me and I just laid there, motionless with the dildo still stuck up my ass and pussy. It was like I had been totally drained, like I had just worked out at the gym and was completely worn out. Reaching down, I pulled the Pharaoh out of me and as it slid out, I practically cried out again as it stimulated me. God, it was like my entire body was sensitized to where the slightest touch was enough to make me jump. I put my arms up over my head, stretching out over the bed, trying to motivate myself to get up and get dressed but it was like I was glued to the bed, unable to move. My pussy was still throbbing but I didn't dare touch it again as I knew I would not be able to control myself and I really didn't know if I could handle another orgasm in the state I was in.

"You were great Kelly, that was a record show for me!"

Wanda was back in the room and talking before I even realized the bedroom door had opened. Somehow I managed to sit up on the edge of the bed and tried to straighten out my hair with my fingers. My head till felt a little dizzy and I wasn't sure I trusted myself to stand up yet.

"Wow, so you really did cum that hard, didn't you? I was wondering if it was just a show for the girls."

I shook my head and mumbled something about not knowing they were watching.

"Well, I can tell you this, I sold more Pharaohs tonight than I have in the last three parties combined. You put on quite a show for them. Normally I wouldn't have wanted that sort of thing but under the circumstances, I guess it was OK. Hell, you had ME wanting to try one out!"

I grinned, my head clearing up more now. "Yeah, it really was something different, I can say that much for sure!"

Wanda reached over to where I had left the incredible dildo. She reached out and handed it to me.

"Here, you earned this tonight!"

I didn't protest, not one bit, not even to be a little polite. For a girl who normally wasn't into the toy scene all that much, I was in love! Yep, this baby was going to get a workout. I suppose I had better but some rechargeable batteries or I would be spending a fortune on Duracell's soon.

As I dressed, Wanda told me she was thrilled with me and hoped we could work together as partners in the future. She even offered to work out a deal where I could split her commissions rather than just working for a base salary.

As I left for my apartment, Barbara gave me a hug and thanked me for "everything you did tonight". She seemed like she was going to say something more to me but at the last minute either changed her mind or I was just reading her wrong as she just opened the door for me and let me out. I looked back and again, got the eerie feeling that she wanted to say something but I just waved and headed back home. Me and the Pharaoh had some business to take care of when I got back!

(Nov 09) Chapter 174: Desperate Housewife

Story codes: MF exhib oral adultery
Me (23)
Barbara
Joel - Barbara's husband

After my first lingerie party, the hostess seemed to want to say something to me but she ended up just saying goodbye. Thus I was a bit surprised when she called me a couple days later and even MORE so when she told me what she wanted. Did she really believe that presenting a slut to her husband would save her marriage? Disclaimer: I've always said that my diary is not a reflection of my everyday life, but rather more like a "highlights reel". That is especially true with regards to this story. The reason I wrote about it is because it was something unique, NOT because it was something that typically happens. I do a lot of parties and this was the only one where this type of thing happened as a result.

1. A Strange Proposal

"Is this Kelly?"

The voice on the phone sounded familiar so I answered, "Yes, this is she."

"Ummmmm, this is Barbara, remember me from the party you and Wanda did at my house this past weekend?"

Of course, now I remembered where I'd heard that voice. Just a few days ago I'd modeled for my first lingerie/toy show at her house. Suddenly an image flashed before me of the look on her face as I was leaving, as if there was something she wanted to say to me but then at the last minute changed her mind. Was this call somehow related to that?

"Oh hi Barbara, is there something I can do for you?"

There was a silence on the phone and again, I could picture that face from a few days ago, almost desperate to say something but then failing to find the courage. Was she going to back down again? I waited patiently on the phone for her to answer.

"I don't know how else to say this so I guess I'll just come right out and ask... Will you fuck my husband?"

*********************

Note to Readers: In case you haven't read what I wrote about the events of a few days ago, a quick summary but for the complete details, see my diary entry for (Nov 01) Chapter 173: Passion Party. Due to some personal issues, I'm no longer teaching or living at home or engaged. Not that these changes are necessarily due to the same reasons, they just happened to all fall on my lap at the same time. To make ends meet, I decided to return to a variation of the escorting work I use to do, except in this case the focus would be on home parties and groups, no single dates or hotel rooms or that sort of thing. Indeed, actual sex was something I really didn't want to get involved in - at least so far as my work was concerned.

If there is one thing I decided to be firm about from the start, it was that I will NEVER do anything one-on-one for money. I am not a whore or a prostitute (as if there is a difference). Everything I do is to take place in a main room with everyone present. None of this disappearing into the back bedroom for a private fuck crap. There are plenty of girls out there (like my cousin) who are available if that's what they want - and I've actually called Kristen while at a party to come and help out (she DID give me a cut as well!).

*********************

So anyway, my mind was racing at this "shot from the blue" question from Barbara. What seemed like a dozen scenarios flashed though my head in a matter of seconds as I tried to think of some snappy response or witty retort. Instead, I stalled for time.

"Uh, exactly what do you mean Barbara?"

"Ok... my husband and I have been having a rough time for quite a while but lately it's been really bad. I'm afraid he's going to have an affair or even divorce me unless I do something drastic. Sorry if I offended you, but I just assumed you were THAT sort of girl after what you did at the party."

I smiled to myself at her assumption. Of course in her mind I suppose any girl that would display her all but nude body to a bunch of women and then masturbate on her bed while being watched (even though I wasn't aware of it at the time) simply HAD to be a whore. Well news flash! There's a BIG difference between showing yourself off and letting strangers have their way with you for money. I may be a slut, and proud of it, but I am not a whore.

"I'm sorry Barbara, I'm not a prostitute," I finally managed to say, "Now if you need one, I can get you in touch with someone that might be able to help you."

Thoughts of my cousin Kristen were running through my mind. Indeed, this sounded like one of those cases where her unique "talents" would probably come in handy.

"Oh no, that's not what I meant," she said, her voice sounding like it was about to crack any moment. "Look, this isn't coming out the way I meant. Could you stop by the house and talk with me about this for a few minutes?"

My first instinct was to politely refuse but I had to admit, my curiosity was going wild. Of course, we all know what curiosity did to the cat. Still, what could it hurt to just talk to her about it? So in the end I agreed and said I'd be over in about an hour. Since it was only about a fifteen minute drive to her house, that gave me some time to straighten myself up and look decent. One of these days I'll have to break a bad habit of not getting myself dressed or made up until I'm ready to go out for the day, which sometimes never happens before I need to go to bed again!

I quickly showered and put on a little makeup, not like I was going out on a date or whatever, but enough to cover up a few blemishes and make myself presentable. A pair of faded jeans and a well-worn college sweatshirt was all I decided to wear. After all, it wasn't like I was going over there to seduce her or even turn her on. Even so, it was enough that I was about five minutes late when I pulled up to the curb in front of her house.

Knocking on the front door for the second time in a matter of days (why couldn't I ring her doorbell again this time?), Barbara opened it almost as soon as my hand struck the knocker the first time. She invited me in and I followed her back into the living room.

The living room looked different today than it had last Saturday evening. For one, the curtains were pulled back so the room was flooded with sunlight, making it a lot brighter and more cheerful. The room was mostly empty and the house was deathly quiet, unlike Saturday night when a half dozen housewives were packed in the room.

Barbara motioned for me to take a seat on the couch as she pulled up a chair to sit opposite from me. She was dressed in an outfit as if she was about to leave for the gym or something, her hair pulled back in to a ponytail and sneakers on her feet.

She was nervous though, her hands clenched tightly together and actually on second thought, she looked more scared than anything.

"The kids will be home from school soon so I wanted to see you before they got here and wondered who you were," Barbara said, as if she needed to explain why the house was so quiet.

I sat there quietly, not sure what I should say. After a long, rather tense pause, she continued.

"You know, I really can't believe I said what I did on the phone to you... you must think I'm crazy or something even worse."

I assured her I did not think any such thing, even though the thought HAD crossed my mind a few times. It's not like my phone rings up every day with some older woman asking me if I would fuck her husband..

"You see, Joel and I have been married for almost ten years now. Everyone knows we have the two kids, Connie's seven and Kevin is six, but not many people know I was three months pregnant when we were married. Joel wasn't thrilled to marry me, but he came from a family where honor and responsibility were important so he married me because it was the right thing to do. Unfortunately, I miscarried and lost the baby only a couple of weeks after the marriage. At first I was terrified that that Joel would want to annul the marriage but he was too proud and didn't want to embarrass himself any further in front of his family. As you can probably imagine, we didn't exactly get off to a grand start and things have never really been all that great. Then Connie arrived, followed by Kevin, and it was like we were stuck - we HAD to stay married."

By now it was all I could do to keep from rolling my eyes at this little soap opera monologue. Like, so what? Good grief, how many other girls got married because they were pregnant and then had to live with the consequences? Did she think that made her special? In any case, what did it have to do with me? Why was she suddenly spilling her guts to a total stranger as if I were her therapist? She and I had hardly spoken two words together during the party and now here she was, confiding in me like her long lost BFF. It just wasn't making any sense to me.

"So anyway," she continued, as if now that she had opened the floodgates it all had to come out, "Lately it seems Joel just finds fault in everything I do - even more than usual. He snaps at the kids and stays out late. We haven't had sex in months but I see things on his computer and phone and I know he is looking at porn, chatting with girls and god only knows what else."

Again, so what? Did she have any idea how many guys write to me and chat to me about doing exactly what she was describing? While a few have them have confessed to cheating, most of them rationalize that they use porn as an outlet so they will NOT cheat on their wives. If you were to ask me, Joel sounded like just another husband trapped in a loveless marriage with a woman he hated, and reacting to the stress like most men would. Enough was enough. I was trying to find some polite way to excuse myself from the crazy woman when she came to the meat of the matter.

"OK, I can see you don't understand so let me try to explain what I want. Last week he forgot to close out his private e-mail and so I got to read some of his chats and stuff. Oh Kelly, I think he is thinking about cheating on me with some slutty college girl. But you know what really shocked? She asked if he wanted his wife to watch and he said yes! He told her he wanted me to see him fuck another girl so I would see how much it turned him on and what I should be doing to meet his needs. Apparently I don't do sex 'right', whatever that means."

I was starting to see where this was heading. On the one hand, it made me all the more determined to get out before I got myself involved in something that was becoming increasingly bizarre. On the other hand, I was more curious than ever. Was she really contemplating what I was starting to think she was? It was looking more and more like the answer was "yes".

"So let me guess... You want ME to be that college girl?" I asked, letting a note of incredulity sneak into my tone of voice. "And you want to watch your husband fuck me?"

Barbara just nodded, as if too embarrassed to confirm anything.

"You ARE kidding, right?" I couldn't help but ask. "Is this some form of practical joke my friends put you up to?" Indeed, it sounded exactly like something my best friend Beth would come up with. She was probably listening in somehow to the whole conversation!

Barbara buried her face in her hands and started to sob. Oh crap, what had I done now? I leaned forward and took her hands in mine.

"So you're really serious about this? No joke?"

Barbara nodded but she never made eye contact with me.

"Can I ask you a question Barb?"

She nodded almost imperceptibly so I continued on.

"Why do you think Joel doesn't feel like you meet his needs?"

As much as she had been crying and carrying on, her face darkened to an even deeper shade of red.

"There are things he wants me to do.... nasty things.... whorish things. I've never done them, not even before we got married."

Images of anal sex, BSDM, scat, K9 and other perversions danced in my head. I could only imagine what a husband hooked on porn might be lusting for in this day and age. Why do men think because some poor woman, perhaps desperate for cash or a safe place for her and her kids to live, does something really nasty for someone to show on the internet, that real women would ever do such things?

"I guess that I just don't understand how any decent woman can do such things... I mean, I just can't bring myself to touch his dick with my mouth. Even the thought of it is just SO disgusting. And if he ever came in my mouth I am sure I would vomit."

Oops, maybe I was being too hard on the hubby. Damn, she wouldn't even give her own husband a blowjob? What a bitch! Now I was really WAS ready to walk out. In my humble opinion, wives like Barbara deserved whatever it was their husbands are doing. For a wife to be unwilling to satisfy her husband in such a basic way was just... well stupid is the best word I can come up with.

Just as I was about to tell her off and storm out, I thought some more about it and the gears in my head were spinning in overdrive. Instead of telling her what I thought of her, maybe there was a better way to teach her a lesson. Frankly, I wasn't feeling sorry for her in the slightest any more. Sure, her wretched husband was probably a louse and poor excuse for a husband and father, but she certainly wasn't blameless.

"OK then Barb, just what is it that you want me to do?" I asked, trying to pin her down so it was all "her" idea and she couldn't blame me in the end. Personally, if she thought that having me fuck her husband was going to cure anything so far as her marriage was concerned, she was an idiot.

Barb drew in a breath and slowly exhaled, as if to calm her nerves enough to have the courage to spell it out for me.

"I want you to meet us in a hotel room where you will let my husband fuck you while I watch."

Well, there it was, straight to the point and out in the open. Only problem was, while it was stretching my "no one-on-one" rule a bit, there was the issue of my other rules, one of which stated that I would only have sex in the main area of a house. The reason for the "main area" stipulation was to keep myself surrounded by the group for my personal safety and security. With just the three of us, I guess it really didn't matter WHERE in the house things took place, even if it was their bedroom. The key element was I wanted it to be in their house, not some hotel room where god only knows what might happen.

"Well, I guess I'm OK with the idea... BUT it has to be here, not a hotel room."

Barb's eyes widened and for the first time in a while she looked me in the eyes.

"HERE??? Why does it have to be here? What about the kids?"

"If you want me to help, then it just has to be that way. You can send the kids to a babysitter or something, can't you?"

Barb's eyes narrowed as she seemed to be conducting a debate within herself. Finally she nodded and agreed saying, "OK, then it can be here but not in our bedroom."

"Why don't you leave the location in the house up to him?" I suggested, knowing that the bedroom was probably the most likely place her husband would want to fuck me. It was the place that meant the most to her so naturally he would pick it to embarrass and humiliate her as much as possible.

"So how do you want to work this out?" I prodded her. She misunderstood me. I was looking for what arrangements she wanted to make in terms of dates and times and such. She apparently thought I was negotiating rates.

"I don't know... what do girls like you charge these days?"

Well, THAT wasn't something I'd really thought about. Negotiating sex was something I preferred to leave until I was actually at that party, when the guys were all horny and begging me to fuck them at any price. To be honest, had she not mentioned anything about the price, I would've done it for free, just for the thrill of doing what I was thinking about doing with her and her husband. Had this been some bachelor party, no doubt the number would be followed by at least three zeros but I figured she wasn't going to have that sort of cash laying around and besides, as I said I was willing to do it for free so why fleece the idiot?

"How about $250?"

She agreed so quickly that I was left to wonder if maybe I hadn't been the one taken to the cleaners but then again, maybe she was just anxious to get past the negotiating phase.

"And when do you want to do this?"

She paused - I don't think she had really thought this through. From the look of panic, I suspected that deep inside, she had never really thought things would go this far and so the idea of when and how had never really been debated. My mind, which was probably several orders of magnitude naughtier than hers, came to the rescue with what I thought was a brilliant suggestion.

"Do you guys go to church regularly?" I asked. She nodded and told me the name of their church. I recognized the name as being a large Baptist church, not exactly what I would have picked for what I had planned given the choice but it would have to do.

For the next few minutes I carefully explained to her my idea as she just sat there, totally mesmerized. Her mouth was hanging open like a fish out of water as I went on about what I would do to her husband while she watched. It was funny in that she was already flabbergasted with my plans and yet she didn't know my true intentions. Once it seemed like we had made our plans I started to look for an opening to leave. She seemed to sense my discomfort.

"So Kelly, do you mind if I ask you a question? Or two?" I shrugged my shoulders so she continued, "Did you know we were watching the other night? You know what I mean... when you were doing yourself on the bed with that awful thing?"

I shook my head while allowing a mischievous grin to appear on my face.

"So you just do that yourself like that all the time?"

I looked at her quizzically, trying to figure out where she might be coming from. She evidently could see the question mark hovering over my head so she rephrased her question saying, "I meant, do you really masturbate?"

God, was this woman naive or what? I just shrugged as if it was no big deal and responded, "Sure, every day... don't you?"

Her eyes widened and she seemed too embarrassed to ask anymore but it was clear that she was not into self-pleasuring herself! I couldn't wait for Sunday to come. Boy was she in for something she wasn't ready for.

Before I left, I couldn't resist tweaking her a little. We stood up and were facing each other, just a foot or so separating us. I looked at her with what I hoped to be a lustful gaze and said softly, "So tell me the truth Barb, did it turn you on to watch me the other night? Did it make you want me even a little bit when you watched me masturbating? Have you thought about me since then?"

Her reaction was as hilarious as it was predictable. Her mouth dropped open to where she was in danger of catching flies before she caught herself as she stared at me like I was some weirdo or something.

"Oh no, I 'm not THAT kind of woman?" she exclaimed, her face once again returning to that dark shade of red signaling her embarrassment. "I could never... well... do it with another woman. Never!"

What a surprise THAT was - NOT. I was actually starting to feel a little sorry for her now, not because of her issues with her husband, but because she was such a ridiculously naive fool. Heaven forbid she should masturbate and to have sex with a woman was inconceivable. Little wonder that something like sucking a dick was beyond her comprehension. How in the world did her husband ever get her to have sex in the first place? Somehow I doubted their first time was very much fun for either one of them. In fact, I was starting to wonder if she hadn't gotten pregnant the first time as why would anyone want to fuck someone as frigid as her more than once? Her husband was probably still pissed off that he was stuck marrying some little bitch just because he wanted to collect her cherry. The more I thought about it, the more I would have bet quite a bit I was right!

I left her house wondering if she would have the guts to go through with our plan. For it to work, she would have to approach her husband with the idea and somehow I didn't see her as one who could really pull that off. The odds were pretty good that I'd be getting a frantic phone call sometime before Sunday morning, begging me to call off the whole thing because she had gotten cold feet - a perfect match for her cold pussy.

Surprisingly, I didn't hear a word from Barbara for the entire week until Saturday night when my cell phone rang. At the time I was just about to enter a movie theater with my cousin and best friend Beth so I almost just turned the phone off and ignored the call. For whatever reason, I glanced at the phone and saw whose number it was so I hurried to answer it before we all went into the theater.

"Kelly? This is Barb, remember me?"

Of course I did you stupid woman! No, I didn't actually SAY that to her but thank God she couldn't read my mind!

"Of course Barb, so what's up?"

"I did it," she said in a rather conspiratorial tone, "I told him what you said I should."

"And?????"

"He said OK... can you believe it?" she exclaimed, as if she had just won the lottery. "Oh my god, I am SO nervous... I can't believe I'm really going to go through with this."

To be more accurate, it was ME that was going to be doing it but I understood what she meant. I had to wonder if she knew what she was really going to be doing. There was no way this naive wife could even begin to comprehend the events she had set into motion.

"OK Barb, sorry but I have to get going so I'll see you in church tomorrow, OK?"

We both said our goodbyes and I rejoined my cousin and friend in the theater. They were curious about the call as I had not mentioned a word of any of this to them before, most likely because I was assuming that nothing would come of it in the first place. Needless to say, they were both excited for me and if anything, I may have even detected a little bit of jealousy, especially from my slutty cousin.

"Sure you don't need some help" she had offered with a naughty grin and giggle.

Actually, it would have been fun to have her tag along but that would have been too over the top. Even as it was, I had to wonder if when push came to shove, would the two of them really be willing to go along with my plan? No doubt the husband would but what about Barbara? It was a bit surreal and I still wasn't going to believe any of it until it really happened.

The movie started but even in the dim light I could see Kristen looking at me with THAT look in her eyes. She was horny now, just from the hint of what I had told her. Then again, the girl was ALWAYS horny, even more than me and that was saying something. Oh well, that wasn't such a bad thing, was it? Maybe dessert after the movie would be at her house?

2. Meeting the Family

Sunday morning I was awake long before my alarm went off. The first thing to enter my mind was, "Holy crap, I'm going to fuck a guy in front of his wife today!"

God it made me so horny just to think about it! There was no way I was doing anything in this state so for the next thirty minutes or so I masturbated, making myself cum at least twice with a third time debatable as it could have been counted as a continuation of the second one.

After I was finished taking care of my morning "needs", I stood in front of my closet for the longest time, debating what to wear to church. Had we planned to meet in a bar, it would have been a lot easier but in a church... well that was a totally different proposition, especially since it was a Southern Baptist church. I'd been at the one they attended once before and while it was by no means the most fundamentalist in the area, it still wasn't exactly liberal in its policies. Put another way.... wearing a short skirt with no underwear would NOT go over very well and this was the type of church where they would be more than willing to ask you to leave if they felt your dress was "inappropriate".

After considerable debate I picked out a dark skirt that while still a couple inches above the knee, was not all that tight and had almost zero chance of exposing myself to anyone. Despite some naughty thoughts to the contrary, I caved in and wore regular panties underneath. God, how long had it been since I had worn cotton panties to church - or anywhere for that matter! A vest over a white blouse did an effective job of hiding the fact I wasn't wearing a bra, yet still allowing for easy access should the need arise. Maybe I should have worn a bra but a girl has to draw the line somewhere! Even though it was quite cold I wasn't about to wear pantyhose so a pair of dark thigh-highs finished out the outfit.

Looking in the full-length mirror on the back of my bedroom door, I saw what on the outside appeared to be your typical 20-something college grad ready for church. It wasn't something a mom would wear but still a little more "grown-up" than your typical teenage garb. I chose some heels that were rather conservative, definitely not any of my "come fuck me" ones. A small black purse and I was ready to go to church, as innocent as could be.

As I got in my car and started to drive away from my apartment, I felt a moment pang of guilt as I turned in the opposite direction to what I should have. Sunday mornings were traditionally time I spent with my dad after which we would go to church together. Sitting in the pews, listening to the sermon while his hand was on my leg, feeling his cum draining from me slightly onto the pew cushion below me, was something I looked forward to every week - just as I knew he did. I'd called him earlier to explain why I wouldn't be stopping by and the disappointment in his voice almost broke my heart. At the same time, once he understood the reason why I wasn't coming over, he seemed to cheer up a bit after making me promise to tell him all the details the next time we met.

The church was a bit of a drive but eventually I made it, arriving just a few minutes before the service was about to start. I hurried towards the sanctuary entrance and as I passed through a gathering area I heard voice calling me. "Kelly, over here!"

I looked for the person calling me and saw Barbara waving me over from the other side of the room. As I approached, I recognized her husband and kids from the photos I'd seen in her bedroom the weekend before. She was in a long print dress while her husband was in a grey suit with a red tie. Her daughter was dressed in a conservative dress as well while the boy wore just a short and tie, without a jacket. They blended in with the rest of the congregation, nothing whatsoever to indicate they were having any issues or how those issues were going to addressed before long.

"Kelly, so nice you could make it!" she greet me, as if I was there under more altruistic motivations. "I want you to meet Joel, my husband. Joel, this is Kelly, the girl I was telling you about."

Something about the way she said "the girl" made it clear I wasn't just the babysitter. Joel turned to me and smiled. Suddenly I felt a slight chill run down my spine. It was the way he looked at me I guess. It wasn't like I was some new person at church he was being introduced to but rather more like I was a slut at a whore ranch being presented to a new customer. Yes, there was no doubt that he knew who I was and why I was there and there was not an ounce of doubt in my mind that he wanted to fuck me. There is just that look a man gives you that every girl learns early on, no matter what her morals or convictions. You don't have to have sex to know when a man wants to fuck you.

I looked over at Barb who must have been able to see the unabashed lust on her husband's face as well. Was it my imagination or did I see a quick fleeting sign of regret? A drop in her cheery smile and a narrowing of her eyes before she recovered and became Miss Perky again. The kids weren't paying a bit of attention and even if they had, Connie was nowhere near the age where she would have understood why her dad was looking at this strange girl so funny. Oh well, no matter as the ball was in play now and there was no stopping this roller coaster now that it was heading down the tracks.

"Kelly, these are my children, Connie and Steven. Kids, say hello to Kelly, she's visiting our church today for the first time."

I wasn't going to correct her by telling her I had attended once before a few years ago as it was irrelevant. The kids were cute and obviously well-mannered. I wondered what they would have said had they known why I was REALLY at their church this morning. Odds were they wouldn't have understood it even if they did. No matter, so long as they weren't at the house I didn't care what they knew - or didn't. If there was one thing I was NOT into, it was anything to do with sex and children. Fortunately, THAT didn't seem to be an issue in this case as Barb mentioned they would be going over to her mother's after church to spend the afternoon. Evidently, that meant sitting with their grandparents in church as well as they took off and left the three of us alone.

Joel looked around quickly to be sure nobody was watching or would overhear him. Even so, he still kept his voice barely above a whisper as he leaned towards me. "So you're OK with all this Kelly?"

I nodded and he rolled his eyes and grinned. He looked at Barbara who was trying to act all smiley and cheerful while her husband started putting the moves on me right in front of her in the middle of church. "God, you look incredible. How old are you again?"

"Twenty three." "I have to say, until you showed up I thought ol' Barb here was pulling my leg. Wow, you look even better than she said."

I tried to act like I was flattered but just then a buzzer went off, evidently signifying it was time for everyone to gather in the sanctuary. I carried my coat in with me as I didn't see anywhere to hang it and there wasn't time to hunt down a closet. Besides, I had an idea that it might come in handy during the service anyway.

We sat towards the back, along with the rest of the people. It was sort of silly how full the back of the church was while the front five or six pews were virtually empty. Then again, aren't most churches that way? Joel sat between Barb and me and as full as the church was, we were forced to be rather tight together. I bunched my coat up on my lap as the service finally started.

We had to stand for each song and I couldn't help but notice Joel was looking down more at my blouse than the hymnal. Of course it didn't hurt that I'd left the top few buttons undone and while the vest hid the fact I wasn't wearing a bra, from above he should've been getting a good idea that there was nothing under the blouse but me. Once the sermon started, I got myself comfortable for what was likely to be twenty or more boring minutes.

My coat was still on my lap and soon after the sermon started, I felt Joel's hand on my thigh under the coat. I smiled slightly without looking at him as I squirmed in my seat just a little, hoping he could detect my reaction. Evidently he did as his hand squeezed my thigh through my skirt and slowly worked its way between my legs. My skirt was too long to pull up and let his hand get underneath, but it WAS loose enough for him to be able to press his hand between my legs and eventually against my crotch.

I squirmed again slightly, just enough to give him the idea that he was turning me on. In fact, he WAS making a bit horny but it would have been better had the church not been so crowded and I wasn't wearing so many clothes! Barb was listening intently to the sermon and I doubted she would have been able to see anything even if she had looked over as my coat seemed to be pretty effective at hiding his hand's location. Was she really listening or was she thinking about what was about to happen between me and her husband?

3. Getting Things Started

The service finally ended and that was about as far as he was able to take things. At least he now had the confirmation that I was there for the reasons his naive wife had evidently described to him earlier. As we walked out of the church, Joel pulled me to the side and whispered in my ear.

"What do you say you and I just go out on our own and leave her at home?"

"But I thought you wanted her to watch? Don't you want her to see how I can turn you on more than she can?"

Joel grimaced and I began to wonder if his bluster was more huff and puff than fire and brimstone.

"To be honest, I'm not so sure about that part. I mean, this is crazy enough, don't you think? Just her knowing?"

I folded my arms in a standoffish manner. "Sorry Joel, THAT is what made me want to do this in the first place. Either we do things as planned or it's all off - your choice."

Joel look back over at where Barb was standing, shivering in the cold and not looking exactly happy about things. Then he looked back at me but before he could say anything, I took control.

"What's the matter Joel, worried you can't handle me? Afraid your little mousey wife will see you're not the stud you claim to be? Maybe you won't be able to get it up... is that what you're worried about... is it Joel?"

He had been about to back out of it, of that I was certain, but now his manhood had been challenged. My taunts clearly riled him and I think I must have hit a few buttons as well.

"We'll see who can't handle who," he said bitterly under his breath, "You just better be as good as you think you are."

I just grinned and twirled on my heels away from him and headed to my car without another look back. When I got there, I saw them drive by, both of them sitting rigidly in their respective seats, not looking at each other or saying a word. I backed out of my spot and followed them to their home, pulling in right behind them and parking in their driveway after they pulled into the garage. I followed them in from the garage into the kitchen where the three of us stood around a central countertop, none of us saying a word but just glancing between one another. Who was going to take the first step. Well, who do you think?

"Well, are we going to do something or not?" I finally asked to break the stalemate. Joel looked at his wife who just stared at her feet as if they had just appeared and were the most interesting things in the world at that moment. I knew where she did NOT want us to go so that told me exactly where we should.

"Well, I already know the way to the bedroom so I'll meet you both there, OK?"

With that, I stepped away and went up the stairs. The bed was nicely made and the room was cleaned up. For a moment I contemplated stripping off all my clothes such that I would be naked on the bed when they came in but I decided to take it a little slower in the end. They eventually made their way in, Joel first, followed by Barb.

"Barb, why don't you sit in the chair over by the window and just watch," I instructed, taking over the situation. I turned to Joel and looked down at his crotch, making sure he saw I was interested in it before looking back up at his eyes again. I had debated q lot over the past week on how things should start and even at this very moment, I was still arguing with myself. Oh well, what was the hurry? May as well have fun, right?

I sat on the edge of the bed with my legs apart, not exactly the way a mother teaches her young daughter to behave in public - except I wasn't in public and I wasn't trying to behave. Without a word I pulled my skirt up slowly, running my hands over my stocking covered legs until I reached the tops of my hose and touched my bare thighs. I had both hands between my legs, massaging my inner thighs as my skirt was lifted up to reveal the pink cotton panties underneath.

"Barb tells me she doesn't masturbate," I finally broke the silence, "Do you want to watch me masturbate Joel?"

Poor Joel, he must have thought he'd died and gone to heaven. As much as I had teased and allowed him to touch me until now, did Joel still wonder if this was really going to happen? My hands were running up the inner parts of my thighs, right up to my crotch as I ran my fingers in the creases between my crotch and my legs. Joel glanced at Barbara, as if he wasn't sure if she was really OK with this. Barb was smiling, probably thinking this was OK so far as all I was doing was teasing him.

"You're so hot and beautiful," he finally managed to respond. He didn't exactly come right out and say he wanted to watch me masturbate, but the implication was clear.

I started to touch myself through my panties, pressing against my clit with my fingers, running little circles around it through the soft material. Then my finger moved down over my slit, pressing in to form a camel toe in the panties. Joel's breathing seemed to be a little heavier now! Using my left hand I pulled my panties to the side, revealing my bare pussy. I wondered if Barbara shaved her pussy. Odds were at her age she didn't. I ran my finger between my pussy lips and then put my finger in my mouth, softly sucking on it and licking it before returning to my crotch again.

"I like the taste of my pussy Joel... I bet you'd like to taste it, wouldn't you?"

Joel started to move forward, probably interpreting my question as an invitation but I wasn't ready for that - not yet at least.

"Patience Joel, patience... you'll get to taste me soon enough. I want you to watch for now."

I rubbed my clit and gasped as it tingled with my touch. God I was so hot and horny having them both watching me as I masturbated. I love to be watched and this was something different for me which made it all the better. I could see Joel growing inside of his church pants, an obvious bulge emerging in the crotch.

"Show me your dick Joel... show me what it looks like... I want to watch it grow."

Joel appeared hesitant. It was one thing to watch a girl masturbate, quite another to pull out his own dick on his own. I pushed my finger into my pussy until the first knuckle was inside of me to give him some encouragement.

"Come on Joel, stroke it for me.. I want to watch."

Joel's eyebrows raised as he undid his belt and unzipped his pants. He pulled his pants down just far enough to expose his white boxers and then pulled the elastic down until his did popped out free. Mmmmmmm, it didn't look all that bad for a guy his age! Soon we were both masturbating, me fucking myself with one finger while his hand gripped his shaft and slowly stroked himself as he watched me.

"See Barb, men love to masturbate and they love to watch a girl touch herself."

Barb didn't respond although she wasn't smiling quite as much as he had before. Her husband was sporting a nice erection by now in the middle of their bedroom and she knew it wasn't being stimulated by her this time.

4. Getting Down to Business

As much as I enjoy masturbating, that wasn't why I was there today and I had accomplished what I had set out to do when I started - get him to pull out his dick and stroke it for me. I had better pans in store for Joel than just a show.

"So tell me Joel, " I started off slowly as stood up from the bed and slowly approached him, "Has Barb ever greeted you after a hard day at the office like this?"

I knelt in front of him, reached pants and then pulled them down, closely followed by his shorts boxers, leaving him standing there in nothing but his shirt and tie. His dick as hard already thanks to his string it and I saw that he had a nice hairy crotch - none of this shaved crap. I took his dick in my hand for his and started to stroke it gently.

"I bet you wish she would kneel in front of you like this, don't you Joel," I purred, "Tell me Joel, what do you want me to do now?"

"Oh god, this is incredible... I mean, I can't believe this," he stuttered, "Suck it... suck my dick."

I just smiled and looked over at Barb as I opened my mouth and took just the head of his cock in. Barb grimaced, as if I was somehow eating some ugly bug or something. Joel was really hard now, obviously he was happy with what I was doing. I took more of him in my mouth and held him there, my tongue flickering around his swollen shaft.

"You know Barb, it makes me so hot to feel a man swelling up inside of my mouth," I said, letting his dick out of my mouth just long enough to taunt her.

Actually it was 100% true as I DO love to feel a man's dick inside of my mouth. It's not something he can control so if it's happening, it's because I am turning him on and he's enjoying it.

My hands reached around and clenched his ass as I pulled my face in tighter into his crotch. He smelled of musk and sweat, like a man should. I loved the silky smoothness of his dick in my mouth, the firmness underneath as my lips clamped down on him, the taste of his shaft against my tongue. He was average sized which was perfect for what I was doing today. It was relatively easy to take all of him in my mouth and I could hear him groaning when my face would bury itself to the base of his shaft, my nose pressed into his stiff pubic hair.

"Oh for Christ's sake that feels so damn good!" he groaned as I continued to suck on his throbbing dick.

His hips were started to move now, fucking my mouth as I sucked on him. I knew he would be cumming soon if I kept up this pace so I took him all the way in and looked over at his wife who seemed to be at a tragic accident scene where what you are seeing may be horrific but you can't tear your eyes away. I dropped his dick from my mouth and stood up, holding his wet shaft in my hand and gently tugging on it.

"See Barb, THAT'S how you make a man hard," I said, turning back to Joel before she could respond. 'OK Joel, your turn now."

At first I don't think he quite understood what I meant but when I sat back on the bed, leaned back with my legs pulled in tight, and then pulling off my panties and dropping them to the floor, he seemed to catch on pretty well by then. I held myself up on my elbows, my now bare ass on the edge of the bed with my legs hanging over the side. My hose and heels were still on but I didn't see any reason why I should bother taking them off. Spreading my legs apart, I pulled up the skirt to expose my shaved pussy to Joel - and Barb.

"Lick me," I demanded.

That was all, just a two word command for him to follow. He kneeled on the floor in front of me and put his hands on my boobs through my blouse as his tongue quickly found the inner flesh of my thighs. I gasped audibly as he licked them, working his way up to my pussy but skipping over it and down my other thigh. On his way again, this time he kissed my pussy, pressing his lips down against me with his tongue in his mouth. Then he worked his lips down in between my damp pussy lips and over my clit, sucking on it like a nipple.

Looking over at Barb, I grinned at her and nodded my head down towards Bill. She just pursed her lips and shook her head. God, nixing a blowjob was one thing but not wanting your pussy licked was just dumb, even if it was just from a man. It wasn't like Joel was the most talented pussy licker in the world, but he seemed to be trying to make a good effort and that counted for me. The poor guys wasn't getting any practice with his wife so how could I expect him to be any better? No doubt he had watched enough porn on the internet to have a good understanding but it was like asking someone who had played nothing but WII bowling to enter an actual bowling tournament.

I moaned and gyrated my hips to let him know I appreciated what he was doing. He was lapping up and down my pussy now, like a hungry puppy. I pushed his head away and stood up, stripping off the rest of my clothes and motioning for him to do the same until we were both totally nude together in front of his bewildered wife.

What I would have REALLY preferred at this point would have been for her to strip down as well and suck her first dick. Had she shown even the slightest inclination I might had pushed her a little to see if she would but in this case it wasn't worth the wasted effort. Although on one hand she seemed morbidly fascinated by what she was seeing, I could also tell she was just as disgusted. Oh well, my goal hadn't been to "convert" Barb today but rather to humiliate her in front of her husband, something I felt I was doing pretty well so far!

I looked up at Joel's face and I could see the animal lust in his eyes, that look men get when they want to mate, when their primal urges started to dominate and take over. I knew what he wanted to hear me say, the same thing all men want to hear me say.

"Fuck me Joel," I said softly but firmly, "Fuck me now."

Oh yeah, those two magical words, "fuck me". It was like a siren call for men, the final straw that inevitably broke whatever willpower they may have had. Joel WANTED to fuck me but I had a feeling from the way he would glance barb's way every few seconds that in a crazy sort of way he wanted to fuck his wife even more, had she been willing to do what I was doing. No matter though, all I had to do was utter those two words and he was mine. He looked down at me and any sign of resistance disappeared. He was no longer under control of his own body.

It almost frightens me sometimes when men get to this state. I have often wondered if this was the face of a rapist when he looked down at his victim and she knew at that horrible moment that nothing was going to deter her attacker. Just as nothing in the world was going to stop Joel from fucking me now. It was like I had just passed the point of no return. Even if I wanted him to stop (why I would, I have no idea), that option was off the table. He was going to fuck me and I could either enjoy it or endure it but it WAS going to happen.

No doubt whenever he and Barb did it, she would get on her back and spread her legs and they would do it missionary style until he came and that would be that. Well, I was going to make this a little more memorable for them both! I turned away from Joel and leaned over the bed, holding myself up on my hands as I spread my legs wide apart. Looking back over my shoulder, I saw him staring at my bare ass and now revealed wet pussy.

"Well, are you going to just stand there or fuck me? I asked impatiently. Joel didn't need any more urging. This time I couldn't help but notice he didn't even look Barb's way as he approached me with his dick standing straight out like a flesh spear about to impale me.

"That's it Joel, enter me from behind, give me your dick... fuck me Joel!"

I wondered if he had ever actually fucked a girl doggie style before or had only seen in it porn movies. No matter, if that latter was the case then it just went to prove they can be good for something! I felt his hands spread my ass apart and then the tip of his dick pressing against my asshole.

"Not in my ass!" I corrected him. he pulled back a little and then his dick slid under me and along my pussy lips, he pulled back and it naturally lid into place just outside my pussy hole.

"That's it Joel, push it in me, fuck me, show your wife how bad you want to fuck me.... tell her how bad you want to fuck me."

The last little bit was a shot in the dark but I figured why not? He was so blinded by lust by now that I doubted anything was left in his moral center to reason with. Why not push him a little?

"Oh yeah, I want to fuck you," he panted as I felt him moving about behind me, as if he was waiting for something before he rammed his dick inside of me. "I want to fuck her Barb, I want to fuck her like a dog."

For a moment I thought maybe THAT was what he was waiting for, for Barb to tell him to fuck me, for her to give "permission" for him to push his dick into another woman's pussy. Well, thankfully that's NOT what he was waiting for. Barb had gone as far as she would ever go by just arranging for this to happy and now, to sit and watch. There was no way in hell she was going to take another step, that was clear with one look at her. She was thoroughly disgusted by what she was seeing, that was obvious. If either Joel or I had any hopes prior to this that she might get turned on and maybe masturbate, or even want to join in, we were sadly mistaken. Barb clearly hated what she as seeing, hated it with every fiber in her. Oh well, that was fine so far as I was concerned. I was getting what I wanted after all!

"Oh yeah!" Joel cried out as I felt him lunge forward, driving his dick completely into me until the base of his shaft was pressed against my ass and I felt his balls slap against me.

It felt great to have his dick in me. It been a while since I had been laid and I wasn't thrilled that I had missed being fucked by my dad this morning. Seeing the look of horror on Barb's face as she realized that he had actually done it, that her husband had actually entered me, was the best part and almost enough by itself to make me climax. Had she somehow harbored an inner secret that he would somehow back out at the last minute, perhaps proclaiming his love for her and telling her that he would never violate his marriage vows by screwing another woman? Well, if THAT had been her master plan, it had failed miserably. Nope, her dead husband was fucking me, fucking me hard, and from the rate he was stroking himself in and out of me, loving every second of it.

One thing I had to give the guy credit for, he hadn't cum yet. Normally in a situation where a guy was fucking me and he hadn't done a girl like me in a long time, if ever, he would cum quickly. Something told me Joel was a frequent masturbator! Suddenly he pulled out of me and grabbed me by the waist to twist me around. He was panting and his dick was sticking out like some obscene wet sausage from his crotch, glistening wet from being in my pussy.

"I want you to ride me," he said with a tone of urgency in his voice, as if he couldn't wait to get back inside of me again.

Well, that made two of us! He laid back on the bed and I crawled over to him and straddled his stomach, facing him with my boobs hanging down almost to is face. I was on my left knee with my right foot to the side of him so I could more easily lift myself up and position myself over his rock-hard dick. Reaching down between my legs, I grabbed his dick in my hand. Mmmmmmm, he felt so hard and wet! My pussy was aching for him to be back in it so I wiggled myself around until my pussy was directly over his shaft and slowly lowered myself down until I felt a light pressure against me.

"You want it back in me?" I teased him.

He couldn't have known I was teasing myself just as much but the look on his face was worth it. I loved it when a man wanted me this badly, when he was practically trembling with lust and desire. Joel would have done anything at that moment to fuck me - anything. I knew Barbara must have been watching but I didn't look over at her. Joel was too far gone to even think about his pathetic wife sitting only a few feet away. I could hear her sobs and I knew she must be crying but I didn't care, she had asked for this after all. It was her fault and she had nobody to blame but herself for what was happening now.

Joel couldn't even respond to me other than a desperate look on his face as he reached out and grabbed my hips, trying to push me down onto his dick. His hips lunged upwards as he instinctively reacted to his most basic instincts. He was reduced to an animal who wanted to mate, his need for sex overwhelming any other emotion or thought. It was perfect.

It was time to quit teasing both of us. My pussy was practically cramping from the need to be filed by him. Slowly but in a steady motion, I dropped myself down onto him, feeling his head penetrate me, splitting me open as the rest of his shaft easily slid into my wet pussy. When I hit bottom I let my right leg drop so I was on both knees, sitting on his lap with my butt against his crotch and his dick buried to the hilt inside of me. It was like I was an apple mounted on a stick!

Leaning forward, I put my hands on the bed on each side of his head, letting my boobs hand into his face. He lifted his neck eagerly and began to suck on my nipples, pulling on them and tugging them, using his tongue to stimulate them even more. By leaning forward, his dick automatically withdrew just a little and I started to rock gently back and forth, keeping my boobs over his face but lett8ing my ass move back and forth so his dick stroked in and out of me. God it felt so good to be fucked like this! I loved being on top, being able to control the depth he was in me, the rate at which his dick moved in and out of me. His thick pubic hair rubbed against my bare ass and tickled me a little, like a soft hairbrush was underneath me.

"Oh god...," he moaned, repeating himself over and over as he buried his face between my overhanging boobs, squeezing them together with his hands so they rubbed up against his face and cheeks.

I started lifting my ass up as I rocked forward to increase the length of his dick that was withdrawing from me until just the tip of his cock was in me and then quickly drive myself back down in him until I had 100% of him back in me again.

Finally I couldn't help but look over at Barbara. On the one hand, it would have been hot had she removed her clothes and started masturbating as she watched her husband fucking a girl over ten years younger than her. When I had thought about how this day might go, I imagined her getting herself off until finally she couldn't resist and joined us in bed, maybe letting me lick her pussy and then her eating her husband's cum from me after he filled me with his sperm.

Well, that certainly wasn't the case but in a way, her real reactions were almost as erotic as my dreams had been, maybe even more. She looked totally broken at this point, not even crying anymore. It was like she had been stunned and was just sitting on the chair motionless, her eyes fixated on the unimaginable sight in front of her. The only sign of any reaction from her was her hands as they clenched the arms of the chair, her knuckles white from the strength of her grip. I smiled at her but she didn't react, just the same stare and listless look.

Joel was starting to hump more under me, which I took as a sign he was getting close. Much as I enjoy riding a guy, I don't prefer that position when he cums in me so I leaned over more and whispered into his ear.

"I want you on top of me."

I really don't think Joel wanted to stop, not even for the few moments it would take to swap positions, but he soon learned he didn't have a choice as I lifted myself off and rolled over on my back next to him. He quickly got up and kneeled between my legs which I had spread wide apart like a whore offering herself to him. My pussy must have looked like a large wet hole by now after being fucked so much and I loved the way he stared at my crotch, as if it was the only thing that mattered to him in the entire world.

"Fuck me Joel," I said softly, squeezing my boobs as my hips lifted up as if trying to draw his dick into me.

Joel put his hands around me, each one grabbing one of my butt cheeks, and lifted me up. I pulled my legs back, bending them so my knees were up against my chest, my pussy and ass fully exposed now to Joel. He fumbled with his dick, almost like a young boy struggling to get his cock ready for his first time. Once he was in position he didn't hesitate, driving himself into me all the way until he literally banged into my crotch, driving me back on the bed just a little from the sheer force of his entry. His hips swung back and forth as fast as he could, stroking himself fin and out of me like a madman.

"I'm gonna cum," he gasped, "I want to cum on your face... I've always wanted to cum on a girl's face."

Well, maybe that's what HE wanted, but it wasn't on my agenda. Had we been alone, I would have gladly ceded to his wishes, letting him cum wherever he wanted. Personally, being sprayed with sticky gooey cum on my face is not one of my favorite endings but I know it turns men on and so I allow it when I feel it is the right time and place. This was NOT one of those times. I wasn't here just to fuck Joel. This wasn't just me letting some married guy fuck me while his wife sat at home unaware of her husband's transgressions against her and God.

No, what was turning me on the most was his wife watching us, seeing how decadent her husband could be, seeing how much he LOVED fucking ME more than her. She was seeing a side of her husband that she thought only existed in his fantasies, something that she never dreamed would ever emerge into reality. No, he wasn't gonna cum on my face, he was going to cum inside of me - as his wife watched.

"Cum in me Joel," I pleaded, "I want you to cum inside of me... fuck me Joel... Fuck me like you always wanted to fuck your wife... cum in me now!"

Joel's mind may have fantasized about cumming on my face, but his body betrayed him. He simply couldn't hold out any longer to pull out and cum on me, even if he wanted. His head pulled back and his eyes were clenched tightly shut as he groaned like some wild animal and drive himself in me and then stared grinding himself against me, as if he could someone drill himself even deeper into me.

"Oh fuck... I'm cumming!" he cried out. Thank god the kids weren't home! I was willing to bet their daddy had never been this carried away having sex with mommy before.

His hips thrust into me as one load after another of his cum was pumped into me. God, would he ever stop? It was if he had a quart of cum and he was giving every drop to me. I loved the feeling of warmth it gave me deep within me, knowing it was his dick that was releasing it in me and it was his adulterous cum that I was feeling within me.

"That's it Joel, give it to me, give it all to me... give me your cum," I begged, wishing he could just keep cumming and cumming and never stop.

I looked over to see Barbara sobbing so hard her body was shaking, the tears flowing down her eyes like a river. That, together with the sensation of her husband mating me in front of her, was all I needed and my own orgasm gripped me. God, I was cumming and I wanted her to know it.

"Oh my god, I'm cumming now!" I gasped, barely able to utter the words as my pussy clamped down on his now expended dick.

I bucked under him like a wild bronco, his still hard dick making obscene sucking noises as it moved in and out of my dick as his cum now spilled out of me and drained down my ass to their bed. It was short but intense, more like being struck by a bus than anything.

Finally I just stiffened under him, my pussy gripping his dick as tightly as it could, motionless as I just laid their and took in the wonderful feelings that were filling me throughout my body. I felt so good, so naughty. I wanted Barbara to know how good her husband had fucked me but I couldn't say anything right then, the remains of my orgasm too intense to allow me to speak anything coherent.

Joel pulled out of me and simply flopped over his back, panting as he struggled to catch his breath. His dick stood up still, dwindling but still hard enough to stand upright on its own, even it was leaning quite a bit by now. It glistened in the light with the mixture of our cum on it. It looked delicious! Somehow I found the energy to move over and take his dick in my mouth. His entire body jerked and he groaned as I sucked his sensitive dick. Mmmmmmm, it tasted so good to lick my cum from his dick along with his own.

"Fuck, that was incredible!" he gasped, his breathing beginning to finally settle down.

No doubt I could have probably sucked his dick for a while and restored his erection and maybe had him fuck me again, probably even longer the second time. Again, had we been alone there wasn't a doubt in my mind that I would have done exactly that. Again, this wasn't your typical "husband committing adultery" act. I'd accomplished what I wanted and to do anything further would be going overboard, if anything it would take the edge off. Barbara had seen her husband in a way she had never dreamed she would. What started off as something she had thought would bring their marriage closer together had probably driven the final nail in the divorce coffin.

Under normal circumstances, I have no desire for the wife to even find out what her husband did to me, let alone threaten their marriage. This time it was different. This time she deserved whatever resulted from today. It was her fault she didn't satisfy he husband's needs. I hadn't done anything kinky or crazy today, just what any decent and respectful wife should do for her husband. Any woman who wasn't willing to do what I had done with Joel today didn't deserve to be a wife.

Without a word, I got up off the bed and quickly dressed. I would have loved to have showered or at least washed up but all I wanted as to leave that house as quickly as possible. Before I left, I turned to Barbara, who was staring at her husband as if he was some alien from outer space.

"Was this what you wanted Barbara? Did I do what you wanted me to do?"

OK, so it was mean of me but I couldn't resist. One look at her husband on the bed, the look of exhaustion and fulfillment on his face, his spent dick now laying useless on its side, and it was obvious I had fucked him in ways she had never even come close. To be honest, I felt a little proud of myself.

She just ignored me so I headed for the door. I had only taken a couple of steps when I heard her behind me.

"You fucking bitch!"

I turned and was startled to see her staring at me with such hatred and disgust as anyone had ever looked at me. She wasn't crying now but instead her eyes narrowed and she pointed her finger at me accusingly.

"You knew this would happen, didn't you? You're just a fucking filthy whore and I hope you rot in hell for what you've done."

What do you say in response to such a thing? Something told me I'd better leave - and leave fast. I practically ran down to the front door as she screamed obscenities after me, calling me every obscene name that was in her vocabulary. My heart was pounding when I got to my car and a sense of relief flooded over me as I drove away from their house. I took a deep breath and then smiled. She could say what she wanted but all I had to do was look down and see the wet spot between my legs where his cum was draining from me and I knew who had "won" today.

Back in my apartment, I replayed the events of the day over and over. At first I felt a sense of guilt, that maybe I HAD taken advantage of her situation for my own pleasure and amusement. I suppose that if I had been the one to initiate things, that it had been my idea from the start, that maybe I WAS guilty of being a bit of a bitch.

In the end, I shrugged it off. She had asked for it and gotten what she deserved. Crap, she wouldn't even suck his dick so what did she expect by inviting someone like me over? Was it my fault he enjoyed fucking me more than he did her? Was it my fault she wouldn't have sex in anything but a missionary position? Was it my fault she wouldn't talk to him dirty? Was it my fault she couldn't have a decent orgasm?

Just a note to any wives who think that somehow by letting their husbands have their way with another girl is going to somehow save their marriage. If you REALLY believe that then don't be surprised by the results. And if you do, just remember that no matter what happens - it's YOUR fault!

(Nov 14) Chapter 175: Bachelor Party

Me (23)

I did some bachelor parties back when I was in college but that was years ago. I've changed a lot since then and I'm definitely not the same girl now as I was back then, so how would this one go compared to those others?

1. A Job Offer

Almost four years ago I was a sophomore in college, trying to deal with the pros and cons of attending a rather strict Christian University. First, let me say I LOVED my school and I don't regret for a moment my decision to go there. Sure, I could have gone to the University of Pittsburgh or another public college and had a lot more "fun", but my first priority was a good education.

Unlike the bigger schools, where students rarely even see their professor, at my university I never attended a class taught by a grad student TA (teaching assistant). All classes were taught by full professors who not only were outstanding in their fields, but showed a genuine interest in their students and were always available to discuss academic as well as personal issues.

Being a private, Christian-based university, that allowed the administration to establish the rules and conditions as they saw appropriate. The results were the infamous "Lifestyle Guidelines" which we all pledged to maintain. Technically I didn't have to but the unspoken implication was that while students were not REQUIRED to pledge and follow them, neither was the university REQUIRED to allow everyone to attend... you get the idea. Premarital sex was strictly forbidden - pregnant girls were expelled immediately. All dorms and on-campus apartments were separated by gender and men were allowed in our rooms only on specified visitation days - which were strictly supervised (no closed doors, etc.).

The school dress code, while not requiring uniforms or anything overly draconian, was conservative to say the least. For instance, bikinis were forbidden, shorts had to be well down the thighs several inches, skirts has to be no higher than just above the knee, and so forth. "Outward displays of affection" were discouraged. A quick kiss was OK but anything else had to be done out of sight.

My freshman year could have easily been a disaster as I seriously underestimated the difficulty I would have adapting to the Lifestyle Guidelines. Sure I knew about them beforehand but the reality never sunk in until I was left alone on campus and felt horny the first time - only to realize I was in the sexual equivalent of a convent! Imagine going from having sex almost every day, dressing like a slut, and masturbating several times a day, to an environment where even TALKING about masturbation in more than a clinical manner was forbidden.

Fortunately, I was saved when my roomie turned out to be a lesbian, (well, 90% - she wasn't a virgin) and she became my first "girlfriend", at least in a sexual way. (I don't count sex with my mom or aunt). We had to be VERY discrete but Brenda was a great friend as well. She use to invite me to her home in a nearby town where we even got together with her older (and married) brother! Way too much to tell here, but I am sure you can imagine what all happened. It's all in my diary from back then anyway.

As great as my freshman year was, my sophomore year was drastically different. Brenda was now living at home with her parents to save money so I had a new roomie - Karen. She was absolutely gorgeous but totally repressed sexually. Talk about being completely opposite from Brenda, she didn't even allow me to sleep in the nude (she threatened to turn me in for being lewd). Karen didn't even masturbate, claiming it was the moral equivalent of sex and she had never done it in her life. You can just imagine how horny I was feeling by the time the second term started!

Sexually frustrated as I had never been in my life, I turned to escorting as a means of satisfying my needs which threatened to overwhelm me. I also did a couple of bachelor parties where I was fucked by most everyone and had a great time. Sorry to say, I had to quit escorting after a short run when I was virtually raped. The bachelor parties ended as well as I feared getting into any situation like that again.

Sorry if all this is boring but I only mention it to differentiate my past escorting "career" with my current situation where I perform at parties. Back then, it wasn't about the money, it was all about sex. Heck, as horny as I was I would have done it for free but I figured why not take their money - it seemed to make them feel better to pay me as well.

In sharp contrast, today's situation is just the opposite. I am not living in a sexually oppressive situation, not by any means, so when I do my parties it's all about the money. Heck, if anything now I avoid overly sexually-oriented requests, instead turning them over to my whore cousin Kristen who cuts me in for a percentage as a "referral fee".

Up until now, I'd done a few parties, mostly lingerie shows. All but one of them were just modeling gigs. All of my business comes from word-of-mouth as I have no advertising budget so it didn't surprise me when I got a phone call from a guy who cited his wife's lingerie show as to how he heard about me. Apparently his brother was getting married soon and he was to be the Best Man. Following tradition, that meant he was responsible for the bachelor party, including the "entertainment". I made it clear that all I was signing up for was a "look but no touch" show where I would dress in whatever costume he asked for and strip. Lap dances were OK but the hands had to stay at their sides. Essentially they would get a private, "up close and personal" home version of what they would have gotten had they gone out to a strip club instead. He agreed and we arranged for the time and location.

Hanging up, I smiled to myself at my good fortune. How many girls get to love their jobs as much as I do! I was under no delusions that despite my warnings, I would be groped and fondled but it's not like I wouldn't enjoy it too. I just wanted to set the ground rules about sex more than anything.

2. Enjoying Myself While Making Preparations

When arranging for a party like this, most people want me to dress up as one of the usual stereotypes - catholic schoolgirl, French maid, sexy business woman, Daisy Duke, and such so I have costumes already for all of those situations. In fact, the schoolgirl costume had been given to me by my own dad for a past Christmas. It's a cute little ensemble featuring the shortest light-blue plaid skirt that zips down the side for easy removal. Actually, it is a little longer than you might expect which just made it all the more erotic as I could move around, bend over and such causing it to pull up but without quite making it high enough to reveal anything underneath - or if there was anything but me under it. Of course, there WAS something under it.

Going bare bottom has it's time and place but for the most part, every stripper worth her salt knows men are turned on more by what they do NOT see than anything else. Otherwise, why bother with all the costumes and long, drawn out strip teases? Sure, they may SAY they want to see you nude but deep down, it's the gradual removal that turns them on, as if they were getting to see something they weren't supposed to.

I LOVED my Daisy Duke outfit mostly for the shorts. Actually, there wasn't much down the legs to qualify them as shorts to be honest. I had cut the denim up so high that half my ass was showing and all there was left in the crotch was a small strip of denim barely wide enough to be strong enough to hold the two sides together. The center strip usually pulled up into my pussy anyway so it was like having nothing on down there. Even so, for stripping purposes I managed to hide a string thong underneath, just to provide a little extra tease when I pulled the shorts down. Just when they thought I was about to be bare- ass, yet another obstruction was in the way! It's all part of the game - and both sides love it.

Well, I could go on a lot more about my outfits but the only one that mattered now was the one I was supposed to wear at this party. When I discussed it with Brian, at first he said he didn't have any particular preference but then he called back the next day with an unusual proposal.

"You know, I was thinking more about your costume some more. My brother always had this thing for one of our teacher's at school - Miss Donnelly. It was weird and I use to tease him about her all the time, but she was the mousiest teacher at school. You know the type - long dresses, hair tied up, glasses. There was something about her, though, that just set Keith off. All he talked about was wondering what was under that dress and what it would be like to "convert" her. I don't mean she was a lezbo or anything, he meant convert her to a slut. You think you could pull something like that off?"

"You mean, come in like I'm Miss Donnelly and then turn into a slut in front of your brother?"

Yeah, that's it. Damn, he would love it, I'm sure!"

Well, that wasn't too hard a request. When he first called I was afraid he'd come up with something bizarre involving chains or whips. Heck, this sounded like fun! The next time I was at the mall I would go to JC Penney, the place to shop when you want something dull and drab. Well, to be fair, the store DOES carry some nice clothes but face it, most girls wouldn't get caught dead shopping there if it wasn't for the sales and coupons. Put it this way, I bought a number of outfits there back when I was going to school and then later when I was teaching at a Christian elementary school.

It was a couple of days later before I had an opportunity to shop at the mall. Just as I had planned, I went to JC Penney first and headed straight to the Misses section. I felt a little out of place as usually this was where the moms and older woman shopped. One of the more elderly sales ladies give me an odd look but she probably figured I was buying something as a gift for someone like my mom. Looking through the dress racks, I winced at some of the styles and sizes, pledging to myself that I would never let myself go to where I had no choice but to wear such large sizes. God, some were more like tents than dresses!

Eventually I found a rack with some half-way decent dresses in my size and picked out a few to try on. Fortunately the store wasn't very busy in the middle of the week and nobody was in any of the dressing rooms so far as I could tell. I chose one towards the end of the row and closed the door behind me. It was one of those deals where the door didn't go all the way to the floor but instead left an opening at the bottom of about a foot or so. I guess it was meant to be like a restroom where people could see if someone was in there without having to knock or inadvertently walk in. The door DID have this pathetic little latch but it was so flimsy I doubted that it would have held if someone pushed really hard by mistake.

Hanging up the clothes on a hanger on the side wall, I quickly stripped. It didn't take long as all I was wearing as a pair of old jeans and a Steelers sweatshirt, nothing to write home about for sure. It left me standing there naked as I hadn't bothered with any panties or a bra. Heck, with the bulky sweatshirt nobody could tell if I was wearing one or not anyway. I hung them on a little hook on the back of the door and turned to debate which dress to try on first.

I started with a cute little number that was a light floral design and a lace top around the neck. Dropping it over my head, it fell down over me and I turned to the mirror without bothering to try and zip up the back or anything. Looking critically at myself in the mirror, it didn't appear to be all that bad on me and I might have been tempted to buy it for school back when I was teaching. Therein was the problem - it looked cute and "cute" wasn't the style I was looking for.

The next dress was a turquoise nightmare that I had picked out more for a joke than anything. I couldn't help but wince when I looked in the mirror. God, it was like something from a 1950's horror movie. Had I been colorblind, it actually fit me well and I might have gone with it but that awful color! God, it was just too much.

The dress I saved for last was dark brown, almost black, with a tie-around belt that came together in the back. It was a little more low cut than I was looking for, not enough to show any cleavage but not up to the neck by any means. It hung just below my knees with short sleeves that had some lace around the edges. Overall, it was just tight enough to show off my figure without being clingy. Hmmm, this might be the one.

Standing there in front of the mirror, I imagined how the guys would react when I walked into the room wearing this dress, maybe with some modest heels and thigh-high black hose. I certainly wouldn't look like any stripper any of them had probably ever seen before. Would I remind them of a teacher or maybe a mom of one of their friends back when they were younger, maybe one that had them jerking off at night when they were alone in their beds? I cupped my boobs, squeezing them gently as my nipples reacted to the thought of the whistles and comments the guys would be making. Of course they would want to see underneath right away but I wouldn't let them, not at first at least, not until they wanted me even more.

My eyes closed and my head dropped back as I gripped my firm boobs through the dress, rubbing the material against my bare flesh underneath, causing it to tease my erect nipples even more. I let out a long breath as my pussy tingled just as little as I dreamed of walking around the room, fending off their groping hands as they tried to lift my dress and touch me. God it turned me on so much to think of all those men wanting me, lusting for me. They wouldn't have ever seen me before, not know a thing about who I was or anything. All they would be looking at would be my body, lusting for it and wanting it for themselves. To them I wasn't a girl, with feelings and needs. All I was to them was a piece of meat, something they wanted to fuck as their ancient animal instincts began to rise within them.

I leaned back against the side of the dressing stall, my eyes tightly shut as I slowly raised the dress to my waist. Today I was bare underneath but they would see my panties underneath, something lacey and sexy but not terribly revealing, forcing them to beg me to take them off as their hard dicks took control of their actions. My hand moved to my pussy, cupping it with the palm of my hand pressing against my clit, feeling the growing warmth as I dreamed of being the object of desire for so many men.

God my clit wanted to be touched! I lifted one leg to the bench seat against the back wall, planting my foot firmly on it and spreading my leg to the side to give me better access to my warm crotch. Oh yes, I would show them how good it felt to touch myself, how wet I could make myself. As much as it made me horny to touch myself now which thinking of them watching, I knew it was nothing compare to how I would react when a real audience was watching me masturbate. It's hard to describe the feeling I get inside, the thrill that rises in me, when someone watches me masturbate. I know what they are thinking when they watch, how bad they wish it was THEIR finger that was in me instead of my own. It makes me feel incredibly sexy to touch myself in front of someone, and then watch them touch their dicks as they get so horny that their inhibitions melt away.

"Ohhhhhhhhh," I moaned softly as I pushed my middle finger up into myself.

It had been a few days since I'd last been fucked and my pussy reminded me that it needed more attention. Would the guys want to fuck me? Would they pull their swollen dicks out and try to get them in me if I gave them each a lap dance? Would they want me to suck their erect cocks in front of their friends and maybe even a brother or father - or a son? While I may have contracted to just strip and tease, that didn't mean I wasn't hoping they would want more. My finger moved in and out of me as I imagined fingering myself in front of them, teasing them and asking them if they thought their dicks would feel bigger than my finger in me.

I pulled the dress up more so my bare ass was pressing against the cool wall of the dressing stall. I rubbed my smooth ass against the wall, pretending it was a guy's lap that I was pushing against. If only I could feel a hard dick now against my bare butt! The thought of a nice warm hard cock rubbing in between my firm ass cheeks made me shiver as I rubbed myself faster and faster.

I was so close to cumming now, I wanted to cum so badly! Quickly I pulled the dress over my head and let it drop to the floor in a heap. Pushing my clothes off the bench seat, I laid on my back with one leg over the side with my foot on the floor and the other leg up in the air, my other foot pressing against the opposite wall. Quickly my hand returned to my pussy while the pother gripped my boob. I pushed two fingers inside of me and didn't even think about it when a loud gasp erupted from my open mouth as I breathed more heavily. My butt was rising off the seat, instinctively thrusting up against the imaginary dick that was fucking me.

Who would fuck me? Heck, would ANY of them fuck me? It didn't matter as in my dreams I was imagining each of them ramming his dick in me, pushing his manhood deep inside of my cunt, pressing his forest of pubic hair against my bare and smooth pussy. I imagined the explosions within me as each of them erupted and filled me with their cum. Oh God, I was SO close now!

Another finger in me, making it three. I was fucking myself, masturbating furiously as I drove myself to the edge and then smashed through the barrier as if it wasn't even there. My pussy exploded, sending shivers throughout me. My hips thrust upward and I held them there, trying to drive the cock of my imaginary lover even deeper into me, trying to get his cum as deep into me as possible.

"Oh fuck me," I gasped softly, vaguely remembering where I was but unable to completely hold myself back.

It was wonderful, the most incredible pleasure a woman can experience and I was feeling it in spades right now. I gritted my teeth to keep from crying out loud as my hips jerked almost involuntarily under my "lover", bucking up and down like a whore. My face and chest felt like they were on fire as I flushed deep red, goose bumps rising all over me at the same time.

Finally it was over and I dropped my sweaty ass to the seat and just laid there, my foot down from the wall now and on the bench seat. I pulled my wet fingers out of my pussy but kept my hand cupped against my pussy as it would spasm erratically, like small aftershocks following a major earthquake. I placed my other hand over the first, pulling my hands up tight against my throbbing crotch, letting just the pressure of my hands stimulate me. I realized I was breathing deeply, almost gasping as I caught my breath. Damn! I felt so fucking good!

"Excuse me, are you all right in there miss?"

From somewhere I heard a light knocking on the door and she repeated herself. Crap, it was a sales lady, probably the same old biddy that had seen me before. Hmmm, I wondered just how much she had heard? How long had she been standing outside the door listening to what was going on inside?

"I'm fine, be out in just a sec," I responded, trying to sound as calm and normal as I could under the circumstances. My pussy suddenly convulsed and I gasped before catching myself. God I wanted to be fucked!

"Are you SURE you're OK?... Well, I was just checking. Someone said it sounded like something might be wrong so I just wanted to be sure"

Oh really? So there HAD been someone else back here? If so, they must have come in after I started masturbating and lost track of what was happening outside. Wow, that might have been embarrassing! Sure in all the porn stories the lady joins in but this was real life and odds were it was some dumpy old lady who probably hadn't experienced an orgasm in years. Sheesh, couldn't they leave people to masturbate in peace? Or was it just a story so she didn't have to admit she had been listening in on me?

Whatever the real story, I quickly dressed and tried to straighten my hair as best I could with a small brush from my purse. There was no hiding the flushness in my face, though, as that might take an hour or more to completely go away. Oh well, the worst of it faded quickly and I doubted the sales lady would say anything anyway. Taking a deep breath to try and slow my heart rate, I picked up the dresses and headed back to the sales floor.

"Oh good, find something you liked?" the sales lady greeted me as I emerged. She was smiling sweetly at me with that "I know what you were doing" look but I just smiled back at her and handed over the dark brown dress.

"Oh this must have looked great on you," she complimented me, "For a party or a dance?"

Oh how I was tempted to tell her the truth! For just a moment I imagined the expression on her sweet face if I said it was for a bachelor party and I was going to be stripping my way out of it in front of a dozen men or so. Instead, I told her it was just for a "party" and indeed, I did think it was a great looking outfit. She just smiled and rang me up. I quickly ran my fingers past my nose and I wondered if she could smell my pussy odor? God, I must be reeking of sex right now! If there was one thing I'd learned about women - they can smell the sex of another woman a mile away. My mom use to wink at me whenever I would come home from a hot date and she once told me she could always tell the moment I walked in, no matter how dark, if I'd been laid.

3. Shopping For Lingerie

I took my bag and headed for the lingerie department. Most of my underwear was either too risque or too conservative for what I had planned. I seldom wear a bra and when I do, it's for one of two reasons - to tease a man or because I have to. If it's for teasing, then it's certainly something sexy and lacey, revealing and easy to take off. Then there are those times when society says a girl has to wear a bra - like when I was teaching at a Christian elementary school. Nobody was going to be seeing it, that was one thing that was for certain, so if I had to wear one, it may as well be comfortable - something most sexy lingerie is not.

Needless to say, neither style was going to work for the look that I was shooting for. I needed something that was just a little revealing without looking like it came from Victoria's Secret so my home collection wouldn't do. I needed to shop for just the right thing...

The lingerie department appeared to be as slow as the rest of the store with two ladies standing around looking totally bored. Both looked to be in their late thirties or forties, neatly dressed and attractive. As I approached the bra section, one of them came over and asked if I could use some help. I politely declined which she took graciously enough but then asked if I had been fitted recently. Well, the truth is that I've never had a formal "fitting", just buying what I had before and then changing size as it seemed necessary. In any case, it wasn't like I wore one that often anyway and so long as they didn't hurt, what was the big deal?

"Oh it's up to your dear," she smiled, "it's just that most women don't get fitted properly and you might be amazed at how much better a proper bra can feel."

First, why do all older women like to call me "dear"? No matter, she meant well I could tell. Now she had me curious. Exactly what was a "fitting" anyway? I shrugged and said OK.

"Well, we need to go in back... don't want all those bored husbands watching now, do we dear," she said with a wink. Not that I could see any around, but I knew what she was talking about. Nothing more nosey in a store than a poor guy being force to follow his wife around like a whipped puppy as she spends forever looking for an outfit.

Once in back by the dressing room, she motioned for me to go in a dressing room saying, "With that heavy sweatshirt on, you really need to take it off so I would imagine you'll want some privacy."

It was all I could do to stifle a giggle. If only she knew what I did for a living! She seemed really sincere though, and I could tell she meant well. There was absolutely nothing in her demeanor to indicate it was anything but what she said. Now if it was a MALE salesmen...

Inside I slipped off my sweatshirt and I think I surprised her a little when she realized I had nothing underneath.

"Oh," she let slip out a little as she glanced at my bare chest and then looked away.

"Sorry, I usually don't wear one," I said, trying to sound apologetic for surprising her with my bare chest.

"Oh don't be silly dear, I just wish I could get away without one and look as good as you," she replied wistfully, as if recalling days long past. From what I could tell under her dress, she didn't look too bad herself and I imagined she probably still had a nice set of boobs herself. "Now let's get you measured up..."

She had me stand straight with my arms out just enough to be able to wrap her measuring tape around my chest. She measured under my boobs to get my chest size and then around the fullness of my breasts to get the cup size. My nipples were still semi-erect from my recent masturbation and the feeling of the cloth tape against them stimulated them once again, making me jump slightly.

"Sorry, you must be really sensitive," she apologized.

If she only knew WHY they were so sensitive! For just a moment I had a vision of her reaching out and cupping my boobs in her hands, telling me she needed to check their firmness. Of course that was unnecessary and she never did anything even remotely outward towards me, but I wondered how she would have reacted had I taken her hands and placed them on my bare boobs.

"Hmmmmmm, looks like we have a 36C here," she concluded, "Was there any particular style or brand you were looking for?"

I hesitated, wondering what I should tell her. "Well, it's for my boyfriend and he has this fantasy about an old teacher of his..."

I let my voice fade out, as if saying, "and you know what he wants to see." She got the picture and I smiled as she swallowed a little bit harder than normal. Then she smiled at me, as if I had just told her the weather outside.

"Well, I think that's sweet. He's a lucky boy to have a girlfriend think so much about him.... Wait here for just a second - I have just the thing."

She checked to be sure nobody was outside the door and then exited, shutting the door behind her, leaving me standing there topless. A few minutes later she was back, carrying a couple different bras in her hands.

"You know, I have to admit, I've always loved these," she said softly in a conspiratorial tone, "I don't think my husband would know what to do if I wore anything like this these days."

The first was sheer black with rear snaps and deep plunging front. The top edges were all lacey and it looked quite sexy.

"Here, let me help you get it on," she offered. She help it out by the shoulder straps and placed it over my boobs, letting me put my arms through the straps and then moving around to the back to do the latches.

"Now I bet you just wear them off the shelf like this, don't you dear," she asked rhetorically, continuing on as if she already knew the answer - which she did. "I don't know why so many girls don't take the time to get them properly fitted."

As she was talking, she was adjusting the shoulder straps and tugging on the cups to seat my boobs properly. "Do you mind?" she asked politely, as she cupped my boob and held it up a little as she adjusted things some more. For whatever reason, feeling her hand under my boob, cupping it gently but firmly, was more erotic than I would ever have expected. All I could think was how I wanted her to just squeeze it a little - oh PLEASE massage it! Alas, she was being professional and once she was done, she released me as my pussy was feeling hotter and wetter by the moment. Had she ever been with a girl? Had she ever cupped a girl's boobs in her hand and then reached down and sucked on her nipples? Had a girl ever touched hers? What would she say if I reached for hers and began to touch them?

"There... how does that feel now?"

I had to admit, she was right - the bra DID feel better now. I looked in the 4mirror and loved how it looked on me. It barely was enough to cover my nipples and it enhanced my cleavage without squashing my boobs together like those damn "wonder bras".

"I hope you don't mind me saying this dear, but you look great in it," she said, almost apologetically as if she was afraid I would take offense, "You're guy is going to love it." Well, technically that should have been plural, as in "guys", but little did she know.

"You know, I brought another one in but I think this one already looks perfect on you," she continued, "then again, I think just about anything would good on a body like yours."

I was actually surprised she said that and I think she was too as she suddenly backed away as if she had crossed a line she hadn't meant to. I couldn't help but smile as I knew she hadn't meant anything sexual and that if anything, she seemed a little embarrassed that I may have taken it as such.

She left to room to let me get dressed. I took off the bra and reached for my sweatshirt. AS I pulled it over my head, the soft material brushed against my now totally erect nipples, making me shiver as it dropped into place. Damn, I wanted so bad to masturbate now but she would be wondering where I was and there would be no hiding what I had done. I couldn't help but wonder if she didn't already smell the sex on me from my last dressing room session.

I paid for the bra as the sales lady - I never did get her name, took my charge card and rang me up without hardly looking at me. The other sale lady came up to help bag up the bra and she looked at the other woman as if she wondered what was wrong. I smiled as she handed me the bag with my receipt and as I walked away, I wished I could hear what the two of them were talking about.

I had some panties at home that would work so that ended my shopping trip. Now all I had to do was wait for the big event! As I walked through that Food Court to get back to my car, who should I see but my best friend Beth along with Samantha, another good friend of mine.

"Hey girls!" I greeted them and we all hugged.

Beth looked at me in my dungy outfit and shook her head saying, "Damn girl, I guess it's dress-down day. What's in the bags?" We all sat down at a table and the two of them looked through the two bags.

"What in the world?" Beth mused as she pulled out the dress, "Not quite your style girl. What's the story?

At the same time, Samantha let out a low whistle as she showed Beth the nice bra I had just bought.

"OK, those definitely do NOT go together," Beth laughed, "Since when do you dress like an old lady... and what's with the bra anyway?"

I explained to them about the bachelor party - they both were well aware of my recent "career move". Both of them giggled a little as I explained to them the background.

"So you're to be the ice queen teacher who changes to a slut when the clock strikes midnight?" Samantha teased me, "Sounds like a modern Cinderella story."

I wasn't quite sure where she found the analogy but that was Sam for you. In case you haven't read about her, she was the one who introduced me to my first - and LAST, experience with K9 sex and always seemed to have something a little off-the wall to say. She meant well and was certainly not as dippy as my cousin Kristen, but still... you had to think sometimes about what she was saying.

"So how many 'students' will you be 'teaching'?" Beth said with a naughty grin.

I actually wasn't sure but I got the idea it would be around eight or ten from what Brian had told me. "So no records then I take it," Beth teased.

I looked at her with a sharp look, pretending to be offended that she would imply such a thing. We all broke up laughing. She was, of course, referring to the most number of guys I had fucked at one time at a party. Well, ten guys wouldn't come close to a new record but it was certainly a nice number. Honestly, there comes a point when the more, the NOT merrier.

We went on talking about friends and boys - the usual subjects of our conversations. Beth tried talking me into going with her to a party but I just avoided the subject. She had been trying for months now and I just couldn't get myself worked up for one. She loved them to the point where I had to wonder at times if she ever had sex with LESS than three or four guys but that wasn't for me. Group sex certainly had its moments but for me, I had to be in the right frame of mind. It was different when it was part of my job but when it was for my own pleasure, give me one guy anytime, OK maybe two.

Friday finally arrived and I was ready to go. I had shaved - everywhere, and cleaned myself up with just the right amount of makeup so I looked good but not like a whore. The outfit was perfect! Looking in the mirror, I shuddered as it brought back memories of some teachers back when I was in school - the ones with no sense of humor who always were so strict and unrelenting in their demands for homework. Of course, not many wore thigh-high black hose, at least not that I had noticed, but unless I lifted my skirt I could have been wearing pantyhose for all anyone could tell.

The bra actually felt good - I had to get fitted more often and maybe next time, with someone a little more 'accommodating". The panties were a new pair I had bought a while back but had yet to wear. Although not "granny panties" by any stretch of the imagination, neither would they qualify anywhere close to being a thong. Actually, they were quite comfortable. Of course, nothing felt better than the air against a bare bottom, but if I HAD to wear panties, these were the ones to choose. Thongs may show off your ass nice but it's like walking around with a full-time wedgie!

The one thing that gave me away, if you looked at it that way, were my shoes. Not many teachers wore five inch black heels but I love the way they showed off my legs and besides, there had to be a hint of the seductress under the old-maid dress. My hair was pulled back tight into a bun behind my head, something I rarely did and had a bitch of a time doing myself but it really made me look the part. A small pearl necklace was all the jewelry I wore besides a set of diamond earrings that my dad had recently given me for Christmas. It was too bad he was working late, as usual. I could only imagine how his imagination would have been fired up had he seen me as I prepared to head out the door. I pulled out a long black coat to wear as it was pretty cold and damp out, plus it helped to hide the outfit for the time being.

4. Arriving At the Party

It took about twenty minutes to drive to the address I had been giving. Following instructions, I parked a couple of doors down so I wouldn't be in front of the house and then slipped in behind the house to the back door. I knocked softly but someone must have seen me coming because the door opened up almost immediately.

"Hey, you must be Kelly," the guy said cheerfully, motioning me to come in.

Taking a deep breath, I stepped inside before I changed my mind. Suddenly all the talk and fantasies were gone and everything was REAL. Damn, what was I getting myself into?

My first impression was whoever lived here was a pig. The door led into a laundry room with clothes just thrown on the floor making it hard to walk without stepping on something. The washer and drier were different colors and from different manufacturers, not quite what you would call a matching set. Empty detergent bottle were scattered about and the place smelled of sweaty clothes and dirty underwear. To say I was a little disgusted would be the understatement of the year.

The guy ahead me fit right in. He was wearing a dirty white t-shirt and torn jeans - not the king that you pay a fortune for in the trendy stores. He had what looked to be at least a few days growth and then I noticed he was barefoot! He didn't look back at me until we entered the kitchen.

Based on the condition of the laundry room, I shouldn't have been shocked by what the kitchen looked like but despite the forewarning, I still couldn't help but gasp a little at the disgusting display of filth and disarray. Somebody actually ATE in here? Apparently so based on the number of pizza boxes and dirty dishes, not to mention the beer cans scattered about plus a few bottle of some liquor or another. Well, I knew what my answer would be should someone offer me anything to eat - anything to drink better come in a sealed bottle or can!

I was about to turn around and just walk out without another word when the guy turned around, looked around at the mess around us, and shrugged his shoulders.

"Sorry for the mess, the housekeeper's out this week," he said in a lame attempt to be funny. "Nobody is here yet; I wanted you to get here first so nobody would know about you until the time came." He looked me over like a judge evaluating a cow at a state fair. "Mind if I see the goods?"

I just rolled my eyes and unbuttoned my coat, opening it up to show him my outfit underneath.

"Mmmmmmm, great outfit, I'm Brian by the way," he said, introducing himself finally, "Damn, Bobby's gonna love that outfit." He continued to just stare at me and then grinned and asked, "Can I see what's underneath?"

Sheesh, what a moron! I shook my head and just smiled at him disarmingly. "Not until the show."

He frowned but didn't push it, thank goodness. Last thing I needed was some macho guy pushing me around from the start. Then he motioned to me with his hand to follow.

"C'mon, I'll show you where you can stay until they get here."

Actually, the rest of the house wasn't all that bad. Messy, to be sure, but not in the stomach turning way the kitchen had been. It was your stereotypical bachelor house, or at least guys lived here. Several video games were attached to a couple of large screen TVs and a wide range of porno videos and magazines were spread about.

I followed Brian up the stairs to what looked to be a spare bedroom. I say that because the bed couldn't possibly have been slept in with all the junk piled on top of it. A treadmill was along the wall but apparently was either broke or unused as it now served as a dirty clothes basket.

"Please lock the door so nobody comes in and finds you," Brian instructed me. He paused for a minute, as if debating whether or not to ask something else. Well, he made the wrong decision.

"So tell me, how much for a BJ to get things started?"

My shoulders drooped and I just stared at him in disbelief. "Hey, I'm NOT a whore asshole."

"Whoa! Don't get all huffy on me bitch," he snarled, "Face it, it's not like you're a virgin either."

"You want me to leave now or what?" I huffed at him. He waved his hands and just laughed at me.

"Hey, you can't blame a guy for trying, can you?"

Before I could answer that one the way it deserved, he laughed again and quickly shut the door behind him. I just stared at the door, covered with a nude centerfold of Miss whomever. Why wasn't I surprised? I shoved some crap off the bed and took a seat, keeping my coat on. Well, THIS certainly wasn't the way I had hoped to get things started. I should have been feeling all hot and horny with anticipation. Instead I felt like anything but. I certainly hoped Brian wasn't representative of the rest of the guys.

After about ten minutes or so, I could hear more voices and doors opening and shutting as the guys started to arrive. The music got louder and the voices with it. I really couldn't make out what was being said but it certainly wasn't taking them any time to get the party rolling. I wondered when they would be asking me to come down and join them. Actually, the longer it took the better I figured. The drunker they were the more jerks they would be but at the same time, the more susceptible they were to suggestion. In situations like this, a bunch of drunks were actually easier to control than a group of guys with their heads still on their shoulders.

5. The Party Gets Started

It was almost another hour later and I was starting to wonder what the story was when someone knocked at the door. Unsure of who it was, I didn't say anything until I heard Brian outside calling me name. I opened the door and he was there with a beer in his hand and a shit-eating grin on his face.

"Well, you ready?"

By now I had settled down and WAS actually quite ready. If anything, the time spent alone had given me the chance to think more about what I would do once I went down the stairs into what was the equivalent, you might say, of a lion's den except in this case it was more like wolves. I gave Brian a naughty grin and a wink and followed him out into the hallway. The noise level rose as we neared the stairs and I started to wonder just how many guys were down there.

"OK, wait here until you hear me call you down," Brian whispered, hardly necessary as nobody could have heard him over the ruckus. I clutched my coat and waited nervously as he bounded down the carpeted steps and stood at the bottom of the landing.

"Hey you fuckers, it's time for poor Bobby here to have his last chance as a free man! " I saw him point to someone out of sight, apparently the guest of honor. "Hey Bobby, remember Miss Donnelly from school? Oh don't look so innocent, how many times did you jerk off over her after school!"

Everyone laughed and Brian waited for them to settle down - a relative term in this situation, then continued his introduction, "Well Bobby, you don't have to stroke it any more..... here she is!"

With that he pointed up at me and I took my cue and unhurriedly walked down the stairs, allowing myself to appear at a tantalizingly slow rate. I was completely covered at the time by my coat with only the bottoms of my calves showing along with the high heels and black hose. It suddenly dawned on me that I'd left out an important piece of the costume - glasses, but I doubted anyone was looking at my face anyway.

I quickly took in the room, counting only eight guys in all - not nearly as many as I was expecting from the decibel level earlier. It was easy to pick out the future groom. Bobby was sitting in an overstuffed chair, something that looked from a refugee from the Goodwill store (and probably was). He was holding a beer in one hand but the thing that grabbed my attention was damn, he was a hunk! As gross as his brother might be, Bobby was obviously the "good" brother of the family, although I had no idea that other members there might be.

The rest of the guys didn't look all that bad either, just your typical group of men that looked to range from maybe their early twenties to thirties. There wasn't anyone who looked to be too young while at the same time, no fathers either.

"Hi Bobby, ready for some lessons?" I purred as I approached him. Standing in front of him, the rest of the guys quickly moved their chairs in a sort of lopsided circle with Bobby at one end. I just ignored them for the time being, focusing completely on Bobby - not too hard to do with his rugged looks, close- cropped dark hair, and what looked to be already a bulge in his pants.

"Oh yeah, time for school!" one of them crowed as the rest of them quieted down a bit, waiting to see what would happen.

Taking my cue from Brian's intro, I leaned over and wagged my finger at Bobby, "You've been a bad boy after school, haven't you, playing with yourself and thinking of me?"

Surprisingly, Bobby actually seemed a little embarrassed, his face reddening a bit as if he was a bit self-conscious about all this talk of him masturbating. Well, maybe not so surprising after all. I've found that while men will joke about "jerking off", "stroking", and such euphemisms, they seldom like to actually discuss themselves masturbating. By the same token, they all seem to love watching a girl do herself, but when it comes to putting their hand on their own dick in front of me, very few men seem to be comfortable doing it.

It wasn't my job to make him uncomfortable so I dropped that line of talk and started to slowly unbutton my coat. "You don't mind if I stay a while, do you?" I asked, looking around a the rest of them as if I needed their approval as well. That created a momentary pandemonium as they all joined in to assure me yes indeed, I was more than welcome to stay all night - with obvious implications.

Slowly I allowed the coat to drop off my shoulders and then I slipped one arm out and then the other. Handing the coat to one of the guys, I stood there with my hands on my hips, my weight on one foot as I looked back at the groom. "I was told you liked this outfit... what do you think of it?"

Bobby just shook his head in disbelief. I was pretty sure his expectations were that under the coat would be much less - maybe just a garter for all I knew, or something similarly revealing. When was the last time a stripper took off her long coat and looked like a schoolteacher (and NOT a naughty one from their fantasies)?

I slowly walked around the circle, not quite strutting but authoritatively, taking control of the room. Suddenly music started to play and I instantly recognized the song - one of my favorites actually; "Doncha" by the Pussycat Dolls. It was a little early for such a song but it got the guys going which was what mattered. It was also loud enough that I didn't have to keep up the dialog, which was just fine with me. I was here to tease and show off, not audition for a play.

As the music played, I started to slowly dance, letting my hips move and my hands to run down my sides and then over my hips and ass. As conservative as the outfit was, they couldn't see any more than they would at church but I definitely wasn't dancing like it was Sunday morning. I had plenty of time so there was no point in rushing into anything. I knew the longer I stayed fully dressed, the more anxious they would get and the more impact it would have when I finally started to reveal myself to them.

As I slowly made my way around the circle, the guys would reach out and try to touch my butt or even reach under my dress to which I would playfully slap their hands to step away. The ones who kept their hands to themselves were rewarded by a touch on their face or shoulder and a personal smile from me. They were getting a bit antsy so it was time to get down to business. Standing back in the middle, facing Bobby, I slowly hiked the dress up, revealing more of my hose-covered legs until it was about mid-thigh level. I reached down and rubbed my hands over my thighs and claves, leaning over without bending my knees so my ass stuck out behind me. The just as I started to pull it up higher, I let it drop and shook my finger at him, as if to say, "what are you looking at?"

"Show some tit!" I heard Brian call out, followed by others asking for other parts of me to be revealed as well.

Well, they would just have to wait! I reached up and unbuttoned the top button of the dress under my neck, followed slowly by the next few until it was open down to my cleavage. Rather than show them anymore, I cupped my boobs in my hands and smiled.

"Keep going!" someone encouraged me but for the moment, I just hefted my boobs with my two hands and then ever-so-slowly massaged them. The smile on my face wasn't just for show - it felt good!

Turning around, I leaned over again, putting both hands on one ankle and then bringing them both up together, caressing my calve and then my thigh as my hands moved up, bringing the bottom of the dress with them. More and more of my leg appeared until finally the dress was up to the bottom of my rear and with a quick flip, I tossed it up to reveal my bottom to them. At that point they could see I was just wearing hose - not pantyhose, plus the sexy panties. No doubt they could have done without the panties but that was exactly why I was wearing them - to torment them for as long as possible.

Standing up again, the dress once again dropped to cover me up, much to the disappointment of the group but I had their full attention now. Moving closer to Bobby, I straddled his legs and then turned around and sat on his lap, rubbing my butt into his crotch through our clothes. His hands reached around me and landed on my upper thighs, ribbing me through the dress covering them. He started to try and pull it up but I pushed his hands down, keeping him from his goal. He then tried a new approach, running up to my boobs and grabbing one in each hand. This time I allowed it, until he tried to unbutton me more at which point I once again thwarted him. he grabbed them again and I allowed him to play with them while his buddies watched, their eyes fixated on my chest.

Pushing his hands away, I got up off his lap and turned around. Leaning over, I whispered in his ear, "Take my panties off but don't lift my dress up too much, OK?"

He grinned wickedly at me as I gave him a peck on the cheek and stood back up again. The other guys couldn't have heard what I said but they quickly got the picture as Bobby leaned forward and reached under my dress. I felt his hands move up my legs until he got to my crotch. I slapped at him through my dress and wagged my finger at him.

"Now now, that wasn't your homework assignment. Do you want detention?"

Probably he did, if it meant being detained by me, but that was beside the point. He shrugged his shoulders and looked at the guys as if to say, "Hey I tried!" His hand moved under my dress to my sides, gripping the panties. The dress was up to my knees by now but otherwise, all the other guys could see were the outline of his hands underneath as he wasted no time in pulling my panties down to my ankles. I stepped out of them and he waved them around like a prize for the others to cheer about.

It made me feel a little naughty to be standing there in front of them all, knowing that they now knew I was bare under the dress, at least so far as my bottom was concerned. Bobby passed my panties around like it was Show and Tell. More than a few of them couldn't resist putting them to their face, trying to get a sniff of my pussy.

With those out of the way, it was time to give some of the others some attention. There wasn't any real rhyme or reason to who to choose so I just stepped to the side and picked the guy next to Bobby. He seemed to be one of the older guys and I straddled his legs, sitting on his lap as I put my hands on his shoulders and ground my ass into his lap. His hands immediately went to my bottom, cupping each ass cheek in one hand as he squeezed my bottom. It actually felt good and I wiggled my butt for him to show my appreciation before moving on to the next guy. He was a little more ambitious, trying to reach down under my dress but it wasn't time for that - yet. I waved a finger at him to say he was naughty and moved on. This guy took his cue from the first one and again my ass got a nice massage for which he also was rewarded in the same way.

It took a while to get around the circle but eventually I was back to Bobby. My intent had been to give them all at least a little taste to wet their appetites, even if it did take up quite a bit of time during which they didn't get to really such much of anything but they didn't seem to mind.

Planting myself on Bobby's lap, facing him this time, I unbuttoned a couple more buttons on the front of the dress, revealing the bra underneath. It was now open enough that he could reach in - something he was quick to notice as well and he took advantage of my unspoken "offer", reaching one hand under the dress and grabbing my boob in his hand through the bra.

"Alright Bobby! Get some tit!"

I allowed him to fondle me for a while as his other hand roamed over me until it settled on my butt. I reached down, pressing my hand against his crotch. Yep, the boy as definitely turned on! As he groped me, I rubbed his dick through his jeans, pressing the base of my palm against it to apply pressure as I rotated my hand over his hardened dick. No doubt he was hoping I would reach in and release it but THAT was a long way off at the very least.

"You can undo the rest," I said softly to him.

He knew what I was talking about and quickly he used both hands to undo the remaining buttons on my dress. This allowed it to open up enough to get one hand on each boob and I leaned back so the pothers could see his hands over my breasts, fondling me through the lacey bra. Sure enough, he started to try and get under it at which point I pushed his hands away and slapped them sharply. Standing up, he let out a long breath in a huff as he realized I was disciplining him for going too far too fast. Well, what are teachers supposed to do when their student misbehaves?

I went back to dancing in the middle again, this time with my dress hanging open such that they could see my bra underneath. After a while I wiggle such that the dress dropped off my shoulders, catching it so it would stay up enough to cover my bottom half but allow my torso with my bra-covered boobs to be revealed. I held the dress up as I moved my shoulders and hips suggestively, leaning over so my cleavage was more revealing. They loved it - and wanted more of course but they would just have to wait.

Once again I did the circle routine, except this time when I sat in their laps they had a better view of my boobs barely hiding behind my new bra. Without exception, every one of them grabbed my boobs as soon as I planted myself on their laps and without exception, every one of them made a try at getting under the bra. You would have thought the later guys would have learned that when they did that, it was my signal to stand up and move to the next guy but it was like they couldn't resist.

Eventually I was back to Bobby but instead of sitting on his lap. I stood in front of him, looked around at the other guys, and then turned back to ask, "Well, what next - top or bottom?

Now that was cause for quite the commotion. Obviously there was a mixture of tastes in the group with some going for the boobs and others for the bottom. I knew what my preference was but I waited for Bobby to make up his mind on his own. It pleased me when he made the "right" choice, so far as I was concerned at least.

While it's a given that men tend to fall into "boob" versus "ass" categories, not so much is mentioned about a girl's preference, at least in her own situation. Take my cousin Kristen for instance; she loves nothing more than to run around topless - not so much naked as topless. It's typical to go to her house and see her in jeans or shorts with nothing on above them. With her perky boobs, she doesn't have to worry about supporting them the way, say, my best friend Beth, with her full D-cups, does. Beth has complained to me more than once that big boobs aren't all they are cracked up to be when it comes to back aches and bouncing.

At the opposite end of the spectrum from Kristen are girls like me, girls that love being bare-bottomed but not necessarily topless. I just love the feeling of cool air against my shaved pussy and ass. For me, the optimum outfit around my apartment is just a t-shirt to cover my top with my ass hanging out bare and free. Another outfit I feel good in is one of my dad's dress shirts. Although it technically covers my ass, I am still bare underneath which feels just as good - not to mention a little more modest should you have to open the door or have guests.

So when I say Bobby made the "right" choice, it should be easy to figure out what decision he made. Sure enough, he said the dress had to go. Excellent!

There were a couple of disappointed guys but at this point, I think most of them could have gone either way. I leaned over to give him another peck on the cheek to show him my appreciation and then stood backup in the middle once again. Slowly, ever so slowly, I wiggled and allowed the dress to inch its way down. First they got to see the crack of my ass and them more and more of my butt as I leaned over more and more to let the dress drop. Finally it was below my bottom and I knew they had to be able to see my pussy between the legs from the back.

"Oh yeah, not THAT'S what I'm talking about!' someone yelled as the rest just babbled on about me.

With the dress at mid-thigh, I let to drop to the floor, bunched around my heels. I stepped out of it one foot at a time, leaving it on the floor for the moment figuring someone would do something with it. I stood up straight, proud to reveal my body and pussy.

"Alright, she's shaved!" someone noted the obvious for the rest.

"God I love a shaved pussy," another guy chimed in.

"Hey Bill, does your wife shave her pussy?" someone asked.

I looked over at the guy who reacted, evidently it was Bill and so I knew at least one of the group was married. "Wouldn't you like to know!" he retorted, giving the questioner the finger.

This time when I made the rounds, I didn't sit on their laps but just let them get a good view of my. It was fun to see that without exception, every one of them was totally fixated on my pussy. Of course, it didn't hurt that I was fingering myself slowly as I showed off to them. It wasn't anything TOO much, just rubbing myself, but still, I knew every one of them was wishing it was their fingers in place of mine. A few of them even tried but I didn't even let them get close, pushing their hands away playfully but firmly. At this point it was just a strip show, nothing more.

The routine was becoming evident now as I got back to Bobby for the next "phase" of the show. This time I DID sit on his lap and once again, his hands went to my ass, except this time instead of feeling me up through my dress, there was nothing but bare skin for him to touch. I liked the way his hands felt on my bare ass – much better than through the dress and panties. He pulled me in tighter to him, allowing his arms to reach further around me. His reasons became obvious as his hands moved further down my ass and between my legs. He was trying to get to my asshole or pussy from behind but his arms were not quite long enough to bend that way sufficiently to reach – not that I was helping him out either.

"Sorry, not there," I teased him, reaching back and pulling his hands back to my round bottom. "Ready for more?"

He just nodded so I reached behind my back and undid the clasps that held my bra together. For the moment, I just undid it, loosening the bra but allowing it to come off so it was still covering my boobs. I stood up again, holding the bra to my chest so it wouldn't fall, rubbing boobs and wiggling my shoulders until the straps fell to my elbows. They were all watching me intently, waiting for me to release the bra until finally I allowed it to drop from my boobs but I let it fall to the floor and kept my hands on them, covering them as best I could.

I danced around and squeezed my breasts as they watched, undoubtedly hoping that another round of sitting on their laps would follow. I loved the way they were looking at me now. They all wanted me and I could see several of them sporting large erections under their pants. My pussy tingled as I imagined what they all must be thinking about me now, how they all wanted to touch me and yes, fuck me. It was the ultimate compliment and here I was getting it from all eight of them!

This time instead of finishing with Booby, I started with him. Rather than sit facing him, I back in and sat down firmly on his crotch. I could feel the bulge underneath me and I imagined the straining of his dick as it begged to be released and find its way into me. If only it knew how much my wet pussy wished it was in me as well! Yes, I was not horny as hell! Really, how could you be all but naked in front of such a group and NOT want to be laid? Heck, I would have been happy to give them each a blowjob but that was the about the last thing I was going to let them know - at least for now.

Bobby reached around and put his hands on my stomach and then quickly worked his way up to my bared boobs. It felt great to have his hands on me, squeezing them and tugging on my erect nipples.

"Oh yeah, that feel soooooo good," I moaned as the others watched enviously.

They must have figured they would get their turn eventually, but each probably wished they had been first. Bobby's hand started to move down towards my crotch but I pulled them back to my chest. Turning my head around as much as I could, I teased him by saying, "Sorry, that's just for me for now." To demonstrate my point, I spread my legs apart more and put one hand between them, cupping my pussy protectively but at the same time, pressing the base of my palm against my clit, making me shiver slightly. I didn't really play with myself, just putting my hand over my pussy, but it was enough to get the peanut gallery going.

"Damn, look at that cunt!" some ignorant guy remarked. "God I want a piece of that pussy," another added.

It was time to make the rounds but this time I didn't sit on their laps. I knew the temptation would be too much and I didn't want to have to fight each one of them off so instead, I stood in front of them and put my hands on their shoulders, leaning over so my boobs hung down in front of their faces. I even let them swing forward until they brushed against their faces. A couple of them reacted by sticking out their tongue to try and lick me but I rewarded them by pulling back and moving to the next guy - something you think would have discouraged the next guy from trying the same but needless to say, each one thought THEY were special. It was all tease at the moment and I felt I was doing a pretty good job of teasing them - and myself as well.

6. Getting More Personal

By now the clock on the wall said I'd been there for almost two hours. It didn't take long for time to pass quickly when you were trying to have fun with all eight guys. I started to pick up my clothes, signaling the end of the show. Well, they weren't ready for me to quit and to be perfectly honest, as hot and horny as I was now, neither was I. However, this was not a sex party where I would go and do it with whomever just for the fun of it. This was business, my livelihood now, and I needed to make every dime I could. Brian came up to me and put his arm around my are shoulder, managing to grab a feel of my boob in the process but I ignored it.

"So hey, what's it take to get a more... say 'personal' show?" he asked, the others listening intently to the "negotiations". This was where things got a little tricky as I couldn't come right out with a menu or anything. Whatever it was, it had to come from him or else I was setting myself up to be charged with prostitution - not exactly a resume builder should I ever want to return to teaching.

"Such as?" I asked, as if I wasn't sure what he meant.

"You know... something more personal."

"Well, what do you guys want?" I replied, looking around at the group. They just sat there though, waiting to see what Brian cold work out with me.

"Well... I guess...," he stammered. He took a deep breath then and finally let it out of the bag. "I'd LOVE that BJ now if you don't mind."

I just rolled my eyes, as if I was amused more than anything.

"Is that so? Well, what's in it for me?"

"Well, my dick for starters," he replied, drawing a chorus of laughter from the group.

"And....?"

Brian looked around at the guys for support but they left him hanging so he made his appeal. "How about $50 bucks each? You guys all in for that? I'll put in for Bobby too."

They all nodded and why not? Fifty bucks for a decent BJ wasn't bad, but I guess you could consider it a volume discount. Hmmmmmm, $400 didn't sound bad for a quick round. I shrugged as if to say, 'What the hell, why not?" and everyone applauded.

Of course, each guy wanted to be first, not the least of which was the guest of honor, but I decided to leave him for last. Of course, there was a few things to be settled first, actually four hundred things. The wallets came out and I saw a few of them negotiating loans from their neighbor. It was a little surprising to me that ALL of them agreed. I had expected there to be at least one or more hold-outs, typically the guilty husband who was feeling naughty enough to even come to such a party, let alone do something like this with the stripper.

Well, not this group. Either they were all just that type or Brian had chosen who to invite carefully. It didn't matter, I was just glad it worked out without a scene. Brian handed me the cash which I put in my coat pocket, hopefully safe.

I decided to do Brian first. Why not get the worst over first and thus not have outthink about it coming up later? Kneeling in the center of the floor, I motioned for him to step up to me and as he undid his belt and jeans, I prepared myself for the worst. When it comes to sucking dick, I really don't care all that much if the guys is short or tall, fat or skinny, white or black. All I DO care about it that he have a clean dick and can get an erection - not as simple as you might think for some guys, especially the ones who haven't been circumcised. Judging from Brian's appearance, God only knew when he last bathed!

As he dropped his jeans to his feet and stood there waiting for me, I reached out and grabbed his dick. He was already erect and had a decent sized cock, about 5-6 inches which I would consider average for most men. He had bushy black pubic hair and hairy balls, which didn't really since I planned to just suck his dick. His dick felt warm in my hands, and despite my disgust for him, I found myself drawn to it like a moth to a flame. I just had to ignore who it was attached to and enjoy it!

With seven more to do, I wasn't about to waste a lot of time so I went straight at it, taking his dick in my mouth and plunging my face into his crotch, feeling the base of his dick against my lips as I easily took his entire dick in my mouth in one quick movement.

"Holy shit, will you look at that bitch!" someone cried out as I wiggle my head around his dick.

He put his hands on each side my head and started to move me back and forth on his dick, using me like some obscene sex toy to stroke his dick in and out of my mouth. It wasn't like it was one of my better blowjobs, not by any means, but Brian was so worked up he came almost immediately, surprising even himself I think as suddenly he started shooting cum into my mouth. Damn, that was like what, two minutes at most? It wasn't lost among his so-called friends either.

"Shit Brian, talk about a one-minute wonder!"

"Damn, you sure got your money's worth!" someone else taunted him.

Meanwhile, I was swallowing his cum and waiting for the next one as they got in line. Thankfully, Brian hadn't been anywhere near as horrid as I had worried he would be. Sure, his crotch smelled like he hadn't bathed in a week but that wasn't so bad. Actually, he tasted better than I had figured considering how much beer he had drunk. It wasn't something I would have wanted to spend all night with, but heck, I can take two minutes of most anything, especially when I get paid $50 for it. Hmmm, that was what, $1,500 an hour you might say?

It probably took me no more than 45 minutes to finish off the next six. It was like an assembly line and not exactly what I would have called the most erotic experience of my life. I LOVE sucking dicks but this wasn't the way I enjoyed it the most. Sure, taking on so many at one time had its appeal but if I had my druthers, I'd be lying on a couch with my head in my boyfriend's lap, sucking his dick as we watched a movie or TV show, taking my time and enjoying as much pre-cum a I could get before he finally released himself into my mouth. This was more for them than me, but it WAS still a bunch of dicks to suck so I can't say I wasn't enjoying myself.

Most of them came in my mouth but there are always those that seem to just have to spray themselves all over me. Inevitably , it's the ones with the biggest loads, or at least that how it seemed this night. By the time I was ready for Bobby, I had cum on my boobs, in my hair, and of course my face. I tried to get as much of it off my face with my fingers, licking the cum from them as I did, but there were the inevitable leftovers.

Bobby was still in his chair but I noted somewhere along the line he had removed his jeans and underwear, leaving him naked from the waist down with his cock sticking out from his forest of pubic hair like thick tree. Using the back of my hand to make one last try at wiping the cum from my cheek, I licked it off my hand as I crawled to him on all fours.

"Does your fiance suck your dick?" I asked him.

He nodded so I pressed on, "I bet I can suck it better than she does."

"Alright Bobby... go for it!" Brian called out to encourage him.

Even though he was getting married the next day, apparently it didn't bother Bobby to have a stranger suck his dick but then, he WAS a guy after all and based on my experience, not many guys could turn down such an offer, regardless of their marital status. Guys all seem to love a good blowjob - and based on the past hour or so, even not so good ones! I guess I was being overly critical of myself. They all had gotten off and nobody complained, that was for sure. It was just I have higher standards for myself when it comes to sucking dick.

Booby spread his legs apart obscenely, giving everyone a great view of his crotch. I'm not so sure how the others felt about seeing it, but it made my pussy cry out as I wanted nothing more than to skip the blowjob and mount that wonderful dick. However, I AM a professional

Rather than take his dick straight in my mouth as I had done with all the others, I gently stroked his cock, spitting on my hand to lubricate it and stroking my fist up and down his stiff shaft. With my other hand, I reached between my legs and for the first time that night, I started to play with myself. God, I was soaking wet! My finger slid into me easily and I moaned softly as I continued to stroke his cock while I masturbated myself.

"Fuck, look at her doing herself!" someone exclaimed, as if they had never seen a girl masturbating before, at least besides in a porn flick.

Well, who knows, maybe he hadn't? So much the better so far as I was concerned. I loved to be watched while I play with myself. I guess it's just the fact that someone gets off seeing me doing something that brings so much pleasure to myself, I don't really know. Maybe someday when I go to therapy someone can tell me what drives me to do many of the things I do!

Bobby's cock was easily the biggest of the bunch. It still wasn't anything huge, but well above average, maybe even as much as eight inches. Needless to say, I didn't have a tape measure so all I had to go on was how far my hand covered his cock and he was a "two fister" for sure! More importantly, he was nice and thick. Sometimes long dicks get to be like long hotdogs - what they gain in length they lose in diameter. Not so with Bobby's. If anything, his expanded in proportion making it such that my fingers barely closed around it as I squeezed him in my slick hand.

Length isn't really all that a deal for me. If anything, longer dicks are more a nuisance than anything. Sure I can deep throat but let's be honest, deep throating is for the GUY, not the girl. I mean, who really enjoys shoving anything down their throat, even if you do develop the ability not to throw up or gag when it's there? I do it only for the thrill I know it gives a guy when he sees his entire cock disappear into my mouth with my face buried tight up against his hairy crotch. Frankly, I'm not even sure WHY that is such a turn-on but when it comes to men and their dicks, who can really explain anything?

I had to have his dick in my mouth. With my finger in my pussy, I was feeling hornier than ever and all I could think about was taking his fat hard cock in my mouth. I wasn't even listening to the others anymore, concentrating solely on his erection as I lowered my face to his dick, tasting just the tip of it with my tongue. I licked the head, running my tongue around it as my mouth slowly engulfed him. My tongue stayed at work as I took more and more of him in until I could feel his dick pushing against the back of my throat. God, there was still another inch or two to go!

I relaxed my throat as much as possible and pushed down hard, driving his dick into my throat. Regardless of how much practice you get, there is still that initial moment of panic when you think you're going to gag - or worse, but the trick is to realize it's coming, be prepared for it, and get past that point and take him in deeper before you DO gag. Guys whose dicks barely make it to your throat are actually harder to take in than the longer ones as you never get past that gag point. That wasn't going to be a problem with Bobby, you could definitely say that!

"Shit, she's got him all the in!"

"Damn, what a fucking slut!"

And so it continued, a constant chorus of lewd remarks and nasty compliments. I lifted my head up and let his cock out until just the tip was in my mouth, allowing me to look up and our eyes met. He smiled down at me, his eyes rolling as he just sat back and allowed me to minister to his swollen member. I bet ol' what's her name never sucked his dick like this before! The best thing was, he would never forget it either and every time she tried to suck his dick in the future, he would remember how I was taking care of him now.

I bobbed on his head, doing the classic figure-eight head bob as my mouth twisted and turned around his dick like a corkscrew. I was still playing with myself with my right hand while my left hand was carefully fondling his hairy balls. Nothing takes the edge off a good BJ like crushing a guy's balls! Some guys liked me to suck on them but the same coarse pubic hair that I loved to feel against my face while I sucked his dick was a major turn-off to me when it was in my mouth. Some guys shaved but then I missed the thick thatch of hair against me as my face rubbed into his crotch. I also love playing with a guy's hair by just sticking hand down his pants and running my fingers through it. I also think a guy smells much more musky when he's not shaved.

"Oh shit, I'm gonna cum!" he groaned as he planted both hands on top of my head and tried to forced me down onto his dick.

There was once a time when a guy came while I was deep throating him and that was the LAST time. God, I thought I was going to die. He was lucky I didn't bite his dick off when I started to choke and gag uncontrollably. Yep, I learned THAT lesson the hard way - so to speak. I grabbed the shaft of his dick so regardless of the pressure he was putting on me, my mouth stopped when I reached my fist, keeping several inches of his dick out of my mouth.

"Oh fuckkkkkkk!" he groaned even louder this time and I felt his hips start to rise up against me and I knew he was only seconds away from unleashing himself in my mouth - if that long.

Sure enough, almost instantly he convulsed and I felt the warmth of his cum shooting into my mouth, striking the back of my throat and threatening to gag me but I held my mouth on him as he unloaded another great shot of cum in me, followed by a series of smaller shots. His hips thrust upwards with each shot, as if he a fucking my mouth and trying to drive the cum deeper into me.

Finally he finished and I withdrew my head, trying hard not to swallow or choke on his cum. I opened my mouth and stuck out my cum-covered tongue for all to see, closed my mouth, swallowed hard, and then showed them all it was gone. It was like when your mom gives you some medicine and you have to open your mouth to prove you swallowed it. Well, Bobby had given me more than a teaspoon of "medicine", and it was just what the doctor ordered for me.

"Damn, what a slut, did you see that? She swallowed every drop!"

There were plenty of other compliments as well as a few rather disgusting descriptions of my blowjob techniques, all of which were in one way or another a compliment to my skills if you looked at it the right way. Well, so much for THAT $400. I think they got their money's worth. I stood up, a little wobbly after playing with myself and sucking him so hard. I saw Brian, who still had his dick out and was stroking himself as he watched me blow his brother. None of the other guys were doing themselves although a few had not bothered to dress yet. Their dicks were back to being hard again although if they HAD been masturbating, they weren't being as overt about it now as Brian.

"Damn girl, that was quite a show, he said, stepping over to me as I started to gather my clothes again. The troglodyte was still stroking himself, even as he spoke to me not a foot away. Well, he had already gotten his BJ so I hoped he wasn't hoping for an encore performance. As it turned out, he wanted more than that.

"Alright, so how much to fuck you?"

7. Raising the Stakes

People wonder why I don't negotiate rates for sex up front. Well, this was why! Ignoring the legal ramifications of doing it ahead of time, it simply made business sense to leave it until the party. Right now every guy in the room was totally at the mercy of his dick. Every one of them had cum in the past hour or so and I had some of the proof still on me! Talk about a negotiating position! I had them all in the palm of my hand and they would do anything at this point to get more of me. That didn't mean I WANTED them to fuck me, but it DID put me in the driver seat for most anything else.

"I thought I told you before, I'm not a whore!"

"Yeah right, and I'm the King of England. C'mon baby, quit teasing. How much to fuck you?"

Well, he asked for it. Honestly, I loved the blowjobs and I was happy. I could home now, masturbate for a while, and be satisfied. Being fucked by a bunch of strangers wasn't something I necessarily wanted to turn down, but at the same time it wasn't something that I would regret of I didn't. It would just be for my physical gratification, which isn't nearly as satisfying as when I get the full emotional element involved. If I just let them line up and fuck me, then I really WOULD be nothing but a whore, no better than my cousin.

"OK, then $1,500 - each," I proposed. It was the sort of offer that I felt I had to make, but at the same time one I knew they would never accept. Thus it put the burden on THEM, not me, as to whether they fucked me and nobody could say I refused them.

Brian practically choked as he took in what I said. "WHAT? You're kidding. No way... I mean you're hot but nobody's THAT hot."

I shrugged my shoulders as if it didn't matter to me. After all, I already had a thousand dollars for the night between the standard party fee and the BJ extra so I wasn't complaining. Then a thought occurred to me and I gave Brian an evil grin.

"I tell you what... you guys get together and pool your money and I'll let you watch me fuck your brother for a grand."

I said it loud enough so everyone could hear and it set off a firestorm of discussion. Well, we would soon find out if Bobby's friends were really all that good of friends or just over for thee free beer and show. Then too, there the matter of Bobby. Sure, getting a BJ was one thing before your wedding night - isn't that rather traditional? But having SEX, well that was a whole different story. Would Bobby want to take the chance of his fiance finding out that he screwed another girl on the eve of their wedding? To be fair, did Bobby even want to fuck me. Maybe he really did honor and respect his fiance such that he honestly didn't want to have sex the night before their vows.

Had I been taking bets, odds were the cost was a moot point and Bobby would squelch this before it even got started. He seemed a decent enough guy after all. Even if he DID say yes, would his friends really pony up that much money for HIM to get laid but not them? Now THAT would be the sign of some pretty damn good friends, that would be for sure.

And to think people wonder why I am not big on gambling...

"Nine hundred, twenty, forty, sixty, eighty.....one thousand," Brian finished counting out the cash into my outstretched hand. Crap, they had really done it. Somehow they had scraped together the cash. First, I was dumbfounded that between them, they even HAD that much cash. Someone tried to offer a check but I refused that quickly. Brian turned to Bobby, who seemed a little bewildered as well.

"OK bro, it's a done deal. She's all yours!"

Bobby seemed a little hesitant but after I quickly tucked the money away, I stood in front of him, hands on my hips and weight on one leg - almost exactly how I has started except now all I was wearing were the hose, heels and a smile. Bobby was a little drunk and a lot horny. Nobody could blame him for giving him - he was just a guy after all.

"Oh alright, but I don't want you guys watching, nobody's gonna blackmail me with this later so no proof. C'mon girl, let's go back to the bedroom."

Alarms went off and flashing lights appeared in my head. Nope, not going to happen, no way, no how. I shook my head vigorously and told him in no uncertain terms that if he was going to fuck me, it had to be here and they all had to stay. It looked like a stalemate until a genius of an idea struck me.

"Brian, go get the comforter I threw off the bed upstairs and bring it down. Your brother can fuck me under that."

Brian looked at Bobby, who just shrugged. Brian was back in a flash with a large comforter which he spread out on the floor in the middle of everyone. I pulled it back and motioned for Brian to lay down on the floor. Given the state of the carpeting, I'd rather HE be on the floor with me on top!

Brian left his short on and took his place. I pulled the comforter over me like a cape and lowered myself down onto him, straddling him as I pulled the comforter around me to hide me from the waist downward. I could feel his hard dick poking me between my legs, seeking out my pussy like a heat-seeking missile - and I was plenty hot for it to latch onto, that was for sure. This was kind of cool actually, everyone could see me yet at the same time, they couldn't know for 100% sure what was going on between Brian and me. Oh sure they knew, but here was nothing they could say under oath later if someone should spill the beans. Brian could always say he just simulated sex with me, like some silly R-rated movie.

Well, this was NOT going to be any simulation, I knew that. Crap, even if Brian was uncertain about it, I certainly wanted it. Now THIS was what I wanted, what turned me on. This wasn't just a line of guys ramming their dicks in me like some inflatable doll until they came and the next one took his place (been there, done that). No, this was a guy on the eve of his wedding to the girl he supposedly loved and adored above all other, getting ready to fuck me less than 24 hours before he swore never to have another but his wife. Technically he wasn't committing adultery, but it was a very fine line and I doubt his fiance would've seen the difference.

Not only was the groom to be fucking me, but I had an audience as well, something that always turned me on. I LOVE to watched having sex, knowing those watching are all wishing they were participants rather than observes. Every guy watching me now had one thing on his mind, what little of it may have been functioning properly at the moment. Every last one of them was wishing HE was the guy on the floor and it was THEIR dick poised to violate my wet and hot pussy. I loved it that they all wanted to fuck me but only one of them was getting the chance. I bet the others would be jerking off for years as they fantasized about it being them that was fucking me.

Reaching between my legs, I grabbed his dick and held it in place as I maneuvered my hips to position his cock at the entrance to my pussy hole. God he felt so hard and warm and I wanted in me so bad - SO BAD. For hours now I had been teasing and sucking and it had made me just as horny as it had them. Oh yeah, I wanted to be fucked just as much, maybe more, than good ol' Bobby. When he was in the right spot, I dropped myself down on him, literally ramming his dick into me in pone swift motion until I landed on his lap, impaled on his rock-hard shaft like a popsicle on a stick - except I was far from being cold.

"Ohhhhhhhhh yeahhhhhhh!" I moaned as I felt him filling my pussy with his wonderful cock. God he felt so good in me, it was like he was up inside my belly!

"Fuck her Bobby!" I heard Brian cheer him on.

OK, so legally Brian couldn't know for sure I was actually sitting on his dick, but based on our mutual reactions, there was little room left for doubt unless were both Oscar-winning actors.

I had to use one hand to hold the comforter around us or it would have fallen to the side and revealed what was happening but I was sure the guys watching had a pretty damn good idea of where Brian's dick was right now. My other hand was rubbing my clit, my fingers working myself over furiously as I rode Bobby's wondrous dick. Damn, he was so thick it was like he was spreading me apart and about to split me in half!

"Oh god your dick feels so good in me," I sighed as I rocked back and forth, his dick drawing itself out of me as I leaned forward, only to bury itself deep in once again as I leaned back.

Bobby had his eyes closed, as if he couldn't bear to see the guys watching him fucking me. At the same time his hips were bucking under me as he tried to drive his dick deeper into me, trying to mate me as instincts developed over the millennia drove his actions. He had his hands on my waist, pumping me up and down on his swollen dick together with his sharp thrusts as he fucked me harder and faster.

"Fuck me Bobby, fuck me harder... fuck me harder!" I gasped as I began to feel my orgasm finally rising within me.

Suddenly it was like someone lit off a bomb under me as my pussy clamped down hard on his cock and my back went rigid, my head falling backwards until I was staring up at the dirty ceiling, frozen as waves of pure ecstasy suddenly poured over me like dike had suddenly burst and was now washing over me with a flood of pleasure. Oh god it felt so damn good! I cried out something unintelligible, babbling it seemed as my pussy squeezed down on his cock, holding it tightly as he groaned from the grip I had on him.

I could feel my pussy gushing over him, almost like I was peeing on him, flooding his crotch with my cum as I came even harder. My head whipped forward and I collapsed onto his chest. My pussy throbbing as I tried to breath but it was like a camp was closed around my chest, making it all but impossible to read. I was humping my ass up and down on his dick, driving his rigid cock in and out of me as fast as I could, trying to get him to cum in me, Oh god I wanted him to cum, I wanted to feel his warm cum inside of me, I wanted him to flood me with his sperm.

"Cum in me dammit, I want you to cum in me!" I begged him, barely able to gasp the words out as I felt his erect dick sliding in and out of me.

By now I had no idea what was happening around us, what they were saying or what they were thinking. All I cared about at this instant was that wonderful dick in me, that fantastically thick cock that was filling me so full and which I was dying to feel release itself inside of me.

"Oh fuckkkkkk!" he suddenly exclaimed and I instantly knew why as he slammed his hips upward into me, driving his cock even deeper into me than before as suddenly I felt that warmth within me that meant only one thing - he was cumming in me.

Mmmmmmm, this was just what I needed as another orgasm struck me, not as hard as the first but still wonderful. It was like my pussy was milking his dick, gripping it and releasing it, squeezing every drop of cum from him that it could.

He was finished but I was still riding the wave. Somehow I managed to get back on my knees and I ground my ass into his crotch, trying to get his rapidly dwindling dick into me more.

God I wanted to be fucked more. I wanted another dick in me. Hell, I wanted ALL their dicks in me! I wanted to keep feeling the way I was feeling now. I wanted to feel their dicks in me, shooting their cum in me as they erupted in lust for my body. Who cared if it made me a whore. At this moment the only thing I cared about was the incredible sensations that rocked my entire body, that raised goose bumps on me from head to toe, that made even my hair sizzle like I had stuck my finger in a wall outlet. I ground into his crotch, feeling his thick pubic hair against my smooth ass, tickling me like a hair brush being drawn across my bare butt.

I was panting like I'd run a mile race. His dick was barely in me now, a small cousin to its original size while in its full erect glory. I lifted up just a little and it easily slipped from my soaking wet, stretched pussy. I let the comforter fall to the side as now there was nothing to hide. His dick lay limp to one side, covered with a mixture of our cum as it glistened in the light. As I started to stand up, I felt some of his cum drip from me and down my thigh. It was noticed by the rest of the crowd as well.

"Alright, a creampie!"

"What a cunt... damn I want a piece of that!"

I was still in a bit if a haze from my orgasm, the effects of which were still rippling through me like aftershocks following an earthquake. My nipples were poking out like magnum bullets and my pussy felt like it was filled with cum as some more drained out of me as I stood up. Damn, how much had he cum in me? Not bad considering it was the second load of the evening for him.

For just a moment I considered offering myself to the rest of them. It was only a few moments ago that had they ripped off the comforter and taken me, I would have willingly laid back and let them each fuck me one by one. Damn I had been so horny then - not to say I wasn't now.

But now, I was standing up with my hair a mess, my pussy dripping cum, sweating like I had just come from a sauna, and to make matters worse, the dried cum was starting to itch where they had sprayed me earlier. As much as my pussy would have loved to have more dick, some form of sanity was returning to me and I realized I had better leave before I allowed something to happen I would regret later.

Grabbing my clothes, I rushed off to where I had seen a bathroom upstairs and locked the door behind me. Ignoring the inevitable filth around me (I certainly wasn't going to sit on that toilet!), I looked in the mirror and gasped. Who the hell was THAT looking back at me? I was a wreck. My face was flushed beet red, my hair was a disaster and what little makeup I had worn was now streaked and messy.

I hurriedly pulled on the dress and buttoned it up, shoving the bra and panties into my coat pockets. Surprisingly, the money they had paid me was still in the pockets. I say surprisingly because I wouldn't have put it past Brian to pull it out while I was fucking Bobby. Apparently, he had been too interested in what we were doing to think about it as I am sure he would stole it back had he thought of it. Pulling my coat over me like protective armor. I made my way back down the stairs where they were all dressed again and apparently talking about all that had just happened. They started to say something to me but I just walked right by and headed for the back door as fast as I could. I was about to open it when a voice came from behind me.

"Excuse me, could you wait a sec?"

I turned and to my surprise, it was Bobby.

"Ummmmm, I just want to say I hope you're OK, you were really great you know."

I looked at him and just waited, figuring there had to be more than concern for me. Sadly, my cynicism was right on the mark.

"You know, I really DO love Cindy, I just want you to know that," he went on haltingly, "I mean... well if she ever... she can't ever find out what happened today."

I just shook my head sadly at him; it was like watching a car wreck in slow motion.

"I think you have more to worry about back there than you do from me," I said a bit harshly. "You didn't seem so worried a few minutes ago."

He started to say something back but I raised my hand to cut him off. "Look, you have no worries about me but let me say this - I hope your Cindy, if that's your fiance's name, DOES find out. You fucked me today and you don't know a thing about me or care one damn bit who I am. Don't even try to tell me that you'll be faithful - you deserve whatever happens if she ever finds out."

With that I bolted from the house and went straight to my car. As soon as I was in, I locked the doors and just sat there, trembling. It felt good in a way to tell him off but at the same time, lord only knows what he might do to me if he felt threatened. I quickly drove off and as I put my distance between me and that dungeon of a house, the warmth between my legs began to overcome the coldness in my heart. Yeah, Bobby was a bastard and I really did hope his fiance found out before it was too late. Then again, she WAS engaged to him so she had to know his friends. Who knows, maybe she was a whore herself? Either way, he HAD fucked me pretty good and overall, I had to say I enjoyed the evening.

Back home I dumped the heels with the first step in the door and quickly stripped off the dress and hose, throwing them in the laundry basket. I couldn't get in the shower fast enough as I felt a total mess. The warmth of the water flowing over my breasts and down my belly to between my legs reminded me of how it felt while Bobby was fucking me. Damn, I needed to get laid more often! Maybe I should take Beth up on one of her party offers?

(Jan 01) Chapter 176: New Year's Eve

Me (23)
Kristen - cousin (21)

So much for my plans to spend a relatively quiet New Year's Eve with some close friends. When my slutty cousin Kristen called to ask me if I was interested in having some "fun", I should have known better but then, when have I ever been able to resist her offers? What a way to bring in the new year!

1. A Little History About Kristen

I had it all planned out... a gathering with a few close girlfriends, maybe a Sex in the City marathon, some sinfully high-calorie food, and who knows, maybe even some wine. Overall though, my plans for the 2009 New Year's Eve were to spend a relatively quiet spent with people I loved - nothing crazy.

When will I ever learn?

"Hey cuz, whatcha got planned for New Year's?"

The smart thing for me to have done would have been to hang up the moment my cousin uttered those words. There was only one reason Kristen would be asking me such a question - she already had something planned for us. Even though at this point I had no idea whatsoever what those plans might be, there was one thing I WAS sure of, it wouldn't be a quiet New Year's Eve!

In case you haven't read about me and my cousin in previous diary entries, a QUICK rundown on Kristen. She's the only daughter of my mother's only sister. Her asshole of a father divorced her mother when Kristen was still very young simply because he couldn't deal with incest. He knew full well before they were married that she would continue to have sex with her father and brother-in-law (my dad whom she's been with since high school), but apparently when the reality sunk in, he was too insecure to handle it and eventually just abandoned them, never to be heard from again.

Aunt Linda never remarried and the two of the them practically lived at our house, making Kristen more of a little sister (by two years) than a cousin. Growing up, we were extremely close but also quite competitive - she always seemed to have to one-up her older cousin be it going for a boy who was younger, wearing a dress that was sluttier, having sex earlier than me, and so forth. Although like many teenage girls we would masturbate together, it never went any further than that as in no touching each other. Even those times when we would share a boyfriend, we didn't do anything with each other than the occasional incidental contact.

Unknown to me, when I left for college Kristen assumed my duties when it came to satisfying my dad's needs. OK, maybe I was naive but I never dreamed my dad would be fucking my cousin, hot as she was, so I never even had a clue what was going on until the following summer. What a July 4th! Let's just say I learned a lot about her and her mom that I didn't know before - including how they'd been having sex since Kristen was just a little girl.

After that, we would play around at times but it never evolved into anything we did a lot. Part of it was because of the separation - I went to a private Christian college while she chose a local public university. Even Kristen will admit she's not the sharpest knife in the drawer when it comes to academics and it didn't help she was far more interested in the boys and parties than her studies.

In the end, I graduated with an elementary school teaching degree while Kristen dropped out her second year to pursue the one career she was sure to excel in - prostitution. Don't get me wrong - I don't mean she was a hooker or a streetwalker or anything like that. She works for a high class agency with standards and security and all that. Even so, I still call her a whore - something she doesn't really appreciate but hey, I call 'em as I see 'em.

There have been a few times when Kristen invited me along on one of her "appointments". Most of the time I declined but there were a couple times when, against my better judgment, I would agree. The most I care to say here about those times is that they were an 'experience". It wouldn't be fair to say I didn't have fun and enjoy myself, but at the same time certain things went way over the top so far as I was concerned. Overall, I would put them in the "been there, done that" category - fond memories to be sure but nothing to be repeated.

2. Kristen's Invitation

When Kristen called me and asked me about my plans for New Year's, I knew it could mean only one thing. There was no way someone in her profession would be NOT working that night. It would be like a store closing the day after Thanksgiving. Kristen generally made a killing on regular nights so I could only imagine what the biggest party night of the year would bring her. The question for me was why she wanted me to join her. Thus I stayed on the line and waited impatiently for her to explain herself.

"OK Kelly, I've got the coolest thing and you'll LOVE it, I'm so sure," she gushed over the phone. I just stayed quiet, figuring she would just go on anyway so why interrupt?

"OK... here's the story... this group of guys want to rent this big van or limo for the night and drive around town and they need some companionship, if you know what I mean."

Well duh, I knew exactly what she meant, or so I thought. They wanted to get laid while driving around town. Not exactly an original idea but so far that didn't sound all that crazy so I let her go on.

"There's some party they want to go to then and we just have to dance and be friendly," she concluded. She paused but when she got no response from me, she asked, "Kelly? You still there?"

"Yeah, I'm here," I responded noncommittally.

"So what do you think? It's not supposed to be crazy like the last time so I thought you might want to go out and have some fun. You've been like a hermit lately."

The "last time" she referred to was when we joined up with another girl to be the "entertainment" at a private suite during some trade show or convention. It was insane - a solid evening of being fucked virtually non-stop, not to mention guys jerking off and spraying me all over. By the time the night was done, I was only barely conscious of even being fucked and it took a LONG shower to even get the majority of the cum off of me. DEFINITELY a one-time thing. OK, so I was glad to have done it ONCE just for the experience of a monster gangbang, but not ever again.

As for being a "hermit", sure since moving to my own apartment I hadn't seen her as much. At the same time, after splitting up with my boyfriend whom I THOUGHT I was going to marry just a few months ago, my dating life wasn't exactly stable. I was going out now and then, but just one-night type of things, nothing requiring any emotional involvement. I had also started my own "business: entertaining at various home sex parties which was certainly one way to get out of the house, so to say. Sure, I spent a lot of time in my apartment alone, but that didn't qualify me as a hermit!

"Well... I don't think so Kristen, sounds like it could get out of hand again like the last time," I demurred.

"Oh Kelly, you've become such a fuddy dud lately!" Kristen huffed on the other end of the line, "C'mon, loosen up a little."

Loosen up? What do you call a business where you dress up in sexy lingerie and parade about in front of a group of people all but naked? Not to mention last month when I did a bachelor party where I fucked the groom. A don't forget the time a month after that when I the husband of one of the women at a party I did fucked me while she watched! So give me a break cuz, I haven't exactly become a nun.

Well, I didn't SAY that all to her but the thoughts were going through my mind. Then again, maybe I HAD been a little too conservative lately. I couldn't even remember the last time I'd accepted one of Beth's invitations to her sex parties. Since breaking up with Duane, I was only getting laid maybe once or twice a week if you don't count my dad which was usually once a week, maybe twice. I like to tell people that I don't masturbate to compensate for lack of sex but rather because I enjoy doing it regardless of how often I was fucked. Well, lately, if I was honest with myself, I'd been masturbating a LOT, even more than normal so maybe I WAS compensating a little now.

It's amazing how many thoughts can run through your mind in a few seconds but still, Kristen was getting impatient with me.

"Well, I just thought you'd want to do it with me, sorry if I bothered you!" she huffed, "Whatever."

I was about to hand up when I thought about it some more. Oh what the hell? Why not? After all, how many guys could fit into a limo? Even if we ended up at some party, there were bound to be other girls there as well so it wouldn't be like the last time where I had dozens of guys lining up to do me. Maybe it wasn't the evening I had planned on, but it should be fun and after all, isn't that what you're supposed to do on New Year's Eve - have fun? I caved and told her I'd do it. She squealed with delight like a little girl and told me she would call back with the details later. I hung up the phone with instant buyer's remorse. What the heck had I gotten myself committed to?

First thing I had to do was call Beth, Nancy and Samantha to tell them my plans had changed. Nancy and Sam didn't seem to care too much one way or another and told me to have a good time. Bath, on the other hand, was a little miffed that I would pick my cousin over her, especially since I had made plans with Beth first.

For a moment I considered asking Beth if she wanted to join us but I knew better. Beth loved group sex more than anything so that aspect wouldn't have bothered her a bit. However, Beth DID draw the line at being paid for sex, regardless of the rationalizations. She would know Kristen was being paid handsomely for the evening and even if she didn't accept a cut, so far as the guys were concerned she would be a whore and that was a line she refused to cross.

I finally pacified Beth by promising her I would go with her to a party soon after the new year started. Hopefully she wouldn't insist on cashing in her chips with me but if she did, I would do it - that's what friends do after all. I knew the three of them would still have a good time but I felt a little pang of guilt for not following through with my plans with them.

3. What to Wear?

New Year's was only a few days away so I hoped Kristen would get back to me with more details. What was I supposed to wear - something formal or casual? Conservative or slutty? I'd love to have known how many guys (and girls?) there would be. Not that it would determine whether I would go or not, it's just I would feel better not walking in totally in the dark. Fortunately she called me back the next day with more information.

"OK, here's the scoop..... it's just you and me in the van. Figure on maybe three or four guys with us at most. They said the party would be a lot of people - lots of girls too, so don't worry about that Odds are they'll be so drunk it won't last for long anyway."

Sounded OK to me so far. "So what do I wear?" I asked.

"Does it matter, you won't be wearing it for long anyway!" she teased, well maybe half-teased because there was probably quite a bit of truth in what she said.

"Yeah, but we should go the same, don't you think?"

"Well, I was planning on a short skirt and blouse, something accessible and easy to take off and get back on again," she answered.

"Panties?"

"Kelly! You know the drill so why even ask such a stupid question," she sighed, "We're not going out to the mall flirting you know."

She was right - it WAS a silly question when I thought about it. Sometimes we would go out minus the underwear when the goal was just to tease and flirt the poor guys at either the mall or somewhere else we might be hanging out at, even a restaurant. The difference was in those cases, they only got to SEE, not touch. Wednesday night would be quite different in that the idea was NOT to let them see at first but eventually they would get what they wanted, including the touching part. Sort of strange when you think about it - the better the odds of getting laid, the more clothes I wear!

The skirt idea sounded good. Shorts are always nice but after all, it WAS January and the weather wasn't forecasted to be all the warm either. I had a number of skirts that would work so the question was, which one to wear? Sorting through my closet, I pulled out several and laid them out on my bed. It seems every time I go out on something like this it's the same routine - debating what to wear. Sometimes I think it must be nice to be a guy - just grab a pair of jeans and a shirt and go for it, who cares if it's been washed or worn before!

In the end, I didn't choose any of them. Instead, I decided to go with one of my newer outfits - a skintight white dress that looked like it had been painted on me. It came down just a couple of inches or so below the bottom of my ass but it stretched so much that when I sat down, it still covered my butt while exposing my entire leg and upper thigh. One definitely had to sit with your legs crossed when you wore this one - or safer yet, don't sit at all! It came up top behind my head like a halter with a deep plunging bust, almost like a halter bikini top except in this case, the opening continued down about six inches below my cleavage, held together with a thin webbing that revealed everything behind it.

The back of the dress was largely exposed, with it coming together just high enough to cover the crack of my ass. Actually, the back reminded me of many of the dresses worn on Dancing With the Stars where it almost looked like the girl was wearing nothing as her entire back is exposed except for the top behind her head and then nothing until you got down to her ass. It was pure white and while not exactly sheer, being so tight it showed EVERYTHING underneath like someone stretched a piece of opaque plastic wrap over me. It was easily the sluttiest dress I'd ever bought. Well, actually my dad bought it for me so that should help explain why it was so revealing.

I then picked out one of my skimpier white thongs. It barely covered my pussy but then that was why I was wearing it - to ALMOST let them see my pussy but not quite. Other than the dress and thong, the only other thing I would be wearing were some white heels. They were nothing outrageous, just three inches, but it WAS winter and it was hard enough to walk in a dress like this one without worrying about falling on your face.

4. Starting Out at Kristen's Place

Wednesday morning, the last day of 2008. I deliberately left my alarm off and tried to sleep in as long as my body would take it. I had little hope of getting a lot of sleep tonight so I may as well store up as much as possible while I could. The last hour or so I tried to force myself back to sleep but my hand kept finding its way between my legs as I laid on my side facing away from the window. I guess technically I was masturbating as my fingers were touching me, but it was more like I was running on automatic, just instinct maybe. I was relatively wet and sometimes as I laid there I would just push a finger up into me and lay still, feeling my pussy throbbing with my heartbeat. It was a good feeling, more one of overall satisfaction than lust, like scratching an itch that just won't quit. I didn't even orgasm, or even come close. All I did was close my eyes and let my hand do whatever it wanted to. Finally I was starting to ache from overstaying my welcome in my bed so I got up, threw on a pink terry robe, and after a quick pit stop, made my way to my little kitchenette. I turned on the counter-top TV and poured myself some cereal. Times like this made me almost wish I drank coffee - a little pick-up wouldn't have hurt. Instead, I just grabbed a Diet Coke from the fridge and got what little caffeine fix I could from it. There you have it - cereal and Diet Coke - breakfast of champions. Actually, lunch would've been more appropriate since it was already past noon.

I was feeling restless and needed to get out of the apartment. You know the feeling - when the walls seem to be closing in and the air is stuffy. At the same time, driving to the mall wasn't exactly on my Top Ten list of things I looked forward to today either. I picked up my cell phone and punched in my cousin's fast dial code. I had no idea what her plans were for the day or even where she was.

"Hey girl, you all ready for tonight?" she answered the phone, obviously recognizing me on her Caller ID.

I explained my situation and she sort of giggled on the phone. "Well, why not come over here for the afternoon? Bring your stuff so we can get dressed together."

I asked where her mom was and I could hear a distinct sigh before she came back to me. "She went over to see your dad last night and can you believe it, she's STILL not home! She didn't even bother to call me. I ended up spending the whole night alone - can you believe it? So now I'm fuckin' horny as hell."

"Well, that should get taken care of tonight," I teased her a bit.

"Maybe it would for you, but I need to get laid NOW!" she retorted. The funny thing is, I wasn't sure if she was just joking or not.

I told her I'd be over in an hour or so. After hanging up, I put away my so-called "meal" and went to my bedroom to pack up my outfit. It was looking crappy outside so I found an old dry-cleaning bag to put over my dress. Gathering my makeup, I stuffed it in an overnight bag along with my thong and heels. I was tempted to call my dad and find out if my Aunt Linda was still there. Damn, so she had spent the entire night? I guess things were different now that I wasn't living there.

It was a short drive to my cousin's and so I ended up getting there earlier than I'd said I would but I was sure she wouldn't mind. I parked on the street in front of her house and went up the stairs to the front door. I didn't even get a chance to ring the bell before the door opened and there was Kristen, standing there naked as the day she was born. She looked a little flush and I could smell her sex as it was almost overpowering. Damn, she must have been really horny! She smelled like she'd been masturbating all afternoon.

"Oh my God, I thought you'd never get here," she gushed, pulling me by the hand inside. "What the hell are you doing still in those clothes?"

Well, maybe it had something to do with the fact I'd been there for maybe just ten seconds? Kristen and I spend a lot of time together... well, saying "a lot" is probably an understatement at best. Although we DID have sex now and then, it really wasn't something that came up all that much. Sure many a night we might be watching a DVD or something on cable and masturbate together, but it was more for our own satisfaction and not something we did for each other. I knew Kristen and her mom did it together quite often - every night if you believed Kristen's side of the story versus a few times a week according to my aunt.

There WAS one thing that I DID know about Kristen, the girl was a certified sex addict. There have been times I wondered whether that description applied to me as well but all I had to do was compare myself to Kristen and either I was just in the amateur league or didn't even qualify in the first place. "Nymphomaniac" was another term that undoubtedly applied to Kristen, as it seemed her desire and drive for sex was insatiable. Fortunately for her, with her "underage" looks and "I'll do anything so long as you fuck me" attitude, there seemed to be a never-ending supply of boys more than willing to take care of her "needs". With her career as a prostitute ("high-end escort" according to her), she even had the means to make quite a comfortable living while accommodating the most important thing in her life to her - sex.

So take a girl like Kristen, who expects to get fucked every day and sleep with SOMEONE every night, and have her spend the night alone while dangling the prospect of an adventurous evening out (I STILL wasn't exactly sure what was going to happen), and you can just imagine the results. It was obvious from her look and smell that she had been masturbating for quite a while before I came over. It was also just as obvious from the wild look in her eyes, her racing heartbeat and quick shallow breaths, that she was NOT finished.

Well, I can't say I was disappointed now that I'd come over early. I quickly started to undress while Kristen practically ripped my clothes off of me. She ran over to the couch and laid back against the pillow on the end, putting one foot up on the couch and letting her other leg dangle over the side. It had the effect of giving me a great view of her pussy, not to mention making it VERY accessible as well. Damn, what I would give to have a body like hers!

OK, so I was horny now as well. Maybe not to the extent she was, at least not yet, but what normal girl would NOT be getting wet seeing this little nymph practically begging me to lick her pussy? Well, to be fair, she WAS begging.

"Lick me Kelly... oh fuck lick my cunt!" she kept demanding, repeating it over and over.

There are some things you NEVER have to be asked twice to do; licking my hot cousin's pussy was near the top of the list. God she was so damn cute! Although she was twenty-one, she looked more like seventeen or eighteen, or even younger depending on how she did her hair and makeup. With her baby-smooth pussy and perky boobs, she could have passed for a high school girl easily. No wonder she was in such demand at her agency!

Kneeling on the floor, I pushed her legs even further apart and reached out to run my finger along her pussy slit. It was already slick and her clit was swollen from whatever she'd been doing to it before I'd arrived. My index finger easily slid between the folds of her puffy pussy lips and I pressed the tip right on top of her swollen clit and just wiggled it. Damn, I thought Kristen was going to hit the ceiling!

"Oh Christ, that feels so fucking good!" she exclaimed as her hips swung up instinctively.

My cousin had one hand gripping the top of the couch and the other on the edge of the seat cushion, holding them so tight her knuckles were white as she gasped for air while I massaged her ultra-sensitive clit. Damn, I knew she was easy to bring to orgasm but this was ridiculous. She had to have been really going at it before my arrival.

Pushing just my middle finger into her tight pussy, I followed it soon afterwards with my index finger, letting my thumb continue to press against her slippery clit. I pumped my fingers in and out of her quickly while I ran my thumb in tight circles around her clit.

"Lick it... oh fuck lick it Kelly!"

I moved my face right up to her pussy, just a couple of inches away. The odor of her sex was almost overpowering and it drew me right in to her like the scent of blood in the water calling to a great white shark. I kept my fingers in her but replaced my thumb with my outstretched tongue. The touch of the tip of my tongue against her was enough to make her cry out yet again, encouraging me to lick it like a tiny popsicle. Then I took it in my mouth, tugging on it and letting it snap back into place, then returning to my licking once again.

"Don't stop... oh fuck me don't stop now!" she grunted through clenched teeth.

I could feel the tension in her soft thighs as I held them further apart, Moving my hands under her tight little ass, I lifted her up slightly and pressed her into my face tightly, moving my head back and forth to drive my tongue all over her pussy. Suddenly her body went rigid and her butt clenched. Kristen's pussy clamped down on my fingers and then her cum gushed out all over my face, washing me it. I loved the taste of her and I licked it up like a cat at a bowl of milk.

"Oh god, PLEASE don't stop..... oh fuck me that feels so fucking good!" she gasped, getting just a few words out with each breath.

Kristen's hands moved to her breasts, gripping them tightly as I continued eating her pussy. I loved the feel of her tiny butt in my hands. God what I would give to have such a tight tiny ass!

Just as she started to relax, I pressed a third finger into her and lightly bit her clit, then I licked it while I pulled on it with my teeth. Back up the orgasm hill she went, reaching the peak quickly.

"Oh stop... you're killing me," she begged but then the truth came out, "Oh fuck me, don't stop, I don't want you to ever stop!"

This time her orgasm seemed to linger on even longer, it was similar to like a man who can go longer without cumming the second time after he's gotten the first one over with. I knew from past experience that Kristen could keep going like this for a long time and lord only knows how many orgasms she was capable of having - probably should ask her mom about that sometime. To be honest, I was a little bit jealous now - I wanted some of this too!

I lifted my head up and wiped some of her cum from my face with my hand, licking it off as best I could. I pulled my fingers out of her and used the palm of my hand over her clit to apply pressure without directly stimulating it with my fingers. Kristen just laid back with her eyes shut, still holding onto her little boobs like they were going to fly off if she let go. She was panting like a rabid dog, struggling to regain her breath. God she looked so beautiful laying there, like some little sex goddess who had just received her offering.

"My turn," I declared as I stood up.

Indeed, my own clit was practically screaming at me for attention. At first she didn't even move a muscle or respond in any way. Well, I guess I would have to do what I had to do! Moved over to where her head was and lifted my leg up and over her face, placing my knee to the inside of her head against the back of the couch. Balancing myself by holding onto the arm of the couch behind her head, I straddled her pretty f7ace and lowered my pussy to her lips. As my pussy touched her mouth, her eyes popped open and she grinned once when realized what was trying to get her attention.

Without saying a word, her tongue extended and I could feel it exploring my crotch. Then I felt her hands on my ass, gripping my butt cheeks and squeezing them like some old lady in the supermarket checking out the melons. Her hands were a lot smaller than mine and my ass was bigger than hers so she couldn't grip my butt the same way I was able to grip hers, but still, I loved the sensations it gave me. I rocked slightly against her face, closing my eyes so I could focus better on the wet snake that was running all over my pussy. God she had such a long tongue, like she was born to lick pussy.

"Yeah Kristen, that feels soooooo good," I encouraged her, as if she needed any encouragement.

I like to think I suck cock and lick pussy pretty damn good, but face it, I was literally in the hands of a professional. Sure my mom had made me feel good but that wasn't because her technique was particularly great, it was the emotions and feelings that we shared when she licked me. With Kristen, though, it was all about me, all about MY pleasure. The fact that she was my cousin wasn't all that erotic. No.... with Kristen it was all about having sex with an incredibly beautiful and vivacious woman who LOVED sex every bit as much as me, and was damn good at it too.

I hadn't the advantage of a "pre-game warm-up" that Kristen had enjoyed prior to me doing her, so I wasn't as quick to cum as she had been - not that I took all that long. I had always been able to cum faster than Kristen for whatever reason. When we were teens and masturbated together, sometimes we would have little contests to see who get themselves off the fastest. Kristen never won - although a few times I let her so she wouldn't feel so bad about it. I considered it a gift. Some women claim to never even be able to reach orgasm, or if they do, only with an extraordinary amount of stimulation. Well, THAT was never a problem for me! Even when I first started masturbating, I soon learned that with the right amount of "persuasion", I could experience something that felt like nothing else in the world. Maybe that's why I've always been such a masturbation freak.

As she licked me, I felt Kristen's hand move between my legs and she started to rub her finger ju7st outside of my asshole. She knew better than to push it in, but it did feel good to have her wetted finger teasing my asshole. Sometime she would press her finger against it, threatening to penetrate my ass with her finger. God she was such a tease sometimes!

I opened my eyes and looked down at my crotch, Kristen was focused on my pussy and didn't see me watching. I loved seeing her face between my legs, her nose pressing against me, rubbing up against my clit as her tongue explored my pussy. What a beautiful picture it would have made. Mmmmmmm, talk about your "Kodak moment"! For some reason, seeing her in addition to feeling her against me lit the fuse and I could tell what was about to happen - or should I saw what WAS happening.

"Ohhhhhhhhh!" was all I could get out as it felt like suddenly the room temperature dropped to freezing and goose bumps seemed to pop out all over me, then the thermostat somehow reversed and it was scorching hot, sweat breaking out on me as every pore in my body tingled like it feels when your funny bone is struck. Damn it felt so good!

Kristen, recognizing what was happening to her older cousin, renewed her efforts, forcing me to cum even harder. As her tongue and mouth attacked my clit, it was like the entire room shrank and the lights dimmed to where my entire universe consisted of her mouth on my pussy.

"Oh my god Kristen, that feels so good!" I gasped, grinding my pussy into her soaking wet face.

It just went on and on and on. I never wanted it to stop.. It was like the most wonderful feelings anyone could ever imagine and I wanted it to stay this way forever. Indeed, it felt like it was. Somehow Kristen could sense when I was either going too far or starting to back down and she was adapt to my reactions, either pushing me harder or letting me die down just enough to keep me on that knife edge of my orgasm.

Finally I couldn't take it anymore and I was about to collapse so I laid down next to her on the couch, the two of us facing each other arm in arm, hugging and kissing her. Our legs were intertwined such that each pussy as being pressed against the other's thigh, the pressure alone enough to make me feel so good! She must have felt the same as now and then it was like an involuntary little hump of her crotch against me would suddenly appear, only to go away again as we just gathered our strength once again.

Neither of us said a word - there was nothing to say. I could feel her breast pressed against mine, her nipples teasing against mine. Her mouth tasted so good after licking my pussy and I am sure I still had enough of hers on my face to remind her of where it had been - as if she needed to be reminded.

It was a good thing I'd stopped by early as we laid that way for a good hour or more, resting as we held each other close. I felt spent at first, like I'd just finished a major workout. I loved to run my hands over her firm naked body, feeling the tips of my fingers start at the back of her neck and work their way down her back, over her tight little ass and then down her fantastic legs. Her body was perfect - soft, warm and smooth. She would also run her hands over me, making me shiver when she would stroke just the right spot. I loved it best when she played with my hair, running her fingers through it,

I might have just spent the night with Kristen this way – the heck with the party! However Kristen, ever the pro, wasn't as willing to shirk her duties so easily.

"Hey cuz," she whispered in my ear, "We have to be ready soon."

I just whined softly like a little kid not wanting to get out of bed for school in the morning. True, a bed would have been more comfortable but the couch forced us to stay tightly together so it had its advantages.

"C'mon girl, up and at 'em," she pressed, pulling herself away and getting off the couch. I looked at her standing there, nude and beautiful. God what I would give to look like her! OK, so I don't think I look all THAT bad, but still, Kristen had it all – and in spades. She reached down and took my hand, pulling me up and off the couch.

"They're going to pick us up in an hour or so – lots to do before then!" she reminded me. Indeed, a shower was now a necessity and that meant doing my hair again and makeup – not that it didn't need it after our little tryst. I knew her house only had one bathroom so that meant we'd better get going.

"If we shower together, it will probably speed things up," she suggested. Kristen must have caught the grin on my face because she clucked at me and wagged her finger, warning me, "Now don't get any ideas girl, we really DO need to get going here."

It was like she could read my mind sometimes! Then again, it didn't take a psychic to realize that I would've loved to rekindle the fire under the deluge of a hot shower. I just frowned, pretending to be disappointed (well, not pretending TOO much). We headed up to the bedroom and bathroom. Fortunately my dress didn't require ironing – it was so tight that just putting it on stretched out any wrinkles that may have formed.

Unfortunately, at least from my perspective, the shower went uneventfully. To be fair to Kristen, we really DID have to get it in gear if we were going to be ready on time. For me this was just a party but for her it was business, and she needed to be on time for her "appointment".

Once we were finished in the bathroom, we went to her bedroom (which she shared with her mom) to get dressed. As I struggled to pull my dress over me, she helped by tugging it down and working it such that it was properly in place. Standing back, she looked at me and whistled.

"Damn, that is one hell of a dress, Kelly. Where did you get it?"

As I tightened up my heels, I explained to her how it was a present from my dad - even if he only saw me for a few minutes in it before he had me take it off. As for her, she had quite the wardrobe to choose from. I guess since it was her daily profession, she needed quite a range of outfits to satisfy the various customers she encounter. I shuddered to imagine what some of the perverts she must have to satisfy demanded of her. She had already picked out her outfit, though, and it was hanging on the back of the bedroom door.

Compared to my outfit, which I considered to be somewhat sophisticated, hers was more casual but still not just your typical Friday night getup. The skirt was jet black, the type that is tight around your waist and hips but then opens up more as it reaches your thighs, letting it bounce around without restricting your walking. The top was a light green wrap-around, no buttons or clasps, just held in place by a belt with a deep-cut cleavage. The neckline was loose, allowing her boobs to easily be seen should she lean over even the slightest. Underneath she had a cute little black thong which complimented her skin tone perfectly.

We helped each other dress and then stood next to each other as we looked in the bedroom mirror. We both smiled as while I hate to sound vain, we looked HOT. I couldn't wait to see the looks we would be getting before too much longer. My dress was more revealing from the outset but her top and skirt were better to tease with. Whereas I didn't leave much to imagination, Kristen had full control over what was - and wasn't seen. I guess you could say I looked more the "slut" while she was the "tease". We made a good team!

5. The Limo Ride

Although I hadn't asked before, or even thought about it for that matter, I was suddenly curious how this was all going to play out. Where would we meet these guys? I couldn't imagine Kristen would've given anyone her real address so did we have to go somewhere to meet them or what? I had no idea where this was all going to end up so I also had to question how we would return from wherever we were. Kristen just waved me off, saying not to worry and that she does this all the time – most likely true in her case. Still, I am the type that likes to be in control of the situation and not having travel plans just sort of got under my skin.

As it turned out, I didn't have long to wait as there was a honk outside and Kristen told me to get my coat on as our ride was here. I peeked out the front window and there was a taxi waiting for us. Of course, how silly of me. Why I hadn't already thought it I don't know. Maybe my mind was still a bit foggy from our little escape earlier. We both had long winter coats on so our outfits couldn't be seen by anyone as we left through the front door. Climbing in the taxi, Kristen handed the driver an address which he took and then drove off without a word. As we settled in, Kristen pulled out her cell phone and made a call.

"Hey mom, Kelly and I just left, was hoping to hear from you before we did. Don't know when we'll be back – you know how it is. Say hi to Uncle John for me!"

She hung up, evidently having just left a voice mail. "So you think your mom's still at our house?" I asked? She just grinned and nodded, then raised her eyebrows and we both giggled like we were sharing a naughty secret. Things must have been going pretty well for her to stay that long.

The taxi took us into Pittsburgh proper to a hotel in the middle downtown area. Kristen paid the driver and we got out and headed into the lobby. I looked at her, waiting for her to explain what was going on.

"Well, they are supposed to meet us here in.... about five minutes now," she explained. "Just watch for a big white limo." Yeah, like there wouldn't be many of those on New Years' Eve!

Actually it was only a couple of minutes when such a limo did indeed drive up. The bellman was talking to someone in the front seat when Kristen and I walked up. He just smiled at us and opened the back door for us to get in. He wished us a good evening and I got the feeling from the twinkle in his eye that he knew just what kind of naughty girls we were and what nasty things we would be doing in that limo before long! Surprisingly, the limo was empty! I guess I had expected it to be crammed with people, already drinking and partying.

The limo was incredible, I'd never been in one so big. Sheesh, how did the driver even turn corners being as long as it was? There were rows of leather seats lining the outside walls with a bar at the front end and another bench at the rear. Everything about it said "expensive", from the wood trim to the fine leather on the seats. This was NOT one of your every day "prom buses" that kids rent out, that was for sure.

"Want something to drink," Kristen offered as she looked over the bar, "Seems to have about everything."

I deferred, instead wondering what was happening next. Kristen seemed immune to any worries, but then for her, this was probably routine. She seemed to sense my concern, though, and sat next to me and held my hand.

"I believe the guys are staying at another hotel. They wanted us to meet them there but I was worried we might never make it into the limo if we did - if you know what I mean."

OK, that made sense. I could see her reasoning. If the guys met us in the lobby, no doubt the temptation would have been there to take the party back to the room, something I'd NOT signed up for. The whole idea of cruising the town had been what convinced me in the end to this gig. Sure enough, we only went a few blocks and the limo pulled in front of another luxury hotel.

"Well, you ready?" she asked me.

Oh yeah, sure I was - NOT! You may as well ask a shuttle pilot if he's ready. Of course he is prepared - he knows what to do and how to handle things, but as for being READY? An anybody really ever be totally ready for something they know is going to be wild and crazy? I was confident I could handle anything thrown my way tonight - this wasn't my first rodeo as they say but still, I couldn't help but feel my pulse pick up as the adrenalin began to pump into my veins. God, we were really going to go through with this!

The door opened and in poured the guys - and girls. Needless to say, I was a little surprised as I'd just assumed that Kristen and I would be the only ones. Then again, I guess I shouldn't have been astonished that they would bring along more girls than just us. As a rule, the men all looked to be in their mid to late twenties, most pretty good looking and dressed professionally - no jeans at least. So far so good.

There were two other girls and I had to take a second look to be sure I was seeing them correctly. God, they looked to be teenagers - not in the "I look young for my age" way that Kristen did, but genuine teens. It's so hard to tell these days what age some girls are but regardless of how you sliced it, if these girls were eighteen then I was forty! On the other hand, they looked REALLY hot, dressed more like hookers than high school cheerleaders and I had to wonder if that wasn't what they were. Did the guys just pick them up? Of course, to them Kristen and I were whores as well - weren't they paying us to party with them tonight?

"Happy New Year, you must be Kristen and Kelly," one of them spoke out, evidently the leader of the bunch.

We nodded and he quickly ran through the introduction like somehow I was going to remember all the names so easily. They were all Caucasian - no ethnic diversity apparently with this group. They must have left their coats and jackets at the hotel as none of them wore one except for the girls who were wearing long versions similar to me and Kristen.

After going through the guys, Kyle (as he introduced himself) pointed to the girls, introducing them as Barbie and Mandy. Barbie looked to be the younger of the two, but not by much and it could have just been the makeup that may have been throwing me off. She was a blond, like Kristen, and just looked cute, hiding what was probably a much naughtier side of herself well. Mandy, on the other hand, fascinated me. She was black but rather fair skinned. Her hair was straight and she had a much different demeanor about her than Barbie.

Barbie looked like she had just been plucked from a high school cheerleader practice whereas Many LOOKED like a whore. It was just something about the way she carried herself, that look in her eyes or the slight smile she wore as if to say, "I'm hot, you know it, so fuck me." I'd never had sex with a black girl before so I have to admit that the thought crossed my mind when I first laid eyes on her.

The limo pulled out, headed for who knows where. It didn't really matter as it was hard to see out the heavily tinted windows anyway and besides, there were other things to be paying attention to anyway. The guys were getting themselves drinks and talking to themselves, their eyes roaming about on each of us girls the entire time. I counted and there was eight of them, making things a little cramped but not too bad really considering we were in an oversized car. Hmm, that meant two for each of us or would they gang up on one or two of us and then move between us? So many possibilities, that was what made such an evening so much fun to look forward to - the element of the unknown.

Kristen and I were sitting together on one side towards the back while the teen whores were sitting together as well but on the opposite side and near the front. With all the commotion, passing of drinks, and such, it was hard to get any sense of what was going on. I was offered something in a glass which I politely refused but Kristen took it instead. Whatever it was, it made her eyes open wide and then cough as she took a taste - obviously someone was hoping to get us drunk!

Just as I was wondering how things would get started, the two up front took matters into their own hands - literally. I got the feeling they'd already been partying with these guys a bit given the way they seemed to be more familiar with some of the guys. In any case, their coats came off quickly and were put up in the front seat. Barbie was wearing a skirt that was impossibly short, even Kristen's standards, and obviously nothing underneath as it was impossible for her to be sitting down without her bare pussy showing.

Actually, I don't know how the skirt (and that's using the term loosely) would have covered her even if she had been standing up! In fact, it looked more like one of those skirts the figure skaters wear on TV - except they have hose and panties on underneath and the skirt is more an accessory. On top, she was wearing a Hooter's T-shirt (how's that for class!) which was cut off just below her boobs. She was actually pretty small on top so it didn't take much to keep them covered as they weren't about to sag underneath. It was a little surprising to see a girl in her profession with A cups but then I guess it just went along with her "I'm a sixteen year-old cheerleader" persona.

What was most distinctive about her was her hair. It was long - really long, maybe almost to her ass. God, how did she manage to take care of it? On her feet were some ridiculously tall heels - maybe even six inches. I bet she was glad to get them off when the night was done. But then, Barbie didn't seem the type to spend much time on her feet, if you know what I mean.

Mandy had her coat off as well. Her darker skin was sharply contrasted by a silver dress - almost something like mine. It was skin tight and hugged her like a glove. Unlike her partner, Mandy had the boobs (almost like she had BOTH of their boobs). Damn, she was really stacked! If those were real then I was the Queen of England. Besides the fact they were totally out of proportion to her frame size, there's just something about fake ones that just stands out like a headlight (no pun intended). They were just too firm, no bounce and no sag at all as you would expect for a D (DD?) cup size. I will say one thing though, they certainly filled out that dress nicely. The top was more a halter that merged with the dress just above her belly button. Two thin strips made a valiant effort to contain her massive boobs and for the moment, appeared to be barely holding their own.

The skirt was just as short as mine and just as revealing. Unlike Barbie, she wore a silver thong but what caught my attention were her legs. You know how some girls just seem to have legs that go on forever? Well, Mandy's were the dictionary definition. Smooth and dark, they were simply incredible. She crossed them, revealing all of her thigh up to her sweet ass as the dress pulled up - and she naturally made no effort to restrain it. She even had silver heels; not as outrageous as her friend's but still a lot higher than I would be comfortable wearing.

Well, as soon as they had their coats off, the calls came for Kristen and I to drop ours as well which we promptly did. At first I felt a little discomfort. God, at 23 I felt like I was the old broad compared to the nubile cuties I was competing with. Maybe I needed to make a New Year's resolution to hit the gym. OK, I'm not overweight but still, I WAS carrying a little more than the younger, extremely petite girls. I think my legs and ass look pretty good, but they were nothing compared to Mandy's. Barbie may have had the least developed body, but then that seemed a turn-on to more than a few of the guys judging from the attention she was getting. At my age, it was like I was too old to be the hot teenager but too young to be a MILF. It was an interesting quandary, one that I wasn't given have much time to contemplate further...

I felt a hand on my leg and an arm around my shoulders. The guy next to me was moving in closer. I noticed Kristen had a guy of her own who already had his hand under her skirt. I guess things weren't going to start too slowly after all.

"Love that dress," he said to me, "I bet it even looks better off of you."

OK, so subtlety was NOT the word of the day. I guess maybe it was better that way anyway. It's not like we were on a date and it was time to start at first base and work your way carefully around, afraid of being "thrown out". These guys had probably paid a pretty penny for the four of us and they naturally wanted their money's worth. Oh well, it's not like I didn't know that when I signed up for this. Still, after calling Kristen a whore all this time, it felt a little odd to be assuming the role myself.

I glanced at Kristen and her guy was evidently already feeling up her crotch from the way she was squirming. Her skirt was barely long enough to hide his hand but there was no doubt what he was doing underneath it. Suddenly an urge came over me. Dang it anyway, Kristen was always going one up on me so why not for once I do it to her? It seemed whenever we were with a guy that she was always the one to get it first - the first to suck his dick, the first to get fucked, the one who got his cum first. She always had to be first. Well, tonight, her older cousin was going to show her a thing or two.

Reaching over to his lap, I planted my hand on his crotch where I felt the outline of what was already a pretty good erection. Good, the guys weren't so drunk yet that they couldn't get it up. "What's under here?" I asked in my best "naughty girl" tone of voice.

"Why don't you find out?" he came back with as his hand inched up higher onto my leg until his fingertips were now under the bottom of my dress. One thing that made going out like this different from going out on a date was the guy's attitude.

On a date, he had to be cautious, to take things one step at a time, like a hunter wary of spooking his game. Things tended to be slower, a light touch, an "accidental" feel of a breast, and progressed from there. Not so tonight. I wasn't a target, a goal for him to try to achieve. No, this bird was already in the bag, a done deal. He couldn't offend me or scare me away - and he knew it because he had "contracted" with me to do it, whatever "it" was.

There is some merit, I guess, in both scenarios. I kind of like the power and control I get on a date where even if I know I'm going to be putting out, the guy doesn't know it and so I get to play this game with him all evening. Tonight, it was a different sort of thrill. Now it was more, "What will he ask me to do?", or "How far will he want me to go?" that becomes the question. He could fuck me tonight all if he wanted - and we both knew it from the start, so why play the dating games?

I looked at Kristen and caught her eye, giving her a wink and a grin that gave away my intentions just as clearly as if I had shouted them to her. She just frowned for a minute but then shook her head and went back to paying attention to the guy feeling her up - and the next one who had his hands on her boobs.

What the heck, why not just go for it? If I was going to be the matronly one, then I was also going to be the most forward one, at least at the start. A quick glance confirmed that both Barbie and Mandy were still just being groped so I decided to be the first to make a move. I reached over and undid his belt and pants, followed by his zipper. Reaching down into his shorts, I felt his warm dick amidst a forest of thick pubic hair. Mmmmmmm, I was the first to get my hand on a nice dick! I pulled it out and in the subdued light it stood up tall and proud. I spit into my hand and used it to lubricate his shaft so my hand could more easily stroke him.

"Mmmmmmm, now you're my kind of girl," he complimented me, "I bet you just love sucking dick, don't you?"

"Ohhhhhh, how did you know?" I teased him back, "Here, let me show you."

With that I dropped to my knees on the carpeted floor in front of him and without any fanfare or wasted motion, dropped my head to his crotch and took half his shaft in my mouth in one swift motion. He had the perfect cock - not too thin, not too thick, just the right length such that I knew I could take him all later when I wanted it. Several guys started to cheer me on and I looked up out of the corner of my eye to see my cousin looking at me with daggers shooting from her eyes. Ha! She wasn't first this time.

Kneeling as I was, my dress pulled up and I knew most, if not all, of my ass was showing. The thong would do little to hide anything so basically I was showing off my bare butt to anyone who was interested - of which it appeared to be at least a few. As I sucked on the guy's dick, I felt at least one hand fondling my bottom, running a finger up my ass crack, almost making me gag on the dick as I tried not to laugh from being tickled.

"Damn, look at that sweet ass!" someone behind me commented, flowed by a number of other descriptions of my butt - not to mention what they wanted to do with it.

Kneeling like this with my ass wiggling out there like a worm on a hook, I knew it was just a matter of time before a fish came by and took the bait and sure enough, it wasn't long before I felt a couple of hands pulling my ass cheeks apart and then a hand sliding in between my legs to fondle my crotch.

"Oh wow, the bitch is wet already!" whoever was feeling me informed the rest. "What do you say guys... think she needs something in it?"

Damn, things were progressing a LOT faster than I would've ever dreamed. Kristen was now sucking a dick of her own, but in her case she was sitting and leaning over to suck the cock of the guy next to her. She was leaning away from me and I saw her tight butt was in full view as well, and seemed to be drawing even more same attention than mine as a guy slid in to where I'd been sitting and started groping her.

So far I was just doing a standard "head bob" on his dick when I felt something pushing against my pussy and then a hard shove against me and I felt someone's hard cock sliding into me. Well, I guess foreplay wasn't on the menu tonight! Then again, there were eight of them and only four of us. I had no idea what was happening up front with the other two girls as they were blocked from sight by the rest of the guys watching something going on. I got the feeling maybe in their case they were putting on some sort of show from the way the guys were all just watching and cheering.

Back here, Kristen and I would have probably loved to be playing with each other - a continuation of our early frolics, but our guys had different ideas. I may have been the first to get fucked, but hand it to Kristen, she made a great attempt at playing catch up and she was being fucked only a minute or so after I was.

From the feel of it, I was guessing the dick in me was bigger than the one I was sucking. It was sort of fun to be fucked by someone whom I had no idea what he even looked like. I let him do most of the work while I concentrated on the BJ end of things. Even then, I wasn't going to be allowed to dwell solely on him for long. I felt something against the side of my face and looked to my side to see another dick touching me. The guy had his pants open and his stiff dick protruding outward, poking me in the cheek with it, obviously wanting some attention.

Hmmm, fine with me!

I started sucking them both, alternating from one to the other, stroking one while I sucked on the other. They were about the same size and had I been blindfolded, I probably would've had a hard time telling them apart.

Kristen has dropped her thong - or at least someone had helped her off with it, and she had moved over to sit on the guys lap next to her while she continued to suck on the guy she had started with. The I realized she had done more than just sit on his lap, she was riding his dick as well! She was more grinding her ass around his dick than jumping up and down on it, making it easier for her to continue her BJ.

As for me, technically I was still completely dressed, that is dressed if you allow my dress to be bunched up at my waist and my thong pulled to one side so this dude could fuck me from behind. Speaking of being dressed (or not), I wondered how the others were doing? With me taking on three and Kristen two, that left just three men for the two girls up front. I tried to see around the guy Kristen was blowing but he was doing a heck of a job of blocking my view. Hmmm, what in the world was going on up there now? But then.... did it really matter?

The guys I was sucking to the side of me moved away and I felt the guy behind me pull out of me. Evidently someone must have wanted to swap places as it wasn't long before I had a different dick in my face, and this time I could smell myself on it so I knew it had to be the one that had been fucking me from behind. My mouth confirmed what my pussy had told me, his WAS bigger than the others, to the point where I had a little more difficulty getting my mouth around it. Still, once I adjusted to him I think I did a better than average job of sucking him off.

Meanwhile, the other guy was stuffing his dick in me as fast as he could line up his erect cock with my wet gaping pussy hole. Thanks to having his larger friend in me mere seconds earlier, he slide in me easily and I could feel the coarse pubic hair of his crotch grind against my ass as pushed himself into me, trying to drive himself into me as deeply as he could.

"Oh shit!" I heard and I glanced over just in time to see Kristen's guy starting to cum.

Damn, that little bitch had beaten me to it again. I may have had the first dick in my mouth but she looked to be the first girl to have cum in hers. Indeed, she took all his cum in her mouth and I saw him tremble as his dick erupted like a volcano into her mouth. She shook her head while her mouth gripped his dick, as if she was shaking off any last globs of cum that might be hanging on to the tip of his dick.

When he finally pulled out, she made a display out of showing him his cum in her mouth and then on her tongue as she stuck it out at him – letting the rest of us see it as well. Then she swallowed and again showed her tongue – this time without the cum on it and again, we all knew where it was now.

The first guy I started sucking was cumming now himself – a little late but better than never as they say. I loved the feeling as his dick throbbed and convulsed, finally shooting his cum against the back of my throat and then the remainder dribbling onto my tongue. He hadn't quite finished yet when the other guy, the one who had first fucked me but was now stroking himself to the side of me while his partner came in my mouth, was starting to cum to. Since my mouth was already full, he just shot it on the side of my face. At least he avoided my hair (or so I hoped). I could feel it running down my cheek and could only imagine what a cumslut I must look like to him.

He was still shaking off the last as I showed off the other guy's cum in my mouth when the guy fucking me suddenly pulled out and started to cum on my ass. Damn, that was about the last place I wanted it because I wouldn't pull my dress down now. I didn't want it to get full of cum stains - not when it costs as much as it did to get cleaned.

The guy Kristen was riding signaled he about ready, sort of a combination of hand motions and grunting but the point was made. She quickly dropped the dick from her mouth, dismounted and quickly turned so he could spray her face with cum. Damn, he had quite a load, leaving her face literally covered with cum, dripping over her eyes and nose. She looked like such a slut! There was just something incongruous about a face that looked so cute and innocent to be covered by the messy cum of some stranger who only cared about getting off and not a damn bit about her.

That left just one who hadn't cum yet - the one Kristen had started sucking. I finally got a look at his cock and I realized the issue - or at least the problem. He was stroking his dick but it still wasn't fully erect, even after Kristen had done her best on it and if she sucked cock at all the way she licked pussy, he should have been hard as a tree trunk by now. I wondered what the problem was - medical, psychological, or what. He seemed too young to be on blood pressure meds so maybe he was just freaked out by everything. After all, I fully understand that not everyone gets off from being watched the way I do. Oh well, did I really care? No! I just ignored him.

While I had the chance, I pulled my thong off before it got soaked with cum and set it aside where hopefully it would be still there when we left and not end up as a souvenir in some guy's pocket. Keeping my dress pulled up around my waist, I looked to sit down again but the seats were all pretty full, leaving just the lap of the guy who I had just sucked off. His dick was sagging a bit now but that didn't deter him from inviting me to sit on his lap. He was still fully dressed with just his dick sticking out from his unzipped pants. Now that he'd cum, some of the initial frenzy seemed to have died down and so I figured he just wanted to grope me - which turned out to be 100% accurate. Besides, I would never say no to the chance to feel a nice dick under my bare butt, even if it wasn't all that hard!

He put his arms around me, helping to steady me but also serving as an excuse to rub his hands all over me, with special attention between my legs. I was dripping with another guy's cum so I was a little surprised he wanted to put his finger up into me but apparently he wasn't as homophobic as many guys seem to be. It really didn't turn me on physically as he was just feeling me up for his own self-gratification without much concern for how I felt, more like a little boy playing doctor with a girl for the first time. It was kind of cool, though, sitting on his lap bare-bottomed while talking to the others about what was happening in the limo, all the while this guy was fondling my pussy as if it was the most normal thing in the world to do.

Kristen was in a similar fix but with two guys instead of one. They had her sitting between them and I noticed not only was her thong off, but her skirt had disappeared as well. Her blouse had been untied, allowing it to open and expose her remarkable boobs to them. One guy was absorbed with her breasts, fondling and sucking on them, while the other seemed to be more into her crotch and thighs. She caught me spying on her and grinned at me as if to say, "Ha-ha, I've got two and you've only got one."

My guy's other hand started to toy with my boobs while his first hand stayed firmly wedged between my legs. At first he just felt up my boobs through my dress but soon that wasn't good enough and he started to push his hand in from the top. Not wanting my dress to be ruined, I undid the back of my neck and allowed it to fall open in front, leaving my chest completely bare and exposed to him. My nipples already hard and sensitive from me being fucked , something the cooler air in the limo only intensified. When his hand brushed against my nipple, it was enough to make me jump - even more so than what his finger was doing to me between my legs.

"Oh... so you like your nipples played with I see," he teased me as he pinched them and then tugged on them.

"Mmmmmmm, yeah... I want you to touch them," I replied, doing my best to boost his ego.

He cupped my boob and hefted it like he was in a grocery store trying to measure the weight of a cantaloupe or something. "Damn, you've got some nice boobs... and real ones at that!"

"Yep, 100% natural," I agreed with him.

Speaking of natural boobs (or unnatural as it were), how was little Mandy doing up front? Looking up front, I was surprised (why, I don't know) to see what was going on up there. Damn, those two were really going at it! Mandy was on the bottom of a hot 69 with Barbie. Not only were they licking each other, but they both had a dick in their asses - yes, I mean that - asses, not pussies. I thought about it for a moment and realized it was something I'd never seen before. Of course, I never get into anal all that much to start with, but to see two girls getting their asses drilled, while eating each other out at the same time, was definitely something unique.

I wondered yet again if the two of them were a pair professionally or if this was the first time they'd worked together. Something about the ease at which they did things together told me they'd done this before. It was OK with me - just so nobody in the back end of the limo got any ideas! If they wanted to see me and Kristen in a 69, well I would love that. They could even fuck us in that position but nothing in the ass, THAT was for sure.

The guy under me was watching the show up front as well and I could tell it was turning him on. Dicks never lie and his was growing once again underneath me. Evidently seeing two young teens doing the nasty was turning him on. Rather than wait for him to get totally hard and then make him ask, I decided to surprise him a little bit and give him what I hoped he wanted - a good fuck.

Reaching down between my legs, I grabbed his growing dick and placed it up next to my wet and still swollen pussy. I pressed the tip up against my pussy hole and tried to guide him inside but he was still not quite hard enough to go in on his own. I figured with a little help I could get him in me where he could grow some more. Whether it be in my mouth or pussy, I've always loved the feel of a man expanding in me. An erection can't be faked like an orgasm. Very few men have the discipline to stop their cocks from reacting, even when they don't want it to do so - like at the public swimming pool in front of their family when they see me in my bikini.

When I felt him expanding and lengthening in me, it was like a testimonial to the regard he felt for me - at least sexually. Such was the case with this guy. Once I got his dick head in me I was able to sit down on him and guide him in me for the remainder of his shaft. One thing good about sitting on top of him the way I was, I didn't have to worry about it falling out of me!

"Mmmmmmm, you feel so good inside of me," I purred softly to him as he played with my clit some more.

By wiggling my butt, rotating it in small circles, I was able to feel him move in me without having to rise up and take the risk of him falling out. Between the warm, wet embrace of my hungry pussy and the sensual movements I was making with my hips, he was soon stimulated into a full erection. It was SO wonderful to feel him expanding in me, like there was a balloon being blown up in me.

"Damn your pussy is fucking tighter than I expected," he groaned as I continued to rotate around his steel-hard shaft.

Mmmmmmm, I loved it when a man complimented the tightness of my pussy. I guess it would be the same as for a guy to hear a girl tell him that his dick was big. I think a lot of guys think that at 23 (almost 24), and with the number of guys that I've fucked, that my pussy wouldn't have quite the same feel as it did back when I was a teenager. Well, I won't go so far as to say I'm still the super-tight recently ex-virgin I was at fifteen, but I would be ready to put mine up against either of those teen sluts up at the front of the limo!

Although I have occasionally succumbed to the siren call of a dildo/vibrator now and then, except for real dicks, for the most part I stick to one or two fingers in me and that's it. I mean, a girl that loves her monster dildo shouldn't be surprised when her pussy stretches out to accommodate it.

Personally, I could've spent much of the evening this way to be honest. There's two things I really enjoy when it comes to a nice quiet evening - a dick in my mouth or one in my pussy. I don't mean to where I'm making an all-out assault on him or he's screwing my brains out. I mean it more like using his dick as a baby uses a pacifier, something that just feels good as the night goes along. God, I love it when I can just relax naked on a couch with my head in a guy's lap, slowly sucking or licking his dick almost absentmindedly, like sucking on a popsicle that never melts away.

I also love doing what I was doing right now, sitting on a guy's lap with his dick embedded in me, just enjoying the feel of him in me. When I'm with a friend, I could just sit this way all night as we watch a movie or just talk, placing my head on his shoulder as his dick throbs in me like some alien egg ready to hatch within me - which it sometimes does. Just feeling him in me, to be coupled together as we spend the evening, is so relaxing and erotic. Being fucked also has the advantage over a BJ in that I can talk more easily, as you might imagine!

Alas, if there was one thing that was NOT going to happen tonight, though, it was to spend any length of time doing one thing with one guy. Now that he was hard again he wasn't interested in nesting with me for the evening - he wanted to fuck me, and get himself off. Knowing this, I twisted around while staying impaled on his dick until my feet were on the floor of the limo and leaned forward. By rocking back and forth with my elbows on my knees, I effectively stroked him in and out of my pussy without either of us having to do a whole lot of work. He put his hands on my bare hips and help me to establish the proper rhythm for him. He was taking his time more than I expected and it really did feel good!

Meanwhile, the girls up front must have decided it was time to integrate the party and join the two halves of the limo together - or something like that. I was pleased to see Mandy working her way back to our end. Barbie was still up front, probably being fucked by one or two guys from what little I could see through the crowd. Mandy was nude now, except for the silly heels she was wearing, It was a wonder she didn't fall and break her neck with them on!

Once again I was struck by her incredible legs and monster breasts. I wondered how big her boobs had been before the implants. It was a shame, so far as I was concerned, that she had opted for such big ones. It just made them look obviously fake and if anything, I would think all that weight hanging out in front would give her horrible back issues. My best friend Beth complains all the time about her D-cups causing her back pain and hers are far more in proportion to her body size than Mandy's.

Mandy had her eye on Kristen, which didn't surprise me. It didn't matter if it was men or women, people just seemed to be naturally drawn to her. One of the most frequent comments I get when I share pics of her is, "She doesn't look like what I imagined at all." I'm not sure how they were exactly expecting, but her "girl-next-door" looks, petite frame, together with that air of child-like innocence she somehow manages to maintain, all work to completely fool most people who don't know her into thinking she is some charming little naive girl. If only they knew what lie just below the surface!

Kristen was still between the two guys who were having a great time groping and fondling her. Mandy took advantage of the situation and knelt between her legs and without a word, went right to work on Kristen's pussy. Instantly I recalled how wonderful it had been to be in that exact position myself not so long ago and for a moment felt a pang of jealousy. I'd never seen Kristen with a black girl before and it was incredibly erotic to see the contrast between them as they both were all but naked next to each other, Kristen's legs wrapped tightly around Mandy as Mandy suckled away at her pussy. The guy hadn't cum in her pussy so it wasn't like she was eating cum from Kristen's well-fucked cunt. As I rocked away on my own guy's dick, I couldn't help but wonder how she would feel between MY legs instead. More than that, what did she taste like? OK, so it's all pink inside but did that mean it all had to taste the same?

Just as had happened when I was kneeling down - except I was sucking a dick, not licking a pussy, Mandy's exposed ass was too much of a temptation for the guys to pass up and it wasn't long before one of them was fucking her in the ass from behind doggie style. He was pounding her, driving her head into Kristen's crotch with each thrust, not that Kristen seemed to mind at all. Mandy seemed to love being fucked in her asshole - well good for her I guess. I just hoped that I wouldn't be called upon to serve up my ass for anyone. Odds were I would do it - I WAS being paid after all, but I surely wouldn't offer it up.

Seeing them going at it, my guy must have wanted something new himself so he pulled out of me and twisted me around to sit on the seat. Putting his arms under my legs, he lifted me up and back so my ass was exposed completely with my legs up towards the roof.

For a brief moment I worried he was indeed going to aim for my asshole but fortunately he was a pussy guy all the way, driving his dick down into me as far as he could shove it in me. God, it was like being hit by a pile-driver the way he just slammed it in me! Some guys seem to get off that way, pounding their dick in you as hard and fast as they can. Maybe it's a domination thing, who knows? I've seen girls who love it that way, crying out for the dude to fuck them even harder. I don't know, I guess I go more for the "treat her nice" approach. It's hard to appreciate the fucking when you're hanging on to the seat for dear life!

Somehow Kristen and Mandy had managed to swap places without me catching them, but in any case it was Kristen's turn to get it in the ass while she lapped up the wetness of Mandy's pretty pussy. I knew Kristen had no issues with anal sex; the girl looked like she was loving it when you could make out her face from between Mandy's thighs. It was interesting and I caught myself wondering what it was like to lick a black girl. I hope nobody thinks of me as being racist because of it, I was just curious.

"Fuck, I've got to cum now!" the guy fucking me exclaimed.

He started to pull out of me and I had this image of him spraying it all over me, staining my dress in the process. To avert such a problem, I allowed myself to slide on my bare backside until I was kneeling on the floor and took his dick in my mouth. Just in time! No sooner than I had my lips sealed around his hot smelly dick, he was spewing cum in my mouth, one stream after the next. Damn, the guy must have been connected to a fire hydrant or something because he just cumming and cumming until I was afraid it would overflow my mouth.

Just in time he exhausted his load and he pulled out, lifting my chin with his finger as he waited for me to show him my prize. Opening my mouth, he grinned as he saw his cum on my tongue. I closed my mouth, swallowed, and then opened my mouth again to show him it was all gone. Like most guys, he seemed to really get off from me doing that.

Kristen suddenly cried out and I figured either she was having an orgasm or doing a really good job faking one (likely the latter but then, who really cared?) It must have been the spark to set her guy off as he pulled out and shot his cum all over her bare ass. To my amazement, HE bent over and licked it off! Now THAT wasn't something you saw every day. The guys are few and far between who will even TASTE their own cum, let alone eat a load of it. Then again, maybe it helped the way it was being served - on Kristen's tight little ass. As my mom use to say when she was preparing the table for Thanksgiving, it's all in the presentation!

The pause gave me a chance to look up front and see what Barbie was up to. She was riding one guy's dick as he was sitting down while the other was behind her shoving his prick up her ass. She seemed to love being DP'd, an acquired taste if you ask me. Then again, when you're a professional whore, which I assumed the two of them were, I guess you get better at things like that.

I didn't have much time before Kristen had moved over and started kissing me. The guys loved it! Her face smelled like pussy - Mandy's pussy, and our tongues met and explored each other's mouth and then we started to lick each other's faces. I've never been in a situation where guys did NOT like to watch a little girl-on-girl action so we had a bit of an audience going before long. Images of our time earlier went through my head and where it might have gone this time, I don't know but we were interrupted before anything more had a chance to develop.

"Yo! We're almost there! Everybody get dressed and ready!"

I wasn't sure who up front said it but I really didn't want to stop kissing Kristen. Something told me we would have another chance before the night was over, though, so reluctantly we broke apart and worked on getting ourselves straightened up. I reached for my thong but a hand clamped over my wrist, preventing me from reaching it.

"Sorry, no panties allowed at this party," one of the guys growled, "At least, not the hookers. We ain't paying you to hide anything you know."

Ummmmm, I guess I DIDN'T know that. It felt weird being called a hooker, not something that really makes you feel sexy or helped to better self-esteem, that's for sure. I've been called a slut or a whore but hooker wasn't something I could even recall being referred to as. Oh well, he WAS paying the bill so I guess if he didn't want my thong on me, then so be it. I tugged my dress down as far as it would go - which wasn't all that far. Should I choose to sit down, either my legs had to be crossed instantly or I'd be doing a Sharon Stone style pussy flashing.

It didn't really take long to get dressed, but I was concerned with how I looked. No doubt my hair was a wreck and my makeup had to be smeared, what little might have been left. The other girls were in no better shape than I was. Barbie's was the worst, being so long. It didn't help that it looked like at least one guy had cum in her hair - and a lot of it from the looks of it.

6. The Party

We put our coats on just as the limo stopped. As I stepped out into the cold, I looked around to get my bearings and realized I was totally lost. We were outside some sort of Moose Club in the middle of nowhere, at least someplace I'd never been. The surrounding hills prevented me from being able to see any landmarks and the clouds kept even the glow of the city from showing up. Oh well, hopefully I didn't have to worry about finding my way back alone anyone so what difference did it make where we were? The four of us bunched up together like cattle in a storm, wondering what was happening next. Well, at least I was. The others seemed less concerned and I started wondering if Kristen knew more about what was going on than she had let on so far.

"C'mon, Kelly, let's go in and get cleaned up," Kristen said, taking me by the hand and leading me to the entrance. We walked in and she went straight to the women's restroom. She must have been here before because she seemed to know exactly where to go.

"Well, what do you think so far?" she giggled as the four of us made our way in and closed the door behind us.

What could I say? So far things hadn't really been THAT wild, at least not compared to some of the other situations Kristen had gotten me involved in previously. I just shrugged as if it was all no big deal. Then I asked, in an "oh by the way" tone, "So what's next? This wasn't exactly the type of place I was expecting. A Moose club? You've GOT to be kidding me."

Kristen laughed, "Oh no... that's just an old sign. Now it's just a place people rent out for parties, dances and that sort of thing. They're having some sort of 'Vega Night' tonight and I guess you could say we're the side entertainment. You know, keep the guys happy and flirt around, let them grope you, whatever. Probably not much different than you use to so back in your escorting days."

"No sex?"

Kristen rolled her eyes as if I was totally naive. "Well duh, what do you think?"

I was genuinely confused. I told her that for all I knew, it was to have sex in the limo and then just tease during the party, and probably let them screw us on the way home.

"Well, all I can say Kelly, is to just be ready for anything. I don't think we're going to be here long. After all, it will be midnight before long and they didn't pay for an overnighter. You know, if you're not into this, I can always say you're not feeling well or something."

I assured her I wasn't going to chicken out now. Besides, it sounded like it might be fun. I was quite conscious of the fact my bottom was bare and barely hidden from view - the cool air actually felt pretty good. I suppose getting my ass felt up while standing next to some guy at a party wasn't the worst thing in the world that could happen to me.

By now, the four of us had done about all we were going to accomplish given the limited resources of what we had in our small purses. Somehow Barbie had gotten most of the cum out of her hair, although it had to have hurt like hell when Mandy literally pulled it out using her comb. We carried our coats on our arms as we left the restroom, handing them to the coat check guy just outside. He took a good long look at the four of us and I imagine he wouldn't have minded had we checked more than our coats with him!

The guys ushered us inside towards a large room that was probably the old meeting hall. It had these ancient wood floors and a general feeling of being "old". We passed through a security check, or whatever you wanted to call it, where the guy verified we were all over eighteen. I had to wonder if Barbie was using her real driver's license or a fake. It wouldn't have surprised me one bit if she wasn't eighteen yet.

The "guard" opened the door and inside was a chorus of noise, a mixture of people talking, music playing, and just general hustle and bustle. Off hand, I would have guessed there were maybe 100 or more people. Although it looked to be mostly men, there were still quite a few women, maybe 25% of the people. Although they were dressed in party outfits for the most part, most of them appeared to be quite as outrageous as our group as we strolled in. There were a few girls, though, I noticed were dressed hot and slutty, so maybe we weren't the only "professionals". Apparently, our guys knew most of the people as a general chorus of hellos and "Happy New Year" greeted our entrance, followed by an equal, if not greater, number of catcalls and wolf whistles when they saw us girls enter behind them.

At first I really wasn't sure what to do. Kristen should have given me a little more of a head's up instead of leaving me standing with umpteen guys staring at me, wondering what I should do next. Were we suppose to stick together, separate and mingle, or what? As it turned out, we started out together as a group, standing by the bar drinking (Diet Coke for me, white wine for the others), waiting for someone to take the initiative. Well, we didn't have to wait long.

"Hey, you like craps?"

I was startled slightly as my attention had drifted for just a moment. Some middle-aged guy, wearing a silly party hat that didn't entirely cover his bald spot on his head, was trying to get my attention. He was wearing a blue plaid dress shirt and jeans, nothing special, the type who is typically just a faceless guy in the crowd. He was carrying some sort of drink in one hand while the other reached out and rested on the bar top next to me. Oh well, time to get to "work" so I smiled at him and said, "Sure, let's go."

The other girls, including Kristen, were also talking to guys so I figured it was every girl for herself, at least for now. I took the guy's outstretched hand and let him lead me to a table. To be honest, I didn't a clue how to play the game - and still don't. Besides, my "job" wasn't to play games, it was to make the guys who WERE playing them happier. He introduced himself as "John" which I assumed was made up and not very original at that.

So anyway, John stood at the side of the table as some guy was rolling dice and people were placing their chips all over the place. After he rolled, the guy running the game would sweep away the losers and pay the winners, using some methodology that had no rhyme or reason from what I could tell.

"Nice dress," John commented, putting his arm around me and then placing his hand squarely on my ass.

He squeezed down just a little, enough to make sure I knew he had his hand on my ass on purpose. I wondered if he thought I was just another girl like the rest, maybe dressed a little sluttier, or if he knew I was being paid to let him have his way with me. It sort of made a difference to me because I wondered if he was a letch hitting on a girl half his age or just taking advantage of the opportunity where he knew it was safe to do things to me he wouldn't have dared to do with the "normal" girls. Short of coming right out and asking him, there wasn't any way to know for sure so I just went along with the game.

We stood there together, his arm tightening around me at time as he ran his hand over my ass and even down my leg a little bit, as far as he could reach without becoming TOO obvious as to what he was doing. I would just giggle or smile at him, maybe wiggle my butt at times, enough to tease him and give him the impression I was enjoying what he was doing to me. Not that I wasn't, but probably not as much as I let him think. Eventually he got to be the one throwing the dice and his attention became more focused on that instead of me.

I was trying to be supportive of John, cheering when something good happened (or at least everyone cheered so I assumed it was good) and consoling him when not - which was most of the time. As I watched him I suddenly felt another hand on my butt (did Kristen put on sign on my back, "Touch my ass" or what?). In any case, it seemed to be drawing a LOT of attention. I turned around my head around to look over my shoulder where I saw another guy from the same mold as John, though with a little more hair but more of a beer belly.

"Nice ass babe," he complimented me with a toothy grin.

"Well, I'm glad you liked it," I said demurely, giving him my best naughty girl smile. I also noticed he had a wedding band on, although there was no sign of anyone who liked might be his wife.

"Can I get you a drink?"

I turned to John and gave him a kiss on the cheek, telling him I had to go. He looked disappointed but then turned back to his dice game and seemed to forget about me instantly. Following "Bill" to the bar, he asked me what I was drinking. When I told him I just wanted a Diet Coke, he tried to convince me to try something with a little more "kick", as he put it, but I politely declined. He motioned me over to a small leather couch over towards one wall, away from the main activities.

Bill sat down first and then patted the cushion next to him, clearly indicating he wanted me to take a seat next to him. As I sat down, I tried to keep my dress reasonably pulled down but it was all but impossible to keep it from riding up, especially with the slippery leather cushion beneath me. I crossed my legs, placing the one nearest him over the other, thereby exposing my bare thigh and half my ass to Bill's watchful eyes.

"Damn, you have great legs," he complimented me. Frankly, as much as he was drinking, I could have had ANY legs and he would have thought that they were awesome.

Trying to act like I liked him, I smiled in return, wiggling in the seat to get more comfortable, which also had the effect of driving my hemline even higher, now exposing a good part of my bare butt to him. He responded to my "invitation" by placing his hand on my exposed upper leg, holding it still at first as if to wait to see what my response would be.

"Don't worry Bill, you can touch me," I assured him. Now how MUCH he could... well he would have to just experiment to figure that out for himself.

I wondered how drunk he was and where his inhibition level was? Bill certainly didn't need much more of an invitation. He moved up close to me, snuggling in tight to me and then put his arm around my, squeezing my shoulder as his other hand moved further up my leg. If it wasn't for all the people and noise, you would have thought I was in the back seat at some drive-in movie with a horny high school boy making his move on me. Perhaps in Bill's mind that was exactly what he was imagining. My guess was he had been the class nerd and to make out with a girl and feel her up was one of those teenage fantasies that he never realized. What the heck, why not play the class slut?

I put my hand on his and pulled him up to the hem of my dress, which was now only an inch or two from revealing my bare pussy underneath. Did he know I wasn't wearing any underwear? It would have been almost impossible NOT to figure out when he felt my ass and he should have realized I was bare when there wasn't the slightest budges under my dress - which would have shown EVERYTHING if it had been there.

As Bill started to work his fingertips under the tight hem of my skirt, I looked around to see if any of the other girls were around. Kristen was on a couch similar to mine, making out with some guy like two teenagers in heat. Well, her guy was more her age so it made more sense than it would have for me. As for Mandy and Barbie, they seemed to have disappeared. Hmmm, I wonder where they had gotten off to? Maybe they were earning some "tips" for their work tonight? The two of the seemed more like your stereotypical "whores" than even Kristen.

One thing I admired about Kristen was the way she managed to maintain that air of "girl-next-door" and innocence (or maybe even naivety) that drove men wild, without becoming nasty whorish. If you put the three of them together in jeans and shirt, I bet anyone would have picked out Mandy and Barbie as whores while Kristen would be at most a slut or tease.

My attention was brought back to Bill as I felt his hand under my skirt. As short as it was and as high as it was riding on me, he didn't have to get more than the length of his fingers under before he was knocking on the door of my pussy. My legs were still crossed, making it a bit difficult to get between them so I uncrossed them and sat there in a VERY unlady-like manner, my legs slightly spread apart, affording a direct on view of my crotch to anyone close enough to see. It also allowed Bill to slip his fingers between my thighs and start rubbing on my freshly shaved pussy.

Nobody seemed to be paying any attention to us as Bill's finger started to press on my clit, making me shudder slightly. I was still fairly sensitive from the workout in the limo, so it wasn't going to take much to get me going again I could tell.

"That feels good," I whispered to Bill in a barely audible voice.

I didn't say more, a little encouragement was all he needed. Any more would have seemed fake, at least it would have to me. Besides, it DID feel good!.

"That's it, right there," I whispered again as he found the perfect spot on my clit after his exploring, "Rub it in little circle."

Now a couple of guys at the bar were looking our way, saying something to each other and then turning their heads out way again. Personally, I was still so horny I didn't care who was watching. If anything, being watched just turned me on all the more!

Bill reached down with his finger to the entrance to my pussy, wetting his finger and then drawing the wetness up my slit and then eventually to my clit, letting him slide his finger tip over in a more lubricated fashion, making it feel even better. I was squirming a bit now, wanting to put my hand over his or draw his other hand to my boobs but not daring to with do it all the people around. I still hadn't quite figured this all out. Did everyone know we were hired to be there or what? It didn't seem like it or more people would have been hitting on us.

"Ohhhhhh," I gasped before even realizing what I was doing.

Bill had pushed his finger up into my now wet pussy without hesitation. One second he was playing with my clit, the next he had his middle finger wedged high up inside of my pussy.

"You like that, don't you... you like your cunt to be played with."

"Yes, push it in me," I gasped, a little louder than before but well below the threshold at which anyone would have heard me. What they WOULD have seen instead was me slipping down into the leather couch a little deeper to better expose my pussy to him.

"Fuck, you're so wet... this really turns you on, doesn't it?"

"Oh yeah, don't stop," I pretended to plead.

HE thought I was being turned on by his finger and his "mastery" of the art of pussy playing. What he didn't know was that I was actually being turned on more by the fact he was diddling me in front of a crowd of dozens of people, any of who could have seen us easily had they turned to watch. The two guys at the bar were still the only members of my "audience", at least so far as I could tell.

I reached over and put my hand on his crotch. God was he hard underneath! I wondered when the last time was that he had fondled a younger girl's pussy? Granted, I was no sixteen year-old cheerleader, but I was no old maid either. After all, I was barely half his age, and that was if you believed what he had told me! I checked over at where Kristen was with her guy. I almost choked when I saw her. Damn if the little slut wasn't already at it. She had hand inside the guy's pants and there was no mistaking the motion she was making inside his trousers. Well, if she could get away with it, why not me?

As I started to play with the guy's belt, I got the distinct impression he wasn't quite expecting me to be, let's say, so "forward" with him. Apparently it was one thing to feel up the girl in public and expose her, but another for her to go after him.

"Ummmmm, you're not going to do anything HERE, are you?" he asked, although it was more of a statement than a question.

When I just ignored him, his hand pulled away from my pussy and grabbed mine just as I undid his belt.

"Christ, I can't let you blow me right out in front of everyone like this!" he exclaimed, a little more urgency to his voice this time.

"Who ever said anything about blowing you?" I responded deviously. Of course that HAD been my intention but after his remarks I decided all he was getting was a hand-job - which I could do in his pants if it came to that (or should I say, cum to that). I only undid his pants enough to loosen them so I could slip my hand inside. His dick was easy to grab since it was stiff and erect inside. I pulled my hand out, spit on my palm, and then went back inside his underwear where I started stroking him.

"Oh crap, I can't believe this is really happening," he groaned, like he was writing the opening line to a Penthouse Letter.

I chuckled to myself. It was amazing how with just a simple touch to his dick he was now completely under my control. Guys like him were so easy. He may not have even HAD a hand job before for all I know and I would have taken pretty good odds he's never had a girl reach inside his pants in front of a hundred or so people before. Of course, they weren't all watching but I did notice a few looks now and then from people.

Like a fourteen year-old virgin getting stroked for the first time, he came so fast it was all I could do to keep from laughing. Sheesh, a few touches of my pussy and a couple minutes of stroking and he was unloading faster than a sixteen year old boy jerking off with his mom's panties. Some of it went on my hand but most of it stayed inside, probably making quite the mess inside his pants. I pulled my hand out and licked what cum remained on it off as he watched, his eyes glazed over as if I'd just stunned him or something.

"Was it good for you too?" I said, trying not to mock him TOO much but I couldn't help myself. It didn't matter anyway as he wasn't listening to a word I was saying.

Mission accomplished, I pulled my dress down, ran a brush through my hair, and rejoined the party. I passed Kristen, whose guy wasn't nearly as shy about public sex apparently. She was giving him a nice slow blowjob and I wasn't sure who was enjoying it more, him or her. Probably her!

As I approached one of the poker tables, I recognized one of the guys from the limo who had fucked me. It seemed funny that the whole group had sort of abandoned us once we arrived. I guess they had gotten off in the limo and now were willing to share their girls with the rest of the party while they had some fun gambling. No doubt on the way home they would be ready to go again, if they weren't too drunk. He motioned for me to pull up a seat next to him, explaining to me as I sat down that he needed "moral support". Well, I think he needed more than that judging from the dismal stack of chips in front of him as compared to the others.

As I sat there I noticed the others at the table all looking at me, sort of the way a mouse would feel if she was plopped down in the middle of a roomful of cats. It made me feel good, actually. I have always loved it when men pay attention to me. Granted, it's shallow and narcissistic, but hey, if you could get away with it, why not use the body your momma gave you? Sitting next to him, his hand reached under the table to start fondling my leg.

"Hey, if you want to feel her up, leave the table," one of the players complained.

Apparently there was some rule that players had to keep their hands in site throughout the game. Well, that didn't apply to me! For the second time in just a few minutes, I was cradling a hard dick in my hand. He was breathing heavier and trying to act as if nothing was happening, but he wasn't fooling anyone.

"Shit, I bet she's hungry for some dick... why don't you share her with the rest of us?" the guy across the table called out, sticking his finger in and out of a circle he made with his other hand.

For a moment, I suddenly had this feeling he might just do that. Crap, right here on the table in front of everyone? My inner slut was telling me to go for it, encourage them and have fun. My more rational side, still in control as I wasn't THAT horny, was screaming at me to tone it down. Once that sort of thing got started, who knew where it would end. Nothing said it would just be the poker table boys.

It may sound odd to say I wasn't THAT horny but it was true. The whole situation was so bizarre and I still wasn't quite sure even what that "situation" was. As a result, I was more curious than horny. Had we been introduced as the "prizes" for the evening, available for anything and everyone, I could have accepted that and perhaps even enjoyed it. If I knew we were just eye candy, free to tease and maybe even get groped or do a hand job, but no sex, then I could deal with that just as easily.

Actually, so far the latter is how I'd behaved although I had no idea what Barbie or Mandy were doing. They had disappeared so fast I couldn't help but wonder if they had something pre- arranged. So back to being horny or not, I was enjoying the feel of his dick in my hand and I could still taste the first guy's cum in my mouth that I had licked off my fingers, but the uncertainty and yes, a little anxiety, was keeping me from becoming full-blown horny to the point I would do something silly, which is what generally happens when my rational side loses the battle for control with my inner slut.

For better or worse, the rest of the guys just teased the one with the idea of sharing me and the game went on. Even though everyone was trying not to look like they were watching me every chance they had. It's sort of hard to see a girl jerking off a guy and think it's anything else but that. I mean, certain arm motions are associated with only one thing - stroking a dick.

I was having a hard time sliding my hand over his cock and I didn't want to keep pulling my hand out to spit on it so I was left with a decision - just rub him and hope it worked eventually or go for it and suck him. What did I have to lose? It's not like my reputation was on the line - although in a sense I guess you could say it was - my BAD reputation at least. A girl doesn't come to a party dressed like me, and NOT expect guys to think she is a slut. What was the point in wearing it otherwise?

Taking a deep breath, I pushed my chair back. He looked at me, probably wondering what the heck I was doing as pulled my hand out of his pants. It didn't take long for him to get his answer as I kneeled on the floor next to him and worked my way under the table.

"I knew it, the slut's going for it!" I heard the guy across the table chortling.

I couldn't see what was happening or who was watching, but no doubt every guy at the table was suddenly wishing I was down in front of HIM at that moment, especially when he gasped as I got my first taste of his dick. Nobody could actually see what I was doing between the table top and my hair hanging over him, but there was little left to the imagination. After all, this wasn't some R-rated movie where the sex was being just simulated. I think I was getting as excited from knowing everyone was trying to see what I was doing as I was from actually sucking his dick!

What made things sort of surreal was they were still dealing cards and playing poker as if nothing was going on. I wondered what kind of "poker face" my guy was able to keep with my mouth surrounding his hard cock. Odds were he wasn't concentrating on his cards as much as he should have been. My suspicions were confirmed when the dealer had to ask him what his bid was going to be several times before he answered. He wasn't TOO dumb - he folded, no doubt so he could focus completely on my services.

As I sucked him more, he put his hand on my head, pushing me down. His intent was obvious - he wanted me to take him all in. Fortunately, he wasn't the biggest dick I'd ever sucked, not by a long shot, and so I dropped down until my face was flat against his pubic hair, smashing it flat against my cheeks and forehead. He pushed down on me, holding me like that as I tried my best to breathe through my nose. Finally I had to push my head back against him and catch my breath.

"Damn, she sure likes sucking cock, doesn't she," the guy next to him commented.

It wasn't a question but rather an observation - a correct one at that. Yes I DID enjoy sucking dick. I love the way it keeps a guy so hard, knowing the lust and desire that must be building up inside of him as he squirms under me. Taking his dick in my mouth felt so good - warm and smooth yet with a firmness that let me close my lips around him and suck and lick on it. Now and then he would jump a little as my tongue would touch just the right spot, or my lips would run over the head of his dick in just the right way to make him feel especially good. I knew I was good at what I was doing and I couldn't help but feel a little proud of myself.

Usually when I suck a guy and he is about to cum, he will groan and talk dirty, telling me how he wants to cum, how he wants to cum in my mouth or wherever else he desires at the moment. Under the circumstances, this time there was little warning except for the upward thrusting motion of his hips as he tried to drive his delicious dick even deeper into my mouth. I knew what that meant, my guy was about to finally cum. I grabbed his dick at the base and pumped on it while my mouth concentrated on the head of his cock, my tongue running circles around it a I kept up a constant suction on his dick. Suddenly he thrust up again against me and this time I felt his warm cum spewing into my hungry mouth. Mmmmmmm, it tasted SO good! The first few loads were pretty good, followed by a series of smaller ejaculations that didn't leave much behind. When he was finished, I pulled my head off of him and looked up, our eyes meeting as I opened my mouth to see his cum.

"Took it in the mouth, eh?" his neighbor observed.

I closed my mouth and swallowed it all down in a couple of gulps, opening my mouth again to show it was empty.

"And she swallows to," the guy chuckled, "Not too shabby."

I got back up on my chair and took my seat again, acting as though I had just gotten down to pick up something I'd dropped and nothing more had happened. Of course, nobody was buying my innocence act, but then they weren't expected to either. I suppose I could have run my tongue around my lips as if I had just finished a good snack (which, in fact, I had), but that would have crossed the line for me. It was one thing to be a slut and tease and taunt men, but to be so flagrant, at least in this type of situation, seemed a little much to me.

For the next few minutes, maybe fifteen or so, I sat there and just watched. Other than TV, I'd never watched a poker game before and I soon realized it was a LOT harder when you don't have those little cameras telling you what the other people have in their hands. The guy next to me took the opportunity to put his hand on my leg and I let him fondle me but he didn't seem interested in doing much more than that. I was looking around to see if I could see any of the other girls but it was hard to see past the crowd. Just as I was about to get up and hunt for them, I felt a hand on my shoulder and warm breath against my ear.

"Come with me, someone wants to meet you."

I recognized Kristen's voice immediately. I gave my guy a kiss on the cheek, waved goodbye to the rest of the guys at the table, and got up to follow her. She only went a little ways to get away from any of the tables and turned to look at me, her eyes sparkled and I could tell from her grin and general demeanor that she was horny as hell.

"OK, here it is.... how would you like to earn a big tip?" she asked, her voice a little husky.

Damn, what had she been doing while I was playing around at the poker table? She was flushed and her hair was messed up just a little, as if she had just run a brush through it after whatever she had been doing.

"What the heck have you been doing?" I interrupted her, "Where have you been? Dang it Kristen, I have no idea what I'm supposed to be doing here."

"Well, it look like you handled things well enough on your own," she said with a smirk, emphasizing "handled".

"You didn't answer my question."

Kristen just rolled her eyes at me. "Shit Kelly, what do you THINK I've been doing, carrying on a conversation with some guy about the weather?"

"What about the other girls?"

"Barbie and Mandy? They disappeared as soon as we got here. I guess they're off in some other room. I've worked with them before... they like to make as much money as they can on these gigs, what can I say? You know what I mean?"

There was little doubt in my mind what she meant. I suppose she'd been off doing the same. Now was she asking me if I wanted to whore myself out in some back room? For some reason, it just didn't appeal to me. I had a pretty good idea what was going on and the thought of just lying in a bed while one guy after another fucked me really wasn't what I was looking for on New Year's Eve. I hadn't come for the money, I came to have fun and playing "everyone fuck the whore" wasn't my concept of fun - at least not for me.

"C'mon Kelly, they'll pay a hell of lot more for the two of us together."

OK, so now it was a guilt trip. If I didn't go back with her she wouldn't be making as much as she could. Well, it's not like the girl was destitute and needed the money to feed her bastard kid and go to school or anything like that.

"Why don't we just stay out here and have fun?" I asked. Her initial expression was glum but then she perked up. Uh-oh, NOW what did she have in mind?

We headed over back to the bar where the bartender gave her a glass of white wine and me another Diet Coke. He was good - he remembered our drinks! We sat on a couple of stools, crossing our legs slowly to let everyone get a good view. Kristen has something up her sleeve, I could tell from the way she was giggling and smirking at me, but she wasn't letting me in on her little secret, at least not yet.

"So what's the story tonight?" I asked, grateful to have a few minutes to relax, "This has been a REALLY weird evening. After the limo thing I figured it would be more a private party and such. What are we suppose to be doing here and why did the guys abandon us?"

Kristen finally explained to me that we had been actually been hired initially just for a limo ride, that the party thing was a late addition. It seemed we were like a "warm-up" for them before the party and now they were gambling and having a good time. Kristen promised that we would only be staying until a little bit after midnight and then it would be back to the limo. In the meantime, the party was really a place for the girls to earn some "tips" or just hang out, it was up to us.

"So people don't know we're being paid to be here?"

Kristen laughed, "Hell no.. they just think were sluts tagging along with those guys."

Well, THAT put a different spin on things. "So the BJ I just gave him...?"

"Hey, you enjoyed it as much as he did if I know you," she sidestepped the question.

Well, now it made more sense to me. No wonder the other guys at the poker table all figured I was just a tramp. Had they known I was being paid to be there for the night, no doubt more of them would have wanted what I gave their friend. Well, I'm sure they WANTED it, but I mean more that they would have expected it.

"So now what until midnight?"

"Just be patient my horny big cousin," she teased me, "This shouldn't take much longer."

She saw how frustrated I was with her being so cryptic but that just made her grin all the more. Then she surprised me by putting her hand on my bare thigh and leaned over to kiss me. Despite my initial surprise, I went along with it. It was only a brief kiss, but definitely more than just two friends saying hello.

"What was THAT all about?" I whispered to her, looking at my drink as if that was what I was talking about.

"You'll see," she teased, pushing her hand up higher on my thigh until her fingertips were just under the high hem of the dress.

Just then a couple of guys approached us and asked if they could get us another drink. Even though our glasses were still almost full, Kristen told them she would love it and so another "round" was delivered. All the while, she kept her hand on my leg, moving closer to me until we were rubbing up against each other.

"You girls friends?" one of them asked.

"Cousins," Kristen said to my surprise. Usually she didn't tell people we were related.

"Oh really?" the guy bantered back, "Kissing cousins I see."

Kristen gave her that little giggle she does when she is trying to act like an innocent little girl to guys. It just made her seem all the naughtier, exactly what she was trying for.

"We like to kiss," she answered back, then she leaned over and we kissed again, as if we had to prove what she said. We went on for a bit and then broke apart, looking back to see the reaction from the guys. I almost laughed out loud before I caught myself. Men are SO predictable!

"I like kissing my cousin," Kristen said softly, in a lower tone that sounded more husky.

"Is that all you like to do with her?" the second guy quickly asked. Sheesh, it was like shooting fish in a barrel for Kristen. She pushed her fingers further up my dress, then leaned over more towards me and gave them all a smile.

"I bet you'd like to watch us, wouldn't you?" she asked, drawing them into her web.

"Really?" the first guy asked, a little skeptic\al. Up until now it had just been typical bar flirting, maybe he had been hoping to make a score for the evening, who knows? In any case, I doubted that he had expected it to turn in this direction. Well, join the club. I hadn't either!

Kristen moved her hand further up my leg until her hand was up to my waist, it has the effect of pushing my dress up with it, exposing myself to the guys. With the bar on one side and the two guys standing on the other, we were effectively hidden from the view of most people so it wasn't like I was flashing the room, but still......

"She has a pretty pussy, don't you guys agree she has a pretty pussy?" Kristen said as her fingers moved over to my crotch, "I love touching her pussy..... do you want me to touch her pussy?"

OK, so maybe she wasn't the brightest bulb on the tree, but If there was one thing Kristen WAS good at, it was teasing guys. She managed to say "pussy" four time in a matter of seconds, knowing it was certain to turn the guys on to hear her talking "naughty". Meanwhile, she wasn't waiting for a response which was fortunate as the two of them seemed too stunned to say anything at the moment. She pulled my dress up further until it was out of the way and I sat there with my shaved crotch fully exposed.

Maybe some girls would have been embarrassed, but not me. God, instead it made me feel so damn horny. My pussy felt warm as I saw their eyes riveted on it, staring at my crotch as if they'd never seen a woman's pussy before. They only looked to be in their early twenties at most, but still, I doubted they were virgins. More likely, they had just never encountered two sluts like us before.

"Look how wet she is already boys... she likes you watching me touch her pussy," Kristen purred as she spread my pussy lips apart to reveal my wet hole to them.

My cousin slipped her finger into me, just up to the first knuckle or so, but plenty to get the idea across to them. "Ummmmm, yes she IS wet... don't you think my cousin's pussy is pretty when it's wet?"

Although they didn't say anything, the nods and wide eyes told more than any words could. I noticed both of them were sporting bulges in their pants but Kristen ignored their plight and instead, began to push her finger in and out of me ever so slowly. God it felt so good! I could feel my pussy gripping her finger as she moved it around just inside of me, stimulating the nerve endings that were so concentrated there. Her finger was good and wet now as she pulled it out and touched my clit, making me shiver. Damn, she knew exactly how to touch me. For the sake of our "audience", I moaned softly, licking my lips as I enjoyed myself.

"See how she likes her clit to be played with? Look how swollen it is... she's really horny now I think, aren't you Kelly?"

I looked at them and met their eyes as I grinned. It was all I needed to do. The evidence was there for them to see after all. Kristen pushed her finger back into me, deeper this time, as far as it would go. Then she started fucking me with her finger, drawing it in and out of me at a moderate rate, not enough to make me cum yet but plenty to make our guys think I might any minute.

"Look at her tits... see her nipples poking through her dress?" Kristen asked as she drew their attention to my breasts. Indeed, my nipples were poking through like the dress was not even there. With her other hand, Kristen pulled the top of my dress to the side, letting one boob pop out.

"I love her tits... don't you think she has nice ones?" Kristen teased them even more.

My sexy cousin leaned over and took my nipple in her mouth as her finger continued to fuck my increasingly sensitive pussy. She sucked on it a bit and then sat back up and looked at the guys once again. "Mmmmmmm, I love sucking on her nipple like that."

It was almost a shame to be teasing them this badly. Neither of them seemed to know what to do. Neither Kristen or I had made any suggestion for them to join, and to interrupt what Kristen was doing in the HOPE of getting some of me for themselves was risky - the equivalent of maybe killing the golden goose. As for me, I loved it. Not only did I have my favorite cousin feeling me up, but we had two horny guys watching her every move. I wondered what her intention was for them? Was this all a tease?

A woman came up to the bar near us and glanced over. Her eyes almost bulged out of their sockets when she saw what Kristen was doing to me but then she tried to appear as if nothing was going on, turning her head away and ignoring us. She wasn't exactly dressed all that conservatively herself, exposing some pretty fine legs herself and the dress was cut so low I wondered how her boobs didn't fall out every time she leaned over. Somebody was on the prowl herself, but probably not expecting to be seeing anything quite like this. She got her drink, looked back at us one more time. I saw her mouth the word "whores" as she left quickly. Oh well, what was the difference between doing it here or back at some guy's apartment later? Meanwhile, Kristen had pulled her finger out of me and put it up to her nose.

"Mmmmmmm, she smells really good," she said with a smile. She then put the finger in her mouth, sucking on it like a popsicle and then pushing it back in me again. "And she TASTES even better."

It was almost too much for them. One of them made a stutter step towards us, as if he was about to try it out for himself but then he lost his nerve and stayed back with his friend. I bet he was wishing it was his dick in me instead of my hot little cousin's finger. As for me, as much as I loved what Kristen was doing to me, the idea of a hard fat dick in me instead of her skinny finger wasn't all that bad a thought. I found myself wondering what they were hiding behind those pants. Kristen realized they were tight on the edge as well and she quickly took advantage of the opportunity.

"I bet you'd love to fuck her, wouldn't you?" she said to both of them. "C'mon, which of you wants to fuck my cousin?"

They looked at each other and then back at Kristen, probably wondering if that was a question or an offer. I was actually wondering the same thing. The first guy then spoke up saying, "OK, so what's it gonna take?"

He must have figured we were prostitutes and thus wanted to know how much we wanted. Knowing Kristen was looking to make some more "tips" for the night, I wondered what she would propose. My only thing was I had specifically told her earlier that I didn't want to duck back into some room and do it so was she just ignoring me or what?

"Just pull out your dick and fuck her if you want.... I'm sure she won't mind."

"Here?" he asked incredulously - voicing what I was about to ask myself.

It was one thing to sit there with my pussy and one boob exposed, It was another thing to give a BJ under a table where people KNEW what I was doing but didn't see. It was yet another thing to give a guy a hand job inside of his pants off to the side. But to fuck me right HERE, right at the bar where anybody could walk up and see? It wasn't like I was shy or anything. Heck, I LOVED to be watched being fucked but this was a little bit out of the ordinary. Although Kristen had told me more about the night and the party earlier, she still hadn't totally described to me what the ground rules were.

"Well, do you want to fuck her or not? Her pussy is here and your dick is there so why not fuck her now?"

He looked around helplessly and then his partner started to tease him as well, telling him he was all talk and no show, that he was chicken, the usual guy put downs. The first guy took yet another look around, then shrugged as if to say, "the hell with it", and undid his zipper. Oh yeah, the little head was in control now! He moved forward and between my legs as he pulled his dick out. It looked nice, maybe just a little bit bigger than average but nothing extraordinary. He started to reach out to touch me but Kristen pushed his hands away.

The guy looked stunned, as if he was confused but Kristen quickly acted to help him understand. She reached out, grabbed his hard dick in her hand, and pulled him closer to my crotch. It became obvious what her plan was - she would direct his cock into me where he could then fuck me but at no time was he to be allowed to touch me with his hands. It seemed sort of cool to me - I would get to have his dick without being groped!

With him between my legs, I wasn't as hidden from the rest of the crowd as before so I wondered if anyone was watching. With him right in front of me there was no way for me to know but I certainly hoped so. After all, I love being fucked but in situations like this, being WATCHED was as much of a turn on as his dick in me. Kristen put the head of his dick right at the entrance to my pussy and then he did the rest on his own, thrusting his hips forward to dive himself into me. God it felt so good to finally get his dick in me. Sure I'd been fucked not too long before in the limo, but this was different, much more erotic. God, I was being fucked on a bar stool in the same room as a hundred or so partiers!

"Her pussy feels good, doesn't it" Kristen asked him as she put her hand down into my crotch, her fingers spread so they were on each side of his dick as he pushed it in and out of me quickly.

He was so hard and horny I figured he wouldn't last long but it didn't matter one way or the other. I was getting off more from the voyeurism, although his dick DID feel damn good in me. Kristen was rubbing my clit as he fucked me, driving me crazy as I felt my orgasm starting to rise in me. God, I was going to cum right here in front of her and his friend! Kristen knew me well enough to recognize the symptoms.

"You're gonna make her cum... keep fucking her.... fuck my cousin," she told him, making sure to keep that family relationship fresh in their minds. Maybe it wasn't as hot as fucking sisters, but I doubted most guys wouldn't be turned on more by two cousins than just two unrelated girls.

I came... Oh God did I cum!

I wanted to scream out but managed to hold it back to a few moans and whimpers. My pussy grabbed his dick, squeezing down on it as he struggled to keep up his rhythm in me. Kristen was moving her finger over my clit as fast as she could, virtually driving me insane with the pleasure of my orgasm. I was SO wet. I could hear his dick as it moved in and out of me, making the most erotic squishy sounds as it drive itself into my soaking wet pussy. His thrusts increased in their speed and I knew he was about to cum as well - and so did Kristen of course.

"That's it, cum in her... cum in my cousin's hot cunt, fill her with your cum," Kristen encourage him, as if he needed anything more to spur him on.

He started to reach for my boobs as he approached his own orgasm but Kristen was waiting for such a move and pushed his hands away.

"Just cum in her... you don't have to touch her, just keep fucking her."

He pressed himself tightly into me, his dick buried in me as far as he could push it. He grunted as his fist load exploded in me, a growing mushroom cloud of warmth deep inside of me as his seed erupted from his cock, covering my insides with his cum. Again and again he came, each time another grunt, each time a little more harder into my crotch as he seemed to be trying to drive his dick up my throat! As he finished, he pulled out, giving one last little squirt just at the entrance to my pussy.

Kristen reached down a little bit and spread his cum over my pussy. He stepped back, pushing his spent dick back into his pants as the two of them watched Kristen mine my pussy for cum. Her finger reached into me, moving around as she tried to drag out some of his sperm from deep within me. I did my best to help, squeezing down and trying to push the sperm out of me onto her waiting fingers. As she collected our cum, she first took a taste for herself (selfish girl) and then shared the next batch with me, putting her cum-covered finger in my mouth as I closed my lips over it and cleaned it off her finger as she pulled it back out again.

"Mmmmmmm, your cum tastes so good in her," Kristen murmured as she gathered more for her "reward".

Kristen look at the other guy, he seemed to be totally amazed at what he had just witnessed. I wondered if he had ever been with another guy when his friend fucked a girl right in front of him before? It wouldn't have surprised me if he hadn't. Despite what the porn films and magazines might lead you to believe, I have found most guys have never been involved in an orgy or even a threesome - maybe why it's such a popular plot in most porn flicks.

"So you wanna fuck her too?" she offered, not even bothering to consult me but then, she knew she didn't have to, not the way I had just cum from the first guy fucking me.

The guy quickly shook his head. I don't know if it was because he was too shy to fuck me in public or if he wasn't into "sloppy seconds" - and I was pretty darn sloppy at the moment. Most likely a combination of the two. Kristen pulled my dress down to where it barely covered me again. "Well, hope you guys enjoyed the show... I know my cousin did, didn't you Kelly?"

I just smiled at them and as an answer, I reached over to give her a kiss. We each had the flavor of my pussy and his cum on in our mouths which we shared together.

"Thanks for fucking me," I decided to say - after all, he DID fuck me pretty good. I looked at his friend as I pulled up my dress to show him my wet pussy again. "Last chance!" I teased as I quickly pulled my dress back down again.

The two of them walked away, leaving Kristen and me alone again. The bartender came over and brought us some new drinks. "Nice show," he complimented us. "I take it you're with the two in back?"

Kristen nodded and he just nodded back, his suspicions confirmed. Yeah, he was a genius when it came to figuring out the obvious!

The noise level started to rise and it was only then I realized how close we were to midnight! Damn, we almost missed it! There was a big screen TV behind the bar and we moved over to where we could watch the ball drop at Times Square. Kristen and I joined in with the rest to shout out the final countdown. We kissed as in an instant 2008 was history and 2009 was underway.

Suddenly the year flashed before me and I thought to myself what a crazy year it had been. Sure there had been some good times but the heartbreaks were some of the worse I'd ever experienced. I certainly hope 2009 would be better. Kristen broke me out of my muse with a kiss on the lips and a hug that pulled me tightly into her. Mmmmmmm, what better way to usher in the new year than to hold my sexy cousin in my arms and kiss her!

For the next half hour or so we just partied and danced but the gambling was as busy as ever. I felt so much better after being fucked although I had to carry a napkin for a while to clean myself off as his cum would dribble out of me. When you're not wearing panties, that can be a problem!

I was enjoying myself but at the same time, wondering what the story was. Kristen has mentioned earlier we wouldn't be staying long after midnight so what was the scoop? When Barbie and Mandy suddenly appeared out of nowhere, I figured something must be cooking and I was right. The four of us started dancing together when one of the guys from the limo took Kristen by the arm and pulled her away to whisper something in her ear. Kristen just nodded and came back to join us.

"OK girls, time to hit the road."

7. The Ride Home

I was enjoying myself but there wasn't much of a choice. Not only didn't I have my own ride, I didn't even know where I was at! The four of us returned to the entrance where we were given out coats. Outside, I noticed that the limo had pulled up already. Three of the guys joined us, explaining that the rest wanted to stay and gamble all night. It was pretty easy to see why these three weren't staying - they could barely stand on their own two feet, let alone engage in anything the least bit complicated.

It was a lot less crowded in the limo this time with over half the guys MIA. The driver helped the three losers into the car, directing them towards the front where they almost simultaneously passed out. Thank God as I was afraid they might start puking or something similarly gross. That left just the four of us conscious.

"So how did you guys do?" Kristen asked, all business now. I quickly got the idea she wasn't asking how the sex was, she wanted to know how much they'd earned. I was staggered. We hadn't been there THAT long but our little teen sluts had been busy little beavers it appears. So much for staying on college so you can earn more! They had each gathered in more in those few hours than what I use to make in a week as a teacher - well, more like two weeks.

"How about you guys?" Barbie asked. Kristen reminded them that I was just there as her guest, being I was her cousin and all. She told them about the bar scene and the two of them shook their heads as if amazed - but not in the way I figured sat first.

"So they fucked her for free?" Mandy asked incredulously, "Shit Kristen, I thought you wouldn't even kiss a guy unless he paid for it!"

"Hey, she's my cousin so give her a break - and me," Kristen chastised her.

I looked at Mandy and once again, wondered what it would be like to lick a black pussy. No doubt after this evening hers was more than a little bit used and probably had who knows what mixture of cum and whatnot was inside her now but still, I might have gone for it if for no other reason than to try it out for once.

"Ever kiss a black girl?" Mandy asked, as if somehow she sensed my feelings toward her. I shook my heads and she laughed, "So the poor little white girl never had no black cunt?"

I was far from poor, if you included my Dad's income that he used to keep me financially afloat. As for little, I was quite self-conscious of the fact that I was the biggest girl in the limo at the moment. In addition, I've always hated calling my pussy a cunt unless I was deliberately trying to make a guy horny. I don't know, it's like calling me a whore - I just don't like it.

"Well just don't sit there like a bump on a log. We don't have all night so eat me girl!" she challenged me, "Show me what you can do. Let's see if you can make me cum faster than your hot little cousin over there."

I looked at Kristen who just grinned at me, knowing I must have been wondering how many times she had oral sex with Mandy and then how fast HAD she really made Mandy cum? I was starting to recognize some landmarks outside the limo so I figured if I WAS going to do something, I'd better get started. What the heck, why not? A little extra cum never hurt anyone.

Mandy lifted her skirt and I noticed her panties were long gone. I had no idea where mine had disappeared to and I had a feeling neither of the other two has a stitch of anything on their bottoms either. At this point, who really cared? Kristen and Barbie took seats on the one side, sprawling out on the long limo bench seats as they lifted up their skirts as well. Knowing Kristen, at least, she as probably going to masturbate as she watched. Undoubtedly Barbie had similar thoughts on her mind as well.

Mandy was sitting up just as the guys had done earlier (God was that just a matter of hours ago?) her legs spread apart in just the way your mom preached to you they never should be. He dark crotch was even darker with the lights down so low. It was like looking into a cave. I got on my knees and put my arms on her upper thighs do hold myself still as the limo seemed to be rushing back to the hotel where it had picked us up. Heck, at this rate we would be back before I knew it.

If there was one thing Mandy's pussy .did NOT smell like - it was the sweet scent of a freshly showered and douched pussy. I could smell the sweat and cum on her, the distinct odor strong enough to reach me even when I was a few feet away. God, how many guys had fucked her? No matter, I plunged my face into her crotch, my tongue reaching out to explore her cute little pussy. Well, black or not, she tasted almost the same as Kristen after she had been fucked by a group of guys. It wasn't BAD, just distinctive. There was nothing in the would I can think of that smells (or tastes) like a freshly fucked pussy!

"Yeah girl, that's it," Mandy encouraged me as my tongue dragged over the thickness of her clit.

Such a little bump yet it was capable of creating so much pleasure! It probably hadn't been that long since Mandy had last been fucked so undoubtedly her hormones were still in overdrive. Her thighs felt so warm and smooth in my hands as I gently dragged the tips of my fingers1 over the soft flesh on the interior of her thighs.

As I started to lush a finger into her cunt, as she insisted I call it, I looked over my shoulder back at Kristen and Barbie. Both of them were masturbating like crazy, not really even watching me so much as each other. I wondered if they would remain solo to join forces.

"Put on in my ass too!" Mandy demanded as my finger reached inside of her.

If she wanted it... So I put my next finger in ass using the classic "bowling ball grip" on her crotch. It slid in easily, making me wonder how much anal sex this girl was involved in to stretch her out so much in the rear. I fingered her in both hole simultaneously, pushing them in and pulling them out in a rhythm determined by the music. My tongue returned to her clit as she moaned and pushed my head harder into her crotch.

"Oh fuck that feels so good... keep going... don't stop now!" she finally said as her moans became like little cries for help but Barbie was too busy with her own pussy to be bothered by what her friend was involved in.

No sooner than she had cried out than it was like a fire hose had turned on below my face. I'd heard about, and seen porn videos showing it, but never had actually been with a girl that I would classify as a true "squirter". Most were like me, "gushers", if anything at all. Personally, I had wondered at times if it was all some special effect or figment of someone's wet dream imagination.

Well, Mandy proved the rumors to be true - she was squirting cum all over me, making me a total mess1 It was crazy, like she was peeing only more of it and a LOT more tasty. Unfortunately, it also got on my dress but at least now the evening was about over. It might have been a different story entirely had I been forced to walk into the party earlier with a dress covered with a girl's cum.

"Well, how did I do?" I asked after she had calmed down for a few minutes. "Better than Kristen?"

Kristen was now listening again. Had she made herself cum before? I wasn't sure but the two of them looked pretty happy with themselves in any case.

"Oh, let's just say I know for sure now that you really ARE cousins," she replied coyly.

I was about to press her for a more definitive answer when we pulled in the drive leading up to the hotel lobby. As soon as we were out of the door and it was closed, the driver pulled away without another word to us. Kristen said something to the valet our ticket and soon a taxi magically reappeared before us. We all kissed and hugged as we said goodnight and then Mandy and Barbie were off to wherever they had cum from prior to joining us earlier.

The ride back to Kristen's house was uneventful. I think we were both so exhausted it was nice to just have a few minutes to wind down. When we got back to her place, I noted her mom's car was still not there. Kristen finally remembered to turn her cell phone back on and sure enough, she had a message from her mom saying she was spending the night at my house! Wow, two nights in a row without even coming home in between? I was going to have to ask my dad what his "intentions" were towards my act, just as he had asked one of my poor boyfriends about me back when I was in high school.

Rather than try to drive home this late, and besides, I would be leaving Kristen home alone, I decided to spend what was left of the night with Kristen. Besides, what better way to wake up on the first day of the year than with my wonderful cousin! Hmmm, my mind was already swirling with the possibilities!

It goes without saying that there are LOTS of ways to feel good about yourself besides fucking married men, many of which are more "acceptable" to most girls. Face it, no matter what she might deny or rationalize it, EVERY girl at one time or another in her life has felt that heart-pounding thrill and warm tingle between her legs when she catches a man looking at her "that" way. ALL girls want men to find them sexually attractive - it's in the DNA. EVERY girl has at least imagined a little bit as to what nasty and probably perverted thoughts were running through the man's head when he looked at her.

Sure, there are the prudes who try to pretend such attention doesn't appeal to them, especially those poor girls raised in oppressive households where sex is treated as a sin, something taboo, and even casual flirting is discouraged and labeled as something only "those" girls do - girls like me I guess.

Regardless of their upbringing, in my experience even the most up-tight girls will cave in to the temptation to flirt at least a little bit, even if they have to shy away quickly and then feel embarrassed about it afterwards. Personally, I would say the majority of girls flirt when they are with friends, letting the safety of the "herd" protect them from having to actually carry through with the temptations they offer.

To be fair, it's a small minority of girls who go beyond just accepting the interest that guys give and actively pursue such attention, dressing slutty to deliberately draw men's attention (and sometimes women's), actively flirting and maybe even exposing themselves. Within that small number are the true "sluts", the girls who don't stop at just teasing and tempting a guy, but are willing to carry through with their "offer" as well (not to be confused with whores, who will do most anything but for money, not just pleasure).

If I were to look in the mirror, I guess you could say I fall more into the middle category while sometimes pushing it into the latter. It's all relative I guess, depending on who you compare yourself to. I'm almost virginal compared to my cousin Kristen, who is easily at the outer fringes of even the craziest limits.

Face it, when God was hanging out modesty, Kristen was far away on vacation. There have been numerous times when even I had a hard time believing her behaviors could be so outrageousness. At the same time, how do you argue her methods when you take into account the results? Kristen learned at an early age that all it takes is a little wiggle of her cute ass and a bit of exposed cleavage between her perky boobs and she can have most any guy eating out of her hands - or someplace else on her body.

Despite everything, I love my cousin dearly but if ever a girl matched the stereotype of the blond "airhead", it would have to be Kristen. My little cousin (she's two years younger than me) would have likely never even made it through high school without the help she finagled from the nerds - the same guys she used so brazenly in public and then was so contemptuous of in private. Home alone on a Friday night? Never if you were Kristen. Too broke to see a movie? Never if you were Kristen - who needs money when the guy pays for everything? There have been more times then I care to admit to when trying to balance my checkbook that thoughts of how much Kristen was making in one night as a prostitute compared to me in a week of teaching didn't creep in. I guess so long as being labeled a whore doesn't bother you, what's the problem? (Well, in my case it DOES bother me.)

Compared to my "girls-gone-wild" cousin, I would say I am less bold but definitely more devious, preferring to use my mind in addition to my body. Personally, I find it a lot more challenging to manipulate him rather than taking the "easy" route of relying strictly on good looks and outlandish behavior. For me, I prefer to think of men as more like a Mission Impossible assignment, where I find a way to use his own mind against him more so than brute force. Playing the game can be as much, or even more satisfying, as the end results. To put a twist on the saying, "the end doesn't justify the means", I would rephrase it as, "The means justifies the end." Put another way, sometimes it's the journey that thrills me as much, if not more, than the final destination.

If you STILL don't understand what I'm trying to say, consider that ANY girl, I don't care what she looks like or how old she is, can go out and get fucked any night of the year if she wants to badly enough. (Something I bet guys WISH they could say - at least without paying for it!) That's why simply heading to a local bar to pick up men doesn't provide any special satisfaction for me. It's like asking a hunter to go shoot his game in a zoo and expect him to get the same thrill as he would get tracking down a wily bear in the dense woods. Sure it feels great to land the big one, but it's the thrill of the hunt that he's pursuing as much as anything else, the deadly dance between him and his prey. It's the same for me, but my prey is the man I'm after!

Now don't go thinking that it's ALL just mind games with me. Sure there have been times when I was REALLY horny and all I wanted was to get fucked and so I go out and pick up a guy just to satisfy my physical needs. Still, overall that approach is rather boring and lacks any sense of challenge. What fun would gambling be if you broadcasting this intimate moment, not to mention a great view of her bare boobs, to a girl her husband had never even met! It would have been really cool to send her a transcript of our chat so she could read about how badly he wanted to fuck her while she had been folding clothes. (There was a lot more to this story so trust me, she didn't know!)

OK, so by now you must be thinking I'm the most narcissistic, evil, conniving, manipulative bitch you've ever met. Frankly, in reading back what I just wrote I could easily understand why someone would think that of me. All I can do is to ask that you PLEASE try to remember that my web site and writings reflect a one-dimensional portrait of me, not my full-time persona. There's a lot to me that people don't know but I doubt most people would really care about, at least not the ones who are looking for my type of web site.

My web site got its start way back in my freshman year of college as a diversion, a place I could express myself while living in an unfamiliar atmosphere of sexual repression and deprivation. Over time, it evolved into something I now have fun with, a place I can reveal things about my life that I can't in my "real" life, at least not with most people I know. For instance, in my "real" life I can count on one hand the people who know the "real" me, outside my immediate family, that also know I have sex with my dad. Yet through my website, hundreds of thousands of people know about it, although they don't know who I really am. I guess it's one or the other!

While some people call me manipulative, on the other hand I think that deep down, most guys enjoy playing their "roles" with me. Anyone following my web site over the years knows that I have no desire to harm anyone. Quite the opposite in that I think that in many cases guys have learned lessons from their dealings with me that could have cost them their marriages or even put them in jail had they done it with some on-line police scam.

Unfortunately, I also know that in a small number of cases the wife/girlfriend HAS found out what their husband/boyfriend was doing with me (see "Evan", "Randy" or "David" in my Friends section of my site for some examples) leading to some sticky situations. However, I have never felt guilty about the problems they incurred because in EVERY case it was THEIR fault, not mine. It was THEIR lack of discretion that allowed their loved ones to learn about their naughty activities. I mean, when a husband gives me his wife's e-mail address and thinks somehow she will be interested in talking to me, what do you really expect to happen?

Again, it's not my desire to hurt anyone or to cause any damage to anyone's marriage, even when I have sex with married men. It's no different than when people play paintball. While they pretend to "kill" their opponents, they really don't want to hurt anyone for real. Same for me - I love to tease and manipulate men, but I don't want to hurt them. Personally, I think in a number of cases I've actually helped out a relationship that was in trouble by allowing the husband to act out his fantasies and get things out of his system before something bad really did screw up his marriage.

2. My Best Friend Beth

OK. So now that I've bared my soul and confessed my "sins", hopefully this will help in understanding my actions of the past few weeks. Shortly after breaking up with Duane, I was at my best friend Beth's house, just hanging around doing nothing in particular but watching TV and chatting about life in general. We were both dressed casually, nothing especially hot - if anything quite the opposite. Jeans and baggy sweatshirts, about as NON-revealing as it comes. At one point her father came in, having just arrived from work. He glanced at me but when he recognized who I was, he quickly averted his eyes and went over to give his daughter a hug. He then left promptly, never looking at me again the entire time.

"Sheesh Beth, is your dad EVER going to even look at me again?" I sighed, shifting my weight in the chair to pull my legs underneath me.

Beth just shook her head solemnly and looked at me with a rather sad smile. "Well, you can't really blame him. If a certain someone had kept her hands to herself like I told her to..."

I playfully slapped her and poked her in the side. "Hey, don't blame ME! After all girl, YOU'RE the one who started everything."

"Yeah but YOUR dad wanted it."

"Oh sure... and like yours didn't?"

"Give me a break Kelly, you know what I mean. Crap, if my mom ever found out what you two did... she'd kill you both, and then me probably as well!"

Well, in case you haven't read about what we were talking about in my diary already, about four years ago Beth became the first woman outside our family that my dad had sex with since marrying my mom. While it isn't like he went out and just did any old girl off the street, it was still a major event for me.

Beth has been my best of best friends since before kindergarten and is practically a member of our family. Still, I wasn't exactly thrilled when my dad fucked her given my parents' rigid position (no pun intended) on adultery that they had been drilling into me all those years I was growing up. True, he only did her once more after that but still, it was the fact he succumbed to his lust in the first place that shocked me. It just goes to show that in the end, my dad's still a male animal and there are some things that can't be resisted forever. No matter how I rationalized his behavior, in the end I felt that what she did with my dad called for an equivalent "response" from me.

As I mentioned, it's not as easy to get a decent father and husband to commit adultery as people seem to think it is which is why it took me eighteen months to complete my "mission" but in the end, I caught him at a weak moment and eventually seduced Beth's dad into fucking me. OK, so he regretted it as soon as he did it but so what? Personally, I think he was actually more worried that someone would find out what he did rather than any regrets about fucking me but I wasn't going to argue with Beth about semantics. So far as I was concerned, he DID fuck me, and right in their living room, the same one we were in now, while Beth was home.

As I thought about it, I realized I was sitting just where he was that first time I started sucking his dick! Well, ever since then he hasn't spoken a word to me and still tries his best not to even look at me - quite a feat when you consider how much time I spend at her house. Of course her mom hasn't a clue about what happened between her husband and me but I have to wonder at times if she has ever asked herself why he seems almost afraid to be near their daughter's best friend. I'd love for her to know, just to see the look on her face, but then as I said, I really don't want to hurt anyone.

As an only child, I never had a sister (my cousin feels like one sometimes but it's not the same thing) whereas Beth was part of what can only be described as a regular tribe at home. She is the next to youngest of five kids - three boys and two girls. Her older siblings have all finished school and moved out leaving just her and her little brother Tony at home as she finished her education at a local college. Tony was four years younger than her - Beth likes to tease him by calling him the family "surprise". Being he was so much younger than us, through most of our years at school and such I never really paid him a whole lot of attention. Now that he was 19, though... wow, had he grown up! More than a few times Beth had needled me in the side with her elbows when she caught me looking at Tony. Hey, what can I say? The boy's a hunk!

"So where's Tony tonight?" I teased her, knowing it was a button of hers I could push that always got results.

"None of your business so just get your mind out of the gutter, OK?"

"What??? Meeee?" I replied, pretending to be shocked that she could even THINK such things about me, "All I did was ask where he was."

"Oh don't give me that you fuckin' slut, I know what you want and don't even think about it! Besides, he's got a girlfriend now and he's madly in love."

"More like in lust I bet... is he getting any from her?"

Beth smacked me in jest but she answered more seriously, "Probably, she's got a bit of rep from what I hear. She's not too really that good looking but he's always been attracted to the ones with big boobs, and hers are ridiculously HUGE."

"Like his big sister's?"

"A LOT bigger," she answered before thinking it through. Then her face clouded over as she realized what I was inferring. "KELLY! Don't even THINK that,' she said sharply, "Ewwwww, sex with my brother... not me, sorry."

"Well I certainly wish he was MY brother."

"Well sure, maybe for you but I can't even imagine such a thing. You know me better than that."

"Still, you have to admit that he likes your boobs. I saw him looking when you ran around with them flopping up and down in that nasty little bikini you wore around the pool all summer. Heck girl, even I like your boobs!"

I reached over and squeezed her full breast with my hand. Indeed, Beth WAS built - 36DD, and 100% natural. She started wearing a real bra when she was barely twelve and moved into her first D cups before I was barely filling out. It was like they never stopped growing all through high school. I was SO jealous of her at times. She quickly pushed my hand away and looked about nervously.

"Shit Kelly, you know better. Don't do that here... damn, what if someone saw you doing that?"

"Oh? You someone like Tony? Mmmmmmm, I bet he'd love to watch us getting it on. Maybe he'd even want to join in!"

"Oh shut up.... and besides, what's all this about my brother tonight? God Kelly, what's got you so horny tonight - I mean more than usual?"

She had me pegged as I WAS horny as hell for some reason. Nothing in particular, I guess it was a combination of a number of things, being at her house and seeing her dad, talking about her sexy brother, not to mention I hadn't been laid in almost a week! Mmmmmmm, speaking of her brother, I could picture in my mind how Tony looked last summer in his wet swim suit, his maturing dick clearly outlined as his suit clung to him like Saran wrap.

Beth and I had both been wearing our "tanning" bikinis, the ones that left as much exposed as possible without bringing the total wrath of her mom down upon us. Maybe it was just wishful thinking, but I could have sworn I saw Tony getting an eyeful of his sister's big boobs every time she was bent over as she climbed out of the pool. I knew he was checking me out as well, but Tony was a tit man all the way and his sister definitely had a MUCH bigger rack than me for him to stare at.

"Hey, have you ever thought about what you would do if your brother were to fuck me?" I calmly asked, as if I was asking for the weather or something else innocuous.

Beth just stared at me, her shoulders down and mouth half open as if she couldn't believe she'd heard me right - or perhaps because she knew she HAD heard me right.

"Kelly, now you're my best friend and I love ya to death, but enough is enough. Just can the brother thing - NOW! OK?"

Well, I wasn't about to be deterred THAT easily. "Wanna bet I can get him to fuck me?"

For a moment I thought maybe I'd really gone too far this time. Beth had long ago accepted that I liked to push her buttons and she knew better than to indulge me - it only made me push harder. Thus normally she just ignored me and life went on but this time she was too pissed off at me to think clearly.

"Last time, OK? No more about my brother and dammit, keep your hands off of him, OK?" she said in a miffed tone, but then threw in one last bit that caught my ear. "Besides, he'd never fuck you anyway. He's in love with his new girlfriend not to mention you're too old for him."

Oh boy, I might know which buttons to push to get her riled up, but she knew mine even better. What was that crack about me being too old for him? How dare she! Sheesh, I was only four years older than Tony and I hadn't had a teenage guy turn me down yet. Besides he wasn't going to be a teenager much longer as he almost twenty himself. And as for her smart remark about him never wanting to fuck repeated again in most cases. For instance, she "forgot" to warn me that I had to be "initiated" at the first one, which meant being fucked by the host right in front of the rest of the group at the start of the party. I still owe her for that one!

Another key area where we differ is the concept of having sex with our families. Beth was aware that I was deeply involved in incest, heck she had even fucked my dad with me once. She remains one of a VERY small group of people outside my family that has any idea what goes on at home between me and my parents. While Beth has never even hinted at judging me for it, neither does she feel it's something she wants to be involved with when it comes to her own mom and dad, let alone her brothers. As I've said many times, that's fine with me as I believe that 99% or more of families should NOT get involved in incest. It takes a very special blend of circumstances, family culture, and personalities for incest to work and I am just fortunate to have lived in a situation where those all came together for me.

Beth's family, on the other hand, was decent and "All-American", not the type that would be able to deal even with open masturbation, let alone sex. When I started masturbating, I would do it on the couch while watching TV, even if my parents were in the room. They would just ignore me, just as I ignored them should the mood strike them (although not nearly as often as it did me). In comparison, I'm sure that Beth's parents would totally freak if they saw her with a hand inside her panties while watching some hot guy on TV!

Because of the differences in our family situations, for the most part Beth and I never even discussed incest. It was one of those things we both agreed was something we knew about, but not something we needed to talk about much. I guess that's why when I would tease her about her brother, she would get a little piqued at me, like I was threatening the tenuous truce we had between us.

3. Beth's Brother Tony

As Beth and I returned to watching TV, I laid on the couch next to her, seemingly calm and collected but my mind was whirring like a clock wound too tight. Hmmmmmm, too old was I? Never even want me because he loved his girlfriend? Well, we'd see about that! In my mind, I came to the conclusion that I would accept her challenge, whether she even realized she had even made one in the first place. Yes sir, I was going to find a way to convince Tony to fuck me, and I was going to have fun along the way as well. Only one question remained.... how the heck was I going to do it without losing my best friend in the process?

When it came to flirting with Tony these days, it didn't help that it was winter weather so wearing super short shorts and other revealing clothes like thong bikinis and low-cut halters was difficult, if not impossible, without being blatant about it. I DID have some thin sweaters that were a size or two too small, making my boobs look pretty good. But no matter what I wore it was for naught if Beth was next to me with her incredible breasts making mine look like they were still in a training bra by comparison. Heck, in our baggy sweatshirts mine were pretty much hidden from view while she still looked hot as hell. Sometimes I couldn't help but feel it just wasn't fair!

Well, clothes may make the man but when it came to a girl and her flirting, they were just one tool in my arsenal. In my favor was the male ego - one of the most sensitive things ever created, ready to break and flounder at the slightest negative suggestion. Properly manipulated, it offered the greatest opportunity for taking possession of a man's self-will. Don't believe me? All I can say is that I simply have to tell a guy he has a great dick with the right inflection and tone - and it's hard in an instant!

Had it been any other guy, I would have simply taken the direct approach and flirted shamelessly with him until he got so horny for me he couldn't resist. Like I said, this would have worked with any other guy but Tony wasn't just any other guy - he was Beth's brother and she would be keeping a watchful eye me. She knew me better than anyone and so she had to know what her words had meant to me. Would she suspect my plans? Absolutely. It just meant I had to be all the more sneaky and devious.

And so began "Operation Tony".....

Over the next few weeks, I made it a point to spend as much time at Beth's as possible, especially if I knew Tony was going to be home. Despite her sometimes blistering dress-downs later, I made sure I was wearing something revealing in some way for him to notice me, be it a shirt I "forgot" to button all the way, jeans that were cut so low my ass crack showed even when I was standing up, let alone bending over, a cami top with no bra that was cut to show as much cleavage as possible, a transparent nightie during a sleepover that I should have been wearing a robe over when out of her room, and so on.

One day his girlfriend was over and my eyes practically bugged out. She wasn't the prettiest girl in school by any stretch of the imagination and a bit overweight, to be gentle about it, but she DID have some monster boobs. I wondered if they were the type that would shrink two cup sizes if she lost a little weight but Tony didn't seem to mind the fact his girlfriend weighed more than him - even though she was at least six inches shorter.

As for Tony's reaction? Well, he IS a male and as much as he tried to make it look like he wasn't noticing me, he was, I was sure of it. He especially tried to appear to ignore me when his girlfriend was around but that just made it all the more obvious he was trying to ignore me. Meanwhile, Beth was having a fit with my antics.

"Christ Kelly, didn't you outgrow that cami back in grade school?" she huffed one day when we were back in her room after I'd paraded myself shamelessly around her brother, "Like hell, how do you even BREATH in it?"

She was right, it was WAY too small for me but it showed off my boobs better than just about anything else I had in my closet outside a bikini top. It was like waving sugar candy in front of a little boy and he reacted exactly as I had hoped when I picked it out earlier that day. I even made it a point to press up against him a little as I squeezed by him to get to the sink once. Of course, the other way around the counter was wide open but what fun was there in taking the easy way around?

I felt myself pushing against him, flattening out my unrestrained boobs against him with just the barest, most stretched out material between me and his arm. The excitement of teasing him had made my nipples harden long before and they stuck out almost obscenely through the thin material. He tried valiantly to pretend he didn't notice but I was sure I felt a little pressure back from him as I started to pull away.

Just to make sure I left a lasting impression, after I finished at the sink, I went the 'wrong" way around the kitchen island again, once again forcing me to have to squeeze by Tony. This time, however, in addition to pressing my boobs against him, I kept my hands down and as I went by him, I "accidentally" pressed my hand into his crotch. It was the first time I'd actually felt Tony's dick and while there may have been a layer of denim between my hand and his cock, it was the first time I'd actually directly been able to gauge his dick.

At first he flinched but then he did his best to act as though nothing was happening, even as my hand lingered on his growing bulge. I was sure nobody could see as it was between the two of us, but the way he was blushing must have been a giveaway to Beth. Later, when we were in her room alone, she let me have it yet again.

"God dammit Kelly, what was that all about?" she demanded no sooner than the door was shut. I gave me my most innocent, "Who me?" look, as if I had no idea what she was talking about. To be fair, at first I really wasn't sure as I didn't think she had seen what had happened between Tony and me.

"Did you honestly think nobody was going to notice you planting the palm of your hand directly on top of my brother's crotch?"

Well, yes I did actually!

"God, what if my mom had noticed?" she whined, not waiting for a response from me, "She would have dropped dead in her tracks – if you were lucky."

"Well at least I didn't kneel down and blow it," I offered as consolation. Beth didn't take it as such. She stared at me for a moment, as if weighing her words carefully.

"What's scary about that, you know, is I think you're serious," she finally said in a low voice, "You know, sometimes I think you're as bad as your cousin."

Now THAT was a blow below the belt, so to speak. She knew better than that. As much as I might WISH I did, as much as I might masturbate later thinking about it, I would never do anything so stupid, at least not with my best friend's family. Not even Kristen would, and Beth knew it. For a moment, I felt a little angry as I didn't really care for her dissing my cousin like that. Kristen might be a bit "morally challenged" at times, but even she knew where the limits were when push came to shove – most of the time at least.

4. Making Up With Beth

It wasn't often that Beth and I argued like this and I felt a little guilty about it – not TOO guilty but still a little. On the spur of the moment, without even really thinking about it, I leaned forward and kissed her on the lips. At first she seemed a bit surprised and as mad as she had been at me, she even tried to pull back at first but I reached around her and pulled her into me.

God, she felt so good pressed up against me, her soft ass in my hands as her boobs pressed against mine. Her resistance dropped quickly and she put her arms around my neck and pressed her tongue into my mouth. She ran her hands through my hair as I squeezed her ass – both of us knowing instinctively what turned the other on the most. It wasn't like we were lovers or even "girlfriends" in that sense, but rather two old friends just enjoying one another.

"Not fair," she gasped between kisses, "I'm still mad at you."

I almost laughed as she went back to kissing me again. Well, I wish everyone who was mad at me treated me this way!

"It's been a while, hasn't it?" she whispered rhetorically as we worked our way to her bed.

What she didn't realize was that as we turned, I was able to reach the door handle and I just barely had enough time to give it enough of a turn to crack the door open. Not enough to see through, but enough that anyone walking by would see that is wasn't closed tightly. I'd bated the trap so now it was time to see if my mouse would take the cheese! Given Beth's bedroom was located at the opposite side of the house as her parents', the only person likely to walk by would be Tony as his room was the last one down the hallway.

My attention was quickly turned back to Beth. Beth was pretty much straight, although she dabbled in girls now and then but mostly then as part of an orgy, or at least with other partners. The two of us played now and then but that's exactly what is was - playing. It was just a small step beyond masturbating together, but even then a step we rarely took. She was horny as well for some reason tonight. I would like to think it was brought on by seeing me teasing her brother but I knew her better than that to hold out such hopes. More like she just hadn't been laid either in the past few days! Whatever it was, she was definitely responding to me now!

"God I'm so fucking horny!' she exclaimed in a whispered tone, trying not to be TOO loud as the wall between her and Tony's bedroom wasn't exactly soundproofed.

Indeed, not long ago we had secretly listened in on Tony and his girlfriend. My oh my, she certainly had a filthy mouth when she was being fucked!

Beth practically tore off my clothes after which she stripped out of hers as well, leaving us both totally naked on her double-sized bed. Yes indeed, she certainly wasn't wasting any time! Actually, with Beth I liked it better this way. We didn't need to fool around for a while, pretending we both didn't want that same thing. We both wanted to get off (especially her this time!) so why not just get down to it and fuck?

I wasn't given much choice but to be on the bottom as Beth roughly pushed me down onto the bed and then twisted herself around, straddling my face with her smooth soft legs as she leaned over to start licking my pussy. Her ponderous boobs rubbed against my stomach as I could smell and see her wet pussy just above my face. Reaching up, I grabbed her and pulled her down into my face, our tongues both landing on the other's clit at almost the same time.

"Oh god," she gasped, her body practically shivering with anticipation as my tongue flicked about her already sensitive and wet pussy.

My best friend tasted good, rather strong in comparison to say, my cousin Kristen but not nearly so much as my mother or Aunt Linda. Like me, Beth was shaved smooth and apparently she had done herself not long ago because she was as smooth and soft as a newborn baby's butt - not that I'd ever licked one mind you!

Beth was licking my pussy as well, her fingers toying with my clit and plunging into me but I could tell she wasn't putting her whole heart into it. Oh well, I guess I could only blame myself for what I was doing to distract her from the other end! I'd been horny before for Tony but now I was more turned on from the way Beth was behaving than anything else. I was getting off as much, if not more, by licking her cunt and working to make her cum than anything she was doing to me. Indeed, that turned out to be a good thing because soon she was unable to focus on my pussy at all and I knew she was about to let loose at any moment.

"Oh fuck, I'm so cumming," she groaned as I felt her ass clench. She buried her face in my crotch, her hands under me as I felt her fingers dig into my ass while her first orgasm swelled within her.

"Ohhhhhhhhh!" she groaned, a little louder this time but seemingly unconcerned about anyone hearing as lust overwhelmed her.

Over and over she moaned and gasped as her pussy literally gushed cum over my face. She was grinding her hot cunt into my nose and mouth as if I was her latest partner's dick. Damn, she was absolutely soaking wet and my face was drenched with her cum. This must have been a new record for me in terms of the time needed to get her off. Sheesh, what had her so darn horny? Well, if there was ever a time to ask, this was it, while she was still in a fog after her climax. I pushed her over and twisted myself around so I could kiss her, the wetness on my face transferring to hers as she kissed me and licked her own sweet pussy cum from my cheeks and mouth.

"What the fuck is with you?" I whispered to her, trying not to break the mood but still get a response from her.

"OK, OK, I admit it... I was thinking about you sucking his dick when I saw you groping him in the kitchen," she confessed.

"Had to be more than that to get you this riled up," I pressed her. Had she not still been under the waning influence of her orgasm, I'm sure she never would have answered so candidly, but why not take advantage of the situation?

"Oh crap, I was thinking about joining in," she sighed.

"And...?"

"Oh alright, I was thinking about him fucking me," she practically hissed, "You happy now?"

Indeed I was! No doubt once she had her wits about her she would deny everything and say I had tricked her into confessing to a "crime" she hadn't committed, but this was good enough for me!

"Let's not talk about him anymore," she declared, appearing to becoming more aware of her surroundings once again, "My turn now."

It soon became obvious it was her "turn" to make me cum. Rather than 69 again, this time she got down between my legs and put her hands up and under my butt, lifting me up just off the bed to make it easier for her face to plant itself on my crotch. Beth may not be all that into doing other girls, but she WAS a girl and she knew what it took to satisfy the cravings of a horny pussy. OK, so she wasn't in the same league as my cousin but who really cared? I was getting my pussy licked and that can never be a BAD thing.

I glanced over towards the door but the hallway was dark so even had it been open I would've had a hard time seeing out. Was the door more open now or just a figment of my hopeful imagination? Were we being watched? If so, by whom? It couldn't have been her mom or dad, they would have burst in and stopped us from our "sinful" ways. It's not that they were religious nuts or anything like that; but they had their boundaries, like most people. IF (and that was a big IF) someone had opened the door slightly, just enough to penetrate our privacy, it would had to have been Tony. Had he seen his sister cum? Was he watching me being licked by her now? I couldn't tell one way or another in the dark so I had to just hope for the best.

Oh my god, it felt so good when she started to lick me in earnest! I loved the way her hands felt under me, kneading and lifting my bare butt like it was a loaf of bread being prepared. I couldn't reach her so I planted my hands on my chest, each one over one boob, and massaged them as Bath continued to lick me. When I finally came, it wasn't anywhere as quick as hers had been, but it was like a pot on slow boil - rumbling and feeling good, but not overwhelming to where you had to cry out, begging for a pause for a few moments to let you catch your breath.

When I was finally done, we laid together on her bed on our sides. My back was to the door (not to mention my bare ass) so I still had no idea if we had an audience or not. In a way, I was hoping we WERE being watched, and that whoever it was couldn't control themselves any longer and would burst in to join us. OMG, what if it was her dad? Slim to no chance for that fantasy but it WAS erotic to think about. If Tony HAD watched us, did he get hard? Was he in his room now, jerking off as he recalled seeing his sister and me doing one another? Was he wishing he had the nerve to join us? Did he want just me or was he drawn to his big-boobed sister even more?

"You know, what is it about you that I just can't stay mad at you?" Beth asked, breaking me out of my reverie.

"Hmmmmmm, the way I make you cum?" I teased her. She smacked me playfully on my bare ass.

"You know what I mean... why are we such good friends?"

Now that was sort of out of the blue. Why so philosophical all of a sudden? For a while we just talked to each other as only the best of friends can, open and honest yet caring. Now and then we would break into tears as we would recall some moment in our childhood where we had done something special together, like when we shared her boyfriend for the first time. We would kiss now and then, more to express our feelings rather than depend on our cracking voices. It was a kiss between friends, not lovers; between two people who totally trusted the other as a symbol of our friendship. There was nothing that I kept from Beth and I knew she bared her soul to me as well. I think everyone needs a best friend like Beth, someone you can trust to listen to you and no matter what you said or how bad it was, she was there for you and supported you.

5. Doing Tony in His Sleep

We finally got up and got our nighties on. As we dressed, I noticed the door was open - not much but just a crack. Maybe it had just opened that much on its own; or maybe it had received a little help along the way. Had someone watched us? Would I ever know for sure? In any case, I opened the door before Beth noticed it hadn't been shut tightly. Stepping out into the dark hallway, I reached for a light switch and turned on the overhead hall lights, one at each end of the hall.

Tony's door was next to Beth's and was closed tightly. Was he inside? Was he masturbating, hopefully about seeing me and his sister playing together? The bathroom was directly across from his door so I walked down and just as I was about to enter, his door opened and he stepped out in a hurry, knocking me over in the process, on his way to the bathroom.

"Sorry," he apologized quickly, reaching down to help me up.

Of course, my nightie had pulled up in the process and needless to say, I wasn't wearing anything underneath so he had his first (maybe second?) view of my pussy. The shoulder straps had also mysteriously fallen to my elbows, letting the top slide down and my boobs spilled out. For all intents and purposes I was naked as my nightie was now bunched up around my waist. As he helped me up, Tony was staring at my nudity. Of course, I wasn't exactly hurrying the process along either as I reveled in the looks he was giving me. I guess catching him by surprise like this put him off balance and he wasn't thinking about what he was doing, letting his instincts take over instead.

Oops, I'd forgotten about Beth and now she was just behind me, the anger in her voice back once again. Tony bolted for the bathroom like a deer being shot at, slamming the door behind him to leave me standing there all alone to face the fury of Beth.

"Hmmmmmm, I suppose your nightie just accidentally all but fell off?" she said, a small smile starting to break through her veneer of seriousness.

"I guess so..." I said, biting my tongue as I tried not to laugh.

"I saw you fall... an NFL kicker would have been proud of such a nose dive," she started to tease me. "Damn, be honest with me... did he even really touch you?"

"Well..." I let it draw out, not really answering her one way or the other but she got the picture.

Beth grabbed me by the hand and practically pulled me back to her room. Once inside, she closed the door and this time I noticed she made sure it was closed tightly. Was she just being overly cautious or had she noticed what I'd done before? If she HAD, then she was certainly being more circumspect about it than I would have expected.

"Well you certainly gave him an eyeful, I have to hand you that" she congratulated me, although her tone didn't exactly match her words. "Poor guy's probably jacking off in there right now about it."

My eyes widened and a smile came to my face. She quickly interpreted my expression and shook her head. "and NO... you can't go down and help him."

We both laughed as she correctly identified my feelings at the moment. As things turned out, I wouldn't see Tony again before we went to bed but as we masturbated later before falling asleep, you better believe I was dreaming about him jerking off about us. As I came, I would imagine was how much perfectly good cum was being wasted - and what I would like to do with it!

We both fell asleep almost instantly but somewhere in the middle of the night I woke up. I must have been dreaming something pretty special because I was soaking wet between my legs and I had this overwhelming feeling of horniness that was like an uncontrollable itch. God, it was driving me nuts! I had awoke facing towards the outside of the bed, my bare butt pressed up against Beth's as evidently she had rolled in the opposite direction during the night. The feel of her warm soft ass just made me feel all the worst, or at least all the hornier. I wanted to masturbate as my hand cupped my steaming hot crotch but I knew in the mood I was in there was no way to do it without waking Beth so I got up and decided to go to the bathroom where I could let myself go a little more.

As I quietly slipped off the bed, Beth stirred and for a moment I thought she would wake up. I waited, hoping that maybe she would find herself in a similar situation as me and maybe we could each help the other out but she just moaned a little, more of a meow than a groan. Hmmm, what was she dreaming about? She was showing no signs of consciousness so I grabbed my nightie, pulled it over me and then carefully opened the bedroom door. Peeking out into the darkened hallway, I saw it was empty except for the light coming from one of those greenish luminescent nightlights people plug into the wall outlets. At least I didn't have to turn on the hallway lights or try to make my way blindly down a dark hall.

Just as I reached the bathroom door, I heard a grunt from across the way and I saw that Tony's bedroom door was about halfway open. Although he didn't have a teddy bear nightlight or anything like that, there was more than enough moonlight streaming in through the open curtains that I could clearly make him out on the bed. Damn, he was stark naked! Any thoughts of masturbating alone in the solitude of the bathroom immediately disappeared as I stared at him through the open bedroom door.

Tony was lying on his back, his covers thrown off, unknowingly displaying his handsome nude form to anyone who might walk by. Of course, he probably never expected anyone to walk by in the first place, and even then he most likely had the covers over himself when he fell asleep, at least it appeared so from the way they had been kicked to the side. Damn, I was staring at the nude body of a sexy, hunky nineteen year old guy, the first time I'd ever seen this particular one naked.

OK, so I'm only human. Naturally my eyes went immediately to his midsection where his flaccid cock was laying over limply on a dark bed of thick pubic hair. It was just my bad luck that he wasn't having a wet dream. I'd love to have seen it all nice and hard, cum dribbling from it as he dreamed of maybe fucking me? If I was horny before, you can only imagine how I was feeling now with this temptation literally laying out in front of me!

The heck with it, my hand slipped between my legs and I started to touch myself as I leaned against the door frame. Every instinct in me was screaming for me to go in his bedroom and do something, anything, whatever I wanted - and I certainly wanted a lot. At the same time, there was still some semblance of sanity remaining inside of me that was warning me as to what a horrible risk I'd be taking. What if Beth woke up, found that I was missing, and decided to see where I'd gone off to? No doubt she would have her suspicions from the start knowing me. Catching me masturbating as I looked at him would have likely drawn a sigh from her and a tug back to her room, but at least she could handle that knowing how little it took to get me started touching myself. Besides, I would only be fantasizing about her brother, not really doing anything. However, catching me in his bedroom, doing who knows what nasty things with him, now THAT would be a totally different story.

Honestly, I wondered if our friendship, as strong as it may be, would even survive such a betrayal of her trust? When I fucked her dad it almost broke us apart but since she had fucked my dad as well, I figured we were even and so we managed to get through it. Now as for fucking her brother... after all she had stressed with me about NOT doing it, would it be the straw that broke the back of our relationship?

Tony wasn't stirring, not even a periodic snore or anything. It was as if he was unconscious or in some sort of coma. What would he have done had he known I was staring at him, standing at his doorway almost naked with my finger pushed up inside of my pussy as I imagined it was his dick inside of me, the same dick I was now staring at in the moonlight? Would he be embarrassed or turned on? Of course in my fantasies that I was dreaming at the moment, he would sit up and offer his dick to me, telling me to suck him and then have me climb on top and slip it inside of my tight wet pussy. My finger thrust up into me and I barely managed to stifle a gasp as I felt my orgasm beginning to arise with me. God, my knees felt like they were about to buckle as I stared at his dick, allowing the ebb and flow of my passion to fill me with the most incredible sensations.

God I wanted his dick in me! Oh my god, did I say I wanted his hard dick in me NOW? ` Allow me to blame my orgasm for what happened next. Like, I was feeling so hot, so GOOD, so HORNY, that even the last vestiges of my conscience and worries about Beth simply faded away without another thought. I wasn't even thinking about her anymore. I wasn't really thinking about anything for that matter.

My body was running on autopilot, reacting rather than being controlled, letting the most primal instincts take over. I was breathing hard, my hand clamped to my pussy, unwilling to release my hold of it for even a moment as it was like I was some sex puppet on a string, with someone else manipulating me, driving me to do this, forcing me in such I way I couldn't resist the temptation any longer.

Suddenly I was next to his bed, looking down at the object of my desires. I didn't even recall walking from the door to his bedside, it was like I'd been in another world for a few moments or someone - or something, had momentarily taken over my consciousness. My hand was still pressing on my pussy, my palm putting pressure on my sensitive clit, keeping me on the verge of another orgasm but not quite there yet. His dick was only inches away now. Yes, it was flaccid and small, but it bore so much promise!

I started to reach out to touch it but halfway there it was like something in me was trying to break out from wherever I'd caged it away. For a brief moment I started to pull back, knowing what I was about to do was wrong but it only lasted a second and then my pussy practically cramped I felt so horny. Really, what difference would it make so long as I didn't wake him? Who would ever know?

I lightly touched the side of his soft dick with the tips of my fingers, half expecting him to bolt up and scream or who knows what. Well, one thing I was learning about Tony - he was dead to the world when he was asleep. As my trembling fingertips lightly touched him along the length of his dick, he never even twitched - not even his dick. My fingers brushed against his thick pubic hair. It was soft yet had a coarseness like that of a soft hairbrush. I leaned over and I could actually SMELL him, the thick musky odor of a man's crotch. It was a fragrance I loved and I breathed it in deeply, savoring the heavy aroma of his sex.
